A. It just started where he -- I believe he came in to a couple of my coworkers beforehand, but once he came to me, he became a regular client of mine. And -- I don't know. I saw him pretty regularly, unless he was traveling. Seemed pretty typical, except for I would say we had a lot of -- I mean, I had conversed with most of my clients pretty often, but we got to know each other pretty well, and I thought he was great. I thought he was this perfect guy. I probably knew too much about what he had maybe done in the past, as far as -- I knew -- I knew that he was an author, I knew he was a motivational speaker, I knew he was a Navy Seal, I knew he had volunteered at the Mother Teresa House, I knew that he -- I mean, he -- to -- I mean -- I guess he -- I don't want to say that he was speaking highly of himself, but he found a way to tell me these things, and so I thought he was just wonderful.

Yeah, other than that -- I mean, I think it was pretty typical.

Q. When did -- at what point in time did you see him socially outside of the context of your workplace?

A. That wasn't until March of 2015.

Q. And can you describe how that came about?

A. So I hadn't seen him for about a six-month period, which was pretty abnormal, and I noticed it. The time before he came in -- so that would have been the summer of 2014, I knew that his wife was having a baby soon, and I had just gotten back from a vacation with my whole family, and I mentioned something about my husband not letting me go to the gym without him being with me -- and he didn't exercise, just to kind of -- I can't remember how the conversation went, but I know that in that conversation that happened in August --

Q. Do you mean your husband didn't exercise?

A. He didn't -- right. Exactly. My husband. Eric did. He asked about the trip, and I said, They had this really cool gym, but going to the gym was a little annoying at times because my husband refused to let me go by myself, and he would sit there, like, at the machine, the equipment next to me just to watch me and make sure nobody was watching me sort of thing. And I don't know that I went into that detail with him. I just said, Oh, yeah, it was really cool, except for I had my -- my husband, who didn't really exercise, kind of watching me.

And that was the first time that I felt like -- maybe the other times where he had boasted about himself a little bit -- he had brought me books -- signed books in the past that I didn't ask for. He would, like, stop in after his visit. So maybe had flirted a little bit here and there, but that was the first time that summer. After that conversation, he was like, Tell me about your husband. I mean, what does he look like? I picture him being this, like -- you know, very confident, tall, you know, handsome man. And I was like, No, my husband is an artist. He's not a big guy, he's -- he's an artist. He's an emotional guy -- you know, it's -- and then -- it just felt a little bit, like -- a little flirty.

And so after that day -- I didn't see him --

Q. So that was in the summer/fall of --

A. Summer of 2014.

Q. -- of 2014?

A. Yes. And then I didn't see him at all --

I had heard that following February that he was running for office. And then in March, he came in. And so this would have been the very beginning of March, maybe -- [redacted] birthday is March 7th, and I know it was right around then.

Q. He came in for an appointment?

A. He came in for an appointment. And that week prior to, my husband and I had just separated, and he had just moved into his brother's house -- or was sleeping at his brother's house at that time. So when I saw Eric was coming in that time, I was super nervous because he was one of -- you know, really, my only client that I had somewhat of a crush on and thought he was this great guy, and so I just felt kind of nervous having him come in, and because I thought that maybe he didn't come in to see me after that time because he felt bad flirting with me, because he was having a baby soon.

So --

Q. So what happened, like, March -- at that appointment in early March?

A. So he came in and went to go give me a hug, [redacted] it's great to see you, and he noticed I was visibly shaking. So this is the morning -- he was my first client. And he was like, Oh, you seem kind of shaky. Did you exercise? Did you not eat? And I was like, Oh, yeah, no, I didn't -- which was not the case; I was just super nervous. And he was like, Okay, well I'll be right back. And literally just took out the door -- or ran out the door and went across the street to Straub's and came back, and he had, like, a protein shake and a banana and chocolate and a water. He's like, [redacted] just sit down and talk to me before you start the appointment. I want you to be -- you know, feel good. And so we sat there and talked for a few minutes before I started his appointment and just filled him in -- I had started school again, and I had started CrossFit. And he had mentioned that he was running for office.

So that was about it. And then once we sat down and I was cutting his hair, it was really obvious that he was flirting with me, to me. [redacted] you look incredible. You look better than you've ever looked. You're glowing today. I mean, this is just crazy. Something is going on with you. You just look beautiful. And so I was shampooing his hair -- this was at the end of his appointment. And I had just finished, but he was still laying back in the shampoo bowl, and I was standing next to him and -- describing a conversation I had with one of my professors, and I noticed -- I could feel his hand on my leg. And at first I just ignored it, thinking, like, This really -- he's not really -- and then he kept doing that and staring at me while I was telling him the story. So I just kept continuing the story, and then he, like, moved his hand all the way up to my crotch, at which point I stepped back and was like, What are you doing? And he just laid back and kind of looked up at me like, I don't know, and didn't say anything.

So I just walked back to my chair, and he followed me back there. And I was blow drying, not saying anything at first, I just looked at him and said, Is that why you didn't come in for all of this time? And he just said, I don't know.

So -- and I had a coworker right next to me, so we didn't discuss what had just happened, why he felt like that. I went to go walk him up to the front, and he asked -- or [redacted] let me show you this thing over here -- he wanted to talk to me about it, and I just said, No. You're married and I'm married. Because I didn't tell him I had just separated. I didn't mention my husband at all. And he said, I know -- like, I know, but -- whatever --

I have these feeling -- I don't know. There was just so much unspoken. So I just walked him up to the front, he left.

Later on that day, he shows up dressed in his suit and everything, and he had a book for me -- his newest book -- and left it with the girls at the front because I had a client. And later on -- I believe it was that night, I received an e-mail from him, which -- the only reason why he had my e-mail was because maybe a year, year and a half prior to, he had asked me for my e-mail so he could send me book suggestions -- because that's the other thing we talked about a lot was what we were reading. But he never used it, he never e-mailed me, so I had totally forgotten he had even had it.

So that night he e-mailed me with: Hey, I -- great to see you as always, I dropped off a book for you, let me know that you got it. Also, is there a better way to reach you because sometimes it's hard to book an appointment with you. To which I thought about it before I wrote him back what I was going to write, because I knew -- he doesn't know that I'm newly separated. He also doesn't know my husband is extremely controlling. He looks through everything of mine. My phone, my Facebook, my everything he had access to, and he was obviously extremely -- paying attention to everything at this point, too, so ...

So I e-mailed him back with, Great to see you, too, but you -- here is my cell phone number -- oh, because I also didn't want to say, Well, you can't have my cell phone number, because I didn't want him to think I'm extremely angry at him, because I was at least curious. Did he have the same feelings for me? Was he going through something similar with his wife? Why did he feel like he could do that? Because he didn't know I was separated. So, anyway -- so I was at least curious. I didn't want to talk to him, but I did want him to call me. So I said, Well, here is my cell phone number; however, the best way to reach me is to still go through the salon, they'll let me know if you can't get an appointment so I can try to get you in.

Q. Okay. So that is approximately March 7th?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. When was your next contact with him after that?

A. So he called my cell phone that -- a phone call I missed because it was [redacted] birthday. I knew it had to be him because it was a D.C. number, and the only other person I knew that had a D.C. number was my friend [redacted] and it would have showed up as her name. So -- so I called him that following Friday -- so that would have been most likely on a Sunday. And then that following Friday, I called him back, and we were trying to have a conversation in code of sorts of like, I'm really -- my friend is really curious -- she's in a situation. She was really curious what happened and why, because this person -- you know, it was kind of in code. The way he was talking, I could tell he was most likely at his house because he wasn't really talking. And -- so he said, Actually -- hey, can you meet me outside of Starbucks in an alley -- oh, because he asked me where I was, and I said -- I was in the Central West End with some of my friends at --

Q. Hold on. Let me slow you down, because I'm confused by the timeline.

A. Sure.

Q. So you missed a call from him on [redacted] birthday?

A. Right. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then you called him -- I believe it was the following Friday?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And you were having this conversation in code the following Friday?

A. Correct. Yeah, I went --

Q. So that would be approximately -- it's around March 14th or so -- March 13th would have been a Friday.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. Okay. So he asked where I was, and I said I was at a restaurant in the Central West End -- a Mexican restaurant there. And he said, Well, can you meet me in a few minutes in the alleyway behind Starbucks, because I think I have a solution to your friend's problem. So I said, Okay. And I went over to kind of where he was talking about behind the Starbucks, and I was, like, shaking, because I was nervous to even be talking to him like this. And he kind of hugged me and just said, Listen, calm down, it's not -- it'll be okay. I have an idea of, you know, of a time when we can talk about this openly. Next weekend, my wife is going out of town, you can come over to my house, we can discuss these things, because I don't have -- you know, I have to get back to my house in a minute. And I said, Well, I don't know if I can do that. I knew -- my husband's birthday was that following Friday. I also knew -- I don't know how this is going to go.

Really quick, just to back up, when Eric called and I saw that missed number, I saved it under my -- I saved his number under my friend [redacted] name, worried that if he -- because anytime my husband would see a number that he didn't recognize, he would either call it or text it, just to find out who is contacting my wife. So, meanwhile, during that week, he had done what I thought he would do, which was call that number, and he told me -- he made up a story about how he had to call [redacted] -- which he never called [redacted] -- I had to call [redacted] about something, but I called the number that was on there, and Eric Greitens's voicemail picked up, so what is going on with this guy? So I also didn't know what was going to happen with that with my husband and how I would feel about meeting him the next week, so we left it at, I will call you on Friday -- I told him I will call him on Friday when I'm leaving work and let you know if I feel comfortable coming over to talk about this. He said, Fine.

So that following Friday --

Q. So this would be March 20th?

A. Twentieth. And that is -- that was [redacted] actual birthday. I called him from my salon and I said, I don't feel comfortable coming to your house, can you please meet me at Starbucks or Coffee Cartel, something -- because I had told him I don't have any time other than before work on Saturday, I come could by that week before. He asked if I could come by that weekend, and I said that would be the time.

So, anyways, I said, Can we please just meet at Coffee Cartel or Starbucks. And he said, No, [redacted] I cannot be seen in public with you. I'm running for office. People are going to be out to get me, they cannot see me with you. And I said, What do they know we're talking about? We can just meet in that room -- Coffee Cartel has a back room. No. I cannot meet you in public. I'm telling you -- especially in the Central West End, people will being looking. And I know I said, Well, I'm not even going to have too much time. And he said, Well, I live right by there, so if you come to my house, if you come in through the back door, nobody will see you, we can talk, you can get back to work, it'll be fine.

So he eased my mind enough that I said -- and I know during that conversation that we had on that Friday night -- because I said, No, I'm not comfortable being in your house -- I have never cheated on my husband at all. That was not my intention. I'm not going to come to your house -- I feel uncomfortable. And he said, I get it, but you -- I can't meet you in public. Just come to my house and we can still just talk. I said, Okay.

So that next morning, I came to his house and came in through the back door --

Q. What time was it?

A. Approximately, like, 7:00 a.m. on that Saturday.

Q. And this was before you had go to work?

A. Yeah. So I had to be at work by 7:45, 7:50.

Q. Okay.

A. So I came in through the back door, and he was waiting right there in the kitchen. And he was waiting and did this (indicating) to me as I was walking up.

Q. Can you -- can you describe --

A. Oh. Like making a shush motion.

Q. With his finger over his mouth?

A. With his finger over his mouth.

And so I just kind of stood there. And he grabbed my purse and my keys out of my hand and sat them at -- there was a countertop kind of right to his right, and he sat this down. And I watched as he went through my purse, taking stuff out and looking through my purse. And he, you know, looked at me a couple of times, basically telling me don't say anything. He searches through my purse, comes over to me and pats me down, like, head to toe -- I guess to see if I was wearing a wire. And then he went back outside, checked to see if anybody had seen me come in or whatever, and comes back inside. And at this point I'm like, Oh, my gosh. I guess this is a Navy Seal thing, maybe this is my -- that he knows my husband -- because I had told him on that Friday night, Just so you know, my husband saw that you called, and he is extremely controlling over stuff like this. I -- you know? So I thought, well, maybe he's doing this because he's worried my husband -- I don't know.

So I was shaking, I was so nervous. And he said, [redacted] it's okay, calm down. How much time do you have? I said, I only have, like, 45 minutes.

And he said, Can you come back later? What time do you get off work? And I said, No, I can't. I get off at four, but I have to go back and get my kids -- because my husband was staying at his brothers, but my kids didn't go there. I was responsible for them, if I wasn't working.

So, anyways, he said, Well, okay, I have this idea. And I thought about you so much, and I have this idea, and it's to make you feel good. I feel like you haven't been treated good in so long. And I said, Well, I want to talk to you. I want to know what is going on in your relationship. You don't even know what's going on in mine. And he said, I know, [redacted] but we don't have a whole lot of time. Have you exercised today? It was like he was on a mission, sort of, like this kind of high energy -- it was kind of high energy. And I said, No, I haven't exercised. And he said, Will you let me take you through an exercise -- like, through a workout? I just have this idea. It's going to make you feel so good and -- for whatever reason, I trusted him, thought this is okay, this is -- somehow we're going to get to this -- I don't know -- I'm going to leave here feeling more clarified that, obviously, he has feeling for me.

So he said, I have these clothes I want you to put on. He had clothes sitting on his countertop. I want you to go change into these -- take off all of your stuff -- take off everything you're wearing and put on these clothes. And I just kind of looked at him like, Oh, God, what do you have? And he said, Just trust me, just trust me. [redacted] I just want to make you feel good.

So I went -- he has, like, a little bathroom off his kitchen, and I went in there, changed into these clothes. The shirt was his -- like, a man's white T-shirt that he had cut a slit at the top, and the pants were men's pajama pants.

So I came out of the bathroom, and he said, Follow me downstairs, I'm going to show you how to do a proper pull-up. So I did what he said. And at this point, I was intrigued, definitely, because I thought for sure he really has feelings for me. He's definitely not going to take it to any -- past any point that I'm uncomfortable with because he respects me and -- you know? And maybe this is going to be some sort of hot workout. We talked about exercising quite a bit. And the fact that he asked me to take off everything and put this on, I thought, Oh, this is going to be some sort of sexy workout and -- I don't know.

So I follow him downstairs, and he says, Put your hands on the pull-up rings. And he had this gauzed tape stuff, and he starts putting it on my hands. And he was -- he kind of had this controlling sort of -- again, it was almost as if he had a -- like we were on a movie set. So he's got this whole thing down of what he was going to say or whatever, but he was super -- he was in a controlled state, which at this point was intriguing to me.

And so he takes this gauze tape and he puts it around my hands, and then he tells -- or then he takes a blindfold and puts a blindfold on me. And then he said, First, before we start a workout, you have to be hydrated and puts water in his mouth and tries to spit it in my mouth, at which point I realized he's trying to kiss me, but I don't even want to kiss him. So I spit it out, and he's like -- oh, sorry.

Q. I'm sorry. Have you said anything to him?

A. I haven't said anything.

Q. Okay.

A. I honestly was, like, in shock, because I was -- I was intrigued, but I'm also -- how -- I'm not even talking to him. I'm not -- we're not doing anything I want to do right now, but I'm intrigued enough and I'm letting him and I trust him -- I don't know. No, I'm not talking at all at this point.

Q. Okay.

A. So I just spit it out. He does it and he's like, You're not going to be a bad girl, are you? Tries to do it again, to which I just let it dribble out, because I didn't even want to kiss him. So then he starts kissing me down my neck and he starts kissing kind of like down to my chest. And he takes the shirt and he rips it open. And then he commented -- I have [redacted] from having my kids, and he commented -- that was the only time that he broke character was -- he was like, What happened here on your stomach? Other than that, it was pretty much like he was in character, so -- anyways, he starts kissing down my stomach and gets to my pants, and he pulls down my pants, and then I hear him kind of, like, step back -- take a step back and I hear -- I can hear like a (indicating), like a cell phone -- like a picture, and I can see a flash through the blindfold.

And -- so, anyways, he says, You're not going to mention my name. Don't even mention my name to anybody at all, because if you do, I'm going to take these pictures, and I'm going to put them everywhere I can. They are going to be everywhere, and then everyone will know what a little whore you are.

So I just stood there, because I was like, What the fuck? He doesn't have feelings for me, he just wants to fuck me. So, anyways, I was completely silent. I didn't say anything, especially -- so I didn't even -- my husband traveled for a living, and I didn't even let him get pictures of me. So I just stood there quietly, and then he came up close to me and he said, Are you going to say anything? Are you going to mention my name? Of course, in my head, I was screaming, Fuck, all I want to do is tell people right now. I'm dying. This is the most embarrassing thing that's ever happened to me. So I just didn't answer at all, and then he spanked me and said, Are you going to mention my name? And I said -- I just gritted through my teeth and I said, No. And he's like, Good -- now that's a good girl and was, like, back in his -- whatever -- you know, the thing that he had in his mind, the thing he was going to do with me. And he comes around front and starts kissing down my stomach again. And as soon as he got, like, low on me, I just started freaking out and I started ripping down my hands. I was like, Get me out of here. I'm not ready for this. I don't want this. I don't want this. And then he stood up and started helping me take down this tape. He was like, [redacted] [redacted] calm down, it's okay. It's okay. I was like, No, I'm leaving, I'm leaving. And I start walking out -- or going to go up the stairs, and he grabs me and like -- like, in a bear hug and was like, Shh, shh, it's okay, calm down, calm down, and, like, lays me down on this ground in the basement.

Q. Lays you down as in -- did he --

A. Not, like, hard, like -- I mean, I was like a puddle of -- no. I just, like, was crying.

So he, like, hugged me, kind of like laid down with me. So he was laying there and I was laying next to him just crying -- like, uncontrollably crying. And he was like, Shh, shh, it's okay, it's okay. That's all he was really saying at this point. And he was trying to, like, fondle my body.

Q. Are you still crying at this point?

A. I'm bawling my eyes out. Yeah, so I'm still crying. And then he's like -- I can tell he's still, like, in it -- he's still in this -- in this thing that he's got in his mind of whatever he's doing, and he's still, like, messing with me. He starts undoing his pants, and he takes his penis out and puts it, like, near where my face is. And I'm like -- so this guy literally just wants me for this, and this is all he wants, and then he'll let me -- because at this point, too, I also know I have to be at work, and he's not going to let me leave, because he's obviously still horny. So I gave him oral sex at this point. And this -- and this -- and he finished. He did exactly what I thought he would do. He was just like, Okay. I literally got up -- he didn't stop me from leaving. I walked upstairs, want into the bathroom, got dressed, and left and went to work.

So I grabbed my purse as I was leaving the door, and it wasn't until I got to work that I realized, I don't have my freaking keys -- because I always put my keys inside of my purse, and -- so all day long, I just kept thinking, I don't know what to do. He's told me I cannot call him. He obviously will freak out if I call him. I have to get my keys. I literally can't leave. I can't tell anybody else to go get them because then somebody is going to know.

Q. When you were leaving and gathering your stuff in your purse, you previously testified he took everything out of your purse.

A. And then he put it back in.

Q. Were your keys in your purse when you walked in the door?

A. No. I had them in my hand.

Q. Okay. And then you sat them down?

A. I didn't. He took them from me. He took my keys and he took my purse as he did that, and then he sat them down, and then he just went through my purse and he put that stuff back in there.

Q. Okay. So you're back at work and you realize that you don't have your keys?

A. Right. So all day long I just pondered what to do. At this point, obviously, I haven't told anybody. I just kind of made it through work that day and decided -- just made the ultimate decision -- because he never brought them back up there -- because that's what I thought, maybe he'll find some sort of excuse to bring an envelope to me or something.

So at the end of the day, I just make the decision to walk down there. I knew he knew what time I got off work because he asked me earlier in hope that he would be, you know, waiting or whatever, which he was. I went in through -- or I walked up to the back door, and he was already in the kitchen and opened the door and said, You forgot your keys. I said, Yeah. And I was obviously pissed. And he said, You're angry. And I said, I'm really angry. I'm so angry. That is not at all what I wanted to do, Eric. And he said, I know, I know, I just -- I kept thinking about you. And I said, No, you took a freaking picture of me. My husband doesn't even have a picture of me. You took a picture of me. And he said, I know, [redacted] but you have to understand, I'm running for office, and people will get me, and I have to have some sort of thing to protect myself. And I thought about you, though, and I felt bad, so I erased it. To which -- you know, I didn't believe him, but at least he, like, acknowledged that it was messed up and had a reason why and -- so then I -- he said -- I said, Yeah, but I wanted to come here to talk to you. And he said, Well, ask me any question now, I'll tell you. To which -- I mean, that wasn't really the case, but because -- I don't know how many questions

I asked him. And, really, all he -- about his relationship, what is going on? What made you feel like you could do that, because I feel like if you were in a happy marriage, you wouldn't be doing that, you know? He just said, Well, my wife had a baby, we're not really intimate now, and that was really the only answer I got. Not that they were separated, not that -- you know, really, anything else, that was the only reason he gave me.

And we talked some, and he was back to kind of being that guy that I knew from the salon. It was extremely charismatic, very -- kept looking at me straight in my eyes and engaged -- like, I felt like he cared about me. He kept trying to hug me and touch me and kind of fondle me, meaning, like, maybe hugging me and trying to put his hand up my shirt. And at this point, it -- I was really kind of mixed, because I hated him from earlier, but I also loved the man that I knew before, so ...

I stayed there for about 30 minutes, maybe 45 minutes having this type of a conversation, having a calming, soothing -- and his excuse was, I fantasized about you for so long that, you know, I had this idea, and I thought you would really enjoy it. So whenever I went to leave -- and he and I both agreed we wouldn't see each other under these circumstances again -- because I told him, I know I'm in a vulnerable state, my husband and I just separated. I don't know what's going to happen with that, I just know that I'm -- I don't know. I just feel so uncomfortable with all of this. I just said, I'm not ready for this.

So I left that day, and he -- with the understanding that we wouldn't see each other like this, but he would still come in and get a haircut. And that night I was supposed to be going -- I was supposed to hang out with a friend of mine -- my friend [redacted] And she called me, and I said, I can't go anywhere, can you please just come to my house? She said, Yeah. What's going on? I said, Just come to my house, please.

So she came over that night, and I told her what had happened, and she was just -- I couldn't quit crying. She laid with me in my bed. I couldn't fall asleep. So -- and her response was like, [redacted] that's -- this is really messed up. And I didn't even -- at this point, I didn't necessarily want her or anybody to think bad things about him, because it was so embarrassing to me, too. I didn't want him to not want me. It was so embarrassing.

So I know -- the few friends that I told during this period of time, I just -- I didn't want to believe what they saw, you know, looking outside -- that wasn't -- I didn't feel the way that I feel now about it until way later. I was way too embarrassed to think about it. So I didn't sleep -- I didn't sleep. I called my friend [redacted] I believe, the next day and talked to her about it and told her, I can't -- all I can think about is my husband. I feel so awful. I'm sick about it. I feel like I have to tell him. And she's like, You know how he is, [redacted] he's going to freak out. He freaks out if you flirt with somebody. He will really lose his mind. And I'm just like, I know, but I'm not going to sleep if I don't tell him. I can't quit thinking about him. Because now, of course, he seems really great to me.

So --

Q. Let me pause. You mean -- "he seems really great to me." You mean your husband?

A. Yeah.

Q. Your ex-husband now? To him you're referring?

A. Yes.

Q. And so you called [redacted] the next morning and you told her what had happened the previous day?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. That would be Sunday when you called her?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So you had the conversation with [redacted] -- I'm sorry for interrupting. I want to go back where we were.

A. Sure.

Q. You had the conversation with [redacted] She said, Your now ex-husband is so jealous, what are you going to do? You said, I have to talk to him. I'm not going to be able to sleep?

A. (Witness nods.)

Q. Okay. And then?

A. And so another --

Q. Were you still separated at the time from your ex-husband?

A. Yes. He was still living at his brother's. So the day before I saw Eric, on [redacted] birthday -- on the weeks -- in the very beginning of our separation -- I mean, even right away, he just kept pushing me, my husband, asking me, Does this mean you want a divorce? You have to tell me, do you want to divorce? He just kept pushing it and pushing it. We had that conversation I don't know how many times -- a dozen, maybe, between the very beginning of March -- it could have been the very end of February, whatever -- it was about a week before I saw Eric, I know that, until now -- this is March 20th, [redacted] birthday. When I got home from work that night, knowing I had just had that conversation with Eric, that I'm at least going to talk to him in the morning about how I have feelings for him or he has feeling for me or whatever, I get home -- and that night, [redacted] was going out for [redacted] birthday with some [redacted] friend, and he looked at me and said, I need to know tonight. Do you want a divorce or not? And I said, Fine, if you have to know tonight, yes, I want a divorce.

Q. This was on the 20th?

A. On the 20th. So the 21st, I see Eric, now a mess, as far as emotional -- I have no clue what's going on. And the 25th, I believe -- 24th -- 24th or 25th, at this point, I was going on almost no sleep, other than a few hours of sleep total over a four-day period. I make the decision that I have to tell [redacted]

MS. LAUER: I'm sorry. Who?

MS. [redacted]: I made the decision that I have to tell my husband.

A. So I told him, I have to tell you something, it's really sensitive. Can you meet me so we can talk about it? And he said, Yeah, we can meet in the parking lot -- we were at a parking lot by our house, and he asked me to get in his car, and I proceeded to tell him everything, except for -- I didn't tell him that Eric called me a whore. There's -- by that point, there is no way I can tell him that, because I thought -- even me just telling him anything -- he's gritting his teeth the whole time, like -- I am so angry. When my husband gets angry, he's really angry. And I know he's so jealous anyway, so -- and there's no way -- by the time I got to the point where even I gave him oral sex, I could not tell him at that point. Eventually, I did tell him -- because my husband and I got back together in July, and I told him, you know, everything.

And so after I finished that conversation, his response was, A, you know, I'm going to get this guy one day, I'm going to get him. And I just kept saying, Please, you cannot you can't tell anybody.

Don't tell anybody. Please, please, please, please, don't. And, also, after that day, it was, I need to get an apartment. I'm going to get an apartment, you're -- [redacted] is going to get an apartment, because -- I mean, you're exactly what I thought. You're a home-wrecker -- because he kept saying, you know, exactly what he knew would get to me. Probably one of the biggest things I felt so guilty about was I did go into a married woman's -- I went into a married woman's home. So he just kept saying that throughout this whole -- from that point forward was, you're a home-wrecker, you're a horrible person. You went to a married woman's home -- because he knew that -- even though we had newly separated, they were definitely married. So it was, you're a home-wrecker, you're a whore, you've cheated, you -- you know, I have to get an apartment, and we'll meet with a mediator.

So Eric came in for an appointment again maybe like a week and a half or two weeks later. And when he came in, the first thing, of course, he says is, You didn't tell anybody, did you? And I was just like, Oh, no, knowing that now -- telling my friends is one thing, because they wouldn't break my trust, but telling now my soon-to-be ex-husband, who hates me, hates him, is going to do God knows what, you know, now this on my mind. So I just said, No, no. And he was like, Good, because I have to see you again. I cannot quit thinking about you. You're on my mind all the time. You're the most incredible woman -- you know, just complimenting, complimenting -- please tell me when I can see you again. Which, to me, felt so much better than, Okay, yeah, he doesn't think of me as a whore, he doesn't think of me as this thing that he just wants to get off with.

So he asked when was the next time he could see me. And from this point forward -- so this would have been early May, you know, maybe -- early to mid-May. I saw him a total of, really, five times that were consensual -- or wait, no -- I guess three times. One of the times is the first time, and then I saw him -- so the next time I agreed to --

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Okay. So let me back up. You were not talking about what happened on March 21st?

A. Correct.

Q. Now you're talking about what happened afterwards?

A. Afterwards.
Q. And you said three other times?
A. Correct.
Q. Okay. Can you describe -- can we talk about each of those?
A. Sure.
Q. And sort of the -- just the general -- what happened in your relationship with Eric?
A. So kind of forward. So I meet -- here's March, and then I do his hair. We've agreed that, Okay, maybe the next time -- because he said, Could you come in early the next time I come in for an appointment to see me, and that way we can actually talk alone and whatever? So that next time I saw him was at the salon. I didn't typically -- the front desk girls would typically get there first, unless you had a client who had to be there early. So that day I did get the keys from the salon and he showed up maybe 30 minutes before his appointment, and that -- he would have been the first appointment of that day. So that would have been the next time that I saw him in more of a sexual sense or more of a social sense. When he showed up, I consensually kissed him -- so that would have been like the first time that I was -- that was totally my decision. He came in -- at that time we stayed clothed and everything, but, essentially, made out. And then he -- my client -- my coworkers showed up, I did his hair, and he left.

And then my guess is -- this would have been three, four weeks later --

Q. So we're -- now we're --
A. In May.
Q. May? Okay.
A. I was sitting outside of the salon. There was a fountain outside of [redacted], and I was sitting out there reading in between clients, and he drove by and stopped his car and said, [redacted] come here. And he said, You just look incredible sitting there. You know, I want to see you so bad. What are you doing tonight, because I actually have the house tonight. Would you come over? And even though my husband had an apartment, the kids never saw the apartment. They never went there. They would stay with me every night, so I knew I couldn't be home late, because my husband was staying with the kids at my house until I got home, but I said maybe I could come by for a little bit. So after I left work that night, I went over to his house --
Q. What time was that? Five o'clock?

A. No. Probably 6:30, seven at the latest. Because usually I worked until six or 6:30.

And then I went down to his house, came in through the back way again. That time would have been -- I consensually partook in both of us -- essentially, oral sex. We were in his bathroom the whole time, pretty much. I wasn't there for a super long time. I don't know, maybe 45 minutes, an hour. I don't know. Left. There was nothing really crazy that happened that time or anything. And -- so then the next time that I saw him would have been -- wouldn't have been until, like, the end of June.

So he had come in to the salon at some point, maybe early June, mid-June and said his wife would be out of town for a week, and he wanted to see me during that week. And so on that Saturday, I went over to his house. I went -- I went out with a few of my girlfriends after work and then went over to his house afterwards. So this -- my guess would have been 10:00 p.m., kind of later. And at first was consensual, you know -- he has a spare bedroom upstairs and took me up there, and we were, like, making out at this point. My guess is at least seminude at this point. And he looks at me and asked me, [redacted] have you been intimate with anybody? And I said, What do you mean? And he said, Well, since you and I started -- because he knew that I had been separated from my husband. And I said, Well, I slept with my husband -- because I knew at some point I had. And he slapped me across my face, just like hard to where I was like, What? Eric, what in the heck? You're married. Why would -- what do you mean? And he just said, No. Like, that was -- you're mine. This is -- what do you mean you slept with your husband? You are not supposed to be sleeping with him, you know? And I said, I think you're screwed up from being in the Navy or -- this is -- I grew up with a dad who was 0 percent physical with me ever. That was just so bizarre to me, you know?

So then -- I know we laid there and talked about him being in the Navy and what happened there. Because I know we talked about -- there was a bomb that went off -- I don't know. That was pretty much our conversation after that, because it was just bizarre.

Q. Let me back up. How -- you said he hit you hard.
A. Yeah, not like a playful, Oh, you silly; it was like, You're mine, what are you doing?

Q. With intent to harm or -- I mean -- I'm trying --

A. Just, like -- sure.

Q. I'm trying to get something other than just hard. Super hard? Did it knock you down?

A. It just swung my face.

Q. Okay.

A. I didn't have a bruise from it.

Q. Was it open -- an open hand?

A. Open hand. Uh-huh.

Q. Right hand?

A. So -- I don't know. That's a good question. I'm not positive.

Q. Okay. So you talked, and then what happened?

A. I left that night, and I know I saw him one more time that week. And at -- I believe it was -- so if that was on Saturday, on Sunday he called me and told me, I want to be able to talk to you this week. I got, like, a throwaway phone or, like, a burner phone to be able to call you. Because at this point, we really didn't have much communication outside of the salon. So he got this phone that he could call me on, I believe, on that Sunday. And I know we talked a few times that week, but then I saw him one more time, which was in the morning before work. He asked if I would come over and work out with him. And I did that, came over -- we did exercise and went through, like, a workout, and then at the end of it, then it turned sexual in nature. And at first it was fine, and then we were in a position that would have been as if we were having sex, like doggy style, but we didn't ever have intercourse throughout all of the times that I saw him. So he was essentially, like, fingering me and -- but in that position, and out of nowhere, just, like, kind of smacked me and grabbed me and shoved me down on the ground. And I instantly just started bawling and was just like, What is wrong with you? What is wrong with you? And I just laid there crying while he was just like, [redacted] you're fine, you're fine. You know, not really -- I think he was just -- I don't know. Maybe that's normal, but, to me, it's not.

So after that, I got ready and left and went to work. And it was that day that at the end of the day, I went to leave work, and he was waiting outside of The [redacted] and he said, I need to talk to you, you have got to follow me, there's an issue. And I said, Okay. So I got in my car and pulled out, and his car was right outside of the garage, and I followed him to -- off of Manchester by -- there was, like, a Kmart by there. Pulled into a parking lot by him, and he asked me to get into his car. And he said, Somebody has e-mailed my wife today. I think it's this Democratic operative that lives in my neighborhood. And, of course, in my mind, I'm like, it's my husband, I know he's been following me. I know -- I've seen people who he's had following me. A couple of his -- a friend and his friend's brother, you know, as well.

But, anyways, he says, I'm going to fly out. I'm going to go see her, convince her. You know, I -- what I've told her -- and I -- is that you were running in the neighborhood. You came in through the front door to get a -- you came up to the door to get a book for your daughter, and then I gave you a tour of the house, and then you went out the back way. I guess, just in case somebody saw me leaving the back way. So this is the story you're going to tell if anybody asks you.

And so I said, Well -- and so at this point, he finally agreed, Yes, you know, I can't see you like this, but I still want to come in and get my haircut. I said, No, do not come into the salon.

This is not fair to me, this is not fair to your wife, just leave me alone.

So I know he called me one more time that next morning early before he got on a flight to go to see Sheena to convince her that all of this was a lie and that this was nothing. And he told me he was throwing away the phone and that was, you know, going to be it.

So that following week, my husband and I had a -- our mediator appointment and -- to discuss the details of our divorce, and my husband was extremely kind to me for the first time since, really, all of our separation had started, and he's like, I don't want this divorce, she's the one that wants it, I'm really sad about it, I love her -- you know? And so after that we discussed, could we give it one last try? I told him, I will not be seeing Eric ever again, I know I won't. And so we decided, yes, we would give it one last try. And that's when we had conversation after conversation after conversation about what did I do with him? When did I see him? How did I see him? What exactly happened?

And in October, Eric came in -- or he was walking by the salon and came in to the front desk and said, you know, Does [redacted] have anything available today? Well, her client after this one canceled if you, you know, want that appointment. So as soon as he sat down, I was like, Eric, you have got to stop. I'm back with my husband. And he's like, What? You cannot be back with this guy? What do you mean? You haven't told him anything, have you? And I was just like, No, but you have to leave me alone. I mean, what about your wife? And he's like, She doesn't think anything. Everything is fine. She doesn't think anything. So I said, Well, okay, just please don't -- don't come in, just leave me alone. And in that conversation, I felt like there was enough things said -- like, [redacted] you're on my mind all the time, that I thought, he's not going to leave me alone.

When I got home that day, I promised my husband if I ever saw him or talked to him, I would tell him. So I told my husband, Listen, he came in today. And my husband flipped out, got super angry with me, How dare you even cut his hair. And he said, He's going to continue to do this because he wants to maintain some control over you, just in case. And I said -- and part of me thought, regardless, I do think that's true, so I decided to write that e-mail and sent him an e-mail just saying, Please think of everyone involved and just leave me alone. Don't come in at all. And then that was it. I never saw him again.

Q. So that was October of 2015?

A. Yes.

Q. And you have not since seen Eric Greitens?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Did Eric Greitens or anyone associated with him pay you or give you anything of value --

A. No.

Q. -- in exchange for -- let me finish my question, okay?

A. Oh.

Q. Did Eric Greitens or anyone associated with him pay you or give you anything of value in exchange for staying quiet about this?

A. No.

Q. Did Eric Greitens or anyone associated with him ever offer you anything of value in exchange for staying quiet about this?

A. No.

Q. Your ex-husband, I believe -- tell me if this is correct -- is the one who turned the audio recording over to the media; is that correct?

A. Yes. So after that day, he kept saying, I'm going to ruin this guy, I'm going to ruin this guy. And it wasn't until October -- the reason why we for sure went to get a divorce is not simply because of this. When we got back together, my husband admitted to sleeping with five women -- with five women from the time that we first got separated, two of them being before his birthday, and then -- the only reason why -- the only reason why he admitted to it is because I met one of the women when we first got back together, and when I met her, I asked him if he had slept with her -- and he thought maybe I had asked her, because I actually spoke with her. So he admitted, yes, I did, but you are the one that wanted to separate, this is your fault. So -- and I agreed. You know, I was the one who asked him to go to his brother's, I am the one. And, plus, I felt so bad for him for what I had started with Eric. So that was fine. And then he admitted that following week that he slept with five women and -- but I just made the ultimate decision that if we're going to make this work, I can absolutely look past this. This was when we were separated, and I'm hoping for his forgiveness, too.

And then in October when I told him that Eric had come in, he told me, I still can't be married to you. Even after I sent the e-mail, he said, I still can't be married to you. This is way too -- too much. And so at that point, I just said, Okay. I am so tired. I am so tired of being shamed and hearing how horrible I am. Okay. And so then he kind of freaked out thinking, Oh, my gosh, it's really going to happen. So he said, Well, wait. I need to talk to you. You were right -- I had been asking him in that maybe month and a half or -- so just saying, Is there another woman involved? Because I had met a woman who he worked with, and I caught them talking alone in August at a concert that he had. And I asked him if she was one of the five women, and he said no, she's married, she has two kids, it's not her. And I said, Okay, I just knew something was weird. And so I kept asking him, Are you sure none of these other women are still involved? You aren't talking to any of them? Because he had access to everything in my phone -- he had everything, but I was not allowed access to his stuff because it was me who wanted the separation -- whatever.

So in October he says, Yes, there is another woman involved right now, and I did sleep with one of the five again -- the one who I met. After I met her, after we were back together, they slept together again at some point while we were back together. And then there was another woman involved, which I believe to be the woman who he is still currently with. So she ended up leaving her husband -- it was just such a mess at that point. I'm like -- so now there's this woman, there's -- you slept with somebody else after we were back together -- so much. No, I -- I can't do it. This is too much. And then that's when he started with, Well, you're the one who wanted a divorce, this is your fault, you asked for this. Just wait, because your good reputation, [redacted] your outstanding reputation is going to be ruined and so is Eric Greitens'. You guys are going to go down because I have proof of it. And that was the first time he admitted he had proof, but I didn't see it; he just said it.

Q. So that was in October of 2015?

A. Yes.

Q. That -- his name is [redacted]

A. Yes.

Q. [redacted] started threatening you --

A. Yes.

Q. -- with the proof -- let me start over so we have a clear record.

In October 2015, [redacted] started threatening you with disclosure of the proof that he had regarding you and Eric Greitens; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And how did he go about threatening you with that and for how long? Was it a one-time deal?

A. No. So it would be random texts that he would send saying, you know, You ruined your kids' family. You have coming to you what you deserve. I can't believe people don't see behind, you know, what you've done. Just wait, this -- you know, when Eric was running for office, you know, multiple times he would say things to me like, you know, If this POS gets into office, this is absolutely insane, he doesn't deserve this, just wait. And I just kept hoping he -- because I would just ignore it. I never would say, Well, you did this, too, or whatever, because at this point, I really just don't want to talk about it, I just want to move on, and I'm hoping he really did not record me.

So then right around the election, I had multiple people -- nobody came to me -- nobody from the media, nobody from the political world came and said, Tell me about your story, we want to run a story. Nobody did that. [redacted] started claiming to friends and family, anybody who would listen, You don't even know the story that's trying to come out, but I'm protecting [redacted] I've paid thousands of dollars to protect her. He also told me the same thing. You deserve it, but I'm -- I'm protecting you, even though you don't deserve it, [redacted] -- even though I don't deserve his protection.

And, again, nobody came up to me, nobody said anything until after the election. I had multiple people tell me that Koster's campaign had the information but decided not to use it, and that [redacted] had tried to get them to use it but refused to give them that tape at that point because that would prove that it was him, and also refused to go on record saying anything. And so at this point, I was just relieved that no matter how hard he was trying to hurt me, that somehow it wasn't going to happen until this past December. That was when the first reporter came in -- I'm in a different salon where I have essentially -- think of, like, a tiny home salon. It's like a little room. And this woman comes in -- she had booked a fake appointment under a fake name, and she came in and announced that she wasn't there for a haircut, that she was working on a story about the governor. And I just started crying. I said, No. No, you do not understand how traumatic this whole thing is. I cannot go there. I have kids. My ex-husband is so, so vindictive, he wants to hurt me so bad. Please do not run this story. She said, Well, I understand, but there are some allegations. Some of these rumors are pretty disturbing. And I said, I understand that, but my ex-husband is so, so evil with this stuff. He just wants to hurt me. Please, please do not do this to me. I have children. I'm in school full time, I work full-time -- my life is so busy. So she was just after -- the only thing that I confirmed or denied was -- she said, There's a rumor that you got paid off, and I said, Well, that's not true. The rest of it, I didn't confirm or deny; I just essentially said, Please, I don't want to do this. And she said, Well, there are rumors of other women. And I said, Well, tell them -- that's one thing. If you find these other women, you can contact me, and I will talk to them, and that's how I left it. I said, Thank you for, you know, respecting me -- because she seemed as though she was not going to do this story at all. She -- I gave her a hug. She left my salon, and I called my friend [redacted] who had known about the situation since the very beginning. She was one of my best -- she was the one that I saved his number under from D.C., and she's an attorney. And I said, [redacted] this woman just came in and I'm freaking out. And she said, She's not going to run a story without your word, [redacted] please, just don't say anything, and it'll be okay. You'll be fine.

And then she -- that woman continued to call me throughout that month, and I didn't answer ever. I received other missed phone calls. I never talked to anybody else. And then the day before it aired, I got a missed phone call from her, and she said on my voicemail, [redacted] I've just heard a recording with your voice on it and your ex-husband, and I know other media people have, too, and somebody is going to run this story, so we really want your word. And I called [redacted] and I said, [redacted] -- because [redacted] had asked me, They're not going to run it -- do they have any proof? And I said, Well, [redacted] has threatened me that he has this tape, but I can't see him doing it because then it goes against his story that he's claimed to everybody that he's just trying to protect me, so I don't think he would use it, if he even had it. So when I called her and said they have this tape, [redacted] said, Just don't say anything. I will call her back. For all you know, it's really jumbled, you know, you can't even hear it. Because -- who knows. Maybe he had it in his pocket. So then the next day, she called -- she called the -- Lauren back. Because the reporter had texted me saying, Did you get the voicemail?

So [redacted] called her back and just said, Listen, my client was not aware of being taped. Where did you get this from? And she said at first she was not telling her, and then she said, Well, I got it from the ex-husband. And she said, Listen, she does not want any part of this. Please, do not do this. And she just said, I know, but somebody is going to run this story, we just want her word, to which she just said, No comment, no comment. And then three minutes before it aired, that woman, Lauren -- called [redacted] my friend, and just said, We're going live with it. He admitted to the affair. So that was the first time I ever heard that. I asked my -- my kids were in my room, because I sleep with them sometimes, and I asked them to leave the room because I was going to watch an adult show. And then I heard it -- I heard it for the first time then, because I was hoping to God that it didn't really exist. And he said in that interview that he had to do -- my ex-husband -- because his daughter was being -- getting calls, which was so untrue. It was my daughter. I had a daughter when I was in college the first time, like, three years before I married [redacted] and [redacted] is the one who got the missed call. She had no clue what it was about. She thought it was about [redacted] neighbor, because they asked for [redacted] about an incident, and she just passed along the message; it wasn't a big deal. And then in the morning -- she was already asleep when that came on, and in the morning -- the morning after, I went downstairs and had to wake her up and tell her about everything and what she might see on TV about her mom.

So -- this just makes it so complicated, because I have -- it's not somebody who -- I didn't really know that wanted to put this information out there; it's the father of my kids. So ...

Q. I have four more questions for you, and then I think we'll take a break.

The first three are questions I feel like I have to ask because there have been so many rumors swirling about, and the first two relate to something I think you've already answered but I want to follow up with the particulars.

Are you driving a new car?

A. No. I have a 2009 van.

Q. Okay. So you're not driving around in a Range Rover paid for by someone unknown?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Do you know where that -- is there any, like --

A. I know where that came from. So my current boyfriend just got a new job as a -- he's an [redacted] that will be traveling, and -- his work car that he got, before it came in -- or a company car, before it came in, he had two rental cars, one of them being an Infinity, like, bigger car -- I don't know what it is -- and one of them being a Tahoe. And so on two occasions I picked up my kids -- and this just happened. He just got the job in November, and he didn't get his current company car until maybe the beginning of February or something.

Anyway, so I showed up to pick up my kids from my ex-husband in both of those cars, because as soon as this broke, my boyfriend said, Take my cars, do not drive your van -- because I was followed in my van by reporters. And so my sister-in-law went to go pick up my nephew from my ex-husband's house and said, Hey, just so you know, [redacted] says that you have some new car and that it's fishy how you got it. And I said, Well, no this is [redacted] rental car. But he never asked me about it, never -- you know, just to see, Hey did you get a car or whatever. The next thing I know, that's a rumor that reporters had asked Scott about.

Q. So the second question is about a rumor, and that is, Did you just remodel your house?

A. So I did kind of update my kitchen. I painted the cabinets and put new hardware on the cabinets. I did get new countertops and ...

Q. Did that cost, like, $200,000?

A. No. It cost a couple of thousand dollars, but I paid for it with my own money.

Q. Okay. The third question is of a relationship with Chris Koster. That is another thing that is bandying about the Capitol, and I feel like I have to ask you the question. Did you have any relationship with Chris Koster?

A. Zero percent. I mean, he was my client. He was my client, that is true, but nothing outside of that. He's like a father to me.

Q. And then the last question I want to ask, and then we'll take a break, is, other than the people in this room, and without revealing whether you spoke to a grand jury, who else have you spoken with about your relationship with Eric Greitens?

Now, let me start with examples, because you said [redacted].

A. Yes.

Q. And what is [redacted] last name?

A. [redacted], [redacted].

Q. And you said [redacted]

A. Yes. [redacted]

Q. And you said [redacted]

A. Yes.

Q. [redacted]?

A. Yes.

Q. But she was your lawyer?

A. Yes.

Q. She's a friend and a lawyer?

A. Correct. And she acted as my attorney in the very beginning until Scott took over for me.

Q. Okay. So other than the people in this room, without revealing whether you spoke to the grand jury, is there anyone else with whom you spoke --

A. Prior to? My friend [redacted]. That would have been a couple of weeks later.

Q. [redacted]; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And that week -- and she's been identified in something we received from your ex-husband. Of course, there's your ex-husband?

A. Yes. So that was it at that time. He had told -- he sat my family down -- at some point [redacted] when I was -- I took a vacation for the first time ever by myself. I went to Tucson to go hiking in early June, just to get away from this stuff, and he sat my family down while I was gone and told them everything -- told my mom, my sisters, my dad.

Q. When was that?

A. Early June.

Q. 2016 or --

A. 2015. He told friends, friends of friends, anybody who would listen what ...

Q. Hold on. He told your family?

A. He sat my family down when I was out of town and told them.

And then -- so at that time, that was all I had told. None of my coworkers -- [redacted] was my coworker, but none of them -- not even -- I have a really close friend that I didn't tell. She didn't know anything until this came out. She called me that night -- I mean, most people knew it was me because of my voice, but the only other people I told was -- right after the election, I was at a dinner with a group of, like, six girls -- one of them was turning 40, and all of the girls except for one are Republican and had voted for him, and they were talking political stuff. I was staying silent. At this point, they were talking about all of these women who were complaining about Trump, they're just babies -- I mean, all of these -- why did they care? And I don't know, it just got to me. I started crying. They said, [redacted] what's wrong? I said, Guys, I had something happen that I'm actually sensitive to Trump's comment about grabbing them -- grabbing women by the pussy whenever you have power like that. And they were like, What do you mean? And so I sat there at, like, a fancy restaurant with all of these women crying with them, telling them what had happened and -- you know, You guys do not ever tell anybody, please. And they all were like,

Why did you let us vote for him, you know? I said, because I don't want anybody to know, please.

So other than them, that was it. And then -- now I've just -- obviously, like I said, a lot of people have asked me about it because they knew my voice and they've heard from -- I mean, everybody, I feel like, knows.

Q. Okay.

MR. BARNES: Let's take a break and go off the record.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: Thank you. After having taken a short break, I'm going to let vice chairman ask some questions now. And just so you can be aware of what our order is going to be here, we're going to go with our vice chair, ranking member --

MS. LAUER: Senior.

MR. BARNES: Senior, in terms of legislative experience, and then we're going to go in order of legislative age here. I'm the chairman of the said committee.

So Representative Phillips.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PHILLIPS:

Q. Don Phillips. And is it all right if I call you [redacted]

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. [redacted] you'll be pleased to know my questions will be somewhat brief. I think you have been very open, and I appreciate that, and I'm sure the other committee members do. So I don't mean to rehash some of those details that aren't comfortable for you, obviously, and -- I want to kind of cut to the chase as to what we're really doing here.

So one thing I wanted to ask about was the picture. Do you know absolutely for a fact that he took a picture -- I know he admitted taking your picture.

A. Yes?

Q. And did you just see the flash or what -- what did he use? His phone? Was that it?

A. Yes. I could hear it and I could see the flash.

Q. You could hear it click?

A. Yeah. It sounded like a cell phone click -- you know, like a (indicating).

Q. Okay. And was there a flash to you?

A. Yes. I could see it through the blindfold.

Q. Okay. Then as far as you know, if there is a picture now, they're going to have to get it, like, forensically, they'll have to pull it up -- or -- do you think this phone is gone, he destroyed that particular phone, or would anybody have access to it?

A. That's a good question. I don't know. I would assume that he's probably gotten rid of it by now.

Q. Okay. All right.

A. But I'm not sure.

Q. Okay. Was there ever any attempt to blackmail -- I know what -- you testified what was said to you, but was there actually ever any attempt after that for any kind of blackmail or anything?

A. No. He would just ask me, Have you told anybody?

Q. Okay.

A. And it was just -- to me, that was kind of an understanding of, You're not going to tell anybody otherwise something will happen.

Q. Okay. Then -- since then, has there been any contact from him to call you and say, [redacted] this has all broken down, this has all broke in the media, my job as governor could be in trouble, you need to keep your mouth shut? Has he ever called and said anything like that --

A. No.

Q. -- since the news broke?

A. No. His attorney reached out right after my attorney's name was released -- reached out to my attorney and essentially said, What does your client want out of this? And my attorney said, She wants this to not be the case. She doesn't want to be a part of this. She's a mother -- and he said, Well -- yeah -- I mean, that was the general conversation, was, essentially, Tell me what does she want out of this.

Q. So by "what does she want," did you interpret that to mean if you said, You know, I can think of a quarter million reasons why I can keep my mouth shut; did you interpret it as a question leading down that road, like what does she want, meaning monetary?

A. I took it more to mean does she want to fight my client on this?

Q. Okay.

A. Or is she just going to remain quiet and it's going to go away?

Q. Okay. So the tone -- you spoke directly to the attorney; is that right?

A. I did not.
Q. Oh, you did not?
A. Right. His attorney contacted my attorney.
Q. Okay. And so that was your take on it. You didn't see that as some attempt to buy you off or anything like that?
A. No.
Q. Okay. And then any other staff members ever get ahold of you after that? Any follow-up calls or --
A. No.
Q. -- anything?
A. Unless I missed a call that I don't know what it is. Nobody ever left me a message, and I never spoke to anyone.
Q. Okay. One other thing real quick. The thing that he's been charged with by way of grand jury is invasion of privacy. And -- based on that picture, that's going to be fairly hard to prove unless they've got a picture. My question to you is, if you feel comfortable answering it, do you feel like your privacy was invaded?
A. Yes.
Q. It's pretty obvious from what you said that -- I knew the answer to that question, but I needed to be sure, because, you know, in one sense, you were willing to go there -- to the house. I mean, you weren't -- you didn't sign up for the other stuff. So, anyway, that's really all I've got, and I thank you, again, [redacted] for being here and being open and telling us some things that were pretty painful for you to share, so ...

MR. BARNES: Back up, because she was -- we had a head shake -- and I'm sorry to play the -- you said -- I'm sorry to play the lawyer role, but to make a clear record here, the representative asked you, You didn't sign up -- you came to the house willingly; correct?
MS. [redacted]: Yes.
MR. BARNES: But you did not sign up for the other things that happened; correct?
MS. [redacted]: No. No.
MR. BARNES: No, you did not sign up?
MS. [redacted]: No, I did not.
MR. BARNES: Thank you.
EXAMINATION
BY MS. MITTEN:
Q. Hi. I'm Representative Mitten from the St. Louis area, and, again, I thank you for being here and I thank you for your courage and your candor. I can only imagine how difficult this whole thing has been for you, and my thoughts are with you in that respect.

So these are going to be some difficult questions, and I want to apologize in advance for them, but, first of all, you described it the first time on March 21st, when you came to Eric's house at approximately 7:00 a.m., that he grabbed your purse. Was that a forceful grab? Could you sort of elaborate on exactly what your sense was of how that happened?
A. I didn't pull it away from him, so he didn't have to pull hard, but he -- it wasn't -- there was no spoken word of, Can I look through your purse --
Q. Right.
A. -- it was just literally looking at me with -- making the quiet --
Q. The shh signal?
A. The shh signal. And then looking at me while he grabbed my purse and keys out of my hand, and then sat them over -- but looked back at me to make sure I'm still not talking, and then he started going through my purse.

Q. Okay. So you never obviously consented to him doing any of that?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Then did he search your purse at any other time -- during any of the other encounters that you had with him? So the second time, I guess, was in May of 2015, the third time would have been in June 2015. I can't remember if there was a fourth time or not, honestly, but --
A. No. The only other thing like that that he did was when I was in his car, he took my phone.
Q. Right.
A. Because my phone had vibrated at some point, and he took it to make sure that nothing -- it wasn't being recorded or anything, and he took my phone and sat it aside, that way I couldn't touch it while I was in his car.
Q. Okay. And then, again, that first time, in addition to grabbing your purse and going through its contents, he also then touched your person without your consent. Is that a fair characterization?
A. Yes.
Q. And you believe he was -- he was touching your whole person? In other words, your --

A. Correct.
Q. -- clothed chest, buttocks, that sort of thing?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Then -- how was that touch? How would you describe that touch when he was -- that you did not consent to immediately upon your arrival in May of -- excuse me -- on March 21st?
A. It just made me more nervous than I already was. But he was -- he seemed as though he knew what he was doing.
Q. Okay. Would you describe it as a forceful touch?
A. Yes. Not to hurt me, but -- yes. Not a gentle petting, but more, I'm going to see what's in here.
Q. Right. Okay. Okay.
Then during any of your sexual contacts with Eric, did he ever ask you for your consent beforehand? And I'm going to sort of run through some of these, just so that you understand the broad question, and we'll get a little more specific, but, for instance, did he -- did he ask for your consent before he tied you to the rings?
A. No. He just told me to put my hands on the rings.

Q. Okay. And did he ask you for your consent before he placed the blindfold on you?
A. No. He just placed the blindfold.
Q. Did you object verbally or by action?
A. Not at this point. I was silent.
Q. Okay. Did he ask you for your consent when he tore the shirt that you were wearing -- it was apparently -- the shirt that he had provided you was torn, I believe, pretty quickly after you were blindfolded and bound?
A. No, he did not.
Q. But you did not consent to that -- to the tearing of that -- your clothing?
A. No.
Q. Or the clothing you were wearing? It wasn't really even your clothing.
A. Correct.
Q. And you may have answered this -- or testified to this, so I apologize to have to rehash this, but he tore the white shirt. Did he remove it or tear it all the way off of you?
A. He tore it, and then it was just kind of --
Q. Hanging?

A. Exactly. Because it was still on my arm.
Q. Okay.
A. But it was just completely open, I guess.
Q. And then you testified that you -- that he provided you a pair of male pajama bottoms that you were wearing at the time that you were in the basement. Were those -- was that piece of clothing also removed?
A. It was down at my feet.
Q. Okay.
A. So he pulled it down.
Q. So he pulled the -- he pulled those pants down to your ankles. Is that a fair characterization?
A. Yes.
Q. And you did not consent to that happening, either?
A. No.
Q. And then he -- you testified that he then kissed you, at least on your upper body?
A. Yes.
Q. And you never consented to that?
A. No.
Q. And -- there is some --
MR. BARNES: Did you consent to that? We have an ambiguity question in the answer.

MS. MITTEN: Did you consent to --
MR. BARNES: Yes. Did you consent --
MS. MITTEN: To the pulling down of the pants.
MR. BARNES: Yes. Yes. But that's not what you asked initially, so I want to back up and -- again, clear record.
MS. MITTEN: Thank you. Thank you. I appreciate it.
MR. BARNES: Okay.
Q. (By Ms. Mitten) Did you consent to Eric to pulling the pajama bottoms down to your ankles?
A. No, I did not.
Q. Okay. Did you consent -- there's -- the transcript of the tape that we've sort of touched upon -- and I believe we'll touch upon more later -- indicates that he was touching you with his fingers. Is that -- did that happen?
A. Yes.
Q. On March 21st at the 7:00 a.m. -- in the basement, after you were blindfolded, after you were tied, he touched you with his fingers; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And did that touching include genital touching of you -- of your genitals by his fingers?

A. Yes.
Q. Did that include -- the word used in the transcript is "inside." We would call it legally "digital penetration," so -- sorry to kind of go down this route, but was there digital penetration at the March 21st 7:00 a.m. encounter in his home?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you consent to that digital penetration?
A. Not verbally, no.
Q. Okay. Okay. Would you -- do you believe you consented in some other fashion to that digital penetration?
A. I mean, I was silent.
Q. Okay. No, that's not the same, so -- that's fine.
Then you indicated that there was, then, oral sex at the March 21st 7:00 a.m. encounter -- we'll just call it that. Did you consent to performing that?
A. It's a hard question because I did it -- it felt like consent, but, no, I didn't want to do it.
Q. Okay. Do you feel that you were coerced or otherwise forced to do that?

A. Coerced, maybe. I felt as though that would allow me to leave. That's what he wanted -- I felt that's what he wanted, and then I would ...
Q. So you didn't feel necessarily able to leave without performing oral sex?
A. Correct.
Q. When you said no -- and I'm sorry. I'm sort of backtracking a second here. But, again, during the March 21st encounter, when you were bound and blindfolded and he had begun to touch you, you indicated that you said, No, and he then stopped. Is that a fair characterization?
A. Yes.
Q. And then he unbound you and removed the blindfold?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you feel that saying no at that point extended to the further contact?
A. Oh. Looking back, yes. In the moment, I was so emotional.
Q. Okay. Would you describe -- I mean, would you describe one of those emotions as being fear?
A. Definitely.
Q. Physical -- fear for your physical self?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And then I'm going to move forward to -- I believe you testified that you went to his house again in May of 2015 -- or was that at the salon? I can't remember.
A. I believe May was at his house.
Q. At his house. Well, let me ask this way: Were there three times that you went to Eric's house?
A. Four times, including the March time.
Q. Okay. So March, May, June -- oh, twice in March.
A. And then June -- well -- okay. So in March -- I guess it's five, if you include the fact that I came back that day.
Q. Twice on March 21st.
A. Right. And then in May, and then at the end of June and the very beginning of July.
Q. Okay. And then that was -- the very beginning was the July 3rd when the e-mail --
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Okay. Then in -- it was the -- late June 2015 when he asked you if you had had any sexual encounters with anybody else; is that correct?

A. Correct.
Q. And when he slapped you, did you feel he was trying to hurt you?
A. I felt like he was trying to claim me.
Q. Okay.
A. More slap sense into me, if that makes sense at all.
Q. Do you believe that he slapped you with the intent to hurt you?
A. Not necessarily. I don't know the intent.
Q. Right.
A. I've never been in a relationship like that, so I'm not sure. It felt to me as if it was just claiming me.
Q. Okay. Okay. And then what happened after he slapped you? Was there sexual contact -- I'm a little bit fuzzy about what happened after he slapped you.
A. I believe it was just conversation after that. I remember laying there talking to him about it -- about him being in the Navy and asking questions about that. It kind of became more -- I wanted to understand that. There had been sexual contact that night prior to --
Q. Right.

A. -- but I don't believe afterwards. I -- my -- I just remember asking -- you know, saying, You're married. I'm so confused. It just didn't make sense to me.

Q. Okay. So, again, just so that I can understand here -- so in the June 2015 encounter, you're at his home, you're engaging in consensual sexual behavior?

A. Yes.

Q. And then at some point during that sexual session, for lack of a better term, he asked you about if you had sex with anybody else, and then you're slapped, and then you have a discussion. Is that a fair characterization of the chain of events?

A. Yes.

Q. And then at some point, you leave, and then the next encounter was, I guess, July 3rd, probably less than ten days after that slapping incident? Is that a fair --

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. You discussed at some point Eric having a second phone or a burner phone. When did you first become aware of the existence of a second phone?

A. That week that his wife was going to be out of town all week, I saw him -- I believe she left -- let's say Thursday or Friday. I saw him that Saturday, and he did not have it at that point. Maybe Sunday, the next day, he let me know that -- he had wanted to talk to me more while his wife gone, so he had gotten this burner phone.

Q. Okay. And that was -- that was not in March, that was in May or --

A. This would have been end of June.

Q. Okay. That's what I was going to say. Okay. End of June. So you're not aware of him having a second or burner phone as of March 21st --

A. Correct.

Q. -- of 2015? Okay. Did you ever see a photograph that he took of you in any state of undress?

A. No. He did not show it to me.

Q. So your only personal knowledge is from hearing a click and seeing a flash on March 21st --

A. Yes.

Q. -- of 2015?

A. And him acknowledging it after he took it and saying, I'm going to put this picture everywhere. And then whenever I came back, telling me that he had erased it.

MS. MITTEN: Thank you. Thank you so much.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LAUER:

Q. Hi. I'm Representative Jeanie Lauer. And I will probably not go in order, as my colleagues have done here; I might jump around a bit.

First of all, can you confirm that it is your voice on the audio?

A. Yes.

Q. And at what point -- at what point -- or were you ever aware of this audio being recorded?

A. In October of 2015. So at the end of that year, whenever my husband and I were for sure getting a divorce, that's when he told me he had proof and he had taped that conversation.

Q. But you had never heard it at that point?

A. I had never heard it until it came out on January 10th in the news.

Q. Okay. We've talked about blackmail, and, of course, they were talking about more of the financial thing. I'm going to ask a bit more about the emotional side, because there were times when you said that Eric would ask if you had told and said, Good girl and so forth. Did you feel that there was a threat coming from him, that if you did say something, that something would happen?

A. Oh, definitely. I -- during this time period, I was also fearful of the picture, but also of what I didn't know, what else would he do. Because this obviously meant a lot to him. It wasn't until later that I became not as worried about the picture, more worried of my physical wellbeing.

Q. Talk about that a bit -- about your physical -- what caused you to feel that way?

A. I felt as though -- this obviously meant a lot to him to be running for governor. I knew I had told my husband -- more -- more importantly than anybody, and that if the word got back to him, he would do something to hurt me to make sure that I couldn't tell anybody else or that, you know, this -- I would know that I wasn't supposed to be doing -- you know, telling anybody this.

Q. Did that create a level of fear in you?

A. Yes. So my current boyfriend reminded me of an incident that happened -- maybe that -- before he was elected -- while he was running was the worst period of time -- after my husband and I were separated. Because I knew he had no reason to protect me now. He doesn't want to; he's made it clear, and Eric knows he cannot contact me because I had sent him that e-mail. I was dating my boyfriend, and every single time I would come home, I would search my house first and just make sure nobody was in my house, nobody was hiding and -- but my boyfriend didn't know -- he knew that something had happened in my marriage. I told him -- because he asked why was he so mean to me? And I said, Well, I did hurt him. I cheated on him at the end of our marriage, and that was all he really knew at this point. And he had let himself into my house -- we had been dating for probably four or six months at this point. My boyfriend let himself into my house without me knowing. I'm calling his name, calling his name. I'm looking around my house, nobody was there. I come up the stairs, and it's pitch black. And I walked into my bedroom, and when I went to go switch on the light, he grabbed my ankle trying to scare me, and I literally started shaking, crying like -- I mean, freaking out -- which, of course, he was nice about it. He thought this was going to be so funny. And, of course, it really didn't hit him until -- he knew about this whole situation after the election, because I could not quit crying for like a week, and finally he just said, If you want to tell me something, you can tell me. So he did know about it when this broke, but I think he fully got it, why I freaked out to that point. You know, because at that time -- especially during the election, because I thought, he really has a lot to lose, because he hasn't gotten to the place he wants to get yet, you know?

Q. Okay. Which kind of leads into the next question. When we were discussing your privacy being invaded, did you ever feel that -- I think we were talking about the situation when you were at his house. But at any other time, did you feel that your privacy was invaded -- and to the point where what you're describing was fear, going through your house, or that he drove by while you were sitting outside reading. Did you ever feel the -- that that was going on?

A. No. He lived in the area, and so he would walk by the salon sometimes. And I worked right at the window. To me, it just felt like he was checking in, just to make sure I still had feelings for him. It more just felt like that. I felt like he was at ease when he could tell I had feelings for him still.

Q. Okay. All right. And so when -- you had been -- you had known him for some time prior to all of this beginning?

A. Correct.

Q. And you described that you had a lot going on with your then husband and some different things, and you indicated that Eric made you feel -- he had made you feel -- how would you describe that?

A. You mean what was the benefit to it?

Q. How did he make you feel when he came into the salon?

A. Oh, he -- I mean, he made me -- so the -- there are a couple of things. At this time, a big issue in my marriage was that my husband was extremely insecure. And as I stated -- he's a [redacted], and -- so he's very emotional. And, to me, Eric seemed like this very strong figure that could take care of things, whereas, in my household, I was the one who paid the bills, I was the one who took out the trash, I was the one cleaning -- whatever -- really did a lot of the stuff, whether it was female or male associated. And Eric seemed to me like a very strong person who knew what he wanted, and he wanted me, and it just felt like somebody who would take care of me, I guess.

Q. So that was comfort to you?

A. It was comfort.

Q. All right. And so let's follow up on some of the words you used to describe Eric. You said that he was controlling, he was charismatic, and that he was on a mission.

A. Correct.

Q. Could you describe that a little bit more as far as how he -- what caused you to feel that way? What did he do, say; not say, not do?

A. Charismatic because he has a way of looking at you in your eyes and -- while you're talking, paying attention to certain things that you say and -- or that I would say. Even throughout this -- in particular, when we were at the salon, when he wasn't -- and on a mission, I would say it's almost as if he gets a testosterone high and he seems as though that's his focus. He's no longer caring and looking at you in your eyes and not telling you things that make you feel close to him. And controlling, the -- he would always stand very close to me or whoever he was speaking to, shake your hand very hard. He's a very -- it just felt kind of intimidating sort of person. And he seemed to just want to have all of the knowledge of whatever was going on. So that type of control.

Q. Okay. So when you were with him in those private situations, did any of these types of descriptors fit any of the situations you were in where you felt he was controlling, charismatic, on a mission, any of those things?

A. When I would be alone with him -- there were moments where I definitely felt as though he cared about me, and I would see that charismatic, loving guy, but, in general, it was more -- more of a testosterone sort of high that I saw that would get very -- very controlling, as far as what's going to happen and what he wanted, and then afterwards, he would kind of -- that was kind of it.

Q. And you said at one point that you knew -- or it was like he knew what he was going to say. Like he had maybe a script of this in his mind or --

A. Correct. It felt like that.

Q. Okay. Tell me a little bit more about that.

A. Some of the things felt as though -- it just wasn't what -- it was not how he normally talked to me at all. So it was almost as if he was in character -- he had stepped into a character, and we were in some sort of play zone -- which maybe you would be with if you had been with your partner for a really long time or something. So it was just odd. I don't know. Not normal talk, I guess.

Q. Okay.

A. Like, he knew what he was going to say next. That's a good girl. You're going to believe that sort of thing.

Q. Okay. When you went to his house the first time, and as Representative Mitten asked, you've already discussed the purse and the keys, and then you said he had clothes. Were they there on the cabinet?

A. They were sitting on his kitchen island.

Q. On the kitchen island. So it would appear -- so that was planned to have those available?

A. Yes.

Q. All right. So when this was all going on, the frisking and the taking of your things and put your clothes on, what was going through your mind at that time?

A. I think it was shocked. I still really thought he was perfect. He definitely knew -- I know I had made it clear I had not cheated on my husband before and that, you know, I didn't want to do anything physical with him. So I think I was just confused, kind of shocked. And I was curious enough -- he likes me this much that he has something planned for our workout? I don't know. I -- I guess more than anything, confused.

Q. Okay. Did you feel like you were being led into a situation?

A. I did. But at this point, not a bad situation.

Q. Uh-huh.

A. More that he had a plan and -- like I said, I think I really thought maybe he will, you know, have some sort of sexy workout planned, which is why -- because he said, Change your clothes into these, and I said, What do you mean? And he said, I want to take you through a workout, come on. Just trust me. I want to make you feel good. And I just feel like you haven't been treated good in so long.

So at this point, it was more curiosity/confusion.

Q. Okay. Uh-huh. And so the first situation was where you were blindfolded and so forth, and then you went back that night to ask that -- what?

A. I came back that day after work.

Q. The day. Uh-huh.

A. To get my keys.

Q. And what was the conversation at that point?

A. It was, What the heck happened? I'm so angry with you. And that's when I said, You took a picture of me. My husband doesn't even get pictures of me. And that's when he explained, [redacted] I have to protect myself, and you have to understand this. You know, but I thought about you all day and I feel, you know -- I erased the picture.

Q. Uh-huh.

A. That was when that conversation occurred.

Q. So you expressed that there were different emotions going on during that time and certainly during that first encounter, that there was a level of concern, to whatever degree that might have been, but then there were follow-up visits and get-togethers.

A. Yes.

Q. Why -- because you said you were angry at him for the picture and so forth, so why would you continue to have contact with him?

A. I've asked myself that so many times. I think it comes down to a few things. One, I felt really disgusted with myself that I allowed that first time to happen. Really embarrassed that he thought of me as a whore. And so after my -- I told my husband and he was clear that he did not want anything to do with me, that he wanted to move into an apartment, and when Eric came back in and he was normal and so kind to me, that felt so much better and it allowed me to just ignore any of those bad feelings about myself, in particular. Because if I thought he was this horrible person, I really felt shameful of myself.

And so I think I just wanted to feel better about it. I didn't want to think that he thought of me as just a whore. I wanted to think that he actually really liked me and wanted to have a relationship with me of sorts.

Q. And was that your intent, too, to have a relationship with him?

A. I think at that time -- I think -- I don't even know. I think just to feel better than whatever I felt the day before. Because then I would have -- we had chunks of time where we didn't see each other where I did feel more like myself, I started to feel better. And then when I would see him, it was almost like this excitement would build up, and then I would feel, you know, a ton of emotions again, and then I would feel awful and disgusting and I hated myself and it was horrible. And then I would start to feel better, and then he would come in again -- you know, it was just such an up and down. Because I didn't want to be involved with somebody who was married. I didn't want to be having any feelings for him, in particular because I was so embarrassed about the first encounter. He basically made it clear that he felt like that I was a thing to him.

Q. So during your discussion here today -- and, again, thank you, as everyone has thanked you for doing this. And you became emotional during -- several times during this, and one of the descriptors that you said that triggered the crying, as I believe, was the embarrassment of that. What are the other things that have triggered, just in today, your being upset and crying? What are some of the things that were going on -- those feelings?

A. So -- I'm angry that I'm in the middle of this. I am -- of course, I'm upset with myself for any of my involvement with him. In particular, because he was married, but, also, because he didn't share the same type of feelings. And, also, because I was still technically married. But I'm also dealing with things for the first time these past two months that I never did before. I just pushed them aside because it was too scary. I didn't want to think about it. I didn't want to talk about it. I just wanted it to go away, and then maybe it never happened like that. And knowing that I'm in the situation and knowing that at this point, the only parts that Eric has denied are the parts that were hurtful. The other parts weren't traumatic to me at all. You know, it was -- it was consensual, and those parts were not traumatic. The parts that he denies are the parts I'm finally dealing with and going -- I feel sad for that person I was. That was so vulnerable. I was so vulnerable. I just feel really taken advantage of, I think -- and, also, by my ex-husband, hugely.

Q. So you had it kind of all around you.

A. Yeah.

Q. So when you say you were taken advantage of, what do you mean by that?

A. So I think when you enter a situation -- whatever it is -- a lot of the times you enter it assuming that that other person -- maybe in a conversation or whatever it is you're doing -- you assume that they're coming in with the same sort of background that you have, and in my mind, I was feeling that way. Maybe Eric has this same type of feelings towards me. And that day in particular, and even the other times when I was with him, I don't think his intentions were to love me -- you know, have mutual feelings towards me; I think it was just really, I'm -- I'm horny and you're vulnerable. So I think I felt taken advantage of, as far as -- that's -- he got what he wanted, but I obviously wasn't getting what I wanted. And with my ex-husband, just -- I don't know all of his intentions, other than the -- you know, having -- get sympathy and also getting revenge and -- you know? I don't know.

Q. When you say your ex-husband was trying to get revenge, is that in regards to you or to Greitens?

A. I believe both.

Q. Both?

A. (Witness nods.)

Q. So now that this is all out, what are some of the things that you're -- what concerns do you have now, if you have any?

A. How will this affect my kids? Because it has already. What's going to come of all of this, you know? What will people think of me that don't know me? I've had huge support with family and friends and clients -- and that's the other thing, too. Beforehand, I thought what will happen to all of my clients? I have a huge client base, and I love my clients, and a big part of why we love each other is because I am -- I'm a very open book, normally. This is the one thing I just kept in a pit in my stomach and I never talk about this. And so far, that's actually been a pretty good -- my clients have been pretty good to me, for sure. So now I think my fear is if this comes -- becomes public -- I'm in school full time. So far I don't think the students on campus know, but then how does that affect my schooling? I only have one semester left. Does that push me back? Luckily, I'm not as fearful physically anymore, because I feel like anybody would be crazy to hurt me because they would know who it is, so -- that's one huge positive thing that's happened.

Q. Anything else, as far as concerns?

A. I can't think of anything.

MS. LAUER: Thank you very much, and I appreciate the emotion that you have. And that's okay.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. AUSTIN:

Q. Ma'am, my name is Kevin Austin, and I'm a state representative in District 136. I'll try not to repeat questions we've already had, but I'm going to bounce around a little bit, so if for some reason we get out of context and you don't understand, please tell me or your attorney and I'll rephrase or go back.

A. Okay.

Q. So as I understand it, you first met Eric in 2013; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. So between 2013 and through 2015, did you ever talk about Eric either directly to your now ex-husband or in front of him?

A. Yes. So after he had given me -- I believe to be the second book -- it could have been the first book, my mom, who is an avid reader, I showed her the book. My ex-husband was there at the time. So we had been having marital issues for about two and a half years prior to 2015. When this happened, I showed my mom this book, and he was over -- was listening to my conversation with her.

I said, Mom, I have this client who wrote this book, and he's just this, you know, great guy who has done all of these wonderful things. And he overheard and said, Who is this douchebag, what are you talking about? Who is this person? Let me see that. And he said, Nobody would give you this unless they're hitting on you. And that was the start of the obsession with who is this person? Because I didn't speak like that about very many of my clients or -- you know? I mean, I spoke highly of people, but I guess he could sense that I thought this guy was really great.

So when he discovered that that was the phone number, he was definitely on to, What does that mean, you know?

Q. From your prior testimony, it sounds like you would characterize your husband as a very suspicious man.

A. Yes.

Q. He would go through all of your personal documents in your phone; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Do you think he ever had you followed or surveiled by either friends or professionals?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Friends or a professional?

A. I would guess both.

Q. Okay.

A. He made a comment -- so when we got back together, he made a comment that he had sent the e-mail to Sheena, which is what I thought was the case, that somebody had taken pictures of me going in and out of the house. So somebody, meaning, like, private investigator. But I never saw these, I never --

Q. You never -- I'm sorry to interrupt you. Go ahead.

A. No, you're fine.

Q. You never saw any documentation or photographs or video of his surveillance evidence; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. [redacted]

So this would have been -- yeah, two and a half years prior. I said, I want a divorce. I can't go through this anymore. This is too many -- it's just too much. [redacted] We had been in marital counseling, made -- we maintained that counseling, and then that summer before -- I mentioned we went on vacation. After we got back from that vacation, I said, I can't do it. I can't do anymore. So he said, Fine, I'll try [redacted]. And then January -- which is the reason I signed up for school. That's something I had talked about for a long time. I wanted to finish my degree. So I signed up -- it was starting in January, and maybe a week or two prior to that is when he started with the big emotions again, [redacted] I said, Fine. That was January. February/March is when I said, I just can't do it.

Q. I read in the transcript -- and I don't know if you have access to this transcript, but I read in the transcript of the recording that your ex-husband made between you and him in the parking lot of the grocery store -- I don't know if you've seen it or not, but it mentions a man named [redacted]. Who was [redacted]?

A. That was our marital counselor.

Q. Did your husband see this [redacted] before you and him went to see [redacted] for marital counseling?

A. No. We saw him just for marital counseling. But he had seen him alone afterwards. So we saw him together, [redacted] saw him alone a couple of times after our separation, and then we saw him still a few times together, even after we were separated.

Q. Did your ex-husband have a personal relationship with this [redacted]?

A. No.

Q. Going to the day of 3/21/2015, I still don't understand. How did you get to Eric's house? Did you walk? Did you drive?

A. I walked. [redacted] was about a block and a half up the street from where he lived.

Q. So when you say you left your keys there, you were -- you just walked back to the salon?

A. Correct.

Q. And then later that evening, when you went back and got your keys, you walked back again to the salon to get your car?

A. Exactly.

Q. When you first went into the house on 3/21/2015, Eric had some clothes for you. Did you ever see his phone at that point?

A. Not at that point.

Q. When was first time you saw his phone?

A. I don't know. That's a good question. I'm not sure.

Q. At some point, you went to the basement to the exercise equipment?

A. Yes.

Q. And at what point did he produce the tape and the blindfold?

A. Right whenever we got downstairs.

Q. Were they laying on the table or something or --

A. I believe -- there's like a -- there was like a workbench or a like a workout bench right there, and that's where he had that stuff. And then there were rings hanging up. There were weights behind -- I believe it was just right whenever we came downstairs, it was sitting there. He didn't carry it downstairs, I guess.

Q. Could you describe this tape a little bit more. I think you said something about gauze tape.

A. It was kind of that stretchy athletic tape.

Q. And was that something that if you applied some force, you could rip your hands free, if you wanted to?

A. Yes. I started to -- I couldn't really get down myself because it was -- there was just a lot of it or whatever, but with his help, I was able to get it down. It wasn't sticky, I guess.

Q. Yeah. Because, you know, you think of something like Duct tape, that would -- that's really hard to get that off your skin. But this gauze tape -- I think I know what you're talking about.

So when you -- I think you said you freaked out and said, No, enough, he immediately stopped his behavior and helped you down from the rings?

A. Yes.

Q. That basement -- was it a walkout basement?

A. No.
Q. What was the lighting like down there?
A. It was dim.
Q. Do you remember if there were, like, fluorescent lights like we have here or was it lamps or ...
A. Like a lightbulb.
Q. Okay.
A. At least on at that time. It was dim.
Q. Was there other exercise equipment in this room?
A. Yes. There was, like, a rower machine.
Q. Was this exercise room or workout room, was it like -- what I would call a great room part of the basement, or was it in a separate room, or how did that --
A. It was right whenever you walked downstairs. It was pretty much all of his exercise stuff -- an unfinished basement.
Q. And at the point where -- as I read through the transcript, you freaked out and said, No, no, no and then before that, had you given Eric any sort of indication, physically, verbally, or in any way that you did not want to proceed?
A. No. I was silent.

Q. And let me ask you this then: What was the blindfold? What was it? A workout towel? What was it?
A. No. It was -- I believe to be like a blindfold. I mean -- like a long strip of something. It was a dark material. So it wasn't a towel, it was an actual material.
Q. Do you know what kind of material it was?
A. I don't remember. It was nothing strapped to your -- nothing that I remember specifically, other than I know it was dark and that it was, you know, a blindfold.
Q. If I have the order right, first he taped your hands to the rings; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And did you have -- were your feet on anything stable?
A. The ground.
Q. Okay. So your feet were able to touch the ground? You weren't dangling?
A. Right. No.
Q. And then he put the blindfold around you?
A. Yes.
Q. When he put the blindfold around you, did you leave your eyes open or did you close your eyes?

A. At that point -- probably both. Because I know I kept opening and closing them throughout this time because I was so curious -- because he had something planned. But when he first put it on, maybe my eyes were closed and then I just kept -- so it wasn't super tight, I guess, if you're asking that.
Q. How did he bind the blindfold back? Did he tie it or did he have some sort of clasp?
A. He tied it.
Q. Tied it. And at some point he stepped away from you physically, and what was the sequence? Flash, click, or simultaneous? I don't know.
A. I would say simultaneous.
Q. And you testified you have never seen the photograph he took of you; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And let me ask you this. Do you have any reason to believe that this photograph was transmitted in any manner that allowed access to that photograph via the computer -- and I know it's a long question.
A. If it -- so I know he had an iPhone, so if it -- because I have an iPhone, too, so we could iMessage or -- you know? And if he had iCloud, yes.

Or if he, you know, connected his phone to his computer or something, yes.
Q. And did he have an iPhone? Is that what you said?
A. He did.
Q. And that was what he had that day?
A. Yes.
Q. And he that -- you saw that in the basement, that iPhone?
A. I would assume that would be the only phone that he would have -- that was the only phone that I was aware that he had in general at that time.
Q. And you don't recall one way or the other whether you saw it that very day in the basement?
A. Right. I just know that I heard and saw the flash.
Q. And before 3/21/15, had either you or your ex-husband had an extramarital affair?
A. No.
Q. Either before or after 3/21/15, had you ever had -- had you yourself photographed yourself in a state of partial or complete nudity?
A. No.
Q. Have you ever met a man named Roy Temple?

A. No.
Q. Have you ever been contacted by anybody from the FBI?
A. No. No.
Q. Have you ever been contacted from anybody that said they're from Intera, LLC?
A. I don't believe I can answer that question.
Q. Well, let's --
MR. AUSTIN: Am I getting out of --
MR. BARNES: Here is my concern, is there's -- if it relates to grand -- things that went in front of a grand jury, I think that -- Counselor, are you concerned with grand jury secrecy, without confirming or denying testimony before a grand jury? So I --
MR. AUSTIN: I'll just withdraw the question.
MR. BARNES: I think the answer to that question may be a crime in and of itself.
MR. AUSTIN: Well, let's withdraw the question.
Q. (By Mr. Austin) Part of your testimony was, My husband travels -- and I just didn't understand this -- I did not or did let him take pictures of me?

A. Oh, I did not.
Q. Did not. Okay.
Who was the reporter that contacted you and continued to contact you through -- when this was -- came out?
A. Lauren Trager.
Q. After the election -- I think you testified you were at dinner with six friends. Who were those friends?
A. [redacted] -- did you want me to spell this?
Q. Yes.
A. Okay. [redacted]. [redacted], [redacted]. [redacted], [redacted] and -- it's [redacted]. I can't remember her name right now.
Q. That's all right.
A. She -- yeah.
Q. That's four.
A. So there is another girl that's in that group. Her name is [redacted] I had told her, actually -- she's part of that group. She happened to not be there that night, and so I talked -- I discussed it with her as well.

Q. And that is all of the ladies that were at that dinner?
A. Yes. I believe so.
Q. And when Representative Phillips was asking you questions, you said Eric's attorney reached out. Who was that, if you know?
A. I don't know.
Q. It was attorney contact with your attorney; right?
A. Correct.
Q. So the only conversation you would have would be from what your attorney told you; correct?
A. Exactly.
MR. BARNES: I would like to take a break.
(A recess was taken.)
(Exhibit No 1 was marked for identification.)
MR. BARNES: Back on the record.
Representative Austin.
Q. (By Mr. Austin) Ma'am, we have just come back from a recess, and I've handed your attorney what I've marked as Exhibit 1. And I'll just submit to you that that's a transcript of a tape recording made by your now ex-husband of you and him in the parking lot of a grocery store. Have you reviewed that transcript before?

A. So I started to read part of it, and I got to the part where he took the picture, and I just couldn't read it, so I have not read any of the rest of it.
Q. Okay.
A. I've heard some of the things that are in it and can recall some of that, too, but I have not read it -- the rest of it.
Q. What page did you get to? Probably 17?
MS. MITTEN: There's an index at the back, if that would help you.
A. Okay. Yes, I believe it was on 18 that I stopped.
Q. (By Mr. Austin) Well -- and it's your testimony that -- I mean, you're emotionally unable to go past that point, as far as reading the transcript?
A. Yes.
Q. If we can just, then limit it to pages 1 through 17, you weren't under oath then, but you are now, and my question will be -- or is, are your answers that you gave then truthful to the questions posed then, and if not, what answers or portions of answers were untruthful?

A. I don't believe I told him -- I should having looked at this right before; I didn't.

Q. And we can take a break if you want to read it. I mean ...

A. I don't believe I told him that he patted me down.

Q. And there may have been some omissions, but what you did say was true?

A. Oh. Oh. Oh, yes.

Q. Is that okay to say?

A. Yes.

Q. There were omissions, but what you did say was truthful in response to the questions posed?

A. Yes.

Q. Pages 1 through 17?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. AUSTIN: That's all I have.

MR. BARNES: Representative Rhoads.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. RHOADS:

Q. Ma'am, my name is Shawn Rhoads. I want to ask you some questions -- and it's going to get a little graphic. I'm not trying to be mean to you, I just -- we have to have some clarification on a couple of things. And I want to go back to the day -- the first encounter when you went to his house that morning and where you came in and where he took your purse and keys and looked through all of this stuff.

So you come in the house, he takes your purse, your keys, he looks through it and puts it back in there, and then he tells you to change into these clothes that he provided for you there; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. What were you wearing before -- and where did you go to change?

A. I was wearing -- I would have been wearing black pants and a black T-shirt for work.

Q. Okay.

A. I was dressed in work clothes. And he has a -- he has, like, a very small bathroom right by his kitchen, so I went into there and changed in that room.

Q. So were you wearing undergarments underneath those clothes?

A. Underneath my clothes?

Q. Yes.

A. But he told me to take off everything and put pants on.

Q. Okay. So you did that?

A. I did that.

Q. So all that you were wearing was the T-shirt that he provided and the pajama pants that he also provided; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. So at that point in time -- and maybe you said earlier and I didn't catch it, but what were your thoughts that his intentions were going to be?

A. I thought this was going to be some sort of, like, sexy workout. I knew he -- he had asked if I worked out that morning. I knew he -- he said he had this idea that -- something that would be -- make me feel really good and I did work out, because he wanted to take me through a workout. And at this point I thought -- we hadn't worked out together ever, so I thought, Oh, maybe it'll be some sort of -- I don't know -- sexy workout.

Q. Okay. At that time were you okay with a normal sexual encounter with him if he said, Hey, I just want to have sex in the basement?

A. No.

Q. Then I want to go forward to the incidents when you were at his house again -- and forgive me,

I don't know the date -- when there was alleged -- that you said he slapped you.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So you go in the house -- and I'm just making sure I'm correct. You go up to the spare bedroom; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And were you clothed, unclothed -- help me through that.

A. I believe at this time we were at least partially unclothed. I know there was sexual activity taking place. I know when I got there, we kissed and we talked a little bit, and then he was like, Come upstairs with me. And I know it was sexual in nature at this point. So I believe that at least both of us were partially nude.

Q. Okay. Did he take your clothes off or did you take his clothes off or did you take your own clothes off, or how did that happen?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Okay. And by "partially nude," can you clarify for us how that was?

A. When he slapped me, I just remember being bare at the top.

Q. Okay. Okay. So let's go to that. So were you sitting on the bed, laying on the bed -- how -- where were you in relation to him and him in relation to you when that happened?

A. He was standing up, and I was kind of sitting -- laying back like this (indicating) on the bed.

Q. Okay. Okay.

A. So he was standing in front of me.

Q. Okay. And I'm going to bounce around a little bit here, I apologize. So -- because, to me, there's a question when you're -- your ex-husband e-mailed Eric's wife and said, you know, she's in your house or whatever the e-mail said -- or he -- yeah -- and you think that someone was following you. So would your husband follow you around periodically or ...

A. Yes. So he worked -- works downtown, and there were multiple times that either I or coworkers would see him driving by the salon.

Q. Gotcha.

A. Where he didn't have to.

Q. So -- but you walked from your business -- your place of business to that house; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. So there wouldn't be like you had a long drive where somebody would follow you through town or anything like that?

A. Correct.

Q. Do you think anybody is following you now because this has all come out, that people are following you around?

A. I've only positively known of one instance when I left work. When I got on the highway, I noticed that there was this same car behind me that was behind me right whenever I left work, and this would have been probably a week and a half after the news broke. And I got to the [redacted], and once I got there, I noticed this car was definitely still there, so I'm going to pretend like I'm getting off my exit and get back on the highway and see if they do that. If they do, I know for sure they're following me. When that happened, they did that, so I right then called a friend of mine who is in law enforcement and said, I'm almost positive this person is following me. So he directed me back to -- I essentially got back on the highway, drove back east. This person followed me all the way to [redacted]. So from [redacted] to [redacted]. I went inside a Walgreens and waited for the car to leave. The friend of mine met me there, and he said, I think you can leave, but I'm going to make sure. So when I left, the car was waiting across the street from me, tried to follow me, but he got behind and didn't allow him to, so I was -- and then I went to my mom's.

Q. Was he on duty -- like, a uniform police officer or --

A. No. Off duty. Just acting as a friend.

Q. Just a friend helping you?

A. Yes.

Q. So what I'm gathering is -- and make sure that I'm right -- is -- in this relationship with Eric Greitens, he was wanting a physical relationship and you were wanting more than that; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And that would have been your frustration with kind of how things went down?

A. Yes. And, also, that I didn't -- this was really just with myself. I didn't feel like I was acting in ways that I wouldn't -- I didn't feel like in control of my own --

Q. Sure.

A. -- feelings and thoughts and actions the way that I typically would be, so ...

Q. And I'm sorry. I'm backing up. Let's go back to the incidents with the slap. You said afterwards you talked. Do you recall what you talked about and how long were you there after that?

A. The only thing I remember for sure is that we talked about his -- what was it like being in the Navy and did he feel like that affected him and, really, just talked mainly about that. Maybe -- I wasn't there a super long time afterwards. I don't know.

Q. Is there anything that anybody has not asked you that you feel like we need to know? Because I realize -- and I -- I sympathize with you when you say you don't want your kids involved with this. And what I'm trying to get at was, if there was no angry ex-husband, there was no reportings, where do you think that we would be right now? Would this be an issue?

A. I don't -- I'm not sure. That's a great question, because -- I keep thinking, had I -- maybe had I not told [redacted] -- I know for sure I would have felt very differently immediately about what happened on March 21st. Because the second I told him, it became his thing, and I was afraid of him and what he would do with it. I really didn't even process it.

So would I have eventually told somebody? Possibly. But I also didn't want to hurt anybody, too, so that ...

Q. I understand. And I see where you're coming from with your business and with -- you know, you don't want to damage those things. And I apologize that you're in the middle of this. I appreciate your cooperativeness, but, again, I just want to give you the opportunity, if there's anything somebody hasn't asked that you feel like is pertinent to what we're doing, we'd love to hear, because you've been answering questions and not gave us a free thought.

You can come back to that if you want, if you want to discuss that.

MS. [redacted]: Okay.

MR. BARNES: If you want -- let's finish our questioning, because he asked you something that you probably haven't even thought of.

MS. [redacted]: Right. I haven't.

MR. BARNES: So if you -- we'll finish our questions and then give you a short break, if you want to answer that question --

MR. RHOADS: Well -- and Representative

Austin took about half of my questions I have, so -- because he seen them, I think, and that's why he was trying to do.

Thank you, Chairman.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERSON:

Q. Good morning. I'm Tommie Pierson, Jr. state representative of the 66th district in St. Louis County, St. Louis City. And I, too, will kind of have some questions that may not be in chronological order. The first one is -- apparently, he -- there was -- so Eric hit you physically?

A. Yes.

Q. How many times do you recall him hitting you physically?

A. Well, the first time he spanked me multiple times, but where I actually felt kind of scared of -- what is he -- I guess I could say it was more physical was the two times, though. The one time where he slapped me in the face and the other time where he slapped me and pushed me.

Q. Okay. So the spanking, did it leave any mark? Was there any welt or anything of that nature?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Okay. Did you consent to that?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Then the second time was a slap on the face; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And did that leave a mark?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Okay. Could you describe that a little bit more? Do you think -- you said it was open handed, I think; is that correct?

A. Correct. Meaning it could have left a red mark right away, I guess. It was dark and at night and we were alone in a room. Did it leave anything later? No. It was just jarring. It wasn't sweet and gentle; it was forceful.

Q. Okay. And then the third time.

A. The third time might have actually left a mark. I know that it actually hurt, and I know that I actually was really scared and sad when that happened. The only reason why I say it might have actually left a mark is because I can remember afterwards looking in a mirror -- so it was only maybe a week and a half, two week, tops, later that my husband and I were back together of sorts -- at least considering it. I remember looking in the mirror and thinking, Can he see anything? So -- I think that there's probably a good chance that there was something there. I didn't take pictures of it.

Q. Did your husband make any comments about --

A. Not that I remember. Not that I remember.

Q. And that last time, can you talk a little bit about that situation, kind of what led up to that and what happened subsequently?

A. Up until that point, the -- that encounter -- like I said, we had exercised earlier -- or that same morning, and then it turned sexual in nature, that was consensual. You know, I was nude at this point. And I couldn't see him, so I didn't know what was on his face. He was behind me. And I like I said, we had not -- we did not have intercourse during this period of time -- we never did. But he was mimicking that, of sorts, behind me, and so I just remember him, like, hitting and shoving me, and it felt out of nowhere as if, like, all of the sudden you just got -- I don't even know. I don't know. Because it was so shocking to me and it made me fall on the ground -- kind of on my face and on my side a little bit and just made me start crying. I just know it was really embarrassing and confusing.

Q. How would you describe, I guess, the source of the crime -- was it physical in nature? Was it emotional in nature?

A. I would say both at that -- that time, in particular. Because it actually hurt, and, also -- also, it was embarrassing. I don't know what happened. It was just kind of a bizarre thing to happen, I guess.

Q. The picture that was taken, did any discussion ever occur about the picture after -- is it the 21st of March?

A. Not that I recall. I only recall him asking me -- like, each time I did his hair -- in particular, at the salon, he would say, You haven't told anybody, have you? It was more that checking in to make sure I hadn't said anything. But I don't remember him bringing up the picture again after that first day. Probably knowing it was -- I mean, I kind of freaked out, so I don't know if he knew, let's just not go there -- I don't know. But we really didn't discuss it after that.

Q. Very good. So you never brought up the picture, either; is that correct?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Okay.

In the time that you-all worked together, did you-all share any meals or drinks or anything of that nature?

A. He does not drink at all, so it was never like that. I remember that morning -- I believe it might have been that last morning -- because that was the time that we worked out together. He made a smoothie that was -- like, as I was leaving, he made a smoothie.

Q. Okay.

A. That's all I remember.

Q. On 3/15 you were -- I believe you described doing his hair and shampooing his hair at the salon.

A. Yes. This would have been earlier -- or, like, maybe a week prior to that, yes.

Q. Okay. And I believe that was -- or would you agree that that was the first time where he touched you in a way that startled you?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was your reaction when that happened?

A. So I was standing up -- I had actually just finished shampooing his hair, but he was still laying back in the shampoo bowl, kind of looking up at me. And at first I just ignored it. I was thinking -- I think I'm picturing something that's not really happening, and I didn't look down. And then once he got up to my crotch, I stepped back and said, What are you doing? And then that's whenever he looked up at me like, I don't know. And at that point -- I think it was just shock, because -- even though I had had definitely somewhat of this crush on him, I never pictured that happening. So I think it was just shock.

Q. Do you recall anyone else being in the room when that happened?

A. A coworker was in the room, but she was not at the shampoo area. She was -- she worked right next to me at that time at our actual hair station, and so she was back there, so -- she did not see that happen.

Q. Okay.

A. I told two of my coworkers that day that that happened, but she was not one of the ones who I told.

Q. So there are a couple of coworkers who were made aware of that incident?

A. Yes.

Q. Do we know who those individuals are?

A. One of them is [redacted], who I mentioned, and another one is a -- the friend that I was saying is very close to me but I didn't tell anything until this came out and she called me that night. Her name is [redacted]. Her reaction was so angry and ticked off at just that, that I felt uncomfortable telling her anything else after that, so ...

Q. In the course of your discussions with Eric, did he ever mention The Mission Continues?

A. Definitely throughout the times whenever I cut his hair. Oh, definitely. That was also a big draw to him, that he had started this nonprofit that helped veterans and ...

Q. But, subsequently, that was not a topic of discussion, it was specific or relegated to times in the salon?

A. Correct. When -- yes. When I was alone with him, it was not -- he wasn't as forthcoming with discussing things. Like I said, it felt a little more like he was on a mission.

Q. Was there any discussions in relationship to any campaign-related issues?

A. Other than -- I -- when that person e-mailed him -- being my husband -- him mentioning that he thought it was Democratic operatives that lived in his neighborhood that he felt like were always watching him, I know when I came back that first time, that was actually a question I asked him, was, Why did you switch parties? I know that I asked him that, because I just remember that -- because he asked if I had any questions for him, because I thought we were going to have a discussion. Other than that, I don't remember -- oh, except for he knew that I did Chris Koster's hair. And so he didn't ask about any specifics about him, just, What do you think about him?

So other than that, not really. It wasn't -- I'm not a very political person, typically, so that wouldn't have been something we would have discussed; it was more, What type of charities are you working with? What did you -- it was more along the lines of that.

Q. So you described Chris Koster as kind of a father figure. Can you describe that relationship a little more?

A. Yes. I mean, he had been going to a friend of mine up until -- I didn't start doing his hair until maybe late 2014, possibly, early 2015. Anyways, my coworker moved to New York, and then he started going to me. I knew he was a client of the salon before that, and, in general, he would ask me what was going on in my life and kind of give -- he likes -- or he liked to give advice as to what's going on with school or what's going on with -- he knew I was separated with my husband. We did not discuss anything throughout the election period, in particular, after Eric was not my client. He didn't bring it up. I didn't bring it up. We just didn't discuss that.

Q. So there was no discussion of Eric in your conversations with Chris Koster?

A. Not -- when they first -- when I first knew that he was running as well, Eric was still my client at that time, and I knew that -- Chris knew that he was my client as well, and I'm sure he asked the same question -- you know, What did you think of this guy? That was pretty much it. Both of them were pretty good about not asking me anything that would make me feel uncomfortable. He didn't really ask anything else in regards to Eric, other than that.

Q. And, you know, the incident on 3/21, it seemed very planned. Would you agree with that?

A. Yes.

Q. In your subsequent encounters with Eric, did those seem planned as well or ...

A. Not like the first time. No. The other times seemed a little more just -- I don't know. I didn't feel like I was living a script out, no.

Q. If Eric asked you to meet with him now, would you go?

A. Positively not alone. With my attorney and his attorney, possibly, but I have no clue what would come of that.

Q. How do you deal with stress -- so this was a stressful time during this period. How would you say you deal with stress?

A. So I had just started CrossFit that January before -- no, no, no, it was that August, too. During this time, I just weight lifted a lot. I ended up injuring my back because I wasn't sleeping very much, I was just exercising and -- I read -- I was still reading during this time. I was seeing a counselor on my own. I switched to a personal counselor right after the March -- I want to say it was sometime in April, I started seeing her. And I was still reading. I know I read a lot of self-help books during this period of time. Definitely exercising was a huge thing.

MR. PIERSON: Thank you. Thank you for your time and your being here today.

MR. BARNES: Thank you. I have a few more questions.

RE-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Were you afraid to ask about the picture?

A. Yes. I just didn't want to bring it up at all. So, A, I didn't want to remind him of it. I didn't want to remind myself of it. I really just wanted to pretend like it didn't happen.

Q. Did -- the time that you described as being slapped when you were in the spare bedroom, did that cause physical pain?

A. More like a stinging -- it didn't make me cry. It wasn't like a, Oh, my gosh, this is absolutely horribly painful, it was more of a stinging shock.

Q. The last sexual encounter where you described getting hit, do you feel that that was a punch or a slap?

A. It was as if he, like, roughly, like, slapped and grabbed me and shoved me. So I don't know.

Q. You testified earlier that you attempted to look in the mirror.

A. Yes.

Q. How -- approximately how many days after was that?

A. Well, I'm sure I did right away -- you know, a day or two after, but I know that -- the memory that I have is after I had gone to the mediator with [redacted] I'm thinking, If he knows this or if he sees this, he's going to flip out. So that had to have been a week later.

Q. So a week later, you're looking in the mirror to see if there's a mark?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it still achy or painful at that point in time when you're looking for the mark?

A. In that direct area, yes.

Q. I want to go back to March 21st as well. And you testified that Eric was kissing you -- let me -- after -- you testified that you started freaking out as Eric was kissing you and coming down the front of your body. Yes?

A. Yes.

Q. And you freaked out, and he took you and untied the gauze strips; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Were you crying at that point?

A. Yes.

Q. And describe the emotions that you had at that point in time.

A. I was definitely fearful. I was so embarrassed and ashamed, because I really felt like a whore because I had let him get me in this position before we've even kissed. I felt really used. I felt like what the -- who are you? I think it was the thing that just kept playing through my mind is, who are you? What is this? What is this? Oh, my God, where am I? Get me out of here -- because I just kept saying, Get me out of here. I'm not ready for this. It was also, too, that feeling of, I came here not wanting to do anything -- nothing.

Q. Did you start walking towards the door?

A. Yeah. I -- well, to go upstairs. There's not like a door that closes, but, yeah, I started walking towards the door, and that's when he just, like, enveloped me -- that's a good word. Because it wasn't as if he, like, threw me around. He literally just kind of bear-hugged me and literally walked me up and was saying, [redacted] just calm down, calm down, it's okay, it's going to be okay. And then laid me down -- kind of laid down with me like I was a little doll or something.

Q. Okay. And when you were laying down, where was he?

A. Like, laying next to me.

Q. Laying next to you face to face?

A. Face to face -- at this point, from what I -- what I'm picturing -- so I don't know if he started behind me -- I know that he was laying face to face with me.

Q. Okay. And were you still crying?

A. I was crying so hard, yeah.

Q. Were you naked at that point in time?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he have a shirt on?

A. I believe so, at this point.

Q. Did he have pants on?

A. Yes. At this point.

Q. Did you unzip his pants?

A. No.

Q. How -- did he unzip his pants?

A. He unzipped his pants.

Q. While you were crying?

A. While I was crying.

Q. And laying on the floor next to him?

A. Yes.

Q. And what did he do after he unzipped his pants?

A. He kind of pulled them down and pulled his penis out.

Q. Okay. And -- I'm sorry. These are difficult questions. In relation to your face, how far away?

A. Max, 6 inches or something. Close to me.

Q. And he is the one who put his penis in that position?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you still crying at that point?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you feel afraid to leave?

A. No. Not at this point. I feel like he hadn't gotten what he wanted. It was just -- he was still obviously turned on.

Q. Would you say you were under duress?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you feel like you had another choice if you were going to get out of that basement?

A. Not at that point.

Q. And after feeling you had no other choice at that point in time, is that when there was oral sex?

A. Yes.

Q. The last time you were hit from behind, I want to make sure -- was it your right hip and --

A. Yes. My memory is that I kind of fell into, like -- kind of more into my left, and that it was on my right side.

Q. Okay. What's the basement floor like?

A. Just a concrete basement floor.

Q. I'm sorry. Say --

A. We exercised in the basement, so this would have been the last time. And it was after we exercised, so we were still in the basement at this point.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Okay.

MR. BARNES: Okay. I have no further questions.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. AUSTIN:

Q. Just a couple more questions.

The basement floor is concrete?

A. Yes.

Q. There's no rugs or carpeting or anything, it's just concrete?

A. Over where the exercise area was, there was some gym -- the squishy mat.

Q. Where you were hit the third time, you were on concrete at that point?

A. Yes.

Q. Let me back up a little bit. You said that -- this was before, that your husband e-mailed Eric's wife. Do you know that for sure, or is that something you're supposing, knowing your husband?

A. He told me after we were back together.

Q. Okay.

MR. AUSTIN: That's all I have.

MR. BARNES: Okay. If you want to make a statement, you can. If you want to take a minute to collect your thoughts and -- tell me if you want to take a five-minute break, collect your thoughts, and make a statement or -- really, it's up to you. I -- you know, I think Representative Rhoads had a very good question, and he kind of caught you off guard after having -- we're three hours into a barrage of questions for you from seven separate people, and so I think it's fair to let you collect your thoughts before you make such a statement.

So do you want to take a break just for a moment?

MR. SIMPSON: I would. And before we get that far -- and if this isn't the proper time to do so, please let me know. The transcript that you put in as an exhibit, out of respect for my client, I would like to request that any identifying information between her, her ex-husband or anybody else that would lead back to who she is be redacted. I'm am well aware of the potential that this may become public at some point and would like to really redact that. Frankly, anything in this proceedings that would identify her specifically, I would ask for that courtesy from this panel.

MR. BARNES: You will certainly have that courtesy.

So let's take a five-minute break.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: And so we -- do you want to make a final statement, please feel free to do so.

MS. [redacted]: I really just wanted to say a couple of things, which is, one, thank you for clearing up the rumors that are out there, because that's been one of the most difficult things is hearing them and knowing -- I've taken the position to truly try to not involve my children as much as possible, therefore, it is kind of difficult to hear those things and know I don't have a voice. So I do appreciate that. And, also, the lengths that you have taken to make this private, and I really do appreciate that.

I really think you guys covered most of the things that I felt and appreciate you for being understanding, because I did not like that person at that time, which is why I'm so emotional. If I liked her, I could tell you guys, He's a jerk and he's a jerk, and I did nothing. So I appreciate your understanding. And it's really hard for me to be vulnerable in front of people I don't know, as opposed to my friends and family, who know that that wasn't me; I was going through a crazy period of time. So I really do appreciate it, because it does help me -- or at least you aren't throwing stones at me if you guys hate me. But thank you.

That's it.

MR. BARNES: You guys will be excused, and we'll talk about future business of the committee.

MR. SIMPSON: Sure.

MR. BARNES: Thank you so much.

I want to get with you on contact information for the people identified with whom you spoke. I don't want you to read their phone numbers into the record, but I want to get that contact information.

MR. SIMPSON: And whether you want to do it -- I'll let you decide. We have provided an answer to some requests for production. As of yesterday, after I got -- after I left my office, I came into the possession of another document that you probably want. If you want it today, you can have it, but I need a photocopy because I have the original.

MR. BARNES: We can arrange for that here. There's got to be a copy machine somewhere in this building. So if you want to ask one of the officers outside, I'm confident they'll make a copy.

So we'll excuse you. Thank you for being here today.

MR. BARNES: Let's go off the record for just a moment.

(Discussion off the record.)

MR. BARNES: Friday at one, [redacted] who is -- who is identified as a witness in [redacted] answers to our requests to documents. After that, does the committee believe --

MS. LAUER: Will that be here?

MR. BARNES: That will be here.

Does the committee believe we need [redacted] here?

MR. RHOADS: I do. I feel like it puts the pieces of the puzzle together.

MR. BARNES: Do we want to see if we can get him for next Monday?

MS. MITTEN: Can we do 3:00 p.m. on Friday?

MR. RHOADS: I'm afraid that conversation is going to take hours and hours.

MS. MITTEN: Why should that take hours, though? This is four hours. What do we need to get from [redacted] Authentication.

MR. RHOADS: I'm afraid there'll be a little game played with his attorney on, Well, we don't want to answer that, we're going to --

MS. MITTEN: Fine. He can leave.

MR. RHOADS: Regroup and go and then --

MS. MITTEN: I'm just thinking -- I don't know what we need from [redacted]

Can we go off the record for a second?

(Discussion off the record.)

MR. BARNES: I move that we attempt to get the testimony of [redacted] this Friday at 11:30 a.m.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. Or 3:00 p.m.

MR. BARNES: Or 3:00 p.m.

Does anyone disagree to that idea?

All of those in favor say, aye.

(Unanimous "Aye")

MR. BARNES: In failure of Friday, I'll ask his lawyer about Monday availability.

MR. AUSTIN: Time out. You said earlier? Well, how is this [redacted] going to take very long? If he cools his heels out there for an hour, that's not our problem.

MS. MITTEN: We could do it at two.

MR. BARNES: So do you want me to try three first?

MR. AUSTIN: I prefer 11:30 first.

MS. MITTEN: Either way. Just see what we can do.

MS. LAUER: Is it okay if they see each other?

MR. BARNES: 11:30 or two?

MS. MITTEN: Or three, if it has to be three. I just want to get it out of the way Friday if he can.

MR. BARNES: Okay. And I want to take a roll call vote to close Friday's hearing.

So the motion on the floor here is to close Friday's hearing.

All of those in favor, voice, yes.

Mr. Secretary, please call roll.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

MR. BARNES: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

MR. PHILLIPS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

MS. MITTEN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

MR. RHOADS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: Aye.

MR. BARNES: The vote is seven aye; zero no to close Friday's hearing. It know everybody is getting excited.

We have eight additional witnesses identified, I believe, beyond [redacted], [redacted] -- is everyone in agreement we should attempt to her testimony.

Is that a yes all around?

Yes all around. [redacted] is another. Is everyone in agreement?

MS. LAUER: She was at the dinner?

MR. BARNES: Yeah.

[redacted]. Is everyone in agreement on her?

Okay. [redacted] was identified as a lawyer. I would -- I don't want to try to breach anyone's attorney-client privilege. Is everyone in agreement that we're not going to call her as a witness?

MS. MITTEN: I agree.

MR. PIERSON: With her, she seemed like she wanted to get some information from [redacted] order; is that correct? Did that breach -- so that would be a breach if we talked to her --

MR. BARNES: For [redacted], yes. [redacted] was a lawyer for Ms. [redacted], and as a result, I do not --

MR. PIERSON: [redacted]?

MR. BARNES: Lauren Trager was the reporter.

Does anyone believe we should have the reporter?

MS. MITTEN: No.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Then there were the women who were at the dinner, [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted]. And then there was, essentially, I think [redacted], and I heard a [redacted] name. I think that -- I want everybody to think about whether we need to call them after having spoken with these other witnesses.

MR. RHOADS: Mr. Chairman, I'm afraid there'll be very limited information with these women. They were in public talking about this incident. I doubt she went into detail about everything in a restaurant with six other women.

MR. BARNES: That's -- that's fair. And I think these other witnesses that we've already identified -- we need to talk to them first before making this decision, but I wanted to put that out there as something for people to think about, even as we were getting the next round of testimony.

MS. LAUER: Sure.

MR. BARNES: Okay. The other thing is we should be receiving documents soon from Michael Hafner relating to use of The Mission Continues -- resources from The Mission Continues private grants. They may arrive today. We subpoenaed those documents. They may arrive today. His lawyer has been in contact with our counsel and should have them soon, and when we do, we will spread the word that they have arrived. They will be in the chief clerk's office with our folders that we're going to turn into binders. The idea is everyone to have a binder in there. Let's leave it in there, mainly -- because I don't even trust myself to take documents outside -- and then take notes in there.

MR. AUSTIN: And we can have access to those binders --

MS. MITTEN: I believe Representative Barnes is going to try to get access to the office so that even after hours we'll have the ability to force [redacted] to let us in.

MR. BARNES: Mr. Curchin -- Alex has that ability, so he's on permanent call.

MS. MITTEN: Lovely.

So, Mr. Chair, Mr. Simpson indicated that documents have already been produced.

MR. BARNES: I believe he said they were mailed -- well, he told me in the hallway they have been mailed. He said we've sent them.

MS. MITTEN: So we haven't seen those yet, and those will be added to our binder folders.

MR. BARNES: And what he has brought here today is a phone record.

MS. LAUER: Is there any reason to consider the Boys State?

MR. BARNES: I think -- let's hear from Mr. Hafner first. Let's look at his documents and hear from him first. I take that from you, you think that there is.

MS. LAUER: I would question him.

MR. BARNES: And I'm open to that possibility. I'm open to what the committee considers. Obviously, we have people in -- public statements from people who need to get one of those people who was quoted publicly to do so. What I also want to do is bring the board of Boy's State down here to testify. I think what may be helpful to them is to send written interrogatories to them or ask them to sign a declaration or affidavit. But -- we could direct interrogatories to him to make sure that we're getting answers to the questions that we want.

MS. MITTEN: Well -- and my only -- and I don't know -- is there anything about that that -- is there some law that was violated by virtue of that, or is it just sort of bad behavior?

MR. BARNES: It's potentially a misappropriation or a theft if you get information for one purpose and use it for another.

MS. MITTEN: Okay.

MS. LAUER: Without the individuals knowing about it.

MS. MITTEN: Okay.

MR. BARNES: Potential. And, you know, I want to go down the path and find out the -- were there expectations? What were those expectations?

MS. MITTEN: What were the expectations. Okay. That's fair.

MR. PHILLIPS: And all of this falls in the guidelines of the resolution to be passed --

MR. BARNES: It does.

MS. MITTEN: Those are also allegations at that point, I guess.

MR. BARNES: Any further comments or questions?

MS. LAUER: What about next week so I know whether or not to pack more clothes or not.

MR. BARNES: So Mr. Hafner will be here on Wednesday morning at 8:00 a.m. We're going to try to get some testimony on Monday morning and --

MR. RHOADS: As of right now, do you have testimony lined up for Monday morning?

MR. BARNES: I do not. Because Mr. [redacted] lawyer gave us this list of other witnesses, we attempted to make contact with all three of them. I made contact with [redacted] she's coming on Friday. I made contact with [redacted] regarding Monday at one. She said she had to check back and see about child care arrangements. I'm still waiting to hear back. And then [redacted] did not respond to my calls.

MS. LAUER: Did you say there is another one next Friday?

MR. BARNES: We do not have anything scheduled for next Friday at this point.

MS. MITTEN: I would pack for it.

MR. BARNES: Is anyone planning to be out of town on Friday?

MS. MITTEN: Not anymore.

MR. BARNES: I'm glad that looks cannot be not recorded.

MR. RHOADS: Is it spring break week?

MR. BARNES: No. I'm talking about next Friday.

MR. RHOADS: I'm good. If sounds like we can eliminate spring break, if at all possible.

MR. BARNES: You mean eliminate testimony during spring break? Or at the very least, everyone can have Monday and Tuesday of spring break. Is -- does everyone like the idea of Monday and Tuesday for spring break?

MS. LAUER: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday is not good for me. I could try to shift things around.

MR. BARNES: Let's adjourn.

I hereby adjourn.

(The hearing concluded at 12:08 p.m.)

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

MR. RHOADS: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: All here and accounted for.

MR. BARNES: A full committee being present, we are ready to start. And I believe we told -- I told the officers to bring the witness in.

Good afternoon. Thank you for being here. Just go ahead and take a seat. We'll start with administering an oath.

[redacted]: Okay.

[redacted]

being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Can you state your name.

A. [redacted]

Q. And, ma'am, have you ever given testimony in a deposition before?

MR. BRIGHAM: I'm sorry?

Q. Have you ever given testimony in a deposition before -- not --

MR. BRIGHAM: In a deposition.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) In a deposition.

A. No. No. Never.

Q. In a deposition?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So we're just going to have a conversation. There are a couple of ground rules. If someone asks you a question, and you don't understand it, please don't hesitate to ask them to stop and rephrase. I see you're nodding your head now. You can't nod your head in answers to questions.

A. Okay.

Q. You have to say "yes" or "no."

A. All right.

Q. And if you need to take a break at any time, just let us know, and we can take a break.

MR. BARNES: And, Counsel, would you like to introduce yourself?

MR. BRIGHAM: Sure. My name is Chad Brigham, counsel at Goldenberg, Heller & Antognoli in Edwardsville, Illinois.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) And so the way this is going to work is, I'm going to ask you a series of questions to start, and then our vice chair is going to ask some questions, our ranking member is going to ask you some questions, and then down the line in terms of legislative seniority. Some people may not have questions, and we'll -- we will see.

I'm the chairman of this committee. I'm Jay Barnes. I'm from here in Jefferson City. You should also know that we have the authority under our rules -- we will redact your name and protect your privacy in this process.

Ma'am, how long have you known [redacted]

[redacted]

A. Almost ten years.

Q. How would you describe your relationship?

A. Good friends.

Q. And have you worked together or just met as social acquaintances?

A. No. I met her almost ten years ago. My husband was friends with her now ex-husband, and so when I got with my husband almost ten years ago, I was introduced to [redacted] and [redacted] and we hung around as a foursome. A few years after I met her, I -- she also started doing my hair and ...

Q. Have you known [redacted] to have a reputation for truthfulness and honesty?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that her reputation?

A. Yes.

Q. Did [redacted] ever speak to you about contacts she had with Eric Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. And when was the first time she spoke with you?

A. I don't remember the specific date, but it was sometime in March of 2015.

Q. Do you remember it in relation to when the events happened and how many days after?

A. No. She first mentioned him before the event, that he was a client that had came in that -- there was flirtation, that he was a good-looking guy, he was a Navy Seal, that he was a Rhodes Scholar -- I remember that specifically, because I had no idea what a Rhodes Scholar was, so I had to go home and Google -- that he had authored some books. I couldn't even remember his name when I had gotten back from getting my hair done, so I had to Google -- I remembered Eric and a word in one of his books, and that's all I -- I didn't know who he was or anything.

Q. So she had mentioned previous to March those types of facts about him?

A. It was probably maybe sometime in early March, maybe. It wasn't long before I heard about the event.

Q. Okay. And where were you when -- you referred to it as "the event" -- and we'll get into that in a minute.

A. It was a phone conversation.

Q. And who were the parties to that conversation?

A. Just me and [redacted]

Q. And what did she tell you?

A. That she had been invited over to Greitens' house. She had suggested that -- she really wasn't comfortable going to his house; she would rather do something like a coffee shop.

Q. When you say "she had suggested," was she suggesting that to you or --

A. Oh, I'm sorry. To Greitens. That Greitens had suggested that she come over to his house, that she had said that she really didn't feel comfortable going there, that she would rather do something like talk at a coffee shop. He said that he could not do that because he could not be seen in public with her. And so -- that he wanted her to come over to his house. And it was within walking distance of The Chase, where she worked, and that she did -- she did end up going over there.

Q. Okay. And did she tell you what happened after she went over there?

A. Yes.

Q. And what did she say?

A. She had went into his house, that he was trying to make her feel comfortable because she was nervous. He had given her some sort of loungewear -- some sort of lounge pant to put on and some sort of T-shirt -- not what she wore over there, but clothes that he had had, and that he invited her down to his basement to teach her how to do a proper pull-up -- she's really into fitness. She went downstairs. He had bound her hands to some sort of pull-up equipment with some sort of tape that he had, put a blindfold over her eyes. He had ripped her shirt and pulled down her pants some, because -- she has a hernia scar, and he had made some comment about her -- maybe not a scar -- or something abnormal because of the hernia. He had made some comment about that. She had seen a flash through the blindfold, and that he had taken a picture.

Q. Did she tell you whether she had consented to that?

A. No, she did not consent.

Q. Did she tell you whether she had?

A. No. She said she was embarrassed and shocked that he had said that she had better not mention his name because he would then distribute the pictures.

Q. Did she tell you about anything that happened after that point in time that she told you about?

A. Yes. That she was embarrassed and upset.

She was married, so she was worried about the stuff being out. She has family that she's close to, that she had gotten upset, and that Greitens was trying to comfort her, telling her that it was going to be okay, and that she did end up performing oral sex on him.

Q. Did she tell you the circumstances of how that came about?

A. I don't recall. I think it was on a floor -- a basement floor. She was upset, and he was consoling her. That's the only thing I can remember from that, besides the actual act.

Q. Did she tell you what happened after that?

A. That she had went back upstairs. She got back to the salon. She had forgotten her keys there, so she had to go back to his house. She was upset, she was angry, she was embarrassed, and that he said, Just don't worry about it; I have deleted the picture.

Q. When she spoke with you, how many days after the incident do you believe it was?

A. I'm not sure of the exact number of days, but it was what I would consider, like, fresh -- like, it had -- it had newly happened.

Q. And what was her demeanor on that phone call?

A. Embarrassed. Shocked. My -- when she was telling me this, my very first reaction was that it -- he sounded creepy. It was creepy for him to be taking this picture. It doesn't sound like this was, in my opinion, the first time he had done this, because he was taking this picture and using it to keep her quiet, for whatever reason. I thought it was because he was married. She thought he had feelings for her. I -- I didn't think that was true, but she was pretty set on it. She thought that -- that he cared about her.

Q. Did she speak to you at any other time after that about her relationship with Eric Greitens?

A. We spoke several times after that, and it probably partly had to do with Greitens, but we talked a lot about her marriage problems and then kind of how the Greitens thing was intertwined in this.

Q. Did she tell you of any other -- is there anything else that stands out to you about the things she said about Eric Greitens?

A. She did recount a story that occurred -- I want to say it was in July, but I didn't hear about it right when -- I only heard about it maybe a month or so ago when we had met up for dinner, about how she had met him back in -- met him again in July, that he was communicating with her through a TracPhone, and that she had went there. His wife was out of town, that she had -- he had asked her if she had any sort of sexual relationship with anybody since they had been together last. She stated that she had had sex with her husband -- her husband at the time, and that that had made him angry, and that he had slapped her in the face and called her a whore.

Q. Is there -- I'm going to ask -- this is similar to the last question I asked. Is there any other conversation you recall?

A. That she had sent -- well, she had told me that after the event -- the event at his house with the picture, that he had came in sometime after that to the salon -- it would have been before July -- before working hours. [redacted] was the only one there, and he had showed up. There was some sort of make-out session only then. She had also commented that -- the way her station was set up at the salon, the whole back wall was windows, and that she could see him several times walking past the windows while she was doing hair. She also ran into him one time at a grocery store -- I don't recall which one -- and that he was there with a toddler, and that it was uncomfortable for her. That's all -- and that she had sent him an e-mail -- and this would have been after, even, the July incident, that he couldn't come in and get his hair cut, he couldn't come into the salon anymore.

MR. BARNES: I have no further questions for now.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PHILLIPS:

Q. I'm Representative Don Phillips, and I just have a couple of questions.

One is, do you have any knowledge if [redacted] was contacted by Governor Greitens or any of his staff or attorney after the story broke? Did she ever share anything like that with you?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Do you have any knowledge that she received -- or did she tell you about receiving any kind of compensation or anything related to her remaining quiet on the story?

A. She specifically told me she did not receive anything.

Q. Okay. All right.

MR. PHILLIPS: That's all I've got.

MR. BARNES: Representative Mitten.

MS. MITTEN: I have no questions.

MR. BARNES: Representative Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Yes, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LAUER:

Q. Jeanie Lauer from the Kansas City area. And I want to ask you about -- from the period of time -- you're good friends for ten years?

A. Yeah.

Q. And so over the period of time that she was talking to you about the situation, would you describe -- if you were to, like, chart this out on a graph, her level of emotion as she was talking with you about this? So as an example, after the -- when she talked to you about she had met him, he was flirtatious, what her emotions were like when she talked to you, and then after the event -- kind of walk through that -- what her emotions were.

A. I feel like they were pretty consistent, that it was anxiety and stress -- because her marriage was so intertwined with it, too. A lot of the conversations, even after the event with Greitens, had to do with how it would affect her marriage, if it -- you know, her ex-husband -- her now ex-husband found out. She was embarrassed, in general, but I think that -- she was in such a bad place in her marriage, and I think that she really thought that Greitens had feelings for her. So I feel like she was very conflicted, especially between the actions that Greitens was doing and then what he was telling her, how smart she was and -- trying to balance those with the -- his actions, too.

Q. Okay. And did she ask you for any advice that you gave to her?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was that?

A. Right after it happened, I told her not to tell her ex-husband all of the details. Several months afterwards, her and [redacted] were trying to work on their marriage. They were going to counseling. I told her that she should tell him everything. My fear was if they actually made their marriage work, and then a year went by, and she didn't tell him every single detail, and then [redacted] found out something she had left out a year from now, then all of the work that she had -- they had put into it to make their marriage work would all be gone. So I told her that she should be fully honest with him about everything that happened.

Q. Okay. When you were discussing the first event that she talked with you -- the first meeting, you said that she said that Mr. Greitens was flirtatious --

A. Yes.

Q. -- or flirty -- yeah, flirtatious. Did she give you any specific descriptors about what that meant?

A. Just that he was extremely complimentary of her. He came off really intelligent and good looking and was paying her a lot of attention and compliments. I know that she was eating up -- specifically because she was in such a low spot in her marriage.

Q. Okay. And, also, the other thing you said, that she -- she did not feel comfortable going to his house.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Could you describe that? Did she use any specific descriptors about what that meant?

A. No. Not that I can recall.

Q. Okay. And when this whole thing came out into the open, you were still communicating with her?

A. Yes. We were still talking. I had no indication that this was going to come out except for the fact that I started getting phone calls from reporters. That's how I first found out about it, that a reporter from Politico called me and left me a message asking for some comment. I had no idea what they were talking about. Thirty minutes later, I got another phone call from a reporter, and that's when my husband and I started Googling on, like, Twitter to see what could possibly it be, and that's when I texted her.

Q. So she had not given you any indication that anything was breaking?

A. I think she was just keeping everything quiet.

Q. And so what is your thought on how these reporters got your name?

A. I'm not sure how they got my name, but several of them -- I have gotten calls from the New York Times, CNN. I haven't talked to any of them, so I'm not sure -- they just leave me messages telling me they want some comment and it can be off the record; they just want my voice, but I just -- I haven't talked to any of them.

Q. Okay. So you've never responded to any of their requests for interviews?

A. No. I haven't even answered the phone.

Q. You haven't answered the phone?

A. No.

Q. What is your relationship with [redacted] now?

A. With [redacted]

Q. [redacted] I'm sorry.

A. Still good friends.

Q. Okay. And how would you describe her emotions -- her feelings at this point in time, now that everything has come out?

A. Anxiety.

Q. Okay.

A. Stress. She would -- she never wanted this to come out. She would have never brought this out. She's got minor children; she has her own business and -- a lot of stress.

Q. Okay. And as her friend, she may have told you what caused her to continue to interact with Greitens. What was it that -- when she said she didn't feel comfortable and had anxiety and so forth, yet she continued? Did she share -- to what degree did she share with you why she was doing that?

A. She thought -- I think she thought he cared for her.

Q. She thought he cared for her?

A. Yes.

Q. And you questioned that feeling?

A. Immediately.

Q. Okay. And why was that?

A. Immediately. Because his actions of binding her and taking a picture, it sounded extremely creepy for me. I mean, I didn't understand why he would take great lengths -- that's a really big step to take for your wife not to find out. You know, you take a picture of someone that you're planning to be intimate with, and you're taking a picture and telling her that you'll distribute if she says his name, I thought, was a very big step to take just so his wife wouldn't find out. I didn't even occur me that it would have been any other reason than for his marriage.

Q. Okay. And what did she specifically say that caused you come to the feeling that he was creepy?

A. The blindfolding, the picture, not wanting her to tell anybody or he was going to distribute this picture, making her change clothes, I thought, was odd. The whole thing, to me, from an outsider didn't seem like he cared at all; it just seemed like a creepy action to me.

Q. Okay. As her friend, were you ever concerned about her safety?

A. No. Because I thought it was just -- I was concerned about it leaking out to her house -- you know, I wasn't concerned for her safety, because, to me, it was just a married man having an affair with a married woman, so my biggest concern was spouses finding out.

MS. LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. AUSTIN:

Q. Hi, I'm Kevin, state representative in District 136.

You said earlier that you and [redacted] were still -- that was when you were still talking, but then you also said you're still friends; is that right?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Do you guys still talk?

A. Oh, yeah. Regularly. Sorry.

Q. And when was the last time you talked with her?

A. A couple of days ago.

Q. Okay. Was there any talk about these hearings that we're having that you're in today?

A. Just that I was really nervous and asking her kind of who was in the room. So -- it's intimidating being on this side.

Q. I'm sure it is. And I apologize for that.

Did you talk about any of the substance of the questions that you could anticipate?

A. No. Just that we were sitting here and kind of that the panel would be there.

Q. Physical layout?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay. Has anybody besides reporters approached you about this?

MR. BRIGHAM: Next question. We better keep that ...

Q. (By Mr. Austin) Same question. We'll exclude the circuit attorney's office regarding the grand jury.

MR. BRIGHAM: Not narrow enough.

Q. (By Mr. Austin) Has anybody from Eric Greitens' office or anybody claiming to be associated with Eric Greitens contacted you?

A. No.

Q. We have what we believe to be a recording made by her husband -- an audio recording of a conversation between her now ex-husband and her. Do you know of any other recordings that he made?

A. No. I was surprised to hear that there were audio recordings.

Q. Has anybody besides reporters and law enforcement contacted you about this matter?

MR. BRIGHAM: I'm hesitant, just knowing -- I don't know if some of the relationships of -- of the relationships between certain offices, so I think we better not answer that, as well, at this time.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) And I'll just ask you -- has anybody from Enttera, LLC, or anybody claimed to be associated with Enttera, LLC contacted you?

MR. BRIGHAM: We can't answer that question.

Q. (By Mr. Austin) When [redacted] was describing that -- the event, if you will, did she in any way describe what the tape was that was put around her hands?

A. No. I only recall it just being tape.

Q. She just said tape?

A. Yeah.

Q. Did she in any way describe the blindfold?

A. No. Just that it was a blindfold.

Q. And did she tell you how she knew there was a photograph?

A. A flash of light.

Q. And did she ever tell you that she actually saw the photograph -- obviously, no?

A. No. That she -- she had saw the flash, and then when she came back to get her keys that she left, that he said, I deleted the picture; don't worry about it.

Q. Did you -- did she ever tell you or show you any screenshots she made of any texts or copies of any e-mails between her and Eric Greitens?

A. No.

MR. AUSTIN: That's all.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. RHOADS:

Q. My name is Shawn Rhoads. State representative from West Plains.

Just to kind of clarify a couple of things that you have said before. You said you have been contacted by, like, CNN and -- and whatever. Is that on your cell phone, or is that --

A. Yes.
Q. So someone is giving out your cell phone.
A. And my full name. [redacted] is what they're asking for.
Q. Okay. Well, ma'am, who would you speculate has done that?
A. I don't know.
Q. Okay. Did [redacted] husband -- ex-husband -- know your cell phone number?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So you said earlier that you and [redacted] often talk. Are we talking five times a week? More than that? Once a day? I'm talking talking -- I'm sorry, I want to clarify. I'm talking, talking on the phone, not texting, because I'm sure I am going to answer that question here in a little bit, too.
A. I think that we talked more often back in 2015 because I was getting my hair done by her. So for a woman, that's, like, six -- every six to eight weeks that I would see her for a couple of hours, getting my hair done consistently, and then talking between my hair appointments, too. I would say more recently, probably once a month.
Q. Okay. Do you text each other very much?
A. Probably around the same. Probably once or twice a month, a phone call, text, now.

Q. So how many times would you say -- and I realize you can't point that you have talked about the -- any incident or any kind of interaction with Eric Greitens and [redacted]?
A. I would say quite a bit, but in varying capacities, because, again, a lot of our talks may not have been about the event but more about her marriage and her ex-husband and how all of that was kind of being brought into play because of all of our talks about marriage and all of that stuff.
Q. Do you think she was really detailed in what she told you, or do you think that maybe she didn't give you all of the details?
A. As far as the event?
Q. As to what happened and went on during her interaction with Eric Greitens.
A. I don't know. I don't know.
Q. Okay. I want to touch on a question that Representative Phillips had asked about compensation. How did that come up in a conversation?
A. Because [redacted] had made a comment somewhere about -- I think maybe -- I want to say it was -- I'm not real sure -- that [redacted] had made some comment about how it must be nice for -- basically implying that [redacted] had gotten a new car or that she had been compensated. And [redacted] was like, Of course I never got paid anything. So it was all centered around some allegations that [redacted] thought she had been paid some hush money.

Q. I understand. Okay.
A. I was trying to remember where I had seen that conversation. I think it was a third-party Twitter account that we suspected may have been set up by [redacted], and that's where that conversation came from.
Q. Do you know what that Twitter account is?
A. It was, like, show_metoo, t-o-o, something like that.
Q. Do you think it's still active?
A. I'm not sure. I try to stay off of there.
Q. I understand.
So I want to go back to these calls you've been getting. When did they start?
A. I don't know the date, but it was the very evening that the -- Greitens made his -- the --
Q. So the night of the State of the State -- that didn't get over until, like, 8:30 or nine o'clock, and you immediately started getting calls after that?

A. Before that.
Q. Before --
A. Probably -- if I had to guess, like, between six and seven that evening. It was early.
Q. Okay.
A. The first one.
Q. What is your feelings about someone giving out your number and giving this information about you?
A. I'm not happy about it because -- I'm, like, constantly watching my phone to make sure -- any number -- I'm not able to answer any number that I don't know. Sometimes they're not leaving messages. We do some sort of reverse lookup to see who it is that's calling. Most recently it's been the St. Louis Post Dispatch. I think my last three or four phone calls have been from a Jack Suntrup from the St. Louis Post.
Q. Do they say, Hey, I got your number from so-and-so when they leave a message --
A. No.
Q. They just say --
A. Hey, [redacted].
Q. They can go straight to the point and say,

Hey, we need to talk to you about this; call me back?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay.

A. They could be off the record -- you know, that kind of -- those kind of comments.

Q. I understand. I understand.

So when you were talking to [redacted] on the phone -- and you may have already said this, and I apologize if I'm asking you a second question that you have already answered. Did she seem upset on the phone; did she seem okay on the phone, just kind of like a normal conversation but just say -- telling you what's going on or -- I realize that's several conversations, but at any time did you hear an emotional -- her getting very emotional on the phone or anything like that?

MR. BARNES: Can you specify the time of the call?

MR. RHOADS: The first one -- the first call.

A. She was emotional. To be honest, she was emotional in some way on almost every phone call during that time. Because it was either emotional about what had happened with Greitens or it was emotional about the state of her marriage.

Q. Okay. And that -- you reminded me of a question that I had typed up that I was going to ask you.

My interpretation of when she was here, she said that she was kind of in a -- in a rough place, obviously, with her marriage not being in a good way, and I'm going to ask you, from that point, when that stuff was going on to now, her dealing with problems in her life, saying they are better than they used to -- because at that point in time, when all of this was going on, this alleged -- what we're talking about here was going on, she appeared to be -- and she even said, I was really distraught and confused and just not in a good place and -- you know, obviously it seems like she's a lot better now than she was. Is that correct?

A. Oh, my -- yes. Yes.

Q. Okay. I said a lot of words but -- sorry about that.

Mr. Chair, thank you.

MR. BARNES: Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERSON:

Q. I'm Tommie Pierson, Jr., state representative in St. Louis County.

So -- just, again, did anyone contact you about Eric Greitens other than reporters -- state -- law enforcement or federal law enforcement, any circuit attorney or any staff member of the circuit state's attorney's office, any investigator, expert, or other person retained by or affiliated with the circuit attorney's office?

MR. BRIGHAM: Anyone other than that?

MR. PIERSON: Yes.

A. Nope.

Q. (By Mr. Pierson) Has anyone from New Missouri ever contacted you about [redacted] or Eric?

A. I don't think so, because I'm not sure what that is.

Q. Has anyone from Axiom Strategies contacted you about [redacted] or Eric?

A. Nope.

Q. Has anyone from the Dowd Bennett law firm ever contacted you about [redacted] or Eric?

A. No.

Q. Anyone from Scott Rosenblum's office ever contacted you about [redacted] or Eric?

A. No.

Q. Were you under the impression that [redacted] believed that Eric did, in fact, delete the photo?

A. Yes.

Q. So your relationship started with [redacted] based upon the relationship with the husband?

A. Yes. I met them both at the same time, but my husband knew her -- knew [redacted] before he even met [redacted]

Q. And how would you describe that relationship now?

A. Which relationship?

Q. Well, the relationship with [redacted].

A. My relationship with [redacted]?

Q. Yes.

A. It's nonexistent. Once they got divorced, you almost had to pick a side. And I was still getting my hair done by [redacted] and -- it was kind of an ugly time. So I have not spoken to him in a couple of years.

Q. Did you talk about a conversation where it was relayed to you that -- in an encounter with Eric and [redacted] where she got slapped in the face?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And you said that he called her a whore?
A. Right.
Q. Have you ever noticed any -- I guess, any facial -- any bruises or scars or anything of that nature on [redacted]
A. No.
MR. PIERSON: Thank you.
EXAMINATION
BY MR. BARNES:
Q. Have you shared this information with anyone other than the list that Representative Pierson -- let's go back. Scratch that. Let's start it this way.
Prior to January, did you share any of this with anyone other than [redacted]?
A. The attorneys at the law firm that I work with, when I started getting phone calls. My husband, also.
Q. You described to us two acts, at some level, of a physical altercation between Greitens and [redacted]. Are there any other incidents that you're aware of beyond those two acts?
A. No. Not -- just what information I gave you today. That's all I know.
MR. BARNES: Okay.

Representative Lauer.
MS. LAUER: Yes, Mr. Chair. A few follow-up questions.
MR. BARNES: Yes, ma'am.
MS. LAUER: Thank you.
EXAMINATION
BY MS. LAUER:
Q. As being a hairstylist -- and in that business, I know that in my experience, it is very normal to have conversations with a hairstylist while you're spending time there and so forth. Was that natural for her to do with her customers, to have conversation and just kind of get to know her?
A. I'm not sure. I was already friends with her by the time I started getting -- having her do my hair, so I really didn't see her do anybody else's hair.
Q. Okay. All right.
A. I'm not sure.
Q. At the time -- during the times when she was talking to -- and you said she had anxiety and stress about her situation with her ex-husband and so forth. Did she give you any indication that there was a concern of what the ex-husband might do?
A. I think that all of us that knew -- my husband, me --

MR. BRIGHAM: Are you asking if [redacted] expressed that to her?
MS. LAUER: Yes. I'm sorry.
A. Yes. That it -- that he would -- that it was kind of hung over her head that he had this information.
Q. (By Ms. Lauer) Okay. And continuing with that, did she share -- did [redacted] share with you any specifics as to what she was concerned that her now ex might do to her, to Greitens, to anyone?
A. I think she was just afraid he'd tell.
Q. That he would tell?
A. Right.
Q. Whom?
A. Tell whoever would listen -- his friends, her family, his family. I think that was her biggest fear, is that he just wouldn't keep it under wraps. You know, that he had this information; he was hurt by this information, and that she was worried about what he'd do with the information.
Q. And did she feel that there was a risk that he would share this publicly?
A. Yes.
Q. She did state that?

A. That she was scared that he would say something?
Q. Yeah. That he would share this information publicly.
A. Publicly to not her friends and family?
Q. Uh-huh.
A. I'm not sure.
Q. Okay.
A. I'm not sure how to answer that.
Q. All right. And I just want to confirm the money -- that she had not received any monies for keeping quiet and not sharing anything. Have you been at her home?
A. Have I been to [redacted] home?
Q. Uh-huh.
A. Yes.
Q. Have you noticed any remodeling that was done there in the kitchen area?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Have you noticed that she has a different vehicle than what she might be driving originally?
A. No. I haven't noticed anything.
Q. She still has the same vehicle, same kitchen?

A. Nothing that I have noticed.
Q. Okay.
A. But I don't know. I don't really pay attention to that stuff. Sorry.
Q. And at any -- at any time during her discussions with you, she shared that she had feelings for him, that -- and that she did not feel like that was reciprocated. Is that right? Or did she feel that there was a love or -- whether you might call --
A. Yes. Absolutely.
Q. She did feel that?
A. I think she felt that Greitens cared a lot about her.
Q. Okay.
A. I think that was from the beginning, she felt that.
Q. Okay. And did she share why she felt that way?
A. I think because he was saying nice things to her. He was making nice comments, very complimentary -- like, this was a new thing for him to be outside of his marriage. I think she felt special.
Q. Did she feel excited about that, as in joyful?

A. I don't remember her feeling excited about it; I just remember her feeling anxiety about the whole situation.
MS. LAUER: All right. Thank you.
Thank you, Mr. Chair.
MR. BARNES: I have just a few more.
EXAMINATION
BY MR. BARNES:
Q. You testified earlier that [redacted] said she was uncomfortable going to Greitens' house.
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Did she express why?
A. Not that I recall.
MR. BARNES: I have no further questions.
Thank you for taking the time to come down and speak us with today. We appreciate it.
[redacted]: You're welcome.
MR. BRIGHAM: Thank you.
Is there a process, just to kind of set the table for what could potentially happen in the future, in terms of testimony or --
MR. BARNES: At this point in time, we will not -- I appreciate the question because you're trying to plan -- you know, you've got a life and -- in Illinois that you want to live and don't want to be dragged down here to Jefferson City, and I wish I could give you specifics, but I have no specifics at this time.

MR. BRIGHAM: Could this be used as a deposition-type testimony, something like that?
MR. BARNES: If we need to go there, we'll go there.
MR. BRIGHAM: Fair enough.
MR. BARNES: Thank you.
And now I will motion that we recess until -- he's coming in at 3:30 -- 3:15?
We'll recess until 3:15. All of those in favor, signify by saying "aye."
(Unanimous "aye")
MR. BARNES: Actually, let me back up.
Having voted and decided that -- the prevailing side, I'd like to reconsider the motion to reconvene at 3:15, and instead we will reconvene at 3:30, the time we actually told him to get here, and we will each show up 15 minutes early.
So now the motion is to roll call to reconsider the previous motion.
Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.
MR. CURCHIN: Barnes.

MR. BARNES: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Phillips.
MR. PHILLIPS: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Mitten.
MS. MITTEN: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Lauer.
MS. LAUER: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Austin.
MR. AUSTIN: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Rhoads.
MR. RHOADS: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Pierson.
MR. PIERSON: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Okay. That motion is carried, seven.
MR. BARNES: So the witness may show up early. I know everyone wants to go home as early as they can. So let's -- can we recess to an indefinite time, and people plan to be back here about -- let's recess until three o'clock, and we may stand at ease until such time as the witness ...
All of those in favor of recessing until 3:00 p.m. say aye.
(Unanimous "aye")
MR. BARNES: The ayes clearly have it.

We'll stand in recess.

And we can go off the record.

(A recess was taken.)

(Exhibit No. 2 was marked for identification.)

MR. BARNES: I call us back to order.

And I now move, while we're waiting on the witness, to close Monday's session, which will begin at 1:00 p.m.

All those in favor will vote yes, and all those opposed will vote no.

MR. CURCHIN: Summarize what will be involved in that.

MR. BARNES: Monday at one we are hearing from another person I identify is by [redacted] as someone she spoke with in the week or two after March 21st.

Mr. Secretary.

MR. CURCHIN: Barnes.

MR. BARNES: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Phillips.

MR. PHILLIPS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Mitten

MS. MITTEN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Rhoads.

MR. RHOADS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: Aye.

MR. BARNES: There were seven ayes. We vote to close Monday's hearing.

And now we will stand at ease until the witness arrives.

MR. BARNES: We are now back in session, having recessed. It is approximately 3:45 in the afternoon.

Mr. [redacted], my name is Jay Barnes; I'm the chairman of this committee. I'm a state representative here in Jefferson City. Before we start, I'm going to swear you in.

[redacted]

being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Please state your name.

A. [redacted]

Q. And have you ever given testimony in a deposition -- not in front of a grand jury or any sort of investigation, just a deposition?

A. No, sir.

Q. Okay. Well, this is not a deposition, but it's kind of like a deposition, so there's some just basic ground rules. One is, if you don't understand a question, that's okay. Stop the person asking the question and ask them to ask it again.

A. Yeah.

Q. The second rule is, you can't nod your head yes or shake your head no, you have to answer "yes" or "no," because the court reporter cannot get a head shake.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Okay. And the third rule is if you need to stop for any reason, just let us know, okay? And we can do that.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Okay. You should also know that the committee will redact your name and certain information for privacy reasons. We insist that the rules establishing this committee allow us the authority to do that, so feel free to speak freely and know that we have the power with that.

A. Thank you, sir.

Q. I want to start with what I've set on that table, which is an e-mail that was sent by your attorney to us in response to a request for documents. Do you recognize this e-mail?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And how do you recognize it?

A. It was an e-mail that I sent when I had suspected my ex-wife of being at her home -- being Sheena -- Sheena's home during a time that she wasn't there.

Q. Is it a fair and accurate representation of the e-mail that you sent?

A. Is this the e-mail that I sent?

Q. Yes. Is it a fair and accurate representation of that e-mail?

A. Yes.

Q. It is, in fact, that e-mail?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And on page 2, is that the response -- are these the responses that you received in response from Sheena Greitens' e-mail?

A. Yes, sir. I think it was an auto-response.

Q. That's what it looks like to me as well.

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Okay. Did you ever speak with Sheena Greitens?
A. Not specifically.
Q. Did you -- how did you know that your ex-wife was at the Greitens' home at the time that you sent this e-mail?
A. I had driven -- I had driven by multiple times when I suspected that she wasn't at work when she was supposed to be at work, and I seen my car -- her car/my car out in the front of the home.
Q. And that was on this date in question, on July 3rd?
A. Yes, sir. Yeah, I believe. I was on my way to or from work. It was during the day.
Q. Okay. Your attorney also sent certain recordings to the committee. Have you listened to those recordings?
A. In the past, yes.
Q. Okay. Did you participate in those recordings?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you the person who, in fact, recorded those conversations that were sent to this committee?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. And have you altered them in any form or fashion?
A. Absolutely not.
Q. Were -- who had possession of those recordings before they came to this committee?
A. From my understanding, only myself and my attorney.
Q. And are those recordings true and accurate depictions of conversations that you had with your ex-wife, [redacted]
A. Absolutely.
Q. Now, those recordings have a lot of information in them and conversations that really are no business of this committee and your marital relationship with your ex-wife. Obviously, though, the -- her relationship and your conversation about her interactions with Eric Greitens are relevant. So before I ask you the next question, I want to start with the preface that we don't want to get into the feelings and the marital strife that you have; we want to talk about what she told you about Eric Greitens.
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Okay?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. And so other than the recordings that you sent us -- in particular, recording No. 1, did your ex-wife ever speak to you about contacts she had with Eric Greitens?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And other than what she told you in that long recording that has been -- parts of which have been played on the air, what did she tell you?
A. In --
MR. WATKINS: In addition to what was on the recording.
Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Let me narrow my question, okay?
A. Okay.
Q. Let's start with -- I believe the date was March 21st of the incident in the basement.
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Okay. And you had a conversation -- on what date did you record the conversation in your car -- I believe it was in the Save-A-Lot parking lot?
A. That was the following -- it was the -- March 21st was on a Saturday -- 22nd, 23rd, 24th -- so the 25th.

Q. Wednesday, March 25th?
A. Wednesday, March 25th was when the recording was made.
Q. So we obviously know from that recording what she told you in that recording on March 25th. Is there anything else she told you that day on March 25th?
A. On that day, no. That was the extent -- that was the extent of our discussions regarding that.
Q. When was the next time she talked to you about the events of March 21st?
A. We spoke about it many times. Many times after that, probably within a week.
Q. What else did she tell you about the events of March 21st that is not on the tape recording?
A. Within a few weeks of the recording, a period of reconciliation had begun between my ex-wife and I, and over the course of a month or two, had many conversations, many hours spent talking about all sorts of things -- other details were explained. The story always stayed the same; just additional details came out.
For instance, she initially didn't tell me that when she walked in, he had -- he asked her to go in the bathroom and put his clothes on, and that the clothes that he removed from her when she was tied up were actually his clothes, being shorts and a T-shirt, which he ripped off of her. That was information that was told to me afterwards. I don't think it was even touched on in the initial discussion.

How specific would you like me to get, sir?

Q. I would like to know as specific as you accurately recall --

A. All right.

Q. -- what she told you.

A. Okay. In the first one -- in the first conversation about the incident, she said that she forgot her keys and had to return after this, saying that when the picture was taken, she freaked out and asked to leave, left, went to work, forgot her keys, had to come back, but there was only discussion, but it went on for far longer than it should. He was enticing her and comforting her and these other things. And then later, I was -- she told me that -- in the kitchen, actually, when she returned, that he -- that she gave him a blow job in the kitchen, and that's when I learned -- after that, which was not in the initial conversation.

Q. What else about that day?

A. Yeah, she discussed that she was told to not park anywhere near there and to come -- she kept her car in the Chase garage, walked the few blocks down there, but walked by an alleyway behind the house. She described then how there was a detached garage and a fence that was high. She would be let in through the back door; she went through the fence. The back door then led into a kitchen-type area, which is where the -- he was sitting with her keys on the table, invited her in; they talked, and then it unfolded into more of a sexual encounter.

Q. Let's go back to the morning. Did she describe to you anything that happened after she -- describe being removed from the exercise rings?

A. The only thing she would say was just more detail about the conversation and about how upset she was, that she left; he was apologizing saying he would delete the photo, and that that's not what he wanted, he thought that this is what she wanted, and some other things along those lines.

Q. Okay. Is there anything else about that day, in particular, that you recall her talking about?

A. Oh, that was -- that was the initial one.

Q. Okay.

MR. BARNES: I'd advise counsel to let the witness answer the questions.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) After that day, did you have any conversations with your ex-wife about other encounters with Eric Greitens?

A. Yes. Many.

Q. Can you describe any of those other encounters?

A. Yes. During the first reconciliation period, she told me more details about the first encounter. She would tell me about other times where she had conversations with him. She wouldn't necessarily tell me if they were on the phone, but she always said he was very protective, so it's unlikely it was on the phone. I tried to get details about if he was coming into the salon or if she was meeting him otherwise, and she never led on to specifics, necessarily, about conversations that were had in that exact period.

Then later, around July -- late July, August, during the second reconciliation period, where I knew lots and lots of information was being withheld from me, I knew something had been going on -- during the period in between the reconciliation periods -- because everything was on a trajectory for reconciliation, and then suddenly I was cut off. I suspected that there was a good reason for that. And then she had a change of heart again. During our second reconciliation, she finally confessed around August time that during that time, that they did have other meetups, one of which she told me about was in a guest bedroom next to his son's bedroom -- it was upstairs. She went into pretty graphic detail and said that in the beginning of the encounter, that he asked her if she had been with anybody else, and she said, Yes, I was with my husband; we were trying to reconcile. He then hit her in the face, according to her -- she said that he hit her in the face. And that during that sexual encounter, while things were happening, he got extremely rough with her, and she was crying and asking him to stop and -- some other sexual detail.

Q. What -- you said "and some other detail." What other detail about asking him to stop?

A. That he was calling her names, that he called her a whore and similar names. It was just getting very rough in a sexual sense, and she was -- she said she was crying at that point and then asked to go to the bathroom.

Q. Were there other events that she told you about?

A. She led on to other encounters but never got specific in that sense. She told me about a few encounters that happened at work where he would come in unannounced and be in the chair and make appointments and things like that where she was -- during reconciliation was telling him to please go away, and he was showing up at her work.

MR. BARNES: Representative Phillips.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PHILLIPS:

Q. Don Phillips, state representative from District 138, down by Branson.

My questioning is going be a little bit different.

The transcript that we -- the transcript that we have, based on the recording that you did, were you ever compensated for the release of that information?

A. I spoke to the Post-Dispatch well before, and I have received nothing so far. My lawyer has a trust account that someone put something in after speaking to the Post-Dispatch, to cover lawyer fees and all of the things that were about to happen to me financially because of the fallout, but I had spent 15,000 or so dollars of my own prior to all of this, trying to keep all of this quiet, and then everything exploded underneath me. And while I was talking to the Post, someone contacted my lawyer and said he was going to help with legal fees.

Q. Okay. So that's the Post-Dispatch. Is there anybody else that has offered you any kind of compensation for the release of any of this information or encouraged you in that regard?

MX. SPEAKER2: I want to make sure there's clarity here, because I think what you just said was the Post-Dispatch offered and --

MR. PHILLIPS: Did I get that wrong?

MR. WATKINS: Yeah. So I'm instructing -- you know, my client has been very, very candid with me about the forthcoming nature of my scope of disclosures that can be made.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay.

MR. WATKINS: The representation by our firm of Mr. [redacted] commenced in September of 2016, before the election.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay.

MR. WATKINS: There was significant resources that were expended by my client.

MR. BARNES: Counsel, we are not directing questions to you.

MR. WATKINS: I understand that, but --

MR. BARNES: Counsel, we are not --

MR. WATKINS: I understand that -- Mr. Barnes, please understand --

MR. BARNES: Counsel --

MR. WATKINS: -- I have a duty and an obligation to my client. I will not allow him to compromise the integrity of his rights as a client with an attorney. So with respect to anything having to do with finances --

MR. BARNES: You can state your objection to the question and he can either answer it or not answer it, but we are not asking questions of counsel.

MR. WATKINS: I understand. And I don't -- I'm not answering questions or asking any questions; I'm providing you with information. You can choose to listen to it or choose not to, and that's up to you, but I'm making a record. I will instruct my client to feel free to disclose any and all information that he has that is within the subject matter of the purpose of this committee and to do so --

MR. BARNES: And the subject matter of this committee --

MR. WATKINS: So I have a duty and an obligation to my client that I will discharge today.

Go ahead and answer any questions. If I instruct you not to respond, please do so.

A. I -- the Post didn't give my anything, and I have not received any money.

Q. (By Mr. Phillips) That's all I needed to know. Thank you.

Now, as far as -- what was your motive for releasing the information?

A. I didn't want the information released. The only reason I -- the reason that I retained counsel is, A, I felt that the person that had threatened my wife at the time probably knew that she had told me, and I feared for my safety and my life and everything, if he knew that I had information, especially since he had started a campaign shortly afterwards. The guy frightened me -- things frightened me about the situation; I wanted nothing to do with him.

So the first thing I told my attorney was, I need a lawyer, somebody in law to have this recording in case I turn up dead so you guys know who to go after. I'm just telling you the exact words that I said to this man.

Secondly, I said, I don't want this to go anywhere. I've already been contacted by somebody that knows the rumors. People had contacted me and -- a representative, actually -- a politician guy who I was mutual friends with -- or wasn't friends with him -- we had mutual friends. He contacted me and talked to me and everything, and I realized, this is a political game; I want nothing to do with it. So I went straight to him and said, You've got to represent -- somebody has got to represent me so I can send this to you for you to keep this crap quiet. I need this crap quiet. I'm over the marriage. We were in the process of a divorce. I didn't want it to come out in the divorce. I didn't want anything to happen where my children knew about any of this. I didn't want any of this.

Over the course of the last two years, probably once -- once a month, if not more frequent, on occasion, less frequent on others, somebody would contact me, either through a voicemail or leaving a business card or something in my home -- in my front door, in my mailbox, et cetera. Not enough where it freaked me out where I needed to do anything, but enough where I would always send it to my lawyer saying, So-and-so from this station contacted me; so-and-so from this magazine contacted me; please make sure this is quiet.

All of a sudden, November, December of last year, I was getting messages four or five times a day from all sorts of places that I -- some that I knew; some that I didn't. Some national, international publications, some small -- a whole bunch that I couldn't keep track of, and I didn't want anything to do with it. But something had happened with a rumor or the story had got into the wrong hands where it was going somewhere.

Authorities knew a lot more and apparently were all over this and media was all over this. They were swarming me, and I couldn't -- I couldn't go to work without having work -- voicemails on my work saying -- and I mean down to the details -- down to the details I've never told anybody, down to the details I know that he's never told anybody. And aside from -- and I mean a couple of family members and my boss, no one knew some of these details -- nobody knew these details, and these were coming back to me on my work voicemail.

All of that, I'm calling him saying, These people know something, and they're saying that they're going to go with the story with or without me. That's all I kept hearing, and they were -- it was -- was a threat, certainly, the way that these things were being presented to me, saying, We know this; we know this; we're going to go ahead with this with or without you. It was media manipulation where they're telling me they've got something. And all I thought was, either this man was hacked or my phone was hacked. Because around the same time, my Facebook -- my Facebook, my phone, all sorts of digital things that I work with were acting real funky -- and I'm an awfully savvy guy, so I'm -- I'm not super susceptible to being hacked, but I'm also willing to admit that anything can happen, and I'm not the most technical guy. So I'm freaking out thinking that this audio is out there, because all of the details in the audio are being told back to me in the media. Scared me to death.

But the kicker for me was, my daughter got a voicemail from the media -- my teenage daughter.

She forwarded me the voicemail that was sent, and that was it, man. Like, I had to -- we had some serious conversations to be had. There was a couple of media outlets that said that they were going to go with the story right around the time that it was about to break. They gave me a timeline, essentially. Different publications gave different timelines, and, ultimately -- ultimately, I felt like I had, absolutely had to get out in front of it in order to, A, ask whoever broke the story to please not use my ex-wife's name, to please not use my child's name in that voicemail, to please try to protect the sanctity of my family, the privacy of my family. I begged for that, and I needed to get out ahead of the story, because one of the ways that it was being put to me -- and I don't -- no offense to everyone that's in politics, but I know enough about some of these papers that are owned and in the pockets of some of these parties and politicians, that they were going to spin it to make my ex-wife look like some dirty blackmailer or something that was trying to take down the governor, and that's not who she is. We may have our differences, but we're coparents, and we're responsible for these kids, and I don't want them in the limelight. And I certainly don't want my ex-wife in the limelight as a bad person and destroying her reputation in front of my children. And I -- I just felt it necessary -- I'm sorry to cut you off, sir. I just felt that I had no choice but to jump on the grenade, so to speak, and take some of the shrapnel and let -- take some of the fallout for hopefully the benefit of my children and the reputation of their mom.

MR. PHILLIPS: And I think that's the very reason I asked you that question, because you undoubtedly care about your children, that's pretty obvious, and your wife cares about those children. You have more than one, I assume?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. (By Mr. Phillips) I'm using the plural here. Okay.

So your testimony, then, is that you didn't voluntarily go and release any information because that would have been harmful to not only your wife's reputation but your children -- and very harmful for them and yours as well. And so anything that's tied into compensation goes through -- I don't understand the trust part of this, but it goes through a trust through your attorney; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't want anything. If it was offered, I don't want it.

Q. Okay.

A. I want to take care --

Q. To help with the legal fees, is that what you're saying?

A. Yeah. Legal fees and if -- who knows. If something was given or whatever, this is going into a trust for my children. I want nothing. I don't want a thing. I don't want any of this. I don't want a part of this. I don't want to be in the news. I don't want my ex-wife in the news. I don't care about politics. I don't care what happens to this man. I wish him luck. I don't want anything to do with this; I really don't. I cannot overstate that. I don't want to be here.

Q. Now, to get back with what you just said real quick. It's hard for me to imagine a husband whose wife has been through this with another man and be that forgiving. Have you always had that attitude? It's like, Oh, well, I wish him the best. I hope he gets along well?

A. Yeah.

Q. That really doesn't make too much sense to me.

A. I think it does, sir, if you were raised with my principles and my parents and my background and my spirituality and the way I am in my life these days, the person I'm in love with, the person that loves me now. Believe me, sir -- I have been through this before. When I was 21 -- I had a child at 17 with my high school sweetheart. My Baptist background told me I had to marry her at 18. I married her at 18. We were never supposed to be married; we were two kids. That woman had an affair on me and cheated on me with some ex-boyfriend. I've been through this before.

Q. Uh-huh.

A. And that boyfriend ultimately did me a favor, and me that woman are better than ever --

MR. BARNES: Let's get back to the focus of --

THE WITNESS: I'm just answering the man's question based on a principle, because some men probably couldn't forgive.

A. But I guarantee you guys, this man has this much (indicating) to do with my daily thoughts or my life or anything. My life is better than ever, and I want nothing more than a good relationship with the mother of my kids. That's all I care about.

Q. (By Mr. Phillips) Okay. All right.

A. Truly.

Q. Did you say earlier that you had been threatened, or did I misunderstand that?

A. No. The -- the media -- the way that was being --

Q. The way the media did?

A. Yeah, the way the media was presenting these things.

Q. Okay?

A. Saying -- giving all the details, and we're going with this story, regardless. That's -- that was the scariest.

Q. Right.

A. I'm thinking, you know, what am I going to read in the paper in the morning?

Q. I understand that. So there was never a threat coming from the governor's office or any of his people or calls from an attorney or representative of the governor in any way?

A. No, sir.

Q. Okay. One more question, real quick.

Did you give the media or names released to the media of any of -- friends of your wife or your friends or so that they could contact them and get statements from them and so forth?

A. I don't recall giving anything to the media. I gave my lawyer the few names of the people that knew the story as I did from my understanding.

Q. Okay. So your role would have been passing information along to your attorney?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Okay. And then one more thing, real quick, that I happened to think about. Earlier, I think, if I understood you right, you said something about what prompted this e-mail on 7/3 of '15 to Sheena Greitens, was that you saw your wife's car, as I understood it, at his home; is that right?

A. Yeah. On the street.

Q. Okay. And so, typically, I think you said after that, that she would park her car somewhere else and walk up there to his house. Why would she be careless on that day and have her car parked right out there in plain sight?

A. During that period, she was parking at a different garage -- a farther garage because the Chase Park Plaza garage was closed for construction, but I knew she had left the house at an hour that wasn't normal, so on my way to work or wherever I was going, I would drive by there and see if the car was there.

And you've got to remember, this was the time -- right after a reconciliation period that seemed to be going well, as far as I was concerned -- all of a sudden, I was cut off. So I was -- I was an emotional disaster. I was sleeping an hour and a half a night. It was the worst time in my entire life.

But during this second reconciliation period -- the deterioration of that reconciliation, I was able to really grasp life and accept things and move on. But that summer was --

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay. Thank you.

MS. MITTEN: I have no questions.

MR. BARNES: Representative Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Yes, Mr. Chair. Thank you.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LAUER:

Q. What was your reason for audio taping this conversation?

A. Well, I mean, just like I said about the summer, I was an emotional wreck. My -- my wife at the time, I had seen on her phone a few weeks prior, numbers that were connected to his phone -- they were his phone number. I had always known for many years that she had a crush on this guy and that --

Q. For how long did you think she had a crush --

A. I knew she had a crush on him for a number of years.

Q. A number of years?

A. Yeah, yeah. Since she had met him. He was just a client that she spoke of in a way that she wouldn't talk about other clients. And we were married for ten years. I know when, you know, my wife at the time, was attracted to another man. And this wasn't the first time.

So seeing those types of patterns and going through a number of weeks of not sleeping, knowing that my wife had been texting and calling and potentially meeting with another man had destroyed me, and she wasn't telling me.

It's a pretty common practice by me in my profession, and the way that my mind works -- I'm not very organized --

Q. I'm sorry. Back up. you said it's a pretty common practice for you to audio people?

A. No, no, no. To audio -- let me finish.

To use my phone as, like, a memo pad. First of all, I have to drive a lot because my children are in two different school districts, and I -- I'm in music -- I do music for a living. So it's a habit, instead of writing down a memo or jotting down in a notebook, I will use the audio recorder to say, I have to be at 7-Eleven at so-and-so time, or I have a song idea, and I'll sing into my phone. And, you know, I've done that a lot. I've -- I've never recorded anybody before, but I recorded myself taking notes, a lot of -- songs, all sorts of things. And all you know is that something had happened on the 21st, when my wife wasn't sleeping for a number of days. No sleep. Something was tearing her up. I had been torn up for a number of weeks. And on Wednesday morning at 3:00 a.m. on my drive to work that day, she had called me to tell me that she needed to speak to me. And I knew that whatever it was going to be -- from the sound of her voice, it was going to devastate me. So I asked her not to tell me prior to me going to work and to tell me at the end of my workday.

I left the office around 11:30 or noon, picked her up, took her to the parking lot -- had been up since three, had not slept, really, in weeks, and knew that something huge was happening. I also knew that it was my legal right to record her in Missouri -- in Missouri -- under the law. So I put the phone in the cup holder, hit record, knowing this was going to be a long and detailed conversation to which I was not going to be emotionally ready to handle all the details.

It's as easy of an answer as I can give. That was my motive. Did I know anything like this was coming? Absolutely not. I had no clues. I thought she was going to tell me that she was beginning something on the phone, because that's all I had had prior to that. I had no idea any of this was coming.

Q. So using your terms that you used that mechanism as a way -- as memo recorder, basically --

A. Yeah. It's called voice memos.

Q. So having that conversation as a quote/unquote memo, what was your purpose -- what were you going to do with it as a memo? What were you going to do with it at that point, then?

A. I knew that if we were going to reconcile and other conversations were going to go on, if I had learned anything -- if she told me anything that was different, I was going to be able to compare it to the initial story.

Q. So you were looking to catch her in some discrepancies?

A. I was looking to catch her in some minimalization of it. Because you've got to remember, I didn't know, necessarily, what was coming. I had just known that in the past, if I suspected her of doing something or expected any human of doing some, in an initial confession or discussion, they're going to minimize their role and minimize details and minimize something. It's going to be a concise version. So I just needed something to compare it to.

Q. So how long after 3/21 did you start driving by the house and kind of trying to find out where she was at?

A. Probably not until the end of the second reconciliation -- I'm sorry -- of the reconciliation.

Q. What time was that?

A. We're talking May -- May, June -- actually, probably -- yeah, May. I was a wreck. And I remember in April and May, I was trying to recalibrate myself. I knew that I was not performing well as an employee or as a father, and I needed to figure out how to sleep. I had talked to my doctor and said, I needed Xanax to sleep. I needed to recalibrate.

So I wasn't able to take in everything right off the bat. So I was -- I laid low and just kind of tried to take care of myself during that period and focus on -- I wasn't focused on too much except for that -- and hopefully saving my marriage. That's really all I focused on until something clicked and she said, I don't want to be with you.

Q. So your intent is on saving your marriage. You indicated that you are protective of her -- I think that was your word a while ago -- and that you are in a good relationship -- you want to be in a good relationship with her because you're parents of the children; right?

A. Yes.

Q. So why were you looking for discrepancies, then, as if to try to catch her in something?

A. Because there were phone calls and texts that were being hidden from me. I wanted to know the truth. I want to have a relationship that's always based on honesty and truth. When I say that, I'm protecting her --

MR. BARNES: Representative, if we could go back to -- I think we're now getting -- we're straying --

MS. LAUER: I'm sorry.

MR. BARNES: All right. Thank you. I'd like to get back on track.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) In the transcript on page 10, it says, "This won't leave the car."

A. Sure.

Q. And it did.

A. Yes.

Q. So why is that discrepancy, then? What happened -- why is there -- why did you say, This will not leave the car -- this conversation will not leave the car, then go to these extents to keep a tape, share it with an attorney, and it ends up public?

A. Okay. Again, when this all came and I really found out all of the details, you got to remember that I feared for my life.

Q. By whom? Who did you think was going to --

A. With this man and his commercials with his guns and the millions of dollars going to politics and this whole game that you hear about and conspiracy this and this person ends up dead and this person is missing and all this kind of crap -- I 100 percent feared for my life from the guy that's on TV holding guns talking about this and talking about that.

Now, knowing that he had just threatened my wife -- and I just heard this for the first time, and all I'm concerned about is my marriage and whether I can fix this and whether I'm getting all of the details from this encounter. Of course I'm going to say, This won't leave the car, because I never planned on it leaving the car. Never. Never. My intent was -- and my hope was for -- and I would think anybody in that position -- if you can put yourself in that position for a second. I'm a destroyed man hearing about his wife with another man. My hope, as small as it may have been, was that my marriage was going to survive this and this would all be in the past -- between me and her in a van. That was the hope. That was the hope all the way until December, when all of this --

MR. WATKINS: December of what year?

A. December of last year, when I was -- I felt forced -- my hand was forced to release this thing to protect what was happening. Because if somebody else had already had it -- I don't know how they were going to spin things. I knew that I hadn't edited anything. It can be proved that I hadn't edited anything. This is her telling a story about what happened to her. And if somebody else had the thing, you can manipulate all sorts of audio to serve a purpose, and I didn't know who or what side or what group or what politics were going to play into this, where they can manipulate and use that to then harm my family or harm her reputation or defend themselves in something they were going to have to admit. This is a political game that these people play, and I want nothing in it.

So I said, Okay, I'll sacrifice my -- do you know how embarrassing this is to have everybody hear all of this stuff and me damn near crying and groveling and all of that. It would take an insane person to release that.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) At what time did you ever consider getting rid of the audio?

A. As soon as my marriage was final. This meant nothing to me. I didn't listen to it; I didn't do anything with it except for, Oh, my God, if this man suspects that she told me, which I -- anyone would assume that that conversation had happened, because she then confessed to me that she went back there during -- in between the reconciliation periods. He was calling and trying to FaceTime her and he ended up in the salon in October. When all of that became clear that this is a relationship, but I don't know all the details. I don't know what they discussed; all I know is it's probably likely that if they had a relationship to the intimate degree that they did, she probably told him that he -- I'm sorry -- she probably told --

MR. BARNES: Let's stop. I'm going to stop -- we are far in the realm of speculation and -- again, if we could --

MS. LAUER: That was beyond what I had asked. That's fine.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) On page 28 -- sorry -- 22 and 28, you stated that she was half raped and blackmailed, and then on page 28, you said that she was raped and blackmailed on the transcript. So to what degree did you report that or address that?

A. Okay. I -- listen, that was my reaction to what I was being told. I still think -- again, if I had reported anything or -- the only thing is, you are dealing with a destroyed man sitting in a van still hoping that his marriage was reconcilable. I was trying to save my marriage. I loved my wife, and I wanted her back. I lost her for this moment in my head. I lost her for a moment in the past, and I was looking for the future, and all I thought was, This woman is telling me something that happened to her. I love this woman, and she's been violated.

I don't know what you want from me. I mean, I'm -- you got more words than I'm willing to say, because I'm not going to listen to these tapes. You think this is something I want to relive and --

Q. I'm just -- no, I'm not asking that; I'm just asking what you did in response to that -- having that statement.

A. I tried to save my marriage.

Q. So then --

A. I tried save --

Q. How many times did you follow her?

A. May I respond to that -- I never followed her.

Let me respond to what you said, though. I was trying to save my marriage. The only thing that was important to me was to save the marriage, and nothing was going to do but discussing things with my wife and trying to get everything out in the open and honest and keeping it between me and her. If you're asking why I didn't report anything, because I certainly didn't see it helping my marriage. And I'll tell you what, I didn't care about anything but my marriage at the time.

Q. Okay.

MS. LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: Can we take a five-minute recess?

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: No questions.

MR. BARNES: Rhoads.

MR. RHOADS: No questions.

MR. BARNES: Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: No questions, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: It's always -- I will have no questions at this time either.

I'm always reluctant to say I've got no further questions.

MR. WATKINS: For the record, my client will make himself available for supplemental requests for information, documentation, anything above and beyond that we haven't already given you.

We're not aware of, but if there is something that triggers, perhaps, the need to disclose something else, he's ready, willing, and able, and that includes a response to supplemental questions that you may have.

MR. BARNES: Okay. And we appreciate that, and we appreciate your willingness to come down here.

And we already voted to close Monday, so we will close that.

THE WITNESS: Can I make a statement real quick?

I'm here for you guys; I'm here for my state; I'm here for my country. This is not my fight. Contrary to whatever people would like to spin this into and put on me, I'll take the shrapnel. I don't care about this. I don't -- if my ex-wife -- this is not her fight; this is not my fight. I don't want anything to do with anything that she doesn't want anything to do with. All I care about is my children. That's all I cared about from the get-go. You question what you want. I truthfully don't care what people think of me -- I really don't. I just knew that I felt like I had a choice between something extremely bad and devastating or possibly bad for me, and that is devastating. I just want you guys to know I'm here for you, and I'll do what's legally required of me, but this is not my fight. I have moved on. My children are awesome and healthy and have moved on, and this doesn't benefit them, and it ain't my fight.

MR. BARNES: Thank you. Today's hearing is adjourned.

(The hearing adjourned at 4:38 p.m.)

Good afternoon. Counsel, would you like to note your presence for the record?

MR. LUDWIG: My name is Jason Ludwig of the law firm Carson & Coil. I'm here on behalf of [redacted]

[redacted].

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Before we start, I'm going to swear you in to start. We'll just talk about kind of the ground rules what we're doing here today, okay?

(Witness sworn.)

[redacted] being sworn, testified as follows.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. Can you state your name?

A. [redacted]

Q. And can you spell your name for the court reporter?

A. It's [redacted]

Q. Ms. [redacted], have you ever testified in a deposition before?

A. No, sir.

Q. Okay. So just let me give you some brief ground rules. This is not a deposition but it is a lot like a deposition that we have a court reporter here. When we ask you questions, you cannot answer by nodding your head yes or shaking your head no. You have to actually say yes or no so that our court reporter can make a record of your answers. Do you understand that?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. In addition to that, if there's anything that anyone asks you where you don't understand the question, please just ask them to repeat because it's important that if you're going to give an answer you understand what the exact question is that's being asked.

A. Okay.

Q. In addition to that, if you need to stop for any reason to take a break, just let us know and we can do that. Okay?

A. Okay. Thank you.

Q. Now, you should also note before starting that this Committee, the resolution which created it gives us the authority to redact names and information for the privacy of witnesses, and we will, in fact, be doing that. So your name will not be displayed out in full for the public. We will, in fact, redact your name from any report. I want to make sure you understood that before testifying.

A. Yes, thank you.

Q. Okay. How long have you known [redacted]

A. I've known [redacted] since kindergarten since five years old. I'm 35 so about 30 years.

Q. So did you go to school together?

A. Yes, we did.

Q. So elementary school?

A. Elementary school.

Q. Middle school?

A. We went to Catholic school. So it's K through 8, eighth grade.

Q. Did you go to high school?

A. No, we did not.

Q. Okay. But you've known each other even through high school?

A. Yes.

Q. And even after high school?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you worked with [redacted]

A. No, I have not.

Q. Just life long friends; is that how you describe it?

A. Yes.

Q. Does [redacted] have a reputation for truthfulness and honesty?

A. Yes, she does.

Q. And what is that reputation?

A. She's never lied to me about anything. She's pretty honest about her life in general.

Q. Did [redacted] ever speak to you about contact she had with Eric Greitens?

A. She did.

Q. When was the first time she spoke with you about contacts with him?

[redacted]

A. Approximately mid March of 2015.
Q. Do you remember where you were when she spoke to you about it?
A. Yes, I do. We were at my parents' home.
Q. And where is that?
A. That's in --
Q. Not address, just city.
A. -- St. Charles, Missouri.
Q. Is that a home that the two of you had hung out in and played in as children?
A. Yes.
Q. Were your parents home at the time?
A. I believe my mother was home.
Q. Was there anyone else who was involved in the conversation you had with [redacted]
A. No.
Q. How did it come about that you were there on that day speaking with [redacted]
A. We were going to go to dinner and we met at my mom and dad's house.
Q. And then before you went to dinner you had a conversation?
A. Yes, she gave me a book.
Q. Okay. And can you tell me what the book was?

[redacted]

A. It was his book, Eric Greitens' book. I don't know the name of it.
Q. What did she tell you about Mr. Greitens and her relationship with him at that point in time?
A. Just that she spoke fondly of him, said that she cut his hair and that she thought I would really like the book, and she gave it to me as like an early birthday present. My birthday is in March, the end of March.
Q. And did she say anything else at that time about Mr. Greitens?
A. Nothing in particular.
Q. When was the next time you spoke with her about Mr. Greitens?
A. Approximately the beginning of April 2015.
Q. And where were you at the time you had that conversation with her?
A. At her home in [redacted], Missouri.
Q. What were the circumstances of your being at the home?
A. Coffee, we were just having coffee.
Q. Did she ask to speak with you?
A. No. It was something that we had done for several years, just to go over in the morning before work or school and have coffee together.

[redacted]

Q. And what day of the week was this? Do you remember?
A. I don't recall.
Q. Okay. Did she speak to you then about Mr. Greitens?
A. Yes.
Q. And what did she tell you then?
A. She described an encounter that she had with him at his home.
Q. Go ahead and describe what she described in that encounter.
A. She said that she went to his home and that when she entered his home he had checked her for bugs as far as being bugged, wired I guess, and made her disrobe into one of his dress shirts. And he checked her purse and her belongings for any devices, recording devices.
Q. And then what did she tell you happened after that?
A. I think -- or she told me that they spoke on the couch or some sitting area for a little bit and then they had gone down to a lower area of the home. I don't know if it's a basement or just some lower part of the home.
Q. What happened in the lower part of the home that she described to you?

[redacted]

A. She described to me being helped into some type of device that was hanging, some type of workout equipment that was hanging and having her hands tied behind her back, that she was blindfolded, and that he had pleasured her with his hands at that point.
Q. Okay. And then is there anything she said after that point in time?
A. After that -- During that discussion after she had described that she said that after he had blindfolded her that she had saw a flash type and recognized that he had taken a photograph of her, and he said that if you mention my name that I'll put this out there or put this on the Internet, something to that effect. And she got very upset and wanted to get down, wanted him to get her down.
Q. And what did she describe to you happened after that?
A. I don't recall exactly, but she got down, he helped her down, and was trying to comfort her. She was very upset. Freaking out was how she described it. And said that -- He said that "I deleted it. I deleted it."
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm sorry. Would you repeat that?
THE WITNESS: He said that he deleted the photograph and was apologetic.

BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. And what did she describe to you that happened after that point in time?

A. From what I recall, she gathered her clothing and got dressed. And at that point in this conversation she had told me that he was apologetic. I think they sat in the same sitting area or some sitting area and talked and then she left. But she had forgotten her keys.

Q. Okay. And did she talk to you about what happened later that afternoon?

A. Yeah. I don't know the exact time frame as far as how much time went by before she went and retrieved her keys, but she went back to the house and got her keys at his home.

Q. Did she tell you what happened when she returned to the home?

A. I don't recall everything about that. I believe that she had said she was still very upset about the situation and embarrassed.

Q. How would you describe her demeanor when she was relaying this information to you?

A. She was embarrassed but she was not hyper but just sort of excitable when she was telling me the story. Almost like can you believe this type of excitable is the only word I can describe it I guess. She wasn't hysterical or anything. Upset.

Q. Did she tell you anything else on that morning and beginning of April 2015?

A. Not that I recall from that conversation.

Q. Did you have any further conversation with her about Mr. Greitens that you recall?

A. Yes.

Q. So that we can give the Committee a road map here, how many different conversations do you recall having after that day?

A. We've had several.

Q. Had several. Okay. Do you recall any conversations in particular, the next conversation you had with her after the beginning of April 2015?

A. The next conversation that we had was about discussing with her husband and confessing to her husband about the encounter.

Q. And what was the substance of that conversation?

A. That she had told her husband what had happened and told him everything that had happened between her and Eric Greitens.

Q. Regarding her interactions with Eric Greitens, did she tell you anything about further encounters she had with Mr. Greitens?

MR. LUDWIG: During that conversation or subsequent conversations?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: During that conversation.

THE WITNESS: During that conversation, the only thing that she had really talked about in that conversation was that her husband did not want her to do his hair any further and come into the salon any more.

BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. You mean Mr. Greitens' hair?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you have further discussions with her about interactions with Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. What was the substance of those discussions?

A. Another encounter was him coming into the salon. I don't recall if it was after her already asking him not to but that he had come in again and smoothed things over with her, told her that he couldn't stop thinking about her, that he was sorry again.

Q. And did she describe to you what happened after those efforts by Mr. Greitens to smooth things over?

A. She spoke fondly of him again.

Q. Did she speak to you about any subsequent interactions she had after what you described as the visit to smooth things over?

A. I don't know when this incident occurred. I'm not sure if it was from the original encounter or not, I don't know, but there's pieces of things that we've talked about and she had described an encounter where she was really upset and that she had given him oral sex and she said that she just did it so that she could leave.

Q. Do you recall when she told you that?

A. It was after our original conversations. I don't know if it was a separate occasion that that happened or if it was from the original encounter at their home.

Q. How often do you speak with [redacted]

A. Fairly often.

Q. Okay. And so would you describe [redacted] as one of your best friends?

A. Yes.

Q. So to the extent you've had conversations, and I'm asking you about specific details of the dates in which you speak, would you say you speak with her so often that it is difficult for you to identify the exact dates and times upon which information was relayed to you?

[redacted]

A. Yes, other than the original conversation when she gave me the book and then the following conversation in the beginning of April. I recall those dates mainly because it was around my birthday and that was the first I had ever heard of him or anything about him.

Q. As to the first conversation, she gave you a gift?

A. Yes.

Q. Are there other conversations you had with her that stick out in your mind about interaction she had with Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. And can you relate to us the substances of those conversations and to the extent you recall the times on which you had those conversations?

A. The only -- There's I guess two conversations that stick out that were around probably that summer of 2015, maybe possibly June roughly in that area. One was that his wife had come into the salon not to get her hair done by [redacted] but by another lady at the salon. And she was -- She felt very upset about that. She said that she seemed like a really nice woman and she was very ashamed.

Q. And do you recall the other thing that sticks out to you?

[redacted]

A. Yes.

Q. And what is that?

A. That she had, and I don't really recall a whole lot about this one, but mainly that she had let him into the salon before hours, and I don't really know why we were talking about that other than her just saying that there was only a few occasions they had been alone together.

Q. Is there anything else you can recall that sticks out to you about the conversations you had with her about interactions with Mr. Greitens?

A. Recently I had specifically called her and asked her about him hitting her, slapping her, Eric Greitens, and she told me that that was true and that she was embarrassed. And I asked her specifically because one of my sisters had read that story. I hadn't seen it anywhere and they had asked me about it. I said that I didn't think that that could be true because [redacted], [redacted] wasn't -- that's not like her to let someone physically harm her, man, woman or anyone. She's not a violent person.

And I called her and asked her and she told me about that. And the specifics of what happened, I don't know where they were, I don't know that I asked. But he, Eric Greitens, had asked her if she had slept with anyone and she said my husband and he slapped her.

[redacted]

Q. And this is what she relayed to you. This would have been --

A. More recent.

Q. -- in the last two months?

A. Yes.

Q. So since the news broke?

A. Yes, she never told me about that prior.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Thank you. And now so our process here is, and I apologize for the length of this process, but each member has the opportunity to ask you questions. And so we're going to start with the vice Chair and the ranking member and we're going to go in order of seniority. Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS:

Q. Don Phillips, State Representative District 138, which is down by Table Rock Lake near Branson. Do you call [redacted]?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I'm going to call her that in reference to my questions. First of all, though, have you spoken to anyone that has already testified before this

[redacted]

Committee since we started this process? Have you talked to other witnesses?

A. Other than [redacted]?

Q. Right.

A. No.

Q. But you have spoken to [redacted] since she testified?

A. I spoke with her on a Friday, Friday, this past Friday. So I don't know when she testified.

Q. Did she share with you what she testified to us, what she told us?

A. No, she did not.

Q. Do you have any knowledge of [redacted] receiving any kind of compensation for being quiet on this subject? She's not spoken to the media at all and has assumed a certain amount of anonymity to this point. Do you have any knowledge of her receiving any kind of compensation from anyone?

A. No, I do not.

Q. She didn't share anything like that with you?

A. No.

Q. Knowing her like you do, when she told you the story about her and Eric Greitens first encounter, led to the basement and all that, did you think it was odd that she continued to see him after that?

A. Yes, I did.
Q. Did she share with you why she continued to see him after that?
A. Yes.
Q. What did she say?
A. She said that she didn't want to feel like -- I think she believed that he cared about her, and I tried explaining to her that he didn't care about you if he would do something like that, but I believed that she thought he cared about her.
Q. Once the story broke, did she ever share with you what she thought about the source of releasing the information to the media?
MR. LUDWIG: Do you understand?
THE WITNESS: I believe I do. As far as her husband, ex-husband?
BY REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS:
Q. Did she believe he's the one that released the information?
A. Yes.
Q. She based that on something she told you about a conversation with him or just suspected that he would be the obvious one to do it?
A. No. We both saw the Channel 4 news and recognized his voice and his partially blurred face.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Okay. I think that's all, Mr. Chair. Thank you.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Mitten.
QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:
Q. Good afternoon. I'm Gina Mitten from the St. Louis area and I appreciate you being here today. First of all real quickly, when Representative Phillips asked you about sort of your feelings about Ms. [redacted] continuing to see Mr. Greitens, and I probably don't have this quite down yet so bear with me, but you said that [redacted] indicated that she thought Eric cared about her and you indicated that you didn't think Eric cared about her because he wouldn't, quote, do that to you if he did. What do you mean by do that in that sentence?
A. Take that picture of her.
Q. Okay. Did [redacted] ever talk to you about having any fear of Eric?
A. The only time she mentioned that was in one of the original conversations was that when he said that to her about the photograph or that incident that he sounded different and that she was afraid at that point.
Q. And when you say the original conversations, you're meaning the mid March, early April conversations?
A. Uh-huh, yes.
Q. Did you have any other conversations with

TIGER COURT REPORTING, LLC
www.tigercr.com 573.999.2662

[redacted] regarding any other sexual encounters with Eric?
A. No, other than that oral sex one that she said she just wanted to leave.
Q. Okay. And then I just want to make sure that I'm not mischaracterizing your testimony here that you don't recall if that was -- the oral sex was at the first encounter she had with Eric or a later encounter?
A. Right. I don't know for a fact. I can only assume.
Q. Okay. Do you believe that she told you that at some point and you just don't remember or is that a possibility I guess would be the better way to put it?
A. I don't believe she told me.
Q. Exactly when that happened?
A. Yes. I don't believe she told me.
Q. You don't believe -- Let's just make sure we get our record clear. So you don't believe that [redacted] ever told you specifically when the oral sex with Eric occurred?
A. That's correct.
Q. And you don't recall any other details about that incident of oral sex for lack of a better way to put it?
A. No, other than that she felt as though she did that -- that he just wanted to get off is what she said

TIGER COURT REPORTING, LLC
www.tigercr.com 573.999.2662

and that if she did that that she could leave.
Q. Okay. So did she indicate some fear during that -- during the encounter that included oral sex or is that your impression?
A. That's my impression that she was uncomfortable and wanted to leave and that if she did that that he would let her leave.
Q. Did you get the impression that [redacted] believed if she did not perform oral sex she would not be able to leave?
A. I didn't -- She didn't say that so.
Q. Was that your impression though?
A. The only impression I had was just that she felt uncomfortable that he was prolonging the stay and that he wanted to get off and that if she did that then he would let her leave.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you. Thank you very much. I know this is difficult. So I appreciate it. No further questions.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Lauer.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.
QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:
Q. Good afternoon. Thank you for being here. I know this is not great fun and you never planned on this ever in your life probably. I'm Jeanie Lauer, a

TIGER COURT REPORTING, LLC
www.tigercr.com 573.999.2662

Representative from Blue Springs which is near Kansas City.

So you've known [redacted] for a long time which is great, and would you say that the two of you are confidants, that you confide in each other?

A. Yes.

Q. Does she have other friends that you feel she will confide in?

A. Yes.

Q. Who might those be?

A. I don't know her other -- I don't know her other personal friends too well. I know she has sisters that she would probably confide in and maybe two or three friends that she would confide in that I don't personally know.

Q. And during the time you've known her, has she been an individual who gives you the straight scoop or at sometimes might she dramatize things?

A. She's not a dramatic person. She'll tell me her opinion but she's not judgmental in any way. She's open-minded to everyone.

Q. Okay. So prior to meeting Mr. Greitens, how would you describe her demeanor?

A. Prior?

Q. Just as her.

A. Just as her?

Q. Just her. How is she? How would you describe her?

A. She's a happy, very good mother, good friend, good daughter, sister.

Q. And based on what you were saying --

A. Hard worker.

Q. -- awhile ago you did see a difference then when she started seeing him and talking about him?

A. Yes. And she was also, you know, going through a rough marriage at the time. So she had probably a lot on her plate at that time.

Q. Okay. Have you ever known her prior to this situation having relationships with others outside of her marriage?

A. No.

Q. So it's not in her character?

A. No.

Q. So when you -- You mentioned that she had expressed or explained what happened with the physical nature of the encounter with Mr. Greitens and that you thought it was not a good deal that he was physical with her --

A. Yes.

Q. -- yet she continued to see him?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you also said that that would not be in her character to have that happen or to -- Would you explain that a little bit? It's not in her character to accept it?

A. When I found out about the slapping?

Q. Uh-huh.

A. Yes. That's completely out of character for her to allow someone to physically harm her in any way. I say that based on the fact of how she was raised. Her parents didn't have physical punishment in any way, no spanking, no slapping, smacking, and just from past relationships and interactions that either one of us have had that that was an absolute no for her.

Q. So prior again to this event, if something like that had happened, what would you anticipate her reaction would have been to that?

A. If it was her husband or something, she would have left them.

Q. So why is it then do you think -- I know you indicated that she thought he cared for her, but given that physical nature why do you feel she would want to go back given that she would have left him in another situation? That's just your opinion.

A. Yeah. The only opinion, and it is just that, is that she was very embarrassed by what had happened. She had been called a whore by her husband and felt as though she was a whore to Eric and was trying to find some thing that she felt that he cared about her for her to feel okay with herself. She was very critical of herself.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you very much. That's all.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. I'm Kevin Austin, State Representative District 136. Just a few follow up questions. As I understood your timeline, I understand you may not be too clear, the third contact you had with [redacted] regarding Eric Greitens was when you discussed about her confessing to her husband; is that correct?

A. Yeah. The second or third conversation she had mentioned that she told her husband almost immediately after the encounter.

Q. The first conversation was mid March. Second one as I have it, tell me if I'm wrong, was beginning of April. The third one, whenever that was, was the confession to her husband. Have I got the timeline right?

A. No, I think you do. I just -- I don't recall if that second conversation in early April if she had already told me as far as she confessed to her husband or if she was just telling me about the encounter and then at another conversation. We had several conversations in a short span of time, and I don't remember if it was from the second conversation or the third, but within a week's time or very short period of time she told me she had confessed to her husband.

[redacted]

Q. May have been your second conversation concerning Eric Greitens or may have been a subsequent one but within a short period of time that spring of 2015, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. You said that she spoke fondly of him again. Are we now into the summer of 2015?

A. Yes.

Q. Possibly a June date you said?

A. Yes, or early summer, late spring area.

Q. And when she described to you about giving him oral sex, approximately when was that?

A. I don't recall exactly when the conversation had, but she had just -- The only thing that I remember about the conversation was her telling me that she felt -- she was upset that all he wanted was to get off and that he didn't recognize she was upset and she felt he was prolonging the stay; that if she did this that she could leave.

[redacted]

Q. And the conversation, the approximate date is sometime after that June or July date when she's speaking fondly of him?

A. Yes, roughly. I don't really know exactly. I just know that there was another sexual encounter that I was aware of and that was that. I don't know when it happened.

Q. And whereabout in the time frame did she mention to you about the photo being taken, and correct me if I misquote you, but Eric Greitens would have said to her in a different tone that made her afraid, when was that conversation?

A. That was that early April conversation.

Q. Has [redacted] ever told you about other incidences of, for lack of a better phrase, domestic violence against her?

A. No.

Q. Do you know of any that occurred that she didn't tell you about?

A. No.

Q. You mentioned that she had two or three friends who she confided in. Who are those friends? Do you know the names?

A. I don't know. She didn't tell me who they were. I have an idea of who her closer friends are.

[redacted]

Q. Who is that?

A. There's --

THE WITNESS: Is that okay to answer?

There's like a [redacted]. I don't know her last name. There's [redacted] and I don't know her last name but I think I could probably recall it if I thought hard enough. And there's [redacted] and [redacted].

BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. What?

A. [redacted].

Q. Can you spell that?

A. I think it's [redacted]. Those are just the friends that I know of that she's close with.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Pierson.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Tommie Pierson Jr., State Representative.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'm sorry. I went out of order. Are you okay? Sorry, Representative.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't have any questions.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Now Representative Pierson. I wondered why you looked at me why are you calling me out of order.

[redacted]

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON:

Q. Tommie Pierson, State Representative St. Louis County. Thank you for being here. Not many questions. The question I have is around the picture. Did [redacted] ever talk about the picture?

A. I don't know that she ever saw it or anything. She only described that she had been aware that he had taken a picture. I recall that she had sort of seen some type of flash through the cloth or whatever was blindfolding her and she was upset and he had said he deleted it.

Q. And did that picture or that encounter come up in any subsequent conversations that you all had?

A. Yes. Mainly because I had said to her he doesn't care about you if he did that to you, and I've said that to her several times.

Q. Was there any conversation in relation to the possibility that the picture was not deleted?

A. No, not that I recall.

Q. Do you recall her sharing with you any other times where perhaps she was bug checked?

A. Other than that initial visit, no, not that I recall. She didn't mention to me about that.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I have no further questions. If any other members of the Committee have further questions? Seeing none, that will conclude the testimony. Thank you very much for being here for driving down to Jefferson City to be with us. We appreciate it greatly.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

(Witness excused.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Do we have any -- We voted closed Wednesday. I don't think we have anything else pending right now unless anyone else can think of something. That will close today's hearing of House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

(Off the record.)

Good morning. Thank you for being here. Before we start, let me administer the oath as prescribed in the resolution creating our committee. Would you raise your right hand?

(Witness sworn.)
MICHAEL HAFNER, being sworn, testified as follows:
QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:
Q. Can you state your name?
A. Mike Hafner.
Q. Can you spell your name for the court reporter?
A. M-i-k-e H-a-f-n-e-r.
Q. Mr. Hafner, have you ever given testimony in a deposition before?
A. I have not.
Q. Okay. So this is not a deposition but it's a lot like a deposition. So there are a few ground rules. The first is that in answering a question, you need to use words, not actions. So shaking your head yes or no will not work. You have to say yes or no.
The second is we want to be sure to have a clear record, and the way we do that is if someone asks you a question and you don't understand it or it's a compound question or asks multiple things, just ask them to stop, repeat the question so that you understand.
The third is that if you need to stop for any reason, feel free to tell us I'd like to stop for a moment. With that, you've got a stack of documents in front of you there that we'll get into in a second.

First, some preliminary questions. When did you --
Counsel, if you'd like to note your presence for the record?
MR. ERNST: Thank you. Edwin C. Ernst, IV of Sowers Ernst for Mike Hafner.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Thank you.
BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:
Q. Mr. Hafner, when did you start working for Eric Greitens?
A. I began work in January 2015 as a paid advisor to Eric Greitens.
Q. Did you work for him at any point in time prior to that in a consulting role?
A. I served as an informal advisor as a volunteer basis throughout 2014. That relationship started in December 2013.
Q. Can you describe that first year as an informal advisor what was your job?
A. Essentially to introduce Eric, network, help him network among Republican donors, influencers, activists. He was new to the political scene, to the Republican political scene. So when we first met him, that kind of began the relationship. Like I said, we first met in December 2013. He relied on us to help introduce him and go through the process of running for office.

Q. At what point did you start getting paid by Mr. Greitens?
A. We finalized a compensation agreement in late December of 2014 in a meeting at his office, and then I began officially working as a paid employee of his in January of 2015.
Q. Now, you said paid employee of his. Who was that? Who was paying the bill?
A. So in January I don't recall exactly. It was either Eric Greitens himself or the Greitens Group. I don't recall where the check came from. I do know that the last two months in February and March of my employment with him was paid by Greitens for Missouri.
Q. How would you describe Eric in that first year that you were working with him?
A. A lot of how I would describe my relationship with first-time candidates, very new to the process. Also, he was coming from a unique background in the sense that he hadn't made very many relationships around the state with Republican elected officials or donors or influencers, and so it was our job to help him do that plus going through the whole process of deciding to run for office and with Eric the options, the offices that he wanted to run for were -- it was always indicated to us that it was either governor or lieutenant governor and our conversations were geared towards him running for a state-wide office. But my interaction with him it was certainly a lot like how you would approach a first-time candidate. With him it was a little bit of a unique background because he had had a very, a very great resume and profile for what you would want in a candidate.

Q. Okay. Let's go to the documents if you could. Just pull the one off the top, the one that has the green sheet of paper on top labeled January 6, 2015. Do you recognize this document?
A. Yes, that was an invitation for --
Q. Let me back up because I believe is that the document labeled Exhibit 3 in the bottom right corner?
A. Yes.
Q. Page 1 of 24?
A. Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: For members of the Committee, they're not labeled with numbers in your books but they are labeled with dates.
BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:
Q. Do you recognize this page 1 here of Exhibit 3?

A. I do.
Q. And how do you recognize this?
A. So this was a meeting that was set by Eric and his assistant. I was hired by Eric to help him with fundraising.
Q. Hold on a second. Is this a fair and accurate representation of the meeting notes you received?
A. Yes, it is.
Q. And was this sent, in fact, by Eric Greitens?
A. I do not know if it was sent by Eric. I can tell you it was either sent by Eric or his assistant.
Q. If his assistant sent it, was it sent at his direction?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And then the e-mail address at the top, egreitens@missioncontinues.org, was that the e-mail address that Mr. Greitens used to communicate with you?
A. Not so much to communicate with me. All the meeting notices I believe came from The Mission Continues e-mail address. He had a number of other e-mails that he communicated with. I don't recall all of them, but there was at least a couple.
Q. Was this one of the e-mails used by Eric Greitens?
A. For the meeting notices, yes.

Q. Okay. And if Krystal Taylor set a meeting, would she have done so with the input and direction of Eric Greitens?
A. Yes.
Q. And what was Krystal's job title?
A. I believe it was vice president. She -- When I first met Krystal in 2015 -- sorry, in 2014, I believe her job title was his personal assistant. At some point, I don't know exactly when, she was made vice president of the Greitens Group.
Q. Can you explain did she operate -- I'm sorry. Let me back up. Did she operate as an executive assistant -- in sort of an executive assistant role to Mr. Greitens?
A. Yes. Setting the schedule, setting meeting times, phone calls, everything.
Q. Would you describe her as a free agent within the Greitens Group or as someone who worked at the direction of Eric Greitens?
A. At the direction of Eric Greitens.
Q. This meeting notice was sent out Tuesday, January 6 at 1:57 p.m. I want to direct you to page 2 of Exhibit 3. Do you recognize this?
A. I do.
Q. And what is this?

A. So this is one of the first e-mails that I was provided when I became an official paid staffer of Eric's, and I was supplied the four donor lists that they had that they I presume had been using in some capacity.
Q. And who sent this e-mail? What e-mail address was this sent from?
A. Krystal Taylor's.
Q. Was that an e-mail address she regularly used to communicate with you and others?
A. Yes. I believe it is the only one she used to communicate with me and others.
Q. Did Ms. Taylor send this e-mail as a free agent or do you believe she would have sent that at the direction of Mr. Greitens?
A. At the direction of Mr. Greitens.
Q. Okay. And there are four attachments to these e-mails. Can you explain what each of those are?
A. Yes. So the first attachment, the All Donors 1,000 Total and Up as of 5/17/14, that was provided to me and communicated that that was The Mission Continues list which was Mr. Greitens' former charity.
Q. Whose idea was it to use The Mission Continues list?
A. I don't recall exactly whose idea it was. I just know that -- I didn't know any of these lists existed. However, I was supplied them in one of the first days I was officially employed at Eric's or Mr. Greitens'.

Q. Was it your decision to use them?
A. It wasn't my decision. I know that that was one of the main lists that we used to create a fundraising plan and call list for Mr. Greitens.
Q. Prior to this e-mail, did you have access to any list of donors to The Mission Continues?
A. I did not.
Q. There's a Danny Laub on this e-mail as well. Who's Danny Laub?
A. Danny Laub was a political consultant that Eric had hired at some point in fall of 2014. I had known Danny from years prior. We went to the same college. He was a little bit younger than I was. We had a preexisting relationship before both working for Mr. Greitens, and he essentially was serving as Eric's campaign manager at the time.
In December, I set up -- he set up meetings with me to discuss the campaign and a potential role for me in Eric's campaign.
If I could state something really quick. The e-mail that -- obviously it says The Mission Continues list. I did not at the time know that that was direct property of the charity. Even though it obviously says it, I was unaware that that had -- I have no idea where it originated from. The press reports say it was the charity's e-mail list, but at the time I did not know that that was direct property of The Mission Continues.

Q. Was it your idea to take The Mission Continues list?

A. It was not my idea certainly to use it. I didn't know it existed before this e-mail. It was an e-mail list, a contact list that we utilized in the first -- in January.

Q. By "we," who is we?

A. Mr. Greitens and myself.

Q. Was Danny Laub ever an employee of The Mission Continues, to your knowledge?

A. To my knowledge, no.

Q. And briefly can you explain what the other three attachments are?

A. So I believe the EG Finance Prospects -- so the EG Finance Prospects and the fundraising tracker, I don't recall exactly what was in those documents. I believe one of those was just people Eric had met throughout 2014, potential donors, some national people that he had been referred to. I know one of those documents was that. I don't know exactly which one.

Q. Okay.

A. And I think one of the other fundraising trackers -- to my knowledge, the other fundraising tracker or the Finance Prospects was a list that was created by a gentleman that Eric had been working with, a national fundraiser named Mason Fink.

Oh, okay. The EG Finance Prospects, that's the one that was Mason Fink's list. He supplied that to the campaign. The fundraising tracker, yeah, that was the list that had people that -- donors, influencers, that just Eric had come across through different contacts. The Schweich list, I don't know how they acquired that list, but it was Tom Schweich's fundraising list which had to be created internally in the Schweich campaign, but I don't know how they acquired it.

Q. To be clear for the record, these documents, you provided these documents to this Committee pursuant to a subpoena sent to you; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And so these come from your own records; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. They are records you used in the process of working for and at the direction of Eric Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. Ask you to turn to the next page which is page 3, Attachment No. 1 and then pages 4 through 24. If you could take a moment to review these. So we're clear, you sent this to the Committee in the form of an Excel spreadsheet. We turned this on its side so that it could all fit on one page.

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recognize this?

A. I do.

Q. And what is this?

A. This is what was described to me as The Mission Continues list.

Q. Is it a fair and accurate representation of what you were sent in that e-mail as The Mission Continues list?

A. Yes. To clarify, the Attachment No. 2 on page 16, that's part of the same list.

Q. That's correct. How many -- Do you recall how many tabs there were?

A. There was three. There was one of individual donors which is the first attachment, and then the document listed as Attachment No. 2 is I believe the foundation tab, and the last -- if there's another attachment in here, there was another tab of corporations and companies.

Q. And do you recall anything about the meeting on January 7?

A. So there were two meetings that we had, fundraising meetings in January, finance meetings. I don't recall exactly which of those two meetings we went through this list. It might have been both of them. But at least in one of those meetings we went through the list, the attachments from that e-mail except the Schweich list. I don't recall ever going through the Schweich list, but I worked with Mr. Greitens through the list to identify donor prospects for him to contact.

Q. When you say the list, you mean -- restate what you just said. You worked with Mr. Greitens through The Mission Continues donor list to identify people to contact to donate to the political campaign?

A. Yes. And most of these donors -- I've been a political consultant, worked in campaigns for a number of years on the Republican side. Most of The Mission Continues donors I was not familiar with. There was some overlap with your general Republican donors, but a lot of them I encountered for the first time on that list. In those meetings Eric gave me notes on specific donors. And of course, donors were selected based on their ability to give which is denoted in the list of their lifetime giving history to The Mission Continues. So there were specific names obviously that were selected from that specific donor list that I received notes on and further leads and people to reach out to which came directly from Mr. Greitens.

Q. Did you -- Can you explain the note? Who made the notes in the far right-hand column? I presume this was being sent to you. Do you know who made those notes? So for example, on page 6 of 24, there's a note that says family of [redacted] (phonetic spelling.)

A. Sure, it is -- it's possible --

Q. If you don't know who made that column.

A. I do not know exactly. Some of these I have no recollection of. Now, there's some other notes on here that I possibly could have made at the time of going through this list with Eric, but some of these notes they don't ring any -- I don't have any recollection of making. Most of the notes that I took regarding this list were taken on a notepad and then I transferred them -- I typed them out on a computer.

Q. Okay. If you could bundle those together in order. We will set those to the side. Now, I want to ask you about -- Are you on what's labeled January 19, 2015?

A. Yes.

Q. If you could turn to the next page, I believe that's labeled Exhibit 4; is that correct?

A. Mine is not labeled. It does have an exhibit but it does not say 4.

Q. Let's label that one Exhibit 4 if you have a pen.

A. (The witness complied.)

Q. Okay. Do you recognize this?

A. I do.

Q. And what is this?

A. This was an invitation for another fundraising finance meeting with Mr. Greitens.

Q. Was Mr. Greitens present in both this fundraising meeting and the fundraising meeting mentioned in Exhibit 3?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did that meeting, in fact, occur on January 19, 2015?

A. To my knowledge, yes.

Q. I'd like you to turn to page 2. Do you recognize this and what is this?

A. I do. This is an e-mail that I sent to myself on January 19. Just personally the way I organize things it's all done through my e-mail. So on specific notes and action items from things I send them to my inbox so I can organize them better. It's just something that helps me. So they're notes that I took. They're action items that I took from our meeting with Mr. Greitens.

Q. And can you explain to the Committee the second line what that is in regards to?

A. The second line, there was an individual.

Q. Let's state what the line says for the record. Line says meeting with Lindsey Hodges and Krystal Taylor regarding TMC Contribution List. Meet with sometime this week. What was that about?

A. So after going through The Mission Continues donor list, at some point during the process Mr. Greitens didn't recall a number of names from the list and I was directed -- he directed me to set up a meeting with Lindsey Hodges who it was indicated that she was either a current employee or a former employee of The Mission Continues. And Eric indicated that she would have more extensive information on many of the donors from the list and that I needed to reach out to her to go over the list with her.

I never met with Lindsey. I don't recall ever reaching out to her, but it's possible I could have. But to my knowledge, I don't think she ever came into the office, and I certainly never met with her personally to go over the list.

Q. Do you know why at this point in time?

A. I don't -- I don't -- I don't know why, why that meeting was never set.

Q. Can you explain to the Committee the layout of the office in which you were working with -- Did Krystal Taylor work in the same office space?

A. She did.

Q. Did Danny Laub work in the same office space?

A. Yes.

Q. Did Eric Greitens work in the same office space?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there anyone else who worked in that office space?

A. There was --

Q. On a regular -- Let me back up. Was there anyone else who worked in that office space on a regular basis?

A. There were two individuals that worked in there on a regular basis. One who was solely doing Greitens Group tasks, a gentleman by the name of Chris Bobak. Then there was his father who also worked out of the same space regularly, not everyday but multiple days every week.

Q. Is that Mark Bobak?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Can you describe the set-up of this office space?

A. It was the first floor of a converted home in the central west end located on West Pine. They had just moved in there sometime in the fall of 2014. They had access to the upper floors as well as the basement. And when you walked in the office to the right -- When you walked into the first floor from the street, to the right was Krystal's office. To the left was where Danny and I worked in an office along with Mark Bobak. I'm sorry if I said that incorrectly. To the left was where Danny and I worked out of an office and then also to the left was a conference room which is what Mr. Greitens worked out of.

Q. Okay. So this is on the first floor of the home. There's a common hallway between these spaces. Is this the type of space where if you needed something from another lawyer that basically others could hear your conversations in your office?

A. Yes.

Q. So it's a -- Would you describe it as a sort of open office setting where everyone could hear everyone else and everyone is operating basically within the same space?

A. Yes. For private conversations, I know I stepped out a number of times, but generally, yes, we worked in an open space. Most of the time Mr. Greitens' conference room door was closed.

Q. Okay. If I could now direct you to -- if we could put that one away -- to January 28, 2015. And is there a number on that exhibit?

A. There is not.

Q. If we could label that Exhibit 5. Do you recognize this?

A. I do.

Q. What is this?

A. This was an e-mail thread that started because I was working on building some call lists for Mr. Greitens and there was contact information that I needed that I didn't have, numbers and some other, you know, e-mails and maybe some notes that -- but basically just contact information, and Sales Force was the contact management system that Mr. Greitens used for the Greitens Group.

Q. Was this his account eric@greitensgroup.com?

A. To my knowledge, yes.

Q. Okay. And did you input information about The Mission Continues -- from The Mission Continues fundraising list into this Sales Force database?

A. I do not remember if I did or not. I know I utilized Sales Force to take information from it.

Q. And so on page 4 of this exhibit, this list of persons, do you remember -- do you recall where you came up with this list of persons?

A. To my recollection, this was -- these were names that we identified off those lists that -- off the fundraising lists that Mr. Greitens and I went through and --

Q. Off the fundraising lists. Do you mean the combination of the four lists that were in that first exhibit?

A. I know we never used the Schweich list but certainly those other three lists.

Q. Including The Mission Continues list?

A. Yes. And so to my recollection these were names that there weren't any contact information for and I needed to secure phone numbers and contact info so Eric could solicit them for contributions.

Q. Are the documents contained within what we've labeled here as Exhibit 5 fair and accurate representations of the documents that you were utilizing at the direction and employment of Mr. Greitens?

A. Can you repeat the question?

Q. Are the documents in Exhibit 5 fair and accurate representations of documents that you created and utilized while you were employed and working under the direction of Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. And in case, I'm not sure if I asked the question, for Exhibits 3 and 4, the documents in Exhibit 3 and 4 fair and accurate representations of documents that you both created and received in the course of working for Mr. Greitens and at the direction of Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. You have not altered them in any form or fashion?

A. Certainly not the e-mails I've not altered in any form or the meeting invites. So in Exhibit 4, no.

Q. Let me be clear with my question because you received fundraising lists?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. In the course of your employment for Mr. Greitens, your duty was to use those fundraising lists to create another list?

A. Yes.

Q. So you did alter those lists at some point in time, correct? You used them in some fashion to create something else, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. But what you sent us in response to our subpoena are the documents as they were sent to you on those particular dates and time?

A. Yes.

Q. And you did not alter them in any form or fashion before sending them to us as they were received by you on those dates and times?

A. I think I'm not sure how to exactly answer that because those lists I would have saved on my own to my computer. So if you can -- so in terms of that, they were altered because they saved them.

Q. You saved them. Your alteration -- To the extent that you were testifying that you altered them, it was to the extent you pressed the save button on your computer?

A. Yes.

Q. You did not input new things into them?

A. No.

Q. You didn't delete items from them?

A. No.

Q. Okay. You just hit the save button to your own hard drive, correct?

A. Yes. Now, as I said earlier on the specific Mission Continues list, some of those notes it's possible but not likely that some of those notes were mine in the column; but in terms of actually adding to the list or deleting anything, that did not occur.

Q. I now direct you to February 2. I think that has six pages. If you could put that to the side. And if you could turn to the first page there. Does that have an exhibit number on it?

A. It does.

Q. Okay. We're going to renumber. We're on 6.

MR. ERNST: If I may. Give me just one second to clarify something that you're asking him. I think it will make it go a little smoother.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay.

BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. Is that -- I'm sorry. Are we on 6? Can you mark that as Exhibit 6. Do you recognize this?

A. Yes.

Q. And what is this?

A. This was a finance plan, a fundraising plan for Mr. Greitens' campaign that I developed based on the lists that I received and also input from Mr. Greitens.

Q. Okay. I want to ask you about this paragraph. Let me read the paragraph. It says it is more complicated than running a regular --

THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Could you read a little bit slower.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes, I can.

BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. Let's scratch where I started. I'll go slower. To whom did you send this e-mail?

A. To Danny Laub.

Q. And was this processed at the direction and service of Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Now, here's what the paragraph says, and I quote: It is more complicated than running a regular fundraising program because the majority of our plan is based on engaging a whole new group of non-traditional R donors that I will only have a limited background research on, hence why I need Eric's guidance one more time on these donors and then we can get rocking. Can you explain what you meant by that long sentence?

A. So Mr. Greitens coming from the background of being the CEO of The Mission Continues, as well as not being familiar with many Republican donors in the state or donors that generally would give to Republicans in Missouri, he was engaging in a completely non-traditional group of donors and would rely on a completely different group of donors than other Republicans in his position running for a state-wide office. And so what I meant by this paragraph was that I really needed more background information on some of the donors in order to put together a call list, a solicitation list for Mr. Greitens to work through, and many of these donors were people that he would only -- he would have known through the charity and so I needed his first-hand knowledge of his relationship of other pertinent information regarding these donors.

Q. Did you sit down with him with information from The Mission Continues to go through these donors and learn more about them?

A. Yes.

Q. How would you describe Mr. Greitens' political outlook at this time, at this time? By "at this time," I mean February 2015 and the months prior.

A. Sure. Still very new. He was occupied with some other things at the time as well including a book that he had just written that was planned for launch.

Q. Let me back you up because I think you heard my question one way and I meant it the other. I'm going to the non-traditional R donor part of your sentence. I think you're thinking of the question prognostication of election results. My question is directed to his politics at the time as it regards your statement the non-traditional R donors. So the question is what his political outlook at that time not as regards to elections but as regards to these donors, potentially other donors, public statements and the like. Can you describe what that was in February if you'd like, February 2015 if you'd like prior to that?

A. Just so I understand the question. Were you referring to his political philosophy at the time?

Q. I am. I am. Particularly this sentence gets into the non-traditional R donors and your work with him up to that point in time.

A. Sure. Well, he had built relationships with a lot of Democratic donors. Everything that we had heard up until the time I started working with Mr. Greitens was that he was a solid Democrat. And he approached this whole process from a completely different viewpoint than most candidates would when they're running for one of the highest offices in the state in terms of we needed -- we had meetings and messaging sessions where he had to work through Republican policies because he just wasn't familiar with them. The running joke between Danny Laub and I was that Eric didn't have two sentences where he could tell you why he was Republican.

That's a major issue when you're going out to solicit donors when you can't tell them why you're running in the party that you're running in.

Q. What do you believe his motivations were at the time based on your meetings with him and conversations with him?

A. In terms of the office that he wanted to run for or his ambition?

Q. In terms of what moved him to be in this race and to hire you in the first place.

A. It was solely his ambition for the highest office in the state for governor.

Q. How many candidates do you think you've worked with over the last decade?

A. At least ten personally. In a much broader scale, a lot more than that. I wouldn't know the exact number. I worked for a consulting firm that advised different party committees and things like that where I worked with a number of candidates.

Q. In terms of candidates being driven by core ideological beliefs, where would you rank Mr. Greitens on the scale of every candidate you've worked for?

A. Very, very low on a scale, on an ideological scale.

Q. Did you have a belief that he was a blank slate in January or February of 2015?

A. I was extremely skeptic of his conservative beliefs at the time.

Q. Are we on Exhibit 6?

A. Whether he was a blank slate or not, again, my previous experience with him, what I had heard and knowing some of his background from other individuals about him looking at running for office as a Democrat in years prior, there wasn't a blank slate per se but I believed up until the point he started talking to us and talking about running as a Republican that he was a Democrat.

Q. I'd like to direct you to page 7 of this exhibit. This is also from February 2, 2015. This is also to Mr. Laub, correct?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. It describes a list that's listed as Draft 1, very creative name. We've attached that herein. Are these fair and accurate representations both of the e-mail that you sent to Mr. Laub and of the attachment you sent to him?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you create these?

A. Yes.

Q. In the course and scope of your employment for

Mr. Greitens and at the direction of Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. You state in the e-mail you weren't sure if he had made calls from this list. Do you know if he later made calls using this list?

A. To my knowledge, he did. There are some documents that I believe have been withheld from the Committee that would indicate that he did make calls using the list.

MR. ERNST: Just for the record, there is the potential for attorney/client privileged documents as it pertains to Mr. Greitens or his campaign. Out of an abundance of caution because there are multiple investigations ongoing, including with the Attorney General's Office and circuit attorney in St. Louis who's conducting a criminal investigation, we have attempted to segregate those documents out subject to further review and determination about whether they are privileged. We have no opinion about whether they're privileged. Once that process plays out and if it's determined that they're not privileged and you would like further testimony from Mr. Hafner, he'll be happy to provide it at that time. So he's going to stay away from any topic that would require him to disclose communications that may have involved attorneys associated with the Greitens campaign including Mark Bobak.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. Thank you. Thank you for that.

BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. If I could direct you to page 9 of this exhibit and the notes herein. It's kind of cool to see George W. Bush's name on this list. This notes column, if you look at the second row.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. It says TMC $1,000 Donor. And did you fill out that notes column through -- in conjunction with review of The Mission Continues list?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it also in conjunction with conversations with Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. That would be true of this entire column in this entire document, correct?

A. Yes, yes.

Q. Now direct you to February 5, 2015. If I could have you label this as Exhibit 7. And can you describe what Exhibit 7 is?

A. It appears to be the first call list that I developed for Mr. Greitens.

Q. And to whom did you send that call list?

A. To Mr. Greitens and Danny Laub.

Q. And did that call list which is attached include information about Mission Continues donors and how much they had given?

A. Yes.

Q. At any point in time, did Mr. Greitens tell you you shouldn't be using The Mission Continues list?

A. No.

Q. If you had refused to use The Mission Continues list, do you believe -- what do you believe Mr. Greitens would have said or done?

A. I don't want to speculate on that. Again, at the time I did not know it belonged to The Mission Continues or how it was acquired. So I didn't really think very much of it. It obviously was described as that to me, but again I didn't.

Q. Did you believe Mr. Greitens had permission to use this list?

A. Yes.

Q. Is this a fair and accurate representation of the e-mail as you sent it with the attachment as you sent it to Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. You've not altered it in any form or fashion?

A. No.

Q. In response to our subpoena?

A. No.

Q. I now direct you to February 17, 2015. Is there a sticker on that? Can we label that as Exhibit 8, Mr. Hafner?

A. (The witness complied.)

Q. And can you describe what this is?

A. This is a call list.

Q. Let me back up. I want to make sure we're correct. This is on February 17. I believe I said February 7. It is February 17. Can you describe what we've labeled as Exhibit 8, what it is?

A. Yes. This is another call list that I modified and supplied to Eric to make phone calls off of.

Q. When you say "modified," do you mean before sending it on February 17 or do you mean subsequent to sending it -- right before sending it to us?

A. No. While sending it on -- prior to sending it on February 17.

Q. Okay. And is this e-mail and the attachment thereto a fair and accurate representation of the e-mail you sent to Mr. Greitens and Ms. Taylor and the attachment thereto?

A. Yes.

Q. To your knowledge, did Mr. Greitens use this attachment call list?

A. To my knowledge, yes.

Q. And did it identify Mission Continues donors and the precise amounts of their donations?

A. Yes.

Q. Did Mr. Greitens use that information in the course of making phone calls to raise money for his campaign?

A. To my knowledge, yes.

Q. I now direct you to March 20, 2015. And if you could label that as Exhibit 9.

A. (The witness complied.)

Q. Can you describe for the Committee what this e-mail is?

A. Yes, it is a donor prospect list that I created that included all the notes that Mr. Greitens provided to me on specific donors and donor prospects that could contribute to his campaign.

Q. So if we could turn to page 6 of 25, [redacted] and [redacted].

A. Uh-huh.

Q. They're labeled as a $10,500 donor to The Mission Continues?

A. Uh-huh.
Q. And that is data you pulled from The Mission Continues list; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And at the request and working with Mr. Greitens?
A. Yes.
Q. And the same would be true of everywhere else in this database where it is listed as TMC and an amount?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you know approximately how much money was raised by the Greitens campaign from Mission Continues donors?
A. I do not know the approximate amount. I know it was substantial.
Q. Do you believe it to be over a million dollars?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you believe it to be around $2 million?
A. I don't want to speculate. I know that's what one of the press accounts said on it. I do not know.
Q. Of course the documents will speak for themselves. We have public records reports to do this. I'm going to hand you another exhibit. If you could label that Exhibit 10. This is not your document. So this is an amended report from the Missouri Ethics Commission. If I could turn you to I believe the second to last page. Let me approach again and get another exhibit in the record. Mr. Curchin is going to hand you what's been labeled as Exhibit 11. If you could turn to paragraph 10 of Exhibit 11. In your experience with campaigns, does a list which results in the raising of over a million dollars have a value -- would it have a value of $600?

A. Yes.
Q. Yes, it would have a value of $600?
A. I'm sorry. It would have a value of much greater than $600.
MR. ERNST: I believe you said over 600.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's back up and I'll ask the question.
BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:
Q. Do you believe it is accurate to say that the value of The Mission Continues list which was used to raise over a million dollars was $600?
A. No.
Q. Okay. And do you believe the value to be higher than $600?
A. I believe it would be a lot higher than $600, and that is based on my knowledge of the fundraising of The Mission Continues charity which raised in excess of $10 million a year.

Q. And based on your first-hand experience, did the campaign receive the list from Daniel Laub?
A. No.
Q. In fact, your e-mail shows it was received from Krystal Taylor at the direction of Eric Greitens, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you know why Mr. Laub would agree to state that he had given that contribution?
A. I can only speculate on that. I do not know the exact reason why.
Q. Have you spoken to Mr. Laub about it?
A. I have not spoken to Mr. Laub since March 2015.
Q. Do you know what Mr. Laub -- how long he lasted with the campaign?
A. I don't know the exact time of his separation with the campaign. It was in the fall of 2015.
Q. Do you have any idea where he worked after leaving the campaign?
A. I just know where he works now. I don't know what he did in between. I had heard that he had worked on a congressional race or something in Michigan, but I don't have any direct knowledge.

Q. You never talked to Mr. Laub after leaving the campaign; is that correct?
A. No. Last time I spoke to him was the day of our separation in March of 2015.
Q. And after leaving the Greitens campaign, did you work for any other campaigns in 2016?
A. Yes. I worked for John Brunner starting in August of 2015, and then I worked for Kurt Schaefer in 2016. I believe those were the only two campaigns I had a role on the rest of that cycle.
Q. Did you work for Mr. Brunner through the primary in 2016?
A. I did.
Q. And for Mr. Schaefer through the primary in 2016?
A. Yes.
Q. In those months between January and March, did you have any discussions with Mr. Greitens about how the campaign may conceal the source of donations?
A. Not directly to that topic, but he directed me to have conversations with donors who intended to raise significant amounts of money and conceal the donors, conceal the identity of those donors.

Q. Do you recall who those donors were?

A. There was one in particular, an individual by the name of Monu Joseph. He was in California. To my recollection, I had two phone conversations with him. There was some e-mail traffic as well which has been withheld due to privilege from Mr. Greitens' end. He contributed early to the campaign in the form of some LLCs that he had in California, and I discussed with Monu -- he wanted to discuss with me how the campaign was going to bundle contributions and conceal the identity of donors.

Q. Who is Monu Joseph? What's the nature of his business? I assume he owns a business?

A. I believe he does.

Q. Do you know what the nature of that business is?

A. No, but I was led to believe it was something in real estate, and there were two contributions early on to Mr. Greitens campaign that came from Monu. One had an odd name like Gray Income LLC or Gray Income Property or something like that, but there were two early conversations -- there were two early contributions from him that didn't have his name on it. They came from LLCs, but I don't know the nature of those businesses.

Q. Where were those LLCs located?

A. I believe they were located in California.

Q. Were they created for the purpose of making a contribution?

A. I do not know.

Q. If you were provided with a campaign finance disclosure statement from the Greitens campaign for the first six months of 2015, do you believe you'd be able to identify the LLCs attached to --

A. Yes.

Q. -- Mr. Joseph?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. We may follow up.

A. Well, I think they might even be in this exhibit if this is from that time period.

Q. That is an amended period. So we'll take a break at some point if you want to review those rather than have you look down as the Committee is staring at you. Were there any other individuals with whom you had contact who were discussing ways to conceal donations?

A. Yes. Again, I think the information on that would be withheld.

Q. Were there any other individuals with whom you had conversations who were not lawyers and there were not lawyers present in the room when you were having discussions about concealing the identity of donors?

A. No.

Q. So you had conversations with Mr. Greitens, correct?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. You've got to use yes or no.

A. Yes.

Q. And that was about -- one of those conversations was about concealing the identity of a donor?

A. It was about reaching out to specific donors who were intending to raise a lot of money and wanting to know how to do it.

Q. Okay. Mr. Joseph. Do you have any other names of donors who intended to do so through a route of concealment?

A. There was one other individual named Alex Rogers. He was a gentleman I never had any direct conversations with him, but I was led to believe that he lived overseas. He was intending to raise a lot of money and wanted to know how to do it.

Q. From whom was he going to raise money?

A. I don't -- We didn't get that far in conversations or anything. I never spoke to him directly. There was e-mail traffic that indicates all of that, but that would be withheld.

Q. Were there any conversations about receiving donations from foreign nationals?

A. Yes.

Q. Were those conversations surrounding Mr. Rogers?

A. Yes, I was led to believe that he was one of the people. There was another conversation with Monu that I had where Monu said that he had -- that he had a bunch of friends from Oxford. I believe that was Monu's connection to Eric, that they had met while at Oxford, and Monu indicated that there was a number of people that would contribute to Mr. Greitens' campaign.

Q. Were these British donors or do you know what nationality?

A. No, I do not know.

Q. Where is Mr. Rogers' neighborhood? I'm sorry. I couldn't resist. I'm sorry.

Do you know what country Mr. Rogers is a resident of?

A. I believe him to be British.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't know -- I do not know where he lived at the time. I know he lived overseas, but I don't recall where he was from.

Q. Based on your work in that campaign, do you believe that, in fact, there was a strategy employed to conceal donors?

A. I believe that was an intention of the campaign's early on.

Q. Do you believe it was carried out?

A. Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I believe I'll hand it over to my vice-chair. Do you want to take a short break to prepare?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Not to prepare.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's take a short break. We'll come back in approximately ten minutes.

(A recess was taken.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Back from break. Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS:

Q. Don Phillips, State Representative District 138 which is near Branson, Table Rock Lake.

Why did you leave the Eric Greitens campaign? Did I miss that? I didn't hear that discussed at all. I'm just curious why you left.

A. So a number of consultants that I have professional relationships with had indicated to Eric,

Mr. Greitens, that if he ran for governor that they would not be -- they would not have a role on his campaign for governor. And because of my professional relationship with those consultants, in the days that they had that conversation with Mr. Greitens, Danny Laub asked me to come into his office when I got in in the morning and he said that they were severing -- they had made the decision to sever all ties with those consultants and that Eric was 100 percent focused on running for governor and he had ruled out any other potential office to run for and because of, as I said, because of my relationship with those consultants, they wanted to take a, quote, strategic pause on my relationship with Mr. Greitens and his campaign.

It was never indicated that a separation was permanent at the time. Danny Laub, Mr. Greitens' attorney and Mr. Greitens himself all told me that at some point if things changed, if the dynamics of the primary had changed, they would love to bring me back on. Mr. Greitens himself told me that I would make a great employee in the governor's office some day. It was as amicable separation as it could have been.

Q. Okay. So in your mind was there a political conflict of interest on your part? Is that the way they saw it maybe?

A. They saw a conflict of interest because the relationships I had with other consultants. As it was said earlier, I did end up going to work for John Brunner. That wasn't until months later in August of that year. In their mind, because I had a relationship with other consultants that had known John and had worked with John, that there was a conflict in their mind but at the time I never had a conversation with John Brunner that I recall. I had no professional relationship with him or anything else.

Q. So you left on a good basis?

A. As good as it could have been, yeah.

Q. Now, when you worked for Brunner and Schaefer's campaign, did you experience the same procedures with them when it came to fundraising as far as hiding donors? Is that just typical in politics behind closed doors to typical try to hide donors? Did you experience that in the other two campaigns? Can you comment on that?

A. I did not experience that in either of the campaigns I had a role on. The candidates I've worked for I've not experienced that either.

Q. Okay. So this was unique to Greitens campaign as far as your knowledge goes?

A. Yes and no. In my experience with candidates and my personal experience, it was unique. There are other candidates that operate in that fashion.

Q. Okay. I was just curious about your part. Now, what's the purpose -- Educate me a little on the purpose of concealing donors. I mean why would a person want to do that running for a high profile job?

A. Sure. There's a number of reasons for it. I think from a candidate's perspective it's they don't want to be seen as being purchased by a particular donor if they're giving mass amounts of money. I know it's legal -- or it was legal at the time in Missouri. There weren't any contribution limits to give a million dollars to a specific candidate, but I think the exposure certainly is one both from the candidate side and from the donor side. They don't want to be seen as influencing a certain candidate. They might have business before the state. There might be a legitimate conflict. And I think there's a number of reasons for why you'd want to from a candidate perspective and from a donor's perspective. I'm not going to argue on the legitimacy or why, you know, people should or should not operate in that manner.

Q. Do you have an opinion about why Eric Greitens particularly wanted to hide the donors?

A. Again, I don't really want to speculate on something like that. I don't know what his motivation specifically was.

Q. All right. There's been a term tossed around called dark money when it comes to the Greitens campaign. Are you comfortable describing what you think dark money is?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Would you describe that to me because I don't know that I totally understand what it is. I've got an idea.

A. Sure. I believe it to be a way that donors exert influence in campaigns without having to conceal their identity -- without having to disclose their identities. It happens for a number of reasons. But yeah, I believe it's an effort to not be transparent with who's funding particular issues or candidates.

Q. So it's fair to say it's people that have a considerable amount of money and therefore they have some influence as well probably due to the amount of money that they're putting into the fundraising efforts?

A. Generally, yes. However, everyone has the ability to give to some of these ghost corporations and LLCs and other things that in turn can provide money to a state little PAC like in Missouri or operate outside of the normal campaign finance structure, but yeah, you could give $50 or you could give $500,000 or $5 million.

Q. Were you ever aware of any conversations that specifically mentioned the Ethics Commission and not reporting accurately to them, trying to hide money from them specifically?

A. I don't recall any conversations to that effect, no.

Q. Would you describe yourself as an honest person?

A. Yes.

Q. Would your acquaintances agree with that, as far as you know?

A. Yes. As far as I know, yes.

Q. Not just your friends but acquaintances as well?

A. I work in politics so everybody has enemies in politics.

Q. Broader definition, isn't it?

A. Yes.

Q. My last question to you is what is your motive for providing us with this particular information, the e-mails, records of your e-mails, the records of the donors? What prompted you or what drives you to share that information with us?

A. I think a number of things. In campaigns, I do believe in transparency. On another level, I know what the truth is and I had always assumed that this issue would come back up when I saw the consent form from the MEC. It's not easy for me to be here. I am a Republican campaign consultant, and I think this is a very serious and somber time for our state. But my motivation is -- it's not the money or anything else. I'm paying for my own attorneys. Probably the only -- may be the only one that doesn't have a defense fund on this. But my motivation is I believe in good government. That's what drove me to get in politics in the first place. I believe in working for good candidates that align with my political philosophy and the same principles that I have.

Q. So you have no axe to grind with Eric Greitens? You're not attempting to get back at him in any way or anything like that?

A. No. You know, it hurts me with some of my clients that I'm here if they knew I was testifying. I advise some pro business PACs and I am a registered lobbyist. I lobby for a Senate right group that advocates for labor reform and other premarket reforms, education reform and some other things. Yeah, it probably -- I mean it hurts me professionally if they know that I'm here testifying against the sitting governor of our party.

MR. ERNST: And I should also clarify for the record just so it's clear, the documents that are provided and the testimony today were pursuant to a subpoena from this Committee which compelled the production of those documents and his testimony.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Right, and I understand that, but I think there had to be some conversations prior to that than just occurred out of the clear blue. I think there had to be some agreement if there were documents available if a subpoena had ever been issued. Would that be fair to say?

MR. ERNST: I can't speak to that. I don't know how the Committee determined that Mr. Hafner, my client, should be subject to a subpoena. But again, it was in response to and as compelled by that subpoena that he provided the information.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: All right. Thanks. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Mitten.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. Good morning. I'm Gina Mitten. I'm from St. Louis County. My district is the 83rd that represents both parts of St. Louis City and St. Louis County. Could you briefly describe your campaign experience?

You said you've been in this business for a number of years. I don't necessarily need the whole candidates but, you know, how many years and in what roles?

A. Sure. I'll give you a quick 30-second rundown.

Q. The pitch.

A. I got my start with Governor Matt Blunt's campaign in 2004. In college took a semester off, worked for US Senator Jim Talent, worked for Sarah Steelman and the state party in 2008, state Republican party as coalitions director. I worked for a business civic group in St. Louis called the Regional Business Council for a year and ten months, and then I worked on a number of campaigns starting with then Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder in 2011-2012 and a number of other campaigns until 2015 when I worked for -- when I began work for Mr. Greitens.

Q. And in your role working for these prior candidates or campaigns, what would -- well, had you done fundraising for those prior campaigns?

A. Yes.

Q. How many years sort of fundraising? I'm going to get this question out one way or the other. How many years did you work as a fundraiser or perform that function for political campaigns prior to January 2015?

A. My first experience in fundraising for a candidate was in 2008.

Q. Okay.

A. Since then, yeah, it's always been a role that I've had. Not the direct role that I've had but I've managed and directed every department of the campaign whether it's grassroots, fundraising, communications.

Q. Is it fair to say that starting in 2008 fundraising was at least one if not a primary component of your work as a --

A. Yes.

Q. -- political advisor throughout from 2008 to 2015 or '14?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Thank you. Then in your work when performing the fundraising aspects -- let me ask this first.

When you were hired by Mr. Greitens, was fundraising your primary role or what was your title and what duties were encompassed in that title?

A. I was led to believe that I was brought on to coordinate fundraising for his campaign. In my experience, I was an advisor on numerous other issues, including policy development, some communications work, just general political stuff.

Q. Right. Isn't it fair to say that even if your primary duty is fundraising, folks in that position would generally be involved in some of these other more policy?

A. Yes.

Q. Right?

A. Yes.

Q. Because part of fundraising is being able to provide a message to the potential donor?

A. Absolutely.

Q. In your fundraising experience outside of your work for Governor Greitens, was it traditional to pull from a charitable list?

A. No, that's not my experience with any candidates I've ever worked for.

Q. Is it fair to say the time from January to March of 2015 while you worked for Eric Greitens, that's the only time in your political employment history in which you pulled from a list owned or maintained by a charitable organization?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you just sort of give a little bit of understanding about how does this work in that not necessarily for Mr. Greitens but, okay, I'm going to come and I'm going to do fundraising for you. The first thing we're going to do is pull some lists. What is sort of the traditional method by which you would pull lists or what expectations would you have from the candidate or campaign to support in that endeavor?

A. Sure. Well, for me personally you build a fundraising plan and you have a goal that's set based on how much money you need to win your campaign. From that you develop a plan. You select prospects for the candidate to solicit and build numbers around that. And selecting prospects is generally based on their ability to give. How you determine that is a lot from their previous donor history. You all know donors that have given to previous campaigns or active in politics are the ones that are likely to give in future elections and future candidates.

So it's a process of selecting those prospects, building the fundraising plan and then your direct outreach.

Q. Then making the calls?

A. Yes.

Q. Where do these lists come from? In other words, obviously the candidate or, you know, the candidate or the stakeholders to the campaign, they're going to start with their own Rolodexes and all that kind of stuff?

A. Friends and family.

Q. Right, friends and family, all of that. Outside of that individual's personal network, where else do lists come from that you reference? You reference -- there are lists referenced in the e-mail. There is, what is it, the TMC 100, I can't remember, 2,000?

A. Yeah, 1,000 plus.

Q. So where do those lists come from just generally speaking? Where else do you go to get this information?

A. Certainly consultants will share a list among their clients.

Q. Right.

A. They'll take a list from a certain state-wide campaign and use it for another state-wide campaign. They'll have one from 2012 that they use for 2016 cycle.

Q. Is it fair to say that that's part of your value?

A. Sure, yeah. I don't consider myself a full-time fundraiser which is something that I know how to do that I've done for other candidates. Certainly the fundraisers in our state, they have built up lists and cultivated those lists and donors over a period of election cycles.

Q. Right. And it's not just the data, it's also the relationships?

A. Absolutely.

Q. That again is part of the value of hiring an experienced fundraiser is they're going to be able to bring to the campaign that data, those relationships and the general information about what the pitch looks like I guess would be the way to say it?

A. Absolutely. They'll have an understanding of what drives specific donors to give to a candidate or to a cause.

Q. Right. So if a fundraiser or campaign needed to reach beyond those networks, do you purchase lists?

A. I have never purchased a list, but that's certainly possible for some candidates.

Q. Do you know how one would determine the value of a list that was purchased?

A. I do not.

Q. So in your testimony earlier that the value of The Mission Continues list would be in excess of I think it was $600, what qualifies you to render that opinion I guess?

A. In my personal experience, a list that is developed and maintained over six years potentially, that involves a lot of staff work, a lot of just maintaining contact information, cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses, as well as providing a list, a lifetime contribution list. Most of the time we'll go through an MEC report and pull off but you still have to find contact information.

Q. Right.

A. Valuing it at over $600, I don't know what the exact value would be, but in my personal experience a list that raises in excess of millions of dollars a year, $10 million a year would be pretty valuable to me.

Q. It's something that a lot of folks would want to get their hands on?

A. A lot of candidates, absolutely.

Q. Right. And also that value would be combined from again sort of the manpower of creating it, the manpower of maintaining it and whatnot?

A. Sure, yeah.

Q. Would you say that a list like that is similar in value or operation to any business's list of clients or customers?

A. Can you ask that question again?

Q. Well, for instance, if I'm ABC Widget Company and I sell widgets to a thousand different businesses across the country, XYZ Widget Company might be very interested in knowing who my customers were, what the details of that relationship, the cost, the amount of sales I make. Is a donor list sort of a similar function, donor list functions to a campaign similar to the way that a customer or client list would function to a business? Is that a fair assessment?

A. Yes. And I can give a good example of that. If a candidate like Jason Kander who had a military background had a list of people that were sympathetic to causes involving veterans and the military, I believe that a candidate like Jason Kander would really like to have a list like that available to him.

Q. Oh, I can imagine. That's certainly fair to say. Representative Phillips sort of touched on this as well, but it's your understanding that bundling is, or I'm calling it secret bundling, is or is not sort of a traditional thing to do or does it really just depend on the candidate?

A. Bundling is something that a lot of candidates do at the national level.

Q. Right.

A. A donor comes in with a pledge to raise 250,000. They have five other donors that are going to give 10,000. It is a general thing. But normally with federal candidates and with state candidates it's done in the open, it's reportable.

Q. Right. So in other words, if I were to say I'm going to raise, I'm trying to think of a candidate, I'm going to raise $10,000 for Jay Nixon, we'll say somebody that's not in the game, I just tell Jay, okay, I got $1,000 from Sally and I got $5,000 from Joe and I got another $2,500 from Missy and another $1,500 from Karen and that's my $10,000 here. But it would be reported to the MEC -- stop that. That's what we mean by bundling so that we're all clear about the definition?

A. Yes.

Q. In turn, those checks would go to the Nixon campaign from Sally and whatever, Karen?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Is that correct?

A. Yeah.

Q. And then in turn the Nixon campaign would report to the Ethics Commission the $1,000 from Sally -- I've lost track of the names.

A. Yes.

Q. Each of those individual contributions. So although the Nixon campaign would know that I was responsible for collecting those donations or getting them, it would be completely transparent to the rest of the world by virtue of filing ethics campaign filings, right?

A. Yes, generally.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: For the record, I believe you were a thousand dollars short of your $10,000 bundle.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I apologize but math has never been my strong suit. I thought that's why I went to law school.

BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. When I refer to it as secret bundling though would be me saying to the Nixon campaign -- I probably should say me saying to the Greitens campaign I'm going to raise $10,000 and I go to Karen and Sally and all of those folks and they write a check to me and then I write one check for $10,000. Is that a fair way of sort of putting how that works?

A. That's not really how I view that it works. It certainly can work that way.

Q. It's one of doing it --

A. Sure.

Q. -- to bypass? What's your vision?

A. It could be. My view is that it's done when somebody -- In the case before us, I think it was intended to get a group of people that didn't want to disclose who they were.

Q. Okay.

A. But that they individually or through their companies would give directly to a certain entity like a --

Q. Instead of the dollars -- instead of somebody writing a check to Gina Mitten which I in turn, it would be let's create an LLC, let's create Gina Mitten LLC, everybody donates to Gina Mitten LLC and becomes a shareholder or partner or whatever the corporate structure is and then Gina Mitten LLC gives the $10,000 check; is that how you envision that?

A. Yes. Generally it's not -- yeah, it's a freedom group.

Q. It's another PAC?

A. Sure.

Q. That's not required to disclose -- I guess it would have to be not a state PAC. It would have to be a federal PAC.

A. I'm not an attorney. I don't know how they do it.

Q. I am an attorney and I don't get it honestly.

A. They do it in a way that conceals donors.

Q. Right. And the reason why I'm asking that is because was that your understanding of what was going to happen with Monu?

A. Yes.

Q. And Mr. Rogers, right, obviously?

A. It was my understanding that, yes, that Mr. Greitens campaign was going -- they had indicated that they were going to go down that road very early on in the campaign.

Q. Okay. Now, and I'm sorry to rehash because you may have already been asked this, but did you have specific conversations -- did you personally have conversations or witness conversations with Alex Rogers or Monu?

A. Monu I did, yes.

Q. Okay. Do you remember -- Well, I guess those conversations would have happened sometime between --

A. January and March of 2015.

Q. Right, exactly.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And then is Monu's name spelled M-o-n-u?

A. Yes.

Q. And his last name is Joseph, J-o-s-e-p-h?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then Alex Rogers on Exhibit 7, page 5 is your entry for Alex Rogers in your what I would call a call list?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. You were calling it a call list as well. So that makes it easy. It says that ask for commitment in exploratory phase and Hong Kong schedule. Does that that refresh your recollection as to where Mr. Rogers' neighborhood really was?

A. Yes. To my recollection, Eric was going to be in Hong Kong at some point and wanted to meet with Alex, and there are some other e-mails along this line that have been withheld.

Q. Right. Then is it Mr. Bobak that's the attorney, Mark Bobak?

A. Yes.

Q. So were you an employee when you started in January '15 or were you an independent contractor?

A. I was always an independent contractor essentially, but I was paid by Eric either through him or the Greitens Group. I don't remember what his name was on the check.

Q. Then one of your e-mails, it's Exhibit 4, page 2. Let's see if I can get to that.

MR. ERNST: Should we put Exhibit 7 away?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Pardon me?

MR. ERNST: Are you done with Exhibit 7?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I am, yes. Thank you. I think I am. No guarantees I suppose.

BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. Exhibit 4, page 2 has you marked at Barklage. So were you also employed there or what was the -- Why is there the Barklage logo and e-mail string even though it says from your Gmail account on this page?

A. Right. That was a company that I was affiliated with. I had been employed by that company from 2011 on. At this particular time, I was still affiliated -- I was not being paid by that company. I had my own clients. I was still affiliated -- they covered my health care and maybe my cell phone. I still had an e-mail address. I was not being paid by them at that time, but I was affiliated with them.

Q. Fair enough. You described the offices as this sort of renovated home in the central west end in January '15. And in this building, right, it was a whole building; is that correct?

A. It was a three-story converted home.

Q. Right. There were employees of The Mission Continues which I believe was Ms. Knodell -- no, I'm sorry, Taylor?

A. There was -- You're referring to the Greitens Group offices that I worked out of, correct?

Q. That's what I'm trying to understand is who was Greitens Group, who was The Mission Continues? Who was what in that building?

A. In the building that I worked out of from January to March 2015 was a converted home in the central west end. Out of that office, out of that office building, office, housed the Greitens Group and eventually Greitens for Missouri. Now, I first met Eric in December of 2013 at the Greitens Group office which was then located at The Mission Continues office just south of downtown St. Louis. I don't know the exact address.

Q. I think that's probably where my confusion lies. So in 2013 or in December 2013, the Greitens Group officed with TMC, The Mission Continues, but by 2015 the Greitens Group had found its own space separate and apart or physically separate from The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. And at the time that you started, the only entities operating out of that building in the central west end were the Greitens Group and then ultimately Greitens for Missouri?

A. Yes.

Q. And you don't remember if you were paid by Eric Greitens, the Greitens Group, or Greitens for Missouri?

A. I know the first month I was not paid for -- I was not paid by Greitens for Missouri. I was paid the last two months by Greitens for Missouri. The first month I do not recall if Eric gave me a check personally or if it came from Greitens Group.

Q. Okay. Do you know if Greitens for Missouri reported any payments to you made in January of 2015 as campaign expenditures?

A. I do not believe they did.

Q. Okay.

A. And as an additional point to that, there was another employee, Danny Laub, who I was led to believe was also being paid by Greitens Group. He was hired sometime before me. I don't know which month. I was led to believe he had been hired in November or December and I was led to believe that he was paid by either Eric personally or by the Greitens Group. He is a political consultant as well. We were brought on to do political oriented tasks.

Q. So speaking for yourself personally, did you ever do any work for the Greitens Group or was all of your work during the month of January 2015 affiliated with the Eric Greitens campaign?

A. There's only one task -- there's -- it's a little bit of a tough question to answer. There's a couple tasks that I had to do that would have fallen under the Greitens Group umbrella. One was prepping Eric for a speech that he had at the Manhattan Institute I think it was. It was a brief conversation that I put some research together and gave it to him. I don't know exactly when that date was. There would have been little stuff around the office that would have been under the Greitens -- I had to move I don't know how many boxes of books they had to the basement of his --

Q. Loading the books, right?

A. -- of his office. That wasn't a campaign thing. There's little stuff like that.

Q. Is it also fair though that your assistance with Mr. Greitens preparing a speech, even though the money was being funneled through the Greitens Group, would also sort of fall into your role as a policy advisor to the extent that what the governor said at his speech impacts your ability to fundraise from a Republican donor list?

A. Yes, absolutely. The speech had some major donors that Eric was reaching out to around the same time period and it was a speech based on I believe it was veterans statistics. It would have been in some of the files I turned over. Yeah, it was a little memo that I developed.

Q. Right. But again, to the extent that what candidates say in public can impact --

A. Yes.

Q. -- their campaign and their fundraising, that role or responsibility as to a speech sort of has a dual purpose; is that a fair assessment?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Do you know when Greitens for Missouri was actually formed?

A. I don't know the exact date. I know it was in late February. I always get it confused. I believe it was February 24 or February 25.

Q. Okay.

A. And I was directly involved in helping get the papers over to Missouri Ethics Commission.

Q. Okay. Now I'm trying to go back to notes that I really scribbled because I didn't understand some of the answers.

Is it fair to say that what happened as far as the fundraising lists go, okay, so looking at the e-mails and the exhibits, you know, that we've already marked and testified about, basically you received a list from The Mission Continues, those top 15 or top 1,000 -- can you help me what were those called?

A. It was donors that had contributed.

Q. TMC top 200?

A. The TMC donor list was donors that had given over $1,000 to supposedly the charity at the time.

Q. Go ahead.

A. To clarify, I did not know -- Again, I did not know this was a direct property of the charity. The first time that it was indicated that it had come from The Mission Continues was when I was contacted by David Lieb from the Associated Press in October of 2016. He had gotten a copy of the donor list and my name was in the donor list as having accessed it. That was the first time -- he had apparently done some research on the list and looked in the metadata of the document, realized that it was created by a Mission Continues employee, and so the first knowledge that I had that it originated from Mission Continues was essentially from the reporter who called me and told me.

Q. Okay. Okay. So you start -- Ms. Taylor, right?

A. Yes. She's married. Her name is Krystal Proctor now, yes.

Q. Ms. Taylor sends you an e-mail saying here, here's the four lists that we have, right; you take those lists, maybe take some of your own data, and the goal is to create one sort of master fundraising or donor list --

A. Yeah.

Q. -- for this particular candidate and as we discussed earlier, sort of how this process works is that that comes from the candidate's own contacts and the value that you bring of data and relationships to the table and then possibly other lists; is that sort -- that's how it works, right?

A. Yes, generally.

Q. Then you take all of these different lists and combine them into one, combine all of the information, all the contact information. There might be tidbits for lack of a better term or information about the donor that are in different sources. So say you've got John Doe is on The Mission Continues list as a $1,000 donor to The Mission Continues and you have some notes that he's very interested in veterans issues. John Doe might also be listed in the top 200 donor list and he's also interested in labor issues. And you take both entries for John Doe and you might know John Doe from your own personal experience and know that, you know, he likes unicorns and puppy dogs. You'll take those data points and combine them with one entry for John Doe, he gave to The Mission Continues, he's on the top 200 Republican list and he loves unicorns and puppy dogs so that then when the candidate makes the phone call they can say thank you for your help with veterans, I support your labor issues and unicorns and puppy dogs are awesome. Is that a fair assessment of how it works?

A. Yes. Maybe not so much the unicorns and puppy dogs. Normally it's a kid's name.

Q. Trying to be charitable for lack of a better term.

A. Yes.

Q. Then in doing that process and coming up with this ultimate list or the ultimate list, let's call it that, or I think you refer to it as your campaign plan or your donor plan, you're constantly in contact with the candidate about hey, we have e-mails reflecting this, I need information, I need to sit down with him so that we can go through just what John Doe -- does John Doe still like unicorns or was my puppy dog information wrong or whatever; is that a fair characterization?

A. Yes. It's a continual process where you need to get feedback from the candidate who's having those conversations with the donor.

Q. Right. Or I heard from so and so that John Doe can't stand your opponent so we're going to add that data point or that information to the list?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that fair?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Now, I have a note here and it's probably been -- we're probably so far down the road you might not remember but I have a note here that says that you didn't add or delete anything to the list. Do you mean The Mission Continues list? Do you mean -- I mean that's what I'm trying to understand what did you mean by that?

A. So this is a document that I accessed obviously, and I could not recall if some of those notes in the column I took myself or I took from Mr. Greitens and added those. I just don't recall that, but these are the same documents that I -- well, most of them are the same documents I supplied when I was subpoenaed by the MEC.

Q. Right.

A. None of them have been altered in any way since that point certainly and certainly before that since 2015 when I was employed by Mr. Greitens.

Q. Okay. And then going back one last time to the sharing of the Greitens Group and the Greitens for Missouri or at least the campaign, both the campaign and the Greitens Group folks all being in one big house, were folks using office equipment, et cetera, the computers, were those owned by the Greitens Group to the best of your knowledge or do you have any understanding of that?

A. Yes. The office equipment, the Internet at the time was certainly owned by Greitens Group. I was part of a furniture purchase --

Q. You don't look like furniture to me.

A. -- along with Danny Laub where they wanted to get a bunch of furniture to put in the second level, second and third level of the building, and I was involved in that. I believe those expenditures were made through the campaign committee because that was later on. But up until the committee was -- yeah, it was.

Q. It was really basically the first month or two months. Assuming that Greitens for Missouri was formed in late February of 2015, then from January 1 we'll say of 2015 until the end of February your day-to-day officing expenses and perhaps your salary were paid for by the Greitens Group?

A. Yes. Until --

Q. When I say salary, I guess I should probably say compensation just because you were an independent contractor.

A. Until the committee was filed, yeah, everything would have been paid for, you know, desks, Internet, everything by the Greitens Group.

Q. Photocopier?

A. Obviously I departed before the April quarterly MEC report was filed so I had no role in that, and I haven't even looked through it to see if those expense --

Q. In kind expenditures were reported?

A. Yeah, which they should have been if they were used for the campaign.

Q. Right. So Mark Bobak was an attorney that was employed by the Greitens Group. Is that -- or do you know?

A. I do not know. My sense was that he was -- he was. He had a Greitens Group e-mail address, but I can't speak to his compensation or anything else.

Q. But he was there in the office building in the central west end?

A. Regularly. Many times per week. Not everyday but at the minimum two or three days a week.

Q. Okay. Did he have his own office or desk?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think we're getting in the realm of -- if we're going to go down the attorney/client realm, I think that's a topic for a different day.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. I'm just trying to determine what his role was.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think we can get there.

MR. ERNST: I'm okay with questions that don't intrude on the privilege.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right, I'm not asking about communications, just who is this guy, why is he there.

MR. ERNST: We're not getting there yet. As I said before, we don't have an opinion about whether it's privileged just because he's an attorney. Out of an abundance of caution, we're very clear. I'm comfortable with your question. If I think it's a problem, I'll voice my concern.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you.

BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. So did he have like, you know, a desk, an office, his own sort of workstation for lack of a better term?

A. He had his own desk. I worked out of the same office as him for the duration of this time.

Q. By office, do you mean the same room, physical room?

A. Same room. Our desks were in the same room.

And then we moved to the second floor sometime in I think late February or maybe mid February. I don't recall the exact date on that front. But yeah, I was working in the same room as him.

Q. Okay. Did you ever have any understanding that he was an attorney for the campaign?

A. I don't want to speculate. He was a personal friend of Eric's too. I didn't know if he was a volunteer advisor or if he was getting paid or exactly what his defined role was, but he certainly was an advisor to myself on political issues.

Q. But not legal issues?

MR. ERNST: I think we're now straying into the gray area.

BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. But he advised you about political issues?

A. And campaign related issues.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. Thank you for being here and mine is probably a list of random questions. So it won't be as chronologically listed as the others might have been.

When you started with Mr. Greitens -- let's back up. There are four groups I think we're kind of dealing with. We have The Mission Continues. We have the Greitens Group. We have Greitens for Missouri. And then a little bit later maybe appears New Missouri. So what is your understanding of the purpose mission of The Mission Continues?

A. Purely a (c)(3) charity, charitable organization that helps veterans around the country.

Q. That's its sole purpose to help the veterans?

A. Essentially, yes. It's an organization that helps returning veterans find ways to continue to serve their communities.

Q. Okay. And the Greitens Group, what was its purpose mission?

A. The way that I understand the Greitens Group to be more of a PR, marketing, promotional company for Mr. Greitens to help book speeches and sell his books.

Q. So would that have been more affiliated with The Mission Continues then versus his political? This might be an A, B, C or D question.

A. It's a hard question to answer because the CEO of both was Mr. Greitens. So certainly there were areas that overlapped within Greitens Group and Mission Continues. For one example they were housed out of the same office. And then during the campaign the Greitens Group and Greitens for Missouri were located in the same offices as well.

Q. Okay. So then let's go to Greitens for Missouri. That purpose was what?

A. That was for Mr. Greitens' specific campaign for governor.

Q. And did that overlap with Greitens Group in any way like we were just discussing? Did it dovetail?

A. Certainly in terms of sharing resources and, yeah, sharing resources whether that's staff or office equipment.

Q. Okay. And then the New Missouri, I believe that may have happened after you left or was there a discussion about that when you were there?

A. No, no. There was -- That was well after I had departed.

Q. Okay. So then is it fair to say then that there was a bit of overlap in all of these not really definitively clear lines of where they would -- one starts and one ends; is that fair?

A. Yes. Generally, yes.

Q. Okay. Thank you. Thank you for walking me through that. It gets a little confusing sometimes. All right. So when you received on one sixteen -- I'm sorry, one six fifteen the list and in the exhibit on one sixteen that's given to you, the spreadsheet has no identifier on it, no header or title or anything like that. It's pretty generic from that standpoint?

A. Just so I'm following which?

Q. I'm sorry. It's on page 4 of 24 on --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative, so you understand, Mr. Hafner in response to the subpoena sent us an Excel file and we printed it sideways. The title of it would have been the 1K whatever.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So there was a typo on it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: In the e-mail itself it has a name which is Donors Over 1K. I don't have the e-mail in front of me there.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: But the title does not say Mission Continues; is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: In that title, the document title there.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Right. It does in the descriptor.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. So when you got the spreadsheet and the e-mail saying that it was The Mission Continues, that was your understanding of what that spreadsheet was; is that correct?

A. It was my understanding, yes. I did not know where it originated or how it was acquired.

Q. All right. And when you joined with Mr. Greitens, what was your understanding of the expectation of your role? Was there a written list of your roles and responsibilities or what was your understanding?

A. There was no written list, but I had had more campaign experience than the person that he had working for him whose name was Danny Laub and it was my understanding that I would come on to particularly help with fundraising but also to assist in a lot of other areas having to do with campaign issues, political issues, helping network, introducing Eric around, setting up political meetings.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let me interrupt one more time about that particular list. We have the actual Excel file that was sent to us back in the room in which we are keeping the documents and so everyone you can review that in that room. I would anticipate that this exhibit is not going to be a part of the report that we release because it is a trade secret. It appears to be a trade secret of The Mission Continues. We're not going -- We would have a summary of that particular exhibit in a report but not the exhibit itself.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Thank you.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. As part of your job being fundraising, you were given or put together several lists. Was there a strategic order to how you received those lists? Was there like a master list you started with and then added on? How did that work?

A. I was -- so I was supplied four lists one of the first days I started which is in Exhibit 3 I think this is. And from those lists I created a couple other documents based on input from Mr. Greitens and going through these lists with him.

Q. Okay. And I believe you said there was one that was from Mission Continues, one from larger individual donors and one from corporations; is that right?

A. There were three tabs in The Mission Continues list, and those were the three tabs, yes.

Q. Okay. You said that Danny Laub was the campaign manager; is that right?

A. I don't know if he had that exact title, but he certainly was in charge of the campaign.

Q. Was he your go to person?

A. Yes, yes.

Q. Okay. Did Danny have sole decision making authority or do you feel he had to get final approvals from Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes. He had to get final approvals on almost anything. Maybe -- I'm sure there were some minor things that he did on his own, but everything was directed by Mr. Greitens.

Q. Okay. Who was the individual for lack of a better word who was responsible for the accounting function meaning where deposits are made and tracked and expenses?

A. Early on they put me --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'm sorry. Can you clarify from which entity you're referring?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: For the entity of which you were working which I guess would be the Greitens Group. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

THE WITNESS: So for the Greitens Group, just so I'm clear in your question, for the Greitens Group you're wanting to know who was in charge of accounting?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Right.

THE WITNESS: I don't know. I assume Mr. Greitens himself in terms of the finances for the company.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. Okay. In regards to the campaign, who would have been the one responsible for filing the reports to Missouri Ethics Commission?

A. So I don't know the exact date but when Mr. Greitens brought on an individual named Jeff Stuerman, Jeff served as the campaign treasurer. Mr. Stuerman was working out of the office. I don't recall when he was brought on. I believe it was in February but he was brought on to put in a system of reporting procedures and document retention policies and other things. He was a former Edward Jones executive and was a personal friend of Eric's and Mr. Greitens had brought him in to help file the reports and do compliance work for the campaign.

Q. Okay. Thank you. In your work with as we talked about these other groups, more particularly The Mission Continues and Greitens for Missouri, who was the -- did you have direct contact with a key individual at The Mission Continues?

A. No, I did not. Now, as I stated earlier in testimony, I was directed to reach out to somebody that was -- that I was told was either a current employee or former employee named Lindsey Hodges, but to my recollection I never reached out to her. I certainly never met with her.

Q. And was Danny Laub the key contact at Greitens Group or who would have been the key contact?

A. So early on in 2014 when I was serving as essentially an informal advisor there was a gentleman named Dave Whitman who was kind of my go-between Eric and myself with the Greitens Group. Eric and Dave parted ways in the fall of 2014 and then it was Krystal Taylor. And moving forward it was Krystal Taylor when I was working as a paid advisor from January through March. It was essentially Krystal that was the go-between between myself and the Greitens Group.

Q. I appreciate you kind of clarifying all this because there's a lot of people, a lot of different moving parts here.

A. Yes.

Q. Then with Greitens for Missouri who was the key contact there?

A. Danny was the manager.

Q. For Greitens for Missouri?

A. At the time, Danny, yeah, Danny certainly was the lead staffer. Of course the candidate as well directed -- had the final say on campaign activities.

Q. So any moneys that you generated from donors, your understanding was that it went to which group then?

A. The Greitens for Missouri.

Q. Greitens for Missouri. Okay. When the ethics situation came up, I believe most everybody has talked about the list and it was shown that that may have been an inappropriate use and there was a fine associated with that, was there any discussion ever about any moneys being returned to donors?

A. Not to my recollection.

Q. Okay. You mentioned that Mr. Rogers and Mr. Joseph were overseas individuals?

A. I was led to believe Mr. Rogers was overseas somewhere, and from the notes it kind of jogs my memory that he was in Hong Kong.

Q. And had Mr. Greitens been overseas regularly to establish those relationships?

A. So he had built a number of relationships based from his time at Oxford, and some of those he was utilizing for campaign purposes. I don't know the exact people. If I went through all my notes, it would probably jog my memory. But there was certainly a lot of people from that. Of course in his military work too there would have been some officers and things like that that had contacts overseas of course.

Q. And to your knowledge, were any of those individuals, did they make donations outside of the LLCs, and so forth, that we've talked about --

A. The only one to my knowledge --

Q. -- outside of the United States?

A. The only one to my knowledge that made contributions directly to Greitens for Missouri was the gentleman Monu Joseph. Certainly there was much discussion about Alex and then some other potential donors to the campaign in conversations I had with Monu. Monu mentioned that they had a lot of buddies from Oxford that would probably contribute, and I don't know what happened after I left with those particular donors.

Q. I want to go back to the overlapping of the Greitens Group and Greitens for Missouri because you indicated that there was some overlap because of the Greitens Group being a PR marketing group which could certainly dovetail into campaign, and so forth. So when the moneys were put into Greitens for Missouri, were those moneys to your knowledge ever used for Greitens, the Greitens Group? The reason I'm asking that is because it was unclear as to where you were paid from.

A. Sure.

Q. So I'm trying to identify that.

A. Can you repeat the question just so I'm clear?

Q. Sure. You indicated that you weren't clear on where you received your paycheck from, thought it might have been from the Greitens Group. If the moneys went

-- the donor moneys went into Greitens for Missouri, then was there a shift of moneys from Greitens for Missouri into Greitens Group to help pay for your expenses and any other campaign expenses?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. Okay. You also talked about the transparency and that was something that you truly believe in and feel should be part of government. Were there any other issues during the time you were with Mr. Greitens that led you to believe that there were other parts that might not be transparent?

A. Yes. I think on a -- maybe not so much in terms of campaign finance but certainly some of his personal background, his history as a member -- or as somebody that wanted to run for office, a member of the opposing party, there's information like that that I believe he wanted to have concealed.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'll leave that to someone else to ask if they want to. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

THE WITNESS: I know I was paid by Greitens for Missouri in February and March of 2015. In January I just don't remember what the top of the check said. It was either from Eric personally or the Greitens Group. I can go back through my bank records and find it. I know it wasn't from Greitens for Missouri. I remembered the moment when he handed me the check.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. That was in January?

A. Of 2015.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. I appreciate your efforts to try and recall all this information. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Gentleman from Greene.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. My name is Kevin Austin, District 136. It sounds to me like when you were reviewing your history that you spent your entire career in politics either for candidates or for groups or for individual companies; is that correct?

A. Correct. And for the last three years now I've been a registered lobbyist too for a number of clients, but I only have one lobbying client right now.

Q. It sounds like your career in politics actually started while you were still in college --

A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- with Matt Blunt; is that right?

A. Yes. Started with Matt in 2004.

Q. What college did you attend?

A. St. Louis University.

Q. And Danny Laub was also a student at SLU?

A. He was. He was I think a couple years younger than me.

Q. Did you graduate from college?

A. I did.

Q. What was your degree in?

A. English and business.

Q. And how old are you now?

A. I am 32.

Q. And Danny is younger than you I assume since he was behind you in class?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Is that yes?

A. Yes, he is. I don't know how old he is. I want to say he's at least a couple years younger than me.

Q. Okay. And you said you started with Eric Greitens as a paid advisor in January 2015?

A. January 2015 was the first month I was paid for my work for Mr. Greitens.

Q. And I think your testimony was is that Eric Greitens relied -- needed help to introduce him to GOP donors and activists and relied on us. The question is that first did I get you right what you said? I I paraphrased you. If so, who's us? You and Danny?

A. Danny certainly and then there were other consultants that I was associated with, Robert Knodell and David Barklage. We all helped introduce Mr. Greitens around to a lot of people that ended up becoming his inner circle too.

Q. That may just lead into you testified earlier about some other consultants because of your relationship with them is why Mr. Greitens wanted to put your relationship on pause with you; is that correct?

A. That's how it was told to me by Danny, Mr. Greitens and Mr. Bobak.

Q. Is because these other consultants, whoever they may have been, were also associating or maybe not working for money but associating with other potential candidates for governor, lieutenant governor?

A. Yes. Those individuals were just more direct with Mr. Greitens than -- there was some other consultants as well that were involved with Mr. Greitens helping him do some of the same things that we were, Dave Hageman and Steve Michael in particular. The consultants that I was referring to are ones that I think were just more direct with Mr. Greitens and told him that if he did run for governor that they wouldn't be on board with his campaign.

Q. It's your belief that because of your relationship with those consultants who are more direct with Mr. Greitens, Mr. Greitens then wanted to have less relationship with you?

A. That's how it was communicated to me by those three individuals.

Q. What three individuals was that?

A. Danny Laub, Mark Bobak and Mr. Greitens, and the specific phrase that they used was they wanted to take a strategic pause on our relationship, and I just remember that because I've never heard that phrase before.

Q. And that was in March of 2015?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you started to work for John Brunner in the fall of 2015, correct?

A. Yes. I started working for him as a paid advisor -- not fall. In August I believe I'm almost positive was the first month I was paid by the Brunner campaign.

Q. This may have been asked and I apologize if I'm bouncing around twice, but what did you do between March and August of 2015?

A. What was I involved with? So at that time I was doing a little bit of lobbying. So that would have been until May. And then there was some other clients that I had been working with, donor groups. There's a pro business PAC called the Lewis and Clark Group that I advised. I advise one of the groups now. At the time there were three of them in St. Louis and Springfield and I was doing a lot of work with those groups of donors. And there's a couple other clients that I -- obviously it was a big hit to my income at the time and I had intended to stay with Eric a little bit longer than March. So I had picked up some extra work with the consultants I mentioned earlier, Robert Knodell and David Barklage, and I can't remember the other clients that I was working on. I know that there was something else, maybe a local government issue in St. Louis County. There were some other things that I was working for them.

Q. And this relationship with Barklage and Knodell you've been asked about it before because it's on one of your e-mails and one of your e-mail addresses in fact on Exhibit 3 has it and later it was a Gmail. This was just referrals back and forth between you and Barklage and Knodell as maybe happens with other consultants?

A. Yes. Again, at the time I wasn't employed directly by Barklage and Knodell but they did cover my health insurance and my phone for sure. I was certainly affiliated with them for the last, you know, the number of years before that. My relationship with them was kind of unique though. I would normally go and work on other campaigns and still be affiliated with that firm. So 2014 I went to work for Rick Stream who was running for county executive and I worked directly with Rick for that entirety. Our relationship was kind of -- was unique. I was always affiliated with that firm and people still ask. It's politics.

Q. It sounds like you're an independent contractor for a lot of different campaigns and organizations?

A. Yes.

Q. I'm not trying to do a bad comparison here but like somebody who does construction work?

A. Yes.

Q. You did a lot of work on a lot of different houses?

A. Yeah. I had my own LLC.

Q. Yeah. If you would, could you go to Exhibit 3. And page 2, back to these attachments, if I understand it right, the first attachment is page 4 through 15; is that correct?

A. It's actually the full through 24. So starting on page 16 it says Attachment No. 2 but this is the other tab.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: If I could. I can explain. This is a chairman error in copying. What are labeled there as Attachments 1, 2 and 3 are the sub tabs of Attachment 1.

BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. So truly what we have on pages -- thank you, Mr. Chair. Truly what we have on pages 4 through 24 is just The Mission Continues list?

A. Yes.

Q. But what also threw me off is it looks like tab number 1 is in alphabetical order because it ends with [redacted] or Z on page 15 and then we have a second list looks like it starts in As.

A. So the second list was organized by -- it was foundations. So it was organized not necessarily by individual name. It was organized by the name of the overall foundation.

Q. Okay. Maybe I'll lead you here. A good idea. Looks to me like we have some tab differences in between individuals and corporations and that's why we have individual A to Z and then A to Z for corps?

A. Yes. There were three tabs in the document. One for individuals, one for foundations and one for corporations.

Q. Back to page 2 of Exhibit 3. So the second attachment, this EG Finance Prospects, that's not in pages 2 through 24, correct?

A. Correct. That was a list provided by Mason Fink. Mason Fink was a fundraiser that Eric had met. He had done some extensive work for Mitt Romney. And he supplied that list that included a lot of national donors, national Republican donors. He supplied that list to the campaign or to Eric or Krystal Taylor.

Q. We go to the fourth list. It says Schweich list and if we look up above it says Schweich list-Steve Michael. Who is Steve Michael?

A. Steve Michael is a consultant that works for Dave Hageman at Victory Enterprises.

Q. Do you know how this Schweich list was obtained?

A. I do not. And I do remember looking at that list. We never -- I never went over that list with Eric, but it appeared to be Schweich's internal fundraising list. I have no idea how it was acquired.

Q. Why was it never used?

A. It was very, very extensive. It looks like the kind of list that one of the professional fundraisers in our state use, one that has Kit Bond, you know, Kit Bond donations, Matt Blunt donations. It was developed over years. And it was just extremely, extremely long. There was information that just wasn't relevant to Mr. Greitens campaign just because he wasn't a traditional Republican candidate.

Q. And you said, if I understood you right, that you were extremely skeptical of his conservative viewpoints. When did you arrive at that opinion?

A. I'm not sure exactly when I arrived. I would say from the first time we met with him in December of 2013 it was always before that I had assumed he was a Democrat. Later on, you know, later on we learned he was very close with Governor Holden and Mayor Slay and we just -- everyone always assumed in the circles that I ran in that he was a Democrat. So to answer your question at what point, I think from the first meeting we had and certainly when I worked with him in a paid capacity in January there were many conversations that we had and policy discussions and other things that he had to formulate certain positions that were essentially new to him and had to work through them. So I think kind of answer to your question was I always kind of viewed him with skepticism.

Q. If we can go to Exhibit 5, please. If we go to like the fourth paragraph -- well, third paragraph down it says go to: Salesforce.com. What's salesforce.com?

A. It's a contact management tool that businesses, people use to help manage their contacts and it's a database system for managing your contacts.

Q. Software program of some sort?

A. Yeah, essentially. You can access it online too. You can log onto Sales Force from anywhere and get your contact list.

Q. And if we can go to Exhibit 7, first page and I may have missed this certainly too. It says GFM call list. What does GFM stand for?

A. Greitens for Missouri.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Representative Rhoads, are you ready to go or do we need to take a break?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Representative Lauer needs a break I think.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: We'll take a break, go off the record for about ten minutes.

(A recess was taken.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Back from break. Gentleman from Howell.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Thank you,

Mr. Chairman.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS:

Q. Shawn Rhoads from Howell County. One question, were you under -- you say you were a contractor obviously. You do contract with various people. Did you have a written contract with Eric Greitens or the Eric Greitens campaign or anything like that?

A. I don't recall that there was a written contract. We verbally agreed in December of 2014 that I would be paid $4,000 a month starting in January and I would work out of his office four days a week. But to the best of my recollection, we never had any contract --

Q. I'm sorry to interrupt you. You didn't have any kind of hey, look, this is exactly what your job is other than a verbal agreement; is that right?

A. To the best of my recollection, no, there was no.

Q. Is that common practice for you or do you normally have contracts with people?

A. It is standard practice with a lot of consultants to have contracts with candidates. I certainly have had some with others, but the campaigns I've been involved with I think were just made in good faith agreements with those particular candidates.

Q. So were they -- The other good faith handshake verbal agreements, were they with people that you're more familiar with?

A. Generally, yeah, yeah.

Q. Okay. And I want to make sure that I'm clear on this. Obviously you knew -- I'm assuming, you can tell me yes or no, you were aware of what The Mission Continues does?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were aware that when you got the list where it came from?

A. I was not positive where it originated or where it came from or how it was acquired.

Q. No one explained to you?

A. It was listed in the, I forget which exhibit it was.

Q. The one with the e-mails, correct.

A. It was listed as The Mission Continues list. When I mentioned with Mr. Greitens to discuss it, they all were Mission Continues donors. In the first instance that I knew that it originated or that I was told it originated at The Mission Continues was when David Lieb called me in October of 2016. He said in the metadata of the document it was created by some Mission Continues employee.

Q. So you weren't at any point, based on your knowledge and experience in consulting, ever thought we shouldn't be using this list?

A. No, it certainly crossed my mind. Again, I did not know how it was acquired.

Q. Gotcha. Did you ever bring that up and say hey, based on my training or my experience doing this, you know, where did we get this from and we want to be right in how we're doing this, did you ever bring that up to Mr. Greitens or Danny or whoever?

A. I did -- To my recollection, no, I did not. Certainly there were some directives given to me at like reaching out to the employees of The Mission Continues, which I never did, because I was hesitant to reach out to a charity or former employees of the charity to be used for political campaign, but I never spoke to Eric about using that list. In my mind, one, I did not know how it was acquired and, two, I knew that I would be using that list to make another list to developing a call list and a fundraising plan. So it was more of a reference that I was using it for.

Q. Did they utilize the entire list or just parts of it?

A. We went through the whole list and he selected donors and gave me notes on specific donors, and then he wanted me to meet with Lindsey Hodges who I don't know who she was. I don't know if she was an employee there or if she was a former employee. I was led to believe she was development director at Mission Continues for a time when Eric was CEO of Mission Continues. And that directive was given so Lindsey and I could then go through the list more extensively on donors that Mr. Greitens did not recall details of.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think that's it, Mr. Chairman. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Gentleman from St. Louis County.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON JR.:

Q. Good morning. I'm Tommie Pierson Jr., State Representative of the 66th District in North St. Louis County and City. Just a few questions. My questions too may be a little out of sequence, but hopefully you'll be able to enlighten me on some of them. Where do most donor lists come from?

A. So generally campaigns if you're starting from the beginning they're created from a list of personal contacts first from the candidate, maybe friends and family. You add kind of a prospect list to that of potential donors that you want the candidate to reach out to or you reach out to. In a lot of campaigns and a lot of higher level campaigns lists come from -- there's only a few specific fundraising, professional fundraisers in the state that do this sort of thing. So lists are shared between different campaigns and among candidates. Certainly a lot of state-wide candidates that have cultivated their lists, if they've come from a lower office to a higher office, they've cultivated that list over years over election cycles. To answer your question more directly, they come from a number of different sources.

Q. When you say "shared," does that often include compensation? How does that process work?

A. Well, among political candidates, say a fundraising vendor in our state or a fundraiser in our state will have a couple clients each cycle. They will have a master list that they work off of. Maybe they just add another column on the side of it and that's for a specific candidate and they work through that list name by name and they're higher level donors or donors that the candidate needs to solicit because they could give at an increased level. For a fundraiser, they will have cultivated a list like that over years over election cycles and they'll work off of the same list for multiple candidates. So when I say shared, that's kind of what I mean. Normally a candidate would not give his or her own fundraising list to another candidate that they don't know. A lot of that -- sorry.

Q. So if I were to hire you knowing your past connections with past candidates, would I hire you knowing that you would bring a list with you?

A. Certainly with the connections that I've built with donors and others over time, that's why people hire specific fundraising vendors, specific fundraisers in the state. Yes, they bring along those connections, that network. Along with that would come a contact list normally.

To answer your question further, different offices have a different donor base, of course. Many donors that are interested in a state-wide state level race wouldn't be interested in a federal race, vice versa. There's different -- obviously, you know, there's a million different reasons why people contribute.

Q. So in looking at a couple of the specific lists, and I believe it's the list from Exhibit 3, page 2, if I start with the Schweich list, you did not use that list; is that correct?

A. I remember opening that file and reviewing it at least one time, but no, I did not work off that list with Mr. Greitens.

Q. And I believe you stated the primary reason was just difficult to work with?

A. A little bit. It was a very, very extensive list. It was kind of hard to read because there was I don't know how many -- I mean tens of columns in it. It was just kind of difficult to work off of. And I know it was developed by a professional fundraiser. I don't know who. And usually people have their own system when they're working with lists. I have my own. I know others do too. It just wasn't useful to us. Plus, at the time Tom Schweich was running for governor too, and obviously you don't want to have a candidate reach out to donors of your opponent. It's just not a professional thing to do. So I never utilized that list when I was there.

Q. Do you know if anyone -- do you have any knowledge of that Schweich list being used subsequently not by you?

A. I do not have any knowledge of that. It could have been, but I do not know.

Q. Okay. Do you know the origin of the Schweich list?

A. I do not. I do not.

Q. One of the other lists is referenced as EG

FNCE Prospects?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. The source of that list was Mason Fink; is that correct?

A. At the time that this was sent to me, to my recollection I did not know who Mason Fink was. It was later described that he was a Romney fundraiser from 2012, had a lot of national contacts and was helping Eric in some capacity. The e-mail that you see that's designated as Mason Fink's list, I was led to believe that he created it; that I remember when opening it it had a lot of donors that were viewed as national level type donors that contributed to races across the board, and I was led to believe that that was his personal fundraising list. I don't know why -- but I don't know when he gave it to the campaign or anything else. My first contact with it obviously was when Krystal Taylor e-mailed that list to me.

Q. But you would say it was a list of value?

A. Yes, absolutely.

Q. Did you know if there was compensation given to Mason Fink for this list?

A. I do not, no.

Q. Or do you know if there was or if it was given in an in kind fashion?

A. I do not know that.

Q. Lindsey Hodges, you stated you did not meet with her; is that correct?

A. No. I never met with her regarding the list. There was one person that came into the Greitens office one time and I don't recall if it was her or not. I want to say that it might have been, but I certainly never met with her about fundraising or The Mission Continues list which is what I was directed to do.

Q. So even though you were directed to perhaps use her as a resource, you chose not to?

A. Yes. And I don't remember -- but I don't remember the reason why I chose not to. I just don't recall.

Q. Do you recall meeting anyone else directly related to The Mission Continues?

A. Other than -- yes. There were a number of levels. One, the individual that I was working with through most of 2014, Dave Whitman worked out of The Mission Continues office and the Greitens Group office and they were located at the same place. You could say he was related.

Then there was board members, people like Tim Noonan I believe, I was led to believe was a board member at Mission Continues or was very active at Mission Continues. Tim was in the Greitens office a couple of different times and I met him. So yes, I did meet people that were involved with the charity and I was led to believe were still involved with the charity.

Q. I think you stated there was a meeting on January 7 where you went through a Mission Continues donor list. Who was involved in that meeting?

A. So there were two meetings that we had specifically dealing with fundraising. I know the calendar invites are in the exhibits. Eric and I were involved in both meetings. I don't recall the other people there. I would like to say Danny Laub was in at least one of those meetings too. I just know Eric and -- Mr. Greitens and I were involved in both of those meetings.

Q. In those meetings there were specific Mission Continues lists that were reviewed?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever get a chance to look through the MEC listing?

A. At this time or in the past?

Q. Right. I know we had a little break. I didn't know if you had a chance to go back and go through it.

A. Not really. I glanced through it a little bit.

Q. Did anything familiar jump out at you?

A. Certainly there's some payments --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative, you're inquiring about Monu Joseph?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Yes.

THE WITNESS: Yes. There is an entry on 3/9/2015, two entries, one from Gray Arch Income Property and one from Monu Joseph. Both of those were from him. And there are documents proving that, but they've been withheld.

BY REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON JR.:

Q. I know Alex Rogers was another name that we talked about. Were you aware of any LLCs that perhaps were set up by that individual?

A. I am not aware. I do know again there is some e-mail traffic regarding involvement and how much he would raise, but those have been withheld.

Q. Krystal Taylor, when you first met her who did she work for?

A. The Greitens Group.

Q. Do you know who she -- anything about her former employment history?

A. Just from -- just from what I know from LinkedIn that she used to work at Mission Continues. I don't have any direct knowledge of her time in Mission Continues, though.

Q. So she's a former employee of The Mission Continues?

A. As I understand, yes.

Q. And it's your understanding that after, I forget the gentleman's name, I think -- well, let me ask who was the person that she replaced at the Greitens Group?

A. A gentleman named Dave Whitman.

Q. That was the name. And she came on to the Greitens Group around what time frame?

A. I don't know the exact dates. I do know she was present at a number of strategy meetings and other political meetings that we held with Mr. Greitens in 2014. I don't know the exact time that I met her, but I know she was present in a couple of those. And she, as I understand, took over Dave Whitman's role whenever they separated -- whenever Dave Whitman and Mr. Greitens separated sometime in the fall of 2014.

Q. And did you know Mr. Greitens outside of the office?

A. In terms of?

Q. Just if you had a personal relationship with him?

A. Yeah. We'd grab lunch together. We never really hung out or anything, but we'd grab lunch together a number of occasions. Certainly I drove him down here for a series of meetings in January of 2015 to meet with elected officials and some other Republican activists. So yeah, I knew him outside, certainly outside of the Greitens Group office.

Q. What kind of person would you describe him to be?

A. Extremely ambitious and driven. A guy that doesn't like to lose at anything. Somebody that gives 100 percent and is very calculating and self-aware of how he comes across.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Just a few additional questions.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. How much were you paid in January of 2015?

A. $4,000.

Q. Do you recall the name of The Mission Continues employee who created the list? You mentioned a couple times metadata. Do you recall the name of that employee?

A. I do not. The first time I heard the name was with the investigator from the MEC when I testified there and she had asked if I knew this person. I don't recall the name.

Q. You testified earlier you believe the computers were owned by the Greitens Group. Do you have first-hand knowledge of that of who purchased those computers? Were the computers there when you showed up at the office?

A. At that time we only used our laptops. There was other office equipment, printers and things like that.

Q. Your own personal laptop?

A. I did.

Q. And Krystal Taylor's computer, when you arrived to work there, was her computer already there?

A. Yes.

Q. And you don't know who paid for her particular computer, do you?

A. No.

Q. Mr. Greitens, did he have his own computer at the time you arrived?

A. Yes, it was a laptop, a Mac.

Q. You don't know who purchased that particular computer?

A. No.

Q. The campaign paid for furniture?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that an ordinary campaign expense?

A. Is what?

Q. Is that an ordinary campaign expense?

A. For a state-wide campaign I think you could make the argument that it is.

Q. In your involvement with the campaign, did you witness Mr. Greitens publicly promise to run an open and transparent campaign?

A. Yes.

Q. Were there particular occasions on which?

A. Yes. A particular one that comes to mind in late fall of 2015, Mr. Greitens was very upset that a web video had been released. I don't recall the topic of the web video. But it was questioning his conservative credentials. As a result of that, he made a series of two phone calls to John Brunner when John was in Kansas City for a campaign event. There was a staffer who was with John Brunner at that time.

Q. Were you working for the Brunner campaign at this time?

A. I was at that time.

Q. Okay. Continue.

A. There was a staffer who was in the car with

Mr. Brunner by the name of Jill Noble. Jill overheard a lot of the contents of the first phone call between Mr. Greitens and Mr. Brunner. In that phone call, according to an affidavit that Jill had signed, Mr. Greitens was extremely irate with Mr. Brunner, challenged him to come down to his boxing gym and used some curse words. I don't recall the exact language of the affidavit. I can certainly supply it if needed. But because of that first phone call and Jill's experience, the decision was made I assume by her to record the second phone call that Mr. Greitens made to Mr. Brunner.

That phone call ended up making its way to the press by somebody in our campaign. And after that phone call made its way to the press, Mr. Greitens went on the Mark Reardon Show on KMOX in St. Louis and said that Mr. Brunner wasn't taking responsibility for his actions, that he lacked the courage to come here and sit down with Mark and face him and address questions about the situation. And what Eric said at that time was that he was going to run a positive campaign; that the campaign he was going to run was going to be transparent that you could see his donors and that essentially he was going to run a clean fully transparent campaign.

At that time, of course, I was under an NDA. The first time I spoke about any of this was to Missouri Ethic Commission. Of course at that time when Mr. Greitens had that interview, I knew that that wasn't the case at all because I had had conversations with people associated with him in January and February and March when I was employed and working out of that office that I knew that I was led to believe that they were planning -- that they were planning on concealing donors in some way or having people associated with -- on their campaign having staff associated with on their campaign reach out and coordinate donors who would be operating to the contrary of what Mr. Greitens told Mark Reardon on his show.

Q. And I have one more question and I'll allow other members to ask additional questions as well if you have some additional ones. You testified earlier that Mr. Greitens in the course of meeting with you would have to -- this is a quote I wrote down -- formulate positions that were new to him. Can you explain that?

A. There was at least one session that we did just a general Q&A about different questions that he would probably get in a Republican primary, things having to do with social positions, say pro-life issues or guns, Second Amendment, or education. And during that Q&A session there was at least one that I remember in particular that he had to work through where he stood on these particular issues, issues that you would get with a lot of Republican primary voters.

So it kind of led me -- it kind of reinforced what I already knew that, one, this whole new process as a candidate, of course, was new to him but, two, he wasn't coming from a philosophical benchmark on his political positions. And he had met with some other people that we introduced him to throughout 2014 but there was a person that we coordinated Mr. Greitens and her to meet, name was Jennae Neustadt, ended up working at the governor's office for him. She helped him a lot with policy formulation. There was a lobbyist as well involved in that, Shawn Ferry (phonetic spelling) and John Lamping. Those three helped him formulate his conservative positions during that same time period in January, February, March -- January and February in particular of 2015.

Q. What do you mean formulate?

A. Come up with answers that would be -- come up with answers that would be acceptable to a Republican primary voter.

Q. Whose answers were they when they were formulated?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm sorry?

BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. Whose answers were they when they were formulated?

A. I was not in the sessions with Jennae, John Lamping and Eric, but I know that when I was working with him in the Q&A sessions that he and I would talk through them together and where the base was on a particular issue, you know, what the general conservative voter would generally hear from a candidate that's running for a high office in the state. So certainly myself, Mr. Greitens and Mr. Bobak as well would have been involved in that particular session that I'm speaking about right now.

Q. In your experience, is that typical for a candidate to have to be explained such positions?

A. Usually when you decide to run for a particular party you already know the platform of that party. Mr. Greitens was not really familiar with those issues. With that said, with candidates you always work through messaging points and help them develop a concise message on particular issues.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Is there anyone else who has further questions? I'll try and go in order.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I would like to.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes, sir. Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Thank you.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS:

Q. I'm gathering you're a strong Republican?

A. Yes.

Q. I assume you have been all of your young life?

A. I've always been a Republican.

Q. As a contract political advisor, have you ever worked for a Democrat?

A. No, never as a -- never as a paid.

Q. How were you approached by the Greitens people about coming on board with them initially?

A. So I had a mutual friend who had known Eric from a number of years ago. His name was Tyler Holman, somebody I'm still friends with. At the time in 2013, we had started to hear rumors that Mr. Greitens was looking to run for office as a Republican. We weren't entirely sure which office he was planning on running for. It was merely just rumors. Tyler had set a meeting up between myself, David Barklage, Mr. Greitens and Dave Whitman. He actually gave me -- I can't remember how the initial meeting or initial outreach happened. Either I contacted Dave or Dave contacted me.

From that initial meeting, from that initial outreach, we met -- we then met at the Greitens Group office which was located where The Mission Continues office was located and that was in December of 2013. So the initial outreach happened because we had a mutual friend, Tyler Holman.

And we had been told at the time that Mr. Greitens was receiving advice from Ed Martin who was I believe at that time the current Republican party chairman. And again, we had been told then that Ed was trying to engineer a deal with Mr. Greitens and himself that Ed would provide support, network and help for Eric in exchange for Eric agreeing to Ed that he would run his governor's race in 2016. And we were led to believe that Eric was very uncomfortable with that arrangement, and that was kind of when we were brought into the picture. And our first meeting occurred in December of 2013.

Q. Okay. So you were contacted by the Greitens campaign. You didn't contact the Greitens campaign; is that what your testimony is?

A. I don't recall the initial outreach whether it was me to Dave Whitman or Dave Whitman to myself, but I do know that Tyler Holman was the one that put us both in touch.

Q. You being a life long Republican and an interest in seeing the party succeed and having knowledge that Mr. Greitens was a Democrat for an apparently good while, why in the world would you go to work for him? I don't understand your desire to even be employed by him.

A. Well, certainly when you come across a candidate that had a resume that he did it makes for a powerful narrative. It was a great candidate profile. Somebody who had served in the military that ran a respectable organization, and on the surface on paper it is certainly -- it certainly presents itself as a great profile for a potential candidate for office.

I wanted to believe -- A lot of candidates have conversions in beliefs, and I certainly wanted to believe that his was sincere. And at the time I didn't know what his true intentions were. Later on in 2014 it was always kind of -- we were always kind of led to believe that he was looking at either governor or lieutenant governor. At the time I had done a lot of work for Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder. In a very, very small circle I had known that the lieutenant governor wasn't going to run for re-election. I had no idea that he'd end up running for governor. At the time I knew that he wasn't planning on running for re-election. I did believe that Eric could have made great lieutenant governor for the state, and it's a job that gives him a natural segue into Republican party politics because of his veterans background and the lieutenant governor is veterans advocate and so he could use that office to kind of prove that he had these conservative credentials that he said he did and also help build the party and network and make sure that he was building these relationships with people around the state. Obviously that advice wasn't heeded at all.

But I went to work for him because I believed in him. I believed that the conversion was sincere and I didn't -- I also didn't know at the time the extent of how he met with senior Democrat officials in Washington, D.C. in 2008 or 2010; that he actively tried to get them to recruit him to run for office at that time.

I didn't know about the web domains he took out in 2008 or 2010, the Greitens for President and the Greitens for America, the Greitens for Governor. I had no idea about any of those web domains. A lot of that I learned later on. Initially I certainly believed in him and that's why I wanted to help him.

Q. Earlier I think you testified that you were doubtful that, I'm putting that word in the sentence, I don't think that's exactly what you said, I think what you meant was you were doubtful about the odds of him becoming governor; is that right?

A. Yes. Yes, he was a virtual unknown to Republican party donors.

Q. He's a rising star in a resume, but yet you knew that the odds of him becoming governor were slim. And then you knew on day one, if I understood your testimony right, when you first met with Governor Greitens that you were very skeptical then about whether or not he truly was a Republican; is that right?

A. Maybe the right word isn't very skeptical, but certainly I approached the meeting with some skepticism because up until this point we didn't --

Q. From the Republican candidates that you had worked with in the past, he was vastly different. I think we all agree on that.

A. Yes.

Q. So I guess the part that I'm wondering about is why again would you stay there? Why wouldn't you bow out early if you sensed this is not going to work out? You don't even have to answer that one.

But how long of a span was there from the time you departed Greitens campaign and became involved in the John Brunner campaign? How many months was that or weeks?

A. The first time it was August when I first was paid by John Brunner, the first time I did any sort of substantial work. There might have been some things --

I knew the people that were running his campaign. There were some guys out of Springfield who had been in charge of it. There really wasn't much that I would have done before August, though. August was when I started full time.

Q. Were you in communication with his campaign at anytime while you were -- his campaign or him or his people while you worked for Eric Greitens?

A. I was not involved. I was not in communication with John Brunner at all. I had met him briefly a couple times before that but had never spoke to him about employment or anything else. Now, the people that I was associated with, some other consultants, which is why the separation between Mr. Greitens and myself happened, they were in communication with John on some issues but it wasn't me directly with John Brunner, but I don't know and I'd have to -- I just don't know and I don't know if they were -- I don't think they were getting paid at that time either by Mr. Brunner. I think, as consultants do a lot, I think they were in communication with a number of different candidates. The people I mentioned, Robert Knodell and David Barklage, I know David had a number of conversations with Catherine Hanaway too. That's just kind of a, yeah, standard operating procedure for some consultants.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm good. Thanks.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yes, sir, just a few questions. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. When you were talking about his demeanor about being controlling and ambitious and self-aware, and so forth, what was he like as I'll use the term office manager? Working with him in the office, what was that like?

A. Very structured. I didn't really meet with him. There were times that I would come into the office to ask him a question or something like that. I didn't meet with him to discuss a particular issue unless there was a scheduled time on the calendar to. So extremely very structured.

Q. You spent four days a week in the office, is that right, that was part of the agreement?

A. Yes. And maybe some weeks it was just three days. Generally our agreement was four days and most weeks it was.

Q. During the time you were there, even though you may not have had contact with him, was there any sort of indication as to how he might be managing that?

A. So at the time he was also -- he also had a book launch that he was preparing for. Mr. Greitens is somebody that's, like I said, is very structured and, you know, he was a motivational speaker, motivational leadership speaker as well. A lot goes into that especially with him. There's a lot of rehearsals and things like that that he goes through. There's a process to everything that he does.

So he was focused on other things as well and not just politics at that time is what I'm trying to answer.

Q. So when you were working with him as part of the Greitens Group I assume, then were you involved in any of the initiatives regarding his book or The Mission Continues as far as veterans, the book, the PR things? How did that all work?

A. That was very, very limited of what I was involved with. They invited me to the book launch that they had in St. Louis and they wanted me to invite a bunch of political people to it, which I did.

Q. What was the purpose of that?

A. It was the release of his latest book called Resilience, and there was an event at the St. Louis Public Library in March, in early March 2015, and he wanted me to reach out to a number of local political people to invite them. I did.

So in terms of overlap between Greitens Group and the promotional stuff, there was little stuff like that that I did.

Q. With you being the fundraiser and him asking for political guests to come, one might think there was an association there of trying to get donor money?

A. Sure, absolutely.

Q. All right. And then I just want to go back to the campaign itself and we were talking about transparency earlier. Were there things that you were told that were not transparent or to be concealed that would have impacted his campaign?

A. So he had me sign an NDA the first day that I was working out of the office. So it was expected that I wouldn't discuss probably confidential information with anybody unless compelled to. But in terms of other things that he wanted to conceal, I think there was a lot that he didn't want information to get out on. And take, for instance, say Op Re files or things like that.

Q. I'm sorry? What?

A. Opposition research files or files where you do an assessment on a candidate running and you assess their vulnerabilities, something like that, or maybe a background information on his -- other background information on his past or -- Certainly, yeah, certainly there's other information that I think he would have wanted to conceal.

Q. What were the terms of the confidentiality agreement?

A. I don't have it in front of me. I know it was quite extensive.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: If I might, Representative, we have -- I believe the agreement was provided to us. It's not in the packet that was put together.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you. I'm done.

THE WITNESS: Also just to add to my earlier answer, another thing is our Q&A sessions that we had, things where we were helping him with his positioning and the Republican platform and our conversations. There's a lot of things like that that they didn't want to ever share or let out in the public.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I really appreciate you being so forthcoming and making sure we're very clear on that. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. So you had an NDA with Eric Greitens, correct?

A. I did.

Q. Did you have an NDA with John Brunner?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever signed an NDA with any other candidate that you worked for?

A. To my knowledge, no.

Q. You testified that Jill Noble signed an affidavit. Under what circumstances would she be signing an affidavit or asked to sign one?

A. There was a situation. It was -- I believe it was the same interview that Mr. Greitens had with Mark Reardon, and in that interview Mark Reardon said that they, in terms of the Brunner campaign, said that there was an earlier phone call that precipitated the phone call that ended up in the media.

Eric, after Mark said that, said that is a lie from them. I don't know the exact quote. He said that is a lie from them, Mark, that is an absolute lie. The reason the phone call was recorded in the first place was because the first phone call was of a pretty threatening nature. I guess the calculation was made in the car at the time that they wanted to have a record of the second phone call. And from that phone call John, I think if I remember correctly, Jill had sent the phone call to John. John then sent it to a group of campaign people and it got out. I was not the one that leaked it. Kevin McDermott from the Post called me when I was in Troy, Missouri and said he had a copy of it and then I had to deal with it. It was not a fun thing because it made both candidates look really bad.

Anyways, the affidavit was signed as a response to Mr. Greitens' claim that we were lying about that, and we issued the affidavit plus produced John's phone records showing the phone calls made from Eric to John.

Q. And regarding the documents that are the subject of the subpoena you received from this Committee, why did you keep those documents?

A. So it's really just a personal thing. I save a lot of stuff. I organize it in my files and up until the subpoenas -- obviously the donor lists and a lot of this information I never gave to the Brunner campaign. I was still under an NDA until the MEC subpoenaed me on a lot of this information. But why I held onto it, obviously it wasn't used politically in the primary for John. I doubt they knew any of this stuff even existed. But I held onto it just because it's something I do. I catalog stuff. I save it. And if there's documents that I create, like I say, a fundraising plan, I'll copy that as a template and use for other candidates.

Q. Can you say the same for other campaigns you've worked on, you've kept their documents too; is that what you've done?

A. Yes. Obviously I never expected them to be subpoenaed and produced to many different agencies and everything.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes, I generally save and organize a lot of files that I work on for other candidates.

Q. You would have documents from the Brunner campaign when you worked on that. You'd have documents from -- and I forgot who else you said you worked for.

A. Kurt Schaefer.

Q. Yeah. Kurt Schaefer. You'd have documents from their campaigns too?

A. Absolutely. Rick Stream, Peter Kinder, yeah, a lot of local candidates I worked on as well.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Nothing else.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Nothing, Mr. Chair.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE BARNES:

Q. One final question. Do you believe it's in your financial interest to be here today?

A. No, not at all.

Q. The opposite?

A. Yeah. As I said, my clients don't know that I'm here, and I'm here to produce the documents under subpoena. Yeah, it's not my decision to be here.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Thank you. Thank you for your testimony. Can we excuse this witness? Thank you.

(Witness excused.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's take a short break while they go to the door.

We're back. So the first motion I will make is to send notice of a meeting for -- to close a meeting scheduled from Friday, March 23 in this location at 10:00 a.m. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Wait a second. So we're going to do 10:00 a.m. on Friday?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Unless you want to be here at 8:00 a.m. on Friday.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I have an 8:30 a.m. appointment. I'll see if I can reschedule that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's do noon. Let's do noon. That's easier for everyone. 10:00 a.m. makes you leave at 6:00 a.m. Actually let's do 12:30 so everyone can eat lunch someplace other than here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I now move to close the hearing for 12:30 p.m. next Friday, March 23, at this same location. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote seven aye, zero no to close the meeting next Friday, 12:30 p.m. I now move that the Committee authorize a subcommittee of myself, Representative Austin and Representative Mitten to interview Mr. David Whitman who is currently located at the federal penitentiary in Springfield, Missouri and for whom recording devices are not allowed into those interviews except with special permission of the warden which I believe we can get but I think that's a somewhat lengthy process. At this point in time I think it would behoove us to go have a conversation first before deciding whether it makes sense to have a court reporter there to take it down. Any discussion on that motion?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So it cannot be recorded in any fashion?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: You are prohibited from -- Unless you have special dispensation from the warden, you are prohibited from being recording devices into the facility.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: How would that be recorded?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We will come back to the Committee with a summary of what he tells us in that meeting and potentially if he has relevant information for our Committee then we will follow up with a recorded statement of some sort if not --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: A request for special dispensation.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- if not a signed declaration on the day that we go down there. Further discussion on said motion?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: And he will be, of course, under oath?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: When we have him without the special dispensation, he's not going to be.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: So he's not under oath without the special dispensation?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: This is just an initial meeting to see if he has information relevant to the investigation.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: An informal interview.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It is an informal interview to determine whether we need a formal interview to go through the process of getting a court reporter into the federal penitentiary in Springfield.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But it's also possible -- Mr. Chairman, if I might just reiterate. I think think it's also possible that if the subcommittee believes that there is some information that could be obtained by way of a sworn affidavit that we could just get then and there, that's another possibility.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. Our intent is to report back to the Committee rather than go through this lengthy process where we have to get the warden's special permission and then -- I don't know if all of us could even get in there for this purpose. My understanding from speaking to the public information officer in the facility is that they've never had anything like this done which should not be surprising. There's never been a committee of the Missouri House to interview a witness at the federal penitentiary in Springfield, Missouri.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: They've had lawyers there depose.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: They've had lawyers there. But the question is there are so many of us. They're nine people to come in, bring a recording device. That presents a different sort of thing that they've never done before.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Something they're not logistically prepared for.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: They're not logistically prepared for. So I now move that the Committee grant permission to Representative Austin, myself and Representative Mitten and I believe Mr. Curchin is going to be with us for said interview on Friday. So I now move.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Finally, there is some question about this Committee's authority to issue a subpoena to force either a Mr. Dan Laub or anyone associated with The Mission Continues in Manhattan to appear before us here in Missouri. One potential solution to that is to take a deposition. There's a statute that authorizes the speaker to deputize a member or even a non member to take a deposition for any purpose to be used in the House of Representatives. So I want the Committee to vote on said authorization if necessary to interview Mr. Laub or someone from The Mission Continues for that limited purpose.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: He would not be able to come here?
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We don't know the answer to that question yet. It's if he would not come here, refuse to come here, I want to offer up the possibility that if they deem that to be too costly and time consuming, then we will say fine, we will come to you so that there's no great excuse not to speak with us. Further discussion of the motion? Seeing none I so move. Mr. Curchin, please call the roll.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm sorry. But what are we voting on here?
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's back up.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We're basically saying that the chair -- that should the New York witness refuse to come to Missouri that we would -- we're authorizing the Committee or the chair to either travel to New York to interview or deputize somebody else -- travel to New York for a deposition or deputize somebody in New York to take said deposition; is that what we're voting on?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. And my inclination it would be myself and perhaps another member of the Committee if someone else would choose to do so. The same is true for Mr. Laub who I believe is in Virginia at this point.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I just want to make sure I know what I'm voting on. Aye.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That was an aye. Was that an aye?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yes, indeed.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson Jr.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote of seven ayes, zero nos, you have approved the motion. That ends today's hearing.
(Off the record.)

And with that, I believe our sergeant at arms has gone to notify the witness that we are ready for her.
Good afternoon. Thank you for being here.
MR. BARNES: First let's administer the oath.

KRYSTAL PROCTOR,

being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Thank you. Can you state your name.
A. Krystal Proctor.
Q. And did you formerly go by Krystal Taylor?

A. Yes.
Q. And, Ms. Proctor -- can I call you Ms. Proctor?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Have you ever given testimony in a deposition before?
A. I have not.
Q. Okay. So just -- this is a conversation, but it's a conversation that's a little bit strange because we have someone here recording. This is not a deposition, but it is like a deposition because we have a court reporter here and there are a few ground rules. Number one is you can't -- when you're asked a question, nodding your head yes or shaking it no will not do; you have to say "yes" or "no" so that she can get a record. Do you understand that?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And if anyone asks a question that you do not understand, please just ask them to stop and restate the question, because it doesn't make any sense for us to be asking questions that are confusing to you, and you're giving an answer that -- you think they're asking one thing, and you're giving this answer, but they're actually asking something else.

A. Okay.
Q. And if you need to stop for any reason, just let us know. The way this is going to work is, generally, I start with sort of a broad overview, and then we will go in order. The vice chairman will ask questions, the ranking member will ask questions, and then we'll go in order of legislative seniority. So there's seven of us. I apologize; it takes some time, obviously. Some people will hit on points that I might have missed.
A. Okay.
Q. Okay. Ms. Taylor, can you tell us -- for the record, you have counsel here, and if they want to note their presence or the record.
MR. HAMMER: Sure. Thank you very much. My name is Mark Hammer, last name is H-a-m-m-e-r, attorney for Ms. Proctor.
MS. CHIRAVOLLATTI: Nicole Chiravollatti, also attorney for Ms. Proctor.
MR. BARNES: Thank you. Thank you for being here this afternoon. Sorry we're a little bit late. We were voting on budget bills.
Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Ms. Proctor, how long have you known Eric Greitens?

A. I have known him since January of -- well, I guess before January 2011, but I started working for him in January of 2011.

Q. Okay. And how long before you started working for him?

A. Probably a couple of months before that, I was interviewing for the position.

Q. So it was just through the hiring process that you met him?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And so you started in January 2011. For whom did you work when you started in January 2011?

A. So when I was hired in January 2011, I was a dual employee of The Mission Continues and the Greitens Group.

Q. And how much of your work was spent on the Greitens Group?

A. Probably -- it probably changed, you know, from time to time, but, generally, it was 50/50.

Q. And so the other 50 would be The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was as you -- right when you started?

A. Yes.

Q. And generally throughout the time period in which you worked for Mr. Greitens, it was in that dual capacity?

A. Yes.

Q. And how long was it that you worked for him in that dual capacity?

A. So I worked for The Mission Continues and the Greitens Group, splitting my time up until the summer of 2011 -- sorry, 2014.

Q. Okay. July 1st, 2014, does that sound right as a final day of employment with -- under The Mission Continues?

A. I don't know the exact date, but when Eric stepped down as CEO of The Mission Continues, I left The Mission Continues with him.

Q. And -- so summer 2014 --

A. Yes.

Q. -- is when your employment with The Mission Continues ended?

Do you recall who paid -- what equipment did you use when you paid -- when you worked for -- and I'm glad you caught it in my question earlier, because I said, When did you work for Mr. Greitens, and you answered with, I worked for the Greitens

Group and The Mission Continues.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. When you were dual employed by The Mission Continues and the Greitens Group, starting in 2011, what type of equipment did you use?

A. When I started in 2011, I had, like, a desktop computer, I believe.

Q. Do you know who paid for that desktop?

A. I do not know. It was just -- you know, I came in that day, and it was there -- the first day I started. If -- yeah, so I do not know.

Q. And "I do not know" is an acceptable answer to any question. If you do not know the answer, I would prefer you say, I do not know, than to make something up or try to please us with an answer that you don't know to be the truth.

A. Okay.

Q. Do you know -- was that computer replaced at any time?

A. Yes. I mean, I worked for him for five-plus years, so I had a variety of computers over the course of that time. I do -- I don't remember, like, the exact year or month or date of when I would have gotten a new computer, but I did get a new computer at some point.

Q. And do you know which organization paid for that computer?

A. I do not.

Q. Okay. Do you know the breakdown of your paycheck, in terms of which organization was paying how much?

A. I can't tell you, like, the specific amount -- I just don't remember -- but I do know that The Mission Continues was paying -- was paying for more of my salary than the Greitens Group.

Q. When you say "more of your salary," explain that -- and, again, I understand you're not going to know to the penny how much you were making every month, but did you get one check or more than one check every month?

A. So I got two checks -- two separate checks. So one came from The Mission Continues and one came from the Greitens Group.

Q. Do you know what the proportions of those checks were -- I don't want to put words in your mouth, but I think you just said what The Mission Continues paid is a higher amount. Do you know what the approximate proportion of the checks was?

A. I do not know. I could guess, and I'd say it's probably something like 60/40 or 70/30 --

70 percent of my pay coming from The Mission Continues.

Q. Do you still have any pay stubs from that period of time?

A. I doubt it. I'd say -- you know, I -- because my bank account is also closed, because when I got married, I joined bank accounts with my husband, so I doubt I have anything.

Q. Would you mind looking if you -- just to see and get back to us if you do, in fact, have that information?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Thank you. What were your duties as an employee of -- let's start with The Mission Continues. What were your duties as an employee of The Mission Continues?

A. So when I was hired in January of 2011, I think my title was administrative assistant. At some point over the course of that year, I became an executive assistant, and so my job in both roles was to maximize Eric's time. And so with The Mission Continues, maximizing his time would have meant, you know, scheduling meetings, booking his travel, working with a development team to ensure that he had, you know, the appropriate amount of donor calls or donor meetings on his calendar. Those are -- that's sort of the bulk of my job -- and ensuring he was prepared for every meeting.

Q. Okay. And what was -- what were your duties for the Greitens Group?

A. So for the Greitens Group, it was similar, so -- then my role was really to maximize his time. So I would have been scheduling any meetings, any travel. He traveled a lot for speaking engagements, so I would have been coordinating the logistics for some of those engagements and speeches. And then we also had a series of book tours, so I would have been coordinating with our publisher as well. And that's probably -- I mean, that was really the bulk. It was coordinating logistics and travel and things.

Q. So how did that work in terms of deciding -- what was sort of your first -- when you're making his schedule, what was the impetus to make his schedule for an event?

A. I'm sorry. What do you mean?

Q. So -- let me back up. So he would book a speech; right? How did you coordinate -- what was the process by which you coordinated his schedule between the Greitens Group and The Mission Continues?

A. So the process for coordinating his schedule between the two organizations -- so, typically, I would work with Dave Whitman, who was Eric's managing director back in January of 2011, and, you know, Dave would communicate to me if he was able to book or contract a speaking engagement, and he would give me that information of what the company -- what the company was called and where the company is based or where Eric would be flying to speak, and so those engagements would go on the calendar. And then, typically, I would then communicate, you know, to the development team, Eric is going to be in Florida for a speaking engagement; you guys probably want to use this opportunity to set up some donor meetings, and I was maximizing his time in that way.

Q. So the development team, that would be The Mission Continues development team?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And was that the typical way it worked, is that Mr. Whitman would book a speech -- or some sort of event, tell you about it, and then it was that Mr. Greitens is going to be in this location at a certain time; let's not waste time; let's be as efficient as possible? Is that a fair recitation of how it went?

A. Yes, typically. He also would have big -- if there was a really large donor or a really large corporation that was interested in The Mission Continues, that might be something that was put on the calendar on his own.

Q. And then if that -- if The Mission Continues' large donor or corporation was put on the calendar on his own, would you, in turn, talk to Mr. Whitman and try to get some sort of speaking engagement arranged around that donor or corporate event?

A. I mean, typically, that is a harder transition to make, because he -- I don't think that Dave -- now, I don't know that -- I don't know how Dave did his job, but I don't think that you could go to a company and say, Hey, you know, our CEO is going to be in Florida; can you hire him for a speaking engagement? So it didn't necessarily work that way; however, that's not to say if he was traveling for The Mission Continues, that he wouldn't do, like, Greitens Group work.

Q. Okay. Do you know -- were you involved at all with travel expenses? For Mr. Greitens.

A. Typically, when he would come back from traveling, he would hand me a stack of receipts, and I would give them to the appropriate person who was in charge of kind of handling those or booking those expenses or --

Q. By "appropriate person," do you mean someone from The Mission Continues?

A. Yes. There would have been someone from The Mission Continues and someone from the Greitens Group.

Q. Do you know if those expenses were shared, or did one organization or the other take the brunt of them?

A. I mean, that, I do not -- I don't know. I wasn't traveling and, you know -- and putting those expenses on credit cards.

Q. So let me ask it this way. With whom did you -- to whom did you give the travel expenses? Did you give the same set of documents to both individuals or separate sets of documents?

A. Typically, there would be receipts that were charged to the Greitens Group credit card, and there would have been receipts that were charged to The Mission Continues credit card, and so there were two sets of documents that would go to two separate people.

Q. Okay. And you didn't have anything to do with the decision as to what to charge to whom; correct?

A. Typically not. Now, if I was booking a hotel room or something, I would know, generally, if he was traveling for The Mission Continues or for the Greitens Group, and I would, you know, book the hotel under that -- the appropriate credit card.

Q. In the event of a dual event, where you explained that there would be a speech booked, and then The Mission Continues events created around that speech, whose -- which organization's credit card would be used, typically, to pay for the expenses?

A. Typically, if he was traveling for a speaking engagement and he was, you know, traveling for that purpose, the hotel expense, the flight expense would go on the Greitens Group credit card.

Q. And so is it your belief and testimony that the only hotel and travel expenses charged to The Mission Continues were for events that were solely The Mission Continues?

A. I believe so, yes.

Q. Okay. To your knowledge, did The Mission Continues ever purchase books that Eric had written?

A. So I recall there being a conversation around how The Mission Continues could use the book to promote the organization, because the book is, you know, about Eric's life, and then sort of ends on The Mission Continues -- that's the final chapter of the book, and so it's my understanding that they -- they found that to be a good promotional tool for the organization, and so I recall a conversation around using books to, you know, hand to donors as a good intro to Eric and The Mission Continues, but I do not know the arrangement of how those books were -- you know, were bought or purchased or ...

Q. Were they -- do you know if they were purchased by the Greitens Group?

A. I don't know.

Q. Okay. And so you -- and you didn't have access to The Mission Continues financing or -- so you wouldn't know about The Mission Continues books; is that fair to say?

A. Yes. Yes. I did not do the finances.

Q. Did you ever witness pushback from The Mission Continues employees about expensing by Mr. Greitens towards The Mission Continues?

A. What do you mean? Sorry.

Q. So -- a hypothetical arrangement, for example, would be that Mr. Greitens had used the credit card for a purchase, and what I'm asking is, did you ever have a situation like -- such a situation -- receive pushback from employees from The Mission Continues about Mr. Greitens' use of The Mission Continues resources?

A. I don't believe so, no.

Q. In your role as the administrative assistant and then executive assistant, did you work at the direction of Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. And so actions you took, if it was a big deal, it would have been at his direction; is that fair to say?

A. Yes.

Q. I provided you and your counsel with a set of documents, and I believe --

MR. BARNES: Do you have stickers?

THE REPORTER: I do.

(Discussion off the record.)

(Exhibit 12 was marked for identification.)

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Do you recognize this document -- I'm sorry. Let me back up, because we went off the record.

You've been handed what's been identified as Exhibit No. 12. Do you recognize this document?

A. I do. I recognize it.

Q. And what is that document?

A. I believe it's The Mission Continues' nondisclosure agreement.

Q. And did you sign that nondisclosure agreement?

A. I do not remember signing it, but I -- I see here that I did sign it.

Q. Is that, in fact, your signature?

A. Yes.

Q. And to the best of your knowledge, is that a fair and accurate representation of your signature and the nondisclosure agreement from The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. I now direct you to the next document in the stack, and this document has been previously marked -- not that particular document, but that is -- as Exhibit 3 in our binder. I want to use the same numbers, and I'm highly confident that it is the same Exhibit 3 that we had earlier.

Is there any objection to using the old number, even though we don't have the original?

MR. HAMMER: So do we want to make this document, which I've now just put the sticker 13 on it, actually Exhibit 3?

MR. BARNES: We want to make it Exhibit 3.

(Discussion off the record.)

(Exhibit 3A was marked for identification.)

(Exhibit No. 13 was marked for identification.)

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) You've been handed what's been marked as Exhibit 13. Do you recognize this?

A. I do.

Q. And what is this?

A. This is an e-mail from Lori Stevens, who at the time, I believe, was the vice president of development for The Mission Continues, and she is e-mailing Eric a set of call lists and donor lists and some other documents.

Q. And did you receive that e-mail?

A. Yes. I was cc'd on the e-mail.

Q. And to the best of your knowledge here today, is that a fair and accurate representation of the e-mail that was sent from Lori Stevens to you and others on May 8th, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall the circumstances of that e-mail being sent?

A. I do.

Q. And can you explain the circumstances?

A. So as I mentioned earlier, Eric was stepping down as CEO of The Mission Continues around that time -- the summer of 2014 -- and I recall that he asked the development team at The Mission Continues, which would have been Lori Stevens and Lyndsey Hodges at the time, who were both on this e-mail. He asked the development team to send him a list of donors of The Mission Continues, and then also a list of calls that he would be making to The Mission Continues sort of top donors to let them know that he would be transitioning and stepping down as CEO.

Q. And were you in the room when he told them he wanted this information?

A. I do not remember.

Q. Do you recall the substance of why it was stated that this information was needed?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was the substance of why he stated he needed this information?

A. My understanding was that he had -- you know, Eric had built The Mission Continues, and these were his contacts, his friends, his family, his family members, colleagues, and, you know, at some point in the future, he might need to reference this list and, you know, get in touch with these people.

Q. Do you know of any e-mail communication from Mr. Greitens to Lori Stevens or anyone else to that effect?

A. I do not remember. There could be. I can't think of an exact e-mail where he's asking for this information.

Q. And the reason I ask is because this particular e-mail, providing the list, the first line says: "Here is the transitional call info." In your conversations with employees of The Mission Continues, what was the purpose, do you believe, of them sending the documents attached to this e-mail?

A. The purpose, I believe, was that Eric would be making a number of phone calls to The Mission Continues donors to let them know he would be transitioning and stepping down as CEO, and then I also believe the purpose was to have a list of contacts, because, like I said, these were his contacts, his friends and family members and colleagues, people he had brought into The Mission Continues who were supporters of his, and I believe that he -- you know, for convenience's sake, he wanted their contact information in one place and one list.

Q. But, to your knowledge, there's no e-mail specifying that he wanted the list for that purpose?

A. No.

Q. Do you know of anyone at The Mission Continues who provided him this list, knowing it would be for a purpose other than transition calls?

A. I recall Lyndsey Hodges, who is on this e-mail -- I recall her being sort of concerned and voicing those concerns around, you know, sending a list of The Mission Continues donors to Eric, but I don't -- I just sort of remember the conversation.

Q. Did she say -- you said "conversation," as in a meeting -- a conversation in a meeting?

A. I mean, Lyndsey and I worked in the same office, so -- and we were close friends, so it's possible that we just might have been chatting, not -- you know, not in a formal meeting setting, and I recall her sort of voicing some concerns around sending a list. I don't think it would be --

I don't think it was necessarily a formal meeting setting, but ...

Q. And do you recall her saying that to you?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall her saying that to Mr. Greitens?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you recall her saying that to anyone else in a meeting where you were present?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you recall anyone else expressing reservation about providing the list?

A. Not -- I don't remember, but I -- not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you recall anyone from The Mission Continues stating that list could be used for political purposes?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall anyone from The Mission Continues expressly stating that the list would be used for any purpose other than the transition calls and items relating to The Mission Continues?

A. Can you repeat the question?

Q. Do you recall anyone from The Mission Continues stating that Mr. Greitens could use this list for a purpose not relating to The Mission Continues?

A. I do not remember. Like I said, I -- I remember Lyndsey voicing concern to me about sending this list, but I don't remember the specifics around the conversation.

MR. HAMMER: Just to be clear, I think that what the chairman is asking you is whether or not, on the other hand, there was anybody at The Mission Continues that said, Hey, you can go ahead and use this list for something unrelated to The Mission Continues. Did you have ever have a conversation with Hodges or anybody else where they said, Yeah, here is the list; you can go ahead and use it for something other than The Mission Continues?

THE WITNESS: Oh. Sorry.

MR. HAMMER: That's okay.

A. No.

MR. BARNES: Thank you, Counsel, for stating the question better than I did.

MR. HAMMER: No problem. I knew I was here for some reason.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) I'll now direct you to the document in front of you that is labeled as Exhibit 3A, and I'd ask you to turn to the second page of that exhibit.

Do you recognize what's been labeled as Exhibit 3A?

A. I do.

Q. And what is this?

A. This is an e-mail that I am sending to Danny Laub and Michael Hafner with four separate Excel documents with donor lists.

Q. Did you send that e-mail on your own accord, or was it at someone's direction?

A. This would have been at someone's direction.

Q. And whose direction did you send this e-mail?

A. It would have been at Eric's direction.

Q. If you could turn back to page 1. This is a meeting -- do you recognize this document? And "I do not know" -- "I don't" is an acceptable answer to any question.

A. I mean, I don't recognize it, but having seen it now, yes, it looks familiar as a meeting I had.

Q. Did you create meeting invites with Mr. Greitens' e-mail address, or was he the one who had access to his e-mail address to create e-mail invites?

A. We both had access to create e-mail invites. Typically -- or invitations. Typically, I would be the one to create an invitation.

Q. At this point in time, do you remember whether you created this invitation or whether that was Mr. Greitens?

A. I do not remember.

Q. Do you recall what computer you e-mailed -- you sent this e-mail from -- let me back up. Clear question for the record.

Do you recall the computer that you used to send this e-mail?

A. Yes.

Q. And what computer -- and was that computer -- do you recall who paid for that computer?

A. No.

Q. Can you describe that computer?

A. This computer would have been one I was using after we had left -- transitioned from The Mission Continues, so it would have been the computer I was using for Greitens Group work, and it was a desktop computer. I have no idea what type.

Q. Do you remember when you started using that computer -- when it was purchased?

A. It would have been purchased at some point when I was working for both organizations, and it would have come with me during the transition when we left The Mission Continues office.

Q. Do you have any idea when it would have been purchased?

A. No.

Q. I now direct you to what's been marked as Exhibit 5A.

(Exhibit 5A was marked for identification.)

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Do you recognize this?

A. I do.

Q. And what is this?

A. This is an e-mail that I'm sending to Mike Hafner and copying Chris Bobak and Danny Laub. It's an e-mail that I'm sending letting him know he should log on to the Greitens Group Salesforce.

Q. Can you explain what Salesforce is?

A. So Salesforce is a CRM system, so like a contact database system.

Q. Customer Relations Management?

A. Yes. That would be it.

Q. Okay. And the Greitens Group had a CRM system?

A. Yes.

Q. Did The Mission Continues have a CRM system?

A. Yes.

Q. To your knowledge, did any Greitens Group employees ever pull data from the CRM system managed by The Mission Continues?

A. Not to my knowledge.

MR. HAMMER: Just a second.

MR. BARNES: Counsel, we can take a short break.

MR. HAMMER: No, that's all right.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MR. HAMMER: Just one moment.

Can you do me a favor? Can we have the court reporter read back your last question?

MR. BARNES: Yes.

(The pending question was read by the reporter.)

MR. HAMMER: Just one moment.

She'd like to go ahead and amend the answer to that question.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Can you restate the question?

(The pending question was read by the reporter.)

A. Yes.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) And who was that employee?

A. I would have pulled information from The Mission Continues CRM system.

Q. And what was the purpose of pulling -- what type of data would you have pulled?

A. So as a Mission Continues employee, I would have been pulling contact information -- most likely, contact information.

Q. The course and scope of your duties as a Mission Continues employee?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Did you ever transfer that data from The Mission Continues database to the Greitens Group database?

A. I don't believe so.

MR. HAMMER: Can I ask a question, just to make sure that we're clear here? Do you mind?

MR. BARNES: Sure.

MR. HAMMER: Was there a point in time after you left The Mission Continues where you ever accessed The Mission Continues CRM database?

THE WITNESS: I don't believe so.
MR. HAMMER: Okay. That's fine. I think we're clear.
MR. BARNES: That's a good clarification question, Counsel.
MR. HAMMER: I just want to be sure we were clear.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Were you ever directed while you were a joint employee to move data from The Mission Continues database to the Greitens Group database?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. Would anyone else working for the Greitens Group have taken data from The Mission Continues database and moved it to the Greitens Group database?

A. I think that's possible. I don't --

Q. Do you know of anyone who did that?

A. -- know of anyone.

Q. And back to this e-mail, 5A, when you make the suggestion of checking The Mission Continues list there in paragraph 2, did you do so as it was your understanding that Mr. Greitens and campaign advisers were using The Mission Continues list for purposes of the campaign?

A. Can you repeat the question?

Q. Sure. If you look at paragraph 2 in your response to -- or Bullet Point 2 in your response, you say, "Some of these will be in Salesforce. If not, I would suggest checking The Mission Continues list."

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And then you sent that -- did you send that under the understanding campaign workers and Mr. Greitens were using The Mission Continues list for purposes of making a call list for the campaign?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I'll now direct you to what's been labeled as Exhibit 8A. Do you recognize this?

(Exhibit 8A was marked for identification.)

A. Yes.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) And what is this?

A. This is an e-mail from Mike Hafner to Eric and myself with a call list attached.

Q. Do you recall receiving e-mails like this throughout the course of the campaign?

A. Yes.

Q. To the best of your knowledge, is this a fair and accurate representation of the e-mail that you received that day?

A. Yes.

Q. To your knowledge, did Mr. Greitens, in fact, use these call lists?

A. Yes.

Q. How much involvement did you have with the Greitens campaign for governor?

A. So it depends on what time period you're --

Q. Let's just go chronologically, okay? So you -- you tell me when you started, because you know the facts better as to when things started. So what was the first date you had any involvement in political activity of any sort with Mr. Greitens?

A. So I wouldn't have had any involvement in political activity probably until late 2014, when he started, you know, talking with consultant -- potential consultants.

Q. And who were those consultants?

A. David Barklage, Mike Hafner, Danny Laub, Tyler Holman.

Q. And did he go on to hire two of those individuals?

A. Yes. He went on to hire Danny Laub and Tyler Holman.

Q. And Mr. Hafner for just a brief period of time?

A. Yes.

Q. When did he hire Mr. Laub, to your knowledge?

A. I believe that Danny was sort of formally hired and received payment of some sort in December of 2014.

Q. And Danny was purely a political consultant; is that fair to say?

A. Yes.

Q. And Mr. Holman, do you recall when he was hired on?

A. Mr. Holman was not hired until, like, mid-2015.

Q. Was he a volunteer before that period of time?

A. That's my understanding.

Q. Okay. And Mr. Hafner, do you recall when he was hired?

A. Mike Hafner probably was hired around the same time as Danny, December 2014 or maybe January of 2015.

Q. Do you recall which organization paid their salaries?

A. The Greitens Group.
Q. And --
MS. MITTEN: Excuse me. When you say "their salaries," do you mean all of them or --
MR. BARNES: Fair.
THE WITNESS: That's a great question.
Q. (By Mr. Barnes) As -- regarding Mr. Laub and Mr. Hafner, which organization paid their salaries?
A. That would also depend on time period, but at the beginning, in December of 2014 and January of 2015, it would have been the Greitens Group.
Q. Okay. And after January of 2015, who paid Mr. Laub's salary, to the best of your knowledge?
A. So once the campaign was officially created, Greitens for Missouri would have been paying his salary.
Q. Okay. So you said -- I turned down a side path here. In late 2014, that was your first involvement with the campaign. What did that entail on your part?
A. On my part, I would sit in on meetings with some of the -- these potential consultants and really just listen in. And then I'd obviously -- I was his scheduler, so I would help set these meetings up.

Q. After that period of time, there were decisions made about campaign consultants and campaign staff. How did your role in the campaign change or not?
A. So after this time, in maybe late 2015 -- mid- to late 2015, I would -- I was scheduling, you know, more political meetings, so meetings with potential donors or, you know, supporters of a potential campaign. I would schedule those meetings. And at some point in late 2015, I think I got a title of operations director for Greitens for Missouri.
Q. All right. Let me try to put some general months. By mid- to late 2015, do you mean starting around April or May of 2015?
A. Probably like July.
Q. Okay.
A. August.
Q. And do you recall approximately when you were given the title of operations director for the Greitens campaign?
A. I believe that would have been, like, December -- well --
Q. Late 2015?

A. Late 2015.
Q. That is --
A. Yes.
Q. I'm not going to ask you for the particular date and time.
Did your role change at all when you became operations director?
A. Not really. I mean, my goal still was to maximize Eric's time and make sure he had the right meetings on his calendar.
Q. Is it fair to say you essentially had the same role you had earlier, coordinating Mr. Greitens' schedule for The Mission Continues and the Greitens Group and that you had now transitioned into a phase where you were making sure that he was making efficient use of his time on the campaign trail?
A. Yes.
Q. How much involvement, if any, did you have with campaign donors?
A. I set up donor meetings, so I -- I'm sure I talked to them on the phone sometimes and set up -- to set up meetings or e-mail with them to set up meetings. And then I occasionally would go to, like, a fundraising dinner or meeting of some type, but that was -- that was less likely than just the contact of setting up a meeting or travel arrangements or something.

Q. When you went to a fundraising meeting or dinner, were those typically larger events?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So not one-on-one donor meetings, more --
A. No.
Q. -- more of a public setting or less than a public setting, but you had ten potential donors there, rather than --
A. Yes. Typically -- I probably shouldn't have said "donor meeting." I would go to sort of like an event of supporters. So it wasn't necessarily, like, only donors in the room; it was a big event of some sort.
Q. Okay. Did donors ever contact you either on the telephone or via e-mail about methods of donation?
A. I think it's possible that I would have sent, like, a link to donate or something in an e-mail, but, generally, no.
Q. Would you have directed them to someone else if they were asking particulars about making a donation?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. Let me ask you about women. Did Mr. Greitens ever say anything to you about a woman named [redacted]

A. The only understanding that I know of [redacted] was that -- I knew he had a hairstylist, and I knew her name because I occasionally would set up his hair appointments, but that's the only knowledge I had of that relationship.

Q. Do you know of any other encounters with women who were not Mr. Greitens' wife?

A. No -- I assume you mean personal encounters?

Q. Yes.

A. No.

MR. BARNES: That exhausts my list of questions here, so Mr. Vice Chairman.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PHILLIPS:

Q. I'm Don Phillips, state representative from District 138, which is Kimberling City, down by Table Rock Lake. Thank you for being with us today.

I'm just going to go ahead and piggyback on the last question, since it came out.

So you worked with Eric Greitens for a period of time of how long?

A. I worked for Eric from January of 2011 through May of 2016 -- well, May 1st or something of 2016.

Q. Okay. So roughly a five-year period; is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. In that time, in your relationship with him, was he ever inappropriate towards you, anything other than a typical business professional relationship?

A. No, he was not.

Q. And when you worked -- you said you split your time -- dual roles. I think you also said you got 70 percent of your pay from The Mission Continues. Whose signatures were at the bottom of each one of those checks?

A. I do not remember. I think they were probably, like, direct deposit.

Q. Okay. So I don't understand how it's all set up. So Governor Greitens -- or Eric at that time -- he wasn't signing the checks; someone else would do that on his behalf; is that correct? You would know if his signature was at the bottom of your check, I guess, is what I'm asking.

A. I just -- I'm sure at some point in time his signature was on the bottom of the check. That may have changed over time, but I honestly don't remember.

Q. You were under a direct deposit-type thing?

A. Yes. I didn't receive, like, a physical check.

Q. Okay. I'm kind of lost in the past.

A. I don't think I even look at my current check. I don't know who signs my check.

Q. I'm kind of the same way, to be honest.

A. Maybe that's a bad thing.

Q. So have you been in contact with anyone from Governor Greitens' office concerning your appearance before this committee?

A. I have not.

Q. Have you had any contact with any witnesses who we may have already spoken to prior to coming here today?

A. I have not.

MR. BARNES: That's a hard question, because she doesn't know who we've talked to.

MR. HAMMER: Yeah. So let's just open up a little bit more. So you asked the question before about whether or not she's had contact with anybody about her testimony today. The answer to that question is no. The question about whether or not she's had any contact with anyone -- what was that question again?

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay. The first question had to do with the governor's office or his attorneys, and the answer was no.

MR. HAMMER: Correct.

MR. PHILLIPS: And the second question was geared more toward people who have already appeared before this committee as witnesses. Has she spoken to anyone like that.

MR. HAMMER: Do you know of anybody who has appeared before this committee?

THE WITNESS: The only person that I know of is my good friend, Lyndsey Hodges, and she mentioned to me that she would be appearing. And beyond that, we -- there was nothing.

Q. (By Mr. Phillips) Okay. So beyond Lyndsey Hodges, you're not aware of any -- you haven't spoken to anybody that's spoken to us?

A. I don't believe so.

MR. HAMMER: And just to be clear, she hasn't spoken to Ms. Hodges about her testimony; it was just about the fact that apparently Ms. Hodges was asked to testify before this panel.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay. All right. Very good. That's all I've got.

MR. BARNES: Ranking member.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. MITTEN:

Q. Hi. I'm Gina Mitten. I'm from St. Louis City -- or St. Louis County, St. Louis City, and thank you for coming here today. I know this is not your idea of a swell day.

And forgive me, because I write out my questions, and I try to get rid of them as they're already asked by somebody else, so there might be some duplicative -- duplication, and I don't intend to do that, but just let me make sure.

So you began working for the Greitens Group and The Mission Continues in January of 2011, then in -- if I have this correctly, it was in 2014 when Mr. Greitens was transitioning out of The Mission Continues, you also transitioned out of The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. At that point -- first of all, up -- during that period, 2011 to 2014, were The Mission Continues and the Greitens Group both housed in the same office space?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So then you and Mr. Greitens transitioned off of The Mission Continues into solely working for the Greitens Group? Is that a correct assessment?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And are you still in the same office suite at that point, or didn't you move --

A. We moved offices.

Q. Okay. So -- and this is roughly what time again, late 2014?

A. Like, the summer of 2014.

Q. Summer of 2014.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Okay. So summer of 2014, then, you and -- you're then paid solely by the Greitens Group?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then -- hang on a second. I'm just trying to read.

We already talked about your roles. And then you left the Greitens Group in May of 2016?

A. So at that time, I would have been splitting my time between the Greitens Group and the campaign -- Greitens for Missouri, and I left those two organizations at that time.

Q. And -- just for another --

A. In May.

Q. Okay.

A. May of 2016.

Q. May of 2016?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Okay. So before the campaign was over?

A. Yes.

Q. Obviously, in sort of the middle of the campaign?

A. Yes.

Q. Was that an amicable parting?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So when did you start to become paid by Greitens for Missouri?

A. I don't recall the exact date, but early 2016, maybe January 2016.

Q. Okay. So late '15, early '16, is that --

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then -- so were you paid by Greitens for Missouri as an employee with, like, taxes being taken out and all of that?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Well, just --

A. Oh.

MR. HAMMER: You weren't a 1099; you were an employee?

MS. MITTEN: Exactly, yeah. Thank you.

A. Yes. I was an employee, yes.

Q. (By Ms. Mitten) Again, I'm reading, just because I -- some of this stuff has already been asked.

And when you were being paid -- so at that point in -- we're going to say, what, late 2015, early 2016, are you then back in sort of that dual capacity, and then you're getting paid both by the Greitens Group and by Greitens for Missouri?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And was that also 50/50 or some other split?

A. The split would have been more heavy on the campaign at that time.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't remember exact amounts, but something like 80/20.

Q. Oh, really? Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. And -- okay.
Did we talk about who Lori Stevens is?
A. I believe so.
Q. Okay. I thought so, too; I just want to make absolutely sure. Did she -- she only worked for The Mission Continues, though; she did not -- she was not a dual --
A. Yes.
Q. Were you the only person employed in that dual capacity that you're aware of or ...
A. Just myself and Eric, obviously.
Q. Okay. Right. Okay. Yeah, that's a good point. Thank you.
When you talked about the split, the 80/20 split, I'm assuming that it was -- the campaign was paying 80 percent of the salary?
A. Yes.
Q. And then the Greitens Group would be paying less. Was that also roughly the split of your time?
A. Yes. Once we moved into 2016, the campaign sort of picked up.
Q. Okay. Okay. And then prior to that time, though, in that -- if memory serves, the -- Greitens for Missouri was formed in roughly the spring of 2015, you were -- during that period of time, you were -- I believe your testimony was that you also sat in on meetings with consultants and did the scheduling and whatnot. During that period of time, you were not compensated at all by Greitens for Missouri for those services?

MR. HAMMER: I'm sorry. What period of time?
MS. MITTEN: From roughly spring of 2015 or January of 2015, when Danny Laub and Michael Hafner started coming around, until 2016 or late 2015 and early 2016, when you became -- when you were doing this sort of dual employment role.
A. Yes, I believe so.
Q. (By Ms. Mitten) Okay. Are you aware of whether Greitens for Missouri ever indicated on its campaign finance reports that your services were being provided to the campaign as an in-kind donation?
A. Sorry. Repeat the question.
Q. I know that's a mouthful, isn't it? I apologize.
Are you aware of whether Greitens for Missouri -- the campaign side -- reported on its campaign finances -- filings that it received in-kind services from you as part of its filings?

A. I do not know.
Q. Okay. I'm assuming you had -- is it -- did you have anything to do with the campaign finance filings of Greitens for Missouri?
A. No.
Q. That's what I figured.
Lyndsey Hodges, then, she was solely an employee of The Mission Continues; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Then I do have -- so I'm going to have something marked here.
(Exhibit 14 was marked for identification.)
Q. (By Ms. Mitten) So your lawyer is giving you what's been marked as Exhibit 14, and, unfortunately, we only have one copy of it, so you have the whole shebang.
Could you identify that document for us?
MR. HAMMER: Could she just have a minute to review?
MS. MITTEN: Oh, absolutely.
MR. BARNES: Let's take a quick break for the witness to first review and for others to review.

(A recess was taken.)
MR. BARNES: Back from break. Representative Mitten.
MS. MITTEN: Okay. Thank you.
Q. (By Ms. Mitten) So you've had now a chance to look at Exhibit 14. Do you recall -- can you tell us what that document is?
A. It is The Mission Continues team member handbook.
Q. And it looks to me from the bottom that it's dated December of 2012. Does that ring a bell? Does that seem about right? Maybe the next page will say 12/12.
A. Oh. Yeah, that's -- I guess that sounds right.
Q. Do you recall ever seeing that before?
A. I do.
Q. Okay. And as far as you can tell, this is a true and accurate representation of The Mission Continues manual that you received when you began in your employment there or -- I guess, actually, it would have been in December of 2012.
A. It would have been after, yes.
Q. Right. After you started there. Is this a true and correct representation of that document -- that manual?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Thank you.
I'm going to ask you to turn your attention to page 21 of the manual where it talks about care of donor records. It's Section 4, page 21, I believe -- sometimes our copies don't always --
A. Okay.
Q. -- look as nice as the real books. Anyway, that section on care of donor records -- do you recall being aware of this policy?
A. I recall the handbook.
Q. Okay.
A. I recall signing something.
Q. Right.
A. But I don't recall being, like, reminded of it or the policy.
Q. Yup. Unfortunately, that's the way it works for most employees; we don't remember those policy manuals.
Anyway, if you could read that paragraph, just to familiarize yourself with it.
MR. HAMMER: Read it to herself?
MS. MITTEN: Yeah.

MR. HAMMER: We've had an opportunity to review it.
MS. MITTEN: Okay. Great.
Q. (By Ms. Mitten) So -- I mean, is it a fair assessment to basically say that this portion of the manual wants to outline for employees that donor files are confidential files and are to be treated as confidential files?
A. Yes.
Q. So going back to -- I believe it was Exhibit 3A, when -- that was an e-mail sending The Mission Continues list to, I believe, Mr. Laub and Hafner.
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Were -- and I believe that your testimony earlier was that you were directed to send that e-mail by Mr. Greitens.
A. Yes.
Q. Is that a fair recharacterization?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. After you sent Exhibit 3A, did Eric Greitens direct you to do anything with the list that was being sent that would then comport with The Mission Continues policy that we've just talked about?

For instance -- let me ask it this way. I'll try and make it a little bit easier.
So one of the things it says is that, you know, "When possible, obtain all material from donor files and then return the materials back to the files."
Were you ever asked or directed to return the donor materials that were sent in that e-mail that we've referred to as Exhibit 3A, were you ever directed to return those materials back to the donor files at The Mission Continues?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Do you recall ever being directed by Mr. Greitens to return any of the donor materials that you had access to, that we've discussed at some length today, to return donor materials or donor data back to The Mission Continues?
A. No.
Q. Okay. So is it a fair characterization of your testimony that you have specific personal knowledge of donor data coming from The Mission Continues to the Greitens Group, but no recollection of the Greitens Group or Mr. Greitens ever returning that donor data to The Mission Continues?
A. Can you repeat the question?

Q. That was a long one.
Do you have any personal knowledge of Mr. Greitens ever returning donor -- The Mission Continues donor data back to The Mission Continues?
A. No.
Q. Do you have any personal knowledge of anyone from the Greitens Group -- which would include yourself, but I think we've already answered that -- but anyone from the Greitens Group returning The Mission Continues donor data back to The Mission Continues?
A. No.
Q. No. And I -- okay. I'm going to leave it at that.
Then one final question. We've kind of already touched on this, but your testimony -- and I want to make sure I'm understanding this correctly. Your testimony is that starting in roughly January 2015, you began to do more work for the Greitens campaign, and that was -- began with consultants and sitting in on meetings. Is that a fair characterization?
A. Yes.
Q. And is it a fair characterization that as 2015 continued, your role -- the work that you would do for the campaign increased during the year 2015?

A. Yes.
Q. And if I remember, your testimony was that that role included during the summer and fall of 2015, arranging for donor meetings, scheduling, contact and interaction with donors, attending events. Is that a fair characterization?
A. Yes.
Q. And all of these things occurred prior to January of 2016, when you first became paid by Greitens for Missouri? Is that a fair characterization?
A. I don't recall the date that I became paid by Greitens for Missouri, but around that time, yes.
Q. Okay. So I'll just represent to you that Mr. Greitens formed a campaign committee that required him to file with the Ethics Commission starting in roughly March of 2015, but during that time, you were performing services for the -- throughout the year 2015, basically, you were providing services to the Greitens campaign, but you were not being paid for by the Greitens campaign. Is that a fair characterization?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. Thanks. That's it.
MR. BARNES: Representative Lauer.
MS. LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LAUER:
Q. I'm Jeanie Lauer, and I'm from the Kansas City area, eastern Jackson County, and I apologize for my voice, but I'm not contagious.
What was the actual date of your last employment with -- it was with Greitens for Missouri?
A. I don't recall the specific date, but I think, like, May 1st, 2016.
Q. Okay. And --
A. Around that time.
Q. Okay. And so going back in time, when you were working for The Mission Continues, that was, as I understand, but correct me if I'm wrong -- specifically designed for the veterans, and that was the sole purpose of the organization; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And then the Greitens Group was designed for what?
A. The Greitens Group was Eric's for-profit company that promoted his books and speaking engagements.

Q. So did the monies from the books go back into The Mission Continues, or where did --
A. So it was his for-profit company, so the money, you know, is for his profit.
Q. I see. So that was the for-profit company?
A. Yes.
Q. It was not a not for profit?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Thank you for clarifying that. And then we had Greitens for Missouri, which was the political campaign group?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So when you were working for the two groups, TMC and the Greitens Group, did you track hours for each, or how did they determine what you were going to get paid for what?
A. I did not track my hours, and I'm not sure how it was determined. I was just sort of told that I would be, you know, getting X amount of dollars, and part of it would come from The Mission Continues and part of it would from the Greitens Group.
Q. Okay. So you did not have to provide any documentation of specific number of hours spent on each one?

A. No.
Q. But you would have at each -- at the end of each of that year receive a W-2 -- I mean a 1099 for your -- a W-2, I'm sorry -- for your wages and filing a tax return and --
A. Yes.
Q. So that document is around?
MR. HAMMER: I'm sorry. Is what around?
Q. (By Ms. Lauer) That documentation is around somewhere with the tax return --
A. Oh, W-2 information?
Q. Uh-huh.
A. Yes.
Q. All right. Thank you. Then you've used the term that Eric was "transitioning." And could you define what that meant when he -- when you use this term, what does that mean? What did he use to list for his transition? What did that mean? Transitioning from what to what?
A. So he was stepping down as the CEO of The Mission Continues, and so he was transitioning to a board role.
Q. I'm sorry. Can you --

A. A board member role.

Q. A board member role. Okay. And was he transitioning to the Greitens Group at that time, as well, or was he already part -- how did that work?

A. So he was already the CEO of the Greitens Group, but he was transitioning to a board member role, so he was stepping down as CEO and transitioning to a board role, and he would then become a full-time CEO of the Greitens Group.

Q. Okay. Here is what he thinks. Would you mind sharing --

MR. AUSTIN: Here is what I think your testimony meant to be -- you may have misspoke, but maybe I just misheard -- is that at this time, Eric Greitens was transitioning from CEO of Mission Continues to be a board member of Mission Continues and also then transition to be a full-time CEO of Greitens Group.

THE WITNESS: Yes -- well, he was already the CEO, of the Greitens Group --

MR. AUSTIN: Full-time CEO of the Greitens Group. Is that -- did I get that right?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. AUSTIN: Is it correct what I said or wrong?

MR. HAMMER: Hold on just a second.

MR. AUSTIN: Yeah. Yeah.

MR. HAMMER: So just be to clear -- and you can ask her further questions about this. His role did not change at all with respect to Greitens Group. The word "transitioning" only relates to The Mission Continues. He was CEO of Mission Continues. He was transitioning to a board member of Mission Continues, and he wants the donor of The Mission Continues to know that he is no longer going to be the CEO; there's other people -- there's going to be a development team, et cetera, other people now who are going to be running The Mission Continues; it's no longer going to be Eric Greitens.

MS. LAUER: Thank you.

MR. HAMMER: Nothing to do with Greitens Group; his role as CEO of Greitens Group, it remains CEO of Greitens Group.

MS. LAUER: I appreciate your clarifying that term "transition," because it got a little muddled.

MR. BARNES: I would like to get an answer from the witness --

MR. AUSTIN: To confirm that what her attorney just said is true.

MR. HAMMER: Please do.

Is what I just said in any way inaccurate?

THE WITNESS: No. It is accurate.

MR. HAMMER: Does that help?

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) Okay. So is it fair, then, to say that he was full time Greitens Group and full time serving as CEO? Full time Greitens Group and full-time The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And so then when he went to the board, did he assume a position as chair or any other position on the board?

A. He -- I don't believe he was chair; he was just a board member.

Q. Okay. And to what degree did he have a decision-making authority solely for The Mission Continues as a board member -- or what was his role in decisions as a board member for The Mission Continues?

A. So he -- when he stepped down as CEO and became a board member, he wouldn't have been involved in the day-to-day decision-making at that point; he just would have attended the -- I don't know -- three or four board meetings that -- you know, in a given year, and whatever his duties were as a board member.

Q. And who was the chair of the board at that time?

A. I think it was Gary Giglio who was at Goldman Sachs, I believe.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

You have -- you've looked at the nondisclosure agreement, and you -- to what degree did folks talk about that in the office? Was that something that was normally referred to like, Oh, be careful; we have a nondisclosure agreement, or was it ever discussed even in the office among people?

A. No, it was not discussed.

Q. Okay. What was your feeling as to the seriousness of this document?

A. Well, I don't remember -- I don't really remember it until today.

Q. Okay.

A. So, you know, I -- I don't know that I didn't think of it as serious, but it wasn't something that I was reminded about on a regular basis.

Q. It wasn't a top-of-mind thing?

A. No.

Q. Nor did it dictate your day-to-day job functions? Is that fair to say?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And then -- so given that it was not a day-to-day, top-of-mind thing, was there any discussion or concern shared about what the consequences might be that were violated?
A. No.
Q. And you then moved to Greitens for Missouri, right? I'm sorry; I'm kind of asking random questions here.
You moved -- you were with Greitens Group, and then you worked with Greitens for Missouri?
A. Yes.
Q. Together, again?
A. Yes.
Q. Part time. Okay. And so the for-profit organizations -- Greitens Group, that was just from the sale of the books and the moneymaking of that business; is that right?
A. Yes. And speaking engagements.
Q. Okay. And so there were -- there was not a donor list or anything in that regard for Greitens Group?
A. No.
Q. Okay. And when we got to Greitens for Missouri, then there was a donor list for a not-for-profit political campaign.

A. Yes.
Q. And so all of the contacts that were made throughout his lifetime career, I would imagine, would have been ones -- like you said, family, friends, anybody he's ever met could potentially be on that list?
A. Yes.
Q. To what degree did you maintain contact with The Mission Continues when you were with the Greitens Group and -- let's just go with that one first. To what -- I know you're working for both, but then you switched and went to Greitens Group. So to what degree did you have contact with The Mission Continues while you were with the Greitens Group exclusively?
A. Well, Eric was still a board member at that time, when I would have switched full-time to the Greitens Group. Eric was still in a board member role, and so occasionally he might go to a board meeting or he might go to an event for The Mission Continues, and so I would have been in contact with The Mission Continues occasionally, like for scheduling purposes.

Q. Okay. And would that have remained to be true when there was this movement to Greitens for Missouri? He still went to The Mission Continues events and he was scheduling efforts?
A. At some point he stepped down from the board completely. I don't recall what date. And so at some point while he was working for the campaign, we were less likely to be communicating with The Mission Continues or attending events.
Q. And what is your understanding as to why he stepped down from the board?
A. You know, to -- because he was running for political office, and the nonprofit needed to -- you know, to be separated from any sort of political ...
Q. Did he still attend The Mission Continues events?
A. I don't recall. It's possible. I don't remember.
Q. Okay. To what degree -- as you were working on the campaign, to what degree was there any discussion about any potential -- I'll just say issues that might come up during the campaign that were of concern that might be a pitfall or a negative issue that would come up into the campaign that they were going to have to address?

A. Can you repeat the question?
Q. To what degree was there any discussion while with Greitens for Missouri, during the campaign, was there a discussion on any particular issues that came up that might be of concern that would have a negative impact on his campaign?
MR. BARNES: That is a very broad question.
MS. LAUER: Let's zero that down.
Q. (By Ms. Lauer) Was there any discussion when he was with Greitens for Missouri on any issue regarding the donor list from The Mission Continues that might have been looked at as a negative issue in his campaign?
MS. LAUER: Is that specific enough?
MR. BARNES: (Nods.)
A. I don't recall conversations, if I'm understanding your question correctly.
Q. (By Ms. Lauer) Uh-huh.
A. Maybe you can repeat the question. Sorry.
Q. Well, it's just a matter of if there was any discussion going on -- because we've been talking about the donor list and the movement of that whole thing -- and was there at any point where that was brought up as an example of, maybe we didn't handle that right or maybe it's a concern or do we need to do something about it. Was there ever any discussion about it being an issue?

A. Oh. I recall there being a -- like a Missouri Ethics Commission investigation of some sort. I was not involved in the investigation, but I do recall that being a topic of discussion.

Q. Can you share what the discussion was?

A. I just remember there being an investigation, and I think a couple of people had to go and talk to the Missouri Ethics Commission who were working for the campaign at that time, but beyond that, I wasn't involved in that conversation; it was just sort of -- just generally, I knew of it.

Q. Okay. And who were those individuals?

A. I believe Danny Laub and I think maybe Barth Fraker was involved in the Missouri Ethics Commission investigation, but that's ...

Q. Do you recall any discussion with Eric Greitens regarding that topic?

A. No.

MS. LAUER: That's all, Mr. Chair. Thank you very much.

MR. BARNES: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. AUSTIN:

Q. I'm Kevin Austin, District 136, southeast Springfield. You were asked about two exhibits, Exhibit 14 and Exhibit 3A. Fourteen you were directed to Section 4, page 21, and you were talking about when pos- -- you were asked about the line where it says:

"When possible, obtain all material from donor files and then return the materials back to the files."

And then you were directed to Exhibit 3A, and that was the donor list.

Were you ever given hard copies of donor information or donor lists or donor files?

A. Not in this instance.

Q. Okay.

A. No.

Q. And I guess the reason I ask is, you were asked, Did you ever return that, and you said, No, but let me ask you this: How could you return it if it was just an E-copy?

A. Yeah, that's -- I sort of wondered the same thing, because it was e-mailed to me. I don't -- yeah. Typically, no, there weren't hard copies.

Q. So physically couldn't return it back to the donor file. Do you know where these donor files were within Mission Continues, either electronically or physically?

A. I don't know. I'm not sure that there were physical files.

Q. That Exhibit 3A, there's a list of donors there. Do you know who was responsible for initially recruiting those donors for Mission Continues?

A. The donors in the -- the donor total-up list?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes. I -- Eric would have been responsible for recruiting.

Q. And what exactly -- when you were working for both Mission Continues and Greitens Group, what did -- what were Eric Greitens' job duties or work that was performed for Mission Continues?

A. For Mission Continues, his, you know, biggest responsibility was to make money for the organization. He also helped with, you know, hiring the senior leadership team and that sort of thing.

Q. Were there other individuals within Mission Continues that also visited these donors that we see in Exhibit 3A?

A. I mean, I'd have to go through the list, but, generally, he was going to almost all donor meetings. It's possible that the development team also went to, you know, one-on-one donor meetings.

Q. When there was a problem with the donor, was it -- was it one of Eric Greitens' primary responsibilities to go in and resolve that problem?

A. Yes. I'd say so.

Q. You testified earlier that approximately May 1st, 2016, you left Greitens for governor, and you -- I heard you say it was an amicable departure, but why did you leave?

A. I mean, I had been working for Eric for over five years at that point, and since I was right out of college, and I was sort of ready to do something else. I also wasn't -- I'm not very politically involved; I didn't have any interest in being involved in politics, and so that was also part of the reason. And I was also getting married that year, and so I was very busy.

Q. As far as this list -- we keep talking about -- I think you said that Lyndsey had mentioned some concerns to you. Were you ever present when any concerns were voiced -- to more than just you and Mr. Greitens or anybody else with the Greitens Group or Mission Continues, be it Lyndsey or Stevens or anybody else?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. You were asked to kind of divide your percentage of time that you devoted to Mission Continues versus Greitens Group in a particular period of time. I'll ask the same question about Eric Greitens, at least what you were able to witness. What percentage of his time did he devote to Mission Continues versus Greitens Group?

A. Percentage of time?

Q. Yeah.

MR. HAMMER: This would be pre campaign, pre --

MR. AUSTIN: Yes.

MR. HAMMER: So we're talking about maybe 2011 to 2014 period?

MR. AUSTIN: Right.

A. Yeah. I mean, I think it would probably depend on what year it was, but in 2011 and 2012, probably -- I don't -- 50/50? I mean, it's hard to say, like, a percentage of time.

Q. (By Mr. Austin) Okay. All right. And then after that period, did The Mission Continues period time lower and the Greitens Group period increase before the campaign era?

A. So as he -- you know, in late 2013 and in 2014, as he was thinking about stepping down as CEO, he hired, you know, a team of senior members, and as they could take on more of the work of The Mission Continues, yes, I'd say he probably started to do a little bit more Greitens Group work.

Q. Did he also assist that team in meeting and building a relationship with that donor list we see on Exhibit 3A?

A. Can you repeat the question?

Q. Sure. After he hired this team during the transition period, did he also assist that team for Mission Continues in establishing a relationship with the donors on Exhibit 3A?

A. What do you mean by "assist"?

Q. Introducing them or having them come with him to meetings or participating in calls or sharing information about these donors that he might have because of his relationship with the team from Mission Continues?

A. Yes. Yes.

MR. AUSTIN: That's all I have. Thank you.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. RHOADS:

Q. My name is Shawn Rhoads, state representative from the great town of West Plains.

Quick question. If we go back to the policy manual, and it says -- the last paragraph, "In the care of donor records."

It says: "Under no circumstances should outside requests for donor material be fulfilled unless prior written permission is received by the team leader."

Who was your team leader?

A. That would have been Eric.

Q. Okay. Everybody in the office would have been --

A. No.

Q. Is that a correct assumption that everybody that worked in that office in St. Louis that -- I mean, Mike Hafner -- and I'm talking pre-2015 -- Lyndsey, would she -- her team leader be Eric?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

A. So Mike Hafner never worked for The Mission Continues.

Q. I'm sorry. Yes. He never did. That's correct.

A. Lyndsey, her team lead would have been Lori Stevens, the director of development. So there were other team leaders.

Q. Okay. Great. So you had mentioned that you and Lyndsey were close and you worked, I'm assuming, side by side every day in the same office; correct?

A. Uh-huh.

MR. HAMMER: That's a yes?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

Q. (By Mr. Rhoads) So you mentioned earlier that Lyndsey said there was -- she kind of had some problems with this list being used; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you elaborate a little bit on what -- if you can recall -- what she said was her problem?

A. Yeah. I don't recall the specific conversation. It's hard to remember that far back.

Q. I completely understand.

A. I just remember her sort of feeling like, you know, putting together this list and, you know, sending it to Eric felt, you know, inappropriate in some way.

Q. Yes, ma'am. So do you think that Lyndsey put together the list and sent it?

A. I don't know who put together the list.

Q. Okay. Did she ever go to her team leader and say, This is a problem, that you know of?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. When were you made aware that this list, The Mission Continues list, was used for the campaign? You stated earlier that you knew they were using the list. When were you made aware that they were using the list?

A. I mean, probably when I was instructed to send the list to Mike Hafner and Danny Laub, who were, you know, putting together a call list. That's the first time that that would have ...

Q. Did you work in the same building as Mike Hafner when they were there and Danny Laub?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Same office complex?

A. Same office building.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. Was that the house that was kind of converted to a --

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. RHOADS: I don't have anything else.

MR. BARNES: Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERSON:

Q. Tommie Pierson, Jr., state representative from St. Louis County, little bit of St. Louis City. Congratulations on your wedding and marriage and all of that.

A. Thank you.

Q. Did Mr. Greitens make the wedding list?

A. He did, yes.

Q. That is wonderful.

So I wanted to talk just a minute about the nondisclosure form. And I believe -- can you tell me again the date that you signed that form?

A. The date that is listed on the form is 11/21/2012.

Q. 2012. And your starting employment was January of 2011?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know of any impetus as to why they would have you sign such a form?

A. I mean, I -- I would assume it's standard practice for most companies, so that's my -- I was just thinking that this was standard practice.

Q. I just thought it interesting that you didn't sign it when you first were hired, but you signed it later on, so I didn't know if there was any kind of climate atmosphere going on at that time to make such a activity seem worthy. Anything that you recall?

A. I mean, my understanding is -- or my assumption would be when I started in January of 2011, I was, like -- I was the 11th employee. We're a small organization, and as the organization started to grow, there were more formalities, such as, you know, this handbook. And so it was just sort of a matter of getting things organized and being compliant or whatever.

Q. So you didn't really see it as anything strange but just something to kind of tighten up procedures?

A. No, I didn't see it as strange.

Q. Very good. And when Ms. Hodges -- when Lyndsey Hodges kind of expressed some concerns regarding the list, did you share those concerns?

A. With anyone else?

Q. Oh, I'm sorry. Did you share those -- did you feel the same way, as far as having the same concerns?

A. No. I don't think I felt the same way. I don't remember how I felt at that exact moment, but, no, I didn't have the same concerns.

Q. So I noticed in looking at some of the e-mails your -- you became the vice president of Greitens Group; is that true?

A. Uh-huh. Yes.

Q. And how did that come about?

A. I think I was promoted in December-ish of 2014. I, at that time, was sort of thinking about moving on to -- you know, finding another job, just because I had sort of been doing the same thing for three or four years, and expressed that concern -- or Eric got wind of it and gave me a promotion at that time.

Q. So no change in role?

A. No, not really. I mean, my responsibility was always to maximize his time. And I would have been, you know, running a book tour the next month or two, in early 2015, so that was, you know, a lot of responsibility, but ...

Q. But a change in pay?

A. Oh. I also received a raise, yes.

Q. So The Mission Continues was in -- at an address -- in a -- whatever that address is, and that was co-located with the Greitens Group address; is that correct?

A. Yes. We were in the same building -- same address.

Q. And then when you and Eric parted with The Mission Continues, you-all moved it a different physical location?

A. Yes.

Q. Isn't that correct? Did you take anything with you from one location to the next?

A. Yes. My computer would have come with us and, you know, my personal files, whatever I had, and then any of the Greitens Group files or books would have come to the new office.

Q. And likewise for Eric and his items --

A. Yes.

Q. -- his computer, other files?

A. Yes.

MR. HAMMER: Do you have specific knowledge of what Mr. Greitens brought over? Do you -- I just want to make sure that you're not guessing about that and you actually know what it was.

THE WITNESS: Oh.

A. I mean, a lot of the things in his office were -- some of them were moved to his home, so, no, I don't know what ended up at our office.

Q. (By Mr. Pierson) Okay. And then the transition from Greitens Group to Greitens for Missouri, was there any physical location change at that point?

A. No. It was the -- the same building.

Q. The same building. Okay.

MR. PIERSON: All right. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: I have just a few follow-up questions.

RE-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Who is Chris Bobak?

A. Chris Bobak was a member of the Greitens Group. He --

Q. Do you mean he was an employee of the Greitens Group?

A. Yes. Employee.

Q. Okay. When was he hired?

A. He was first an intern, so it's hard for me to, like, remember the exact dates, but he probably started interning somewhere in 2013, and then he was hired on at some point after that as an employee of Greitens Group.

Q. Okay.

A. And he also would have worked on Greitens for Missouri.

Q. Did he also work with The Mission Continues?

A. No.

Q. No. Okay. To your knowledge, did Chris Bobak ever gain access to The Mission Continues data?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Did you actually testify before the Missouri Ethics Commission?

A. I did not.

Q. Okay. And you stated you had some knowledge. Was that knowledge gleaned from news reports that you had heard about the donor list?

MR. HAMMER: Knowledge about the donor list or just knowledge that there was a Missouri Ethics Committee?

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) What was the source of your knowledge about the Missouri Ethics Commission complaint and process?

A. I mean, A, the news, obviously, and then I think just hearing about it around the office. I don't -- there isn't, like, a specific --

Q. Your office in the new place of employment, you mean? Because at that point in time, you would not have -- a complaint was filed in November of 2016. You were no longer working for Greitens for Missouri. Maybe I'm refreshing your recollection.

A. Yeah. Yeah, you are. You are. When was the complaint filed?

Q. I believe the complaint was filed in November of 2016.

A. Okay.

Q. So you have no firsthand -- sitting here right now, you have no firsthand knowledge of conversations from people within the Greitens campaign about that particular ethics committee?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Thank you for that.

You stated earlier that Eric stepped down from the board of The Mission Continues because he was running for political office and the nonprofit needed to be separate from that. When did he step down from the board?

A. From the board of The Mission Continues?
Q. Yes.
A. I do not remember.
Q. Do you remember any conversation about members of the board or Mr. Spencer Kympton, who was the CEO, telling Eric that because of these political activities, the board needs to maintain some separation with him?
A. I don't think I would have been involved in those conversations, so, no, I don't remember.
Q. And the source of your knowledge is, then, Mr. Greitens was talking about stepping down from the board because of the political run for office?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And I guess -- okay.
MR. BARNES: Any further questions? Representative Phillips?

RE-EXAMINATION

BY MR. PHILLIPS:
Q. Just a couple of quick questions. One is, in your dealings with the governor and those five years of employment, did you see him as being a trustworthy person?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you see him as being an honest person?
A. Yes.
Q. So his dealings with you were never anything but above board, honest, trustworthy? You never had any thoughts of, Man, this guy -- nothing like that?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Thank you.
Now, what about Barth Fraker? That name came up -- a familiar name. What was his role in the organization at the time of this ethic -- I think you mentioned that Barth answered the ethics complaint or was one of the two people that went to answer the complaint; is that right?
A. So I think I'm confusing maybe two separate ethics complaints.
Q. Okay.
A. The reason Barth's name came up is because I -- at some point, he mentioned to me that he had been involved in some sort of investigation, but I don't -- I think there might have been two separate ones.
Q. Okay. What was Barth's role in the organization?
A. So Barth was an employee of the Greitens

Group for a period of time before moving over to Greitens for Missouri, and then was an employee for Greitens for Missouri.
Q. And then why did he leave Greitens for Missouri? Was it -- I guess the governor got elected, and at that point, he moved on to something else? Was that it?
A. I don't know.
Q. Okay.
A. I think he left -- I actually don't know.
Q. Okay. Thank you.
MR. BARNES: Representative Mitten.
MS. MITTEN: Just real quick -- and thank you to my colleague for pointing out my negligence in my questioning.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. MITTEN:
Q. So going back to my earlier line of questioning about The Mission Continues manual and the protection of the confidentiality of donor records, did -- were you ever directed to delete any of the donor lists or other donor data that was property of The Mission Continues in order to -- and I'm going to quote from the manual -- "Ensure that donor files are handled with care." Were you ever directed to delete or otherwise discard, dispose, get rid of any of that donor data?

A. No.
Q. And did you on your own initiative and, again, "In order to the ensure that donor files are handled with care," delete, discard, dispose, or otherwise destroy any of the donor data that was the property of The Mission Continues?
A. No.
MS. MITTEN: Thank you.
MR. BARNES: Any other questions?
Seeing none, thank you for your testimony here this afternoon. We greatly appreciate it.
Is there any other item of business that we need to take care of? I do not believe that there is.
MS. MITTEN: I do not believe that there is either.
MR. BARNES: This will conclude today's hearing of the House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.
(The hearing adjourned at 2:20 p.m.)

MR. BARNES: The House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight will come to order.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

MR. CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes.

MR. BARNES: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

MR. PHILLIPS: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

MS. MITTEN: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

MR. RHOADS: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: Here.

MR. CURCHIN: Okay.

MR. BARNES: All seven present; we are all here.

Mr. Kympton, thank you for being here with us this morning via Skype. We really appreciate it. We're kind of cramped in here because we had a hard time finding a hearing room this morning because there are bill hearings going on everywhere, so we are in a back corner office all shoved into one spot.

Can you speak to test how we can hear you okay?

THE WITNESS: Sure. Thanks for having me here. How does my voice sound?

MR. BARNES: Sounds great. Okay. Now before we start, let's have you take an oath.

SPENCER KYMPTON,

being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Can you state your name for the record.

A. Spencer Kympton.

Q. And can you spell that for the court reporter -- your last name, that is.

A. Spencer, S-p-e-n-c-e-r, last name Kympton, K-y-m-p-t-o-n.

Q. And, Mr. Kympton, my name is Jay Barnes. I'm the chairman of this committee. I'm from Jefferson City, Missouri. I'm also an attorney. Have you ever given testimony in a deposition or anything like a deposition before?

A. I have not.

Q. Okay. So I just want to give you a few quick ground rules. The first is that shaking your head yes or no is not sufficient to answer a question; you have to actually use your voice and say "yes" or "no." Do you understand that?

A. I do.

Q. Okay. In addition to that, if anyone asks you a question that you do not understand -- and I -- I think you have counsel there next to you, if -- counsel might tap you on the shoulder if it's a question that you might not understand. Just go ahead -- if you don't understand the question being asked, ask us to repeat it or rephrase it in a different way. Do you understand that?

A. I do.

Q. And if you need to take a break for any reason, please feel free to let us know, and we can do that.

A. Okay.

Q. Okay. Mr. Kympton, what is your current title?

A. I'm the president of The Mission Continues.

Q. And before you were the --

MR. AUSTIN: Don't we need to know who all is present there?

MR. BARNES: Yes, that's right.

Let's let counsel make his presence known for the record.

MR. JACOBER: Thank you, Representative Barnes.

Matthew Jacober from Lathrop Gage in the room representing The Mission Continues, and my cocounsel also in the room with Mr. Kympton this morning is Kevin Metz, Brian McManus and Catherine Yao.

Kevin, can you confirm that's an accurate representation of who is in the room there?

MR. METZ: Yes. And we have an associate also here -- an additional associate here with us, but that's correct.

MR. BARNES: Thank you.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Before -- when did you start with The Mission Continues?

A. I started with The Mission Continues on June 1, 2011.

Q. Prior to working for The Mission Continues, what was your career history?

A. Well, I came to The Mission Continues from an organization in the education reform space called Teach for America, where I had been for the previous three years as vice president of recruiting, but my career started in the military. I went to undergraduate at West Point and transitioned out of West Point into an eight-year Army career as a helicopter pilot -- a BlackHawk helicopter pilot. I transitioned out of the military via business school. I went to -- I got an MBA at Harvard and then went into management consulting for several years, where I was ultimately able to work with government and social sector clients, and transitioned from management consulting into more of a social sector community and the nonprofit community a little over ten years ago via Teach for America, and that ultimately started my path to The Mission Continues.

Q. So you were with Teach for America for three years; is that right?

A. That's correct.

Q. And then The Mission Continues in July of 2011?

A. June of 2011, yeah.

Q. How long have you known Eric Greitens?

A. I first spoke to Eric Greitens on or about April of 2011, and it was part of, you know, more of a formal interview process and discovery process as I was considering joining The Mission Continues.

Q. And why were you brought on -- why were they bringing you -- or I assume they were interviewing other candidates as well. Why were they bringing people into The Mission Continues at that time?

A. At the time Eric had got the help of an executive placement firm. The organization was growing; they didn't really have a -- an executive team. The organization was positioned to need, you know, additional executives and senior leadership at the time, and I believe Eric recognized that and contracted the help of, you know, a firm to find other executives. I just happened to be also working with that firm as I was considering my next career option.

Q. And did you move to St. Louis?

A. I did not. I live in New York City.

Q. Okay. And you've remained in New York City?

A. I have.

Q. How much day-to-day interaction did you have with Eric Greitens?

A. Well -- and that changed --

Q. Let's put it by year. Let's start --

A. Okay.

Q. -- for 2011, when you started in July. How much interaction did you have with Eric Greitens?

A. When I started in June of 2011, I would call it fairly frequent. You know, I was brought on as the chief partnerships officer at the time, so my role was specifically focused on, you know, building relationships with partners and supporters and donors that would help take our mission and our organization to the next level, so, accordingly, my interactions with Eric were, you know, if not daily, certainly quite a bit over the course of the week. That would be largely virtual, but I probably went to St. Louis twice a month in those first few years, not only 2011, but kind of, you know, 2011, 2012. My role -- not probably six months -- six to nine months after I joined the organization, I transitioned to a chief operating officer role, and, you know, my responsibilities at that point expanded beyond just a partnerships role to kind of more of an all-encompassing role focused on the operations and growing the operations of the organization, and then, ultimately, maybe a year after that, I transitioned into what -- a new role which we called the president role, which at that time, I managed everyone internally. The entire organization, in some way, shape, or form -- again, from an org chart point of view -- rolled up to me, and at that point, I was -- in term of my interactions with Eric at that point, you know, transitioned into -- most of our coordination was around, you know, building external partnerships, taking -- working on the strategy of The Mission Continues, the long-term strategy of The Mission Continues, and some of the more kind of vision- and mission-oriented, you know, executive conversations. And that -- you know, that probably -- by the time -- up to and including, you know, 2013 and 2014, would have been less regular interactions than the daily or weekly that it might have been in 2011 and more driven by either events or strategy discussions that we needed to have.

Q. Okay. Was the plan all along for you to transition to the COO? Were these expected --

A. Are you talking about in 2011, was the plan for me to transition --

Q. That's right. When you were hired in 2011, did you expect a quick transition -- you said six to nine months -- to COO?

A. When I joined The Mission Continues, I didn't expect -- I had no expectations of what my role was going to be within, you know, any horizon. I was hired as the chief partnerships officer, and when I became COO, it was a natural and -- it seemed the right decision for the organization at the time.

Q. Okay. And then you said you became president sometime -- I think you said 2012; is that right?

A. I don't recall the exact dates, but it was probably end of 2012, 2013.

Q. Okay. I want to direct you to a memorandum of understanding that you provided us -- to us. Do you have that -- we -- on the front of my page -- sheet or -- exhibit here it says, "Exhibit A." And I'm going to hand this around to members here. The first page on the document in front of you say, "The GG Monthly Cost Obligation." You may have it in a different form.

A. I have it in reverse order. I have it as an exhibit to the main document.

Q. So the memorandum of understanding is the first document you have there in front of you, and then the second document is a letter, and the third document, is that Exhibit A?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. I'll put our -- mine, at least, in order here, and we're going to mark ours as Exhibit 15.

(Deposition Exhibit No. 15 was marked for identification.)

MR. AUSTIN: Are we marking this whole thing?

MR. BARNES: Yeah, let's mark the whole thing as 15. It's the -- Representative Lauer is handing out a different folder. This is the memorandum of understanding.

MS. LAUER: Okay. Got it. Sorry.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Do you recall the process of entering into this memorandum of understanding with Mr. Greitens?

A. I do.

Q. And why was this agreement necessary?

A. This was a board-directed initiative and effort and agreement that was intended to protect and preserve the nonprofit status of The Mission Continues. Recognizing that our CEO at the time was also the CEO of a for-profit entity, so this memorandum of agreement respected that relationship but also was intended to preserve and protect the fact that The Mission Continues is a 501(c)(3) entity that had the opportunity to benefit from its CEO and wanted to allow for that, while also protecting the assets and resources of The Mission Continues as a nonprofit.

Q. Were there concerns about Mr. Greitens and the Greitens Group using The Mission Continues' resources for personal purposes at the time?

A. There were not concerns, but this was an attempt to formalize and make sure that those protections and preservations were in place.

Q. So it was to make very clear what the boundaries were of the relationships between the two organizations?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. On page 3 of the document -- at the bottom of page 3 of the document, it speaks about TMC-generated requests and what to do if there was a TMC-generated request, which bleeds over into page 4.

Did The Mission Continues ever receive notice from the Greitens Group pursuant to this provision about TMC-generated requests?

A. I don't know if my document is labeled differently -- here we go.

Q. It says -- and I'll read to you here so we're on the same -- make sure we're in the same spot. The bottom of page 3 starts with:

"For the purposes of this section, 4(a), a TMC-generated request shall mean a request made to Mr. Greitens or the Greitens Group for a private business activity, such as a private speaking engagement or a book event that (I) is made by a Missions Continues donor, sponsor, volunteer, or event participate and (II) occurs during or as a direct result of a Mission Continues event or activity. In the event a TMC-generated request has been made and the Greitens Group desires to engage in such private business activity, the Greitens Group must first take the following actions:

(I) properly notify the COO of The Mission Continues of such TMC-generated request.

(II) Cooperate with The Mission Continues to generate a donation opportunity for The Mission Continues from such TMC-generated request."

Was that -- did TMC ever receive notice of such request pursuant to this memorandum of understanding?

A. I don't recall any specific requests that it would have come from TMC donors, sponsors, or volunteers, but I trust that in the event that it did, this MOU was followed by either our staff members or those involved.

Q. Well -- and the question was, Do you know if the impetus under the memorandum of understanding was on the Greitens Group to contact The Mission Continues. Do you recall -- it seems not, from your answer here, but I want to ask it more clearly.

Do you recall any circumstances in which the Greitens Group notified The Mission Continues of TMC-generated activity?

A. I do not recall any specific activity like that.

Q. Okay. This document shows a cost split for a Krystal Taylor that, I believe, is maybe 50/50. Do you know what the percentage of -- she's now Ms. Proctor, but at that time Ms. Taylor. Do you know what percentage of her salary was paid by The Mission Continues prior to the signing of this memorandum of understanding?

A. I do not.

Q. Let me ask you some questions about just general practices.

We have had a previous witness testify that the standard practice between the Greitens Group and The Mission Continues would be that the Greitens Group would book an event for Mr. Greitens to speak to a group of people, and that then they would get together with employees of The Mission Continues and build Mission Continues events around that private speaking schedule arrangement. Is that your recollection of how Eric Greitens' events occurred in approximately 2011, 2012, 2013?

A. My recollection -- Eric's speaking events in 2011 and 2012 were that -- you know, through either his book events or paid speaking engagements, he was exposed to any number of individuals who, through the course of that engagement, were able to learn about The Mission Continues, and as a result of learning about The Mission Continues and that element of Eric Greitens' story, became interested in The Mission Continues' programs and impact across the country, and as a result of that, The Mission Continues was able to build a relationship with those individuals, and in many cases, those relationships remain today.

Q. Okay. And as far as travel expensing for those events, was it just expected that if he did a private speaking event, that that would be -- the travel would be paid by The Mission Continues, regardless of whether there was a specific set-aside event for The Mission Continues?

A. Pursuant to the MOU, if the purpose of Eric's travel was for a paid speaking engagement or anything that had been arranged through the Greitens Group, that the travel would be paid for by the Greitens Group and not The Mission Continues.

Q. And it's your testimony that, in fact, that was the case, at least as far as when you were a part of the organization?

A. I can testify that that was the intent and that was what -- how this MOU is arranged, and it was our intent as an organization that The Mission Continues paid for travel-related expenses if Eric was conducting Mission Continues business.

Q. Do you know who purchased the Greitens Group's office equipment when there was a shared office?

A. I do not.

Q. That may have been before your time in -- I think that was likely before your time in the organization.

Do you know who purchased Krystal Taylor's computer?

A. I do not.

Q. Did The Mission Continues ever purchase books by Eric Greitens?

A. I have no reason to believe that The Mission Continues purchased Eric Greitens' books.

Q. When you were COO or CEO, did The Mission Continues ever purchase Greitens' books?

A. Again, I have no reason or have seen any evidence that suggests we ever purchased books during my time there.

Q. I now would like to direct you to the nondisclosure agreement.

(Deposition Exhibit No. 16 was marked for identification.)

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Do you have it in front of you?

A. I do.

Q. And just to make sure we're on the same document, it's one -- four pages long. It starts with --

A. I have it.

Q. Okay. And it's signed on the -- page 4 by Eric Greitens on November 27th, 2012; is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And to be clear, you provide -- your organization provided this document to this committee; is that right?

A. That's correct.

Q. I'm going to mark this as Exhibit 16.

What was the impetus of a nondisclosure agreement for the organization?

A. Well, this is a document that all of our staff signs. And, again, this is a -- an effort to protect and preserve the confidential information that The Mission Continues might have -- any information that The Mission Continues might have that could be used for anything other than explicit TMC purposes, so it's a general expectation that we were able to communicate to our entire staff via this document and their signing of this document, that as a 501(c)(3) organization, we were intent upon protecting and observing that.

Q. Did the board make that clear in oral representations to Mr. Greitens?

A. I do not know.

Q. Okay. To be clear -- and I want to get this in the record. Paragraph 1(c), it's the definition of confidential information. Can you read for the committee what 1(c) defines as confidential information of The Mission Continues?

A. So within the definition of confidential information, 1(c) defines:

"The identities of donors or investors and any personal information of donors or investors and any contact information for donors or investors" as confidential information.

Q. Have you had -- I sent to your attorneys the e-mail from January 6th, 2015 from Krystal Taylor, now Proctor, to Danny Laub and Michael Hafner that included an attachment with The Mission Continues' donor list. Would your donor list fit under what is defined here in 1(c)?

A. The list that was attached to that e-mail I would -- I would consider as something that would fall under 1(c).

Q. And now I'd like to direct you to paragraph 1(i). And just to get this in the record, could you read for the committee paragraph 1(i), which also is -- is that included as confidential information, what is in paragraph 1(i)?

A. 1(i) also states that confidential information are "plans, lists, databases, marketing and sales practices, projections, trade or business secrets, identities of consultants or advisers, identities of contractors, studies, findings, correspondence, and similar or dissimilar information relating to the operations or activities of TMC."

Q. Do you believe that that donor list that you've reviewed fits in with paragraph -- the definition of confidential information in paragraph 1(i)?

A. I can see how it would fit under the definition within 1(i).

Q. Okay. I'd now like to direct you to paragraph 2, and to, again, read into the record those first two sentence of paragraph 2(A).

A. 2(A) reads: "Employees shall keep all confidential information disclosed to or received by employee in strict confidence. Employee shall not at any time during employee's employment with TMC or at any time after termination or expiration of employee's employment with TMC, disclose any confidential information to any third party in whole or in part."

Q. Would that restriction include the list that you reviewed attached to the e-mail of January 6th, 2015?

A. It would.

Q. And is there any exception for political activity?

A. There are no exceptions.

Q. Would there ever be an exception for political activity for a nonprofit organization?

A. I can't see a case where there would be an exception made.

Q. Would that jeopardize your 501(c)(3) status?

A. I don't have a position on whether it would jeopardize our 501(c)(3) status, I --

Q. Let me ask it a different way.

A. It would not be an authorized use of any information from The Mission Continues' point of view.

Q. Let me ask it a different way.

If a 501(c)(3) charitable organization had employees using that charitable organization's information for political purposes, would that potentially jeopardize -- with the authorization of the 501(c)(3), would that jeopardize its status?

A. Again, I don't know if it jeopardizes its status as a 501(c)(3); I can only speak to the fact that that would be an unauthorized -- and be considered a misuse, as far as The Mission Continues is concerned.

Q. Okay. I now would like to direct you to -- well, let's -- 2(b) has some exceptions in it. Exception B Roman Numeral I says:

"An employee shall not be liable for disclosure if TMC specifically authorizes and directs an employee in the performance of employee's duties to disclose such confidential information."

Did The Mission Continues authorize or direct the disclosure of that list for political purposes?

A. No.

Q. Did it do so implicitly in any way?

A. I don't have any reason to believe that we would have implicitly given permission or authorization to use that list.

MS. MITTEN: I'm sorry. I'm going to ask you to kind of repeat that because our speaker is not so great, and I'm worried about the court reporter.

A. I don't have any reason to believe that we would have implicitly authorized the use of this list.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. Thank you.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Did you implicitly authorize the use of this list?

A. No. Not for purposes of outside of TMC.

Q. Do you know of any employee of TMC who would have authorized the use -- implicitly authorized the use of the list?

A. I do not know of anyone at TMC who authorized --

Q. And, actually, let me back up and talk about the organization chart. You were the president at that time; correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Is there anyone else to whom -- who would have had the authority to either expressly or implicitly authorize the use of this list above Mr. Greitens?

A. Well, I have to clarify what time you're talking about -- the time frame.

Q. And when the list was -- so we have another e-mail from May of 2014, when the list was sent from -- that we'll get to in a moment -- when the list was sent from Mission Continues employees to Mr. Greitens, Ms. Taylor, and some others within The Mission Continues.

Was there -- so at that point in time, in May of 2014, when the list was sent to Mr. Greitens and Ms. Taylor, who had the authorization to expressly or implicitly permit the use of the list for purposes outside of The Mission Continues?

A. In May of 2014, Eric Greitens was the CEO of The Mission Continues. This is prior to his departure from the organization, so from an org chart point of view, I would have reported to Eric Greitens as the CEO.

Q. Okay. And as the CEO now, do you report to the board?

A. I'm still the president. We don't have a fee structure, but I do report to the board; that's correct.

Q. Did the CEO report to the board?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I now direct you to paragraph 3(a). And, Mr. Kympton, have you signed an agreement like this with The Mission Continues?

A. I don't recall specifically signing it, but I would assume as an employee of The Mission Continues, I've also signed it.

Q. Okay. And that first sentence -- I'd like to, again, get this into the record. If you could read that first sentence for us.

A. Sorry. You're asking for 3(a) on the same page.

Q. 3(a), that's correct.

A. Okay. 3(a) reads:

"Employee acknowledges and agrees that all intellectual property that is developed by employee during the time employee is employed by TMC, and that is within the scope of employee's employment with TMC, is the property of TMC, including but not limited to any copyrights or trade secrets."

Q. Was the list you reviewed that was sent in May 2014 a list that was created by someone within the scope of their employment with TMC?

A. Yes, it was.

Q. Do you know who was primarily responsible for that list?

A. I can't -- can you clarify what you mean by "primarily responsible" for the list?

Q. Well, the list that was sent on 5/7 of 2014 was later attached to the e-mail in 2015. Do you know who created that document?

A. I believe it was a member of our development team. I'm not certain which member of our development team, but that is a list that was -- would have been created through the normal course of reporting through our Salesforce databases and generated for the purposes of development for The Mission Continues.

Q. Okay. And that may have been Lyndsey -- Lyndsey Hodges may have been a person that created that?

A. She certainly would have been in a position to do that, yes.

Q. Or -- and if she didn't create it herself, she would have been a person who -- she may know who created that list?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. I'd also like to direct you to paragraph 3(c), and the sentence there reads -- and I'll read this one for you.

"Unless employee has first received the prior written consent by e-mail or letter of TMC, employee shall not use or display any portion of any such intellectual property in connection with employee's portfolio, employee's Web site, or otherwise in any context outside of employee's employment."

Did TMC ever write to Mr. Greitens by e-mail a letter authorizing the use of the list that was attached to the January 6th e-mail for political purposes?

A. I have not seen any evidence that there was any authorization to Mr. Greitens, either in the context of his role as CEO or after to suggest any authorization to use it for political purposes.

Q. So there is no such prior written consent in your records anywhere of an e-mail or a letter from TMC?

A. Not that I have seen.

Q. Direct you to page 4. Who is Jack Neyens?

A. Jack Neyens was our vice president of finance and administration.

Q. And is he still with the organization?

A. He's not.

Q. What were the circumstances in which he left?

A. Jack left, I believe, in the second half the 2016 as a natural transition as the organization grew and the size and scope of the role, you know, grew to kind of national. We were looking to change the financing.

MR. BARNES: Can you -- let's try to -- we're going to -- we're having problems with this speaker. Can we take a short break to try to get an external speaker that -- our court reporter is having trouble -- and some of our members, I can tell, are having trouble, so let's take a short break to fix our speaker problem.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: We are back on the record with a fixed hookup.

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Jack Neyens is where we left off. Did he -- was that an amicable split with the organization?

A. My recollection was that it was an amicable split. It was a natural transition, and as I said previously, we were a growing organization that needed a skill set and a finance component and didn't feel that Jack had that going forward.

Q. So it fair to say that Jack was let go or terminated? I mean --

A. I don't know how others would characterize it, but I would call it a transition that was -- didn't -- that was because we had a staff member who didn't have a skill set we needed going forward.

Q. It wasn't necessarily that he did anything wrong in his role; it was that he didn't have the skill set you needed to move forward?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. So as far as him leaving the organization, if he were asking for references from your organization, you would give those references --

A. That's correct.

Q. -- as to the skill set that he had?

A. That's a correct representation.

Q. Okay. I would now would like to direct you to an e-mail you provided to us from Lyndsey Reichardt to Lori Stevens, yourself, Eric Greitens, Krystal Taylor, and Lyndsey Hodges. Isn't -- Lyndsey Hodges is Lyndsey Reichardt; is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. She just had -- so she just had two separate e-mails that she was working, and one was her maiden name; one was her married name. I'm just looking at the list of to's here.

Do you have this e-mail in front of you? It's an e-mail from May 19th, 2014, and it has a string below that includes e-mails that were sent from May 13th, May 12th, and May 8th. And your counsel provided this to us -- to me, I believe, in an e-mail yesterday -- Tuesday may have been the e-mail.

A. Okay. I think I'm looking at the e-mail. Can you just describe a couple of the characteristics, just so I can make sure?

Q. Sure. At the top the attachments say "5/19/2014 Call List," and then the first line is:

"Hi, Eric. Sorry I missed you on April 24th."

A. Yes. I have that e-mail.

Q. My -- the last line is: "My usual skills don't work."

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. We're on the same -- we're on the same document.

Have you had an opportunity to review this e-mail prior to today?

A. Not in depth.

Q. Okay. Would you like to take a moment to look at it now before I ask you questions about it?

A. Sure. We'll take a little bit of time here, and I'll review it.

Q. Okay.

(Deposition Exhibit No. 17 was marked for identification.)

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Ready?

A. I am.

Q. And so counsel can be ready, if they have the list itself, they could gather that; that might be helpful. I might go to it in a moment.

Okay. Mr. Kympton, can you explain the circumstances of this series of e-mails?

A. So the original e-mail that was sent sometime earlier -- I mean, beginning on May 8th of 2014, was part of an overall plan that our development team constructed to guide the external communication of our CEO's transition. So this sat a week or two after Eric had communicated internally that his plan was to transition from the CEO role over the summer -- so several months later.

So this was our first step in our development team's first step at guiding a proactive communications plan with our partners to not only communicate the transition itself but also talk about how The Mission Continues would be a going concern, how their partnership in support of The Mission Continues would continue to be valued by the organization and just -- it was all part of a natural transition plan that we had created.

Q. Was -- a previous witness testified that Mr. Greitens thought of this list as his, that the folks on it were his friends, his contacts that he had built up himself. Was your counsel able to put that list in front of you?

(Inaudible.)

Yes, the attachment to the 5/8/14 e-mail.

MR. BARNES: Off the record.

(Discussion off the record.)

Q. (By Mr. Barnes) Okay. Now, let me start fresh with this question.

A previous witness testified that Mr. Greitens thought -- essentially thought of this list as his own, that the list was comprised of his friends, his contacts that he had built up, and -- you've had an opportunity to review the list; you know the list. Do you believe that to be true?

A. I would not characterize this list that way. This list is a list of 500 -- more than 500 donors, supporters, partners of The Mission Continues who had given collectively or over time $1,000 or above to The Mission Continues. Within this list might be, you know, friends or family of Eric Greitens that have transitioned into being supporters of The Mission Continues, but as context, I have friends and family who are on this list; other staff members from The Mission Continues have family on this list. There are individuals on this list who came into The Mission Continues relationship via events that we ran, and they might have been invited by host committee members to those events. There are individuals on this list who came into a relationship with The Mission Continues by the company that was supporting The Mission Continues. So I think that there certainly are individuals on this list who might have been a friend or family member of The Mission Continues, but I would very much characterize this list as a list of supporters and partners of The Mission Continues that came from a variety of different pathways to that relationship.

Q. Now, you said you have friends and family that are on the current Mission Continues donor list. Do you have separate contacts -- do you maintain contact information for those friends and family separate from The Mission Continues donor list?

A. Yes. Of course.

Q. So you have that in your own personal files; right?

A. Yes.

Q. To your knowledge, did anyone ever tell

Mr. Greitens he could use this list for purposes outside of The Mission Continues?

A. To my knowledge, no. And, again, to do so would have been, you know, a misuse or an unauthorized permission to use the list in that way.

Q. And that's by contract; correct?

A. That is both explicit, as we've discussed, within our -- in the nondisclosure agreement that we've already gone through.

Q. Okay. I now direct you to two communications your organization sent out to supporters in recent weeks. And there are no dates on these, but I want to authenticate that you assert to the truthfulness to the statements contained therein.

So the first one starts with, "To our partners," and there's a sentence that says:

"The Mission Continues did not provide nor authorize any use of our donors' information to the Greitens campaign or any persons or groups for political or campaign purposes."

Did you send this e-mail out to Mission Continues supporters?

A. I did.

Q. And is that statement true?

A. To the best of my knowledge, it is true.
Q. Okay. You also state in here:
"Any use of The Mission Continues resources for any political or other unauthorized purpose would violate our policies and the trust we expect from each member of our staff."
Is that statement true?
A. To the best of my knowledge, that is true.
Q. And then you have a second e-mail here where it starts with, "Continuing progress, continuing the mission."
A. I have that.
Q. I'm going to mark these together as Exhibit 18.
(Deposition Exhibit No. 18 was marked for identification.)
Q. (By Mr. Barnes) And in that e-mail -- did you send this e-mail as well?
A. I did.
Q. And you sent that --
A. Well, I -- it was sent on behalf of me but, yes, it came from The Mission Continues.
Q. Okay. So your team drafted it; correct?
A. I drafted it in partnership with my team, yes.

Q. You gave approval to send it; correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. And the person you have in charge of your e-mail sends hit the send button; correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. Okay. And are the statements contained in this e-mail true?
A. To the best of my knowledge, they're true.
Q. Do you recall when Mr. Greitens resigned from the board of The Mission Continues?
A. I believe that the actual date where we notified the board that he would be stepping down was the end of August 2015.
Q. What precipitated his departure from the board?
A. Well, at that time, Eric notified both me and, as I recollect, our board chair that he was preparing to announce his candidacy for governor, and those conversations suggested that it was probably in the best interest of The Mission Continues at that time to -- and for Eric to step away from the board to avoid any types of conflict of interest that might arise as having a candidate for political office involved formally on our board.
Q. Would one example of such a conflict of interest be the use of Mission Continues resources for political purposes?

A. I think that could be an example.
Q. And at that time, were you or the board aware that The Mission Continues list had been sent to people associated with the Greitens campaign?
A. I was not aware that any list had been sent at that time in August of 2015.
Q. When did you become aware of the list being shared in that fashion?
A. I believe the first time that any notion that the -- or suggestion or allegation that the list had been sent was when we were contacted by a reporter in the summer of 2016 suggesting that he was in possession of a list, shared the title of that list, and it was a list that was titled and very closely matched -- or exactly matched the list in question that we've already discussed.
Q. And what happened after you were contacted by that reporter, if anything?
A. Well, internally, you know, we -- as you might imagine, we wanted to understand what the list was, whether or not it was something that we had created or were all involved in, so we did, you know, a bit of internal -- just kind of historical analysis to understand that. But subsequent to being contacted by the reporter, several months later, the same list became the subject of a Missouri Ethics Commission investigation of which we participated and cooperated.

Q. Did you testify before the Missouri Ethics Commission in any form or fashion?
A. We did speak -- I did testify, yes.
Q. And did you tell them that -- and what did you tell them?
A. I don't recall the exact testimony, but I would have provided and authenticated the fact that that was a list generated -- as far as we could tell, a list generated by The Mission Continues.
Q. Did you give any opinion as to the value of that list?
A. I did not give an opinion to the value of the list, as far as I recall.
Q. Do you have an opinion as to the value of the list for your organization?
A. Well, my opinion would stem from the fact that, you know, this is a list of over 500 donors and partners and supporters of The Mission Continues who had given to The Mission Continues over time and was paired not only with the amount of that gift, but, also, in some cases, paired with the contact information of those donors. So I can attest to its value to The Mission Continues.

Q. And what -- could you put a dollar figure on the value to The Mission Continues?

A. I can't put a dollar figure on it.

Q. In terms of the amount of work that -- by Mission Continues employees that went into creating the list, is it a couple of hours? Dozens of hours? Hundreds of hours?

A. Well, can you clarify what you mean by "the work"? You know, there's the work and actually -- you know, the kind of manipulation of the system to generate the list, which is, you know, probably less than an hour, but the work that, you know, goes into the content itself and the relationships that are contained within --

Q. I mean the second. The cultivation of the donors that comprise the list, not just the data manipulation.

A. You know, in some cases, you know, those relationships with individuals were built over a significant amount of time, and, you know, collectively across 500-plus of those. I would imagine that could represent a fair amount of time to The Mission Continues broadly.

Q. Would you say the list has a value of over a thousand dollars to your organization?

A. I can't speak to the value of the list itself.

Q. That's fair.

MR. BARNES: So the way we operate here -- and we've got this odd arrangement now -- is what -- we go in order from the vice chair to our ranking member, and then order of seniority, and if we get to a member who you can't see, we'll have them raise their hand to start, and then I may move around so you can see people better.

THE WITNESS: Okay. I just want to make sure that you know that for the last probably 10 minutes or so, your entire screen has been frozen, so I really can't see anyone. I don't know if that -- if -- we might give a try to refresh the screens.

MR. BARNES: Okay. We're going to try to refresh the screen.

How about now? Can't see anything, but you can hear us okay? You can hear us --

THE WITNESS: I can hear you.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Well, let's do it that way.

So the next person who will ask questions who will be a voice with no body is Representative Don Phillips, who is our vice chair.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PHILLIPS:

Q. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Kympton, a lot of people consider it a blessing if they can't see me while I talk, so you may feel the same way, if we ever personally meet or our video starts working.

Thank you for joining us this morning. I'm Don Phillips, state representative from District 138, and that means nothing to a man from New York, but it's down near Branson, if you've ever heard of Branson, Missouri.

I want to begin by just asking when the original donor list was created and Eric formed The Mission Continues in 2007, that was his baby, so to speak? Did he implement the list to begin with?

A. I'd like to clarify the question. Are you asking that I -- for me to speak to the generation of a list beginning in 2007?

Q. If you have knowledge of that. Surely somewhere in your conversation, you have knowledge of how the list originally originated. Was that something that Eric -- it seems pretty obvious to me that he probably started the list.

A. When I arrived in 2011 -- I can speak to what happened, you know, subsequent to June 2011. You know, it was a fairly regular course of action and practice for us to be in regular contact with our donors, and one of the practices that facilitated that was the generation of call lists and the generation of lists that would facilitate that outreach. And that was, in some cases, a practice that we would do weekly or monthly, and the list that was ultimately generated for that same purpose in 2011 was probably a larger list than we would have done in the past, but it was for the same purposes, and that was to contact and be -- to cultivate and steward relationships that had been built to further the work of The Mission Continues.

Q. Okay. Great. So the list has grown considerably since the list that maybe you inherited?

A. That's correct. As has the organization.

Q. Did Mr. Greitens, to your knowledge, solely run the organization from 2007 to 2011? What was his pecking order in that? Do you have any knowledge of that?

A. My knowledge was that he was the CEO from inception in 2011, up until he stepped down from the CEO role on July 4th of 2014.

Q. And there's always been a board of directors, correct, as far as you know?

A. As far as I know.

Q. Okay. Would it be fair to assume that you and Eric Greitens are friends?

A. I would characterize my relationship with Eric Greitens as a colleague. It was a professional relationship. Very limited social interaction outside of our professional relationship.

Q. Have you heard from Mr. Greitens since he became Governor Greitens?

A. I don't recall any interaction with the governor since he's stepped into office.

Q. Okay. Was there ever a time -- in your seven years of relationship with the governor, was there ever a time that you felt uncomfortable in any of the business dealings that took place in The Mission Continues?

A. No.

Q. Okay. In your seven years of relationship and knowing Mr. Greitens, do you feel like you could characterize him as trustworthy and honest, in your opinion?

A. I would have no reason to characterize Eric Greitens as anything other than trustworthy and honest, based on my interactions with him.

Q. Okay. Does he continue to have some influence over The Mission Continues currently?

A. And when you ask -- I mean, I want to clarify what you mean by "influence." Do you mean does he have any way to influence the business dealings or the focus of The Mission Continues?

Q. Yes. If he called in a favor, would it be honored?

A. Eric does not have a professional relationship with The Mission Continues. He's stepped away from our board. He will always be the founder of the organization. That's part of our organization's history and part of his history, but in terms of his influence on the organization, his ability to request favors of The Mission Continues is no different than any other donor or partner or anyone else who has been a part of our history.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay. Very good. Thank you. That's all I've got.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: Representative Mitten.

Is your screen working?

THE WITNESS: No.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Still not. How about if you let us know if the screen starts working so I'll stop asking that question.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. MITTEN:

Q. Thank you. Good morning. I don't know if your attorney here asked you to get The Mission Continues' -- I think it was -- I called it the employee manual. Do you have that on your end of the world?

A. Give us one second; we'll have it in front of us.

Okay. I have our team member handbook in front of me.

Q. Yes. That's exactly right. And I'm going to call your attention to -- hang or a second; now I'm having a hard time finding my version of it.

I think it's Section 4, page 21 where it talks about care of donor records.

A. Okay. I'm on that page.

Q. Okay. So I'm just -- I mean, if you want that take a moment to familiarize yourself with that paragraph.

So my question is just basically, based upon this employee manual, are you aware of any time when Eric Greitens returned donor lists to The Mission Continues or returned them to the files?

A. I'm sorry. I'm not sure I understand the question. Can you clarify?

Q. The second paragraph under "Care of Donor Records."

"When possible, obtain all materials from donor files and return the materials back to the files."

Are you aware that Eric Greitens or Krystal Taylor or anyone affiliated with the Greitens Group, in fact, did that with donor materials?

A. Again, just to clarify, are you asking if I'm aware that they returned the materials to our files after using them?

Q. Correct.

A. Well, first, I want to make clear that employees of the Greitens Group would not have had access -- authorized access to donor files. You know, there's --

Q. Well, I'm going to interrupt you real quickly there, because I believe that Krystal Taylor was a dual employee and would have, by virtue of that status, had access to those files.

A. Eric and Krystal were, in fact, employees of both The Mission Continues and the Greitens Group and would have been the only Greitens Group employees to have access to those files. I'm not aware of times when either Krystal Taylor or Eric Greitens would have used those files and then returned them.

Q. Okay. Are you aware of Eric Greitens or Krystal Taylor destroying donor materials or other materials obtained by The Mission Continues?

A. I'm not aware, no.

Q. Okay. When did you first become aware that Eric Greitens was running for political office?

A. I don't recall the exact date that Eric would have told me, you know, that he was running for office. I would probably peg it at that August 2015 time frame, when our discussions were around his stepping away from the board, and then I learned officially when the general public learned, subsequent to his announcement in September of 2015, that he was running for governor.

Q. Okay. Okay. And then earlier you testified that you -- nothing about your interactions with Eric Greitens would cause you to believe he was not trustworthy and honest. Would you characterize using The Mission Continues donor list for his political purposes as being trustworthy or honest?

A. I would characterize the use of any list or donor information or contact information -- anything that would fall under what we would have earlier described as confidential information -- as unauthorized by The Mission Continues and a misuse of those resources.

Q. So you -- if I get your testimony correctly, you believe that the unauthorized use of confidential information from a nonprofit corporation for political purposes as being honest?

A. No. I would constitute the use of donor information and confidential information of The Mission Continues as a misuse of our resources and against policies that The Mission Continues had established.

Q. Would you characterize using that data for political purposes as indicating the character trait of trustworthiness?

A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat the question?

Q. Would you characterize the use of The Mission Continues donor materials for political purposes as an exhibit or as -- display of the character trait of trustworthiness?

A. I would characterize the use of Mission Continues resources in that way as -- as misusing the trust of The Mission Continues.

Q. Thank you.

MS. MITTEN: No further questions.

MR. BARNES: Representative Lauer.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LAUER:

Q. Thank you, Mr. Chair. Thank you for being here -- or for being there. And I also want to thank you for your service to our country. We certainly appreciate that.

A. Thank you.

Q. When we talked about the nondisclosure statement, it appeared as though this was a very important document to your organization; is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. All right. And you said that the board wanted to have this in place. Did the board come up with a decision to initiate this agreement or to develop this agreement, or upon whose direction did this agreement begin?

A. It was a board-directed and board-initiated effort.

Q. And what was -- I know you said that you wanted to make sure that things were separate and distinct, but at that time, was there a level of concern that there might have been any crossover?

A. I think it was a -- and, again, I'm speculating and wasn't on the board at the time -- but was part of the process in developing it. It recognized the very simple fact that, you know, the CEO of The Mission Continues, a nonprofit organization, was also CEO of a for-profit organization, and this effort was focused on ensuring that those two entities remain separate and distinct.

Q. Okay. So given the fact that there was, as you just described, the for-profit and not-for-profit element with the same individual, there was a level of concern of potential conflict of interest?

A. I can't speak to the level of concern; I can only speak to what the board was focused on, which is what their responsibility in governing the organization and their focus on governance.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

Over a period of time with this donor list, is it fair to say that this may -- the list may have began in 2007, with Mr. Greitens beginning it, and then continued on as normal practice to be developed over periods of time even today?

A. I can speak to the fact that donor lists and supporter lists were a part of our development activities and the generation of those lists, and they do continue to today.

Q. And that's part of your normal practice, would be to continue to obtain donors throughout the process?

A. That's correct.

Q. And would it be your practice to receive those names from, again, as you indicated, a variety of pathways?

A. Yes.

Q. All right. And so whether they are from other authorized lists or events or wherever they might come from, there is no set or exclusive list -- or exclusive way of obtaining those names? They can come from all over?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

The Greitens Group, as I understand it, is responsible more for the for-profit side and the sales of the books; is that correct?

A. The Greitens Group, as I understood it, was a for-profit entity that was created to cover Eric Greitens' separate literary and media activities, as well as his professional speaking.

Q. And were there names -- were the names of the people who purchased books or other lists of names obtained from those events as well?

A. I'm not aware of any lists that were generated as a result of individuals who had purchased the books. As we've previously talked about, there were either speaking engagements or, you know, book tour-type events during which individuals might have demonstrated an interest in The Mission Continues as part of Eric Greitens' stories that we then were able to build relationships with in the context of The Mission Continues.

Q. Okay. The -- let's go -- in talking about the list -- and the Chair had asked about the value of the list, and we've kind of been through that discussion -- but in the nondisclosure agreement, when we're talking about the misuse or indicators for misuse, what would have been the remedy for misuse?

A. Can you -- you're speaking to the remedy --

Q. Based on the nondisclosure --

A. How we would handle the allegation of misuse?

Q. Yeah. Based on the nondisclosure agreement as the president of the organization --

MR. BARNES: Well -- hold on. Let me --

MS. LAUER: I'm sorry.

MR. BARNES: To the extent you're asking him for a legal conclusion about the legal remedy is one question, but if you're asking --

MS. LAUER: I'm asking about operational.

MR. BARNES: Operational remedy within the organization, I think, is another.

MR. AUSTIN: As opposed to this -- does this activity violate, you know, the rights to 501(c)(3) -- I mean, you did, too --

MR. BARNES: No, you're right, Kevin -- Representative, you're right.

MS. LAUER: I'm asking more about the operational side. I want to clarify that.

MR. BARNES: Okay. And you can ask the legal question, as well, but I think that might have been the source of the confusion.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) I'm sorry, sir. Let's back up, if you would.

As the president of an organization, you have a nondisclosure agreement, and should any employee violate that nondisclosure agreement, what would have internally been the remedy for that?

A. Well, if you're speaking about employee -- you know, I can't speak to the legal ramifications thereafter, but if we're speaking about an employee, it would have been viewed as an unauthorized use in express -- you know, in violation of our nondisclosure agreement and our employee handbook, as we've mentioned, and we enter, likely, into a discussion about the employee's future at The Mission Continues.

Q. Okay. So it could potentially be a disciplinary action and/or up to termination?

A. I would -- yes. I would assume so.

Q. And while we're talking about employees, it could be anyone, again, who signed a nondisclosure agreement; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. All right. And share with us -- again, I'm not looking for a specific number -- what is the -- internally, operationally, what is the impact of the misuse of this to The Mission Continues?

A. I can't speak to what that impact would be externally or internally.

Q. Do you have -- based on the information that you sent out to your donors and your partners, did you receive feedback from them as to their concern about the misuse of a list?

A. We received limited -- or near zero, you know, kind of impact or direct communications from our --

Q. I'm sorry. You're somewhat frozen, sir. Could you repeat your response?

THE WITNESS: We'll try and reconnect.

MR. BARNES: Off the record.

(A recess was taken.)

MS. LAUER: Ma'am, would you please restate what we were discussing?

(The pending question was read by the reporter.)

A. So we have been -- we've been in contact and regular interactions with some of our primary partners and donors, and this has been a distraction for The Mission Continues. We're focused on -- our mission all across the country, empowering veterans to serve their country again and find pathways for them to serve, and it has been a distraction. It's not the type of conversation, as you might imagine, that I want to have with our partners and supporters. It's been a distraction across the organization, in terms of the amount of time that we have spent preparing and cooperating with multiple investigations. We have -- as you may be aware, you know, we have been placed on an advisory notice by Charity Navigator, which has been -- which has ranked us as a four-star organization for the last three years running but have put that on hold as investigations have gone on.

So while I still firmly believe in the organizational health and governance of the organization, you know, it's been a distraction, and I'm not going to hide that fact.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) And I appreciate -- I certainly appreciate you explaining that and kind of going into more depth, and I want to clarify that my questioning of this is not for the integrity of The Mission Continues; it is just in the events that we're talking about. Is that fair?

Sir, can you hear me?

A. That's fair.

Q. Okay. Thank you. So there has been an impact, obviously, as you've just described. When -- I want to shift gears a little bit.

When you were with The Mission Continues and Krystal was with Mission Continues and Greitens Group -- as we know, that was a part time in both groups -- how did you know that there were separate and distinct roles that she was fulfilling?

A. Could you ask the question again? There was a phrase in the middle that was a bit garbled.

MS. LAUER: Okay. Would you restate that, please?

(The pending question was read by the reporter.)

A. Well, in terms of how -- knowing the distinction between the roles, you know, there were the -- there were the prescriptions [sic] that were explicit within the MOU within the Greitens Group and The Mission Continues that outlined that relationship and how we handled the different responsibilities and the -- in terms of her roles and responsibilities at The Mission Continues, it was outlined as pursuant to, you know, her role as an executive assistant and the activities that Eric's -- and time that Eric spent on Mission Continues business. In terms of her roles and responsibilities in the Greitens Group, I can't speak to those.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) Okay. And going back to the e-mails on the donor list, we discussed that Lyndsey sent an e-mail to a variety of people carbon copying you as well as Krystal Taylor and Eric Greitens on 5/19/2014, which we listed as Exhibit 17, and that was sent to Krystal Taylor at The Mission Continues; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then I have an e-mail that we have previously identified as Exhibit 3A --

MS. LAUER: I'm sorry. He may not have that.

MR. BARNES: What we've labeled as Exhibit 3A is the e-mail from January 6th, 2015, from ktaylor@greitensgroup.com to Danny Laub and Michael Hafner. I provided that to your counsel because that was the e-mail to which the list was attached. And so --

THE WITNESS: I have that list -- I have that e-mail now.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Great.

Q. (By Ms. Lauer) Okay. So then -- just to kind of put this back in framework here.

So on 5/19/14, Lyndsey sends an e-mail to ktaylor@missioncontinues with information on Exhibit 17, and then at some point on Exhibit 3A, Krystal Taylor then sends the donor list from the Greitens Group. So there's a transience at some point from ktaylor from The Mission Continues to the Greitens Group as listed in the e-mail here.

So are you familiar or do you have any insight as to how that donor list might have gotten from Mission Continues into Greitens Group through that e-mail transaction?

A. I have no idea how it would have gotten into Greitens Group e-mails, other than the fact that we sent Krystal Taylor, in her role as -- at The Mission Continues, the list, as was general practice for us to do, and as she served as Eric's adjunct and administrative assistant during the course of his time as CEO, that -- you know, as that e-mail indicates, we did send it to her in her role as executive assistant in May of 2014.

Q. And that would have been appropriate because she was part of the organization at that time, and that was an internal document; correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. Thank you. And just to clarify, has Eric Greitens -- I think Representative Phillips asked about influence that Greitens might have. To what degree might he have any association with The Mission Continues, or does he continue to reference The Mission Continues in his events and so forth? What is your knowledge of that? To what level is he --

A. I have no knowledge of whether he continues to reference The Mission Continues externally.

Q. Okay. Again, I want to thank you for your service and your help with our veterans. Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

MR. BARNES: Representative Austin.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. AUSTIN:

Q. Thank you, Mr. Chair. I'm Kevin Austin. Just a few follow-up questions. I'm going to be jumping around; I apologize for that.

If we go to Exhibit 17 --

A. I'm sorry to cut you off, but we -- it's a bit garbled, and I, unfortunately, can't understand your question.

Q. (By Mr. Austin) Let me scoot up.

I'm Kevin Austin, District 136, and I'm going to jump around a little bit, and I apologize for that.

A. It's still fairly garbled. I'm having a hard time understanding.

I think we should try to call back.

(A recess was taken.)

Q. (By Mr. Austin) We're back on record, sir.

My name is Kevin Austin, representative from District 136, and I'm going to jump around a little bit, and I apologize for that.

If we go back to Exhibit 17, that's the e-mail from Lyndsey to you and others that Representative Lauer was asking about, and it's from Lyndsey to Lori Stevens. Do you still have that front of you?

A. I do.

Q. It carbon copies you, Eric Greitens, Krystal Taylor, and then Lyndsey Hodges. If you look at that, there -- it addresses Eric Greitens twice: Once Eric Greitens with his Mission Continues e-mail and then addresses Eric Greitens the -- actually, the first time to his Gmail address. Do you know why that is?

A. My recollection is that from time to time, given Eric's travel schedule, occasionally, e-mails would pop up to him quicker if some went to his personal address. So it wasn't general practice that we would do that on all e-mails, but sometimes on more important or time-sensitive e-mails, we would also put his personal address.

Q. Okay. And then we're going to continue to jump. If we go to Exhibit 16, that's the NDA, and to follow up on some previous questioning, if we go to paragraph 4, it discusses remedies.

A. Okay. I have that in front of me.

Q. And it discusses remedies against an employee or former employee who violated this NDA, and one of the remedies is that The Mission Continues shall be entitled to adjoin the employee from the continuance thereof and may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for entry of a TRO.

Has The Mission Continues done that with regard to the list we're talking about today?

A. We have not.

Q. Has The Mission Continues done that ever in the history, as far as you know, to any employee?

A. As far as I know, we have not.

Q. How many employees are there right now for The Mission Continues?

A. I don't know an exact figure.

Q. Well, that's -- while we don't want you to speculate, I'm going to ask you to guess. That may be the same thing.

A. Okay. We have close to 70 employees nationwide.

Q. And when you first came there, how many employees were there?

A. My recollection was there was certainly under 20. Maybe on the order of 15.

Q. When you go to seek donors and cultivate them, what percentage or number of employees when you first came there were dedicated to seeking donors and then afterwards cultivating them?

A. So when I -- I was hired as chief partnership officer in 2011. That was the team that I would have managed as the team of two individuals at the time who were specifically focused on development and fundraising. I believe there was a -- an administrator-type individual, but it was roughly two or three of that 15 who were specifically focused on development of fundraising.

Q. Do you remember their names?

A. Well, Lyndsey Hodges -- at the time -- Hodges-Reichardt now was one of them, and Tony Bryan was another.

Q. And what about Eric Greitens? Did he play a role in that?

A. Well, Eric was the CEO and founder of the organization and was the chief fundraiser for the organization at the time.

Q. And I assume that you had different methods -- and marketing may be a bad term, but marketing The Mission Continues to various donors, say, smaller donors versus larger donors.

A. We were able to triage donors based on their contributions to the organization, yes.

Q. And when you had larger donors, say, those that you might hope to get a thousand-dollars-or-above donation, what employees were concentrating on those when you first got there?

A. It would have been the same. It would have been the development team, in partnership with Eric on identifying and prioritizing across that donor list.

Q. So we're talking about Lyndsey, Tony, and Eric Greitens?

A. In 2011, if that's the time frame we're talking about.

Q. And we are. And I'll ask you here in a second how that changed over time, but what was Lyndsey's role in cultivating these donors in 2011?

A. You know, my recollection is that Lyndsey was more of the, kind of, process and orchestrating the process itself, and that the cultivation and personal interaction fell more on Eric's shoulders.

Q. Okay. What was Tony's role?

A. Similar. Tony had a bit more of an external role, but, again, the lion's share was on Eric's shoulder.

Q. And then how did that change from 2011 onward?

A. Well, subsequent to my transitioning from the chief partnerships officer role, at which time both Tony and Lyndsey would have reported to me, embarked on professionalizing the development team even further, and the first step of which, as far as I remember, was hiring Lori Stevens, which is a name that you've seen on some of these e-mails, as well, as our vice president of development. And, you know, following her joining our senior team in that capacity, she built up the practices and procedures on development of fundraising even more. Our team grew larger, and, you know, our donor pipeline diversified, as well as our team.

Q. And while Eric Greitens no longer plays an active role, do you still use his image or excerpts from his books or anything like that that help in your marketing?

A. We do not.

Q. Have you ever been contacted by Michael Hafner?

A. I have not.

Q. And very early in your testimony, you were asked about evidence of permission to give written consent to use the donor list that we've been talking about. Can you tell us what you've done to search your records -- and maybe you haven't, because I know you don't know what questions you're going to be asked today.

A. What we've done to search our records for what, in particular?

Q. For -- to see if there has been any sort of written permission for the donor list that we've been talking about to be transferred from The Mission Continues to the Greitens Group?

A. No. Well, we've done internal searches of our e-mails that surrounds this list in particular, and, again, pursuant to our MOU, have not found -- and nondisclosure agreements and employee handbooks, have not found anyplace evidence that suggests that internally this list was shared in a manner that wasn't consistent with those prescriptions.

MR. AUSTIN: That's all I have. Thank you.

MR. BARNES: Representative Rhoads.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. RHOADS:

Q. Thank you, sir. My name is Shawn Rhoads. I've just got a couple of quick questions, and I think Representative Austin kind of touched on one of those real quick.

I want to send you over here to Exhibit 18 again, please, which would be the Mission Continues letter to our partners that says, "You may have read about The Mission Continues in the news lately."

A. Okay. I have the one that begins, "To our partners. You may have read about The Mission Continues in the news lately."

Q. Yes. What was the date that was sent out?

A. I don't recall the exact date, but, roughly, this would have -- this was probably two weeks ago.

Q. Okay. And so you sent this out two weeks ago. And when were you made aware that this list was possibly used?

A. Again, our first indication or allegation that we were aware of that the -- this list was out there and that others outside of The Mission Continues had it was in the summer of 2016, when a reporter contacted us with -- in possession of this list.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

And I think Representative Austin just kind of touched on this. As -- has The Mission Continues been conducting their own internal investigation into this matter?

A. Can you clarify -- are you talking about the use of the list?

Q. Yes. I'm sorry. Yeah. Being made in light of that this list was out and not kept internal, has The Mission Continues looked into this matter about the list?

A. Well, we've been looking deeply into the matter, pursuant to these investigations, and, you know, we -- again, our internal investigations over the use of the list internally and with employees, in the context of The Mission Continues, has not uncovered evidence, to my knowledge, that suggests, you know, internal misuse of the list or that the list was generated for anything other than purposes of The Mission Continues and contact of The Mission Continues partners and supporters, subsequent to a CEO transition claim that we had developed internally.

MR. RHOADS: Okay. Thank you, sir.

MR. BARNES: Representative Pierson.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERSON:

Q. Thank you, Mr. Chair. And thank you, Mr. Kympton, for your time here today.

I just have one question, and that was just to ask was there anything, as we have been at it for over an hour and a half, that you wanted to say or express to us or clarify at this point in your testimony?

A. There's nothing I'd like -- thank you for the opportunity to add that. Nothing I'd like to add or clarify, other than what I mentioned before. I mean, we are -- I have appreciated the opportunity to participate in this investigation, as you might imagine, as someone who is focused on preserving and protecting an organization whose impact we want to have nationally and whose impact we want to continue with veterans all across the country. It's important for us to present what we know and the evidence that we have that suggests and reflects our internal practices at the time, so thanks for the opportunity to do that.

MR. PIERSON: Very good. Thanks for your service, work, and time here today.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: We are back to me, and everyone is trying to wrap up here, but I am going to have a few short, I think, easy questions, and then we're going to be finished.

RE-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Does Lori Stevens still work for The Mission Continues?

A. Lori transitioned for another opportunity at the end of 2017.

Q. Do you -- where was she based?

A. In Boston.

Q. Did she leave amicably?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Lyndsey Hodges, when did she leave the organization?

A. I don't recall the exact dates. I believe it was, you know, the first half of 2014 -- or 2015, but not certain of the dates.

Q. Did she leave -- did Lyndsey Hodges-Reichardt leave the organization amicably?

A. Yes. That's how I would characterize it.

Q. Okay. And where -- does The Mission Continues maintain an e-mail list separate from the donor list?

A. Well, all of our contact information, donor or otherwise, would be contained within our Salesforce databases.

Q. Was that true in 2014 as well?

A. To the best of my recollection, yes.

Q. Are they separate databases -- as regarding -- let me clarify that question.

Is the e-mail list a separate database from the donor list?

A. No. It would be contained within the same database. There could be different levels of access based on, you know, individuals' access rights into whether or not it's donor information or contact information.

Q. Okay. Are they contained within different lists within that larger database?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. So they are not different tabs; it's just one big -- okay. It's all -- they're all merged together?

A. They would be merged together under an individual's file. So if you had -- if you were in The Mission Continues databases, your donor information might be a tab under your file; your contact information might be separate.

Q. Okay.

A. But contained within your file on the Salesforce architecture.

Q. So if a Mission Continues employee who logs into Salesforce, if they want to get the entire e-mail list, they could click on a button that says, Give me all of the e-mails?

A. I'm not a technical expert, but you -- there are reports that are generated by Salesforce, and you would have to execute a report that then pulls that information down into a usable list like an Excel file.

Q. Are you aware of any program that would -- that you could check that would make you aware of a person downloading -- running such a report?

A. I'm not aware of a program that would do that.

Q. Okay. I believe your counsel provided some documents, but I'm -- I'm not -- it's hard to go back and trace things five years into the past, so -- okay.

MR. BARNES: I have no further questions. Does anyone else have any further questions?

MR. AUSTIN: Do you want to know where Lori went to? I don't know if you want --

MR. BARNES: Do you have contact information for Lori Stevens -- I think that's a question -- we'll ask counsel if they can arrange that.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay. That's fine.

MR. BARNES: Thank you very much. We really appreciate your willingness to spend some time with us this morning.

THE WITNESS: Yeah, I appreciate the opportunity to share.

MR. BARNES: Thank you.

I move that we close Monday's hearing, which starts at noon, and it -- in the Jeff City Police Department.

All those in favor will vote yes.

MR. CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes.

MR. BARNES: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

MR. PHILLIPS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

MS. MITTEN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

MR. RHOADS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.

MR. PIERSON: Aye.

MR. BARNES: By your vote of seven aye and zero no, you have voted to close Monday's hearing at noon sharp at the Jefferson City Police Department.

And that will -- is there anything else we need to vote on?

That will close today's hearing.

(The hearing adjourned at 9:54 a.m.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I now call to order the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I now move -- well, let me say, I heard last week from Mr. Ed Dowd about a gentleman named Jack Neyens, who was the chief financial officer for The Mission Continues for a significant period of time, and a period of time that overlapped with Governor Greitens tenure at The Mission Continues.

Mr. Dowd suggested that we should talk to

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Mr. Neyens, and I think it is a good idea.

I subsequently had a conversation with Mr. Dowd this morning, who I do not believe formally represents Mr. Neyens, and we had talked earlier about him being here at eight a.m. He's coming from St. Louis. I asked if nine a.m. would probably work better.

He said he was going to get Mr. Neyens my contact information. I haven't heard from Mr. Neyens yet, but --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: For tomorrow?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: For tomorrow. He's coming from St. Louis. I don't foresee any possibility that he would rather be here at eight rather than nine.

So is the Committee okay with nine a.m. tomorrow?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: If not ten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Are we noticed up?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's take a break.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: After having made phone calls to contact the clerk's office on timing, tomorrow's hearing we are going to schedule at 12:15 in the afternoon.

It is 12:15 right now, and I move to close the hearing for tomorrow. All those in favor will vote yes.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips?
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer?
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin?
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads?
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson?
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Vote of seven ayes, zero nos. We voted to close tomorrow's hearing to start at 12:15 p.m. in this location.

Is there any other housekeeping we need to take care of?

(No response.)

LYNDSEY REICHARDT, having first been duly sworn by the Chairman, testified as follows:

QUESTIONS BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. Can you state your name for the record?

A. Lyndsey Reichardt.

Q. And, Lyndsey, is your maiden name Hodges?

A. That's correct.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Q. Okay. And so when you worked for The Mission Continues, was your name Lyndsey Hodges?

A. Most of the time.

Q. And then it was Lyndsey Hodges Reichardt?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Now it's just Lyndsey Reichardt?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Have you ever given testimony in a deposition before, Ms. Reichardt?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Just to give you a few ground rules. We are having a conversation. It is somewhat abnormal conversation because there is someone sitting right there taking notes on it.

When you answer a question, we need you to answer yes or no and not just shake your head one way or another so that we can get a record of your answer; you understand that?

A. Yes.

Q. Great. If someone asks you a question and it has multiple parts or is confusing to you in any form or fashion, please just stop them and ask them to restate the question. Because we would rather have you make sure that you understand the actual question being asked of you than to answer something vague, ambiguous or multi -- that has multi-parts to you; do you understand that?

A. I do.

Q. Okay. And if you need to stop for any reason, just let us know, okay?

A. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Counsel, would you like to state your appearance for the record?

MR. WATTS: Yes. Thank you, Mr. Barnes. Patrick Watts on behalf of Lyndsey Reichardt.

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. Okay. With that out of the way, Ms. Reichardt, when did you start working for The Mission Continues?

A. September 2009.

Q. And who hired you to work for The Mission Continues?

A. Eric Greitens.

Q. Did you know Mr. Greitens before that period of time?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was the context which you came to know him?

A. He was my professor at the University of Missouri in graduate school.

Q. And what was the context of that relationship that led to you applying for a job at The Mission Continues?

A. During part of the class he was talking about The Mission Continues as a nonprofit, and I thought the idea and the model sounded innovative.

And the last night after class, I went to talk to him and asked him about if they had any job openings, and he said he wasn't sure but for me to send him my resume', so I did.

Q. I take it then you were an outstanding student?

A. I hope so.

Q. Okay. And that's why -- that's how it -- was that in -- did you graduate then in the summer/spring of 2008?

A. No. I actually moved to St. Louis to take a job with The Mission Continues, and continued some of my graduate schooling at the University of Missouri-St. Louis and transferred those credits back to Mizzou.

Q. Oh, I get it. You already had an undergraduate degree?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were in graduate school at the University of Missouri?

A. That's correct.

Q. What was the school?

A. The School of Public Affairs, Truman School.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Q. Have you since earned your graduate degree?
A. I have.
Q. Congratulations.
A. Thank you.
Q. When did you stop working for The Mission Continues?
A. February of 2015.
Q. Would you describe that as an amicable parting?
A. Yes.
Q. And what was the reason for it?
A. Just working a lot of hours for several years, and I had just recently got married and wanted to start a family and wanted to cut back on my work hours a little bit.
Q. And what was your role with The Mission Continues?
Let me start with 2009, and then if you could describe how it grew or whether it was the same all the way through?
A. Sure. When I was first hired, I was the community outreach manager, so I was responsible for marketing and communications efforts as well as a little bit of fundraising. And then after a period of time, I was promoted to development director.
Q. And when was that?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Was it prior to 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And what did you do as the development director?

A. Basically anything related to fundraising. We had a big annual veterans' gala that I helped plan. I wrote corporate proposals for fundraising.

I worked with individual donors. I helped write appeal letters, identifying donors that would be good for Eric or other leadership members to meet with.

Q. So I think I heard -- maybe there was more than this, but I heard four different things there. And I want to take each of them and give you an idea of where I'm going.

One was work with individual donors; two, you identified donors; three, you worked with appeals to corporations I guess for donations; and four is you said something about foundation?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Well, let's take each of these in turn. I'm going to start with identifying donors. What do you mean by you worked to identify donor? What did that process look like and what were your tasks?

A. So people would come to us because they were interested in learning more about veteran issues or more about Eric, and would make a small donation to The Mission Continues.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

And I would help set up meetings with people that I thought might have more potential to give larger gifts or to contribute more to The Mission Continues.

Q. Okay. So you get a donation, a hundred dollars from an individual, and as donations are coming in, are you looking at, even at those small dollar amounts, who the individuals are?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you noticed that John Doe, or let's say Jane Doe is the CEO of a public traded corporation and she gave a hundred dollars, right, would that be -- is that the type of thing you're looking for to identify whether they are the type of donor that has capacity to give more?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then did you do that on a frequent basis?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you describe what that process was, how frequent it was?

A. Every time somebody made a donation online, I received an e-mail that showed me who that person was and the amount that they gave.

And I was also responsible in the beginning for helping opening the mail and seeing what types of checks were coming in.

So as I -- I would always prepare a list of donors that came in to share with the organizations' leadership.

So sometimes it would be me identifying who I thought might be a good prospect, and other times it would be the leadership looking at the list to see if they knew any of the names of those people.

Q. And did you make -- was it common practice for you to call anyone who made a donation over a certain amount to thank them and --

A. Yes. We had a practice at The Mission Continues where we called every donor regardless of the amount on typically a quarterly basis to thank them for their gift. And that involved all the staff.

So we would prepare a list and give it to -- give it amongst staff members and give them notes about that gift, and then have them call and thank those donors.

Q. And this was a shared responsibility?

A. The development team was responsible for creating the list, but it was part of the whole organization's responsibility to thank the donors.

Q. How were donors directed to -- you mentioned

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Internet donations, did The Mission Continues use money to advertise on Google AdWords or Facebook or anything of that nature to get potential donors to come to their web page?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Okay. So it would be more natural search engines for other events that would lead people to The Mission Continues website; is that a fair statement?

A. I think so.

Q. Okay. You said you worked with individual donors, obviously some of that is what we just talked about with identifying them, creating lists for members of the organization, calling them yourself; did you call them yourself?

A. Some of them, yes.

Q. Okay. What other types of things would you do to work with individual donors?

A. Sometimes I would go have coffee or lunch with them, tell them about the organization's plans and how we were growing, and assess their interest in being more involved with the organization.

Q. Were you responsible for gaining donors who donated in excess of a thousand dollars?

A. Yes.

Q. Was that -- were there dozens of them, hundreds of them? Can you give an estimate as to the frequency with which you would have those types of meetings?

A. I don't remember. Initially I met with more people, but as the organization grew, the leadership members above me would take those meetings.

Q. And by other leadership members above me, who are you referring to?

A. Spencer Kympton, who is now the president; Lori Stevens, who was my boss; Meredith Knopp, she was the vice president of programs.

Q. And Mr. Greitens himself?

A. Yes.

Q. Of those five, would you say that one of them did the bulk of these meetings?

A. No.

Q. Can you describe for us what you believe the breakdown would be of responsibility for such a meeting?

A. I think it would depend on where the meetings were. Lori was located in Boston, and Spencer in New York, and Meredith in St. Louis, so it just would depend on where the donors lived and their proximity to that staff person and what their travel was.

Q. So Spencer -- and did Eric go between all three, amongst all three? I'm sorry, Mr. Greitens go amongst all three?

A. Can you clarify what you mean?

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Q. Well, you listed Boston for Lori Stevens, New York for Spencer Kympton and St. Louis for Meredith Knopp, and then you did not mention Mr. Greitens.

And so the question is: Did Mr. Greitens have a geographic base or was he sort of the free-floater that went to multiple places?

A. That's correct. He traveled all over the country.

Q. Did you have any experience with nonprofit organizations before going to work for The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. And who were those org-- which of those organizations?

A. Before The Mission Continues I was previously employed at the American Cancer Society. Before that employment I was involved as a volunteer with a number of those nonprofit organizations throughout high school and college.

Q. And what did you do at the American Cancer Society?

A. Fundraising there. I primarily helped plan Relay For Life fundraising events.

Q. Is -- let me back up to planning the banquet in St. Louis.

A. Yes.

Q. You planned the banquet?

A. It was a team effort, but yes, I led that.

Q. And how did you identify sponsors for tables?

A. Some of them identified themselves. We put together a sponsorship packet and went to companies. And we also had a leadership committee comprised of individual volunteers who would help us identify corporations who might want to sponsor tables and individuals who might want to purchase tickets.

Q. Who was on that leadership committee?

A. [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted]. Those are the names I can remember right now.

Q. Three years later that is a phenomenal answer to that question.

A. That gala took up a lot of my life.

Q. Okay. And so was Mr. Greitens on the leadership committee?

A. He was not.

Q. Did he work with -- obviously he worked with the leadership committee some?

A. Some, yes.

Q. Okay. But the leadership committee was responsible for identifying these table donors and corporate givers?

A. Yes.

Q. And was that limited to St. Louis or did that go broader than St. Louis?

A. Broader than St. Louis.

Q. And so when the leadership committee identifies a corporate donor, did they also identify a potential individual donor?

A. Yes.

Q. When they identify a corporate donor or an individual donor, what was the next process?

A. So the sponsorship packet that I told you about identified both sponsorship opportunities, an individual ticket, and those committee members would typically do the solicitations themselves.

In fundraising it works better if somebody who has a personal relationship asks you for money versus the organization.

They would also provide us with names for the invitation list.

Q. Were there individuals who, and corporations, who donated more than a thousand dollars to The Mission Continues for whom Mr. Greitens was not primarily responsible for their first introduction to The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. How frequent would you say that was an occurrence?

A. I'm not sure that I can answer that.

Q. Okay. Would you say that the majority of the people were -- I'll get there. Let me ask it a different way.

Did you have daily contact with Mr. Greitens in your work for The Mission Continues?

A. No.

Q. How would you describe your contact and your relationship with Mr. Greitens when you worked at The Mission Continues?

MR. WATTS: Can -- can -- I'm sorry. Can you break that down, because that's very broad?

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. How often did you have contact with him when you were with The Mission Continues?

And, again, you start in 2009, you went to 2015. Sort of can you give it in the terms of starting in 2009 as you moved forward?

A. Yes. In the beginning it was probably more frequent because we had a smaller staff, and I was the primary development person that was reporting to him.

As the organization grew and we had more people,

I had less direct contact with him over the years. We would try to have weekly meetings, but again, that depended on his travel and his schedule.

Q. Was his travel for The Greitens Group ever a point of contention with people who worked for The Mission Continues?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. You said you would try to have weekly meetings. What would you say your batting average was of actually having said weekly meetings?

A. I don't remember. That was so long ago.

Q. Okay. That's fair.

(EXHIBIT NO. 19 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I have placed in front of you what has been labeled as Exhibit 19.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Everyone on the Committee should have this in front of them. This was a document that was included in the document production from The Mission Continues. Make sure we're all working from the same page.

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. It's from Eric Greitens, egreitens@themissioncontinues to TMC Staff. It starts: Team, it's good to be back from sabbatical.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Have you had the opportunity to review this e-mail?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. Do you recognize this e-mail?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember receiving it at some point in time?

A. Yes.

Q. And was it approximately April of 2014 when you received it?

A. Yes.

Q. What were your thoughts when you first received this e-mail?

A. Can you clarify what you mean by that?

Q. Yeah. Were you -- first of all, do you remember, were you at the office on Thursday, April 24th, because I think there's a later e-mail that indicates you might not have been there on April 24th?

A. I got married on April 26th, so I don't think I was in the office.

Q. You were planning?

A. Yes.

Q. Planning accordingly?

Okay. But you did get this at some point --

A. Yes.

Q. -- thereafter; is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And did Mr. Greitens' decision to leave The Mission Continues trigger any preparation by the development team?

A. Yes.

Q. And what were those preparations?

A. Anytime there is a big leadership change within an organization it's standard fundraising practice to take your top donor and let them know about that change.

Q. And so do you recall the plan put together to notify top donors of the change in the organization?

A. After seeing this e-mail, yes.

(EXHIBIT NO. 13 WAS PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I'll now direct your attention to what's marked as Exhibit 13. Do you recall receiving this e-mail?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was the development team's plan for the transition?

A. Essentially to identify our top donors and let them know that Eric was going to be leaving the organization in a few months, and that the organization is in good hands with Spencer Kympton, the new president.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Q. And was that the purpose of Lori Stevens sending this e-mail?

A. Yes.

Q. And was that the purpose of Ms. Stevens including the attachments to this e-mail with it?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there any alternative purpose to providing Mr. Greitens the full list of The Mission Continues donors who had given over a thousand dollars?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Let me give you two perspectives that the Committee has heard and just ask your general thoughts.

So we've heard one point of view was that this e-mail, the attachment thereto were kind of as you've described, which is part of an overall plan for the development team to transition and to create a proactive communications plan. I would call that perspective A.

Perspective B is that it was for transition and also for Mr. Greitens own use because these were his contacts, his friends, his family, his family members and his colleagues, and it would be good to have a reference list for him to get in touch with them in the future.

From the perspective as a person on the development team at The Mission Continues, which of those two competing thoughts is closer to the truth; the one that says this was part of a transition or the one that says it was part of a transition and this was Mr. Greitens' list?

A. In my opinion, the first option. This is part of a transition.

Q. And the transition only?

A. Yes.

Q. Were employees of The Mission Continues generally aware at this time in the spring of 2014 of Mr. Greitens' plan to run for office?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you know if there was any expressed consent from anyone at The Mission Continues for Mr. Greitens to use this list of donors over $1,000 for political purposes?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you know if there was any implied consent from anyone at The Mission Continues that Mr. Greitens could use this list for political purposes?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Another witness before this Committee testified that they remembered you expressing some concerns about providing Mr. Greitens with The Mission Continues list. Do you recall orally expressing those to anyone at the time?

A. I don't remember that.

(EXHIBIT NO. 17 WAS PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I'll now direct your attention to Exhibit 17. Do you recognize this?

A. After seeing it in front of me, yes.

Q. And what is this?

A. I had been gone on my wedding and honeymoon, and when I returned, I looked at the previous list that Lori provided to make sure that there were -- everybody we needed to contact to let them know about Eric's transition.

Q. And I see in here it says, the second -- no, I'm sorry, the third sentence says: Additionally, I went through the thousand-dollar-plus list and flagged donors that you might want to consider calling.

Do you recall doing that?

A. I don't.

Q. But if you say that in this e-mail at the time, do you believe you, in fact, did it?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. Okay. To your recollection did the development team track the calls that Mr. Greitens made in relation to this transition?

A. I'm not sure.

(EXHIBIT NO. 16 WAS PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I would like to direct you now to Exhibit 16, and there is no reason for you to recognize this particular document, because you did not sign this document, but do you recall ever signing a nondisclosure agreement with The Mission Continues?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. And was it substantially similar, if not identical, to this nondisclosure agreement in front of you today?

A. I believe so.

Q. Did you have -- go back to the list. Did you have family, friends or acquaintances who donated more than a thousand dollars to the list?

A. No.

Q. And where did you go after working for The Mission Continues?

A. I worked at a nonprofit called Justine Peterson.

Q. It's called Justine Peterson?

A. Yes.

Q. And what type of -- what's their general field?

A. It's a nonprofit organization that provided micro-lending so that people in poverty could avoid Payday loans.

Q. Did you use The Mission Continues $1,000-plus donors' list when you moved to Justine Peterson?

A. No.

Q. Why not?

A. I'm not sure that I had the list.

Q. If you had the list, would you have used it?

A. No.

Q. Why not?

A. It's typical practice in fundraising not to take donors from one organization to the next unless you specifically have developed a friendship with them outside of the donation.

Q. What about use of the list?

A. Can you clarify what you mean?

Q. Taking a document from one organization and using it in a subsequent organization for which you worked to identify donors?

MR. WATTS: Can you restate that? I'm not --

THE WITNESS: Yeah.

MR. WATTS: Can you just restate the total question so it's all in one piece?

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. In the nonprofit world, is it appropriate for a person in a fundraising role to take a list of donors from one organization and use it to identify the potential donors to a separate entity which they are now working?

A. Not unless the donors are interested in that topic.

Q. Does it involve seeking permission from the prior organization?

A. I don't know.

Q. Okay. And do you still work for Justine Peterson?

A. I do not.

Q. Whom do you work now for?

A. Oasis.

Q. And is that another nonprofit?

A. It is.

Q. Do you still work in fundraising?

A. I do.

Q. To your knowledge -- I'm going to change gears here.

To your knowledge did The Mission Continues ever purchase Mr. Greitens' books?

A. I don't think so.

Q. To your knowledge did The Mission Continues ever pay for travel expenses for Mr. Greitens for activity that was not related to The Mission Continues?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you know a person named Michael Hafner?

A. I do not.

Q. You never met with Michael Hafner?

A. I did not.

Q. And to your knowledge did you ever speak with Michael Hafner on the telephone?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Did you have any contact with Mr. Greitens' Campaign For Governor?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was the nature of that contact?

A. When I worked at Justine Peterson, I was not happy with my job, and I went to talk to Eric. He let me know he had a fundraising position open, but we decided that I had a baby due in a few weeks and that having a newborn and working on a campaign was probably not the smartest decision.

Q. When approximately was that?

A. Probably April or May of 2015.

Q. Did you have any communications with anyone else at the campaign other than that? Was this a single meeting that you had with Mr. Greitens?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Did you have any communications with anyone else on the campaign?

A. Yes.

Q. And who was that?

A. Meredith Gibbons.

Q. Okay. When were those communications? When were those communications and what were the nature of those communications?

A. My boss at Oasis knew Meredith's family and knew that I used to work with Eric and suggested that I go meet her and give her some suggestions about working with Eric.

Q. When was that?

A. Fall of 2016 I think, or '15 maybe.

Q. There's a pretty big difference between the two of those.

A. I don't -- I don't remember.

Q. You don't recall. Okay. Do you recall the nature of your advice?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was that?

A. I -- I told Meredith that Eric likes updates, and to always be over-prepared for every meeting.

Q. Did Ms. Gibbons speak to you at all about the list from The Mission Continues of donors who gave more than a thousand dollars?

A. She had a donor list, but I don't know if it was that same list.

Q. When you say she had a donor list, what do you mean?

A. Meredith provided me with a list of people that

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

Eric was considering asking for money for the campaign.

Q. How big was that list?

A. I don't remember.

Q. And what did she ask about the people on that list?

A. She asked if any of them would be good prospects.

(EXHIBIT NO. 3 WAS PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I'm handing you what's marked as Exhibit 3. If you could flip beyond that first page, there's a list attached here.

The second page is an e-mail to which The Mission Continues 1K-plus list is attached. And then the third page -- starting on the third page are the -- is The Mission Continues list as been identified by other witnesses. If you could take a moment to look at that?

MR. WATTS: Do you want us to look at the second attachment as well?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's the second attachment is the foundation.

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I'm not going to go through line by line and ask you about these folks, but do you recognize any names? Is this what the list that Ms. Gibbons spoke to you about looked like?

A. I don't remember honestly.

MR. WATTS: Can you break that question down into two questions?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

MR. WATTS: Listen to the question.

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. Do you -- is this what the list Ms. Gibbons showed you looked like?

A. I don't know.

Q. Was it in an Excel spreadsheet format?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember any of the individuals whose names she asked you about?

A. No.

Q. Did Ms. Gibbons -- did the campaign reach out to you through -- to you for this meeting?

A. No.

Q. They reached out to your boss?

A. No.

Q. I'm trying to figure out how it got to you. Your boss of Oasis was friends with the Gibbons family?

A. Correct.

Q. And your boss said, hey, I'm friends with the Gibbons family, you used to work for Mr. Greitens, now

Meredith Gibbons works for him, would you be willing to go meet with her?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know who contacted your boss to make that --

A. I don't know that anybody did.

Q. How was it learned that Ms. Gibbons was working for Greitens?

A. I don't know.

Q. You don't know. It was just your boss said, hey, I've got this family friend who's now working for him, would you be willing to go talk to her?

A. Yes.

Q. So --

MR. WATTS: Can we identify her boss so we make sure we're discussing the correct individual?

THE WITNESS: Brett Heinrich is his name.

MR. WATTS: Okay. I just don't want any confusion on the record.

BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. And so someone -- someone likely talked to Mr. Heinrich first about the fact that Ms. Gibbons worked there?

A. I don't know.

Q. You don't know. Do you remember approximately how long the list of donors was that they wanted to talk about?

A. With Meredith?

Q. With Meredith. Not -- I'm sorry -- that she asked you about?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Do you recall how long the meeting was?

A. An hour. We went to lunch.

Q. And did you say -- had she just recently been hired on to the campaign; is that correct?

A. I believe so.

Q. That might help us nail down the year. Outside the context of your testimony, you can't recall whether it was 2015 or 2016, but when she started on the campaign is a more easily verifiable date.

Do you recall any further conversations with Ms. Gibbons?

A. No.

Q. Did you have any further contact with anyone from the campaign?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So now this is definitely one way this is not like a deposition, because there are seven people asking questions.

And so you're not surprised as we go through, but the order we're going to go is our vice chairman, our ranking member, and then we're going to go in order of legislative seniority and then down the table.

A. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Phillips?

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS:

Q. I'm state representative Don Phillips, District 138, which is Kimberling City, is where I live near Table Rock Lake.

I'm going to totally switch gears on you here.

A. Okay.

Q. In the years that you worked with Mr. Greitens, would it be fair to say that you got to know him pretty well as a person?

A. I think that's fair.

Q. Okay. And did it come as a surprise to you when the news broke that Mr. Greitens had been involved in an extramarital affair?

A. I don't think I had any opinion about that either way.

Q. Okay. And if I understood you right, you were single at the time that you first started working with him; is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. Was there ever a time that he was anything but professional and business-like in his relationship with you as a single woman?

A. No.

Q. In your work time with Mr. Greitens, would you say that he was a person that you would characterize as honest and trustworthy?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Thank you. That's all I've got.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you. Hopefully I just have a couple here.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. Hi. I'm Gina Mitten.

A. Hi.

Q. I'm from the St. Louis area. And I apologize, some of this might be things you've already testified about, but maybe something in the record wasn't clear, so it piqued my curiosity.

First of all, did you ever have an issue or are you aware of there ever being any issues within The Mission Continues about how The Mission Continues accounted for Mr. Greitens' salary or bonus or any sort of accounting issues?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Okay. Did Mr. Greitens ever ask you to change how any compensation or bonus he was received was accounted for, like for instance, anticipation of an annual audit?

A. Not to me.

Q. Did you sign a nondisclosure agreement with The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did you sign a nondisclosure agreement with your -- you've had two subsequent not-for-profit employers. I'm going to start all over again on this question.

You've had -- you've worked -- did you sign a nondisclosure agreement with the second -- was it Justine Peterson?

A. No.

Q. Did you sign a nondisclosure agreement with Oasis?

A. No.

Q. Have you had any conversations with Mr. Greitens regarding your testimony here today?

A. No.

Q. Have you had any conversations with anybody currently affiliated with The Mission Continues about your testimony here today?

A. No.

Q. Have you had any conversations with anybody formerly affiliated with The Mission Continues about your testimony here today?

A. Yes.

Q. Who would that be?

A. Krystal Taylor, Krystal Proctor.

Q. Could you just briefly describe for the Committee what that discussion entailed?

A. Just that I had to testify.

Q. Okay. Nothing specific?

A. No.

Q. Nothing about the questions that she was asked or --

A. No.

Q. You've testified that The Mission Continues never purchased any books authored by Eric Greitens; is that a fair characterization?

A. To my knowledge, no.

Q. I understand. Are you aware of whether books authored by Eric Greitens were ever donated to The Mission Continues?

A. I'm not sure.

Q. Okay. You just don't know?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Are you aware of whether The Mission Continues ever reimbursed anyone for purchases of books authored by Eric Greitens?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Did The Mission Continues ever have involvement in book signings or book signing events that Mr. Greitens would participate in?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Just that you're not aware?

A. I'm not aware.

Q. And you didn't do the accounting for The Mission Continues?

A. Correct.

Q. So it's possible that you wouldn't know?

A. Correct.

Q. Were you aware of the joint -- apparently -- I can't get this out. I'm sorry. It's Monday morning.

A. You're fine.

Q. I'm not on my game.

Were you aware of any, The Mission Continues, joint meetings between The Mission Continues and The Greitens Group? Did they have, like, regular Friday meetings?

A. Can you clarify what you mean?

Q. Are you aware of whether The Mission Continues and The Greitens Group had joint meetings?

A. We would have meetings to try and maximize Eric's travel if he was going to a city for one cause. We would try to figure out if there was a way we could build in extra meetings and make the most out of the trip.

Q. And would that typically happen -- I'm going to -- again, it's Monday morning. I am sorry.

This Committee has heard testimony that generally speaking Mr. Greitens would book a speaking engagement and then reach out, perhaps through Krystal or perhaps through somebody else, to The Mission Continues in order to, as you said, maximize that travel and find it a Mission Continues related meeting also in the same town; is that a fair characterization?

A. Yes.

Q. And it typically happened -- this speaking engagement was sort of the horse before the cart, so to speak; is that a fair characterization?

A. I'm not sure.

Q. Well, in other words, the way it was described to us is that if The Mission Continues had a donor say in Houston that they wished Mr. Greitens to reach out to, it would be difficult for Mr. Greitens to then build a speaking arrangement around that Mission Continues meeting? Does that make sense?

A. Yes. I think he did both travel for his speaking engagements and for The Mission Continues, sometimes separately and sometimes together.

Q. Right. But if they were combined -- in other words, if he were to go to a city and would involve himself in both a speaking engagement on behalf of The Greitens Group and a meeting on behalf of The Mission Continues, would it be -- it would be the speaking engagement that sort of drove that trip; is that a fair characterization?

A. I don't know.

Q. You don't know, okay. Are you aware of The Mission Continues then paying for his travel expenses if he were to -- if Mr. Greitens were to go to a city for a speaking engagement and then also meet The Mission Continues' donor?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did you discuss any of The Mission Continues' donors with Meredith Gibbons?

A. No.

Q. Did you discuss donors of The Mission Continues with anybody else associated with the Greitens For Missouri?

A. No.

Q. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No further questions.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. Thank you for being here today.

A. Thank you.

Q. When you were with The Mission Continues -- we know there was a time where Ms. Taylor worked part-time with The Mission Continues and part-time with The Greitens Group. And were you -- were you working with The Mission Continues during that time when there was dual roles?

A. Yes.

Q. And what -- how would you -- how were the -- how were the roles clearly defined so that you knew she was wearing one hat versus another?

A. Can you clarify what you mean?

Q. How did you know when she was working in the role of The Mission Continues versus the role of The Greitens Group, because you're all in the same office, same --

A. Right.

Q. -- facility and so forth?

A. I think a lot of the business intermingled, so I would just communicate with her about Mission Continues items.

Q. Okay. And I appreciate your saying that, because that kind of goes around in my mind that there was a lot of overlap between the two, because you had events scheduled which were coordinated together. And, of course, you had the books selling along with the speaking arrangements, right?

A. Correct.

Q. And so how else did you see those overlapping? What sort of efforts were you working on collaborative with her in the other role?

A. Krystal organized Eric's travel, so primarily it was my job and my colleague's job to ensure whenever Eric was going somewhere that we were maximizing that opportunity, whether it was a trip or an event in St. Louis, so . . .

Q. Okay. And then The Greitens Group, as I understand it, was the for-profit organization?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And then were you in that -- in The Mission Continues when Greitens For Missouri was developed?

A. I'm not sure when it was developed.

Q. Okay. Were you familiar with that as to --

A. I left in February of 2015, so . . .

Q. And were you familiar with anything about it being developed or was developed?

A. I was not familiar with that.

Q. All right. And so when the -- I realize there was a formal announcement as to his run for governor that was more official, but to what degree was there discussion about that prior to, even before Greitens For Missouri when it was Greitens Group and maybe even into The Mission Continues?

A. I don't know.

Q. All right. So looking at the donor list, going back to that, you sent the e-mail to Ms. Taylor and -- well, you sent it to Lori Stevens, Exhibit 17?

A. Yes.

Q. And then a bunch of people are copied on there, including Eric Greitens and K. Taylor. So those were all individuals that at the time they were within the confines of The Mission Continues' roles and responsibilities?

A. Yes.

Q. So how -- in another e-mail we see that K. Taylor uses her Greitens Group e-mail with the list. So to what degree are you familiar with how she may have gotten the list from The Mission Continues e-mail into Greitens Group e-mail?

A. I'm not familiar with that.

Q. Okay. Hindsight is always great. In looking back now that there has been a decision that there was an ethics violation and fine and so forth, were you involved in that at all?

A. Involved in what?

Q. In gathering data or speaking in regards to ethics violation against him?

A. No, I was not.

Q. Were you gone then?

A. I'm -- I don't know. I don't think I was asked to --

Q. You were not asked to participate in that?

A. Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And, Representative, you're speaking of the Missouri Ethics Commission?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Right. Yeah. I'm sorry. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You never testified before the Missouri Ethics Commission?

THE WITNESS: That's correct, I did not.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. Looking back on -- again, hindsight looking back, were there ever times when you felt that there were inappropriate actions being taken in regards to donor lists or use of information from The Mission Continues and other groups?

A. No.

Q. Looking back, were you aware of any -- or could you see any inappropriate actions that Mr. Greitens might have taken which could have had an impact on The Mission Continues, Greitens Group or any other group?

A. No.

Q. So there was no -- there was no underlying information that was going around that could potentially be detrimental --

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. -- to him or his group?

In looking back, were there ever any times when you felt that information was not being transparent?

A. No.

Q. Are you familiar with New Missouri?

A. No.

Q. And you did say that you signed a nondisclosure agreement?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And what is your understanding of how that would have been handled should there have been -- would have been a misuse where someone did not comply with the nondisclosure?

A. I'm not sure I understand what you're asking.

Q. What was -- what was your understanding -- by signing the nondisclosure agreement, what was your understanding of what would happen if you did not comply with that?

A. I would have to read it over again. It's been so long since I've signed it.

Q. Was there any discussion in the office about the nondisclosure agreement?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was that discussion about?

A. I don't remember. That was a long time ago.

Q. All right. I think that's everything. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I'm Kevin Austin, District 136 and I have no questions.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I have no questions.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Pierson?

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON:

Q. I'm Tommie Pierson, State Representative for the 66th District in St. Louis County. Thank you for being here. I wanted to just take you back to the meeting with Ms. Gibbons.

A. Yes.

Q. And you said it was over lunch?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall the topic of discussion over lunch?

A. I think I answered that for Representative Barnes. She was asking me about general advice on working with Eric, and if there were any specific people that I thought that he should meet with?

Q. Were you able to direct her to some specific people?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Did she show you any specific names to ask any specifics about if this person is a good person versus this person is a bad person or those types of questions?

A. She did share a list with me, but I don't remember what was on it.

Q. Do you have any knowledge of Ms. Gibbons heeding any of your advice from that lunch conversation?

A. I don't, no.

Q. So you had a wedding?

A. I did.

Q. Mr. Greitens make your invite list?

A. He did, but I don't think he was able to attend.

Q. Okay. So you've been working with fundraising subsequently and prior to your time at The Mission Continues?

A. That's correct.

Q. And then I think you may have alluded to, is it common practice to share the lists between organizations?

A. No.

Q. And seeing several lists, would you be able to put any value to the list that you used at The Mission Continues?

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

A. No.

Q. Would you say it was a valuable list?

A. Can you clarify what you mean?

Q. Would you say that any of the subsequent organizations that you have worked with would be eager to get their hands on such a list?

A. Not necessarily. Donors typically tend to support certain types of organizations. Just because they support one nonprofit doesn't necessarily mean they will support another.

Q. Very good. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. I want to ask you just a few more questions.

A. Okay.

Q. You said Ms. Gibbons had a list with her?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall anything about this list? Was it more than one page?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember if you recognized any of the names on the list?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Do you remember where you recognized the names on the list from?

A. There is only one name that I can recall from the list.

Q. And who was that?

A. [redacted].

Q. Was he a Mission Continues person identified as a donor to The Mission Continues?

A. Yes.

Q. Large donor?

A. $10,000.

Q. Other than [redacted] do you remember any other names that were discussed?

A. I do not.

Q. And what do you recall about [redacted] in terms of -- was that a person that you helped cultivate?

A. Yes.

Q. Above and beyond any other person at The Mission Continues you were the cultivator of for The Mission Continues?

A. He typically gave us $10,000, and one year he gave us $10, so I called him.

And he said, you guys never told me what you did with my money.

And so I went and had coffee with him and shared some stories of what he had helped support hoping that we could bring him back as a donor, and we were able to do that.

Q. And that's one of the reasons why everyone we have talked to has said good things about you as an employee of The Mission Continues.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Rhoads?

QUESTION BY REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS:

Q. Just one quick question. Was he a Missouri resident?

A. Yes.

Q. Nothing further.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. All right. And I think I already asked this: You don't remember any other names from that list?

A. I do not. I'm sorry.

Q. Okay. Thank you. If there are no further questions --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. You said you cultivated him, but you kind of brought him back into the fold was your role?

A. Yes.

Q. Who originally brought him in?

A. I don't know.

Q. You don't know?

A. Huh-huh.

Q. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Try again. Seeing no further questions, thank you for being here this afternoon. I know that you've got a lot of things that you would rather be doing than sitting here on the day after Easter when it feels like the day after Christmas. We appreciate you making the time. Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

MR. WATTS: Mr. Barnes, before we go off the record, I'm not sure if this is a request I need to make or if this is an automatic, but to the extent possible my client requests that this record remain confidential and nonpublic to the extent that that is possible.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will -- we will do our best in that regard.

MR. WATTS: Very good. Just so the request is out there to the extent it needed to be made by us.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Thank you.

MR. WATTS: Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Before we go off the record, I want to make sure we don't have any other housekeeping matters.

9f6cdb04-a667-420c-b113-0c0809273f49

We've got tomorrow cleared.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Did we vote to close it?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We voted to close.

That shall conclude today's hearing of the --

Hold on. Hold on. Does anyone have further items to discuss today?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Are we on the record or off the record?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're on the record.

Seeing none, that will so conclude today's hearing of this Committee.

P R O C E E D I N G S

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I call to order this meeting of the House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Everyone is here and accounted for.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That was seven people; we are all here.

I want this meeting to be about process, and we, as I see it -- and others can weigh in. I think we really have two process questions in front of us. One is, how to go about the redactions. And the second is, how to go about the report. And so let's start with redactions.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

And for the record, a combination of myself, Vice-Chairman Phillips, ranking member Mitten, and counsel -- both of our counsels here, both Alexes, have gone through a number of the transcripts and made or suggested redactions to those transcripts which we've gone through.

Representative Mitten now has the full -- she has the most fancy software for redaction purposes. She's currently working on them now.

And do you want to give an update on where you are?

And then let's talk about how we're going to go about the rest of the process.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So Witness 1 is done; however, I actually made -- the redactions are actually made electronically. So we will print out that transcript, and the transcript -- I'm going to maybe start all over again.

What I did with Witness 1 was, we had a printout of the transcript, redactions were highlighted. I have made all of those redactions electronically. Based upon our discussion, I guess it was yesterday, I understand that some members may not feel comfortable with all of that. So this afternoon, I will have printed a copy of the actual redacted transcript, and already in the Chief Clerk's office is the original printout with the highlights. And those are in a mini-script format.

I am right now, for the spouse of Witness 1 and for -- well, I guess, frankly, it's for Witnesses 2 and 3, because we did Witnesses 2 and 3 on the same day. I am, as we speak, going through and electronically marking those redactions. I should finish that sometime this afternoon, and we will print that out. And how it will show up is, as just a box around whatever.

And then, again, once the Committee decides or doesn't decide that everything is okay, then I will electronically make the actual redactions. And what that would do is, it just makes what is now a box around the word become a red box that covers the entire word. And I just think that that's the process to go through with the rest of them as well.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Just philosophically, are we keeping the documents as they are? We're not taking anything -- we're not exempting any documents, we're keeping the documents as they are and covering them, as you're saying?

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So it is as is, the document with the redactions?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: With the blackout marks.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. So there are no documents that are excluded?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No documents that are excluded.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: After we get done with these transcripts of the hearings, then we need to go through the documents themselves.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Which I think are much easier. For example, The Mission Continues list is just going to be 24 pages of blackout. But I think yesterday we talked about did we need to have the document, itself, in the record, even if it's -- 99 percent of it is blacked out.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I mean, I could show you right now, just since I have my laptop. Let me go up to --

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So what I would -- here's what I propose.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, I mean, I could show you witness -- but it'll -- just so that you see -- you'll understand what it will look like when you look, you know. We'll print it out and that's what you're going to see. It's just a box around the word. And then assuming that that word is something that the Committee agrees should be -- or that name, is what that is, is something the Committee agrees should be redacted in all instances, then I just push the button and it just does it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So I think, based on discussions I've had with others, that our biggest potential disagreement on redactions is with Witness 1, regarding certain things about her ex-husband. I think what we can do is, save that debate and discussion for a formal time period in which everyone has had a chance to go through all of the documents.

What I would suggest is, Representative Mitten will get these documents into the Chief Clerk's office.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And keep them in one file.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Everyone will have an opportunity to review. And as you note things that you disagree with, write them down. Let's distribute them amongst the Committee so we can know before our special redaction meeting exactly what we're going to be talking about redacting. Is everyone in agreement on general --

GROUP RESPONSE: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And that would be true for exhibits, as well as transcripts. And I think I gave -- not I think, I know I gave Bryan all of the exhibits and asked him to create pdfs of them --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- for purposes -- oh, there you are.

MR. SCHEIDERER: The green folders. Now, we haven't scanned them yet, but I went through them this morning. They all 19 should be in there ready to go if you're -- if he wants them all scanned.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So they're ready to be scanned?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, so let's go ahead and scan these and then start the redaction process on them.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

MR. SCHEIDERER: So do you want me to get you, like, a pdf file to go through, or do you want me to print it out for you and see -- what do you want exactly?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's do --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think that we should have individual pdf files for each individual exhibit.

MR. SCHEIDERER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Don't print them, just scan them, because then once I do those markings, once I make the red box around it, then we're going to have to print them again, so --

MR. SCHEIDERER: Okay. I can get you, like, a -- on a USB key, something like that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep, that's perfect. Perfect.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And no appendices to transcripts for anything, because they will have to redact things from the appendices, and based -- because it's in alphabetical order.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. No indexes.

MR. SCHEIDERER: No index. Okay. It's really just to that Exhibit 1 there on that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, but it's also in all the transcripts.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We have to get rid of all the exhibits.

MR. SCHEIDERER: Okay. All right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I mean, all of the indexes to the exhibits and to the transcripts.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: So that would be a deletion, not redaction on the indices.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, the indices will be a deletion, not a redaction.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And honestly, let's, you know -- I agree, I don't think that the index -- I mean, in the legal world, I don't know that the indexes are even part of the official record anyway, so I don't feel like it's so much of a deletion as it's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, it's not part of the official record. It's not evidence.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I'm not even sure -- right.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's not evidence, it's just an index. It's a convenience that, in order to ensure that the redactions are --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I agree. Just wanted to

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

be clear on what the process was for the indices.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Then you still have Witness 4 to do as well.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Then I still have Witness 4 to do for -- for the allegations regarding the extra-marital affair.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: When is -- The Mission Continues should be --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It’s a lot easier, but there are things in those transcripts that are going to be --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There are going to be --

COUNSELOR HALLEN: But not nearly as -- not nearly as much.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. I mean, yeah. So I think as we’ve discussed before, the stuff about The Mission Continues, those donor names, and that will apply to both the transcripts and the documents -- or the exhibits.

What am I missing Representative?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that’s it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Those should be a little quicker. And again, please bear in mind, I am human, and I'm doing this by search, so I may have missed something, and would be appreciative if you guys catch it.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you for doing it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, that's -- we have to -- we have to catch everything in this.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We have to get this right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So I mean, everyone should read it. I have a problem that I've read them so many times, that I -- you get blind to it, right? But you've got to go line by line, or one trick that I do sometimes is --

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Read it backwards.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- read it backwards.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's go off the record.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So that takes care of part one. Part two is the report process. We've kind of talked about -- I have it on a zip drive here, and I thought about putting it up there and going through paragraph by paragraph. But that's not fair to any of you, to see the draft report for the first time here on a screen and expect to have discussion about it.

So what I would propose is, to print a copy for each member of the Committee, place them in Adam's office. Everyone has the opportunity to review them, in conjunction with the exhibits, and then to make notes on them and be prepared to have further discussion.

Thoughts, ideas on that?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, I don't remember everything that was testified to.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I tried to cite the record, every single paragraph, and if not every single sentence. And I think I've come pretty close, but recognize, this was one guy working five straight days with my eyes getting tired and going through lots of transcripts.

So again, the same thing with Representative Mitten is, read this very thoroughly. I am not going to be upset at suggestions or finding flaws. It's the purpose of this process.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Is there any way -- because, I mean, I'm thinking I can sit in my office tonight and go through a ton of it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Or Adam's office.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Why don't we just make

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

Adam's office available? I would rather just have them all in one centralized -- this document is in two places right now. It's on my desktop at my office; not here, my law office. And it's on this zip drive. And there are two copies that Alex has possession of right now. And I don't want -- I just want them --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No, I understand that, but for -- because I can see where five of us are going to be sitting in Adam's office trying to go through this, you know what I mean? Because we may not have the same time to do it, and where, if I could just sit down with nobody around, I can go through these things and pay more attention.

I see what you're saying, and if that's what everybody decides they want to do, I'm okay with that.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Do you know when you want the Committee to meet again?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Thursday on Adjournment.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Jay, is there any merit -- and I know it's maybe a little bit more time consuming for all of us; for you and everybody else. But is there any merit to having, like, a master report that we go through individually, just that one report rather than having seven reports to go through and to modify and put all changes on one?

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I'm not suggesting we make changes electronically.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: No, I'm saying, put it on the report or whatever we're going to do.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, and then you get into Representative Rhoads' problem, which I think is -- REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: We're just going to have to make notes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We've got -- we've got two days, and if we don't -- you know, I don't want to have three copies, because then if Representative Austin is available at the same time you're available --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I get it.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: How do we have access to Adam's office, like, before eight?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: After five, yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think that's the only thing, is making sure that, you know, we are just going to have to have somebody available there to let us in. I had that problem today where I had to go deliver the transcripts in there, and --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: What time are we meeting tomorrow?

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're meeting at -- what did I text you yesterday?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Eight, I thought.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I believe it's at noon. Noon.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So we are at noon tomorrow?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here in the Capitol, this same room.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: We're going to hear testimony in this room tomorrow?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We are.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And then the idea would be to meet Thursday on Adjournment to talk about redaction and the report.

Let's take a short break.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So the idea then is, Thursday on Adjournment to talk about redactions and the report. And the suggestions I would make on the report is that there's -- I used numbered paragraphs. So I don't know if we want to -- it's not going to be quite like an amendment process.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But we could make suggestions based upon the numbered paragraphs?

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. I would say make -- suggest we'll go in order of numbered paragraphs.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Could we -- would there be merit to having -- just showing us the report, not line, by line, by line, but for us to look at it and make sure we're all on the same track as far as where we're going with this process with the report?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I can describe it for you.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I mean, it starts with just a recitation of the resolution creating this committee. The second section is a timeline of when we met and who we spoke with, and what documents we received, which requests we made. And then the third part starts with, the Committee finds reason to believe, boom, Paragraph 1, and it goes for -- it's over 100 paragraphs. And then that ends the report at the end of that.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: There were some subpoenas that went unanswered; is that correct?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: They were not subpoenas,

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

they were requests for production of documents, but, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And that is in --

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: That is in there as well?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Those are noted in the report. But general -- what we thought was that if we were meeting someone, or there's correspondence sent of some type, or a request sent of some type, that that needs to be in the report.

And so our meeting with Mr. Whitman is in the report. It notes that he refused to speak on the record, but that a subcommittee of us went down there to talk to him.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So your hard copy of the report will be in Adam's office soon?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, by three.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And we need to get Adam -- talk to Adam about how we can -- some people like to work late, be here at midnight, some people like to get here at 6:30.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Ramona is only there until five.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Curchin is supposed to have a key, but, yeah, I agree, I think that there needs to be a better way to be -- I've had trouble getting access to that office as well.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No one is going to work after ten, is that -- anybody plan to work after ten p.m.?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No. If I am, it's not a good day.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So I know that tonight there's a meeting in the Speaker's office, so I know that Mr. Curchin, who's not here, will be here relatively late and can probably stay until ten. And then we'll just figure that out tomorrow.

Does anybody plan to show up before eight a.m.?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, okay. No, that's fine. We can talk to Ramona about tomorrow morning.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: How early are you planning on getting here?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I mean, I get -- I get to the office about like at 6:30.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: I get here about 7:30. And I was going to say, if Alex slips the key under my office door --

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We can work all that out.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We'll figure it out.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will figure that out. That's probably the best time.

Okay. What else?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Well, it's outside this, but extensions?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, you mean to vote, the general extension we talked about?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yeah. Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think we can vote on that on Thursday. I think we're in good shape as far as timing of this report, assuming that this next witness doesn't say something that no other witness from The Mission Continues told us. As it's been described to me, I think his testimony is going to be consistent with what other witnesses have said. But we need to -- we need to talk to him tomorrow.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm going to go back to redactions. So we have agreed that other than the first four witnesses, the only information that's going to be redacted from any subsequent witnesses -- with obviously the exception from the witness tomorrow, because we don't know what that witness will say. We are not redacting their names, we are not redacting anything other than the names of donors to The Mission Continues. Am I correct?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Right now, that is my belief. We can talk about that further Thursday. My feeling is that, let's say we redacted their names, people are going to -- you can figure out who they are from --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But there's no reason to redact their names, you know.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: There's nothing especially sensitive about it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly. I mean, these were people that had roles in an ongoing non-for-profit or for-profit business, or the campaign, or whatever. And I don't believe there was anything sensitive about any of their testimony, any personal information. You know, maybe somebody got married or somebody had a baby, but that's also, I'm pretty sure, probably readily available on social media.

I just want to make sure that we're all on the same page about that, because I really don't want to have to try and go back.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I am. And plus, think of it like a judge, there's no way he'd redact --

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. No judge would ever close that file.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I agree.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We have agreement.

And now we're going to vote to close tomorrow's hearing, but Mr. Curchin -- or the vote tallier stepped out of the room for a moment.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Do you want me to go grab him?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Why don't you go grab him? We'll take a break while we go grab the vote tallier.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I now move that we notice up a hearing for tomorrow at noon. Based on exigent circumstances, we'll be 22 hours and 48 minutes' notice, rather than 24 hours. The witness, I do not believe to be available at any other time. This is the last witness that we are aware of regarding The Mission Continues at this point in time. And I don't believe that he is available Thursday or Friday, so if we're going to talk to him, this is the point in time in which we're going to be able to talk to him.

Discussion?

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

Seeing none, Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven, zero.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: By a vote of seven ayes, zero nos, we voted to notice up a hearing for noon tomorrow.

I now move that we close said hearing tomorrow.

All in favor will vote aye.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Barnes?

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven, zero.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: By a vote of seven aye, zero no, we've voted to close tomorrow's hearing.
I now suggest we are going to notice up for on Adjournment Thursday, and while we are here voting on this, I move that we close Thursday's on Adjournment hearing discussion.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Will we have a court reporter?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We can get one. Two days' notice is sufficient.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I mean, that's

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

fine. I don't mind closing it as long as we have a record.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Is everyone in agreement on that, if we're closing a hearing, we need a court reporter?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I now move to close Thursday's hearing.

All of those in favor vote yes.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven, zero.

068fb8cf-f95b-4558-846b-b01735e017a6

CHAIRMAN BARNES: By a vote of seven aye, zero no, you voted to close Thursday's hearing on Adjournment, which we will speak about redactions and the report.

Any further business before the Committee at this point in time?

Seeing none, this will conclude today's hearing of the House Special Committee on Investigative Oversight.

(WHEREUPON, hearing concluded.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Call to order this meeting of the House Special Committee On Investigative Oversight.

Madam Secretary, will you call the roll?

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seven being present. We have more than a quorum. We have everyone here.

Mr. Neyens, thank you for being here this afternoon.

MR. NEYENS: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I trust that you got in okay?

MR. NEYENS: No problem at all.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. We're going to start by administering the oath.

MR. NEYENS: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: If you can raise your right hand?

MR. NEYENS: Okay.

JACK NEYENS, having been sworn in by the Chairman, testified as follows:

QUESTIONS BY MR. BARNES:

Q. Mr. Neyens, can you state your name?

A. Jack Neyens, N-e-y-e-n-s.

Q. And, Mr. Neyens, have you ever given testimony in a deposition or any other sort of legal proceeding before?

A. No, I have not.

Q. Okay. So let me give you just some short ground rules here. This is not a deposition, but it's a lot like one.

The first rule is that when you answer a question, you have to use yes or no and actually say the words rather than shaking your head --

A. Gotcha.

Q. -- one way or the other; do you understand that?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. That's always a good test of what in fact -- if you understand what the rule is.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

A. Yeah.

Q. If any of us ask a question that is confusing to you or you don't understand, please just ask us to stop and restate the question. Because there is not much sense in us asking a question and getting an answer from you if you don't understand the question; do you understand that?

A. Yes.

Q. And finally, if you need to stop for any reason, just let us know and we'll take a break.

A. Gotcha.

Q. Okay. Mr. Neyens, what is your current occupation?

A. I am semi-retired. I do some financial consulting with non-profits.

Q. How long have you known Eric Greitens?

A. I have known him since May of 2011.

Q. And what was the circumstances in which you came to know him?

A. I met him as I interviewed for the position of vice president or finance, CFO of Mission Continues.

Q. Where did you work prior to that period of time?

A. I worked -- well, I worked in Kansas City with a commodity trading elevator operator company.

And then prior to that I was CFO of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis for six and a half years.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

Q. And how long did you work for the elevator company?

A. Three years.

Q. And that was in Kansas City you said?

A. Yes. Yes, sir.

Q. So you moved across the state for that?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then moved back to St. Louis?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. A big move. And is the Jewish Federation of St. Louis, that's a nonprofit; is that correct?

A. Yes. Yes. Uh-huh. It's a rather large nonprofit.

Q. Okay. So moving back -- going back to The Mission Continues, was that part of a desire for you to get back to the nonprofit sector, or was it a wish to get back to St. Louis?

A. Well, I actually moved back and then started looking for a position. And I had read Eric's book. And I also was just looking for another -- a position in a nonprofit community, and I understood that they had an opening, so I submitted my resume' and went through the interview process.

Q. And what was the approximate date you were hired?

A. May of '11, I believe.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

Q. Okay.

A. Right. Right. Plus or minus a day.

Q. I understand. And what did you say your title was at the organization?

A. It was vice president of finance and operations slash CFO.

Q. And did that remain your title for as long as you were there?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And how long did you work there?

A. I retired -- officially I retired in December of 2016.

Q. And when you stopped working there, would you say that was an amicable split with the organization?

A. Right. I was -- yes. I was at that age --

Q. Okay.

A. -- I'm sorry to say.

Q. And now you say you're semi-retired, and so you -- correct -- tell me what that means, to be semi-retired.

A. Well, I -- semi-retired means that, you know, I'm willing to take on short-term jobs or positions that will, you know, be -- that will be not full-time.

Q. Projects with an end date, is that a good way to say it?

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

A. I would say that, except the project I'm just finishing up is 15 months old.

Q. Okay.

A. So -- but that would be my goal, to help transition as an organization wants to hire a new CFO, or, you know, they've had turnover or whatever, or they have a problem.

Like, where I am finishing up my work at is St. Louis DDR, which is the Developmental Disability Resources. And they went through some serious issues about 15, 16 months ago.

And so I came in with another gentleman that was the -- took -- was interim ED, executive director, and helped to get them reorganized, helped them get straightened out along the path to where they're now viable again.

Q. Okay. So you've got 12 years experience with sort of the same role with nonprofits just that you've recounted here. Prior to that experience, did you have additional work for nonprofits and that type of role?

A. I was the -- and don't ask me the years, okay. That's what you get into when you talk to an older person. There's too many years.

But I was the -- I was the CFO of the American Soybean Association for almost four years, a little less than four years.

Q. And that is another nonprofit?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So this is something that you've made a career out of certainly?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. I've had a lot of experience in the nonprofit community.

Q. What were your daily job duties as CFO for The Mission Continues?

A. The Mission Continues -- actually I wrote an intro, so I'll just go look at that page.

Q. Yeah, that's fine.

A. I was basically -- you've got to remember with a small nonprofit, you carry many hats. And I was in charge of the accounting, human resources, the IT area, employee benefits.

I handled most legal issues that would come up, as far as working with the lawyers. We didn't have very many, but occasionally you would have an issue come up, and that included also registering the organization in various states and stuff.

I worked with -- in just general office management, and whatever else needed to be done that would fall under my experience.

Q. Did you work with Mr. Greitens on a regular basis?

A. I did while he was there, yes. I reported directly to him.

Q. Can you describe how the organization operated from your perspective as the CFO?

A. It -- very efficiently. We were -- when I joined the organization in 2011, they were on the crux of really starting to grow.

Mr. Greitens had secured -- they were in the -- they had just secured some -- a donor. A three-year commitment from a major donor to help develop an infrastructure so that his idea, concept that he was working along could really be put into a growth mode and grow.

Q. If I remember correctly, there was one year where there was a jump from somewhere around 1.5 or 2 million dollars in revenue to 7 million dollars in revenue?

A. Right. And that's correct.

Q. Was that in '11 when you came on?

A. It was -- yes, it was, '11. It was either '11 or '12. It was right around that time frame, correct, because we had several -- actually it was '12, I believe.

Because '11 we had the commitment from a major

New York firm that was -- that gave us, I think, about right at -- they gave us a three -- a little over a 3 million dollar commitment over a three-year period, but a lot of it was front-end loaded. So then we had to -- so each year we got less, so we had to learn how to live on -- you know, replace that money.

Q. So more or less an infrastructure grant for the organization?

A. That's exactly right, yes. And at that point Eric had -- we were right at 15 people when I joined the organization. And really there was -- you know, this is a good while ago, so it was right in that area.

And over the course of the next couple years we grew to 30. And when I left we were a little over -- right at 60 people.

Q. And were -- were the financial aspects of The Mission Continues audited while you were CFO?

A. We were audited by a regional accounting firm, Brown Smith Wallace. And they not only -- they performed our audit, and then they also filed our 990 tax return for us.

They were -- they were -- we were -- as a growing organization, but we -- during that course of time of those audits, we never had a -- we never had an adjustment entry as far as even, you know, an auditor's adjustment, which is unusual for a small nonprofit growing quickly.

Because, you know, and part of that was we worked with them as a partnership. When we had -- we had unusual transactions sometimes come up, and instead of -- instead of just winging it and based on what I thought or based on what, you know, our staff thought, we would talk to the Brown Smith Wallace, their tax people or their audit people and figure out the best way to handle it.

A good example is one year a donor gave us a car. It wasn't just a car. It was like a collector's car, like -- I can't remember what it was. It was like a Camaro or something like that. It was redone and it was -- we -- and our intent was it would -- they gave it to us, but it would immediately be auctioned in Las Vegas with one of those -- one of those firms that do that stuff.

So we had to work -- you know, I've never done that, and, you know, if I had, I still think I would have talked to experts, but we talked to them about how do we handle this transaction, because it was also legal and tax on what we could do.

So they helped -- we worked with them together to gear the transaction so that it would, you know, be handled properly and the ownership would change properly.

You know, it was just a very -- and that's the types of things we would do. If we had new items or new things, we would talk to them about it versus waiting until the end of the year and hope we -- you know, and then have them say, you know, what's this, or you should have done it this way.

You know, they're our auditors. Let's do it -- let's work with them. We didn't -- you know, and that was one of the monitors that -- and actually that's what kind of impressed me when I interviewed with Eric. He said, we do things right, and we spend our money -- monitor it closely. We watch our money closely. And if we make a mistake, we fix it.

That was kind of like, you know, his mantra of how he wants to run this organization. And so it just makes sense to do it that way.

Q. Let me ask you this: Did The Mission Continues, to your knowledge, ever purchase any of Mr. Greitens' books?

A. Not that I'm aware of.

Q. Okay. And as CFO, if there was a large book purchase, would that have eventually come across your desk?

A. I would have seen the payables. I would have probably seen the check issued, yes.

Q. Okay.

A. But I -- I -- I can't remember doing that. I do know that I think he did give books to donors, but I don't believe we ever purchased any from him.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

Q. Okay.

A. I'm sure we didn't quite honestly.

Q. And that's consistent with what others have told us, so your recollection --

A. Okay.

Q. -- I do believe seems to me is correct, but we want to make sure to ask other witnesses --

A. Okay.

Q. -- some of the same sorts of questions.

One previous witness testified that -- well, did you have any interaction with The Greitens Group?

A. We -- they were -- when I first joined the organization, or when -- yeah, they had an office that when we came in the hallway, we would go by their office as we entered our office, okay, so it was kind of like adjoined our office. And so in that regard, yes.

And then to keep everything in arm's length as things grew, we had -- we had an agreement, an operating agreement with The Greitens Group that -- that would -- we -- we charged them for -- I think there were a couple of years this went on, where they paid us for some of the shared services, which included his administrative assistant, a portion of her salary and benefits.

Q. Do you recall, prior to the signing of that Memorandum of Understanding, which was, I believe, December of 2012, what proportion of Krystal Taylor's salary that The Mission Continues was paying?

A. I believe that in that agreement that we were looking at -- and I'm really -- this is really digging back, but I believe we were talking 25 percent.

Q. And do you -- when you say we're talking 25 percent, is that your understanding of the MOU?

A. Yes, that is. And I believe it was 25 percent of -- or the makeup of the money that was 25 percent of her salary and benefits. That's the way I remember it anyway.

Q. Do you recall, prior to that, in 2011 what the percentage of Ms. Taylor's salary was being paid by The Mission Continues versus The Greitens Group?

A. I do not. And I'm not sure that -- I -- I -- as I said, that was when I was coming on. And I don't remember if in 2011, and looking back 2010, if there was any shared.

I can't tell you that for sure, but I know that when I was there was when it was decided we would have this operating agreement going forward.

Q. Okay. Ms. Taylor -- I believe it was Ms. Taylor -- described to us, and others, the process of travel for Mr. Greitens.

And that would be The Greitens Group would book a speech somewhere, and then they would get together with people from The Mission Continues to maximize his time and be as efficient as possibly?

And that when he was on the road to, say, Dallas, that they would organize a meeting with The Mission Continues donor in Dallas, correct?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. As far as you can recall, is that an accurate assessment of how his travel typically worked?

A. That's very accurate, yes.

Q. Okay. In your experience with nonprofits, is that a typical arrangement for a leader of the organization to arrange private events and then to schedule the nonprofits event sort of on top of the private event?

A. Well, it is maximizing expenses. It's maximizing his time. Eric was a very, you know, public figure as far as in the nonprofit community and the donor community, so, yeah, that would make sense.

Q. It made sense in your experience with the other nonprofits? I mean, did you have a similar experience in other nonprofits?

A. Not -- no, I did not. Except for the American Soybean Association, because that was more of a -- throughout -- we had -- we had an off-- not office, but we had farmers in all 50 states, all of the soybean growing states, so we would have things like that, but not nearly like we did with The Mission Continues.

Q. Not the travel? Well, I guess the difference here is that with the CEO of the American Soybean Association, did he have a private business at the same time?

A. No.

Q. Okay. And the Jewish Federation, the president while you were there, did they have a private business at the same time?

A. The executive director did not. Of course the president was a volunteer position, so . . .

Q. Okay. So the president in that case was not paid?

A. Yeah. Exactly.

Q. And the executive director was paid?

A. That's correct.

Q. And did they have a side -- another job, a private job at the time that they traveled and then would --

A. No. That is -- I mean, you know, just -- well, you've got to remember the Jewish Federation is really an organization that's centered in St. Louis for the St. Louis community.

The ED did a lot of travel, but it was more to support Jewish organizations, or a meeting of all the federations in the country together, things like that. But that's the only kind of travel they had.

Q. Yeah. Much different type of organization, because like you said, that is a regional organization?

A. Yes.

Q. To your knowledge, what would happen in that sort of -- I'll call it dual-purpose trip -- when there is a private speech followed by a Mission Continues donor, to your knowledge, was what the typical expensing arrangement when there was a dual-purpose trip?

A. Typically the way I remember it is that The Greitens Group paid most of his expenses, okay, because, you know, that's -- that's -- Eric just tried to use that opportunity to meet with donors for The Mission Continues when he was on these speeches, is the way I understood it.

Q. Okay. Thank you for that. Sorry. I'm looking at my notes here.

When you were at The Mission Continues, did you have any contact with -- direct contact with donors?

A. Yeah, some. I wasn't in the fundraising area, but I attended events. We had orientations where I would attend and some of our donors would come out that were in that city.

You know, our gala, I would meet with donors.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

And sometimes donors would come into the office a lot of times too, so I had those interactions.

That wasn't my primary focus, but they always -- when they were around us, they liked to talk to me, because donors always want to know how the money is being taken care of. You know, they want to feel comfortable that things are done right.

Q. So would you describe that as more as happenstance when you -- when you met with donors rather than sort of a frequent planned event for you?

A. That's correct. It was happenstance.

Q. But also not infrequent?

A. That's correct, yes.

Q. Okay. So I'm just trying to figure out and get a clear -- that you didn't go out and say, hey, every Friday I'm going to call these donors and do A, B and C?

A. No. No, I didn't.

Q. But instead, anytime a donor, particularly a big donors, would want to talk to you, you would be willing to talk to them?

A. I would be very available. Or potential big donors I would be very available. And that's another thing about an organization the size of The Mission Continues, you know, it's not completely departmentalized, because we're just not big enough.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

You know, we were not big enough at that time to -- you know, to have every segment, you know, so you did crossover some, that's correct.

Q. Were you part of the thank-you team for donors?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay.

A. I didn't like that, but yes.

Q. Okay.

A. Yeah. Now, that was something we were required -- that was a planned event.

Q. That was a frequent thing, but you were given your list of thank-you calls to make and --

A. Yes. That was a planned event, okay.

Q. Okay. Did you -- do you recall signing a nondisclosure agreement when you worked for The Mission Continues?

A. Yes, I believe I did. I know all of our board members were required to. Because that was one thing, we had them update them every year to -- you know, but I -- I think I did.

Q. Okay. And did you have access to lists of The Mission Continues donors?

A. I guess I could have had. You know, I didn't work with donors in that manner. I would get a list of the ten people or twenty that I had to call. I mean, I could have gotten into the database and pulled out the information.

Q. Did you do that?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Have you violated your nondisclosure agreement in any way since leaving The Mission Continues?

A. No.

Q. You've not used the donor list or a list of any information --

A. No.

Q. -- you had from The Mission Continues for any other purpose?

A. No. I probably have talked to a few of the donors, but that was because I knew them personally. They were on my phone list. You know, they were in my contact list.

Q. In your own personal phone?

A. That's right, yes.

Q. Okay. Did you have any involvement with the Campaign For Governor?

A. I attended some of the events from the perspective of I would go hear Eric speak, and that's about -- that's about it. I didn't go out and campaign for him. I didn't --

Q. You weren't officially involved in raising money for the campaign?

A. Not a -- no.

Q. You didn't call banks?

A. No.

Q. If you didn't like making thank-you cards, I can assure you you didn't like the callbacks. I don't think there are any of the people in here who have done them like the callbacks. I'm not sure any of us like doing the callbacks.

A. Yeah. So, no, I didn't do that at all. No.

Q. Okay. And did anyone from the Greitens campaign ever contact you for any purpose relating to campaign issues?

A. Not for campaign issues, no.

Q. For other issues?

A. The only time is there was some questions about the historical 990s and Eric's salary or the monies. And so I looked at those for them to show them. You know, because it's all public information.

It's not like anything is hidden, but I just helped them see the seven or eight years Eric was there what the annual -- what his draws were, of which the first two years he drew zero, and another year he only drew -- he drew very -- his draws were nominal compared to what he was doing.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

Q. So you were sort of a decipherer of what the 990 meant to certain people on the campaign --

A. Yes.

Q. -- and helped them answer questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. And that -- which would be a natural thing for them to ask me.

Q. And I don't know that we've asked any questions of other witnesses about this, but I want to get this on the record. Do you recall a contract with Fleishman-Hillard?

A. Yes. Uh-huh.

Q. Okay. And approximate dates of that contract?

A. I believe it was around -- we used -- well, actually I think -- I think The Mission Continues still uses them.

Q. Okay.

A. And I know they did well after Eric left, but we used them in 2000-- I believe it was '13 and '14. You know, I -- I -- but we used them for like -- since around -- I start in '11 -- since 2012.

Now, we used them some more than other years, but we used them to re-brand -- we were re-branding the organization, okay?

Q. And was that part of the ramp up due to the increased fundraising you were able to do?

A. Yes, it was. And we were also at that point in time -- we were -- you know, we were going from -- we changed our logo. They helped us design our new catch-phrase.

We originally were a -- not a charity, a challenge. You know, something along those lines. And then we moved on to a different tag line. We changed our logo. They helped develop a new logo. They really helped us re-brand the organization, okay?

They worked on our mission statement. They worked on every aspect of the organization.

Q. And the purpose of that contract was for -- was organizational, not individual to Mr. Greitens, correct?

A. Had nothing to do -- had nothing to do with Eric at all. It had strictly to do with the re-branding of the organization and our growth forward, and occasionally we would have a PR issue and we would ask them to help us, how we would Wordsmyth, what our response was or something, but it was strictly -- it was always related to the organization.

Q. Thank you. Thank you for being here today. So now this is where it's definitely not like a deposition, because there are seven of us.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

So our vice chairman is going to ask questions, our ranking members are going to ask questions, and then we're going to go in order of legislative seniority. And they're all -- everybody is all branched out over here.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So Representative?

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS:

Q. State Representative Don Phillips from District 138, Kimberling City, which is down near Table Rock Lake.

In the time that you became acquainted with Governor Greitens, would you say that your personal relationship with him is -- would you call him a friend?

A. You know, he's an acquaintance. I wouldn't say necessarily he's a friend. Like when he comes to St. Louis, he doesn't call me and say, hey, Jack, let's go get a beer. I mean, he doesn't drink, but let's go meet for coffee or something, no. No. You know, it was basically a professional relationship, I would say?

Q. In the time that you've known him, would you characterize him as honest and trustworthy from what you've seen?

A. Most assuredly, yes.

Q. And that was his reputation amongst others?

A. That was basically, as I said earlier, he believed in doing things right, and he stressed that. And he -- he would hold everybody else to a high standard, and he held himself to a high standard.

Q. Okay. Did it surprise you personally when the news broke of -- concerning his extramarital affair?

A. Yes.

Q. Did it had change your opinion of him?

A. No. It gave me -- you know, I had concerns, but, you know, who of us -- you know, I don't know the circumstances of, you know, if he and his wife have reconciled the issue. It's none of my business, you know. I still got to look at him as the person, what else he does.

Q. Fair enough. Did you ever observe or hear, within the workplace, of Mr. Greitens conducting himself in any way other than professional and business-like?

A. No, sir.

Q. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: That's all I've got, Mr. Chairman. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Mitten?

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN:

Q. Hi. I'm Gina Mitten from St. Louis.

A. Hi.

Q. Thank you for being here.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Hopefully this will go pretty quick.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

Representative Barnes asked you some questions about 25 percent of salary was being paid by somebody, and I don't think that the record is actually very clear on that.

So when you talked about, I think it was 25 percent of -- I believe we were talking about Krystal Taylor's salary.

A. Yes.

Q. Was it 25 percent being paid by The Mission Continues or The Greitens Group, or can you just sort of explain to us how that works?

A. It was -- it was paid by The Greitens Group.

Q. Okay.

A. She was our -- The Mission Continues' employee, so it was kind of like a shared -- shared salary.

Q. Okay. So The Mission Continues paid for all of Krystal Taylor's expenses, her salary, her -- whatever, health or those kinds of benefits?

I don't know if there was a 401-K or something like that going on, but parking, all of the expenses related to Krystal Taylor's salary was paid for by The Mission Continues?

A. Yes. As they were by all other employees.

Q. Right.

A. She was treated no different than anybody else.

Q. And then The Greitens Group was then reimbursing

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

The Mission Continues 25 percent of all of those costs?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And they also -- like, how did that work for sort of general office equipment and that kind of thing?

For instance it's my understanding that, you know, Krystal Taylor and Lyndsey Hodges shared an office. I'm assuming, again, that all of that was paid for by The Mission Continues or -- they shared space?

A. They shared space, and honestly she didn't always -- you know, who they shared with is separate, because one reason I'm hesitant like this is she -- then we moved her next to -- and she shared space with Greg Favre, who was Eric's assistant, and that was -- so that was a different office.

Q. Right.

A. Let's just say -- can we just say office space?

Q. Right.

A. She had a portion of the office space.

Q. Okay. So she had a desk somewhere --

A. Exactly.

Q. -- wherever that might be?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And was The Greitens Group also reimbursing you for office space?

A. Yeah. We -- for Krystal, yes. We -- we -- we got -- there was a percentage of, and I'm really talking -- because that wasn't a big deal or a big thing.

Q. Right.

A. So -- but there was a portion of that expense allocated to them also. And that was part of the agreement. We came up with the -- and, you know, the same thing. And part of the agreement was to cover, like, if we had a copier, we had a printer that Krystal used.

Q. Right.

A. Okay. That shared service like that.

Q. Right. I understand that. You know, regardless of the size of the organization it seems to me the nitpicking over copying is never a good idea.

A. That's right.

Q. It doesn't intender cooperation and consensus for the building, let's put it that way.

You indicated that you had worked for other nonprofits, did you -- have -- was -- at -- let me get this out. I'm not on my game this week.

So did you ever do -- or what was your involvement in doing fundraising for any nonprofits before you came to The Mission Continues?

A. Very similar to what I did with The Mission Continues. I'm a -- I don't know. How do you say it? I'm a bank guy.

Q. Right.

A. I go to the banks and ask them for money. I run inside the office, but, you know -- glad-handing, you know, asking -- I'm not real good at, but I -- when I have to compliment the fundraisers, I'm very good at that, because I have credibility. But, man, don't send me in the door by myself.

Q. Sort of a team player when it comes to that, but absolutely not directing the ship?

A. Exactly.

Q. Okay. And then you -- just to make sure your testimony is clear. You did not directly work with donor lists at The Mission Continues --

A. No.

Q. -- with the exception of your thank-you calls?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay.

A. The only thing I -- you know, of course by the accounting department money coming in and going out, so you see those names. And then the filings that you do at the end of year in various states that you fundraise in, but that's not individualized, that's more, you know --

Q. This is how much we raised from all of our donors, and I'm -- did you use some sort of computer software to do that, like an Excel or another proprietary software?

A. To do the registration?

Q. To do the filings and whatnot?

A. We would -- we would -- we would gather information. We work with the fundraising area. They would provide us information.

And then we worked with another organization called The Affinity Group that specialized in registering nonprofits in various states.

Q. Okay.

A. Because that -- you don't want to get involved in that.

Q. Right.

A. Okay.

Q. Note to self. I'll keep that in mind.

In your work for nonprofits throughout your career, were you ever aware of your employers purchasing donor lists?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So you're not aware of The Greitens Group -- excuse me -- The Mission Continues ever purchasing a donor list?

A. Not aware, no.

Q. Okay. I don't have any other questions. Thank f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

you.

A. Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. And thank you again for being here, and I want to thank you also for your approaching -- having a conversation with us today. That is very helpful.

I am Jeanie Lauer from the Kansas City area, Blue Springs, and I have random questions, so we'll just kind of hop around.

A. Okay.

Q. So you have worked obviously with not-for-profits, and was it your responsibility to complete the yearly filings for the not-for-profits that you worked with?

A. By yearly filings, you mean with the various states?

Q. Correct.

A. Yes and no. And I'll tell you.

Q. Okay.

A. We -- as I mentioned a minute ago, we would obtain information from our fundraising area, and then we would start asse-- we worked with an organization called The Affinity Group in Colorado. That was their business was registering organizations in various states.

So we provided that information, the data, and the information on The Mission Continues, you know, the board of directors, all the administrative stuff, and then the dollars that were raised in various states. And then they would formally file the -- do the filings for us.

Q. Okay. But you were very familiar with not-for-profit status and the requirements and regulations associated with that?

A. Sure. Yes, ma'am.

Q. And was there any time during your work with The Mission Continues that there was any concern about the status of not-for-profit being jeopardized?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So you've -- that was just very clear that we were -- you were in alignment with IRS code and everybody else?

A. I can't remember ever a discussion like that.

Q. Okay.

A. Okay?

Q. Sure. And so you've worked for a for-profit as well as with the not-for-profit. So you're familiar certainly in a for-profit industry on client lists?

A. Right. Yes.

Q. And I would assume that the elevator that you worked with would want to protect their client list that they do business with?

A. Yes and no. I mean, yes, but the client lists -- all elevators in a region use the same client list, you know, work with the same clients, so there's not a -- it's not privileged, you know, what I mean?

Q. Sure.

A. It's not confidential information that anyone else couldn't come up with. The elevator next door could have a --

Q. Okay.

A. Because it's all based on market price.

Q. Sure. And so there's a lot of common denominators as to who would be engaged in that?

A. Yes.

Q. And what about for the not-for-profits? What about donor lists and things like that?

A. I mean, the Jewish Federation had a huge list of donors. I mean, I never looked at it. You know, what were good for -- you know, once again though, that was a cause. And, you know, you -- basically it was a cause of the Jewish community.

And that was where probably 95 percent of the donors, you know, individual and the companies, were of that religion or supported that religion. So, you know,

I'm not sure what else I can say on that.

Q. Okay. So obviously not-for-profits have an asset list. They still do balances sheets and all those sorts of things --

A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- that any organization would do?

Were there any points where the not-for-profits that you worked with list your donor list as an asset?

A. No. No, ma'am. The only thing that would be on our financial statements related to donors would be in total like if we had pledge receivable, or if we had a commitment from the organization, we would --

Say ABC company had signed an agreement to give us -- to pay us $100,000 year one for the next three years, we would recognize that as a discounted amount as a receivable on our books, okay?

Q. Okay.

A. And then we would -- I don't know if you're familiar with accounting in a nonprofit, but you have restricted and unrestricted.

Q. Right.

A. And we would restrict part of it. But anyway, that's how we would handle it.

Q. Okay. So it was really based on a commitment-cash basis?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And so who was the guardian of the list of donors at The Mission Continues?

A. You know, honestly, I don't know for sure. I would assume it's in the fundraising area. Once again, I didn't necessarily -- I didn't go over there and say, can I have the list of all of our donors?

I didn't need it. That wasn't something that really was part of my job. Well, everything is my job, but, you know, it wasn't part of my responsibility to know -- to look at that individual list.

Q. Okay. So there was really no one organizationally that said in my role I am responsible for maintaining, obtaining the donor list?

A. I mean, I would say it was in the fundraising area.

Q. Okay.

A. That's -- for an individual, a particular individual, I couldn't tell you. You mentioned, you know, Lyndsey. You know, those people worked there and that's what they would do.

Q. Okay. While you were working with The Mission Continues, what discussions might Eric have had or shared with you or others regarding his future plans?

A. You know, he was very tight-lipped about that, because he didn't want to compromise the organization or compromise what his thoughts were.

Because, you know, I think that, you know, he -- he wasn't sure, okay? And if he -- I will say this: He did take a leave of absence from the organization for, I can't remember how long, but it was -- during that time frame I think that's when he did a lot of soul searching to decide what he wanted to do.

Q. About what time frame was that?

A. I shouldn't have brought it up.

Q. Thank you for doing it, but --

(EXHIBIT NO. 19 WAS PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: If I show you Exhibit 19, which is a letter that Mr. Greitens sent to all the stuff that was sent on April 24th, 2019 (sic) and says I'm --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Not '19.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm sorry. Exhibit 19, but he sent it in 2014. I think the first sentence says something to the fact of it's good to be back. Here is the decision I've made. Does that refresh your recollection as to the time frame?

THE WITNESS: Yes, it does. It was right around that time. And he -- I don't know if it says it here, but he remained on the Board for a while. And then at a point in time he resigned from the Board too, because that's when he was officially going to announce that he was going to seek public office.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. So when he resigned from the Board, is that when he took a leave of absence?

A. No. He took a leave of absence -- he took a leave of absence to determine -- to both finish a book, and then also to kind of, you know, get his thoughts together on what his next move was.

Because I would say that at this point he had The Mission Continues on the right path. He had a management team in place that was very strong, and, you know, was capable of, you know, carrying the mantra, carrying the torch.

Eric is a very -- he has a lot of plans in his life, and, you know, this was --

Q. So did he -- I'm trying to narrow this down, but did he take a leave of absence while he was the CEO of The Mission Continues?

A. No. He was no longer a CEO.

Q. Was he on the Board?

A. He was CEO and he took a leave of absence, and when he came back, I believe he just remained -- he was -- he came back to be on the Board.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

Q. Okay.

A. But he did not -- he was not running the day-to-day operations anymore.

Q. Okay. So that was that transition period where that happened?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And to what degree were you involved in that whole transition first from CEO to the Board?

A. Well, he was already on the Board.

Q. Right.

A. But just basically when he announced it. I was not involved in any discussion as to what he should do or not do. I mean, this was, you know, very guarded.

Q. Okay. And what about from the Board to Greitens Group, discussions about that?

A. Once again, when he announced, he had talked to, I think, a couple of the Board members. And I only found out about it -- you know, I found out about it as basically everybody else did.

Q. Okay. Are you still consulting with TMC?

A. No. No, ma'am.

Q. Okay. When was your last date of doing that?

A. Well, I worked for them -- I officially retired December 2016.

Q. Okay. And let's go back to your role in the

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

finance accounting position at The Mission Continues. You've indicated that there were some shared expenses with payroll and so forth.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Was there, for lack of a better word, an invoice or something given to you as documentation as to how to split the expenses that you would know what you would pay and what another group would pay?

A. I don't have the agreement in front of me, but if I remember correctly, we just agreed -- we did a calculation to determine how much the monthly fee would be, and we didn't adjust the fee every month, I don't believe.

Q. Okay. So it was just a standard, agreed upon rate?

A. Yeah. I believe that's what the agreement said. And once again, you know -- I'm -- there wasn't a lot of money in it. I didn't think about -- it's been a long time.

Q. Sure. All right. Not-for-profits are rated by a large group of raters?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And during the period of time you were with The Mission Continues, what was the rating that you were given?

A. We were given -- well, Charity Navigator -- and I will never forget this -- gave us a 97 one year instead of

100. And the reason being is we were so fast to get things done -- remember I said --

Q. Yeah.

A. -- okay, that we actually -- the finance committee approved the 990, okay, and we filed it, and then we gave it to the Board. And just as a prec-- but the process is to get the 100, you've got to give it to the Board first.

Q. Oh.

A. So after that we -- you know, and it wasn't -- it was just -- and actually our auditors didn't -- you know, we -- they called Charity Navigator to argue about it with them. From thence forward it's always been 100 from what I know.

Q. Okay.

A. So it's always been the highest ratings. And we were also -- the Better Business Bureau gave us the Golden Torch award. So, you know, once again, Eric stressed doing things right.

Q. Okay.

A. He stressed, you know, no, no, no, no give here on those type of things.

Q. Okay. And so when the information came out regarding the use of the donor list by the campaign committee, was -- and you were not there at that point, is that right, or you were?

A. I left December 2000-- when it came out in the news or when it came out?

Q. Uh-huh.

A. No, I was no longer there.

Q. Okay. Were you involved in any of the ethics questioning or --

A. No.

Q. -- sharing information?

A. No.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Can I clarify?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Sure.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You mean Missouri Ethics Commission?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Missouri Ethics Commission. I'm sorry.

THE WITNESS: No. I was not involved in any of those discussions. I would like to say one thing about that is: Eric grew the organization from zero, okay?

He, people, donors, corporations, individuals, foundations migrate. They were attracted to him. They migrated to him as he spoke around the country, as he met them and stuff.

I would venture to say that he probably personally knew a major percentage of all the donors and

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

had their contact information. And by all the donors, I mean above a certain level, you know. You know, that he could have had in his phone, in his business cards. He could have created a list that would be very close to whatever list you're talking about.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. Okay.

A. Okay? Because he just -- he was the organization. Even after we hired a fund-- a chief fundraiser, they still wanted to see Eric, so he was the contact guy.

Q. It sounds like he was very charismatic; would you agree with that?

A. Super charismatic, yes.

Q. Okay.

A. And he's a gifted speaker. He's -- he's -- he comes off as a very -- you know, I should say comes -- he was very sincere and very dedicated to The Mission Continues.

Q. Okay.

A. As I said, the first two years he didn't even draw a salary. He slept on the floor sometimes in the office. He was a very -- you know, he had a mission.

Q. Uh-huh. And was that character trait of being charismatic, was that something that was demonstrated with

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

the donors, with staff, with anywhere he went would you say?

A. Yes. He had a very loyal staff. He -- donors, you know, I mean, they just wanted to see him. They wanted to talk to him.

Q. So he would just draw people to him?

A. Yes, he would.

Q. Okay.

A. And he would give a lot of speeches or presentations, and it's amazing the people that would come up to him afterwards and would say, I want to talk to you more. I would like to spend some time with you. I mean, he was --

Q. It sounds as though the donors and everybody else might have been as drawn to him as they were to The Mission Continues?

A. I can't speak for them, but I would say that a lot them probably were. The reason they donated to The Mission Continues was him.

Q. Okay. I want to go back to the ratings by Charity Navigator and so forth. In your experience with not-for-profits and having had great ratings consistently all across, given that there was this issue with the Missouri Ethics Commission in regards to the use of the donor list, how would that have impacted the ratings of the not-for-profit?

A. My understanding is right now that they have not changed the -- and this is current.

Q. Sure.

A. I understand they have not changed the rating, they just made a note that there is an investigation going on or something like that.

Q. Okay.

A. So, you know -- but I can't -- I really can't answer how they would handle that or what they would say, because it really -- you know, I don't know.

Q. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let me back up and clarify that.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Sorry about that.

Your understanding is you don't have any contact with The Mission Continues today?

THE WITNESS: No. No, I don't, but I do have -- I can get on Charity Navigator.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So this is based on your reading of Charity Navigator?

THE WITNESS: Exactly. Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

THE WITNESS: It has nothing to do with -- I have had no contact whatsoever.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No inside knowledge?

THE WITNESS: None whatsoever. Sorry. I didn't mean to talk too much.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's fine. No, you're fine. I just wanted to make sure we got the basis of that.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I appreciate that. Thank you.

BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. And so having that note, again, in your experience and seeing that on Charity Navigator, what would be the impact of that on a not-for-profit?

A. I think it would be a -- I would want to take a wait and see what really has transpired. I mean, because, you know, it's very questionable, and there's --

You know, I -- I -- I -- I think that individual organizations would probably -- each of them look at it differently, so I really can't tell. I can't answer that.

Q. That's fair. I appreciate that. Just a couple more questions.

What was your interaction with the Board specifically?

A. When I was there, I attended almost every board meeting, okay?

Q. Uh-huh.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

A. After Eric left, Mr. Kympton decided that he didn't need senior staff at board meetings, so he kind of changed the scope of things a little bit.

So from that point forward I would get the minutes and I would read them, you know, because we had to for the audit and stuff, but I wasn't as involved.

While Mr. Greitens was there and up until he formally left the Board, I would attend most meetings.

Q. Okay. And then one last question: You were talking about people would ask about the history of the 990s that they would have questions?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. What type of questions would they inquire of?

A. Well, the specific thing I was talking about is in a 990 there is a list of the highest paid employees in the organization. And that's the point I was -- that's the part I was addressing.

Q. I see.

A. Okay. Other questions come up. Anybody that can read a 990 is pretty smart. I can't. I mean, they are very confusing to look at.

Q. Sure.

A. But they're almost too thorough is the problem.

Q. Okay. So mostly it was salary information that was being looked at by them?

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

A. Yes.

Q. Thank you very much.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: And thank you, Mr. Chair.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Mr. Chair, Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN:

Q. Kevin Austin. I'm from Springfield. I'm not going to rehash what you have already testified to, but I can't help but notice -- I wasn't trying to eavesdrop or look over your shoulder, but you have brought documents with you?

A. No. No. This is just if I had an opportunity. I've never done this before.

Q. Okay.

A. So I -- you know, on TV you always get a chance to give your opening statement, so I was ready.

Q. Okay. If the Chair wants you to read that, we'll leave that up him. Thank you. No questions.

A. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't have any questions.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: He's like an angel on my shoulder here.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I'll decline to comment.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. That --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Representative Pierson.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Pierson?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON, JR.: Thank you for acknowledging the youngest in legislative age.

QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON, JR.:

Q. I'm Tommie Pierson, Jr. I'm from St. Louis County. Thank you for being here, Mr. Neyens.

Did you have a counterpart that did your role in The Greitens Group?

A. No. The Greitens Group was very small. They had a gentleman that basically went out and booked his speeches, his appearances and kind of managed his little office.

And then he had, I believe, one other, like, an accounting-type clerk, you know, that paid the checks, that did the invoicing. And, you know, once again, it was basically a two-person office. And I think at one point they hired a third person for a while, but that was all that they had.

So the counterpart would have probably been, you know, much lower level because it was a QuickBooks thing.

Q. Anther person who wore a lot of hats?

A. Yes. And it was small. It was so small that you probably could have actually done it on a piece of paper

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

and pencil if you wanted to.

Q. And to your knowledge the only reimbursement that The Greitens Group paid to The Mission Continues was for Krystal Taylor's salary?

A. And some shared -- and some -- you know, some, like, the rent.

Q. Okay.

A. You know, I think there is a number in there for office supplies.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative, I was a little slow when Representative Lauer was asking these questions. I have got a document that could help refresh the witness' recollection.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Go ahead.

(EXHIBIT NO. 15 WAS PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is the Memorandum of Understanding. And then I believe you might have signed that somewhere, but I'm not -- and then here is the Exhibit A as to costs.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So that's Exhibit 15?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's correct. I've handed the witness what's been marked as Exhibit 15 from previous testimony to refresh his recollection about the Memorandum of Understanding.

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And Exhibit A, is that an exhibit to Exhibit 15?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Exhibit A is an exhibit to Exhibit 15 marked by the parties who entered into the Memorandum of Understanding.

THE WITNESS: Right. I do remember this. That's the 600 bucks I was -- $635 I was talking about.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I apologize. I was a little bit slow to pull that up. It could have helped earlier.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That's okay.

BY REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON:

Q. So you've worked with the Jewish Federation of St. Louis previous to coming over to The Mission Continues?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Just knowing Eric's faith, was there anything asked of you to perhaps bring in any donors from the Jewish Federation of St. Louis?

A. No.

Q. Okay. I don't have anything. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY CHAIRMAN BARNES:

Q. Two additional followups.

A. Okay.

Q. Maybe three. The Exhibit 19, which you've had the opportunity to review about when Mr. Greitens came back

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

from sabbatical that triggered the transition, did you take part in any transition planning for The Mission Continues organization?

A. Not -- by transition you mean how we would handle with Eric leaving?

Q. How to get from Eric being there to Eric not being there?

A. Not -- no. Basically Eric recommended to the Board that Spencer Kympton take on the role of president. And the Board discussed it and determined that that would be the best trans-- would be the thing to do.

Q. And as far as the plan of how the organization was going to get from Point A to Point B in just as strong a shape as it was at the beginning, did you have a role in that or were you just generally aware of those -- of those plans?

A. You've got to remember that Eric, strategically, is a very planned out person, okay? And the growth of The Mission Continues after Eric left was geared around -- he was the genesis of the idea that has created a lot of the new growth, which was service platoons.

Okay. That's something that we, as a management team, developed -- actually worked with Fleishman-Hillard a little bit on it too. We developed that the next thing after our fellowship program, which a fellowship program was a six-month program where we would select anywhere from 60 to 80 veterans four times a year and they would be in this fellowship program for approximately six months.

We would -- our goal was to help them transition back to citizenship. And by that I mean a lot of times they would be sitting in the family basement, you know, PTSD, a lot of different things wrong. And our goal was to get them either back in school to secure a job or, you know, back in life, okay?

And what we figured was, this was an intensive plan, and there were a lot of veterans coming back that really were in school and did have jobs, but they still were having transition problems because they missed their camaraderie of what they were doing. They missed doing things for their community and giving back.

So we developed this concept of platoons, service platoons. And it was an all volunteer-type group. We started out with 12 in different cities, and then we -- you know, when I left we were at about 60 I believe around the different cities in the country.

So your touch then is -- a platoon could be 25 to 60 vets. They would do service projects. They would meet. They would -- so the touch got bigger that way.

Eric was the genesis of that thought. We took it and ran with it, okay? And, you know, so the transition

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

plan was let's execute what we got.

You know, let's continue doing a good fellowship program, but let's move into this new area that Eric had developed, helped developed.

And as far as the transition -- normally you think of transition as to who is going to do what after someone is gone, but we had a pretty strong group of leaders.

You know, Spencer was a natural, I guess, to take that role. I think he had some issues with Eric in a way that, you know -- you're talking about this guy can walk in a room and everybody wants to talk to him. You talk about this guy that I'm talking to you as a donor and they say, how is Eric, or where is Eric, can we talk to Eric?

You know, it plays on the ego, okay? And I think that in that regard there was some issues, but anyway that's --

Q. Okay. You are the first witness, I believe, who appeared without counsel. And there were a lot of witnesses we didn't think needed counsel, but showed up with counsel anyway.

A. Are you saying I needed one?

Q. No.

A. I'm worried now.

Q. You did not need -- you certainly did not need counsel. We appreciate your candor and your forthrightness with the Committee.

Representative Austin noted you had a prepared statement. Did you prepare that statement?

Let me put it this way, if you want to submit that to us, you can. That's perfectly fine.

If you don't, you don't have to, and that's fine. If you are going to submit it, I need to ask the question: Did you prepare it by yourself exclusively, or did you have any help preparing it?

A. I prepared it my myself.

Q. Okay. Exclusively?

A. Exclusively.

Q. Okay. And did you have any conversations with anyone else before you came here to speak today?

A. No. I will say this: I did meet with -- the reason I came here was I -- I -- Eric asked me to talk to Ed Dowd and his group and just see if there was anything I could add or help or say. So I met with them, and they thought it would be a really good idea for me to meet with you people.

Q. Okay.

A. It's mainly to clarify some things or answer questions, because I was on the inside. I was there for a long time. I was there after Eric left, but I have no --

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

you know, I have no skin in this game at all now. I don't work there. I don't -- you know, I -- I -- I --

Q. Did you have a lengthy conversation with Mr. Greitens?

A. No. It was very short.

Q. Okay. And your meeting with his lawyers, was that a lengthy meeting?

A. Lawyers, they are never -- it was -- no, it was --

Q. That's a fair assessment. I'm one of them. That's a fair assessment.

A. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to insult you. It was about a little over an hour.

Q. Kind of like here, they're asking you questions?

A. Yeah. They were just asking questions, one, to clarify things they were wondering about; and, two, just to see what my knowledge level was and what could I add to this whole process.

Q. And then, of course, they asked you the question: Would you be willing to speak to this, that or the Committee, and you said yes, and that's how we got connected?

A. Exactly. That's correct. He said that. He asked me if I would be willing to.

And I said, I'm not really a speaker, but if I can sit down, I'm happy to talk to anybody.

Q. Good enough. This conference room is more like a conversation than anything else.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAUER:

Q. I want to go back. You said something in just the dialog that just happened that Eric was a very strategic person and that he liked to have things planned out; is that right?

A. He planned things out, okay? Yes. Yes. He -- he -- he -- he didn't go into -- you know, I guess it's kind of like going into battle. You just don't randomly run in there. He had a plan of building his business --

Q. Okay.

A. -- building his organization.

Q. And was that his day-to-day nature, to be that way, from what you've seen?

A. Yes, it was, but he also expected people that were involved in that plan to follow their -- to follow what was their responsibility. And he didn't come back and check on you every day.

You know, he developed a plan, like, all right, Jack, you're going to do this. Spencer, you're going to do that. You know, this is your area of responsibility, then we would -- he would regularly check-in or talk about where we were in the process.

Q. Okay. Did you have any opportunity to observe him being impulsive?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Any further questioning?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So are you going to submit that or not?

THE WITNESS: If you would like me to?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The thing you should know is -- REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: It becomes an exhibit and then it's public.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: If it becomes an exhibit, it will be a part of the report. So we'll leave it up to you.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Unless there is something you just want to share there that we haven't covered?

THE WITNESS: Let me read it real quick.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That may be easier. If there is something -- because we've asked the questions. If there is something we haven't asked or that you haven't had the opportunity to share that you wish to do so, that's probably the better way to do this.

THE WITNESS: Thank you. I think you guys really

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

hit most of the things. I think one thing -- and you mentioned this a little bit with the salaries and stuff -- that, you know, the Board pressured Eric, or wanted Eric to take a salary. They wanted him to be --

And even after he started taking a salary -- I told you we went through this growth -- he was the third highest paid employee in the organization.

Now, you know, if he was in it to take money out of the organization or do something like that, I think he would probably be the highest paid by far, okay?

So, you know, and salaries were driven -- were driven by the Board. I mean, they had to approve, like, his salary and -- but he -- he hired -- you know, he hired people to -- paid them more than himself. I think that -- I think that says something you need to think about too.

And he -- we -- one thing I mentioned in here is we had an annual gala, and Eric, even if he didn't -- could have -- didn't have to, but he always -- he always purchased a table for his family to attend the gala.

You know, that's out of his pocket. He was -- he donated a decent amount of money to The Mission Continues every year.

So you take that away from his salary too, so he was dedicated, okay? He truly loved the organization.

I think we've touched on everything that we --

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

that I had thought about that I wanted to make sure we said, so I don't see why I need to submit this then.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Thank you. We really appreciate you being willing to come down here and working with us on schedule, because I know you had a bunch of other things going on and being able to fit this in.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Absolutely.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We really appreciate it. We're going to excuse you so we can talk about other committee business.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Back from a break. I want the Committee to be aware that we received an extra set of e-mails from August of 2016. It's an e-mail from Spencer Kympton to Austin Chambers and a response about use of Mission Continues intellectual property in the campaign.

Those -- everyone should have a copy now. They are upstairs. I would like to mark that as an exhibit and enter it into the record. Everyone has been looking at the draft report.

I have taken Lyndsey Hodges' testimony and incorporated some new paragraphs of the report, kind of like we're reinventing the wheel on this draft. And then I will do the same as soon as we have a transcript of this one.

(AN OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION WAS HELD.)

(EXHIBIT NO. 22 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We need to vote to close tomorrow's meeting, which is on adjournment.

All those in favor will vote yes.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seven ayes and zero nos. We have voted to close tomorrow afternoon's hearing of this Committee.

We actually have a hearing room tomorrow and it

f54aaeeb-3318-46bf-b809-0c72ae797beb

will be in Room 5.

Any further business of the Committee?

This will conclude today's hearing of the House Special Committee On Investigative Oversight.

That's it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll call to order Missouri House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Now that we are properly situated where everyone wants to sit, or almost situated, today we're going to do essentially a mark-up session of a draft report. I've taken comments from various members about points in the Committee report that we need to have discussion on, and I have marked them on the screen and highlighted in color. And my plan is just to go straight down the list of everywhere that I have highlighted.

The first is -- we'll call this sensitive content warning. I think that due to the nature of the report and the language in it, that it's fair to put this on the cover so that readers can properly be apprised that they're about to see descriptions of an adult nature and, of course, language. Is there any objection to this?

GROUP RESPONSE: No.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seeing none, I'll remove the highlight. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we go off the record real quick?

(AN OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION WAS HELD.)

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. I'm sorry. Back on the record.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Back on the record. For the record, the discussion that was just had was regarding how to refer to witnesses in this hearing, so we are all on the same page as to who is Witness 1, who is Witness 2, who is Witness 3, who is Witness 4, so that we are not creating a report whereby we have to have a series of redactions per name.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Our first suggested change is on Page 2, and there was a suggestion mentioning that Mr. Greitens' declining to testify before the Committee at this point in time was consistent with his Constitutional rights. I have no objection to this change. If anybody else does, please speak them now.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I have no objection.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: None.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I have none.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: None.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: None.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: None.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: This refusal is consistent with -- is that -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: Are we capitalizing?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Did we decide we were going to capital --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes, we are --
COUNSELOR HALLEN: We have to fix it in all of the --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We need to capitalize it.
COUNSELOR HALLEN: There's going to be a bunch of grammatical changes we need to --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Greiten. So declined. And he needs to be specific. Thank you.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: And we can delete this last phrase if we want -- the committee has treated -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: An equal Constitutional right.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I don't -- it's not an equal Constitutional right before this Committee.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I guess that's right. Right. That's true.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Because if we chose to -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You're right.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- say you can't, we could say you can't, but we're treating it as if he has had that right.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah. Good.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Okay. The suggestion here, and I don't like how this is worded at all, the first two sentences here are just -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Wait, wait, wait. Before we go there, I would just like to again note for the record that when we're going through that list -- where are we -- again, that we will need to go through and capitalize Committee throughout. There may be some other grammatical changes. I don't want to bog us down with that. And I don't know if this is the appropriate time to talk about whether -- what -- you know, how we -- how we want to process this through; in that, we're going to sit here, we're going to, you know, come to a consensus or vote, perhaps, on making specific changes. But my hope would be that then on, perhaps, Monday morning, you know, we'll have reports back in the Speaker's office, we'll all have another opportunity to review --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- the collective changes. And at that point, my hope would be that what we will -- what I'm thinking is, maybe we'd produce a redline with the grammatical changes that I believe -- that the Chair certainly and I have kind of talked about --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Agreed.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- so that you guys see that.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Today is about the substantive changes.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's fine.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Scrivener's errors, grammatical, who cares.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So we'll take the opportunity -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Perfect. Just want to be clear that we're all on the same page about that, you know, the Committee being -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: And I think you're right, the redline form is what we need to do for the next thing.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Yeah, we'll do that.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I think actually we delete this part. I want to point -- I do want to point out that -- how -- or here's the alternative. And I'm just talking out loud here, guys, is we could delete that part.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would delete the first part. I believe that -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Is -- hold on. Before I do that, that was a little bit -- that was a little bit quick.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So I'm assuming you have a back-up?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I think -- because I think that, Representative Austin, it was your suggestion to delete that first part, I think.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I just said it was a little too much, but I -- but -- I did. But here's what I also like, is that I think we do need to say something about our time constraints. I mean, we've been asked to do -- Jay, and what you said before is, an investigation that would take law enforcement six months to do, we've had to do it in a very much shorter time frame.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We've talked to a number -- yeah, we've talked to a number of witnesses and we don't have, necessarily, the resources to hire folks to go out and do a lot of this work. So I -- I think that's fair to keep in. You know, for the part that we're doing today, we've -- we've talked to all the most relevant witnesses, and we've done so in a short time frame.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We have, but there's still others. I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: There are some others. There's --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: There -- there was a request made for interrogs, et cetera, and, I mean, so I -- I think that -- I mean, we have been under a time crunch, and this isn't also our full-time job as legislators. I mean, we've had to do other things, as well. So I -- I like your statement noting the crunch we've been under.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So what if we keep that. I want to delete the second part of the paragraph, because we are not -- we're going to get to this vote on -- on bifurcating the report, but this obviously references a second part.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, I have a problem with that, and here's the thing, first of all -- and I'm -- I'm just going to bring a minority caucus perspective here, is that the significant time and resource constraints were self-imposed. And I -- I believe that saying, you know, these are self-imposed time and resource constraints. We could have gone about this in different -- in a different way. I'm not suggesting that we should have, but I am saying that I -- I have a problem with that sentence.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, self-imposed, now, you mean because we didn't vote to extend our deadline, or self-imposed because we all voted for the resolution in the first place?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, I mean, to some extent, yes. And, you know, the second -- the second phrase of that first sentence, I don't -- I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The resource constraints.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You're saying that if we had so chosen as a body --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- we could have spent money to hire private investigators --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN: -- and counsel at this point in time.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't want to diminish what we are doing, but I think that that sort of --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I don't disagree with what you're saying, Gina, but I'd still like to have something in there to show that, you know, we've had to do this in 40 days or under.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Could we remove the second, third -- first, second, third -- fifth word? No. The Committee operated under --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You know what, let's do this. Let's put this in the parking lot; is that okay?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Is it not though -- the time frame was somewhat dictated by the lengthy session?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And by the Resolution.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: And the Resolution. I think we should --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: I think we should point to the Resolution here in some way.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Why can't we just say 40 days? Just call it like it is instead of --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: There's a reason for it.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: That's fine.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Just -- just --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: That's fine. I'm fine with just saying that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: One, two, three -- one, two, three -- the fifth word, I don't think that we need to modify time constraints.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: You probably can say that word if you want to.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So that's the question. I mean, there's no way we could have got -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I understand. I -- I -- I -- I just -- okay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And then after Resolution, delete the rest?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think so.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, because we're going to be -- we're issuing a bifurcated report.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do we want to do this, or do we want to delete the second sentence?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would just take away -- no, no, no. Go -- after procured to -- in -- a cost. I think that's reasonable.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, no, I -- I would take the whole sentence out.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And then I'd just move this up.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes, that's fine.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. I'll remove the highlight from that. Are we in agreement?
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: So now at no point have we referenced the, I guess, criminal investigation. Is that an issue?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't think we -- personally, I don't think that we have to spell out what we're -- what we've done is going to be spelled out in the report itself. We don't have to say, here's what we did -- here's what we did, and now here's five pages explaining what we did.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You mean, his declining to testify because of his -- the criminal --
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Or at least --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That -- that appears later.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay. I'm just making sure, since we took it out here, to make sure it doesn't appear somewhere else. Because I think in some way that -- I mean, that ties in to what it is that -- that we're doing.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: You're saying, Tommie, we're stating the purpose of our investigation?
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: No, I'm just wanting to make sure that if we take out the fact that there's a criminal investigation going on concurrent to what it is that we're doing, I think that's a piece of information that in some way should be included in this.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: And I think we still have it here.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We do. It's -- we have it later.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: And then there's some of it later.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay. Very good.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: So I -- Mr. Chairman, I want to go back to the second sentence.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: The second sentence here?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: It says, the Committee also notes that Greitens declined to participate in it's fact-finding process. Can we put that --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Kind of like you're suggesting, later on in the document?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: As long as they're consistent, because that wouldn't be consistent as the other one. It would say -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Time.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: At this point in time, due to -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just at this time, not point in time; it's just a time.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Do we want to put in there, due to a criminal case or --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I thought there's a paragraph that specifically talks about that.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: There is, Paragraph 3. There is. And instead of at maybe at this point in time, be more deferent by the issuance -- or at the time of the issuance of this report.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: At this time, that's -- the report is dated, so it's as of today, you know.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: All right. Let's move on.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Are we good?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Less is more.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. All right. Our wordsmithing. So here are some ideas. One idea is, to varying degrees, the members of the Committee -- so right now it says Witness 1 was a credible witness. Option one: To varying degrees, the members of the Committee believe Witness 1 was a credible witness. That's one option.
I believe Representative Rhoads had an option that might be easier.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I just put that the witness appeared to be a credible witness.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I like varying degrees better.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't -- I'm not an English major, so you need to word it to where --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let me ask this. Is there any member of this Committee that believes Witness 1 was not credible?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think my --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I can't -- I can't give a blanket statement that -- to say to everybody who reads this that I found her 100 percent credible.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Can we say overall?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I cannot say that every fact that she told us -- everything that she told us is 100 percent truth, because we have nothing to go on.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There's no way. That's not what you're saying though. It's saying, do you find her to be credible; that's different than saying --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: But how do I say she's credible?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, because -- well, because if I tell you that the sky is blue, you decide. Do you think that I'm telling the truth or do you think that I'm not? That doesn't mean that it is, in fact, the truth. Do you think that I'm telling the truth.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: But --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Credibility is different.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: But -- but the thing is though, is what Witness 1 said in Committee, how do we prove that that's exactly what happened?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's not what you're saying. You're saying, we found her to be credible.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You're saying -- and I think everyone would agree that, overall, she was a credible witness. I know there are some members who have -- who --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: She appeared credible to me. She appeared to be.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, Rashomon, that's probably a reference that's --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: So, Shawn, you're saying we have no proof, so, therefore --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Exactly. Unfortunately, the problem is -- and I get it -- is we don't have somebody else that was involved in that situation that said X, Y, and Z happened, yes, that's correct. Okay?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You never have that.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Look, I know, but --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. Hold on, hold on, hold on. Hold on, let's slow down, because we're all interrupting each other. We are all interrupting each other, so --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Fair enough.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And we're around this circle table, so it's more of a conversation. I want it to be conversational, but I also don't want everybody to be interrupting each other. So I'm going to then start calling on people. And I still want it to be free-flowing, but Representative Austin, and then --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'll -- yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. I have some doubts about the veracity of some of the things she said. And the reason I say it is, one is, she kind of gave conflicting testimony. And she allowed herself, I believe, to be kind of led down this one path, and then she'd say something else when she was asked similar questions.

So I can't sit there and say to whoever reads this report that I found her credible, knowing that they'll take from that that I believe everything she said in there is 100 percent truth.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Well, the definition of a credible witness is, competent to give evidence and is worthy of belief.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Number -- part one, I'm okay with; part two, worthy of belief? What is -- I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, here's --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We need to define that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- a couple of things. First, I think the standard of, if there's not someone else saying it, we can't say it's credible, is not a real-world standard. There's thousands of criminal trials every single year where you would never be able to get a conviction if that were the real-world standard.

Number two, there are things about her testimony that lend credibility to her. The first is regarding the first instance, up until the point where she was taken down. Her testimony before our Committee is entirely consistent with what she said in a car with her husband when she -- her husband promised that -- that it would never get out of the car. It's a tearful conversation, and that's what she says there.

After that point in time, we have friends of hers that corroborate certain things that she said at certain points in time. Now, some -- one was within three to four days, another one was -- I think both of them were within a week. And the details don't match up 100 percent correct, but --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Nor should they.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Nor should they. Exactly. If they matched up perfectly, we would be highly suspicious of them matching up perfectly.

In addition to that, the things that she said that happened after the things that were already in that call are so embarrassing that I don't see a person making facts that embarrassing up when there's nothing in it for her.

And she testified to us that -- she testified that she felt guilty herself. She felt shame and embarrassment, and that she didn't like that person, I think she said at some point in time, which is not -- she didn't come in and play this victim of all victims part.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Innocent, yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: She said she was -- she said, you know, there are things that I really regret.

And I think that that adds to her credibility. This is not -- these are not the types of things that I imagine her making up, in any respect, and her demeanor when she was telling this. Yes, there were times where she -- there were leading questions, but most of it -- the start of it was free-flow. It was, what happened next, what happened next, what happened next.

And if we go later in the document, where there's that conflict, we need to know where there is that conflict, and it is noted in the document.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: May I -- I have some proposed language from our superstar, Alix Hallen here, which is, Witness 1 provided credible testimony from which the Committee drew the following facts.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I don't want to say facts, but I'll say evidence. But here's what -- why don't we do Shawn's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: From which the Committee found -- finds the following.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: The Committee finds Witness 1 to be, overall, a credible witness. Credibility is defined as, and then we use Jeanie's definition.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: And while you're typing, I'll -- I'll make my case, as well.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm not going to delete what's up there; I'm going to put all the options up there.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I -- I --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Because I -- well, the good thing is, we have a reporter here who can read it back, but I want -- the Committee finds -- so hold your thought, let me write this down so we've got multiple options on the board.

The Committee finds Witness 1 to be an overall credible witness -- and what did you say next?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Credibility is defined as -- and then Jeanie's definition.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'll find it.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Do we really need to define that? I don't think so.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think I'm fine with that definition, because I think what Representative Austin is saying is, there's certain things in this testimony --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I need to take this.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's take a short break.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Back to -- after a short phone call break, we are back, and Representative

Rhoads has the floor.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I guess to say an overall credible witness, is that any different than saying credible witness?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that it is. I think overall is a -- is a word of limitation on --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think it is, too. I think it shows there's little areas that --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: All right.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yeah. I like that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we delete the definition?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We don't need that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I like -- I like having it in. I'm open either way. I --

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: I say less is more. I say we can -- I think the overall helps --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I actually like having it in, but I can go either way.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm either way. I think it just does give a level of standard as to what we were all basing it on. It doesn't matter to me.

Page 25

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Rhoads, does it bother you one way or another? Do you have a strong preference?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think -- I think we could go with the majority on that. I don't -- I don't see that -- I mean, I don't think that having a definition there really adds or takes away. I mean, I think it's --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I think most people understand the word credible.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: They should know what credible means.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. There it is. Okay. So are we -- I can take the highlight off of this?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Are we in agreement on that? Okay.

Okay. Paragraph 2, I -- and this is going to be a theme. We have -- every witness we -- I think every witness, other than Witness 1 -- well, and Witness 3 -- we asked whether they had a reputation for truthfulness and honesty. And the answer we got, no matter who we were asking about it, was yes. So I am in favor of taking it out all around.

So the other thing is, technically, that sort of question isn't relevant until it's been questioned in some respect.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I'm for taking it out, but you're not meaning take it out of the transcript?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Just out of our report?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Just out of the report. I don't think it adds anything.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think that taking it out of the transcript could be sort of a gross violation of our duty, frankly.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But I'm fine with taking it out.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: And just to confirm, the transcript will be part of the report --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: -- or an appendix to the report?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. In addition to grammatical changes, we are going to have to go through and check that our citations stayed correct after the edits and -- because we have -- remember, we have corrections to the transcript coming, and we're making edits to the document right now that -- did I spell confidant right? I don't think that I did.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes. Also, I just want to -- I want to make, again, clear for the group again and for the record, that any corrections to the transcript are really just typographical errors. Sometimes, you know, a word gets jumbled, especially -- well, I know some of my testimony was jumbled, because I talk really fast, and I know there were times when Chairman Barnes couldn't be heard. So we are not making anything remotely close to substantive changes; I believe that those changes have been available for review, or if they haven't been, they will be. But I want to make it clear that --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, let's just give an example. Vice-Chairman John Phillips is what one of them said, and so -- it's Don Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's Don Phillips.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I think confidant does not have an E on it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Does not have an E? Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes. So -- so the changes that we will be getting in the transcripts are going to be the redactions, which we're going to talk about, I believe, later today. And then whatever corrections, which I believe also for the most part are going to be -- we're going to try to throw them up on the screen.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. No one marked this paragraph about Witness 3. I'm going to mark it now, because I think we're going to need to come back to it after our discussion about redactions. So if someone could take down a note that we're going to have to come back to Paragraph 3 --

COUNSELOR HALLEN: I've got it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- at the very end. So Paragraph 4 here, consistent with what we just had, we're going to delete this.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Take away the E.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: E off confidant.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. I'll take away that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: What?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, I'm just --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, it's highlighted. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It doesn't leave much of a sentence.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that's a -- I think that's a -- since how long she's known the witness. I think that's --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So Paragraph 5, what we want to do is track the language from above; is that correct? Okay. So let's go get our language from above.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: You might want to just highlight what we've done in a different color so we can easily go back and reference some of these things.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Well, I think we're -- I think we're --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This sentence right here, is that what we want to take?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We still are going to reference the criminal case? I just want to -- I can't remember where -- so we're keeping both of those sentences?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, that's my intent.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes, that's fine.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Is everyone in agreement with that change?

GROUP RESPONSE: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. This is further detail that I think is very important to put -- to put in here in -- in Paragraph 6, which is the relationship prior to the incident of March 21, 2015. And I, again, I follow the same pattern of just quoting from the transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we trim some of this of this though? I mean, it's in the transcript and I -- it just seems to me that an ellipsis, again, starting from, seemed pretty typical until we got to know each other pretty well; it's, like -- no, no. Not -- you're going -- that's not what I'm talking about. I'm talking about, like, the third line.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, hold on. I'm cutting down up front because -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Yeah. Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I mean, let's just go line by line. He became a regular --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- client of mine.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I saw him pretty regularly as he was traveling. Seemed pretty typical, ellipsis. We got to know each other pretty well, and I thought he was great. You know what I'm saying; this stuff is in the transcript verbatim. We don't necessarily -- again, less is more.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do we want to ellipsis all of this?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Sure.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes or no?

GROUP RESPONSE: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I would almost take this out except for -- that it puts context to the second part of the sentence.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. I agree.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Leave that in.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I agree. And again, it's only a couple of sentences, but it's in the transcript, and clarity --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am, I agree in unanimity on that point. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't think we need -- going back to -- what was that, seven? We don't need the, fall to March, Greitens didn't make any appointments. Just on or about March 7th, Greiten returned for, you know, came -- made an appointment or came for a haircut.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, I think it matters, because if you look at the transcript, that gap in time is something that she testified to.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. You're -- I could be amenable to that.

Representative Rhoads? Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just the first sentence. You could even just say on or about March 7th, Greiten returned after a six -- you know, a --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: What was the start date?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's, like, 2013, wasn't it?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Is there a date up above that says --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Then again, it was, unless he was traveling. I saw him regularly unless he was traveling.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Let's just leave it in.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Leave it in.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You may think it's a bit verbose, but come on.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Now I see footnote three here and -- where is footnote three? This is for the declining to testify, and so I think that correspondence with counsel, that should be included in the record. And we're going to have to get exhibit numbers for that stuff. And what I would propose is, we just append it onto the end of the -- whatever exhibit number we're on now, we just do -- we just do one exhibit that contains all of that traffic.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: May I make a suggestion, which is that we just -- exhibits that were used in the course of witness testimony would have numbers; exhibits that we -- came to us outside of witness testimony would have letters? Maybe that's more confusing though; that's kind of a lawyer thing.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think it's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You may be right about that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think it's more confusing.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You may be right about that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll just put our exhibits in number order --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: In number order, and -- yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Because we had a 15A.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's a lawyer thing.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: And that was a subset of 15, so we used --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, 15A -- 15A was a -- the A was created by the parties to that agreement, not by us.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So here's another deal, Witness 1 testified straight out of the transcript. I'm fine with it.

GROUP RESPONSE: Fine.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Everybody's waiting on somebody else to say something.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I mean, it is what it is.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That's the facts.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, but, Representative, I want to make sure everybody has a chance to actually read it that I've added to the document.

Okay. Next.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: This -- on Paragraph 8, it needs to be in with witness testified that during the March 7th appointment, Greitens moved his hand.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: 2015?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, 2015.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- guys, I don't want to -- once we start in a year, until we're in a new year, we don't need to put the year in every single paragraph.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Agreed.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Nobody's going to be confused that this was different.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think folks that haven't been living with it like we have --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, but it flows together as a document. Okay. New -- new phrase, and I'll just shut up, because I'm -- I added this here and you guys were waiting for me to say something.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: What?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I'm good with Paragraph 9.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Paragraph 10 is the code conversation.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I'm good with Paragraph 10.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, right, okay. Good grief. Is this now 42 pages of --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- solely related to the --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- charges to Witnesses 1 through 4?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're going to be less than 30 pages.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: There's nothing wrong with detail.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Could we go down a little bit?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yep.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And then I deleted what I had there previously, so I had that --

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: What is this -- what does that word go with, the t-w-o-n?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, is there a bad hyphen?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think it's between, isn't it? What is that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let's go up again.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Can you go up a little bit?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Out of town. Thank you.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Out of twon. Okay. All right. I'm going to un-highlight this.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Wait a minute, is there -- I don't have hyphen you comma; is that accurate? It should be you know, that last sentence in the quote. I don't know -- well, I can go and look at the actual transcript.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: How about we do this, because it's not pertinent either way? How about we just do that?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, no, just take away the don't have, because I have to get back to my house in a minute. Yeah.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. Okay. Where are we next?
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: We're making progress now.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Look at this.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. This was -- I agree with this and leave it to what was in there. I was trying to do a summary. And what -- I need to take the strike off.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that change is relating to let the -- let the testimony speak for itself.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Delete again; delete again. You've got two semicolons. Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is an additional citation to -- where's 41 -- to something -- to this type of testimony, about being taken down, and so I just want to cite everywhere in the record there's discussion of it.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, right. Uh-huh.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: And if people are reviewing this and you see anything that we missed -- we missed something else that's in the record that relates to something we've already cited, point it out. I mean, I did my best to find every place -- every place in the record. I added this, because it's better with the context of the specific question that was asked.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, wait a minute. I know that she was specifically asked about being coerced.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I believe that is in there somewhere; yes. So that's earlier. It's a hard question --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The second line.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- because I did, it felt like consent, but, no, I didn't want to do it. She further explained coerced maybe. I felt as though -- do you want to say when directly asked?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I'm okay.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And this is what happens back at the house, her testimony about back at the house.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The man that I knew before -- last sentence.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am. Okay. Let me save this before I --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's control S.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I mean, this is just really recitations of the testimony.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, but it does so in a fashion that merges -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right, I get that.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- the testimony together in a fashion that is readable.
I do not know why this is highlighted. Does anyone know why this is highlighted? I know why it's highlighted, because this is what happens after she testified that he slapped her and they had this conversation. And I think that what happens after that is important to put in the report itself.

Discussion, if any?
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: No.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: So what I did was the -- do we have the -- the current -- before I added that change. I'm not sure why that's highlighted, because it's the same in this copy that I have in front of me. So that may have been an accidental highlight. I apologize for that. This -- I had this highlighted. This was highlighted, and I've looked -- it's the same as it was before.
This is what was new, it's 56. Discussion? Is everyone fine with adding -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You're adding that?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We are adding this. Any objections? Seeing none. Okay. This is the details on the -- REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Mr. Chairman, can we go back?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: 63, 64 -- wait a minute. Never mind. I apologize. Go ahead. You -- you added numbers.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, I've added numbers, so your --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- 63 and 64 are different. Okay. So 65 is -- this is the -- we want to add this constitutional language again?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do we -- can we do it in a footnote this time? The Committee notes once again --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: That's fine.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So let me --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's an automatic numbering; it's not going to like that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, we've got to fix that.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Is there a legal reason we keep saying this point in time after everything?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I agree. There is no reason to do that. It just says, at this time, is all that's needed. The report is dated.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: See, because right there, it says, or answer interrogations under oath. It doesn't say, at this point in time. It just seems like all that is extra if it doesn't need to be in there.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You know what, that could actually be changed to say, Greitens declined to testify, comma, provide documents, or answer interrogatories under oath at this point in time stating, through counsel, that he --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: At this time.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, sorry. Did I say that?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: You did.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: At this time. Look at that, I'm guilty of my own crime.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. At this time is now, but at the point we asked --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, at this time is the date of the report.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But that's not when he declined. He declined when we asked him earlier.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, then you would say as of March 20 --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: At that time.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Exactly. So that's why if you say, at this time, you know.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: What's wrong with just saying he just declined to testify, period?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Amen.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm fine with that, too.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I mean, really, that's the bottom line.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would be fine with that.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: That covers it all; that covers all of it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There. There you go; I think that's perfect.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And also you need to split up the documents and the interrogatories from the testimony, because that's a separate -- those are separate issues.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's why. Okay. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. But he has offered to testify, you know, later on after the --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's in there.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But -- but that's in here, that he would be willing to testify at the conclusion of the criminal case.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, okay. Sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I can get rid of some commas, and I can get rid of that. Okay. These are -- let's see, I think -- so I'm going to do a slow fly by here, and everybody -- here, you can look at the copy. We've got one, two -- I think there are four paragraphs, and I think they -- they kind of flow --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: These are news reports.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, they're more than news reports, they are recordings. They are audio recordings or video recordings of his statements, so they're not -- this is not at all, hey, we've got a transcription from a reporter, and who knows if the transcription is correct. It is -- and we've -- I've cited them. And what I -- actually, what I want, you know, I would hope is that we've got this document. I can set forth the -- the links of where these are for people to review and make sure that I've got -- got it right, what was said.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Right. So -- but our resolution says we are to administer an oath -- none of these folks have been administered an oath. Now, we are accepting some documents that weren't -- a foundation was laid, I understand, but most of them we have had foundations. And I mean, this is in the public sphere, I mean, as far as news reports.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think a couple of things. As to reliability, so laying the foundation -- for the video, I think we can lay the foundation ourselves based on we can see that it is, in fact, him. There were lots of news reports where we can call the reporter in to testify that they were there -- someone in the room, that they were there, and, yes, that's what they heard him same.

For the tape recording, it's clearly his voice -- the tape recording of the Associated Press. It's clearly his voice. It appears to be an interview that was set up by the Governor's office for the -- the -- so let's take these one at a time. Sorry.

The Associated Press interview, the entire interview is posted here at this SoundCloud.com. It is clearly his voice. It appears that it was an interview set up by the Governor's office. He was asked questions that this Committee would have asked.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, but, now that's a little problematic, because now, obviously, you're saying, well, we're taking the Governor's testimony as if he were here. But he's not here and he's not under oath as we are required under the Resolution to put our witnesses under.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: And quick question to add to that, that would be like taking Witness 3's statement from the news media and entering it as well.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, a couple of things. Number one, if it's, in fact, a statement of Witness 3 that is an audio recording, it would be admissible as a statement of a party or -- he would be -- he's not necessarily a party; he's a witness. It -- this type of stuff is admissible in trials as statements of a party. Yes, he's not under oath, but it is, in fact, his statement.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: But, yes. The other thing is, and I apologize, are we 100 percent sure that what you're quoting up here was not edited in any way?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I would encourage you to read the -- to listen to the interviews.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I just don't think that it has any place in our report.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: They're his words.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Doesn't matter.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Maybe -- I mean, the audio portion? Now, maybe we can have a little give there, but it's still not under oath, but let me ask you this --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I think we should -- I think that that should be noted, but also I, you know, I think that's obvious, but fine with noting it.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, I don't know if we have to note it if we do put it in. But let me back up just a little bit and just ask a couple of questions. Since this is an investigative Committee, there aren't parties. So admission of a party opponent, I think is improper law.

What is it when you have a statement against interest of a witness; what's the law there? Do you guys -- I don't remember that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Statement against interest if it --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's hearsay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's an exception to hearsay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Unless -- but does it have to be contrary to their interest? I mean, it's not just anything. Like, I always think of as a admission of a party opponent, you can throw anything in there and get it into evidence. But if it's a witness -- just a witness, it has to be something contrary to their interest.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I think, obviously, he's a -- he is a party in some sense. There's two -- I think there's two parties here: Witness 1 and the Governor. So also the rule -- I mean, those are the conflicting sides. I mean, this is audio; this is a recording from the Associated Press that's been online and reported, and the Governor's office didn't say he was misquoted or that there was anything wrong with the recording.

The other one is a -- is a video from a press conference that you can see the words coming out of his mouth. It's a 40-minute press conference. They're words that came out of his mouth; we didn't put them in there. There's no editing of the transcript that is obvious at all, and I would -- I want to encourage that we get people to actually go look at this and check how I've done this. But he said it; they're his words.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah. I'm trying to, you know, also defend my position about statement against interest and the rules of hearsay on all this, but there's just something that just strikes me in my gut that's wrong that we're putting in AP reports, even my beloved KY3 reports in here.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But it's not an AP report. We are putting in what he said on a -- sort of like Witness 1 was tape recorded in a car and that is relevant. And --

COUNSELOR HALLEN: And it's part of our transcript.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And it's part of our transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: After a foundation was laid.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: With people under oath.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: She wasn't under oath in that car.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, but she --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, she -- she testified under oath that that was her in -- in the -- in the audio recording.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, she did. Are you -- Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Oh, sorry.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, you had your hand up.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yeah. Okay. We cannot not have -- we do not have a direct statement from him, because he did not come forward to testify.

And without that, we -- without this, we have no reference to him and his position. That would be absent. So given that this exists, it seems to me we should include it, because it does complete the framework of the entire picture and it includes information that we have regarding him -- or of him.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I've got it up here; we'll play it for the Committee. I mean, this is --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't think playing the -- the tape doesn't do anything. I mean, that's not -- the whole thing is, is that we're quoting -- we're quoting newspaper and media stuff that --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This isn't --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: If we're going to do that, we're going to -- we're going to quote Witness 3's interview on whatever TV station it was on.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. It's his statement.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: They're words that came out of his mouth. It's not that it was in a news report, it's that there were words -- this is -- these --

(VIDEO PLAYED.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's listen to this without a transcript of the audio, because that -- I mean --

(VIDEO PLAYED.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So that is his voice. That is his statement about facts that are fundamental here. It is admissible in any type of proceeding, because it is a statement of -- any type of proceeding relating to this, because it's a statement of a party. It's going to be admissible in the criminal proceeding.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Because he's a party. He's not a party here. This is an investigative committee. Hey, how do you want to resolve this, Mr. Chair?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: They're -- they're his words. Representative Pierson? I'm sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: It sounds like the difference between what we allowed as admissible that happened in the car with Witness 1, and this is that Witness 1 had an opportunity and Witness 3 had an opportunity to, under oath, confirm that that's who said what we are allowing as evidence.

So we did not get an opportunity to do that with these statements, so can we put -- or make that statement that, you know, we were not able to -- some kind of qualifying statement? I think having this kind of -- I would be in favor of keeping this in there with some kind of qualifying statement of, we did not have an opportunity to, you know, confirm. But I think with reasonable -- I mean, I believe that that was his voice. I believe that these were his statements; some type of a qualifying statement.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can I?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It seems to me, and I don't -- I guess we'd have to go back to the paragraph that started all of this. But it seems to me that the Governor has made a decision not to testify. We can all debate the reasons for that and we can write that up in our report. But the bottom line is that this Committee is making in its findings that the Governor has declined to come and appear. The Governor has declined to produce documents. The Governor has declined to answer written interrogatories, and the -- and we can still say this is out in the public.

And as an -- as an -- basically, this is a way for this Committee to say, we recognize that the Governor has not authenticated this information. And maybe that's the qualifying statement that Representative Pierson would like to see.

But I agree, I think that -- I think that it should be in here. This is -- this is pertinent to our investigation, and just because it's not under oath, the public -- let the -- let the public look at these words and decide for themselves.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Sorry. I just wanted to pull it up. So this one's not just audio, this is a video of -- of him. I mean, there's no case to be made that these are not authentic.

And then the third one is -- let me pull the third one up. The fourth one, I think there's -- there's a case. We can -- we can talk about that in a moment. The -- so the third one, again, is --

(VIDEO PLAYED.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is clearly Governor Greitens. So -- and then the third one is an interview on KMOV, which is a spliced interview. They don't provide -- otherwise, we have -- one, two, and three we have all the way through. We have, like, a 30-minute uninterrupted for the press conference. We have 20 minutes uninterrupted for the Associated Press interview, and then we have three minutes uninterrupted for Missouri Press Association.

Here we have an interview that is clearly spliced together, and so to the extent there's authentication problems or anything, this -- this is the one that more relies on a news report, is this fourth one.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Jeanie, what do you think?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: My thought is that absent him testifying, this is, indeed, evidence that has been put forth, including the verification that it is, indeed, him in person and in audio. And that, again, absent of him testifying, we are including this as part of the report.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think that if we want to include this in the report, this stuff's already out there, why would it need to be in our report if it's already out in the public?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's relevant to the -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, the story.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Yeah. These are directly --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I just -- I don't -- I don't see that that's something that we did in our Committee. We've never even discussed this in Committee. In any of our investigations, this portion was never discussed in front of the Committee at all.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That is true. That is true.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: And that's the sole reason why it needs to be gone.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, we can notice it up for Monday and watch the videos in full.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: That's what I'm saying is, the report's preliminarily made and we're going to have to have a hearing so we can watch TV programs and news stories.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We can -- we can watch them today. I mean, this is what -- I would encourage every member of the Committee to double verify -- and I've got the citations down here -- to double verify the exact words and to watch these videos. We've -- we've got the links. It's not like I'm pulling this out of --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I also think that if we're going to do that, then we need to subpoena who was taking the audio recording so they can authenticate it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: This is not a trial. This is an investigative report.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I agree. But if we're going to -- if we're going to go through the steps that we've went through to get to the point where we're at, we can't just go, well, it's okay for this one.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't think that that's what anybody's saying. That's certainly not what I'm saying. My attitude is, because the Governor declined -- and -- and I'm not trying to weigh in on those -- on the basis or the reasons for that decline or why he declined. But because the Governor has declined, it does seem to some degree that we would be remiss if we did not point out that the Governor has made public statements that, you know, as we're seeing here, as -- as the Chair is outlining in his draft.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do you believe that that was, in fact, Governor Greitens?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I mean, sure, it looks like him, but I'm not talking about that. I'm talking more about the audiotapes, the cut news stories, that kind of stuff. I mean, that's not work the Committee did. None of it is.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's true, there -- it -- it's also relevant to our inquiry. And if we want to notice it up on Monday and watch the videos -- watch the videos with the court reporter.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We can notice up --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: If I were called in --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, let's notice it up tomorrow. Let's do it. I'm here; let's go.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: We already are.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We can do Monday.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, we'll do tomorrow morning.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: If I were called in to this Committee and asked to testify on the phone call I got from Greitens, it would -- I would say, during that conversation, he said he admitted to the affair, that he -- he said he did not blackmail, he said that there was no violence. That's what he told me on the phone. So we have numerous people in the body who have been contacted with those statements.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Let me throw this -- oh, go ahead.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That's all right. I'm fine.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I think, can we -- Representative Phillips hasn't -- and maybe you don't want to say anything, because I think we --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think everybody's talked except for Representative Phillips, and then you've got a suggestion for another idea.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, I do.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I don't see anything wrong with referencing it; I don't. I think it ties into the fact that he wasn't willing to talk to us, but he was more than willing to talk to the press. It's documented there. I don't think it -- I don't think it's a problem.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Not that this is how you have to handle it because you're Chair, but if we took a vote, I think it would be five to two about coming in. Having said that, both Tommie and Jeanie have some qualifying language or intro language. Now, here's -- put that in there.
Now, here's maybe the hard part. Do we want to footnote Shawn and my's objection? Just say, we object to this intro, but we'll side with the -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'd be -- yes, I'm open to that. I also think -- REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But that gets us down a path where, do we want to go?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think we're going to hit that path on another issue, too, aren't we?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Not -- maybe on -- on the redaction issue?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, I -- possibly, yeah. I mean -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, you're talking about the redaction issue. I'm fine -- I am absolutely fine with that, because I don't think -- you don't dispute -- I think if you listen to the audio and you watch the video, there's no person that can dispute that that is, in fact, Governor Greitens.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: My complaint is not that I'm worried about the CIA or KGB coming in here and putting words, you know, on the -- on these tapes, you know. Also they're all in one piece, they're not spliced like that KMOX one or KMOV, whatever it is.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do you want to take KMOV out because -- REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I do, but --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- of the splicing? I'm fine with that.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: The ones that are in their entirety, but I still just -- I just didn't want any media reports in here.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, let's put --
MR. RHOADS: I echo the same comments as Representative Austin.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I'm in favor of taking KMOV out, because it is spliced together.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Look at that compromise.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: You didn't hear what

I said just a minute ago, did you?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm hoping you all remember what I said later.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't think any media reports should be in our report.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: So it's this Paragraph 70, which is the St. Louis television station? Are we okay with taking that out, because that was not the full interview?
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yep.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Correct.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: The one that was him standing there speaking, was that a press conference?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: That was a press conference on the State budget.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. So that would have been controlled by him, that is him, that's him saying it.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I would add, the Associated Press interview was in his office, and if you listen to it, there's a press person there directing the interview saying, okay, we've got to wrap up here; clearly set up by his office in preparation for being asked these questions. Which we might not have asked that question exactly, but we would have certainly asked that question in some way.

So Representative Austin, can we -- let's -- why don't we put this in the parking lot to think about how you want to word that footnote and come back to it, or do you want to do it now?
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Or do you want to do it?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Or do you want to do it?
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: If you're going to object anyway, it doesn't matter, does it?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would like to go on record that -- just that I do -- it seems to me that if we're going to have a report that includes footnotes of who disagrees with what, we could end up with a lot of footnotes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, but I don't know that there -- I don't know that he's -- that they're disagreeing as to the fact that it was said and that it was Governor Greitens. They're disagreeing as to its inclusion in the report.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. And I would --
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Possibly the record we're making right now is sufficient to record our objections; I don't know. Let's -- let's think about it and come back.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. I'll leave it highlighted. And we agreed to delete the KMOV, which was edited -- an edited report.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And I don't remember the qualifying language that Tommie and Jeanie had; though I hope they do.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll figure it out.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It was absent his testimony.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll come back to it. Okay. Paragraph 70. Representative Austin, I -- REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, is this --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is her fear, and I think -- she's expressing fear to both Governor Greitens and to her ex-husband.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: First place, I had a question as to who she's talking about fear of, because if you look at Page 80, Lines 13 through 16, to me it's clearly saying the ex-husband. Jay and I both kind of read it, maybe she's meaning both.
But let me just ask this overall, what's the relevancy of -- of her feelings, at this point, of fear. I mean, with -- certainly without -- I mean, the only supportive evidence we might have is she testified that -- that the ex may have surveyed her either by having friends or professionally, and that Eric Greitens walked by her salon afterwards. So I -- I mean, but I don't see how it's relevant, her fear.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think it's -- her fear is relevant to credibility, and because there's the suggestion, at least in the public space, about the fact that she did not come forward of her own accord for a long period of time, that somehow that cuts against her credibility. And the fact that she had fear both of Governor Greitens and of her ex-husband is relevant to suggest why she would not come forward.
And it goes to what I think is not atypical behavior of someone who's been a victim of sexual assault or violence in this sort of fashion to have that kind of fear and to testify to that kind of fear.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Is that evidence weighty enough to deserve a paragraph in a report? It's certainly in there as an exhibit.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: My gosh, we're on Page 22 and we've had 15 pages of what they could arguably consider to be not relevant to the extent that we're reciting transcripts. So it seems to me, honestly, I -- it's, like, I don't see the problem. If the point of this is to pull out portions of the transcript in order to basically write a more concise story of what this Committee has heard, yeah, it's relevant.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I would go a step further and say, the relevance has to do with that very last line.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I was not as concerned about the picture, but worried about my physical well being. That is significant in this situation to her whole make-up and everything that's going on.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Let's back up.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I also think it's important to -- we get this next line; she's also fearful of her ex-husband.
Representative Rhoads?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Please remind me the time where she's referencing that she was -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: During this period?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: -- worried for her physical well being. Was that during the first sexual encounter?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, this is -- this is later. This is 1-11, so 79 -- I've got her testimony here in front of me.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I guess we could reference it to which visit that she made to his house that she was fearful for her life.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, but that's not --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, we don't know that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So let me -- let me just read from the transcript for you. So this is Representative Lauer, she says, starting on Page 79, Line 20: Okay. We've talked about blackmail and, of course, they were talking about more of the financial thing. I'm going to ask a bit more about the emotional side, because there were times when you said that Eric would ask if you had told, and said good girl and so forth. Did you feel that there was a threat coming from him, and that if you did say something, that something would happen?

And her answer is, oh, definitely. Oh definitely. I -- during this time period, I was also fearful of the picture, but also of what I didn't know; what else would he do, because this obviously meant a lot to him. It wasn't until later that I became not as worried about the picture, more worried about my physical well being.

And then Representative Lauer asks, talk about that a bit, about your physical; what caused you to feel that way?

And then she says, I felt as though this obviously meant a lot to him to be running for governor. I knew I had told my husband, more -- more importantly than anybody, and that if the word got back to him -- and I think that him refers then to Governor Greitens -- he would do something to hurt me to make sure that I couldn't tell anybody else, or that, you know, this -- I would know that I wasn't supposed to be doing -- supposed to be doing, you know, telling anybody this.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Okay. Well, thank you. I was trying to clarify where that was.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It gets confusing.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And so this is after -- I think because of where it is in the report, it is clear that it's not relating back to the first incident. Maybe I should -- why don't we just put, testified to her fear after --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: After her four sexual encounters with -- or their four visits.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: After encounters with Greitens.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: After encounters with Greitens.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, they were all sexual encounters.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, not necessarily; she had some that weren't.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: The one where she went and got her keys back.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Well, the one in the alley.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: K-Mart.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: The one at K-Mart, yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Alley. Phone call.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Haircuts.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So since this was all after these feelings of fear that arose, this goes to her credibility --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: -- in your guys' -- in your belief?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Absolutely.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Are we -- can I move on to 71?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Wasn't it pretty much like the same things?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It -- it's related, and I think that more than one member might not want this to come out. I don't know, and this is just a particular example of that fear manifesting itself.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Could we, maybe on this one, because it's very long and it -- to just say that she has testified to a particular instance of her --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And footnote where it is in the record?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly. It just seems that that's a lot of ink.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Absolutely. Absolutely, Representative. You are getting your brevity wish here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. What else?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: The last ones, I think, are still my complaints about, you know, is this -- what's the purpose here talking about this? And -- I mean, it certainly evokes sympathy, I got it, but that -- I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, but it's more than sympathy. It also goes to credibility that --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- she doesn't want to be here. I mean, imagine her sitting in her bedroom and having to tell the children to leave the room because this report is about to air that is so embarrassing to her, that no woman would ever want this on television about them with their children in the room.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Could we continue to curser down, just because I'm trying to see what else --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And this --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Something about her daughter?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would take out that second paragraph.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This one?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, that it -- whose daughter it was. I don't know that that really -- personally, and then to tell her --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We could -- if we get rid of that paragraph, we need to get rid of the next two.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Keep the third.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This one?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Wait a minute. Go back up. Sorry.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let me put that paragraph back up there. What --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just do control Z.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't -- I'm not hip with all your computer expertise here, okay?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You could have just ended after not hip.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, wait, maybe it's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You know what we could do, Witness 1 testified she learned the story was going to air minutes before it went live, and then explain -- comma, explain the circumstances of the airing of the report, and then explain how she was -- had to tell her family members about it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm fine. Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yeah, that's good.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Her children -- her child about it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Can we take a short break?

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Back from break.

So the plan relating to the Associated Press interview, the Missouri Press Association video, and the budget and press conference video, is that at the conclusion of our hearing today -- actually, before we gavel out, the court reporter will take down a transcription of those audio so that we have her transcription rather than a member's transcription of it. And the citations will be to where it is online so that people viewing it out in public can listen to it for themselves, and to the transcript that we're creating here today.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So if I understand it right, we'll have two paragraphs that have the -- the interview and video -- audio and video of an interview in toto, and we'll have another one where it's just an audio in toto, and that's going to be the two paragraphs. And it will only say, here it is, here's the cite reference, and then it will also represent an exhibit, which will be the court reporter's transcription of what is said in the airings?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It will be three.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Because there's the Associated Press, there's the Missouri Press -- I'm sorry. I'll do it in chronological order of when they were made. Missouri -- Associated Press was first, then I believe there's the Budget Press Conference, then there was the Missouri Press Association video. And my thought was to take the relevant questions out and put the relevant questions and answers in the report, because it -- for example, in the Budget Press Conference, there's ten questions about the budget. There's no need -- but she would take a transcription of the entire press conference.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. For the reasons I've stated earlier, I certainly just register my objection to including any of those three, but --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But if we're going to do it, do you agree that that's the best way to do so?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, I agree with that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. All right. We have this last paragraph and then we're going to circle back to some things.

So paragraph 81, Witness 1 testified to her concerns. Again, I think this is relevant to state of mind and to her coming forward right now or talking to our Committee. I wouldn't even say that she has come forward. She has talked to people at this point in time, but that's why I think her concerns should be in.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And I -- and I don't think her state of mind subsequent to the events that we're talking about is -- is relevant. I just -- I just don't get it, I mean. And they talk about somebody's emotions as they are now or after the events that we're investigating; I just don't see how it's relevant. I just can't see it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And -- and here's my question about that is, one thing that we've heard -- and not just this case, I think it's a lot of cases -- is, people see a lapse in reporting something like this as some sort of evidence of lack of credibility by the person saying it. And I think that her state of mind after it happened is relevant to the reporting or not reporting.

And if we're comfortable as a Committee saying, a lapse in time and not the -- the failure to immediately report this has no bearing on the credibility of what is said, okay, then all of this stuff is -- is not necessary, because that's the conclusion that it goes to is, there are reasons people in this situation don't report right away. And I think that her fear goes to one of those reasons.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Now, I can -- conversely, I think, putting in her fears right here, people will infer that there's actual threats of violence used by either Eric Greitens or her ex.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You're saying that if we just put it in a paragraph that, hey, from our review of the transcript in total, we see no reason to believe that her delay in reporting is -- in any way affects her credibility. I -- I mean, that's something I can --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: She's never reported anything though.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But I can live with that; it's not being -- saying she's not credible, you know.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: And I think even now, since it came to light in January, she could have went to the police and made a report, and she's failed to do so.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Instead of those two paragraphs talking about her kids and the fear she had, if we put in something to allay your concerns that people don't read in to this that there's a credibility factor in her delaying in her reporting or not reporting, I mean, I -- I'm okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I don't know.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Could you go back to the beginning of that dialogue so I can get the reference back in check?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I want to make it clear in the transcript here, we have no evidence of an actual physical threat after these encounters were -- were over. I just want to make that -- that clear, so that there's no mistaking that.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Now, am I right in saying that there has not been any contact between him and her since the last encounter that they had?

REPRESENTATIVE: That was her testimony.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: That was her testimony.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Since -- yes, since the -- the email in October of '15.

Is that correct? Does everyone agree with my recollection?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: With Greitens, you mean?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Correct.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So, Representative Austin, are you proposing we would take 70, 71 -- 70 and 71 would come out, and then we'd leave 72 and -- actually, in their place we would say --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: In the review of the evidence in total, this Committee does not view Witness 1's delay or -- I don't want to say failure, but non-reporting of these events to -- to lead us to question her credibility. I mean --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Is it a question or --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: The concern that was expressed was -- because when she didn't come forward with this --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: -- that she's not telling the truth now.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Who thought of that concern?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Disclosure.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Disclosure.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Instead of involving.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I agree.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Delay.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Delay.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No. Or decision to not -- I mean --
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Or lack of public disclosure.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, why even say public, because even if she reported it to the police, that would -- you wouldn't want to include that.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, if she reported it to the police, it wouldn't be public.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Right. So just leave --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Lack of reporting of the events to law enforcement or others as bearing on her credibility.
COUNSELOR HALLEN: And/or after enforcement.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: That gets us out of this space of having this -- I think that she did have fears, but there was no -- we have no evidence of any actual, physical threat. And so it's relevant to the extent it's to her state of mind, but I -- we don't want to create any misimpression that there was an actual physical threat out there.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And it's still in the transcripts, which will be part of our report.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Representative Phillips?
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer?
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Sure. Okay. Now wait, are we taking -- we're taking 70 out then?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: 70 and 71.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Could we go back up to 69 -- let's see, where we're at.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: 69 is interviews. So 70 and 71 are out. In review of the evidence, this Committee does not view Witness 1's lack of reporting of the events to law enforcement or others as bearing on her credibility.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Well, I go back to that very last line about her being concerned about her physical well being, whether that's real or imagined.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Hold on. Witness 1's non-reporting of the events. Of these events?
Oh, I hate it when it does that; I don't know what that means. How do I fix that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: What?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. Okay. Representative Lauer?
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: We took out that part about, I wasn't as much worried about the picture as I was for my physical well being. Is that correct, we took that out?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Real or imagined, that -- that I -- that creates a level of severity to the events.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that -- REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Or the significance of the events or -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that it does, but it goes to her state of mind, and I think the purpose of going to her state of mind is to say that, look, the fact that she didn't report this right away doesn't mean -- doesn't go to her credibility. There -- because there's other -- there -- we have this other evidence of her state of mind, which is a reason.
Representative Rhoads?
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't have the transcript to say go back to, but did she reference that at that point in time in her life that there was a lot going on and that she's a different person than she was then?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, she did.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let me see if I can find that.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Which, obviously, I think you could tell by interviewing her and what she talked about the actions that she did then and the way she was handling herself now. I gathered that she, obviously, was dealing with a lot, and that she's probably at a better place now than she was then.
REPRESENTATIVE: So to speak.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, I think more than so to speak. I think most -- most definitely.
REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Even with the actions that are going on.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So the parts that he denies are the parts we're finally dealing with, and I feel sad for that person I was that was so vulnerable. Is that what you're talking about?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. Yeah, here we go, and we have that at 71. I'm also dealing with things for the first time these past two months --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- that I never did before.

I just pushed them aside because it was too scary. I didn't want to think about it, I didn't want to talk about it, I just wanted it to go away, and that maybe it never happened like that.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Okay. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Mr. Chair, I'm just -- one more, please?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: If I had an incident occur and I came to any one of you and said, I'm very uncomfortable with this, that creates a level of severity or seriousness. If I come to you and say, I'm really fearful of my physical well being, that is a whole other level. And for that person, whether it is perceived by the outside world or not, for that person that is a reality. It -- it is a level of state of mind, but it also is a -- a thing that impacts their total behavior, their -- everything they're going to do during the day. It's going to run -- run through that person, so it's more than just a statement.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that's true, but I also -- I'm concerned about -- we want to be clear that we have no evidence of an actual physical threat. And I think that getting to -- the reason I -- I wanted to include that was to get to the state of mind to -- to get to this issue of the idea that is floated out there publicly, at least, that, oh, if it wasn't reported, you know, then it must not have been so bad or must not have happened.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I think the point of that is to rebut that general idea that if someone doesn't report it right away, it must not have happened, which that's not true as it -- in some cases it could be true and some cases not, but --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Generally speaking.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Generally speaking in this area. I mean, we could talk to experts in this area, who I think will tell you that, again, her actions are not atypical of people --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: True.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- in this situation. And so in place of having all of that, if we just get to the larger point of the non-reporting has no bearing on her credibility based on what she's told us, that gets us to the -- that actually gets us to the conclusion -- it skips past those facts and gets to the conclusion to which those facts, I believe, are relevant.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Yeah, my underlying -- I -- I get that now. My underlying concern is that we're not over-diluting that statement.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, I don't -- I don't think that we are diluting it. And, I mean, it's still going to be in the transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Remember that, so -- I would imagine these transcripts are going to be picked apart, not just -- you know, people are going to read our report first, and then they're going to go pick these transcripts apart, and then they're going -- they're going to ask, well, why didn't they include this in the report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Because it's in the transcript.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, because it is, and there are some things that are not in the report; we also know they're in the transcript.

Okay. So 80, those are present concerns, and I feel like that goes to, again -- I think this goes to her credibility, and it was kind of her -- I think that's what she might have said at the end when we said, do you want -- you know, we've given a couple of witnesses the opportunity to end with a statement. So

I would -- I would leave that in.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I don't see the relevance.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I mean --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I mean, again, I think we could be using ellipses with a lot of this. We start with, you know, how will this affect my kids, because it has; what's going to come of all this -- dot, dot, dot. What will people think of me or, you know, what's going to come of this, what will people think of me -- dot, dot, dot.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Every time we use ellipses --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I have a huge client base --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- we are making a judgment as to our words, not witnesses' words.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's not true. We're just -- we're -- we're -- I disagree with that, but -- and the transcripts are available. I mean, that's part of my concern is that I think that we're putting in a lot -- if we're trying to tell sort of a succinct story, I think that we could be far more succinct.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Should we put something in the report then that says this -- this is, indeed -- not like a summary, but this is the key findings and the actual transcript is available for --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, my plan is to attach the transcripts --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- to the digital report.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: But do we need to state that right at the beginning?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- no, I think it will be obvious --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- to anyone who gets the report the transcripts are -- it will be one packet.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: My idea is that Trevor will send out a single packet that -- so -- and then wherever -- if it's posted online, it will be all together.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I mean, certainly it evokes sympathy for her. She has her kids, she has her clients, she's in school, she's trying to move on with her life. I just don't see why that's relevant to the actions that occurred in 2014, '15, and '16.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think it goes to, again, her credibility. It also is a good -- for purposes of a report that wraps up, it's, like, her last statement. It is a wrap-up of where we are to finish the report, and I think it does go to her credibility again. It goes to -- this is the one thing I've just kept in the pit of my stomach; I never talk about this.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Yeah, but that's -- that's vague. I'm sorry. But that's a vague statement. What did she put in the pit of her stomach?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think if you go to her statement up here about the -- the -- I'm dealing with this, the parts that Eric denies are the parts that were hurtful, the other parts were traumatic to me. She's talking about these things that she pushed aside because it was too scary.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I get it, but, again, what did Eric deny?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: We haven't talked to Eric.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, here's what he -- here's what he's publicly said. We have his public statements that she's aware of.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I understand -- I understand that she quoted a news article or media whatever --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is not a news article, these are the -- his words from a tape recording and from a video.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Of a news -- a media outlet.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That he said -- this is not a -- they're his words.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, I mean, we can -- we can get around that. I mean, I don't -- I think probably both those sections. I mean, I made it clear I'm not happy with referencing the -- the media on that, and I'm probably with Representative Austin on this section of that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Paragraph 80?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Correct.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I think this goes back and -- and confirms what we just said as to why she didn't report. She just wanted to move on. She didn't want to have it out in the public, she didn't want to have to report it, she didn't want to have to deal with it; she was just trying to move on.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And then it's also not weighed down by the physical violence language for which we have no evidence of an actual threat being made.

Representative Pierson?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Well, we know what -- I mean, we know what Governor Greitens is doing now, and we know what this woman is doing now, and it kind of puts it in that context.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That's the same things Greitens said. We've -- we've reconciled this; we're moving on and we're --

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Yeah. And it's kind of her current state.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I don't -- it's not the same thing. I don't think it's the same thing he said.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And what he said is not in our report.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Well, yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So --

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: I'm fine with it being there.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Representative

Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I'll just -- you know, I haven't had a problem with it, but I told you I didn't have a problem with much of any of it -- we've been picking apart.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm okay with it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's -- it's a potential parking lot, let's go up to our real conflict. Right.

So -- okay. So in my plan here, we're going to vote in a little while to -- well, why don't we just vote now to bifurcate the report -- because now that we're at this point.

So I move that this Committee bifurcate this report such that we release the part that we have reviewed so far today next week, and we place all of the stuff relating to The Mission Continues and the campaign in a separate report to be released at a later time.

Discussion on that motion?

Seeing none, Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Chairman Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Vice-Chair Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: By a vote of seven ayes, and zero no, you have voted for a bifurcation. And I -- I should have put this before, but I want to state this on the record. I think I talked to everyone individually today on the House floor. We have, in The Mission Continues and campaign part of the report, we have a substantial number of emails that still need review that are already in our possession. And we have, based on the witness testimony we received this week, maybe ten, maybe more -- somewhere around there, but a significant number of new paragraphs that the members of this Committee have not had any opportunity to review before today's hearing. And I don't think it's fair to just plop this up on the screen and say, hey, let's discuss and vote on it very quickly.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And it's not fair to the recipients of this report for us to sit there and do willy-nilly knee-jerk reactions.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's exactly right.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Agreed.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So I -- what I would propose to the Committee is, after we're finished here today, I will cut everything relating to The Mission Continues and the campaign out of the report, paste it into a different document that will then become the first draft of Report No. 2. Which also means as we go up here, where we -- starting here, on this -- on March 14, 2018, all of that is going to come out of the report, all of those bullet points, because they relate to -- it's going to create an interesting situation with our exhibits, because our exhibits span -- but -- but we're good. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So along with that, Mr. Chair, do we need to ask for a continuance?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will -- we will get to that.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Now, for the big discussion. Paragraph 3, Witness 3, the ex-husband of Witness 1. First, I want to just ask the open question. Is there anyone who believes that Witness 3 is a credible witness?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I'm going to go on the record and say absolutely not.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm going to go on record with you and say absolutely not.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I agree.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I join.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think if you read his --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I don't believe he's credible either.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: If you read the transcript, he contradicts himself several times.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So the debate here is in our redactions. Do you want to pull up -- can we get that on the screen?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I can.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, hold on; time out. What do we -- I mean, the redactions are kind of like part two.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, actually, we need -- we probably need to be off the record. But it relates to how Paragraph 3 is going to be written, which is about Witness 3.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: See, I don't understand quite either what you're getting here on Paragraph 3, for the reasons set forth below. Well, there's nothing below, there's an attached transcript.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: There are some things about Witness 1 set forth below -- about Witness 3 -- I'm sorry -- about Witness 3, but it's way below. So let's get -- we can start by deleting this, okay?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We could add a sentence here that says, the Committee only accepts Witness 3's testimony for purposes of authenticating --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No. I mean, why would we need to say that?

REPRESENTATIVE: Say -- say what?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The Committee only accepted the testimony, I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, we accepted the testimony. We only -- the only thing he's -- that he says that I think is worthwhile is that he authenticates the tape recording.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Again, I have a hard -- his testimony is what his testimony is, and it seems to me the testimony should just be out there.

I -- I -- I --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You mean just cut out Paragraph 3 altogether?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, no, because he did authenticate -- here's -- here's -- here's the way that I see this. He did authenticate the recording, and obviously the recording is something that is a part of our report. And the recording, to some extent, and portions of the transcript, is already out in the public domain. So this Committee, as part of its investigation, has said this recording is authentic.

We believe -- do we believe that the recording is authentic? I believe that. I'm happy to go on record saying that. And the rest of his testimony is just his testimony. It's out there. Why does our report have to go specifically into --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I think that -- to that point, a little bit, we don't testify as to credibility of witnesses to or for either. And I think we all thought -- I -- general consensus might have been that Witness 4 was the most credible witness of all. Maybe not, I don't know.

But -- go ahead Representative Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So I mean, Gina, are you saying leave Paragraph 3 as it is, don't add anything else, and we'll move on?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, I don't know that I disagree with that. I know, what's happening here?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Are you talking about putting the sentence back in it that you took out; is that what you're talking about, Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, just leave it as it is.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah. And then if we -- if we happen to redact something from his transcript, then we do.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. It's not his transcript, it's Witness 1's transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, it's -- yes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I'm going to -- I'm going to -- you may not ever hear this again, but I do agree with Representative Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: For the record --

COUNSELOR HALLEN: You've got to quit now.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, exactly, I think I'm about to have a heart attack.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. We'll take it out.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, as is.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll leave it as is.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right, yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Leave it as is. So that -- we've -- okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Because -- because did Witness 1 also authenticate the recording?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Witness 1 also authenticated the recording.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, only to, like, Page 17.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's true.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's right. That's right.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. Got you. But she did say it was her voice.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It says it's her voice, but she never listened to it and she didn't read the --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And she didn't want to.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Why is -- do we know why this is highlighted; did I miss that?

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Because we didn't have an exhibit number.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Yeah, because it says see EX, and then capital XXX.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Then what about this?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We have to -- we have to number these exhibits, that's why that's there.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think you wanted just a colon there, because then you're quoting.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I don't -- if no one has an issue with this paragraph, it might have been an accidental highlight.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think that -- actually, I think that that needs to be moved to the beginning -- the beginning of Paragraph 7. Witness 1 testified from the fall -- dah, dah, dah, dah.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, you know what -- what's the difference between the footnotes in 6 and 7? So 6 is 7,2 to 9, 19; 7 is 9,11 to 9, 18. Okay. We've got a -- there's a distinction there, so let's leave those separate.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. Time for redactions?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes. How do we want to -- well, the first question is, how do we -- I want to make a record of how we're handling this. It's kind of hard for us to have a redactions conversation on the record, because we've got to talk about the substance of the redaction --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No. We can --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- or we're going to redact the whole darn thing.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We can absolutely do it. We'll put the things up, and it's by page and line number.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: But that's --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: But we -- but we have to talk about the contents of the page and line number. I mean, we're going to debate whether to do it or not, in debating whether to redact something.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I understand. I would ask that we try it and see if we run into trouble.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Fair enough.
Representative Austin?
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I bet you there's only one or two redaction issues, correct?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes. And they're -- I think they're related.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Do we want to take -- do we want to take a restroom break before we get into the redactions?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Sure.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm fine with that. Let's go off the record.
(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're back from break to speak about redactions and -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can I just make a proposal?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, yes, in just a minute. I think the Committee is in agreement on -- go ahead Representative Mitten.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, okay, so I propose that we do not redact the portions on basically the late 40's, I think. In the transcript for Witness 1, the pages, I think it's about 47 through 49, but we do redact on Page 9, Lines 18 through 21 -- excuse me, through 22. Did I say Line 9?
CHAIRMAN BARNES: You said Page 9.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Page -- I'll get this right. Page 96, Lines 18 through 22; Page 97, Lines 1 and 2; Page 97, Lines 8 through 11; Page 97, the middle of Line 17 to this on Line 19.

Wait a minute. That might be a little bit -- what page are you on there? Oh, there we go. Let's go down to Line 17. Yeah. No, no, no. We want the -- from -- from -- after the again on Line 17, into I said on Line 22. Yeah.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Does everyone concur with that?
GROUP RESPONSE: Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Hearing all ayes and no objections, everyone agrees to that redaction.
In addition to this redaction, we have -- there has been available the transcripts where there are a number of other redactions for which I don't think there's any great controversy. If anyone has any other areas they deem need to be redacted right now, speak up.
Seeing none, we have a redaction plan.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Great. And just if I could, I want to make it clear on the record, and I believe that our disclaimer may have already addressed that, but I don't believe that other than names, there are some references to dates that could be seen as identifying. I -- I -- I don't believe we have redacted anything of substance, other than -- other than information that could be -- readily identify the Witnesses 1, 2, 3, or 4, or their family members or their locations of their homes for instance.

If I have somehow forgotten something, I hope that somebody on the Committee will remind me. And if I come across something in my travels over the weekend, I will certainly remind the members.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will all need Monday and Tuesday to take a look at this with fresh eyes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And it's very -- I think it's very important to -- we don't want to unintentionally let something out. For example, today, Representative Pierson found a footnote in the report that contained a -- a witness' name.

Okay. So, so ends our discuss on redactions.

We have -- so we've moved for bifurcation. And our due date depends on how you judge this calendar, is either Saturday, Monday, or Tuesday. I'm going to move that we release this report on Wednesday, which is 24 hours later. We're going to go through the process of making sure -- dotting I's, crossing T's on redactions and this report, and notify -- notifying members of this body and both Caucuses shortly before making the report available to the public.

I think that we owe that to our colleagues who have placed a lot of trust in us to do this and have been asking us many question for the last 40 days about where we are and how's it going and what's going on. And I think we deserve -- they deserve to know before the public release of the information.

Discussion on the motion?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: When you say they deserve to know, what does that mean?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that we should have discussions with -- Caucus discussions about the facts of the report shortly before it becomes public. I'm not talking about 24-hours' notice. If -- if people don't think they can trust their Caucus members for 30 minutes --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Oh, it will become public alright.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's on its way to becoming public, so any tweet storm that follows will soon be swallowed by the report itself.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Is there -- so -- so the Resolution -- the Resolution said -- yeah, we need to --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let's go off the record.

(AN OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION WAS HELD.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And so, now I move that we extend the Committee until May 18, 2018. Further discussion on the motion?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Chair, with all due respect, I have expressed some concerns about the ability to perform -- and I suspect that I'm not alone in this -- to perform my legislative duties during the course of this, you know, in order to accommodate the needs of this Committee, and I -- I want to express those concerns again. I think that it has been -- there are some ways in which Majority leadership has been accommodating, but there are some ways in which they have absolute -- I don't feel that they have been. And it certainly puts an additional burden on us.

I would hope that we would be able to explore hiring some assistants to help with the -- with the work of this Committee. If we're going to extend it and we're going to do it by Committee vote and not by a new resolution, I do think that some of these things need to be -- at least I personally feel that I need to express my concerns about this, and I -- I -- I just feel that that's important.

So my hope would be that we can work together moving forward if this Committee is going to stay intact until the end of session, because it has -- and

I can't speak for any other member but myself, but it has been a -- a -- a strain.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Pierson?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: And I echo the sentiments of Representative Mitten. Even as we go into further investigation, it seems that we are moving into a realm of evidence review, so it's kind of a different flavor and feel to the investigation that is just headed into a kind of a different realm of depth. Again, with evidence review, as opposed to interviews and those types of things, which I think require some expertise in some areas, which require more time. And so I -- I echo what Representative Mitten has expressed.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And I just -- I'm sorry. I want to reiterate -- I will -- I'm sorry. Well, here's the thing, as we move --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- as we move towards the -- you know, we're coming around the bend to the end of session and -- and the idea that my -- at least my colleague, Tommie -- and I actually feel this way about all members of the Committee. To the extent that this Committee meets while we are in session, it is a problem for me, and it's going to -- it's going to be a bigger problem as we start getting -- as we go from waist deep to shoulder deep in bills that are going to -- you know, that have the potential to end up on the Governor's desk.

And I -- I -- at the time this Resolution was drafted, you know, I think that we all worked together in good faith, and I appreciate that, but I do have concerns that as we're going to be -- you know, as the Floor Leader schedules six or eight hours or ten hours on the floor, in addition to trying to prepare for and take witness testimony or review documents, that's going to be problematic, and I feel that that needs to be expressed.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Further discussion? Point is taken. I think that we have worked together to try to avoid missing session. We've missed -- is it twice, and not that much those two days. But even though we had a missed session, taking away preparation time is also important. You have my continued commitment, the members of this Committee, we're all bearing a heavier load here because of this Committee, both time wise and brain space. And I don't think it's been a cake walk for anyone to be on this Committee and adding it to the other responsibilities they had. And so you have my commitment that I will work with the two of you and every member of this Committee to try to make these things work and to work with leadership about that, as well.

Representative?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I might just add that, I agree, everyone's worked well together and in good faith. And to end it now, I feel that we would not have completed due diligence in the process. This is significantly important, and so is the legislative part of this, too; they're all important. But, of course, we don't want to cut anything short. And I would suggest that we try to balance this as best we can with the Chair's help.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Further discussion?

Seeing none, all those in favor will vote.

Mr. Secretary, please call roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

REP BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: By your vote of seven aye and zero no, you have voted to extend the Committee, the Resolution under which it is operating, until May 18, 2018.

I now move that we vote to issue -- I now vote that we cancel tomorrow's hearing.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Do you need to vote on a report issuance date?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: If we're exceeding.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: You've already extended the authority of the Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Not the -- not the deadline for the report.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: For the Committee's knowledge, we have canceled tomorrow's hearing because we got through the stuff we needed to do today.

I now move that we vote to release the report on Wednesday of next week. We've got a little more work to do, and I want to make sure that we've got this right and the report that we're speaking of relates to everything that we've reviewed today.

Discussion on the motion?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just briefly. I'm sorry, guys. I know -- I know we all need -- want to get out of here. I appreciate the Chair working with us in this regard. I, obviously, am not particularly happy about the delay. I am going to support the delay.

Can -- you know, there was some discussion earlier about being on the record; I do believe that it's important that the issuance of the -- that we comport with the Resolution. I just want to make sure our record is clear because we went down a different path and then came back and had a motion withdrawn, and I think that it's important that because the Resolution has a specific outline of who in the body is able to receive information from the members of this Committee as to the witnesses or the testimony or the evidence, that we all understand that that has not been changed, and that our report will be issued contemporaneously with any discussions that anybody wants to have with members of their Caucus. Is that a fair characterization?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that's a fair characterization. I think we punted the issue of that notification until next week and further discussions on the mechanics of that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So is the idea then that we're going to release, what, the end of business on Wednesday? Is there a time that we're talking about?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I would guess in the afternoon on Wednesday would be --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And I don't want to set a specific time --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I understand.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- in this motion. I just want to state that we will -- we will release the report on Wednesday of next week, which would be --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: April 11.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: April 11th. So Wednesday, April 11th. And it's a 24-hour delay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I understand. I understand.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Then could I clarify,

Mr. Chair?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That this would be the Speaker's decision to make, as far as the release of the information, or is it the Committee's?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- I believe that it's the Committee's decision to make the release of the report.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And we're going to do it -- my motion is to do it on Wednesday.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: And is it the Committee's decision on how the report is released, as well, the mechanics of that?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think that it is the Committee's decision, but -- I believe that next week Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, we're going to have a broader conversation amongst -- how -- Majority Party and Minority Party leadership about mechanics. We are not -- you know, we're not an island here. We're -- our colleagues put a lot of trust in us and want to consult with others.

So the motion on the table is to release the report on Wednesday, April 11th. All those in favor will vote yes.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Pass. I need a comeback. Aye.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: By your vote of seven aye and zero no, you voted to release the report on Wednesday of next week.

Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Do we want to meet Monday?

COUNSELOR HALLEN: We need to notice up.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: We are noticed up.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Perfect. Perfect. Do we need to close it?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Two o'clock. We need to vote to close it if you want it closed.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Let's vote to close it. I vote to close Monday's hearing at two p.m. All those in favor will vote aye.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: By your vote of seven aye, zero no, you have voted to close Monday's hearing at two p.m.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Will we be in this same hearing room then?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will be in this hearing room.

Okay. Now that we're finished, I would like to create a -- the transcript of these two -- these three items up here. And so I'm going to hold the Committee hearing open for purposes of creating that transcript. Is there any objection --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Nope.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- to that?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: None.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I have a question. What's the process; she's going to sit in here and --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: She's got to leave; we're going to get a new court reporter.

THE COURT REPORTER: She's waiting outside.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: And she'll come in, watch it, transcribe it?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: And you will be here with her?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I will -- I will stick around. Yeah, if you've got a long drive, drive home. All we're going to do is, I'll create a record of what we're watching and then we'll --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we let her go now?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But we're not going to end today's hearing. I will end the hearing --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we stand in recess for a minute while we switch court reporters?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will stand in recess while we switch court reporters. We will then do a transcript and I will conclude the hearing at the end of the day.

(HEARING WILL STAND IN RECESS.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Call to order this meeting of the Special Investigative Committee on Oversight. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: All here and accounted for.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote of seven present, none absent, we are all here.

What I wanted to do today was a couple things. First, Alix Hallen took the report that we went through Thursday and made a series of grammatical edits and capitalizing Committee everywhere that it was. I accepted all of those for which I deemed there would be no objection whatsoever in this Committee, to save us time.

I, perhaps to her dismay, rejected changes that put ellipses in direct quotes from witnesses, to leave as many witness quotes as we could.

And then there are a couple things remaining. That's the first thing I'd like to do -- let's write this down. All right? The second thing -- create an order of business here -- is to discuss the letter that we received from the First Lady.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Okay. Are we on -- probably redact this discussion if it's not going to be part of the record.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, I'm going to -- let's keep the discussion in. I just want to talk about the fact that we received a letter. And it's been publicly reported that we did receive a letter and it's been publicly reported what the general contents of that letter was.

The third item is that attorneys for Governor Greitens filed a Motion to Compel this morning in the case in the City of St. Louis, and I want to briefly speak about that.

The fourth item is going over correspondence between myself and, in a few cases, others and the Governor's counsel. And what I'd like to do is mark those as exhibits and enter them into the record. There's been -- I don't know. I wouldn't characterize them as leaks because they're their own letters that have been released in the last four or five days, but I think it's important that we give a context to those letters, both of which were sent in response to correspondence from me apprising them of we expected to hear from them in some form or fashion.

The articles only talk about the response and never set forth the correspondence that led to them. And so I think it's clear -- it's good to have a clear record as to why those responses were sent to this Committee.

And then if there's -- does any -- before we even start, does anyone else have anything to add to this list? And we can add it later as well. After we get through these four, I'm open to adding additional things.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can I look at your list?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Are we going to talk about the time frame of the report?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, I think my questions all come down to --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'll add that as five.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- process, timing.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: All right. So first thing's first. I'm just going to scroll down until we meet our first -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Can I add, like, next steps?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Is it the --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Given the temperature, permission granted to remove jackets.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Is it the intent for us to review this report and complete it at this sitting, or will we have an opportunity to go back and look at it individually again?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think it's to do this, look at it individually and sign tomorrow.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Again, because I -- you know, we want to go through this one more time and have an opportunity to review.

So let me go down -- okay. So Footnote 3 is -- and we'll cover this in a minute -- the correspondence with Greitens' counsel. They are not yet marked as exhibits and they're going to be marked as exhibits, so that's just a placeholder for that.

Also want to note that after we get to a document today, Alex or Alix and Alexes should go through and check that all of the citations to the record are accurate. I think they're pretty close, but we want them to be entirely accurate.

Okay. So the first change -- and this is something that I made. Footnote 32, paragraph 30, Representative Phillips asked if she felt like her privacy was invaded. She answered yes. And I want to add something to the footnote that you did not go through the elements of the crime.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: There's a common interpretation of the phrase, "Did you feel like your privacy was invaded?" And then there's the technical, legal interpretation of the phrase in the statute. And I want to make clear that we're speaking to -- that was a common interpretation. We didn't ask her for a legal conclusion there.

Is everyone in agreement to adding that to the footnote?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Good.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. I think this is a good suggestion from Alix, which is to break these paragraphs up. The first -- first of all, because it's a really long paragraph. But the first paragraph talks about whether she consented; and then the new second paragraph talks about the conflicting testimony at that particular time. And I'll give you guys time to read.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, right. Then it just re-numbers. I got it. So that was just one monumentally long -- makes sense.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. And I think where the breakdown makes sense is where we say, "Later, Witness 1 presented conflicting testimony as to whether she was physically afraid at that particular moment."

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: So those were two different times during the questioning?

REPRESENTATIVES BARNES: Two different times during the questioning. And I believe what happened here is Representative Mitten asked a series of questions and then when we came back around, I asked a series of clarifying questions. And -- and she testified that she was definitely in fear for her physical self at one point. And then another time she said -- when asked, "Did you feel afraid to leave?" She answered, "No, not at this point."

Now, there's some ambiguity and, you know, hindsight is always 20/20. The follow-up question should have been, What did you mean -- what do you mean by "not at this point"? But we didn't ask that -- I didn't ask that follow-up question in the moment.

And so it could be that she could have reconciled those two statements. She could have said when she said "not at this point," she was speaking about something different than what she said to you. But we have the testimony we have at this point and I think it's important to put both of those in there.

And it would be -- it would be a little bit misleading to not include both of those statements in there.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I get it. I get it. I get it. Yep, fine.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Further discussion? Everybody fine with this?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Good.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Is anybody not fine with it?

Okay. I'm going to --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Accept, accept. Not reject.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Fine. You guys win on your -- okay. Accept, accept, accept, delete comment, no, accept. Okay. Now, watch this magic. Okay. Alix?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We will fix this.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah. Somebody's going to have to fix this.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah, we'll fix it. Stuff is going to get messed up with all the footnote -- when we have to make footnote changes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There. You're good.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: But it's not --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's not formatted -- okay. Yeah, we'll fix that. That is not a Committee Chair's --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I cannot be trusted with that format fix.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- duty. You cannot be trusted with a format fix. Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. Paragraph 68. So after everyone left Thursday, we had the court reporter stick around and make a transcript of those statements that were on YouTube -- or two of them were on YouTube, one of them was on SoundCloud. And so the rep-- what Alix did is took the words straight from the transcript and changed the citations so that they cite to the transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And we're waiting for those transcripts.

MS. HALLEN: We have them.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, we have them? Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let me fix this stuff. Accept, accept, accept, accept, accept.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Are we meeting tomorrow?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: At noon.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We better schedule meetings every day because you never know what's going to come up.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: We have one scheduled for Wednesday as well.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah, I think at this point in time, following your advice, Representative Mitten, we are just going to notice up for every day; and if we have to cancel, we have to cancel. But that's the -- better safe that we've got something noticed up if we need to meet than to be scrambling for notice.

Okay. Come on.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I know we'll talk about this, Jay, but what are going to be our marching orders for the press? Because they're going to interview everybody that they possibly can concerning this topic.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let me add that to the list.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm already getting requests for appointments.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: It won't just be us. It will be everybody.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Sorry, guys. I want to make sure though that everybody got a chance to look at this. I think that this is it. Okay. Come on.

Okay. I'm going to accept this deal in the footnotes and then I'm going to accept these as -- let me back up. I'm going to reject this first one because I want to put the publicly-available link in there.

MS. HALLEN: Oh, yeah. That's fine.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Does everyone agree to that?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: See AP interview with --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: In most sources when you reference God, the H is capitalized in "His forgiveness."

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Where did you see that?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Last line, first word.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I'm grateful to Sheena for her forgiveness, grateful to God for His forgiveness. I think it's pretty common to capitalize the H in "His."

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Good catch. I'm going to delete the mark of the video. This would be --

MS. HALLEN: You can just reject that change.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. Okay. Accept, accept, accept, accept, accept, accept.

MS. HALLEN: Just go back. Hit --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Reject, reject.

MS. HALLEN: And then just accept that one.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't want to reject that change because we still want that. Right? Okay. There we go. All right. So file, save as.

Okay. The next question, moving on to Topic 2 -- take one and pass it down. I think everyone received an e-mail this weekend from the First Lady. Most of it relates to Witness 3. I don't know that it -- not I don't know. I am 100 percent confident it does not change any member of this Committee's conclusions about Witness 3. It adds to our conclusions about Witness 3.

This morning I sent an e-mail in response to her and thanked her for her letter and asked if she sent this intending it to be made a part of the public record. My intent is if she says yes, we will include this further redacted copy. If she says no, then we will not include it as part of the record.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Hasn't she responded?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I received e-mail from her at one o'clock.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes. Saying no.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: She said no.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Is everyone in unanimous agreement that we will not include this -- I move then that we do not include this letter in our report. Again, I think it solidifies feelings that members of this Committee already had.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I just read her response, the one o'clock response. Yeah, I'm for not including it.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Agreed.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I would --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Without objection.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Without objection, we will not include that e-mail in the report. Seeing no objection, we will not include the e-mail in the report.

Let's take a break for one second.

(Off the record.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The next issue is -- for today is the Motion to Compel that was filed this morning. And, again, I believe everyone -- at least my e-mail shows that everyone got a copy of this. Can everyone put the letter in a stack here that we'll -- so it's no longer just floating around?

So the first thing is I'm going to move, on the next item at issue, that we create exhibits for all of the correspondence with Greitens' counsel. This is also correspondence. It's a publicly-filed document. So does everyone agree that this should be an exhibit attached to the report?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I do.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I do.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I have not had a chance to review it, but what is the status of the, quote, gag order in that case? That's my only concern.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, this isn't --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I haven't looked on Case.net, for instance, so I just don't know.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: This is a publicly-filed document.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So it's a pleading available on Case.net?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It's a pleading available on Case.net. It was sent to us. And we are under no obligation to follow the nondisclosure order in the Circuit Court case.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, I guess one could -- would assume that it's not part -- subject to the gag order because it came from one of the attorneys involved now that I think that through, but --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, from my perspective, we are not a party to that case, we are not subject to the nondisclosure order. And I don't think there's a constitutional way we could ever be subject to the nondisclosure order in that case.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I guess my only concern is that has any -- has a member of the Committee -- because I have not -- gone through the publicly-available pleadings in that matter to see what other, if any -- there exists any other pleadings filed that would also be pertinent to attach?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, the reason this is different is because this was sent to us by a party to that litigation. This was sent to us by Greitens' counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And that makes it different because?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Because it's a communication from his counsel to this Committee in particular.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, but we just made an opposite -- go ahead.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I haven't seen anything that I thought was relevant. The only thing that makes this relevant is a somewhat cite to her -- to Witness Number 1's testimony.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. And so the second question would be whether at this point in time we would no-- or take this exhibit and footnote in our report where there is some sort of reference to testimony that's in the report right now.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And I guess my thoughts are we do. Because I don't think the defendant's attorneys are making up quotes, you know. We don't have the actual transcript, which means maybe we could reconcile her testimony, maybe we can't because we don't have the transcripts.

Because as you know, when you cite lines from a deposition, you're not -- certainly not going to make up stuff from the deposition, but you're going to cite stuff that's favorable to your client. I mean, that's what I would -- that's what I do as an attorney.

So -- but having said that, it's still apparently sworn testimony from her that they quote.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: These are not -- these are not quotes.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: They are -- no, there's no citations.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I agree there's no citations.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The deposition was taken Friday. They may not have the full transcript yet.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, I'm looking at the second paragraph under --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: What page are you on?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Page 3, second paragraph under B. This just looks -- this is not quoted. But in an event never previously disclosed, she now admits, blah, blah, blah. We don't know what the context of that was. We're just taking this at face value without looking at a transcript, and I do have a little heartburn about that.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, if you look on page 2, there certainly are quotes.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Where they do quote her though, it's pretty much out of context. I mean, they're framing it the way they want and then they're quoting her, it looks like.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I mean, we're adding as exhibits news reports. At least we have somebody here under oath.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Well, I'm not opposed to entering it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'm comfortable with adding it as an exhibit to this.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, hang on a second. First of all, to response to your comment, we're adding news reports that are direct questions and answers that have been transcribed. This is editorializing and this is just very different, in my opinion. And I see the quotes on the second page. And, frankly, those quotes comport with the testimony that was given to this Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, let's look. I mean, there's a couple things brought up. One is about did she ever see the phone. Second one, she's referring to this dream. And then there's another part where she's talking about --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: A FaceTime --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So let's take them one issue at a time. So the first issue, Representative Austin, is on -- this is on page 2. This is regarding the phone, seeing the phone.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And I believe that is consistent with her testimony before us.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It is absolutely consistent with her testimony before us.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: What did she say, just so we'll know?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Sorry. I'm making sure I've got the right quote.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, that's fine.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Page 99, line 6 through 9.

"Question: When you first went into the house on 3/21/15, Eric had some clothes for you. Did you ever see his phone at that point?

"Answer: Not at this -- at that point."

Line 10, "When was the first time you saw his phone?

"Answer: I don't know. That's a good question. I'm not sure."

Page 103, line 15, "You testified you never -- you have never seen the photograph he took of you. Correct?

"Answer: Correct."

Then on line 23 she testifies that she knew he had an iPhone.

And then the question on page 104, line 3 is, "And did he have an iPhone? Is that what you said?

"Answer: He did.

"And that was what he had that day?

"Yes."

There's some ambiguity in that question because she might have known that he had an iPhone that day, but she's not testifying that he [sic] saw it that day --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: She saw it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- in front of us.

"And you saw that in the basement?"

She says, "I would assume that would be the only phone that he would have. That was the only phone that I was aware of that he had in general at that time.

"Question: And you don't recall one way or the other whether you saw it that very day in the basement?

"Answer: Right. I just know that I heard and saw the flash."

And so actually it's a good -- Representative Austin, I think these were your questions. It was a good follow-up question to go back to make sure that there was no ambiguity. She says there, I think on line 16, right, she doesn't recall one way or another whether she saw the phone that very day in the basement. And I think that's consistent with what's here on page 2 of the motion.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Sort of; it's sort of not, in my mind. Because she's saying, I don't know if it's because I'm remembering it or a dream or I don't know if I felt I saw it happen. I saw it -- I mean, I don't -- I'm not for sure what she's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But -- I'm sorry. Finish. I'll let you go ahead and finish.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, go ahead.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm going to have to get a talking stick, if I'm not careful.

Look, here's the thing. This is not a transcript. This is not sworn testimony. I believe that every attorney in this room understands what we do when we take testimony and we write a motion about it.

And I don't have a problem to the extent that this contains quoted testimony, although I would still argue that we don't -- without the full transcript, it's being taken out of context, which is part of why this very Committee is producing all of the transcripts, so that nothing can be taken out of context by the general public. And that, I think, is a part of our duty to the public.

To release this -- if you go to the next page, this is not direct quotes. This is -- this is -- we have no idea what that questioning looks like.

And I'm sorry, but the Governor, as we spoke at great length on Thursday, made a personal choice not to come and testify before this Committee. That was the Governor's choice. We all understand that. That doesn't mean that the Governor then gets to say, But here's a motion my lawyers filed that may or may not take testimony under oath out of context, and that should be included in our report. I just -- that is not what this Committee is supposed to be about.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I see what you're saying, but to go back to the other point, we're taking testimony where he wasn't under oath at an interview and --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Those are direct quotes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Doesn't matter. He wasn't under oath, was he?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Those are direct quotes. If this had a list of direct quotes, I would have a very different view of it, but this doesn't.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: We can take -- we can take -- we don't want this, but when we got somebody that's not under oath, we'll take that public --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: When you can see the questions and answers, those I guess, you know, one could argue are statements against interest, whatever. But I just -- this is -- this is not -- this is not direct quotes. Whether it's under oath or not, it is not.

It is an attorney doing their -- they're very good attorneys. I'm sure that they're doing a very good job. I'm not trying to question that at all. But that's what you do when you're a lawyer; you make an argument. This is an attorney's argument, not actual testimony or direct evidence.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: So as the non-attorney in the room --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And there's more than one.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, there's more?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: On behalf of this one anyways, so my question is, is if it was said in the deposition, even though they didn't quote it, would they have put it in here? Are you allowed to put that in there and file it in a motion?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: They'd be treading on very dangerous ground because they know a transcript is on the way. So my guess would be that these were -- somebody was there taking copious notes of what was being said and that's how they put it in there. And there's -- there's going to be a transcript to follow. They're probably being produced today.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: As an officer of the court, I would never misquote somebody in there. But having said that, to address maybe what Gina's saying, well, there are some direct questions. Now, we don't get the question before and the answer before, the question after and the question after -- or the answer after, but, you know, I'm not saying they're -- those things are in context. I don't think we can say it's taken out of context. We just don't know.

But we do have some direct quotes. And to me, if nothing else, it bothers -- what I find bothersome, especially for the line of credibility because now we're maybe getting two different stories, and maybe not. Maybe they can be reconciled and maybe they can't. So now we have this coming -- this, you know, eleventh-hour bombshell coming on, but yet it's there.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hold on. I don't know that I would characterize anything in this motion as a bombshell.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. Maybe I'm going too far.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: You weren't surprised as to what was said, at least on page 2 that we're talking about right now, about her not testifying about seeing the phone, because she told us she didn't see the phone.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let me put it this way --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hold on. And let me -- hold on just a second.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm sorry. I thought you were done.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And I want to go back. I sent Mr. Dowd an e-mail on March 23rd, 2018 and the last paragraph of that e-mail said this: We also discussed the possibility of reviewing discovery from the criminal case pending in the City of St. Louis. We are happy to review evidence from that case and are supportive of a motion by either party to make an exception to the current order against disclosure to third parties.

However, in the event any such evidence is provided, we will insist on having a complete set of evidence. In other words, we will not accept cherry-picked evidence from either the Circuit Attorney's office or your client.

Now, having said that and drawn that line, I think that we still need to include the motion in the documents of the Committee. It's already a publicly-filed document. We may also have a footnote that we told defense counsel we support any motion to release the evidence from that case, but it can't be -- it shouldn't be cherry-picked evidence.

And it is obvious any lawyer is -- when they file a motion -- maybe the words aren't cherry-picked. Right?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The words are you're going to use the testimony that best fits your client and attempt to --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Minimize.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- minimize any testimony that doesn't. So, of course, we don't have that other testimony. But this is what we have from them at this point. And I think it would be fair to include this, if nothing else, as an exhibit to the report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: All that I can -- I could just restate what I've said before with the addition of the fact that I think that there's two sort of money quotes right here. The first was Representative Austin saying we don't know. And that to me is indicative of we don't know enough to add this to our report, which is a reflection upon this Committee's work. And I don't think that we -- I think that we don't know is probably not a sufficient basis.

The other thing is -- REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, hold on. When you say "we don't know," you mean what else is in that transcript?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Exactly. We don't know. Which falls into the comments that you just made, Mr. Chair, which is that an attorney is going to cherry-pick and they're going to minimize what's not there.

So here's one of my questions is, so for instance, if at one place this basically says that Witness 1 acknowledged the recordings made by her ex-husband contained lies, okay, maybe there's another place in the transcript where she says the exact opposite. And those are facts that would not be cherry-picked by one side to a criminal case.

I mean for all of these reasons, this -- this pleading is a publicly-available record. I have absolute faith and confidence that the members of the press are going to take what they want out of this and make sure that the public is made fully aware of its contents. This Committee's role is not to take cherry-picked pleadings filed by one party in a criminal case, particularly in light of the very well thought-out comments that you made, Mr. Chair, to the Governor's counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, I mean, but on the other hand, this Committee's also made a couple of value judgments; one is the credibility of Witness 1. So if we sit there and say we don't even take this into account, I don't think we're doing ourselves any service by not taking it into account, saying, Well, this may -- I mean, this may or may not affect that value judgment. And in my mind, it might have -- it might affect now that statement that we agreed upon last Thursday.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, as it relates to the phone -- seeing the phone, she testified in front of us --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's what she testified to us. It's page 3.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: "You don't recall one way or the other whether you say it that very day in the basement?

"Answer: Right. I just know that I heard and saw the flash."

And in -- and then this motion is, "You can't say you saw it on his person -- being the phone -- you can't say you saw him put it down in the kitchen, take it from the kitchen or put it anywhere in the basement?"

She says, "Yes, I cannot say." That's what she -- I cannot -- I don't -- you don't recall either way whether you saw it.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But on page 2, I think we can infer that she's remembering she saw it, but she doesn't know if she remembered it because she actually saw it or she saw it in a dream. I mean, she's saying something by this because I remember I was -- through a dream or if I saw it as it actually happened.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: If anything, I think that that second paragraph -- so it says -- apparently recognizing the difficulty, which is -- it's a -- ignore the lawyering in the sentence and start with the factual part of it.

"The Assistant Circuit Attorney later asks Witness 1, Did you see what you believed to be a phone. She answered."

First of all, there's an ellipses.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: There is.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So what did she say in the ellipses before they got to this?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I hear you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: "I haven't talked about it because I don't know if it's because I'm remembering it through a dream or -- I'm not sure, but yes, I feel like I saw it after that happened but I haven't spoken about it because of that."

To me, what that answer says is I wasn't sure whether I saw the phone itself or not so I haven't said that I saw the phone. Because the things that I am stating are the things that I am confident that I experienced. And the things that she says she's not confident about experiencing are the things that she's not stating.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: For the record, only page 1 -- or page 2 has any quotes whatever. The rest of it is just pure argument.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: And even the quote that was just stated by Mr. Chair has the ellipses and a lot of "its" with no direct mention of what it is and that's -- that's troublesome.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Going back to page 2 and under A, second paragraph, when they're doing the questioning and she says in the third line, "I haven't talked about it because I don't know." So it's obviously not a fact. If you don't know, it's not a fact. Right? And then she continues, "I feel like I saw it." But that's not a fact if you feel like it.

And then we go on to the next paragraph, I'm sorry, the third line of the last paragraph that her recollections may well be from a dream or vision, not fact. And then we go on --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: But that -- hold on.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That is their words.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That's their words, right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And the only quoted words were as to seeing the phone.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Right. I'm with you on that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So defense counsel extrapolating from that statement about seeing the phone --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- to then try to get at everything else --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Color.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- is good lawyering, but it doesn't tell us that that, in fact, was said anywhere else --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Exactly.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- in the deposition.

And my bet would be that if those words were said, something similar to what is in that paragraph, that we would have a direct quote instead of words of lawyers.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Because then in the last sentence, moving onto the next page, "It was not until after" --

THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry? I didn't hear what you said.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm sorry. The last sentence on page 2, "It was not until after hours of testimony that Witness 1 -- she was having a dream or vision."

Now we're into a more finite, that she was. And then, of course, it takes a big leap into they may well extend. That's just editorializing.

So I'm agreeing with you, Mr. Chair, that I think that the quotations are the key part and the rest is what you're saying is -- without seeing all of that, this all is superfluous, the rest of this stuff. It's their opinion, it's their editorializing.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, and I'll interject this. We've interviewed one side of this whole thing. Regardless of who said they couldn't testify now or not, which doesn't -- which really -- pertaining to what has happened, we have interviewed one person.

And even though that one person through a recording may have said this again, through whatever, it doesn't necessarily make it a fact. It may be you believe what Witness 1 said, but we've yet to be able to corroborate that into this person did this, other than they've told this story once and then told it again.

I think on this document obviously, you know, Witness 1 is being quoted, but it's -- you know, whatever the defense has done in producing their document, I think we have to take it as the quotes that are there. And like I believe Representative Mitten said, you know, the press is going to do whatever they want to do with it. It's kind of like our report. You know --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: If I could --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa. There's a tremendous difference between this motion and our report.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No, I get that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And this idea -- there is a false narrative being played by Governor Greitens' lawyers in this that somehow he cannot testify. It happens every single day in this state, in this country that there are parallel criminal and civil or administrative proceedings going on.

It happens in every DWI case in the state of Missouri. The Department of Revenue does not pause license revocation proceedings for criminal trials to happen. You can testify if you want in those, you cannot testify if you don't want, you have the Constitutional right to testify or not testify, and this Committee respects that. But the idea that the Governor is unable to testify is very simply a false narrative.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't think I said that. I said for whatever reason, he chose not to testify. I mean, I think that there are other means and areas that we could have went out and looked to people, you know. I mean, I don't know if we want to go down that road right now or not. But I think there's some -- there's some left on the table, so to speak, for what we could have done as a Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: What would be an example of that?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: We could have interviewed the Interra (phonetic) folks on their investigation or what they could have -- at least tried to. That's just a start. I mean, I'm just looking at it from a criminal perspective of when I would investigate a crime. If something touches something else, you've got to go that route. You got to go down that and you got to go here and you got to go there.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: If I could just remind the Committee briefly that this Committee had a very long discussion as witnesses came to testify about the fact that we wanted to hear from witnesses and not from their attorneys. We were very specific about that and for, I believe, good reason at the time and I don't believe that any of those reasons have changed. So that sort of -- to address -- further address the motion before us.

As to your comments, Representative, I mean are you implying that we should hold off on releasing any report until we --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I never said that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. No, I just want to ask. You know, I want to make sure that I'm understanding what you're saying.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here's the deal with the report. If you don't put the report out on time, then you're not doing what you said you were going to do. Right?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: So you have to do that. Regardless of what it does, you have to do that. I feel like that that's what's in our House Resolution, that's what we need to do, we need to honor that.

I just wish we could have went a little different way about it. I feel like that the report has to go out on the day it's supposed to go out. It needs to, without a doubt.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. I just wanted to make sure I understand.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative, to the extent there is anything in this report that is incomplete, it is by the choice of Governor Greitens and his lawyers.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't -- I don't think that's right. I think there's more --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: He is free to not testify and he is free to testify.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I'm not addressing that. He can do whatever he wants to do. If he don't want to testify, don't testify. But I feel like we could have done more. And not trying to -- not trying to belittle what we've done. I think there's been a lot of work done, but I feel like there's some left on the table still.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let me ask this. Let me go back to page 2. And that is -- so I pulled up on the screen what we have in our current report that relates to the testimony on page 2.

Paragraph 31 says, "Witness 1 testified that she never saw an actual picture nor did she recall, quote, the first time she saw his phone."

What I would propose is either adding directly in the body or in a footnote that a motion from Greitens' counsel filed on this date asserted that in a deposition, Witness 1 stated these things. And also noting that that motion did not provide a full transcript of those proceedings and so there very well could be other relevant testimony that was left out.

Also noting that unless somebody can find another direct quote somewhere --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Which I cannot.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- which I cannot, that I don't -- the other items are not words of witnesses, they're words of lawyers. And so to the extent that there are words of witnesses in here, I -- like Representative Austin said, I'm going to trust that as officers of the court, those places where they have direct quotes are either exactly accurate or really close to it and the reason they're not accurate is because they don't have a full transcript yet. And so I think that it is -- we are capable of putting them in this report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So you'd like to make a footnote as to paragraph 31 just indicating that a motion was filed that -- I mean my attitude is a motion was filed in the criminal case that says -- that basically comports with that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think the testimony is consistent.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. So is that what the footnote says?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think just -- I mean reference just her quotes where --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Do we add a new paragraph here?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We're not adding a -- we're not going to --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think it should be part of the footnote.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Footnote or new paragraph?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: New paragraph.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: This is -- I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hold on. We are going to have a footnote, Representative, that notes that we are relying on their duty as officers of the court to not make up these quotes. I think that we can trust that the quotes themselves are accurate or very close to it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Type and I'll read.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: What's today's date?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: It's the 9th.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Filed in the criminal case.

MS. HALLEN: 2011, holy moly.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And then a motion filed in the criminal case by Greitens. No, you file in the criminal case by -- what are you modifying?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Filed by Greitens' counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No. Filed in the criminal case by Greitens' counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Fine.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Do you want me to read these?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'll do it.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: The first line. You can't say you --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, let him finish.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You can't say you saw him put it down. Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. I want to insert a footnote -- where are we? Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We'll have to mark this as an exhibit? No, we can't mark this as -- never mind. Duh.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The Committee notes that if --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You can't mark what as an exhibit?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Never mind.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So the question I want to ask is we're only using the direct quotes and that's consistent with the e-mail that we sent that said -- well, first of all, it's not entirely consistent with the e-mail because the e-mail said, listen, we don't want cherry-picked evidence at all.

But I'm not -- I don't want to put lawyer's words in the report if there's direct quotes. We note that it's not consistent with that e-mail saying we don't want cherry-picked evidence and -- but that to the extent it quotes directly from the witness, we are relying upon the attorney's obligation not to misrepresent the words.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So you're saying that this FaceTime stuff is not direct quotes so that won't be --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That will not be in the report.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But the motion itself will be in there?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, I think the motion itself is -- I guess I'm fine with including the motion. It's already a public document.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We'll include the motion itself as an exhibit. We only include the direct quotes in the report itself.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: All right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Committee -- okay. Here we go. Now I'm drafting this. Includes these quotes in the absence of a full transcript. It does so in reliance on Greitens' counsel's obligation --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: As an officer of the court. As officers of the court, I guess.

Can we say, however, the Committee declines to --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Also notes that March 23rd, 2018 --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Are you quoting your letter?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: How about only to the extent it has been presented as direct testimony, or no? I think I get where you're going, but I don't know how to --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: What I just want to say is, listen, we don't have the transcript. And I want to note -- I do want to note that even though we said, listen, we're not going to do anything unless we get the full report, we are going back on that to the extent they're providing what purports to be a direct quote and we are doing so out of an abundance of fairness to Governor Greitens.

I mean the other thing is we told them March 23rd, how many weeks ago is that? It's two -- a little over two weeks ago that we would be supportive of a motion to disclose all of this stuff to us. Has such a motion ever been filed? The answer is no.

There's other stuff in the -- in the deposition -- I'm confident there is something in that deposition that is not great for Governor Greitens, but it's not their role in that case to point out the things that aren't great. But we don't have that in front of us either. And so to rely too heavily on this motion of the two thing -- two or three questions they picked out is not something that we should do. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Still, I don't think that we need that final sentence. We are including these quotes only, you know, in the absence of a full thing but they're direct quotes. I mean if anything, you're just going to say, you know, these excerpts are included in the report solely because they're direct quotes or else we have to say that we -- you know --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The other question is I think this testimony is consistent with what she already told us. And at the very least, it is not inconsistent with what she told us.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would agree.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And so to the -- may add a paragraph that says these particular questions and answers are not inconsistent with --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I don't think we need to editorialize.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That's right. That's right.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Just leave it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: All right. So in the footnote review, there's also going to be a review for -- for a whatchamacallit -- review this for grammar and spelling as well. We are on the fly here. We are on the fly here and the type is really small.

Well, let me -- actually let me go back and undo so that those are both marked for the review.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. So this is a new -- this is going to be an exhibit and that's the only thing we're putting in the report.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But then the next thing on the thing is you're going to say all correspondence between you and the Governor's attorneys.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. Where's my list? So Item 4 on the list is correspondence regarding the governor's counsel. These letters do not go to facts. Here is what I want in the public record.

There has been leaked -- I'll call them leaks. They have released both letters that they sent to this Committee. Both of those letters were sent in response to e-mails that said, We have told your client from the beginning that he has the right to testify. It's time to tell us whether he's going to avail himself of that opportunity or waive it. They followed up with an e-mail that said no, we're not.

And then last Friday, after we voted Thursday to release the report on Wednesday, I called and left a message for Mr. Dowd that said, Hey, just want to let you know we voted to release the report on Wednesday, wanted to give your client one more opportunity to testify Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of next week. You tell us the date and time and we will accommodate his schedule.

In response to that, we got another letter that was again sent to the media and just so happened that the e-mail that was sent which precipitated the letter, was not also shared at the same time.

And to the extent that Governor Greitens' lawyers are sharing communications with this Committee with the world, I think it's fair for this Committee to, in response, share the communications that led to those letters being sent to this Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: To avoid cherry-picking.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I agree with that, but I think we need to take a time out because don't you have a motion out there? Didn't you move -- didn't he move something?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't think I -- I don't think I moved. Regarding what to do with the Motion to Compel?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think there was a motion.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: If I so moved, I now retract that motion.

And now --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So is the -- are we at the, you know, assuming no objection, that the correspondence is going to be in?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Assuming no objection, the correspondence will be attached as an exhibit. Seeing no objection, the correspondence will be attached as an exhibit.

And we discussed this, but I want to say it on the record. Assuming no objection, we will add this new paragraph 32 and attach the motion and the letter, which is also correspondence --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- as an exhibit.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Seeing no objection --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Do we have to number the exhibit?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. We will number them, we will number the correspondence as well.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The next item, Item Number 5, is the time frame of the report. And Representative Mitten raised this as an issue. This is not to be coy. I can't tell you the precise time at which we're going to release it. My belief is it will be Wednesday afternoon.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think that's a good idea not to have a time because we may have something that we -- something may happen that we don't anticipate and then we say, Hey, we're supposed to have it out at 2:15 and something's happened and -- so I think that's fair enough.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: In regards to that, are we open to receive further items up until we release? Because what happens when we get a letter tomorrow or Mond-- or Wednesday morning?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Representative makes a good point.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: At this point in time I'm ready to close the door, I mean, on new stuff for the report. Anything that's sent to us by the Governor's counsel at this point in time, as we've seen over the last week and a half, is going to be made public anyway. And to throw something on us new at the last minute, I think would be purely designed as a way to delay release of the report rather than substantive.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we take a quick break?

(Off the record.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Back on the record, back from break. Seeing -- the motion on the floor is that we close the record to new facts at this point in time. I shouldn't say -- not forever, but as to its release on Wednesday. Is there any objection to this plan?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: To this particular report?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: When are you going to set that time? Is it tomorrow at noon?

Because look, what happens if the Circuit Attorney files a response?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Files a response.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: As I understand it, this motion was filed Sunday?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It might have been filed this morning. How about we say tomorrow at 1:00 p.m.?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We go in at noon, this Committee meeting. Right?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. Tomorrow at noon. So tomorrow at noon is the shut-off time for any new information that this Committee may receive before the report.

And I just also want to note, it's going to be very brief no matter who it comes from. And if something comes from the Circuit Attorney's office that likewise includes a bunch of lawyer's words, we're only going to include it to the extent it is the witness's words themselves.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Agreed. Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Goose/gander rule.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah. Treated the exact same.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Mr. Chair, one more question about that. Is this all just going to get released electronically? Are we going to have copies in the Speaker's office or actually the library is where they should be. I don't know if that's for the Committee to discuss or not.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I believe it should be electronic. We don't need to print a thousand copies of a 400-page document. Or in the alternative, we could print a bunch of copies of the report itself and then release the transcripts and stuff electronically.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: How do we go about doing that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Doing what?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Releasing this.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: You mean the printing of it?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No. Just -- is someone going to have to call and request from you or the Clerk's office to get this report? How is this --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Is it going on the website?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: This is all --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: This is for tomorrow?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: This is for tomorrow, but it's also -- these are logistics questions that are questions for the Chief Clerk and the Clerk's office as to entering it into the record.

Because I think we need it enter it into the day's journal. The report itself. They may not want the transcripts to be in the journal itself, but I think that in the past when there have been committees of this general nature, the report itself has been included in the journal.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So we can talk to the Chief Clerk's office tonight then and find out by tomorrow?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Those logistics, yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Which makes sense, but we should all have some understanding of what that's going to be.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Or they're all going to be asking, Hey, where can I get those reports.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: You're the investigative reporter.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So when is the transcripts for like our Committee meetings going to be --

MS. HALLEN: I haven't gotten any. I can contact Shelly.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Can you get us a transcript by tomorrow?

(Off the record.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And then tomorrow's meeting we can publicize -- we can publish the transcript --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Whenever.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- Thursday or Friday or whatever. It doesn't have to be -- people don't -- people don't want to hear what we have to say.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: A discussion about website versus paper is maybe not as urgent.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Nobody is going to be paying attention to our argument about paper or website.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. So the next question was next steps. So what I would propose is the two Alexes go through this, get footnotes right, get the transcripts of the hearings set up.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Bryan get the exhibits set up and put into a PDF format and we meet tomorrow at noon.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: When do we get a copy of the report -- the revised report as amended?

MS. HALLEN: I'm planning on doing this immediately after we're done right now. Well, at least on my end.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I will be up there as soon as I can.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So first thing tomorrow morning or close of business tonight?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Tomorrow morning.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Tomorrow morning? Nine o'clock? And by nine o'clock in Adam's office?

MS. HALLEN: I can do that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: 9:00 a.m., I should say, in Adam's office.

Okay. Further questions about next steps?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, my next steps was also beyond just this report, but are we -- do we have any witnesses coming up? What are our -- we have some documents that need to be reviewed.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We need to make a plan for review of those documents.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And there's some additional witnesses who have been identified. Perhaps at the -- after we get done with this part, we can talk -- we can put together --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Have a broader conversation?
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- an e-mail plan at the least.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, and listen, Mr. Chair, again, I've expressed these concerns to you. There's apparently a pretty voluminous number of documents already. We're at what, April 9th today. I know you don't need me to remind you that the clock is ticking.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Your concerns are very well taken. So yes. Your concerns are very well taken.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Do you want these returned?
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No. Those we can -- those get to go in your notebook.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Further questions about next steps?
Seeing none, the seventh item is media. This Committee, and myself as the Chairman, is in no position to try to introduce a gag order on any other member of this Committee.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The body you mean?
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The body or members of this Committee. Because I think the question was how are we going to deal with media requests because you know they're going to be swarming all over us.
My intention is to be -- is to be very limited in public comments.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think that's right. If I can interject, I mean this Committee's going to continue. So we're still under the Resolution. Right?
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes, we are.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Where we can only talk amongst ourselves and Gail and Todd.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: You're not going to want to issue any statements prejudging any further action by the Committee, should that be necessary.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So I think every member of the Committee should be very limited in their public comments. And that's my intent as well.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Or as we have been, say nothing. Because, I mean, it's not beyond the realm of possibility that we'll find something or want to supplement the first part of this report.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Since we're still under the Resolution.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, it seems to me that this report though is an accurate representation of the evidence this Committee has heard to date.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: And that it should speak for itself.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And that it speaks for itself. I agree with you.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: There's certain more or less procedural questions about the Committee's operation that I want to be able to answer, but not to go into depth.
MS. HALLEN: You're not bound by your Resolution regarding procedure. You're only bound in terms of witness and evidence.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So you're fine talking procedure.
MS. HALLEN: You could talk about it now if you really want to.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: What's going to happen is that there's going to be a bunch of people that will get interviewed that don't have anything to do with this Committee. They're going to start throwing their speculation out there and giving their theories on stuff. And it's going to seem very odd if we have no statement whatsoever.
And the people that are mum on this subject are the ones that served on the Committee and everybody else is stepping up to the mic. I don't think we need to be telling what we know, but I think we need to tell -- we need to kind of have a blanket statement from -- some guidelines within our body here as to what we are going to say pertinent to what we've found out.
SECRETARY CURCHIN: Say the Committee voted to extend its authority on a date certain until that time. We're operating as a Committee under the --
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think your broader point is --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: -- Resolution.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- about this report itself. And I think it's important -- REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: It is.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- for us to say our job was to conduct a fact-finding investigation. We did so. We think the facts that are included in this report -- we're going to let them speak for themselves at the present time. The Committee continues in existence and will continue doing its work.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: And they're available.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And they're available with full transcripts, 400 pages. Have we figured out what our page -- REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It's like a tax bill. Maybe we could -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, no.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Sorry.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Because they're going to take our other members, our colleagues, they're going to take them down a different road than we want to go down, with their questioning and their "what do you think" and speculation.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And we can't control --
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I know, but I'm just saying.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Even if -- no matter how hard we try, there is no hurting of these cats in either caucus.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Right. That's why it's important that we have a -- just a fairly consistent statement to give.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: And we bifurcated the report. So there is still opportunity, from what I understand, that there could be supplemental reporting done on what we will come out with on Wednesday. Is that true since we have -- REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, to the extent that new facts and information come to light, absolutely.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And we do have -- there will, no doubt, be a second report from this Committee relating to all the work we did on other topics.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Right. But the other bit of information that's still what ongoing, in that if we find out other information, then a supplement report can go out?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Depending -- yeah, depending on what the members of the Committee view as to whether it should.
REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Any further discussion?
Seeing none, we will reconvene tomorrow at noon o'clock in this hearing room. And that will close today's hearing in the Special Committee -- Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.
(Meeting adjourned.)

CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER

I, Tracy Thorpe Taylor, CCR No. 939, within the State of Missouri, do hereby certify that the witness whose testimony appears in the foregoing deposition was duly sworn by me; that the testimony of said witness was taken by me to the best of my ability and thereafter reduced to typewriting under my direction; that I am neither counsel for, related to, nor employed by any of the parties to the action in which this deposition was taken, and further, that I am not a relative or employee of any attorney or counsel employed by the parties thereto, nor financially or otherwise interested in the outcome of the action.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We will call to order the House Special Committee on Investigative Oversight. Mr. Secretary, call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Everyone's present and accounted for.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote of seven present, zero absent, everyone is here.

our agenda today -- oh, I move that we close today's hearing. All those in favor will vote yes, all those opposed, no. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven to zero.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote of seven aye, zero no, you voted to close today's hearing.

The agenda items for today, and then we can open it up after this, is to finalize the report. I you want to talk about what's been done since yesterday and then two documents that are in front of the Committee.

First, what's been done since yesterday is that the two Alexes got together and some folks from the leadership office chipped in a little bit, but mainly the two Alexes got together to work on non-substantive edits to the document.

I went ahead and told them -- I know I had a brief conversation with Representative Austin about this -- that we would trust both of them to make non-substantive edits and review the document before we sign it. And so those changes have been made. And you can see the comments are off and everything -- has everything been accepted or rejected

MS. HALLEN: I think we did for everything.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I believe so.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. There are -- is everyone okay with that order of operations there? Okay. The -- SECRETARY CURCHIN: There is one issue, Mr. Chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The footnote? Is that what you're referring to?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: No. Well, there is -- it is a footnote.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Footnote 36 on page 8? And this relates to one of the documents that's been distributed.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I will say -- if you will go to the first page of the report, I wanted to -- we inserted a Footnote 1, which moved everything down, which -- where you quoted the correspondence with Greitens' counsel. And we tagged that with Exhibit 23, which is the correspondence with Greitens' counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I think --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: No objections here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No objections.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: So that moved all the footnotes down one.

MS. HALLEN: Did we fix the footnote that went to nothing?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: No. That was my next one. If you go to Footnote 75 now --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It looks like it's going somewhere now.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seventy-five. We could not find that in the transcript anywhere close to where that cited to.

MS. HALLEN: It's not in anything. It's not in the transcript. Do you believe you quoted that from somewhere else?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think I -- I don't think so. Nothing happened on the 14th is the only quote.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. That could very well be from the grocery store transcript.

MS. HALLEN: Because 14 does not appear in the -- 1/14th does not appear in the transcript. So I don't know --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: You know what? Maybe it's just nothing happened.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But you quoted.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, Representative, you know, that's not -- I did quote it and so I'm sure I --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I mean so it's somewhere.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I would think that it is somewhere, but I may have put the quotation mark in the wrong spot.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: You have it as Exhibit 1. It may be witness testimony.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So Exhibit 1 is -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The grocery store.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Is the grocery store tape. It may be in her testimony, but I couldn't find it in her testimony.

MS. HALLEN: I didn't either.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Hang on. Let's --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa. You know what? This is why -- it can't be -- well.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: That's all from the grocery store parking lot transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah, you're right.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Well, it falls right along between C and D.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Whoa, whoa, whoa. There is on page 39 -- no, that's a different --

MS. HALLEN: Yeah. The words "nothing happened" like exist together, but not in the way that -- that in D exists.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think that it's probably from Exhibit 1. Let me double check that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, I think --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: You mean the transcript?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exhibit 1. Exhibit 1, which is the grocery store.

MS. HALLEN: That's where it's cited to now.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: That's where it's cited now.

MS. HALLEN: It doesn't exist in there.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Really?

MS. HALLEN: Yeah.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Couldn't find it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Hang on a second.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But if we take away the quotes, so he's just paraphrasing, you know --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, I'd still want to find where she said that nothing happened. I mean that's certainly my memory of the testimony. And maybe --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Could we have a binder where we could go through and look?

MS. HALLEN: Could we go off the record?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's take a short break.

(Off the record.)

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So it's -- right. Page -- Exhibit 1, page 13, lines 11 through 14 and then let's go back to the quote. You could put quote, nothing happened.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Put, quote, nothing happened.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Hang on a second.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Is nothing happened in quotes?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let me get to the exact -- hang on a second. I want to just get back to the exact place. No -- okay. "Witness 3: So nothing happened on the 14th? Witness 1: No, comma, nothing happened on the 14th." That is a quote.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hey, hey, hey. Look at that. It was precise.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: On -- now that the 14th. On the 14th. Yes. Quote.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The Chairman has been vindicated on the footnote.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But you can't -- but nothing happened on the 14th, that -- you have kind of a run-on there.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah, comma.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Other than --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And she told -- okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But you might want to say that she met Greitens --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: But that she had met him outside and he told her that he wanted to see her on the next weekend.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We're good?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Hang on a second. I want to just make sure.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah, make sure we've got the citation right.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Well, and then you could also say again, Exhibit 1, page 13, "And I came outside to meet him. I didn't touch him, nothing."

That's -- that's -- yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think we're good.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think we're good too.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We've got a lot of block quotes, as Representative Mitten reminded me.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just doing my job, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes, you are. Yes, you are.

Other issues, either Alex?

MS. HALLEN: I had an issue that I don't know if you and Alex discussed. We reference Witness 3 in two different ways. We reference him as ex-husband and we reference him as Witness 3 and it's confusing. Is there a preference for referencing?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Whatever the Committee would prefer. Representative Phillips, it's your decision.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: If you go to page 1, it talks about Witness 3 and summarizes his relationship, I believe.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: AKA.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Then why don't we do that and refer to him as Witness 3 then throughout?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Yeah. Witness 3, the ex-husband of Witness 1.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So then let's just global search and replace ex-husband. Right?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We can have one of the Alexes do that after the hearing.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Somebody got that on their list of to-do?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. Other issues?

Okay. Let's start with what I have. I received an e-mail yesterday evening at 8:46 p.m. from Scott Simpson, attorney for Witness 1. And he is responding to the motion that we've included as Exhibit 23.

However, as we discussed yesterday, in the body of the report itself, we only included the quotes from the witness. So I don't think it's appropriate to include quotes from Scott Simpson; however, I do think it is appropriate to add his response as Exhibit 24. And I have noted -- in Footnote 36 we've added new language that states --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we zoom that up a little bit?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Any objection to this -- these two new sentences summarizing Exhibits 23 and 24, which are correspondence?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, it's Witness 1's attorney statement. I mean, am I reading it right?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah. And Exhibit 23 we talked about was that that's their -- oh, you mean by quoting -- by quoting mischaracterizes there?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No. The very last -- where it says Witness 1 statement and e-mail --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes, you're right. Yes. Yes. Right there?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Good catch, Representative.

Are we fine with these three sentences?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we just say mischaracterizes her deposition testimony instead of -- sorry. I'm an editor at heart.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Why use a prepositional phrase when a good old adjective will get the job done.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you. Thank you.

MR. SCHEIDERER: Jay, can I ask while you're on it, is this 24 the bold back and front?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. So we're going to mark the e-mail and letter -- or e-mail and statement from Witness 1's counsel as Exhibit 24.

MR. SCHEIDERER: Twenty-four, gotcha.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Both pages?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. It's going to be one exhibit. Seeing no objection, it will be so marked.

The next item in front of you is correspondence from Dowd Bennett from March 5th, 2018. And I confess that my legislative assistant was a savior here in that he found this -- he went back through my spam mailbox for my House e-mail and found this this morning.

I recall Mr. Dowd and I speaking about the facts that are in this letter. Attached to the letter is a transcript of a motion hearing at which no witness appears. I'm inclined not to include it as an exhibit. I'm also open to including it as an exhibit. It doesn't relate directly to witness testimony. Then again, it's also correspondence from counsel.

And so I'd leave it to the Committee's will, but again, we're going down the line of it's essentially lawyer testimony. And we've got -- Exhibit 23 is in because it includes direct quotes -- purported direct quotes which we believe to be accurate from a witness. And then Exhibit -- but it includes all the other statements of attorneys. And Exhibit 24 is in as a response to all the statements of the attorneys in Exhibit 23.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And this correspondence -- or this transcript that was attached here, I mean this is nothing more than the prosecutor's motion to reset the trial somewhere, some other time. Right? I mean --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I believe so.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I don't -- how is that substantive to us?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's not substantive to us, in my opinion. Could I -- could we go and look at what is -- how do we refer to Exhibit -- is it Exhibit 23? Because here's the thing --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Correspondence with counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Yes. Can we look at what exactly that language is? Because it seems to me as long as we're not purporting to say in the report that we've disclosed every single piece of information --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't think -- I think we just say that Exhibit 23 is -- we cite counsel promised to work with the Committee and then we cite Exhibit 23.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep. So we're not making a representation in the report that we have provided every single piece of paper we've received from Dowd Bennett.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: No, we are not.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Then I'm fine with leaving it out.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We talked about at one time, but I don't think --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Then I'm fine with leaving it out. So long as it comports with our report, I think it should be left out. I agree with -- oh, my gosh, here we go again. I agree with Representative Austin and -- I agree with Representative Austin and I think it should not be included.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let the record reflect that there is laughter in the room. And goodwill.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And goodwill exactly.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: There was one other change.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: One other.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: In the portion where it says --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hold on. Let me finish this. Seeing no objections, we will not include this correspondence from March 5th, 2018 as an Exhibit.

Mr. Curchin.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Its. Did you see that?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'll go back. Where did you see it?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Keep going. I-t-s. That needed to have an apostrophe in it. It's down a little bit further. Right there.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Representative --

MS. HALLEN: But that might not be how the transcript reads.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You could put a [sic] in.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We're not putting a [sic] in.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Now, wait a minute.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: For punctuation?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: What do you mean that's the way the transcript reads? That its is it's. That's a whole -- whole different deal if you don't put the apostrophe in there. How is that any different than how the transcript reads?

MS. HALLEN: Because the transcript may not have an apostrophe in it.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: So the way it was recorded, you're saying, not the way it was said.

MS. HALLEN: Correct. I'm happy to check it, if we'd like. Where are we? What's the footnote on L, please? Can we go down a little bit?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Almost makes us look like we don't know our --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Open bracket --

MS. HALLEN: Could you go down to -- 19:9.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Is this Witness 1?

MS. HALLEN: It's Exhibit 1.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's Exhibit 1? Bates stamp. Could we go back to the --

MS. HALLEN: No, Representative Phillips is correct. The footnote reads -- it reads i-t, apostrophe s. The transcript reads i-t apostrophe s.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Vindicated.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Good eye.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Keep swinging, you're going to hit eventually.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Really, really good eye.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Especially as fast as you were moving through.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I know. It's like an eye test.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: One other issue. On 50A -- well, it's in the transcript and it's not redacted. I think we had a discussion of this. Within walking distance of the actual place where she worked, had the name of the hotel where she worked.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And you guys took out the name.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: And I took out -- I said ellipses where she worked -- a distance of where she worked.

MS. HALLEN: It's not redacted from the transcript.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: It's not redacted from the transcript. And I didn't remember that conversation, whether it should be redacted out. I seem to remember that we did have a discussion as a Committee on that as identifying, but she thought that it was maybe in the public record. I think it's already --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I believe it is as well.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think it is. Let's leave A how it is -- how it is right now where it says where she worked. That's the important point.

MS. HALLEN: And we can just leave it unredacted in the transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm happy to redact it. It's not a big deal if you want it redacted from the transcript.

MR. PIERSON: Is the proper name stated?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes. The transcript includes the name.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Here's 50A.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So say she worked at, I don't know, Fantastic Sam's. It says the actual name in the transcript. But she no longer is employed there and it is in the public record so that was why it didn't seem important to redact it to me at the time, but it can be changed if the Committee chooses otherwise.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Does that leave any undue focus on that location?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't think so. It's already in the public record. Does anyone think it's not in the public record?

Give me just a minute and I will tell you.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And I didn't -- yeah, I didn't think to consult with her attorney about that. That would be another -- I can always ask him. If the Committee wants me to just do what Mr. Simpson --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's just hold on a second.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I'd almost opt to take it out.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: That's how I would lean.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. Let's do that. Take it out.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Done.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It's out of the report and you'll redact it in the transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Will you add that to my list or your list?

MS. HALLEN: Yeah. You don't have anything else on your list here.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Did we say it here this morning? Did I say the name?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, I don't believe we did.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Good. I have no further items relating to this report. Does anyone else have an item relating to this report?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Real quick, Mr. Chairman, does the report reflect that we're still in the process of working through things in the Committee?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't know that it does. I think from our public -- I don't know that we need to put that in this report, but we do need to make that clear tomorrow.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I agree.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Is everyone okay with that; that rather than put that in this report, we make that clear in Committee statements that this Committee's work is not completed?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Would that not be in the Committee's transcript where we discussed it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It is in it, but Representative Rhoads is right. We need to make it clear tomorrow. I just don't think we need to make it clear in the context of this particular report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: What is the title? Can we go back to the very beginning? Are we calling it just a Report? Not a Preliminary Investigative Report 1?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: No. Report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: If another report would be issued, would it also just be called a Report or Supplemental?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We'll call it Report 1. Report 1.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: That's fine. Report and then just subsequently number it 2, 3, 4, 5

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. I'm fine. I'm fine with that. That's fine. So it doesn't have to say Report 1. Just say Report.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: If it has the date on there, that would --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yeah, that will cover it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think you're right. Sorry. Just had to talk that through, I guess.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So don't I get an atta boy?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There you go. vindicated.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Is there a reason that's not on the top line? If I move that up a line, am I going to mess something up?

MS. HALLEN: Reason what is not on a top line?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Don't touch it.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Don't touch it.

MS. HALLEN: One move and it messes up the whole thing.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Further comments, discussion on this report?

MS. HALLEN: I have a comment. Obviously Alex and I have both spent a lot of time looking at this, but one more eyes on all of the transcripts and this one more time to make sure we haven't accidentally not redacted something that needs to be redacted would probably be beneficial.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So you're seeking a new set of eyes?

MS. HALLEN: Just another set, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I am supportive of that. Does anyone oppose that? Seeing no opposition, we will make sure that a new set of eyes gets one more look to make non-substantive changes to this document.

MS. HALLEN: And the transcripts, I think more importantly.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The transcripts, more importantly. Actually, let's do this. Let's find -- you two were tasked with -- what was your task with the footnotes?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Cross-referencing every footnote with every bit of transcript referenced in the footnote, making sure the block quotations and the actual language used was --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And that's work you're still going to do by this afternoon?

MS. HALLEN: We've completed that.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: We completed that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. You've completed that. I believe we have one other thing we mentioned at the start. Maybe I'm wrong. Maybe we already covered it here today.

What I'm looking for is I want to get in a place where we can print this thing and sign it and move on. Because we have a lot of cooks in the kitchen. That's not a criticism of having a lot of cooks in the kitchen, but there's seven of us and then there's really nine of us making edits at this point. And at some point we have to say this is -- leave well enough alone.

MS. HALLEN: Alex and I, I don't think, have any more non-substantive changes to the report. My concern was just the transcripts are very long and I know last night when I was going through them, I found a couple additional identifiers that needed to be redacted because we've now all read the transcript several times and we're just missing things and I'm concerned about that. I just want to make sure --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think everyone in this room reading the transcripts is going to be blind to things that we've seen --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- a hundred times already. So I fully support getting someone else who's not seen these transcripts to take a look.

In the clerk's office.

Okay. Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: What do we do -- Okay. One more set of eyes. There's a redaction we mentioned. I guess we're going to have to -- what do you call those things? Those sticks?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: PDFs?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thumb drives?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Thumb drives. One with our report and one with the transcripts; is that right? Am I understanding that right?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: No. I think they want to combine it altogether in one document. Representative Phillips, you're good with that?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'm supportive of that as well.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I am too. Report, exhibits, all one. We turn it over then to Adam?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Tran-- transcripts as well.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, aren't the transcripts going to be a part of whatever's on that thumb drive?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah. But I think we want to combine them all into a single PDF.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. So --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We are really in the weeds. I feel like maybe let's let Trevor and Adam figure out the best way for distribution and printing of -- we know what needs to be in it and what's -- let's let them handle what -- the logistics of what they think is best, whether it's one PDF or three PDFs.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So we give them all of our stuff in whatever format we've got it, might be multiple formats. And then Adam and Trevor will put it all together and figure out to let the media get it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, first we'll give it to the Speaker's office, the Minority Floor Leader's office, Majority Floor Leader's office, and then there will be a media distribution. My position is that is above our pay grade. You know, we speak obviously with leadership about plans for how they're going to do this distribution, but not micromanage it.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Fine with me.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Good.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Further items?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: What about that April 8th -- or May 18th date that they put out? Seems to be causing a little confusion amongst people. They said our Committee would continue or something to that effect until May the 18th.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Well, I think the inaccuracies of reporting have been through the media for hundreds of years, so.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I think that that -- to Representative Rhoads' comment about we need to make it clear that this Committee's work is not done, I think that will --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: As long as they don't think we're totally finished.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- correct that misconception. I think he's completely -- he's entirely correct that we need to make sure that that is stated tomorrow. I just don't think it needs to be in this particular report.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I assume then there's going to be a press conference tomorrow?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I believe that there is going to be a press conference, but again, I don't know the particulars of it at this point in time.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And as far as stating it, that would come from you as the Chair, that this Committee is not done yet -- or better wording than that, of course.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: What I would do is if that statement is going to come from me, I would run it by everyone here. It's going to be like Representative Phillips and I -- we made a statement about two weeks ago that was about ten words.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It's going to be very brief --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Right, right. Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- in regards to that. So I really don't have any plans right now to speak tomorrow. That may -- that may change and I will let members of the Committee know. But if I do say something, it's not going to be very much.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: It's going to be tough to have a press release or a press conference and the Chairman of the Committee doesn't speak, so.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah. Your luck would have to change drastically for that to happen.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Have to have something ready to go.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Could that not be reinforced with Trevor and so forth and their communication?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: They could include that as well.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

Further discussion on this particular report? Seeing none, I want to -- so our order of business is finalization, one hard copy to the -- Alex Curchin is going to be responsible for carrying it around for signatures.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: I was under the impression that we'd leave that in the Clerk's office under lock and key for members to come and review and sign.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That will work as well. That works. Make a copy, in the Clerk's office, come in and sign it this afternoon.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: This afternoon?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Is this after these fresh set of eyes look at it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We want the fresh set of eyes on the transcripts. We've had a fresh set of eyes on the report.

MS. HALLEN: The transcripts and exhibits, there should be -- we'll have to make -- print out all of the exhibits, all of the transcripts and give them to whomever the selection is to read them.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: And a meeting is set for tomorrow at noon. Should we keep it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's keep it. I want to talk about logistics of the other items. I want to do that at -- we've got a bunch of e-mails to review and I want to figure out how we're going to divvy them up and I don't think that needs to be on the record of who's getting which batch of e-mails.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: One other question with regard to references to the ex-husband where we're replacing that with Witness 3.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That is the other thing that we had to do, yes.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Which I will do. Where the term "ex-husband" appears in the transcripts, I will leave it as ex-husband, not put in brackets Witness 3.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Correct.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Deal.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Seeing no further business before the Committee --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Do we have --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's vote to close tomorrow. I vote to close tomorrow's hearing.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Move.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I move to close tomorrow's hearing. All those in favor will vote yes. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven ayes voted to close tomorrow's hearing.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Do we have any witnesses coming or --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Not tomorrow.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Are we going to be here Friday or Thursday? I just want to try to plan my weekend.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Oh, man, the looks right now. The looks right now.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Don't do it.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: We will not be here Friday.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I am aware of that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We will not be here Friday. I seriously doubt we will be here Thursday. And I think that everyone on the Committee has been working very hard and we're -- we are not schedu-- we only have a technical on Monday. So I will leave -- I will leave it to you guys. It looks like we want no Monday hearing because we didn't get -- we didn't get Easter, we didn't get spring break. We can take a Monday after having pushed out one report. Any -- seeing no objection --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I don't have any objection.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And then tomorrow we will notice up for Tuesday of the following week. There are some additional witnesses. That also will give us an opportunity to review documents.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We will then have a five-day gap to review documents.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Now my question would be though what's the schedule look like past Tuesday next week?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's deal with that tomorrow and Tuesday.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Because some of us may have things on the schedule that need to be taken care of.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I agree.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, let's do -- listen, if you guys have conflict dates, I mean if you've got something going on that you're not going to be here, get those to me.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: That's a Chairman for you right there.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Now, I'm reserving the right to ignore said conflict dates.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: That's also a

Chairman for you.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: That's not a good Chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: This concludes today's hearing of the House Committee -- Special Committee on Investigative Oversight.

(Meeting adjourned.)

CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER

I, Tracy Thorpe Taylor, CCR No. 939, within the State of Missouri, do hereby certify that the witness whose testimony appears in the foregoing deposition was duly sworn by me; that the testimony of said witness was taken by me to the best of my ability and thereafter reduced to typewriting under my direction; that I am neither counsel for, related to, nor employed by any of the parties to the action in which this deposition was taken, and further, that I am not a relative or employee of any attorney or counsel employed by the parties thereto, nor financially or otherwise interested in the outcome of the action.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's go on the record for the House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight. Madam Secretary, please call the roll.

MS. HALLEN: Chairman Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Here.

MS. HALLEN: Vice Chairman Phillips.

Ranking Member Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

MS. HALLEN: Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

MS. HALLEN: Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

MS. HALLEN: Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

MS. HALLEN: Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Six present and one excused absence. Representative Phillips is dealing with something else right now and we're -- this is going to be a very short meeting where we're not going to get into that much substance. We have established a quorum.

I now move that we notice up a hearing for 8:00 a.m. next Tuesday

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: 8:00 a.m.?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Noon next Tuesday.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Noon next Tuesday. Is everyone supportive of that?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Seeing no objection, it will be noon next Tuesday. And it will be a closed meeting. I now move that we close next Tuesday's meeting at noon. We always have the option to open it after we vote to close. Again, we are -- we don't have a witness secured right now, but we're going under the realm of we made this mistake one time where we didn't notice up far enough in advance, so we're not going to make that mistake again. All those in favor of closing the hearing will vote yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So I'm going to vote to close this hearing, but at some point we're going to have to have a conversation about how we're going to do this moving forward. I don't know if that's a conversation to have today, particularly when Representative Phillips isn't present, but just to sort of heads-up everybody.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I agree completely. At some point we are going to have to -- we are going to have fully open hearings.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: But to the extent when we're in the middle of an investigation, you can't have witnesses testifying --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I understand.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- and every word they say gets in the newspaper and the next witness -- Representative Phillips has arrived.

You missed the roll call. We are noticing up for noon next Tuesday. And we are about to move to close said hearing. All those in favor will vote yes. Madam Secretary, please call the roll.

MS. HALLEN: Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.

MS. HALLEN: Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

MS. HALLEN: Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

MS. HALLEN: Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

MS. HALLEN: Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

MS. HALLEN: Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

MS. HALLEN: Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote of seven aye, zero no, you've voted to close next Tuesday's hearing at noon.

The one item of the day is I wanted to show the Committee how to use this website. You go to that url at the top of the screen. If you don't have one already, we can get you a user name. That's mine that you can see on the screen. They will also get you a password. Man, this would be a nice screen to do document review on.

MS. HALLEN: You can hook your computer up to your TV and do it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You can.

Really?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Are either of you offering to come set that up?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No. No. No one is offering to help you in the tech assistance category.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So this is -- and so you can see down in the total -- the custodian here is listed as Krystal Taylor. There are 95,000 total items.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Does it have a list of witness name or witness number?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: No. You can see up here that we have these lines. You've got the document ID, the custodian, the date in which it was sent. You can organize by these things; who it was from, who it was to and then the subject line.

And you can go up here to the top. Right now we're at 25 per page. We can do a thousand per page. I'm going to ask them -- I'm going to talk to the folks who put this together, to the extent they can, whether we can get the body of the e-mails in this column so that we can review them all --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That would be great.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- just scrolling.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just scrolling.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Otherwise, I have a meeting set up with the folks tomorrow about this to try to go through these and eliminate e-mails from, for example, NewYorkTimes.com. These aren't going to be relevant. E-mails from Expedia aren't going to be relevant.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So can you search them so we're -- I'm trying to see the From. Can you just type in Expedia in the From category or is there a -- REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I believe you can through the filter, but what I'm going to do tomorrow, with the Committee's permission, is go through this with a techie to identify those From addresses that are frequent and not relevant and get those completely out of the document set. The other thing that they can do -- help me do and will help me do is to take these documents and put them in separate folders.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The non-indexed ones or -- oh. So, for instance, look at that line 7 like there's no To, there's no From.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Oops.

MS. HALLEN: Because that's an attachment.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: It's an attachment. So I want to go through with the techie to get the frequent Froms that are not relevant removed from the data set and then have them -- whatever number we have left -- let's say it's 80,000.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Have them put -- depends on how many helpers we have, but 20,000 documents in a folder.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Got it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And then those folders, when you log in, you'll be able to log into that folder and review the said documents in your folder.

The way you review them is over here in the right-hand column, you would click on the document, click on the right-hand column and you can -- you can -- let's save this.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Will we be assigned a folder of documents or how will we know if somebody's already been in that folder?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's what he's trying -- that's what Jay was just saying is that tomorrow we wants to segregate them so that it would be like sort of by reviewer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Got it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: You click review up here, and I can make them make that sticky. That's not the right document. There is a -- apologize. Review and edit. So this is non-responsive. You can click one of these -- non-responsive and boom, you're done.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, just code

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Boom. Then you save index or save and it takes you back out. If it is responsive or relevant in some way -- this is not litigation, so, you know, our -- we don't necessarily have hot documents, but I would just click both of them because hot -- it's something that we want to save. We'll know that those are things that are relevant to something.

I included this additional -- I'm the one who put that additional tab in there --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Got it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- when I was logging on. So let's say this is non-responsive. Hit save and next and it will take you to the next document.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Again, non-responsive, save and next.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: So if it is responsive, we also do hot?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hot is our --

SECRETARY CURCHIN: You need to set up a little --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Primer?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Or we'll have a transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Did we decide what responsive means?

MS. HALLEN: Responsive is relevant. It's responsive to what we're looking for.

MR. SCHEIDERER: I mean, I have a general idea what we're looking for. Can we have specific direction of exactly what you want?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Relating to the use of Mission Continues' resources and Mission Continues' list.

And the way -- every document I review, you know, you're looking for -- obviously you have a singular focus, but then sometimes you run into documents that you didn't know about that are, well, what is this? And you may flag those. I don't -- from my review, I don't think there are any such documents in here, but --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: You might want anything in regards to the transition?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Transition e-mails, yes. Those documents are in here. Anything with the list, use of resources and transition. Those are the main -- those are the things we're looking for.

So if you see something else that sticks out, flag it and put it in the list. I don't know that there's going to be, but -- any further questions on this?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No. I guess once the documents's already been done, it won't be available for us to review. Correct? So we're not doubling it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. That's the intent. If you mark non-responsive, then it --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: But it's not like if Representative Mitten is doing it at the exact same time I am, we're not looking at the same documents? So we're not going to double up review of those. Right?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, I think we're going to do some double review.

The other -- so let me -- let's pretend this one is relevant. Okay? You can save the document up here and so that is what I would encourage you to do. In addition to if you have a particularly relevant document, don't just click it on there.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Save it.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: But go ahead and save it as a PDF on whatever computer you're on and print and bring it to Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: So you want us to go ahead and print?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: If you see something, save something.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And I always -- this is so unnecessary and ridiculous when I've done document reviews, but I flag it, I save it to my desktop and I write down the Bates number on a pad of paper.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I do the same thing.

MS. HALLEN: You might also put the Bates number on the top of the document.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: So the Bates numbers here are on the back -- or on the bottom right of each document. Okay. I'm going to log out.

All right. I have a meeting tomorrow with the Attorney General's office to just talk about their progress. They cannot speak to me in any details, so we're going to have more of a one-way street tomorrow. And the plan is what we'll need to do -- they can speak in details if they get a subpoena and a court order to do so and there's a way to do that. And I will be hopefully getting said subpoena soon because it takes about five days before they can turn around and get the order for us to then have a substantive conversation.

Is there anything else before the Committee today? Seeing none, that will conclude today's hearing of the House Special Committee on Investigative Oversight.

(Meeting adjourned.)

CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER

I, Tracy Thorpe Taylor, CCR No. 939, within the State of Missouri, do hereby certify that the witness whose testimony appears in the foregoing deposition was duly sworn by me; that the testimony of said witness was taken by me to the best of my ability and thereafter reduced to typewriting under my direction; that I am neither counsel for, related to, nor employed by any of the parties to the action in which this deposition was taken, and further, that I am not a relative or employee of any attorney or counsel employed by the parties thereto, nor financially or otherwise interested in the outcome of the action.

MR. BARNES: We , here is what we can do, Representative.
MS. M TTEN: Page 22, be ieve, is sexy workout.
MR. BARNES: Let's insert another box, setting those testimonies side by side. s that --
MR. RHOADS: Very good.
MR. AUST N: We're going to re ease this who e transcript; right?
MR. BARNES: We are.
Okay. Representative, where are we on your transcript?
MR. RHOADS: On page 10, it wou d be ine -- mean, we cou d start at ine 19; that way we're not jumping in in a sentence --
MR. BARNES: think -- et's start at ine 8.
MR. RHOADS: Yeah. Just put her who e answer in there -- or even 16, for that matter, Mr. Chairman.

Page 22

MR. BARNES: Yeah. Okay. 'm going to put the who e thing in here, and then we may shorten it.
MS. M TTEN: Yes, think we shou d shorten that. There's -- do you want me to dictate this to you?
MR. BARNES: No.
Okay. Now, pu the committee testimony up --
MS. M TTEN: What page do you want?
MR. BARNES: Twenty-two.
MS. M TTEN: Sexy workout.
MR. BARNES: Fourteen to 22.
MS. M TTEN: Page 10, ines 16 through 23.
MR. BARNES: Okay. Now --
MS. M TTEN: So do you want to start with, " 'm going to show you how to do a proper pu -up" on page 21 of the committee testimony?
"So did what he said, and at this point, was intrigued." Put some context in it?
MR. BARNES: want to start with, "So came out of the bathroom," because that's the point in time -- "He said, Fo ow me downstairs --" actua y, how about we start at, "He said."
MS. M TTEN: Okay. ' dictate this to

"He sa d, Fo ow me downsta rs; 'm go ng to show you how to do a proper pu -up. So d d what he sa d. And at th s po nt, was ntr gued, def n te y, because thought for sure he rea y has fee ngs for me."
MR. BARNES: Okay. And then --
MS. M TTEN: You don't want to go nto the exerc s ng?
MR. BARNES: No, no, no. And then you go to page 22 --
MS. HALLEN: Put a footnote on there.
MS. M TTEN: That s comm ttee page 21, nes 14 through 19.
MR. BARNES: Okay.

MS. M TTEN: Do we -- are we c ear that the two fr ends referenced n the v deo are the same two fr ends?
MR. BARNES: We are not, but the th ng s, W tness 1 never test f ed to -- n front of us, to my memory, of contemporaneous y te ng a fr end. be eve she may have sa d someth ng to W tness 3, her ex-husband.
MS. M TTEN: Okay. t just seems to me, then, that we maybe need to mod fy that. "She d d not c a m to the comm ttee that she to d fr ends --"
MR. AUST N: We , what d d she te at d nner that n ght w th a of the -- after the e ect on? D dn't she br ng someth ng up, and they were a ke -- or was t just --
MR. BARNES: Yeah. And we dec ded not to br ng them n because t was n a pub c sett ng and thought that there was tt e chance that she went nto great deta w th them n that pub c sett ng.
MR. P ERSON: That the d nner s where t

MR. AUST N: Right. Right. Right. The s ap was just a -- she said one friend she wou dn't te about the s ap because she was too embarrassed, if remember right.
MS. M TTEN: She says, " just said -- just -- te ing them what had happened, and you guys don't te anybody."
MR. P ERSON: So she didn't give any specifics?
MS. M TTEN: Okay. So it does not appear that that was a part of the discussion at the dinner.
MR. BARNES: Okay. And she did not testify that either Witness 2 or Witness 4 -- that she had to d Witness 2 or Witness 4 contemporaneous.
MS. M TTEN: Correct.
MR. BARNES: And Witness 2 and Witness 4, in fact, testified to us that they did not hear of anything of a s ap unti recent y. Witness 2 said a month or so ago, and Witness 4 said she specifica y ca ed Witness 1 after the story, and Witness 1 to d her it was true and that she was embarrassed.

Page 28

MS. M TTEN: Okay. just worry about the f rst two -- the f rst fu sentence n paragraph A, "E ther of and referenced by."
MR. AUST N: Okay. Ho d on a m nute, because here's -- maybe 'm m ss ng t n th s th ng. n the governor's Facebook post t sa d -- he was mak ng t that she asked her two fr ends f they ever remember her ta k ng about a s ap, and they both sa d no. Where -- mean, we're to show that -- We -- that she -- n our -- n her test mony to us, f she sa d anyth ng about t, t was ong after the --
MR. BARNES: Yes. And that her test mony to us -- be eve she on y dent f ed W tness 3, her ex-husband, as someone she to d about the s ap anywhere near to contemporaneous w th th s occurr ng, be eve, w thout -- but am 100 percent conf dent she d d not test fy to te ng one of the two fr ends who test f ed before us about the s ap pr or to January of th s year.
How about th s, that W tness 1 d d not c a m to the comm ttee that she to d e ther of the fr ends who test f ed to the comm ttee --
MS. M TTEN: That wou d work.
MR. BARNES: And there s some amb gu ty

ALARIS LITIGATION SERVICES

there as to who Gre tens s referr ng to n that statement. There's no -- there's no -- there's no pr or sentence that dent f es who the w tnesses are, and so maybe when draft ng th s, thought of, We , the two w tnesses who spoke to us --

MR. AUST N: Let me ask you th s: D dn't W tness 1 n the nvest gat ve transcr pt say she asked two fr ends, and they both sa d no?

MR. BARNES: As to speak ng about t contemporaneous y.

So here s what Exh b t 26 says.

Exh b t 26 says:

" n the House report, there's a fa se a egat on that s apped the woman. That a egat on has been made once before, and t was d sproven."

That sentence -- "that a egat on has been made once before, and t was d sproven" has to reference back to the story about the hosp ta , and what that s, s attempt ng to conf ate an unver f ed story n a Br t sh newspaper that m ght or m ght not have been eaked by W tness No. 3 w th what W tness No. 1 s say ng. W tness No. 1 never test f ed to anyone, to our know edge, that a s ap occurred wh e anyone was n the hosp ta . She test f ed to the c rcu t attorney that t occurred n the spare bedroom wh e Ms. Gre tens was out of town, and she test f ed to our comm ttee that t happened wh e t was out of town.

The next sentence n Exh b t 26 says:

"On th s new v deo, she says that when the story broke n the med a, she asked her two fr ends f they ever remembered her ta k ng about a s ap, and they both sa d no."

We , that's not ncons stent w th what she to d us. She never to d us that she to d a fr end contemporaneous y about the s ap.

MR. AUST N: We , th nk he's referr ng to contemporaneous y when the story broke at the state of the state, but --

MS. M TTEN: Here's the th ng: just -- my prob em w th th s sentence s that he d dn't c a m to the comm ttee that she to d any fr ends who test- -- any fr ends, whether they test f ed or not, about the s ap contemporaneous to the event.

MR. BARNES: We -- and to be fa r, we d d not ask the spec f c quest on, Who d d you te about the s ap?

MS. M TTEN: understand that.

MR. BARNES: We asked, Who d d you te about your re ationship with Eric Greitens?

Page 31

MS. M TTEN: Right.

MR. BARNES: And so we asked a broad question, rather than that narrow, specific question. And then when Witnesses 2 and 4 came in, they testified that Witness 1 did not te them about it contemporaneous to it happening but on y to d them in January.

Let's come back to this. Let's go to paragraph 4. Again, we have a comparison of testimony about the s ap. Any objection to the side-by-side?

MS. M TTEN: To the new boxes?

MR. BARNES: Yes.

MS. M TTEN: 'm fine with that.

MR. BARNES: Any other objections?

Seeing none, paragraph 5 -- et me fix the paragraphing on paragraph 7.

MR. AUST N: wou d rather it say "The committee doesn't find anything in the circuit attorney interview that caused them to change its statement with regard to Witness 1's credibi ity."

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MR. AUST N: Because we did have an overa credib e ...

Page 32

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MR. AUST N: Then wou d take out "to the contrary" comment.

MR. BARNES: t seems to be a restatement of -- we're restat ng the f rst sentence.

MS. M TTEN: Yup.

MR. AUST N: Yeah, agree w th that.

MR. BARNES: Paragraph 6.

MR. AUST N: Oh, don't know about that. f t underm nes h s cred b ty -- f they're fa se statements and the peop e read t, they can determ ne h s cred b ty.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MS. M TTEN: We -- Contro Z. 'm wonder ng, though, f -- do we want to make a statement that, based upon the ev dence before the comm ttee, those c a ms about the content of the nterv ew -- you know that t's -- that, bas ca y, t's a m scharacter zat on of the nterv ew? Do we make a f nd ng -- because do be eve t's a m scharacter zat on of the nterv ew.

MR. AUST N: We , don't -- guess don't want to get n th s pos t on of, You're a ar; no, you're a ar; no, you're a ar, you know? And a we're do ng here s putt ng out the facts, and here you've got a n ce compar son, contrast/compare -- fo ks, you be the judge.

MR. PH LL PS: What wou d be wrong w th just tak ng out the word "fa se"? t st has the same mean ng, but t's a ot more subt e way to go about t. Are we ta k ng about s x -- paragraph 6?

MS. LAUER: Take that out, and then put that they're unfounded?

MR. PH LL PS: Yeah. Just put "Gre tens c a ms the c rcu t court nterv ew underm nes --"

MR. AUST N: They can see that r ght n here. just --

MR. PH LL PS: We , they --

MR. BARNES: But we can see t as we . mean, the --

MR. PH LL PS: th nk t's part of what prompted us to -- or prompted me to ask Jay to produce th s supp ementa report. th nk th s goes back to that.

MR. BARNES: The c a m n court ast week -- and the other c a ms that we've seen, nc ud ng the Facebook post, were essent a y that th s v deo s exonerat ng. don't th nk anyone who v ews th s v deo wou d v ew t as exonerat ng. The other c a m was sa d that there was noth ng about -- never once ment ons any coerc on. Now, t's true the word "coerc on" s not used. nstead she says, "At th s po nt, just rea y coax ng me, ke a wounded tt e an ma on the ground."

So suppose t's true that that's not coerc on, but -- "-- coax ng me ke a wounded tt e an ma on the ground" s certa n y n that space of coerc on.

MS. M TTEN: Wh ch s why go back to just -- aga n, t seems to me that h s c a ms about the content of the nterv ew -- or the -- or c a ms about the nterv ew prov d ng a bas s for exonerat on -- t just seems to me that -- persona y, as a comm ttee member, after v ew ng th s v deo as a who e, after rev ew ng the transcr pt, at a m n mum, th s Facebook post s a gross m scharacter zat on of what s actua y before th s comm ttee of what was actua y conta ned n the tape, and that's my beef. can't speak to whether or not t wou d further underm ne future statements, but can speak to the fact that ook ng at the Facebook post and ook ng at the transcr pt and ook ng at the v deo, that Facebook post s abso ute y a m scharacter zat on of what's conta ned n the tape. And don't have a prob em w th the

MR. BARNES: Representat ve Lauer?

MS. LAUER: 'm sorry. 'm just f a ng.

MR. BARNES: Oh, thought --

MS. LAUER: Oh. Are you ask ng me a quest on?

MR. BARNES: Yeah. mean, as to a m scharacter zat on as to Representat ve M tten's comments about m scharacter zat on of the c rcu t attorney nterv ew.

MS. LAUER: agree. t s a m scharacter zat on of our report.

MR. BARNES: And -- we -- and the quest on s the c rcu t attorney nterv ew --

MR. BARNES: s that a yes?

MS. LAUER: Yeah. 'm sorry. was ook ng up the def n t on of "coerc on."

MR. PH LL PS: Run t by me aga n.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Representat ve M tten suggested stat ng that the statement on Thursday s a m scharacter zat on --

MR. PH LL PS: Yes.

Page 36

MR. BARNES: -- of the c rcu t attorney nterv ew.

MR. PH LL PS: Yes.

MR. BARNES: How about th s?

MS. M TTEN: th nk that, to me, s fa r. That's the truth.

MR. P ERSON: th nk we stay away from comments about what he may say n the future.

MS. M TTEN: t's a nonjudgmenta truth.

MR. BARNES: don't fee that any rat ona person cou d read our report, read the statement from Thursday, and then watch th s v deo and come away w th the dea that the v deo s e ther exonerat ng or that there's no test mony about coerc on.

MS. M TTEN: agree.

MS. LAUER: f they put a of the p eces together, and th nk the summary -- or the supp ement s des gned to do that, f they don't put a of the p eces together.

MR. BARNES: t s des gned to a ow peop e to eas y compare her test mony before us w th her test mony n the c rcu t attorney nterv ew.

MS. M TTEN: And wou d a so note that

Page 37

Merr am-Webster def nes "coerce" as "to compe an act or a cho ce." Examp es was "coerced nto agree ng. Abusers who coerce the r v ct ms nto s ence."

t seems to me that ay ng somebody down ke a broken tt e an ma s to compe an act or cho ce.

MR. BARNES: Paragraph 7.

MR. P ERSON: The statement about water s -- for me, 6 s a most No. 1, but we can move on to 7.

MR. BARNES: wanted to do t sort of n ne --

MS. M TTEN: Okay. So ne 3 of paragraph 7, "The comm ttee f nds that -- " guess my concern s that -- don't know that we've seen that actua test mony.

MR. BARNES: We -- and here s the prob em. That s part of the prob em --

MS. M TTEN: Yeah.

MR. BARNES: -- s that we have counse for Gre tens subm tt ng cherry-p cked ev dence to us w th e pses n front of t that they then run out and c a m s exonerat ng ev dence and represent t to attach to her test mony as a who e. And n the absence of that ent re depos t on transcr pt th nk t's ncumbent upon us to po nt out the fact that we do know s that t was n response to a quest on about her phone on y

MS M TTEN R ght But t -- my concern s that --

MR BARNES f you ook at Exh b t 25 and then the transcr pt of the statement wh ch s Gre tens' statements --

MS M TTEN That's a so n -- okay

MR AUST N So you're go ng to make th s -- the Gre tens statement a separate exh b t?

MR BARNES t's just another transcr pt to attach

MR AUST N Correct mean because -- th nk we need to make t a separate exh b t so n peop e's m nds -- that's not --

MR BARNES Okay

MR AUST N The on y reason 'm say ng t's so peop e can eas y f nd t don't --

MR BARNES Okay

MR AUST N Just my two cents

MR BARNES And that's on page 3 He's -- Gre tens states that the test mony we now know may have come from a dream She d d not testify to that in this circuit attorney interview, she did not testify to that before us, and in the motion that they submitted, where they cherry-picked this quote, even their motion was c ear that the use of the word "dream" was in response to a particu ar question about her phone, in which she testified that she had not said that previous y because she wasn't sure of that particu ar memory. And the point is, that actua y supports the credibi ity of her other statements, because she's stating right there that un ess she knows it, that she experienced something, she's not going to testify to it.

MR. AUST N: 'm good with 7 and 8.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MS. M TTEN: First of a , there's an issue with the footnote -- which is now Footnote 7. t's Footnote 24 in the printed thing, in that --

MR. BARNES: Yeah. Okay.

MS. M TTEN: Starting with, "The committee wi no onger --"

MR. BARNES: Ho d on.

MS. M TTEN: think that that ast phrase, "The committee wi no onger accept --" that shou d probab y be de eted, and then we make corresponding changes to prior parts of the sentence. Just take away because so it says, "However -- " take away because -- just take away the "because."

Page 40

MR. PH LL PS: Cou dn't you just put a period after "fa se" --

MS. M TTEN: Yes.

MR. PH LL PS: -- and ca it good?

MS. M TTEN: Yes. "Demonstrab y fa se," think, is acceptab e, period.

MR. PH LL PS: Uh-huh. Yeah.

MR. BARNES: And here is -- here is the point of this footnote. Listen, ast week we inc uded a paragraph in this report based on representations of counse that were taken out of a deposition transcript that was not provided to this committee or to the Court in that case. We inc uded that because we were re ying upon the assertions of counse . Now that we have seen these statements on Thursday, 'm very re uctant to inc ude anything that is an assertion of counse without a fu transcript.

MS. M TTEN: And agree with that.

MR. BARNES: Let me back up. More than very re uctant; 'm opposed to it at this point. Un ess we get a fu transcript of what someone is referenc ng, we are not go ng to nc ude t n our record.

MS. M TTEN: Other than refute.
MR. BARNES: We --
MS. M TTEN: We , that's what we're do ng here. We are refut ng based upon the ev dence that s before th s comm ttee.
MR. BARNES: Ev dence that's before th s comm ttee. And f someth ng s exonerat ng, then t s ncumbent upon the peop e who are c a m ng t s exonerat ng to get the ent re ev dence n front of th s comm ttee --
MS. M TTEN: agree.
MR. BARNES: -- rather than cherry-p ck port ons.
MS. M TTEN: agree. My other suggest on wou d be, s that we rep ace n that sentence "however" w th, you know, "after rev ew of the v deo --" or, you know, n ght -- or " n ght of the forego ng, the comm ttee f nds these c a ms --" you know what 'm say ng? Because we're mak ng a f nd ng n that note, we rea y are.
MR. AUST N: Yeah.
MS. M TTEN: And we're mak ng a f nd ng based upon our rev ew of ev dence that was c ted by the governor --

Page 42

MR BARNES How about th s?
MR PH LL PS Cou dn't you just put "the Gre tens team"?
MR BARNES nsert there and we say "Further --"
MS M TTEN Yeah okay That's -- et's read th s now
MR BARNES "Are demonstrab y fa se "
MR AUST N Based upon th s comm ttee's rev ew of that v deo and maybe as we as -- we --
MR PH LL PS Doesn't t say that? mean n so many words t says --
MR BARNES We've a ready sa d that above but what f we say "Based upon th s conc us on the comm ttee w no onger accept --"
MR AUST N don't ke that
MS M TTEN Representat ve Aust n and are agree ng aga n so
MR BARNES What want to say s someth ng about cherry-p cked ev dence s that f we're go ng to cons der someth ng we need -- f t's taken from a transcr pt of a w tness no matter who subm ts t to us at th s po nt we need the entire transcript.

MR. PH LL PS: Can't we just say that it's obvious to us it's taken out of context and is acking --
MS. M TTEN: We -- or in ight of the deference provided that is now turned out to -- you know, we provide deference and we --
MR. BARNES: How about just, "The committee wi no onger provide such deference"?
MS. M TTEN: Yeah. That, think, is fair, to "cherry-picked evidence."
MR. BARNES: That's awyering it up.
MS. LAUER: Mr. Chair? n regards to that ine, is it necessary -- and maybe not -- that we inc ude something that other than the transcript, the defense has provided no other information to substantiate their c aims?
MR. BARNES: We , et's back up, because the defense did not provide the transcript of the circuit attorney interview.
MS. LAUER: Okay.
MR. BARNES: They were served a subpoena on Friday. t was due ast night at 5 p.m., and they did not respond to that subpoena. That subpoena a so requested more documents than just the c rcu t attorney nterv ew. t a so requested -- t d dn't request, t demanded the fu transcr pt of W tness 1's n ne-hour depos t on --

Page 44

MS. LAUER: Okay.
MR. BARNES: -- and we don't have that today e ther.
MS. M TTEN: want to -- may we p ease read th s one? just wou d ke to read th s now -- we , 'm sorry, but we haven't seen th s before; th s s a d fferent way of do ng t.
MR. BARNES: understand.
MS. LAUER: We don't need that n there, do we? "The comm ttee further notes that --"? We just need --
MS. M TTEN: Take away that "further," actua y n that sentence -- we , maybe not. wou d -- nstead of the "further" n that second-to- ast sentence, wou d change that to, " n ght --" okay.
Thank you, Mr. Cha r.
MR. BARNES: How about -- and we change th s to "fu transcr pt." That saves us some space -- a ot of space. And Representat ve Ph ps wanted to --
MS. M TTEN: Yeah, that's great.

MR. AUST N: And is it Apri 10th or the 12th?
MR. RHOADS: The 12th is when it posted.
MR. BARNES: We , the -- the -- 'm speaking to the -- 25, be ieve, is the 11th --
MS. M TTEN: Twenty-five is just the --
MR. BARNES: The video. And be ieve that before did a screen capture, saw Exhibit 26 as a so an advertisement, but by the time decided to do the screen capture, it was -- cou d not find it as an advertisement, so we're not going to assert that it was an advertisement without proof thereof.
MS. M TTEN: We , it says "sponsored."
MR. BARNES: That's the video on 25 to which we refer in paragraph 10. Exhibit 16 is a post from a page, which be ieve was a Facebook ad at some point in time. We don't have a screen capture of it, so 'm not going to submit that it was an advertisement without a screen capture showing that it was an advertisement.
MS. M TTEN: Okay. t just seems to me that paragraph 10 is just sort of f oating out there.

MR BARNES t s wanted to put the other stuff out there but t s someth ng that has happened s nce the re ease of the report that deemed re evant -- that th nk s re evant to our proceed ngs

MR. RHOADS: For nstance, 've got a gent eman runn ng for judge, and there's h s sponsored ad that pu ed up on my Facebook page. 'm not -- don't " ke" h s page, haven't sa d anyth ng ke that, but t's -- t pu s t up, so that's how you wou d have to f gure out ...

MR. P ERSON: But t's nterest ng that that has a name for judge versus -- don't know f th s s h s pub c or h s --

MR. BARNES: We , no, that's not -- et's back up. That wou dn't be h s off c a account. So th s wou d ke y be h s off c a account, Governor Er c Gre tens.

MS. M TTEN: Yes.

MR. BARNES: Okay. So that's to the nonoff c a account -- nonoff c a Facebook account.

MR. P ERSON: Wh ch has far ess kes than --

MR. BARNES: th nk t has more.

MR. P ERSON: No. Look at the governor one.

MR. BARNES: The off c a one has on y 2,400 kes.

MR. P ERSON: That's what 'm say ng.

MR. BARNES: And the campa gn has -- we -- and that makes sense, because the campa gn s go ng to pay money to try -- on advert sements to get peop e to go to the campa gn Facebook page, and no one s go ng to spend money to go to the off c a page.

Page 50

MS. LAUER: So does t matter that he's mak ng statements on a nongovernor page? s he ho d ng h mse f out as -- th s s h s person --

MR. BARNES: You know, don't th nk so. th nk he's mak ng h s pub c statement, and the fact that t -- wou d have had more concern had the sponsored ad nked back to the off c a page, but the sponsored ad nk ng back to the campa gn page --

MR. BARNES: That s the ast of the c tat ons.

So Representat ve Aust n noted that he thought we shou d make Gre tens' statement on Comm ttee Report No. 1.

MR. AUST N: Yeah, just so t's --

MR. BARNES: So we can make that --

Page 51

MS. M TTEN: So that wou d be Exh b t 26 or --

MR. BARNES: No. t wou d be -- want to make t 28.

MS. M TTEN: Okay.

MR. AUST N: The actua -- the transcr pt on of W tness 1 wou d be 27; r ght?

MR. BARNES: was go ng to do t as a separate transcr pt. Do you want to make them --

MR. AUST N: Th s s 28.

MR. BARNES: Do you want to make her transcr pt an exh b t, rather than just ca t a transcr pt? 'm f ne w th that. th nk that that makes sense.

MS. M TTEN: Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa. th nk we shou d be cons stent w th how we've done t n the past. th nk that both of these shou d be re eased as separate transcr pts.

MR. BARNES: But ho d on. The transcr pt of the conversat on n the car was sted as Exh b t 1. These are transcr pts of nterv ews --

MS. LAUER: Another source.

MS. M TTEN: How d d we st the transcr pt of the pub c statements?

MS. HALLEN: Transcr pt.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Then et's keep t w th transcr pt.

MS. M TTEN: Because these were a so transcr bed at our d rect on --

MR. BARNES: That s true.

MS. M TTEN: And Exh b t 1 was not transcr bed at our d rect on or contro . t just seems to me that f th s comm ttee s d rect ng and creat ng transcr pts, that they shou d a be treated the same way.

MR. BARNES: So we' ca -- you know, we've got transcr pt c rcu t attorney and we've got transcr pt Gre tens --

MS. M TTEN: The pub c statements of Apr 11th and --

MR. BARNES: Okay. But they need to be separate.

MS. M TTEN: Separate transcr pts, r ght.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MS. M TTEN: They' just be treated as transcr pts the same way as transcr pts were treated n what we re eased ast week. s that a fa r statement?

MS. M TTEN: What -- yeah. How do we -- if we're going to re ease testimony from our sergeant at arms, if we're doing it in response to this etter, do we have an ob igation to a so re ease the etter?

MR. BARNES: don't be ieve that we do. The concern have -- think that the confidentia ity of whether that sentence re ates to the contents of the deposition transcript.

MR. CURCH N: s there someone e se that wou d be ab e to provide more accurate testimony, as in someone who drove the entire distance with Witness 1?

MR. BARNES: be ieve we can --

MR. CURCH N: Whether or not he appeared at the destination --

MR. BARNES: be ieve we can get that as we , but for today, Mr. Werner was there when they arrived at the po ice station.

MS. M TTEN: He can testify as to who got out of the vehic e when it was in the sa y port.

MR. AUST N: t's not a comp ete chain of custody, though, and that's what A ex is getting at.

MS. M TTEN: get it.

MR. RHOADS: That's what 'm saying:

Page 63

Somebody cou d have drove her to the br dge, and somebody cou d have drove her --

MR. CURCH N: We know that there were w tnesses --

MR. BARNES: Can we take a break for a second?

(D scuss on off the record.)

MR. BARNES: Back on the record.

MS. M TTEN: W we accept an aff dav t -- s that what we're ta k ng about, s an aff dav t from whoever accompan ed W tness 1? s that what we're ta k ng about?

MR. AUST N: 'm a r ght w th that, espec a y g ven he's, you know, an off cer of the Court.

MS. M TTEN: R ght. No, agree. And 'm assum ng that doesn't create any pr v ege ssues.

MR. BARNES: Further comments on the etter?

MR. RHOADS: Am off to say that even though we tota y d sagree w th that, that -- why are we spend ng a ot of t me even mess ng w th t?

MR. BARNES: Because t goes to the verac ty of statements made by counse to th s comm ttee.

MR. RHOADS: We get that, but st yet, at the end of the day, whether t's an mpeachment process or not, that's not go ng to be perta n ng to th s.

MR. BARNES: t goes to the cred b ty of defense counse and the --

MR. RHOADS: But at the end of the day, the defense counse s not go ng to be on tr a here. t's not the defense counse -- t's not the defense counse that's go ng to be mpeached; t's somebody e se.

MR. BARNES: That s true, but -- defense counse to have. And we have yet another examp e of a statement of defense counse that is unsupported by facts as we know and be ieve them to be.

MR. RHOADS: Oh, get that, but just -- mean, we're going to spend a ot of time on that, and it's ike, don't know if we -- at the end of the day, mean, you draw your own conc usion of what's, you know, right or wrong, and -- no offense, but it's a ot of awyering that's going on, so -- mean ...

MS. M TTEN: am just shocked to see pages and pages of this deposition testimony.

MR. BARNES: Without the entire deposition. And wou d note we have subpoenaed the entire transcript of the deposition. They c aim it to be exonerating; if so, they shou d be moving as fast as they can, asking the judge for permission to share it with us, rather -- in its entirety, rather than this piecemea nonsense.

MR BARNES The other th ng want to note up here s th s sentence

"We wou d apprec ate the opportun ty to cross-exam ne KS w th the comm ttee to enab e gett ng to the truth "

Page 67

Th s sentence s offens ve to me. They had a n ne-and-a-ha f-hour depos t on of her from wh ch they can share the fu transcr pt of the test mony w th us, f they so choose. They've chosen not to, to th s po nt, and unt we get that transcr pt, th s s not happen ng.

disc ose any of this, and didn't they just recent y say no more -- ike, in motions quoting deposition testimony? mean --

MR. We are a separate and coequa branch of government. We have subpoena power, and wou d hope that Judge Bur ison wou d recognize and respect that fact and inform the parties to the case that they cannot hide behind the nondisc osure order in his case to avoid awfu y-issued subpoenas seeking documents for this committee.

MR. AUST N: agree. Do we intervene for a motion to --

MR. BARNES: You know, he -- do we intervene? He has not specifica y ordered not to disc ose it to us. There's this genera order. think a ot -- we're going to earn a ot in the next coup e of days, because we're going to issue this report today. think probab y send a etter to Mr. Dowd that requests that he inform the Court it is our position that the Court does not have authority to prohibit disc osure of information to us under awfu y issued subpoenas, and we expect both sides of that case to support giving us the documents that we have demanded via subpoena. To do otherwise is just hiding the ba from this committee.

MR. AUST N: And to enforce a subpoena issued by the House, the norma procedure wou d be to fi e a suit here in Co e County?

MR. BARNES: be ieve that to be true. be ieve that to have happened a coup e of years ago with Senator Schaefer and P anned Parenthood.

MS. HALLEN: They never went to court.

MR. BARNES: They never went to court?

MS. HALLEN: As far as know.

MR. BARNES: Okay. They negotiated a sett ement?

MR. AUST N: That's what courthouse steps are for sometimes.

MS. HALLEN: think Co e County it is where --

MR. BARNES: So we' have to cross that bridge when we get there.

Okay. So we have unanimous agreement that this etter wi not be part -- and nothing from it wi be part of our proceedings, and we have a unanimous agreement that in the absence of a fu transcript, we're not going to inc ude these cherry-picked quotes anymore.

MS. M TTEN: At east not at this time. sti be ieve that, you know, there may be cases where it seems warranted. You know what 'm saying? don't want to -- don't have a crysta ba , but at this juncture, see no reason to.

MR. BARNES: Okay. So et's -- rea quick y, The Mission Continues, number one, we have -- there were 8,500 e-mai s from January 1st, 2014 unti mid- to ate 2015. A ix Ha en and started going through them this weekend. got through a thousand of them.

MS. HALLEN: 'm at 2,570.

MR. BARNES: She's at 2,500, so we're about ha fway through. am done ooking at these e-mai s for now. So, Representative, are you a vo unteer?

MS. LAUER: wou d ove to, except have never gotten the password, and e-mai ed and texted them again --

MR. BARNES: Okay. We wi fo ow-up on that, and then we w subd v de the rema n ng e-ma s n that group of 8,500.

We met -- myse f and the two A exes [s c] met br ef y w th the attorney genera 's staff ast week. t was rea y much ado about noth ng, because they cou dn't g ve us any deta s what they were do ng unt they got a court order, and we d dn't want to share too much the other way unt we got -- the court order was there, but we got a court order yesterday for the shar ng of nformat on, and so -- they sa d that -- to fo ow up somet me on Wednesday or Thursday of th s week w th them to commun cate about where they were on The M ss on Cont nues, and we' g ve an update then.

MS. M TTEN: And am correct that n the press conference today, the attorney genera has nd cated he's ssued subpoenas?

MS. HALLEN: Yes.

MR. BARNES: Okay. And then the f na s -- you guys saw the f rst -- there was a draft sect on on The M ss on Cont nues. 've updated that to nc ude the test mony of Lyndsey Hodges-Re chardt and Jack Neyens. We a so have an add t ona etter from Dowd Bennett that s n here -- you guys can

MS. M TTEN: R ght. Okay. So --

MR. BARNES: But th nk t's ncumbent upon us to attempt to obta n that. We've been to d that t s exonerat ng. f t, n fact, s exonerat ng, then be eve that the governor's counse w do everyth ng n the r power to make sure they can get t before the comm ttee, wh ch wou d nc ude f ng mot ons n the c rcu t court of the C ty of St. Lou s seek ng perm ss on to g ve t to us, wh ch 'm not ent re y c ear they need to ask for perm ss on from the c rcu t court, because we are a separate and coequa branch of government.

MS HALLEN Yes

(Exh b t No. 28 was marked for dent f cat on.)
MR. BARNES: And am go ng to mark th s as Exh b t 28. And what th s s, s an aff dav t rece ved th s morn ng from Mr. Scott S mpson, and ' just read what he says.
" am over the age of 18. am the attorney of record for W tness 1. On March 7th, 2018, W tness 1 test f ed n front of the Spec a nvest gat ve Comm ttee on Overs ght. p cked W tness 1 up from her house the morn ng of March 7th, 2018, and drove her to the hear ng. W tness 1 and were the on y peop e n the veh c e. was w th W tness 1 pr or to the hear ng, dur ng the hear ng, and after the hear ng. And, f na y, W tness 1 d d not speak or otherw se commun cate w th her ex-husband on March 7th, 2018."
And t s sworn n front of a notary.
s there any object on nto enter ng th s nto the record?
MS. M TTEN: Nope.
MR. BARNES: See ng none, Exh b t 28 s n the record.
The tem we had rema n ng from yesterday was Exh b t 27, and Exh b t 27 s the e-ma nqu r ng about cr m na defense counse . And, Representat ve Aust n and have had th s conversat on mu t p e t mes, and th nk t's a c ose ca whether to re ease th s, and just -- want to open t up for d scuss on.

MR. AUST N: And say -- p an to vote no on re eas ng t at th s t me. F rst p ace, don't want to g ve the mp cat on or et somebody draw the nference that seek ng ega counse s an nd c a of gu t. th nk that's rea y what we're commun cat ng here. t k nd of goes aga nst, th nk -- part of my creed, anyway, as far as that goes. mean, just because somebody awyers up, that's not necessar y nd c a of gu t. t's sure not -- and don't be eve t to be adm ss b e n ev dence as hav ng any re evance on the case.
th nk the second th ng s, f there's others that be eve s m ar y as me as far as that goes, then th nk that makes us -- cou d make th s comm ttee ook as f we have an agenda other than what th nk are the two goa s here, s that s to be thorough and to be fa r, and f that's the case, then th nk t affects our cred b ty. mean -- and so don't want that to -- don't want that to be affected.

MR. BARNES: And th nk 've come to that pos t on. And what we've d scussed s, f Mr. Gre tens wou d test fy before th s comm ttee, there s no doubt that we wou d ask quest ons about th s document, and yet we have no ab ty to ask those quest ons. That's rea y troub ng to me. And one of the defenses hear -- n pub c at east -- s there's noth ng here; there's noth ng to th s at a . You're r ght, contact ng cr m na defense counse s not by tse f nd c a of gu t of anyth ng, but when the pub c c a ms are, There's noth ng to see here at a , and the ack of report ng t for so ong s sa d to be a defense, on the other hand, try ng to make that contact at that po nt n t me goes to one person's potent a state of m nd at that per od of t me.
So 'm nc ned to not re ease t at th s po nt, but -- and a so don't want to br ng th s up n every hear ng we have from now on. But at east wanted to have the d scuss on one more t me.
MS. M TTEN: , aga n, agree w th Representat ve Aust n.
MR. RHOADS: w say th s: 'm -- apprec ate the work that you d d, Representat ve M tten, to f nd t, but th nk t's probab y too premature to et t go r ght now. f we cou d maybe f nd someth ng that corre ates someth ng w th someth ng e se that wou d -- then th nk we have someth ng to k nd of -- to just mmed ate y go, Hey, ook, s probab y not worthy of what th s comm ttee's hard work has a ready been.

ALARIS LITIGATION SERVICES

MR. BARNES: And 've come to that conc us on as we , but -- et's tab e t, and 'm go ng to move that when we re ease these -- the transcr pts of these hear ngs n wh ch we d scuss t, that we redact that port on of the transcr pts.

D scuss on on the redact on?

MR. P ERSON: Noth ng on the redact on, but thought heard you say someth ng about -- guess maybe refra n ng from br ng ng t up w th subsequent w tnesses? D d you say --

MS. LAUER: Subsequent meet ngs.

MR. BARNES: No. mean, don't want to br ng th s up at every hear ng.

MR. AUST N: th nk what you're referr ng to s that every t me we meet together, you don't want one of us to have a mot on to suppress t or re ease t or someth ng.

MR. BARNES: Yes. Let's tab e t for a wh e.

Page 14

MR. P ERSON: Just k nd of ho d onto t and see what may come. Okay.

MS. LAUER: And we don't know at what po nt that may become mportant, so f we cou d just say at th s t me, we're not go ng to re ease t and eave t at that?

MS. M TTEN: 'm nc ned to not vote n favor of redact ons as to th s part cu ar document unt see what those redact ons are go ng to enta and have actua y seen a transcr pt to see how the d scuss on works. One concern that do have overa -- and t's not part cu ar to th s document -- s that t -- w th the re ease of the f rst report, th nk that every member of th s comm ttee was nterested n be ng as transparent as poss b e, and know that we had some d scuss ons about add t ona transparency, some that won and some that d dn't, and suspect that we a k nd of fee ke we a won some and ost some. So -- t does cause me a tt e b t of concern when we start ta k ng about redact ng transcr pts -- certa n y when haven't even seen the transcr pts -- and we're ta k ng about someth ng substant ve, as opposed to, you know, redact ng a name or -- you know, we had a d scuss on about redact ng hea th nformat on, wh ch, you know -- anyway.

MR. BARNES: But th nk the fa ure to redact defeats the purpose of not re eas ng the document.

MS. M TTEN: And understand that. do understand that. 'm cogn zant of that ssue.

MR. BARNES: So why don't we do th s: We w agree to not re ease the transcr pts for now n wh ch we d scuss t. We w have proposed redact ons, and then we can --

MS. M TTEN: That's f ne.

MR. BARNES: -- d scuss the redact ons.

MS. M TTEN: And 'm happy to do the redact ons and present them, as d d w th the other transcr pts.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MR. AUST N: So d.

MS. M TTEN: Yeah, f gured you guys wou d go for that, and a so f gured t was com ng anyway, so ...

MR. BARNES: See ng unan m ty, we w proceed accord ng y.

MS. M TTEN: When are we meet ng aga n?

MR. BARNES: Ho d on.

MS. LAUER: Tomorrow at e ght o'c ock?

MR. BARNES: We have 8:00 a.m. Are we square on The M ss on Cont nues e-ma s?

MR. AUST N: haven't got my -- a password.

MS. LAUER: 'm not f n shed.

MS. HALLEN: D d you -- you d dn't e-ma me your e-ma address to forward -- because got passwords for these two guys.

MR. AUST N: knew she was go ng to say t's my fau t.

MS. HALLEN: No, 'm happy to send t to -- how about th s, Representat ve Aust n. Why don't we ta k after the hear ng, and we' get you a set up?

MR. AUST N: Fa r enough. Thank you.

MS. HALLEN: Okay. You're we come.

MR. BARNES: Let the record ref ect that when Representat ve Aust n sa d that, t was n a jok ng manner, fo owed by aughter n the room. Somet mes comedy doesn't make t through transcr pts.

MR. AUST N: That's true. And a ways adv sed c ents of that before a depo. sa d, t's not fa r. Lawyers can somet mes make a joke, and we can redact t n a depos t on transcr pt n a case. You make a joke, fa s f at, and we ook bad. So ' try to fo ow that same adv ce.

MS. HALLEN: s there anybody e se who wants to part c pate? d d send an e-ma yesterday, and know t was sort of ate n the day and t was busy, so we can converse about that and get other fo ks set up, because then we can rej gger the -- how many documents are you to read.

MR. P ERSON: assume that request to mean the need s st there, so, yes.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah, there's about 3,000 documents to go around to somebody. Because 've got about 1,500 myse f, and then there's 3,000 eft to g ve to fo ks. So f you -- the more peop e, the ess everybody has to do.

MR. BARNES: And th nk you can do probab y a tt e over 200 an hour, when we're rea y mov ng.

MS. LAUER: Keep n m nd, found out that f you're awake too ong, t has a t me m t and t exp res, and then you have to og back n, so f you're do ng t and try ng to go to the chamber and vote and do th ngs, be aware of that.

MS. HALLEN: Are we okay w th maybe

MR. BARNES: Yes. Let's d scuss og st cs of that off the record.

Further matters for today?

MS. M TTEN: Are we go ng to re ease the -- Exh b t 28? s there --

MR. BARNES: don't th nk at th s t me we re ease Exh b t 28 because t s a response to correspondence from counse that a so s not n the pub c record, so f somebody sees Exh b t 28, they th nk --

MS. M TTEN: What the heck does that mean? R ght. Got t. Sorry.

MR. P ERSON: s that pub c know edge, what ro e w he p ay n these gather ngs?

MR. BARNES: t w be pub c know edge at some po nt. R ght now he's not go ng to s t n on comm ttee meet ngs. What happened s that we -- Gre tens' counse , one n the same t me, c a ms that the depos t on test mony s exonerat ng, and then says, Oh, we can't re ease anyth ng to you pursuant to the Court order. be eve that Mr. S mpson and the c rcu t attorney's off ce are ke y to urge the court to order the re ease of the nformat on that Gre tens' counse states to be excu patory, and there's go ng to be commun cat ons go ng on w th those counse and the Court over the next coup e of days regard ng the re ease of that nformat on. And thought t wou d be better for the comm ttee to have Mr. Robertson speak on our beha f than to have me fumb ng a over the p ace try ng to get the nformat on

So r ght now t s for the purposes of speak ng on th s part cu ar ssue w th the dea that as we have further ssues go ng forward he s w ng to he p us

MR AUST N Very good dea

MR BARNES And at the po nt n t me n wh ch we're pay ng expenses or any fee th nk we' obv ous y have to have a forma arrangement but at th s po nt n t me these are nforma phone ca s w thout a fee

MS M TTEN But he wou d be do ng that as our representat ve correct?

MR BARNES Yes As our counse

MS M TTEN The pr v ege wou d app y et cetera

MR BARNES The pr v ege app es

MS M TTEN Thank you

MR BARNES Any further bus ness before the comm ttee?

which, states that:
"Witness 3 is of the age of majority, sound mind and body; that he did not trave -- that he did not drive, trave , or traverse the andscape with his former spouse on March 7th to any ocation or from any ocation, inc uding specifica y the ocation which is understood by the undersigned that she proffered testimony to the committee in connection with the investigation and the circumstances surrounding Mr. Greitens as they re ate to her. And, further, that on that morning, the undersigned was working norma hours and he was at work during the genera period of time in which she wou d have been trave ing to Jefferson City and we wou d have been taking her testimony."
Any objection to entering this into our record?
MS. LAUER: None.
MS. M TTEN: Did we receive another --
MR. BARNES: Yesterday we received what think we marked as Exhibit 28, which was a etter from Mr. Simpson --
MS. M TTEN: No, no, no. understand. just wanted to make sure -- was off on the numbers.

MR. BARNES: And we are go ng to h t th s one more t me. th nk we may even have an aff dav t from the emp oyer of W tness 3 to state that he was, n fact, at work on that day. When counse s go ng to spread es n etters to us, we are go ng to beat those es nto the ground.

MS. M TTEN: We , and w th abso ute y no bas s. There's no bas s to make that assert on.
MR. BARNES: So hav ng taken care of that, there's a mot on hear ng th s morn ng n Co e County. After that, me and the two A exes [s c] are go ng to meet w th the attorney genera 's off ce. have a draft report that may change s gn f cant y, based on stuff we get from the attorney genera 's off ce, but want to share that draft report w th the two A exes [s c] to work on nonsubstant ve changes so that we've got t n a format and shape that we don't have to have a three-hour debate on commas aga n.

Page 7

MS. M TTEN: Yeah, that's exact y -- wi make no representation before review of that report.
MR. BARNES: We're going start PQ'ing. 'm going to exercise the PQ on punctuation.
MS. LAUER: And, Mr. Chair, wou d you restate the motion in Co e County this morning.
MR. BARNES: The governor's team has moved to disqua ify Attorney Genera Haw ey from investigation of The Mission Continues.
MS. LAUER: Thank you.
MR. BARNES: wou d note that the governor himse f signed a sworn authorization in support of that motion. Going under oath for at east one purpose.
The other item of business today is -- and maybe -- because -- does anyone e se have anything other than the ogistics of e-mai review?
MR. CURCH N: Vote to c ose Monday's hearing, if you want -- if you shou d even desire Monday's hearing to be c osed.
MR. BARNES: We , et's vote to c ose Monday's hearing.

MS. HALLEN: And transcr pt redact on.

MS. M TTEN: And transcr pt redact on.

MR. MS. HALLEN: You can ca me. That's f ne. t's not a prob em.

MS. LAUER: May we a so Monday need to d scuss the f nd ngs from the hear ng th s morn ng n St. Lou s?

MR. BARNES: We cou d. We're a so go ng to need to d scuss -- because we have these outstand ng subpoenas, and we're go ng to need to d scuss what to do -- we don't know what the outcome of that s.

MR. RHOADS: Mr. Cha rman, how many subpoenas do we have outstand ng?

MR. BARNES: We have three outstand ng: One to Mr. S mpson, one to counse for the governor, and one to the c rcu t attorney's off ce. Counse for W tness 1 has to d me that he does not have the document we requested, so, rea y, t's go ng to be up to counse for Gre tens. They've stated that t s exonerat ng. th nk t's ncumbent upon them to fight as hard as they can to get it to us. don't think it requires much fight; think it requires just giving us the documents demanded under a awfu subpoena.

MR. RHOADS: And refresh my memory. What did we request?

MR. BARNES: The deposition video and transcript --

MR. RHOADS: Of Witness 1.

MR. BARNES: Of Witness 1.

MR. RHOADS: Great. Good.

MR. PH LL PS: Do you have any way of knowing, for p anning purposes, what kind of schedu e we might be on next week, or are we just going to be taking it as it comes or --

MR. BARNES: We're going to take it as it comes. f we get the deposition video and transcript, it is nine-and-a-ha f hours ong, and we're going to watch it, so ...

MS. LAUER: We've a ready seen two-p us hours of it; right?

MS. M TTEN: No. That was the investigation.

MS. LAUER: That was the investigation. Oh, 'm sorry. Deposition, yeah.

Page 12

MR. P ERSON: Hopefu y not n one s tt ng.

MR. BARNES: th nk -- yes. We w break -- we w break t up.

MS. M TTEN: And 'm go ng to aga n -- and know that th s w not, you know, endear me to the other members of the comm ttee, but t -- have concerns g ven that, at east, my s de of the a s e needs to caucus at 3:00 p.m., and wou d ke to be present for that caucus; that we meet at one nstead of two on Monday. just -- don't want to be n a s tuat on where th s comm ttee s rushed or 'm unab e to attend to my other caucus dut es.

MR. RHOADS: w not be ab e to be here unt at east two o'c ock.

MR. BARNES: apprec ate caucus dut es. The comm ttee s more mportant --

MS. M TTEN: understand that, and -- you know, --

MR. BARNES: -- than caucus dut es at one part cu ar meet ng. So we're go ng to st ck w th 2:00 p.m.

MS. M TTEN: Okay.

MR. CURCH N: Wou d th s comm ttee ke to meet on Tuesday? want to get that not ce n.

P R O C E E D I N G S

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I've called this hearing of the Missouri House Special Investigate Committee on Oversight to order.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON, JR.: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: All seven here and accounted for.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All seven are here and accounted for. We are going to be brief today.

First, we had, myself and the two Alexes, had a meeting with the Attorney General's -- representatives from the Attorney General's Office on Thursday.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

They provided us with deposition transcripts and exhibits. You guys all should have access to them.

I want to take a vote, have the Committee authorize the actual release of information from the Committee to the Attorney General's Office and leave it at the discretion of the Chair.

I mean, I'm not going to be doing crazy stuff, but I also -- I don't want to have to disclose everything to them, and I want some flexibility with what we provide them.

Any discussion?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Providing to who?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The Attorney General's Office.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do you believe we need a vote, Mr. Secretary?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: No.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seeing no objection, hearing no objection, yeah, I have such permission.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can I ask a question just to clarify? I -- I'm making an assumption, but I just want to make sure that we're all clear about this, that any information that we release to the Attorney General's Office is not going to be made public without our --

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will be -- we will be mindful of that.

The next item of business is I have one, two, three, four documents to enter as exhibits. These come from The Mission Continues' e-mail production.

Exhibit 30 is a meeting notice from March 18th, 2014 -- well, for a meeting on March 18th, 2014 that is a political meeting for Eric Greitens set up by Mike Hafner.

If there are no objections to Exhibit 30, I will enter Exhibit 30 into the record?

Seeing no objections.

The next e-mail is -- the next item is Exhibit 31, which is an e-mail from Krystal Taylor's account on April 1st, 2014.

The purpose of this e-mail in putting it into the record is that is the date at which we lose access to a lot of information because Krystal Taylor stops using that Mission Continues' account, and apparently delinks her Greitens Group e-mail account at the same time.

And so there is a period of time where we have a desert of information, and the reason is because she started sending these, hey, contact me at The Greitens Group at that point in time.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

If there are no objections, we'll enter Exhibit 31 into the record.

Seeing no objections.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Mr. Chair, on -- on that regard I had several (inaudible) in this stack I was doing.

That would not be considered any type of solicitation where she's sending the letter to Mission Continues folks and then saying contact me at Greitens Group.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't think so, because if she had had a friend or a contact who was trying to get ahold of her, that's fairly -- that's common.

You know, if a lawyer leaves a law firm, oftentimes the law firm will set up an automatic response rule that says such and such has left this law firm. They can now be contacted at this address.

The next item is Exhibit 32, which is the May 8th, 2014 e-mail that contains The Mission Continues 1K-plus donor list as an attachment.

We already have part of this, which is included in Exhibit 13, I believe. My number may be off.

The reason I want to include this is because this comes from The Mission Continues' actual e-mail production. And it has the header information at the top from which you can see the attachments, and so it's a more accurate reflection of the sent and received e-mail.

Any objections to Exhibit 32?

Seeing none, Exhibit 32 is in the record.

And finally Exhibit 33 is a -- an invitation to a conference call, political conference call for Eric Greitens, Krystal Taylor, Dave Whitman and two political consultants, Steve Michael and Dave Hageman that apparently took place on August 14th, 2014.

This is the -- we've got that gap in time there, but we've got one e-mail that shows up for an invitation, and it's cited in the record, or in the draft report.

If there are no objections to Exhibit 33, we will enter it into the record.

Seeing no objections, Exhibit 33 is now in the record.

The next item of business is, I have distributed a draft report. It is my hope -- unlike the previous report, we're not going to do the -- the deal where we keep the one copy in the chief clerk's office, because the information contained within this report is nowhere near as sensitive as the information contain within the first report.

My goal is to have a mark-up session starting at noon tomorrow, and my hope is we would have the same sort of deal where you guys would tell me what paragraphs you want to talk about so that we can have an orderly process.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I've already spotted what I think is a misspelled word.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: So just an hour conversation on grammar, no (inaudible).

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Who typed this report, Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I did.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I already found a spelling error.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Immediately.

COUNSELOR HALLEN: Grammar, spellings.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I really don't think relating has an E in it, the second sentence.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I will be creating a cheat sheet of the word shortcuts for the Chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: The second sentence.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Do you really want us to look this over?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The fourth item on the list is, we are either finished or very close to finished, I think, with looking through e-mails.

We've identified 199 relevant e-mails in that two-year period. We are going to print them out and have them available for viewing to see if any of them ought to be released and are highly relevant.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

We got the benefit last week of the Attorney General's Office reviewed -- got the same document production and reviewed the e-mails with more lawyers than we have, and more time than we have given our legislative responsibilities, before doing these depositions.

So I think there is some additional things in there that maybe we want to include, but maybe not. I think we've got a pretty well full picture based on our review, and then the Attorney General's additional review.

Fifth item, if I'm counting correctly, is we talked last week about the potential of -- we agreed to the retaining Mr. Chip Robertson, former chief justice of the Missouri Supreme Court, as counsel.

I asked him to put together a team that can help him. He's agreed to work without a fee, so I don't think it's fair to say, hey, you're going to work without a fee, and we don't want you to have any help.

So he has suggested Gerard Carmody of Carmody MacDonald in St. Louis; and a Mark Kempton, who is a former prosecutor from Pettis County.

Are there any objections to either of those individuals?

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

Seeing none.

My hope is that two, if not all three of them, will be here to meet with the Committee on Wednesday morning at eight a.m.

Finally -- no, it is not finally. The sixth item is to discuss what's going on with our subpoena for the deposition transcript.

I'll just start from the start. So defense counsel claims that the deposition transcript -- first, they claimed that the witness interview was exonerating.

We subpoenaed the witness interview. We unanimously came to the opposite conclusion, that it was not exonerating.

Defense counsel then claims that the deposition transcript was exonerating, so we took the step of subpoenaing the deposition transcript.

The circuit attorney's office does not object to giving us the deposition video and transcript. Scott Simpson, the lawyer for Witness 1, does not object to giving us the transcript.

Defense counsel has not given a response yet. I received an e-mail from Mr. Dowd, I believe it was Sunday evening, saying that they were in receipt of our communication, and they were considering the law and their position and would get back to us.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

I have since talked to Mr. Robertson this morning, and Chip wanted to give them until the end of the day to make a decision whether they would agree to hand it over or not.

Because his belief was that because the circuit attorney was in favor of handing it over, because the attorney for Witness 1 was in favor of handing it over, that if the defense counsel agreed to hand it over, that we just -- the judge would just order them to hand it over and it wouldn't be a big deal.

If he doesn't hear from them by five p.m. that they are willing to do that, then he's going to file, I want to say a motion, but there is no template for how to do this.

We're not a party to the case. We have independent subpoena power. We could enforce that subpoena in Cole County, but the quickest and -- quickest way with the least resistance is the first, ask the judge in St. Louis City to tell the parties, listen, I don't have authority over the legislature to stop them from issuing the subpoena or to prohibit you from responding to a lawfully-issued subpoena.

So I don't know if Chip was planning on filing that at 5:30 tonight or if he's planning to file it tomorrow morning.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

I told him, listen, whatever you think is best, as far as the time to file it, go ahead and file it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can we get an expedited hearing date on that motion?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The hearing -- the judge has set aside Mondays and Thursdays for motions in this case. And so we would likely be in front of the judge on Thursday on the issue.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: What if the judge says -- well, we'll cross that bridge when we get to it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: If the judge says something that is against the interest of a separate and coequal branch of government, then we'll go about enforcing our subpoena power in different ways.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Got it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seventh and final thing I have on our list, is we have some backlogged transcripts that relate to the supplemental report to which we agreed.

And I don't think we need a motion for this. I think we would need a motion to release them, but I'm not inclined to release them at this point in time while we're attempting to enforce our subpoena on the deposition transcript.

Is everyone in agreement with that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And then at such a period of time where we release a supplemental report, then we will also release the transcripts of those hearings.

Okay. See no objection.

Further items?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: New business, which would be a vote to close Tuesday's hearing on April 24th, 2018.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I move that we close tomorrow's hearing starting at noon which will be our mark-up session.

Will the secretary please call the roll?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON JR: Aye.

232d49ac-624e-4f48-95bd-9a39be6a9b26

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven-zero in favor of the motion.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seven ayes, zero nos, we've voted to close Tuesday's hearing starting at noon.

Further items for the Committee?

Seeing none, that will conclude today's hearing of the Missouri House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

(END OF PROCEEDINGS.)

P R O C E E D I N G S

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll call to order the -- this hearing of the Missouri House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

Mr. Secretary, Please call the roll.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

MR. SECRETARY: All seven present and accounted for.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Everyone being here, you have all been -- we have distributed a draft report for mark up. I think and hope, at least, we'll be far quicker today. And that's not a complaint about the previous one, I just -- so we'll get started. I did not speak with anyone beforehand about where we are, so we'll just go page by page. And if you've got something on a page, identify it.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

Page 1 --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Wait, wait.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do we want to debate the name of this report?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Report 3.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is Report 2, the other one was Addendum.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The other one was circled, too.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Moving on. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay, Don, your turn, Line 2 -- 3.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, first of all, can I just make -- I'm assuming that we can make a global change to -- from Hodges Reichardt to just Reichardt. Oh, never mind, it's already been done.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And for the Committee's edification, there were some grammar and punctuation issues that were fixed by Alix Hallen prior to coming to the Committee.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Well, then --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We fixed relating on Line 3.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Nice. It looks much better.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Anything on Page 1?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So can we zoom that in a little bit -- the lower right-hand corner; there you go. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: The March 27th bullet.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Wait, wha -- wha -- what -- I'm sorry. I'm still on the -- REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Oh, I'm sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Never mind, sorry. I just -- it's hard to follow because my changes have already been made.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: The -- the pronoun -- so Krystal Proctor, former Executive Assistant to Greitens when -- should that be she?

MS. HALLEN: No, it's Greitens, when he worked -- when Greitens worked. Do you get what I'm -- it's a little confusing.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: I must have a different --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, I think you're talking about Greitens worked for TDG and TMC, and then the next one it says and, and then it starts off with that prepositional phrase, in an operational role -- operations role; that's not Greitens, that's her.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Yes.

MS. HALLEN: So I think --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So we kind of have --

MS. HALLEN: So I made it two sentences because prepositional phrases are bad.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: So the two sentences make it better. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. I'm good with Page 1 to 21.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: On Page 2, just the April 3 -- on April 3, 2018, they met to discuss redactions.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I guess my question is not so much about the report, but did we -- I didn't have a chance to check, do we know, was that April 3rd report, was that released -- or the April 3rd transcript was released as part of the first report; am ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

I correct? Okay. I just wanted to double check and make sure that we're good on that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: No. 5 there.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Paragraph five?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Yes. It's the next one down. Where it says Dave Whitman worked --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: -- for TGG.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: 2014. So did he work there from the start, so from it's inception until then, or did he have a different --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I believe he started about 2011, and the reason there is, you know, some vagueness there, but there's nothing -- I want to explain who Dave Whitman is, because he's on some of these e-mails and the fact that we went down there to meet with him. But there's nothing in this report in which we rely on anything Mr. Whitman said.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Going back up to the transcript list, do we want to add the -- yesterday's meeting and today's meetings? I mean, I don't know that --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't think we did with the last report.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Then I'm not gonna worry about it.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No. 3.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Hold on. I thought you just ceded all your changes --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But that's Page 2 -- this is Page 2.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You said Page 1 --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Page 1 of 21.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I thought you said Pages 1 to 21.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Should we make a motion --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. Sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- that says Representative Austin's comments -- he's already relinquished?

CHAIRMAN: All right. We've got to get some order in here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes, we do.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So, No. 3, how do we know that -- that that's when he formed TGG?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Should we cite to something?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I have the same thing with Paragraph 2 actually.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We have -- the information in Paragraph 2 comes from their -- TMC's Form 990's.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So do you want me to insert a footnote here, and then we'll -- we'll put --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I do. And there's a couple of other places in there where I --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: If we cite everything, and I think --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. No, that makes sense. So let me --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, we didn't fix that?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think this data is available online. Because the 990's are public filings of charities.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, are you going to say that it's 990?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So that's fine.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. Good.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And the same thing

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

for --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Is that okay, this data is available on line --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Correct. Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: TMC's Form 990 filings.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And then on No. 3, is that just when you went to the Secretary of State and got --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And No. 3, we should say this is available at the Secretary of State's website.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I believe that to be correct.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, she's got it.

MS. HALLEN: So 2007 is when they -- he formed Eric Greitens, LLC, and then The Greitens Group is the d/b/a, and that was -- the filing was 2009.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Perfect. So we can just the Secretary of State's website.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Does -- do we know if those filings -- well, it's okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. I'll roll this up. Paragraph 6, that comes -- here's -- that would be something in Neyens' testimony.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, and we don't have a cite?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't have a citation for Paragraph 6, but --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh. Do we need to cite to the transcript then for six?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We could, if you guys want to cite every paragraph. Some of these items that we're -- I thought there would be no disagreement as to that fact.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Was he, in fact, the CFO?

MS. HALLEN: He was the Vice president of Finance and Organization, technically, I think was his actual title. But he said he was the CFO in his transcript. So I'm not sure what the -- whether there's -- really who the -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Maybe instead of saying worked as, we'll say acted as, because I think -- I think that's right. I think that was his more -- yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Let me reference his -- insert transcript, Neyens, generally. I mean, he's talking about the --

MS. HALLEN: You don't even have to say

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

generally, just say transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Just say Transcript Neyens.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Transcript Neyens.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I did not make my Word cheat sheet.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I like Transcript Neyens, for what it's worth. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Paragraph 7, again, we're grammar. Okay. Would book a for-profit event for Greitens and then TMC -- and TMC would then work around; I just think it makes it clearer moving that then to after would. Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't think it makes it any clearer, but for the purpose of Committee comity, c-o-m-i-t-y, we will accept said change. And comity -- and both comities.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: On No. 11 --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Where we talk about TMC's Board initiated the procedures, we talk about Greitens being required to sign a non-disclosure, as well as -- was it K.T. that was required to sign? Is it -- is it important for us to include that all employees were required to sign so that there's not a --

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I don't know that all employees were required to sign, and I don't think that's a fact that we have, whether all employees were required to sign. We know that Greitens and Taylor were required --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- to sign because we have their non-disclosure agreements.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We can look that up.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I thought he said that, but that's okay. If it's not probative, it doesn't matter.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, I agree. If -- if -- if it did require everyone to sign -- I mean, if we have it in the record.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I'm good.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: This is nit picky. In 13, I would take away the further.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Is this going to get us a line? Yeah, look at that, saved a line.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: You're welcome. I'm good until 19; I don't know if anybody --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Line 19 or Page 19?

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Paragraph 19.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Let's go back to 16. So what is -- see, I wasn't following this. 16, then you have a colon and then -- oh, and you're just telling us what you've attached?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes. AGO Proctor, Exhibit 12. And then this is a screenshot from a portion of Exhibit 12.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But -- well, then on 16, you have colon, and then are you just going to -- you're -- we're just moving everybody to the exhibit then, right?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes. And -- and so it -- because we've got this page break here, this is a screenshot portion of Exhibit 16.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You're going to have an inserted block within the body of this report under six -- under Paragraph 16 following the colon, right?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. What -- right here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I mean, we -- we didn't have to do the screenshot; we probably could have typed it in, but --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah. No, no, no.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

Let's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'd rather do a screenshot to --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, I think that makes sense.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, if it saves time, I get you.

MS. HALLEN: Just if there's a -- want a -- we want a clarification in one of -- the paragraph above about the NDA's, Spencer Kympton says in his testimony, well, this is a document that all of our staff signs.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Also paragraph --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: So --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't -- to -- I would, maybe, if anything, just add to the footnote saying -- yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Add to the footnote, Transcript Kympton --

MS. HALLEN: That's 20, 10 and 11.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And I would put before that --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is a document that all of our employees sign.

MS. HALLEN: All of our staff signs.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Period.

MS. HALLEN: And this would -- the T in this would be in a bracket.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Did you say signs or signed?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Signs.

MS. HALLEN: Signs.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Great.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Down to the screenshot, do you need emphasis added on the highlighted or was that --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I did it to pull it out of the -- that's the relevant part.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And I didn't just want to do two lines.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: So do we need emphasis added there?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, I see what you mean. Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't know where you put that. There; will it work there?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: No -- yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You still wouldn't

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

bracket it? You wouldn't bracket emphasis added?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, but you're not -- you're outside of the quote. I would -- I would put it back to the left margin, honestly, the emphasis added to show that -- well, no, seriously. Come on, you've got a bunch of Blue-Book lawyers in here, what do you expect? Yeah. Don't you remember research and writing from high school?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No. Listen, I think it should be four indents then. I am holding for --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, do we compromise at two and a half indents?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Two and a half, I get brackets.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. Next paragraph. Next paragraph, 19. Representative, what did you add?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, on 19, I was just wondering did we also want to add something about Neyens' testimony or Neyens' -- in other words, the thank you stuff is what I was thinking. The thank you calls involved all the staff. And I was only just thinking on, do we want to add in the footnote that we had two witnesses testify to that fact, or does it matter? I mean, it's not that big of a deal to me.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't think it matters.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

I think that's duplicative.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Real quick question, do we need to make a direct correlation with fundraising, as far as campaign fundraising, what we're indicating or TMC fundraising?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Not -- I don't think yet, because we haven't even mentioned the campaign. I think we're just setting forth the parameters of TMC.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I didn't know if maybe we wanted to kind of clarify that to say, hey, we're talking about TMC fundraising. I mean, it's up to you guys; I'm just --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here, Representative, I added for TMC there.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Yeah, that way it clarifies it, just -- because then --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It makes it more accurate.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: -- they're -- they're fundraising for who?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So I may just put TMC in there in various spots. We don't have to put it everywhere, just --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I think it just sets the --

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No. Yeah.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: In 20, you've got an extra space -- to the left of the quote sometimes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, he doesn't. It's the justification.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Oh, it's the justified. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Why does it do that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Because you -- because of the numbering stuff which we had to go through and fix.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: We're going to have to do that again.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We're going to have to do that -- we will fix that, as we did last time.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. We could -- double spacing it solves the problem, but then we've got a -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, no, no. It's a setting that is above your Word pay grade.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let the record reflect there was laughter throughout the room at the Chairman's expense.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: On 21, I just wanted to note that -- that Hodges testified that TMC's annual banquet was a team effort -- identified -- and were identified by leadership committee. The names of that leadership committee, pursuant to previous conversations, were marked for redaction. I haven't actually pushed the redaction button on that transcript. But I wanted to, you know, to touch base about whether or not we want to maintain that anonymity, or what the story is on that -- or what the Committee feels?

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I do. I do. The members of The Mission Continues leadership committee who served in that role didn't ask for their names --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- to be in these reports. They're not -- they didn't test-- if they didn't testify in front of us, then --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. They seem to have --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Mr. Chairman, sorry. Are they, like, on their website or anything like that that it says --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't think so.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I looked at the time that I was doing the redactions a couple of weeks ago. I did look and did not find them. Well, their names may be on the website, but not identified in this context.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Got you, got you.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: But I just wanted, again, to make sure the Committee was clear that those names have been redacted from the transcripts.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Could we go back to 21?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: There's a that, and it's on the second line midway -- leadership committee and that those -- you can get rid of that, that's a throw-away word.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yep.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: 22. And sent -- and then where it says, and sent him Schweich, I would say and sent a Schweich donor list.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's described as Schweich's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, it has a --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- I'm quoting from the document.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And sent -- take away the him -- as an attachment. It just seems to -- yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Then 25.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I'm sorry. Back to that same paragraph, 22; look at this as October 16, 2013, at which blank a --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I just added that.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Never mind. Go. Go then.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Good catch.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And 25. Wait a minute. Okay. So that's been changed; that he prepared a memo for Greitens. I -- instead of on a strategy, I would say regarding strategy. Well, I don't know what on a strategy means. You don't get on a strategy.

May the record reflect that Mr. Curchin seems to agree with the ranking member.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: On 26, the second line, the second to last word, that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And then we have a name also in Paragraph 26, and that name had been redacted from our -- the Committee's testimony from Michael Hafner. And so if I need to go back and remove those redactions; it appears that I would if we're using the name in the report, which is fine. I just want, again, to make sure that we're all on the same page about that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm comfortable using his name here. Mr. Vice Chairman?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: 26.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We're using an email, so --

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: When you go over to the end of the first line, I don't think it needs a in there. It says a schedule for --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Uh-huh.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: -- Greitens' trip to Orange County, California.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's the -- I think it does.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: For Greitens' trip -- I would say that --

MS. HALLEN: The schedules were in there.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would -- I'd put dates first, generally, so it relieves that issue.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.

MS. HALLEN: Was scheduled for a March 12th, 2014 Greitens' trip to Orange County.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: For a March -- right. Yeah. Greitens' trip to -- REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Scheduled for --

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: If you put for a March 12th, 2014, Greitens' trip to Orange County --

MR. SECRETARY: Yeah, I don't think you need the A on the end.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: What?

MR. SECRETARY: Delete the A on the end of that sentence.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The first sentence of Paragraph 20. Yeah, there you go.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: There, I got it.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: So we're leaving the gentleman's name?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I believe so.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yes, and I will -- I have a note to remove that redaction -- or that marking from the Hafner transcript.

Paragraph 27, it says the document discussed fundraising, comma, issues, comma -- were those policy issues? What -- what were those?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Those are 44 AGO Proctor.

MR. SCHEIDERER: I've got a printout.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Or else we just move issue so it says fundraising campaign organization political endorsement strategy and other issues. I just didn't know what issues.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm confident I took that from headers within the document. We can -- but we can still check this, so -- boom. Boom. Boom.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah, it was just headers.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: What's the exhibit --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Then should we quote it?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: What's the exhibit number?

MS. HALLEN: It's 9, isn't it?

MR. SECRETARY: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, that's not good.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.

MS. HALLEN: So we need issues --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Issues; this is under education. I labeled that issues. We can just take that word out. It's not --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The document -- the document speaks for itself.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Okay. Great. Then let's, if we could.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Iss-- actually issue education, how about that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Perfect. I like

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Issue education, that --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That -- it -- that's what it says. It says education. So the Missouri House and Senate, Missouri history and geography --

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- jobs and economic growth, new cities, right to work, education and school choice, healthcare and Medicare -- well, we don't do anything with Medicare in this building -- Second Amendment, pro life, budget, prison and sentencing reform, and war on drugs, public safety, support for the family, North St. Louis, poverty, crime, destitution, know the Governor's cabinets and key departments.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It sounds like there's a word missing after education though; issue education.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, because that would be -- it's -- it -- that's what it is, is it's how to -- and this is consistent with -- with Hafner's testimony to the Committee, which was --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Oh, you're talking about education on issues?

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, it's --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, issue education.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: It's the education of the candidate on the issues --
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I got you. Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right, which comports with Hafner's testimony to our Committee --
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Uh-huh.
REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: -- about --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: About issue education.
REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.
REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: All right.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Is it trying to tell us something there when it's on the list, under 27, is -- is the computer trying to tell us something there? Right there, when it --
MR. SECRETARY: Yeah, it's formatting we need to fix.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: It often tells -- it tell us that formatting fix -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We fixed that.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- with every paragraph.
REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Okay.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And then they'll come back and clean this up.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Okay. Got you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. 28. I want a note that Paragraph 37, yes, we're citing -- I'm sorry, not Paragraph 37, Footnote 37, we are citing a newspaper article. We all -- in a courtroom we would say we would take judicial notice of this fact that Schweich was seen at that period in time of being a candidate for governor. Most of us, with one exception, were here, and so we can -- we can state that we knew that to be a fact with or without the footnote, but I threw the footnote in there just so it was public knowledge, as well.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Not just our --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I noted it, but raised no objection. Carry on.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I have a question on Paragraph 29. Oh, no, we're not there yet. Okay. Just that -- do we need to provide any context of who Mr. Fink is?

MS. HALLEN: There's a footnote.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Is it in -- does it -- will it -- it just references --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mason Fink is a national

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

political fundraiser.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: 44 --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: 47.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, sorry. How did I miss that? I apologize.

And then at the end of Paragraph 29, it said, in fact, settled Missouri's Governor's -- wouldn't it be settled upon? Yeah.

And then I'm good until 31. It does not -- for which the Committee does not have access to emails; should it be access or records or -- oh, you added emails. Okay.

MR. SECRETARY: As it relates to the Greitens --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. No. Because emails was not in the draft we received.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And I think it's impor-- I think it's important to point that out, because we have a gap in time here where we -- we've got a lot of emails for a certain period of time and then we've got a four- or five-month gap, and I just want to point out in the report the reason for the gap.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, may I -- what is it -- it's not that we have access -- is it that they haven't produced them or --

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, it's that we don't have acc-- we have not subpoenaed The Greitens Groups' email accounts.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, that's right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We emailed The Mission Continues email.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Subpoenaed, right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The Mission Continues had Greitens Group -- they were merged --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right, because they were merged.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- into The Mission Continues stuff.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Got it. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And then apparently on April 1, 2014, they were split apart again -- those accounts were split apart again.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, should we say then does not -- this does not have TGG emails dated after instead of access to? It just implies that, like, I don't know -- whatever.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm okay with --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's not -- it's not that big a deal.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I agree. Thank you.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: On 32, where we're talking about the transition, she had indicated in testimony that that transition was designed to create separateness.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, where is that?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Crap, I didn't write the line down, but it was to create separateness of positions in the organization.

MS. HALLEN: We can look it up on hers.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: That index might point out separateness.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Is this -- yeah, this is not Proctor, it's Reichardt, to explain this.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, we didn't do a global?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Yeah, that's right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Are you -- can --

MS. HALLEN: What -- so are we checking Proctor's or are we checking Reichardt's?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's Reichardt, right, is that --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I think so.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So that's Footnote 51?

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

MS. HALLEN: I don't see the word separateness.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Try Proctor.

MS. HALLEN: I don't see separateness.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We can parking lot that and go back and check.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: That's fine. Yeah. I found it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Paragraph 33. We need to do an emphasis added. We're doing all the way over here to the left. I'm not confident in your Blue-Book analysis of that emphasis added, just for the record.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I appreciate that. I believe I have a Blue Book in my office.

MS. HALLEN: I have one.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Now, don't be going to the actual source.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm happy to consult it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We will not consult it. I will take your Blue-Book advice here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I could be -- I could stand corrected on this front.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

Okay. I was good until Paragraph 41.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Does anyone have anything before 41?

MS. HALLEN: Where is the paragraph that we describe Spencer Kympton as the CEO?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Stop at 37, if you would, and we need to take a quick look here.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Yeah, you put a two in there.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Sending.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

MS. HALLEN: So I think we described Spencer Kympton as CEO, and I think he technically is the president.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes. So --

MS. HALLEN: I just can’t remember which paragraph it was.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So we are on 39. Let me go -- it would be prior to this.

MS. HALLEN: There you go.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So we were at 30 what?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: 37, 38.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. I will scroll down

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

until people tell me to stop.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: 45. Attend --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yep. Okay. Now, Ms. Blue Book, Paragraph 47, 17, is that the numeral or spelled out?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I believe it's spelled out.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: If it's over ten, is it spelled out?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It's over 10.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: If it's over ten, it's not spelled out, right?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: I thought when it hit ten, it wasn't spelled out -- double digits and beyond?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Right. Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: That's what I'm saying, over ten.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Why'd we change that 10 from -- to t-e-n a while ago?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think 10 and down --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think -- no. I think --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- 10 and down is spelled and above --

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I've got Straugh, I think, upstairs in my office, too.

MS. HALLEN: I have a Blue Book in my --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I was always -- I always thought it was under 100.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Unless it's round, I mean --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Whether to use a numeral or spell out a number is a matter of style.

MS. HALLEN: Let's just be consistent.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Zero to 100.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I agree with --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: APA is numbers below -- is words below 10, numbers above. MLA is the exact oppo-- MLA is numbers that can be written in one or two words, numerals for other numbers.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Which one is that?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: However we do it, I feel like we need to be accurate just like Alix said.

MS. HALLEN: Be consistent and accurate.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Need to be consistent.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Below ten -- ten and below we spell; ten and above we type -- we numeral.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's -- so we're

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

going -- we're going APA.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: No, then you've got it both ways. Above ten you type.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Above ten we numeral.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Numeral, right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Below ten we spell.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Okay. There you go.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. Yep.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: It's just ten and under.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I know, I agree. Representative Austin and I are old school in this regard I would suspect.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I love the whole look of Representative Austin. I'm not sure when the last time I'm seen you with a look of such disgust.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: It's only the degradation of Western society.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There you go. I'm with Representative Aus-- this is yet another instance of Representative Austin and I agreeing.

MS. HALLEN: And it's on the record.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Having resolved that dispute to noone's liking.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

I added Paragraph 53; it's new. So the citation is the citation to an absence of a report. Any disagreement with adding Paragraph 53?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh, first -- it needs to be Laub's either -- Laub needs to be possessive. And, again, where -- I mean -- well -- we interchange -- never mind.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: How about do --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Should we also say add --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: How about that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Do we want to say -- okay. Did not report to the Missouri Ethics Committee or --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No, hold it. Did not report -- okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: As in-kind contributions, not and. Should we say to the campaign? I don't know.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. I think that's got it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So all your paragraphs now that you have marks on are going to be one paragraph off.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. I think it

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

will be now Paragraph 56.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Footnote?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We need a footnote back to -- I think it's Exhibit 11.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: What's the -- the old paragraph will be 55 then?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. So -- yeah, it's Paragraph 33, which cites to -- I'm sorry -- Exhibit 32. And I -- I'm citing to, you know, where it says for the purpose of transition calls when Greitens left TMC in May of 2014. And then transition calls quotes -- quote comes from that May 8, 2014 email, which I think we have twice in the -- in our record; once is Exhibit 11 without the header information, and then we added it yesterday as Exhibit 32 with the header information.

MS. HALLEN: Is Exhibit 32 from the AG's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, Exhibit 32 is what we added yesterday --

MS. HALLEN: Okay. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- for purpose of adding that -- being able to include --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- the header information in our exhibits.

MS. HALLEN: I just wanted to make sure we're citing everything --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I believe that -- on Paragraph 60, I believe I counted more than 500 individuals at one point in time; do we want to do a recount here? Paragraph 60, we talk about The Mission Continues donor list and how large it was.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Do we -- why would we need to do a recount?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- if somebody wants to check my --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Oh.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Wasn't that his testimony on it?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- my math.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think that was the testimony, as well.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I did -- I did not cite the testimony. It would have been -- likely have been Kympton's testimony.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah, it was.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Can you --

MS. HALLEN: Do you want me to check his

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

testimony; is that what you're saying?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, please.

MS. HALLEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Well, this is later on -- it's later on.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Now, hang on a second. So --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, you're right. We already cite it.

MR. SECRETARY: Right. We cited it on Kympton's --

MS. HALLEN: It's also on Page 34, right, of Kympton's testimony.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. But we've got it. Representative Pierson is right; we've got it right here, as well.

Is that where you want to go to, Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Yeah, you're fine. I was just -- I was on the same path as Representative Pierson.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

MS. HALLEN: Okay. So you don't want the transcript citation? Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, we have it below here.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: 61. Again, I just -- it's very stylistic, so -- but Greitens did, in fact -- well, I guess that's now 62. Greitens did, in fact, put substantial effort into cultivation of donors for the list. However, for most -- it just seems to me that, however, for most of the time -- and I don't even know what that time is referring to.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The time that he was cultivating donors for the list.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So then, however, for most that time, Greitens also -- or Greitens earned -- not was earning, but earned -- a salary as the CEO, period. And then I would just say, you know, in addition, other people put labor -- I don't know.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I agree with the earned rather than was earning, but I disagree with the other, because I can. Every once in a while, I can't let Representative Austin and Representative Mitten win every --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Representative Phillips has an idea that we will talk about.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Off the record?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Whoa, I think I need to go

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

up here; did I highlight anything? No. Never mind. Okay. All right. Paragraph 69, which was previously 68, we have no citation, but they're both Hafner and Reichardt.

MS. HALLEN: Would you like a citation?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, where they say the meeting never happened.

MS. HALLEN: Okay. So on Michael Hafner's testimony, it's Page 19. We can just cite directly to the line where he says, I never met with Lyndsey.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

MS. HALLEN: It's Line 32 -- or I mean, Line 23.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Man, this is in the leads. The footnotes, are we doing at page --

MR. SECRETARY: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- line number?

MR. SECRETARY: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Well, because not all of them are that way.

MS. HALLEN: Okay. His -- hers, Reichardt, is Page 28 -- or -- yeah, 28, Line 25, and then Page 29, Line 1.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Can we go back to 66? I think it's 66. Kympton -- not expressly

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

stated -- take away the have; Kympton and TMC expressly stated that it did not authorize.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think whenever -- you know, as we move on from the General Assembly, when I'm filing briefs as an attorney, I need to reconvene this Committee for a write tight exercise with every brief that I file with the Court.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Mr. Chairman, do you think you'll get a quorum?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We may struggle for a quorum.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: It depends on the hourly rate.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I was going to say, I'll get back to him with my hourly rate. Could -- Paragraph 67, which I guess is now 68; on January 19, 2015, Hafner testified that Greitens instructed him.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: When did he testify? Yeah. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: You mean to me?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: On -- right. Thank you.

MR. SECRETARY: I don't think you need the

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

commas -- the first comma. Well --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Paragraph 69, which I guess is now 70. Okay. On January 28th, Hafner emailed Proctor, Laub, and Bobak seeking help inputting information, or is that obtaining information for an initial fundraising list?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think it's input -- inputting.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

MS. HALLEN: He wanted information for the list -- that his list would be --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Obtaining works, too.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Obtaining.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Paragraph 72, it's available on the -- REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Paragraph 71. I know you -- that seems to need a year.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: That's what I was thinking.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Whoa.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Whoa, whoa, whoa.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Save, save, save.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Control S.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I can't -- you know people are going to read that. I don't know if you're going to put a bunch of whoa, whoa, whoas -- what just happened in the Committee room.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

(AN OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION WAS HELD.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're back on the record.

MS. HALLEN: I'll go through and fix all the footnotes to make sure they're --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah. Okay. Okay. So that's just in 2015. Okay. Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Bryan raised the issue of whether we need to redact any of this. I think that's too small for anyone to read.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I think we should redact it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm talking about --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Folks have ways.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Really?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I would tend to agree --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: -- with that same statement. I mean, somebody's going to do nothing but sit around and try to clean it up and clean it up, enhance it, clean it up, enhance it, clean it up. Can it be done? I don't know. Will it be tried? Absolutely.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

MS. HALLEN: There are other screenshots that need to be redacted in the report anyways, because they have Spencer Kympton's email address.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. So what we'll do is, we'll get a PDF of the report, and then you can go through and add the redactions. We'll sign the front page, get a PDF of the other thing in the report, come back and make those redactions for that potentially personal information.

Okay. I have -- anything on this page with 76, 77, 78? Okay. I want to add that after this ethics complaint was filed --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Could we -- I'm -- sorry.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Go ahead. You want to go back?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, 73. Do we need it again? Or, I guess, yeah -- now it's 74.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It is again, because she first testified that it was shared with Hafner and Laub for political purposes, and here she's testified again it was shared with Meredith Gibbons for political purposes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Should it say again or maybe later in her testimony?

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. It works either way.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think he was --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Okay. So I don't have a footnote for this ethics complaint.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Is that cited in the settlement?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It may be.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: But the complaint is filed with EBC, we can all see it online; we've done that before.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can you see complaints?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I don't think you can see the complaints.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, okay.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I don't think you can see judgments or --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't think you can see the complaints. Right. So the question is -- I think it's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm comfortable with that being -- let's have one paragraph without a citation unless we can find a citation right now. But -- and that's why I put in approximately November, 2016. So

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

the thought I had was to add a paragraph noting that the MEC subpoenaed Michael Hafner, and I believe they were -- because of documents we have -- they were in possession of that January 6, 2015 email.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I don't know why you want to --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. I mean, if you don't think that's -- I just -- the MEC had that email from January 6, 2015. Stating it in here is as good as putting it --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- putting it in the report in many respects.

I don't know if this is necessary; Paragraph 84, we could add also, pursuant to a negotiated settlement with the MEC, Greitens signed a Joint Stipulation of Facts. But I think we already -- we've already said that with the sentence we have in there now.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, I'm fine with 80, whatever it is now.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: 84.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Putting in there another clause at the beginning that says, pursuant to

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

a negotiated agreement, it's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's implied.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It's restating what -- well, it's not just implied, it's a joint stipulation.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. So there you go. It's restating the title. I agree.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So the $600 value is -- that was -- so that's part of what was -- the documents that were sent to us by Mr. Dowd, and that are also part of the AGO's -- what the Attorney General's office gave to us that came from the MEC. That number came from the fact that MEC's attorney and counsel for Mr. Greitens and The Greitens Campaign had a back and forth about the value of the list. And Greitens' attorney said, hey, I've talked informally with an appraiser in Virginia. She -- it's $1 per name, I think, or anywhere from $1 to a $1.25 per name, and that's how they got to the $600 -- $600 number. You guys think I ought to put that in there?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: I don't think there's a standard of evaluation.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, and if memory serves me though, those documents indicated that it's kind of impossible to put a value on this, because 501(c)(3) lists are not for sale.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, I don't know that it would be impossible to put a value on it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Well, maybe she didn't use the word impossible.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah. So Committee's belief on whether to add something in the footnote about the amount of $600 was part of a back and forth between counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Again, it might be implied. What do you think, Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I think -- yeah, put it in is what I think.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And I think you're right. I think she said it was difficult. Was that it or was it third party?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All right. How about the value assigned pursuant to -- the fact is, that the emails that we have show that that was the thing that they went back and forth the most over it seemed to me. I have one of those emails in front of me here.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Can't we just say negotiated, do we --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I mean, here, for example, we have a -- this is an email from counsel for the MEC

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

that says, because you have -- Mr. Adams, because you have access to persons who have provided valuations of donor lists in the past, my hope was that you might be able to get one of them to provide a valuation about these lists. At this point, any number that I might come up with for the in-kind contribution would be pretty subjective unless and until we engage a professional to provide one. If you, on the other hand, would be able to do that, and if you would be willing to share it, then an independent basis would exist for the number that would be reported.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: That's our Exhibit 11, right?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This is not contained within Exhibit 11; this is correspondence between Michael Adams and counsel for The Mission -- for the Missouri Ethics Commission.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: This was forwarded to us by Greitens' attorney here recently; is that right?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It -- it was partly forwarded -- one portion was forwarded by Greitens' counsel, and then we also have separate communications in the AGO's production for us.

MR. SECRETARY: So how about the list was assigned a value of -- the list was assigned a value

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

after negotiations between Greitens' counsel and the MEC.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Assigned -- after negotiations between Greitens' counsel and --

MR. SECRETARY: The list was assigned a value.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: As a result of.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: In which the MEC relied upon the value asserted by Greitens' counsel.

Can someone pull out what we have from the -- what we got from Dowd?

MR. SECRETARY: By -- by the way, I would say the list was assigned a value through negotiations between Greitens' counsel and the MEC after which the MEC relied upon the value asserted by Greitens' counsel.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's just -- let's take a little break while we're trying to figure this out.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Now, hold on -- is -- is --

THE COURT REPORTER: And do you still want to go off?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, I want to be off.

(AN OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION WAS HELD.)

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Exhibit 34 will be the correspondence between counsel for Greitens and the campaign with counsel for the MEC. And in this footnote, we will simply reference this new exhibit, see Exhibit 34 for email negotiations on the value of the list between Greitens' counsel and the MEC, period.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Mr. Chair?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative -- hold on, hold on.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Is there any objection to creating new Exhibit 34 and referencing in the footnote, so -- rather than attempting to characterize how this negotiation went we can have -- cite the public to the document itself, and they can make their own determinations?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No objection.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Representative Lauer?

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair. It's more of a concern that I'm bringing up. In these negotiations where it has the Governor's counsel and MEC counsel, but no where in there does The Mission Continues have counsel represented, which is the owner of the list to help establish what that fee would be,

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

if it were, indeed, appropriately transferred. The second part of that would be in 501(c)(3)'s generally, the donor lists are not used for political purposes, so I would -- I would suggest that any value you put on this would not be reflective based on those situations.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Point taken. Further discussion?

Okay. Paragraph 93c, I'm just going to flag this. I have put in here, the list has a value that is likely in excess of $600. They expected to raise millions from it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: They did.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: They did, in fact, raise millions from it. I have a problem with a $600 valuation for a -- for property that is used to come into possession of millions of dollars. That's the greatest ROI in history.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: But the thing is though, you can get a list; that doesn't mean they're going to give you anything. You're not guaranteed anything with it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, there's no guarantee. That's right.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I mean, you're not. You're going to have to put some personal skill into it

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

to -- I mean --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, the reason that the list has value is because there's also an extra component and that's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Exactly.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: -- the relationship between Eric Greitens and the individual members on that list.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And -- and The Mission Continues.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: And I don't know --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And the donors, and that connector for some, and then for others it was the connector. So if -- I'm fine taking this out, because we don't have independent testimony about it and that -- so I'm fine with taking that out. That's why I wanted to flag it --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- because I realized on review here that that's something that likely comes out.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I'd like to take it out.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Second?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Second.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh. Okay. Unanimous.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Mr. Chair, just another comment.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. My understanding is at the time this was transferred in 2015, the limit for consideration of a felony was $500; is that right?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's correct.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Okay. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Let's take a break for a second.

(A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: This Paragraph 95, we've subpoenaed Washington University. I want to take that out. Is there any other points -- my plan is to have -- Alix, do you want to fix some footnotes?

MS. HALLEN: Sure.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think you -- not just sure; you volunteered for that earlier. I want to make sure.

MS. HALLEN: I volunteered. Yes. That's good. Yeah, yeah, yeah, I will.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. We will have it

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

printed out. We will have -- put the final version in the Chief Clerk's office for signature this afternoon, and then we will create a pdf of the document so that we can -- they can redact the things within this document that may have a little bit of danger in revealing personal information.

MS. HALLEN: Bryan has the exhibits redacted. Do you all want to approve them? He has a PDF of it.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Well, when we go and sign it, won't they be attached then --

MS. HALLEN: Okay. I just didn't know if you wanted to take a vote to approve them first before your -- before the final final.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: I thought all the exhibits were already -- we've already agreed to, because we did --

MS. HALLEN: No, I meant the redactions.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Oh, oh, yes, yes, I hear you. Do we need to go on the record you mean?

MS. HALLEN: If you just want to approve the redactions.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We are on the record.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, we can do so by signing the report.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: That's right. That

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

way we can -- so we've viewed the redactions --

MS. HALLEN: Okay. That's fine. I just wanted to make it available --

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Yeah, that's right, Alix.

MR. SCHEIDERER: So it will be up in Alix's office.

MS. HALLEN: Adam's office.

MR. SCHEIDERER: Adam's office. I'm sorry.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Further discussion? Seeing no further discussion, I will --

MR. SECRETARY: We've got new business.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Oh. We're noticed up for tomorrow at eight a.m. We are going to have counsel here.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: In here?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Where -- do we have a room, Alex?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We'll need a bigger room.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We have this one?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We're going to need a bigger boat.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I -- listen, I'm really tired of closed hear -- closed hearings.

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: My committee usually meets tomorrow morning and we will not be having a meeting, and that's in Hearing Room 4, so that may be available.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We've got to block off the doors.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Okay. We're meeting with counsel, so --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: When we meet with counsel and have substantive discussions with counsel, we'll kick everyone out of the room.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: You know the room will be packed.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

MS. HALLEN: Well, let's --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: You're talking about a ten-minute process.

MS. HALLEN: Let's do the open part first and then meet with counsel afterwards.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, but Representative Rhoads is right. If we're --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: How do we know if they're going to be in and out?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We don't have a witness secured for --

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Can we change location at this late date?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Can't we move whoever's in, say, Hearing Room 5 to 4, and then --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think Representative Lauer offered up her committee's hearing room.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: 4.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: I like 4, because I think you can control it better, and there's no microphones and those kinds of things.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: It's pretty close.

MS. HALLEN: Are we doing anything besides meeting with counsel tomorrow?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I have no plans other than meeting with counsel tomorrow. And we're either going to release this report this afternoon or tomorrow. If we release it tomorrow, that could be a reason for -- to have a public hearing.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: How would we know when we're in and out of specific conversation with counsel until we get into the conversation? That's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, when we have a conversation with counsel, we are going to -- we are going to close the room.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So we could have our

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

conversation with counsel and then open it up publicly after that conversation is over?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Just say there's nothing more?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yeah, that seems to be --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I would agree.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- not worth it. Okay. So let's vote to close tomorrow's hearing. All those in favor will vote yes. Mr. Secretary?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: All those opposed?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: All those opposed will vote no. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Barnes?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Phillips?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Mitten?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Lauer?

REP LAUER: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Austin?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Rhoads?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Representative Pierson, Jr.?

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

MR. SECRETARY: Seven zero in favor of the motion.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seven aye, zero no, we approve the motion.

MS. HALLEN: Can I make a comment? So it seems in Moriarty they, of course, retained counsel, but they didn't have any transcripts of their meetings. So I'm not sure we need to even have -- we can just have a meeting with our counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Because that would never be --

MS. HALLEN: If it's never even going to be a hearing, you know --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It would be subject to the privilege no matter what.

MS. HALLEN: Right. So we don't have to have -- I don't think we have to -- you can correct me if I'm wrong. Do you even think we need to have a hearing? Because I'm sure they met with their counsel in '94.

MR. SECRETARY: Well, my belief is, when you have a quorum committee meeting together --

MS. HALLEN: Okay.

MR. SECRETARY: -- it should be noticed, with

ad78267d-5b1d-41bb-8a4b-4df8f3f42d28

an exception to the closed hearing --

MS. HALLEN: Okay.

MR. SECRETARY: -- which is provided in 6 Stat 021.

MS. HALLEN: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So we notice it up and then we have discussions in private without a court reporter, because they're conversations with counsel.

MS. HALLEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Seeing nothing --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Need to confirm with Adam the room?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: No, we're going to do -- I think we'll just do -- no, we'll do 4. No, we'll do 4, because we need the extra -- we want the extra space.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We need the space.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Because we have extra people.

Thursday, let's -- any further business for today? Seeing none, I hereby close this hearing.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Adjourn.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Adjourn this hearing of the House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight.

(HEARING WILL STAND IN RECESS.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Call this hearing of the House Special Committee on Investigative Oversight to order. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here. All seven here and accounted for.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: With seven present, we have a full quorum. I think we're going to be brief today. I hope we're going to be brief.

I've distributed, I suppose we call this a motion although we're not a party, and I don't believe that the Court in St. Louis has any jurisdiction over what we're doing in this matter, but I suppose to be polite we have made a request to the Court and the City of St. Louis to instruct the parties in that case to comply with our lawfully issued subpoena. I just passed this around for the Committee's knowledge. I know we talked about this, but you have the actual document in front of you now.

As for the report that I think we all signed yesterday -- Anybody not sign? Anybody not get to the chief clerk's office?

(Representative Rhoads raised his hand.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Well, we'll all be signed today. House, who is it, technology section?

MS. HALLEN: IT, yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: IT has an issue with the size of the files which is causing delay.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Only with regard to them being in a searchable format. If it were a non-searchable format, we'd be able to get it up immediately.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We are going to do it in a searchable format.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: If we're going to choose to do it in a searchable format, it's going to take a little bit.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're waiting on IT and a signature for --

MS. HALLEN: We're also needing to do some additional redactions, but we can talk about that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It will be done this morning.

MS. HALLEN: We'll take care of it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's the second item of business.

The third item of business is counsel is here today to speak to the Committee. We voted last week to authorize Mr. Robertson and Mr. Kempton, I believe. We also had a separate vote to speak on behalf of the Committee. So I wanted them to come in and speak to the Committee.

Before we speak to them, we are going to go, I guess we call this a double closed hearing.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yeah, Mr. Chair, and please no offense, is there an issue with the court reporter being here and protecting the privilege?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It doesn't matter. If you could step outside the room when we have a conversation with counsel.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I just don't know. I've never had a court reporter present when I spoke to my client.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're not going to be on the record.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I now move for double closed. We're closed. Do you want to go off the record? Do you want to have a vote to go off the record?

SECRETARY CURCHIN: No, I don't think you need that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I do think, Mr. Chair, we need to make it clear that we're going off the record in order to protect and preserve the privilege.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let's go off the record and speak with counsel.

(Off the record.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Call to order this House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Rhodes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHODES: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Here.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: All seven here and accounted for.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We have a quorum. Okay. We need a laptop and a report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: A what?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: A laptop and a report. To type.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't think I have the report. Does somebody have a thumb with it on it?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Alix does.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Alix just went to print out a new signature page and she has the report on her jump drive.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Can I have a piece of paper?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Actually, I might have it too. I have the exhibits.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, let's work on the paragraph that we can add. Okay?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let me see.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We'll pause while Representative Mitten pulls up the addendum report.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let me see if I have it. I'm not sure that I do. I do. Thank you, Alix.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I'm going to come sit next to you, if you don't mind.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I do not mind. We have -- that's probably a big, giant hassle.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: May I leave and return in about three minutes, Mr. Chairman?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There. That was the footnote. Footnote 27. Here we go. That's not working. Sorry. See. Look, I cracked it that very day actually.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Footnote 27 in current form reads, The Committee included purported quotes of Witness 1 from her deposition in the criminal case on the theory explained in Note 36, that counsel had an obligation not to mislead the Court. The Committee further notes that the ellipses placed in front of the quote from Greitens' lawyers makes it impossible for the Committee to determine a full answer to the question in the absence of the full transcript. Further, Greitens' claims about a recent video disclosed by the circuit attorney are demonstrably false. As a result, the Committee will no longer provide such deference to cherry-picked evidence.

I don't think we need to change that. I think what we need to do is create a paragraph at the end explaining what has since happened.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I agree.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Will that paragraph be right behind that one?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Wait. What was this last paragraph?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Paragraph 10 is the last paragraph.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Advertisements, political witch hunt. Okay. We'll fix that. Here. This might be easier.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: There you go.

MS. HALLEN: Sign away. Want to make sure I got the date right?

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Looks good.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The 30th. Right?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'll type. You dictate. Oh, shoot. I don't know what happened there. Okay. No.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: The Committee -- the Committee -- did we file a motion or did we send a subpoena?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. But I want to lay out what happened before then.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Go down to paragraph 11. On the afternoon of April 16th, comma, after learning that the Committee was in possession of the interview video, comma, counsel for Greitens requested leave from the Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis to provide information to the Committee relating to the interview video, period. In an order that afternoon -- same paragraph. In an order that afternoon, comma, the Court granted such leave.

And then I'm going to go find the order and we'll take a direct quote from the order, we'll make the order an exhibit.

MS. HALLEN: Can I get the order -- I have the order up in my office -- or not the order. Can I get it on Case.net?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: You can get it on Case.net if you have a Case.net log-in.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah, I do.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. So we're waiting for Alix there. And then I'm going to --

MS. HALLEN: Jay, when was the order?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: April 16th.

MS. HALLEN: If my internet would ever choose to participate by pulling it up. Here you go.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. So the order --

MS. HALLEN: Should be loading itself. Why doesn't it want to do anything?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Good grief. There it goes.

MS. HALLEN: It's trying. Oh, come on. I don't know why it is being such a pain in the butt.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It's not working for me either, I don't think. It might be a Case.net issue.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I have it in my office. I'll call my office and have it brought down.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: It is a Case.net issue.

MS. HALLEN: Yeah. Clearly they're having some kind of issue with -- okay. Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: On April 17th -- next paragraph.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: On April 17th, at 12:07 a.m., counsel for Greitens e-mailed the Committee with a letter containing purported excerpts of testimony from the nearly 10-hour deposition of Witness 1 taken in the Circuit Court case, period.

The Committee --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- subsequently subpoenaed defense counsel, the Circuit Attorney's Office and counsel for Witness 1 for the entirety of the deposition video and transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Just the entire deposition transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes. For the entirety -- the entire deposition transcript.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'll do it like that.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Period.

The Circuit Attorney's Office and counsel for Witness 1 informed the Committee that they --

MS. HALLEN: Here's the order.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep. The Circuit Attorney's Office and counsel for Witness 1 informed the Committee that they --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: They supported the subpoena and wish to disclose said documents to the Committee, period.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Yep.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Defense counsel objected to immediately turning over the deposition transcript and suggested a briefing schedule to the Court. Let's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Suggested the Court --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Hold on. Back up. Circuit Attorney's Office and counsel for Witness 1 informed the Committee that they supported the subpoena, desired to disclose -- erase all that. Desired to disclose said documents. Did not -- okay. Defense counsel -- defense counsel ignored the subpoena. That's what they did to start.

REPRESENTATIVE RHODES: Did you have any contact with them about the subpoena?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: They were served the subpoena and they said -- that's right. They said, Give us extra time. We need a little extra time. We got that on Sunday. We got from the other two --

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: What if we said they failed to comply with the subpoena?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Well, they all failed to comply. Witness 1's attorney didn't have it, so he didn't fail to comply. Circuit Attorney's Office was getting beat up for having failed to disclose the other video. They didn't want to do anything that might make the judge mad. So they said, We'll give it to you as soon as we get an order from the Court, but we support the subpoena.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: The Governor's team said, Oh, we need some more time to consider this. Then we noticed it up, then we filed a motion of -- I wouldn't call it a motion because we're not a party to the case. We apprised the Court of our subpoena.

And counsel for Greitens responded by saying we need a briefing schedule that set us out a week or two before getting a Court decision, at which point in time the response was basically you guys have said this is exonerating. If it is, you should be doing everything you can, in your power, to get it to us, including just plain giving it to us.

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Sure. Yeah. Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: And having failed to do so, we're not going to go waste time and resources seeking something that they claim to be exonerating but they won't provide us.

MS. HALLEN: Are we done with that?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: No, we're not done with it.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Mr. Chair, would we also include in there since that time, they have also -- they're also going to be deposing her again? Do we put that -- I mean, think it sounds --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't think it --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I don't think --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I don't think it's necessary. We're trying to be -- to Representative Mitten's point, brief and explaining what the delay was after our hearing in releasing this. And the delay was we were trying to get this information that they claim to be good for them.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. State versus Greitens. Here. No, but Alix wants her computer back.

MS. HALLEN: I mean, it's okay.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: I'm just going to download it to the drive so we don't have to worry about this. This is April 16th.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So this is the Court order. After this morning's hearing -- okay.

MS. HALLEN: All right. You're good. So I'm taking this back.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: So do you want to deal with the quote or what? Do you want to just leave that they ignored it and then later -- or do you just want to --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Okay. On April 24th, the Committee filed a request that the Circuit Court in St. Louis City instruct circuit attorney and defense counsel to comply with Committee's duly-issued subpoena.

Motion -- no, the request indicated that circuit attorney and counsel for Witness 1 -- sorry -- were prepared to honor the subpoena. Subsequent to the filing of the request, counsel -- defense counsel requested more time and a briefing schedule. Defense counsel refused to join the circuit attorney and counsel --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And instead -- right.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- for Witness 1 --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And instead.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- and instead, requested more time and a briefing schedule on the request.

Okay. So that lays out the facts. Do we want it -- do we care to state --

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Could you read what you have written now?

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Starting with 11. Correct? Yes.

On the afternoon of -- on the afternoon of April 16th, after learning that the Committee was in possession of the video interview of Witness 1, counsel for Greitens requested leave from the Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis to provide information to the Committee relating to said video interview. In an order that afternoon, the Court granted such leave.

Do we have the quote from that?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: I would quote directly from the document you just downloaded, but --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Right. And we'll insert -- and the quote would be, Defendant and his counsel are permitted to submit information to the Committee which may otherwise be in violation of the Court's scheduling order? Is that what you want me to put in?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Shall be limited --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Shall be limited --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: That's right. That's what we really care about.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: -- to the contents of the videotape --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: And shall be limited to the contents of the video interview of Witness 1.

Next paragraph. On April --

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: That's what I want to quote directly, because that's --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Do you want starting from the Court grants? Just defenda-- okay.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Starting with limited.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: All right. Are you good with that?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Okay. Do you want me to just pass this around?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: We heard you read it.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Alix, is it possible for me to hook this up to that?

MS. HALLEN: Yeah. I can do it if you want to.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Save it. Let's take a short break and we'll talk about that.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Let's do that.

(A recess was taken.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Having failed to get the document up on the big screen, we have one more paragraph to add. And that is a new paragraph 14. This keeps the report -- addendum report at four pages.

New paragraph 14 states, This Committee's charge is to determine the truth. Having claimed that the deposition testimony is helpful to Greitens, comma, it is incumbent upon his counsel to comply with the Committee's duly-issued subpoena and to expeditiously provide it with the entire deposition transcript, period.

Any objections to said paragraph?

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: No.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Good.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Seeing none, this should complete this. We should get a printout of this. No one should leave. We should sign it right now and --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: One quick thing. Do we want to add at the end of that that unfortunately to date, this has not happened?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: No. I think it's obvious.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Speaks for itself? That's fine. So this has been saved. Should we take a quick break to print it?

REPRESENTATIVE RHOADS: Do you want to go off record again, take a break?

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Yeah. Take a break to go print.

(Exhibits 35 and 36 were marked for identification.)

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: We're noticed up for tomorrow at 2:45 in the HR Room. I want to keep that hearing time in case counsel wants to speak with us about something. And because the purpose of it would be to speak with counsel, I move that we close tomorrow's hearing. All those in favor, vote yes.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Phillips.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Mitten.

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Lauer.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Austin.

REPRESENTATIVE AUSTIN: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Rhodes.

REPRESENTATIVE RHODES: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Pierson, Jr.

REPRESENTATIVE PIERSON: Aye.

SECRETARY CURCHIN: Seven to zero in favor of the motion.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: By your vote of seven aye and zero no, you've voted to close tomorrow's hearing. We'll deal with Wednesday tomorrow.

REPRESENTATIVE LAUER: If we're going to do Wednesday morning, we'll have to do it today. Because if we wait until 2:45 tomorrow, we'll --

REPRESENTATIVE MITTEN: We should probably go ahead and --

MS. HALLEN: Well, Alex can notice it up.

REPRESENTATIVE BARNES: Let's notice it up for 8:00. We can vote to close it if we need to or we can have an open hearing Wednesday.

Okay. Representative Mitten is finishing the exhibit list for us. And then our capable Alexes will take care of the next step. We are noticed at 2:45 tomorrow.

Anything further for today? Seeing nothing, seeing no remarks, no further business before the Committee today, I hereby adjourn.

(Meeting adjourned.)

AUDIO TRANSCRIPTION OF CANCELLED MEETING

Good afternoon. So good to see people here today. Uh, we -- I am going to cancel this hearing. I've been in contact with members of the Committee. Some of whom are stuck on I-70, apparently there was a pretty bad traffic accident. Others of whom are aware of what we are going to say.

And that is this: Upon the release of our second report Katherine Hanaway promised that her clients would cooperate with subpoenas for production of documents and testimony to this Committee.

This Committee took her up on that promise. Speaker Richardson and the Committee issued subpoenas to Greitens for Missouri, A New Missouri and Austin Chambers.

Unfortunately after having promised to be fully opened and fully transparent, Hanaway provided by - responded by providing some documents that were responsive to our subpoena.

She also objected to other large categories of documents. We are in the process of reviewing the documents that were provided to this Committee. Of which there was a substantial number and we are considering our options on which path to take to enforce the Legislature and this Committee's subpoena power. When we decide what we will do and furtherance of that we will provide an update. And so with that having cancelled the hearing we are finished for today.

(Silence in audio.)
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Here.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE: Representative Phillips.
MR. PHILLIPS: Here.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE: Representative Mitten.
MS. MITTEN: Here.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE: Representative Lauer.
MS. LAUER: Here.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE: Representative Austin.
MR. AUSTIN: Here.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE: Representative Rhoads.
MR. RHOADS: Here.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE: Representative Pierson.
MR. PIERSON: Here.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: With seven present, we have a full quorum established. We're here this morning as we discussed yesterday to talk about process.
Mr. Greim and Mr. Garber are here to speak with us. If you guys would like to take a seat and come on forward.
There should be witness forms up there so make sure you fill those out. If you want to briefly introduce yourselves.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE: I'm (inaudible).
(Background noise in audio.)
MR. GREIM: (Inaudible) -- Bryant.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, Mr. Greim, let me slow you down. We -- we've looked at the transcripts, and I let Mr. Garber introduce himself. We've looked at the transcripts from Moriarty, and we don't know that we're going that direction, but certainly Mr. Garber's presence and the memo that you have sent us suggests that and in Moriarty -- counsel for Ms. Moriarty was sworn, and so what I'd like to do is swear both of you in, if that's okay.
(Background noise in audio.)
MR. GREIM: All right. I think I'm just here to make a presentation, but I'm (inaudible).
CHAIRMAN BARNES: We'll do it one at a time.
Mr. Greim, can you raise your right hand?
(Mr. Greim was sworn by Chairman Barnes.)
MR. GREIM: I do.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: And, Mr. Garber, can you raise your right hand?
(Mr. Garber was sworn by Chairman Barnes.)
MR. GARBER: Yes.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Mr. Greim, before you begin, the committee wants to ask some questions to understand the basis of your representation. And I think I've got -- I know some answers to the questions, but, first, who do you represent? And as I ask questions, I'd like both of you to answer them. Who do you represent, Mr. Greim?

MR. GREIM: Well, Mr. Chairman, just to start off, I've entered an appearance where I've clearly stated that. I told that to your counsel, but I'll answer these questions. I represent the Office of the Governor.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And any other entity or person?

MR. GREIM: No, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And, Mr. Garber, who do you represent?

MR. GARBER: Hi. Good morning, Mr. Chairman. So I represent the Office of the Governor, and I think it's also fair to say, Mr. Chairman, that we both represent the Governor in his official capacity.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay.

MR. GREIM: I -- I would agree with that, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Can you explain to me how the hiring processing worked?

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I'll -- I'll answer this up to the point where we get into privileged communications, but I was contacted by Lucinda Luetkemeyer, and I was asked whether we would be interested in taking on the engagement. We considered it. We negotiated the rate, and we entered into an engagement letter.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: With whom did you negotiate the rate?

MR. GREIM: I will say Lucinda Luetkemeyer.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And, Mr. Garber, how did your hiring process work?

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, it was roughly the same and -- and, yes, we negotiated with Ms. Luetkemeyer as well.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Now, Mr. Garber, when -- when did that happen?

MR. GARBER: I -- I honestly don't know. I can get that information to the committee.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, when did that happen for you?

MR. GREIM: Well, it's been within the last couple of weeks.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, is that the same for you?

MR. GARBER: No. It's -- it's been longer, Mr. Chairman. And, again, I -- I can get that information to the committee.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Would it be inaccurate for me to say that Mr. Dowd informed me that you would be engaged in representation? I mean, you don't know the contents of that conversation, but were you -- did you speak with Mr. Dowd at some point?

MR. GARBER: I'm sure I did, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: When was the first time you were contacted by Mr. Dowd about this?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, I -- I honestly can't remember. I can get that information to the committee.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do you represent Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: I -- I do not.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And so is there any privilege attached to your communication with Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, if you're trying to get at when I was engaged by the Office of the Governor, I can get you that information. In fact, I think I can -- you know, with the permission of the Governor get you the engagement letter.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: My question, when were you engaged in any fashion in this manner? What is the date -- what was the date your contract was entered into.

MR. GARBER: Sitting here today, Mr. Chairman, I -- I thought we were talking about standards and processes. I -- I honestly don't know.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We are, but -- but I also -- the committee wants to understand the basis of your representation and the contract that's using taxpayer funds to pay you, and so we're asking basic questions about the contract and how you came to be in the state of Missouri.

MR. GARBER: Yeah. And, again, I'm happy to provide that information.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Who contacted you first? Mr. -- Ms. Luetkemeyer or Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, I can't remember.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It was only three months ago; right?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, I'm -- I'm happy to provide that information to the committee. Again, today I thought we were talking about standards and processes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We are. I think it's a pretty simple question. Who contacted you first? Ms. Luetkemeyer? Mrs. -- Mrs. Luetkemeyer or Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, this was months ago, and sitting here today, I can't remember.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, was Ms. Luetkemeyer involved at all in our previous meeting?

MR. GARBER: The meeting that we had with you, Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes, Mr. Garber.

MR. GARBER: I don't believe she was.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. That was you and Mr. Dowd; is that correct?

MR. GARBER: That is correct.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And you flew into St. Louis; is that correct?

MR. GARBER: I honestly can't remember whether it was St. Louis or Columbia.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Did you drive to my office with Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: Did I drive to your office -- I can't remember who drove. Or -- or who was in the car.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Were you in the same car coming down to meet with Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: I cannot remember sitting here today, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You can't remember whether when you showed up at my office and -- was it in February? Was it in February, Mr. Kerchum (phonetic)? It was March.

MR. GARBER: Right. See, that's -- that's exactly it. We do a lot of meetings, Mr. Chairman. I can't remember if -- if I knew that that's what we were going to be talking about today, I would have refreshed my recollection and I would have been prepared.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: In fact, I know it was March.

MR. GARBER: I can't remember.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Have you ever been to Jefferson City, Missouri, before?

MR. GARBER: No.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And you can't remember whether you drove a separate car or whether you rode with Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, sitting here today, I cannot remember, but I appreciate your -- your seeing me that day, and I appreciate the committee hearing from us today.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Would you dispute the other people who were present at that meeting that would say that you showed up in the same car with Mr. Dowd?

MR. GARBER: I would not dispute that. Because I can't remember.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, do you have Governor Greitens' consent for this representation?

MR. GREIM: I do. I have that through the agent of the Office of Governor Greitens, who is authorized to engage counsel. That's Ms. Luetkemeyer.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Did Mr. Greitens grant permission to Ms. Luetkemeyer to engage you?

MR. GREIM: I have to assume that in dealing with an agent of the principal that the principal has authority to do so, and I have reason since then to believe that the principal is authorized the agent to do that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Ms. Luetkemeyer, can you bring up a chair?

MS. LUETKEMEYER: (Inaudible) I'm not prepared to (inaudible).

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Ms. Luetkemeyer, it's going to be a simple question.

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I -- I object to this, and we came here -- I actually asked for me to talk about process.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We are going to talk about process, Mr. Greim. I promise you.

MR. GREIM: We asked your counsel if there were any further questions, and now we come here, instead of talking about process, we are actually being inquired of as witnesses in this matter for factual information. And, respectfully, this is not the -- this is not the matter we came here to talk with you about.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, we are prepared to talk about process.

Ms. Luetkemeyer, are you refusing to give testimony to this committee.

MS. LUETKEMEYER: (Inaudible) committee I'll accept that request (inaudible).

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, do you have Governor Greitens' consent for this representation?

MR. GARBER: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: How do you know you have that consent?

MR. GARBER: I -- I've spent time with the Governor, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Did the Governor participate in the process making sure that you were going to be his counsel based on your experience?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, again, I'm -- I'm -- I'm not sure where we're going with this. I'm happy to -- to talk to you about these issues, as -- as the chairman of the committee know and, you know, I appreciate the opportunity to talk to the committee today. I've represented governors' offices in several states. I -- I honestly believe I'm here as a resource for the committee representing the Office of the Governor to talk about these incredibly important issues of processes and procedures and -- and, again, I appreciate the committees' willingness to hear from me.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, it's really a simple question.

MR. GARBER: Yeah. And I --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: How do you know Mr. Greitens; consent? Did he authorize you to represent him in this proceeding?

MR. GARBER: Yeah. I think I've said yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Thank you. Thank you. For each of you, what are your representative hourly rates?

MR. GREIM: My hourly rate in this matter, Mr. Chairman, is $340 per hour.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And Mr. Garber?

MR. GARBER: It's $320 an hour, which is half of my normal rate.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Have -- Mr. Greim, have you submitted any time sheets for payment to date?

MR. GREIM: I have not.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, have you submitted any time sheets for payment to date?

MR. GARBER: I believe we submitted our first invoice.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And because you have submitted your first invoice, have you been paid that?

MR. GARBER: I don't think so, but I don't -- I don't know.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Will the two of you provide the committee with a copy of your contract to represent your clients.

MR. GREIM: I will say that my client has received a sunshine request for my engagement letter, and I'm going to abide by client's decision as to whether to produce it. As you well know, Chairman

Barnes, frequently engagement letters contain privileged information. They contain attorney/client privileged information, but there's also information that's not privileged within an engagement letter, and so I'm happy to consult with the client and get back to you on that request.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, I don't want the stuff that -- that is privileged. I'm not trying to -- to get into that. If -- but I want the basic contract with you and your client. Can we -- can we have an agreement that you'll provide the committee with the contract with your client with the stipulation that if there is privileged information contained within it that you can redact that information?

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I -- I would like to make the agreement with you, but it's not the kind of thing I'm going to just say without consulting with the client and I -- I will agree to consult with the client and I -- I'm happy to answer questions about the rate, but I'm not going to just on the fly start making promises about disclosure of information.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm not -- you're getting paid by taxpayers; right?

MR. GREIM: That's right. That's right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Representative Lawson, can you put that microphone down?

Mr. Garber, is it the same contract or is it -- you guys have -- I assume you have a separate engagement letter.

MR. GARBER: Yeah. Although, I haven't -- I haven't reviewed Mr. Greim's engagement letter, but I assume it's different.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Do you have an engagement letter for yourself?

MR. GARBER: I do, in fact, yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Are you prepared to provide the committee with a copy of that engagement letter?

MR. GARBER: I believe it would be the same answer as Mr. Greim. It would be up to the Office of the Governor.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Further questions, Representative Phillips?

MR. PHILLIPS: To inquire, Mr. Chair?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Proceed.

MR. PHILLIPS: Thank you. Thank you both for being here this morning and -- appreciate that a lot. One of the things that's weighed on our mind all along has been a concern on your end as well is, we've been rather accused of getting one-sided information and we're more than happy to get both sides of the story. That's not been available to us at this point, but when the charges were dismissed in the last couple of days, the Governor said, quote, today, prosecutors dropped the false charges against me, this is a great victory, and it's been a long time coming. And I agree with that.

Mr. Bennett said the real reason why the case was dropped was, there no evidence. I have a tendency to agree with that.

So my question this morning is, now that the dramatical dust has cleared, when can we expect to hear from Governor Greitens?

MR. GREIM: Well, first of all, I want to make clear that this is -- your question is probably a good time to say this, but the Governor will have -- there are -- there are two sets of counsel. There's the Governor in his personal capacity, and there's the Governor in his official capacity, and so the decision about whether and when the Governor testifies, the decision about, you know, which witnesses will be used to produce information -- I'm not doing that, I don't think. Those are decisions that are going to be made by personal capacity counsel for the Governor, and so -- now I will say that official capacity counsel -- that's us. We represent the executive branch. We -- we may participate in that decision, but, frankly, that is not -- that's not a decision that we've participated in right now. I couldn't tell you the answer to that. I expect that the answer to that will come soon. Our laser-like focus these next two days before the special session starts, Representative Phillips, is to get the procedure for this proceeding set so that adequate process -- due process is -- is given.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay. So I -- I think I understand what you're saying. I understand your role is totally different than Mr. Dowd and Mr. Bennett, but you surely know the answer. I mean, you've got -- you're -- you're protecting the -- what you're calling the Office of the Governor. So not literally his office, but his position as Governor and apparently not exactly Governor Greitens; is that -- is that correct?

MR. GREIM: No. The -- we're representing the Office of the Governor.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay.

MR. GREIM: And the Governor in his official capacity.

MR. PHILLIPS: Okay.
MR. GREIM: So, you know, it's our job to make sure that the Governor has the opportunity to testify.
MR. PHILLIPS: Right.
MR. GREIM: And has the opportunity to present, you know, the other witnesses that have knowledge that he doesn't.
MR. PHILLIPS: Right.
MR. GREIM: That's our main role. And then the handoff to the personal capacity counsel is, okay, you know, how will the testimony come in, when will the Governor testify, you know, there -- there's another charge out there. You know, he'll have to get counsel from them and not from us on that. So I hope that maybe an answer -- I mean, the answer is, I certainly can't tell you what or when he's going to testify, but I hope that in answering this it helps to tease out the differences between what the taxpayers pay for to represent the Office of the Governor and what is privately paid for, which is personal capacity counsel.
MR. PHILLIPS: Wouldn't it be to your advantage, though, to give us an answer to find that answer out, if you don't know the answer, to make a phone call and say, hey, they want to know -- the public wants to know -- we're having public hearings now -- they want to know, and it's been expressed to us over and over again that the cooperation is there, ready to go, and now there seems to be a pretty clear path to do that.

So it sounds like to me that from what you're saying that you kind of set the stage for his attorneys who are representing him on the -- in the legal aspect of it, and so it looks to me like it would be to your advantage to provide us with some information, some kind of timetable here as to when we can expect to hear from him.

MR. GREIM: I'm acutely aware it would be to our advantage especially because one of the members of the committee is -- is directly asking me, so I'd like -- I'd like to have the answer just to be able to answer your question, but the reality is that we're putting the cart before the horse a little bit. Our focus over the next 48 to 72 hours has to be, let's put the rules in place that will allow that to happen and that will allow due process to occur in this initial stage. And so -- I mean, I know you'll get an answer to that question, but, frankly, you know, planning out which witnesses will testify and when is not -- is not part of what I'm doing here. I'm talking about the right to testify.

MR. PHILLIPS: Right. I understand that. And we're not looking for a list of witnesses to testify. We've kind of got that figured out. What we're interested in is this specific witness. So you're saying, then, just for the record, that you cannot come up with an answer to that question or even a ball park idea of maybe in the next week, maybe in the next month, maybe in the next six months, maybe in the next year, next two years; is that your answer?

MR. GREIM: Well, next two years --

MR. PHILLIPS: I'm giving you a little time frame here.

MR. GREIM: Okay.

MR. PHILLIPS: I don't want to pressure you.

MR. GREIM: I -- now, I always like to -- no. All I can say is that that's a call ultimately for the governor's personal capacity counsel to make. I think that we'll be involved in that decision to the extent that it means we've got to come back to ask this committee for something, but I will have to just admit since I -- made my first call to the speaker the middle of last week and started e-mailing with Chip Robertson counsel, I have solely been focused on process, procedure, reading the rules of other states, reading Missouri precedent, and I just can't answer questions about the order of proof or who will testify in proceedings. And I'm sorry, representative.

MR. PHILLIPS: All right. Fair enough. I won't pick on you much more, but I do want to ask one question, why does it take two of you to do the same job? Is it that complicated?

MR. GREIM: Well, it takes a lot of counsel on the side of the -- of the House committee, too, and I've represented the House committees or not this committee. I've represented the general assembly in matters. I usually have more than one attorney on it. Mr. Garber is a national expert in the area of gubernatorial impeachment. He just is, but he's not a Missouri lawyer. I'm -- I'm a Missouri lawyer, and I handle, you know, constitutional litigation in this state, and so it is pretty natural that we'd have two lawyers. Just like the House has Mr. Robertson, former supreme court judge. He's the constitutional guy, but then it's got a Mr. Kempton (phonetic), who is a trial order from Sedalia, and so lawyers bring different strengths and it's very natural to pair people together like this.

MR. PHILLIPS: That wasn't a setup question. It was a curious question on my part, and it was a great answer.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Ms. Luetkemeyer, are you prepared to answer the question when Mr. Greitens will testify?

MS. LUETKEMEYER: No, I'm not for the same reason (inaudible).

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Mitten.

MS. MITTEN: I'd like to inquire.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Proceed.

MS. MITTEN: Thank you. Sorry. All right. Good morning, gentlemen. The first question I just wanted to make sure I'm understanding your previous testimony.

So, Mr. Garber, you have recently submitted a bill to the Office of the Governor?

MR. GARBER: Yeah. I believe my office has submitted a bill.

MS. MITTEN: And I understand how -- how that -- that works. Is -- is it not your practice to bill monthly.

MR. GARBER: It is my practice to submit bills monthly.

MS. MITTEN: Is there some reason why you haven't submitted a bill when it's now May given that your representation, we know, started at least in March.

MR. GARBER: I think the way -- I think that the way it worked, although, I am less involved in the billing than I think my partners would like is I think the way it works is for time billed in March, I'm supposed to get a bill out by the end of April. I think that's probably what happened.

MS. MITTEN: Okay.

MR. GARBER: So either the end of April, first part of May.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. And -- and you can't remember if you represented the office in February?

MR. GARBER: I -- I honestly can't.

MS. MITTEN: Okay.

MR. GARBER: Yeah.

MS. MITTEN: And, Mr. Greim, sort of the same question to you. I guess you're saying that your representation only started in the last couple of weeks?

MR. GREIM: That's right.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. So, I mean, and I'm assuming that you do bill monthly and, perhaps, you're more involved -- involved to a level that your partners are more appreciative.

MR. GREIM: Well, I -- I will say this. I may bill more often than monthly in this matter, but I don't have a bill out yet.

MS. MITTEN: I -- I understand. Again, let's start first with Mr. Garber. You indicated or at least there was certainly a discussion about a meeting that I was unable -- excuse me, a meeting in Jefferson City that I was unable to attend earlier and you couldn't remember whether or not you drove in with Mr. Dowd. Is it safe to assume that you and Mr. Dowd speak frequently regarding, you know, in conjunction with your representation of the Office of the Governor?

MR. GARBER: I don't know what frequently is but not -- not -- not infrequently. Maybe, you know, once every -- it -- it depends on the week. Once every week, two weeks. It just depends, which is not -- I will tell you, members of the committee, it is not unusual -- I've now done this several times, and one of the things that I always insist on in any jurisdiction I operate in is that the Office of the Governor and the Governor officially have counsel because certainly there are institutional issues at stake for the Office of the Governor, but then there are issues at stake for a Governor personally, and sometimes those issues overlap and sometimes they are -- they're different, and so one of the things we work on is coordinating whose issue it is. Yeah.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. And, Mr. Greim, I'm -- again, are you -- have you had conversations with Mr. Dowd?

MR. GREIM: No, I haven't.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. Mr. Greim, have you had discussions with anyone else with the Dowd -- associated with the Dowd Bennett firm in connection with this representation?

MR. GREIM: No, I have not.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. And, Mr. Garber, the same, have you had discussions with anyone else at Dowd Bennett in conjunction with this representation?

MR. GARBER: Yes. Yeah, yeah.

MS. MITTEN: And who were those people?

MR. GARBER: I think I spoke once with Mr. Bennett, and then there's -- there's a Jim Martins there.

MS. MITTEN: Uh-huh. Okay. And going back to your discussions that are -- apparently not infrequent discussions with Mr. Dowd, do you discuss strategy during those discussions?

MR. GARBER: So obviously that is subject to privilege, but one of the things we -- we do try to do is make sure that who's ever issue it is, is handling it and that, you know, the personal side is handling the personal side, and the official side is handling the official side.

MS. MITTEN: So is it a fair assessment that you're -- by virtue of these discussions with Mr. Dowd or other members of the Dowd Bennett Law Firm that you are then participating in discussions about the Governor's personal legal issues?

MR. GARBER: No. None of those -- so, again, the focus is on making sure that, that the Governor's office and the Governor's office counsel is focused on just the Governor's official issues.

MS. MITTEN: But wouldn't you have to represent which bucket, so to speak, those -- or which person is going to be assigned to which bucket?

MR. GARBER: We try to figure that out in advance and -- and segregate it.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. So with whom do you consult to figure that out in advance?

MR. GARBER: It -- it would be somebody from the Dowd Bennett Firm.

MS. MITTEN: So you're figuring out that -- well, I'll just leave it at that. Have you had any discussions with Catherine Hanaway or anyone affiliated with her law firm in conjunction with this representation?

MR. GARBER: Have I?

MS. MITTEN: Yes.

MR. GARBER: I have occasionally.

MS. MITTEN: And when were those discussions?

MR. GARBER: I can't remember.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. What was the substance of those discussions?

MR. GARBER: Again, that would be subject to the privilege, but I -- I do have to say, we asked the committee through the Chairman and its counsel what we were going to be discussing today, and we were told it was processes and procedure. It was on that basis that I was here. And -- and, again, I appreciate very much the chance to talk to the committee about these things. I will say that in all of the jurisdictions I've appeared in, and I know members of the committee are -- are lawyers that, I'm sure, practice in other jurisdictions. This discussion, this colloquy question is -- is, I think, in my experience, unprecedented, and it's not because I'm concerned about the subject matter, it's because we asked about what we were going to be talking about and --

MS. MITTEN: Well, and I appreciate that, sir --

MR. GARBER: -- what was going on --

MS. MITTEN: I appreciate that, but I also think that given you guys are both paid with taxpayer dollars and I think that as in conjunction with our process in moving forward that it's important that all of us understand the expense of your representation.

So could you tell me the substance of your discussions with Catherine Hanaway in conjunction with this representation?

MR. GARBER: Oh. I'm sorry again. So the substance --

MS. MITTEN: Uh-huh.

MR. GARBER: -- again, is -- is subject to the -- the privilege.

MS. MITTEN: Does -- are you -- who did Ms. Hanaway indicate to you she was representing?

MR. GARBER: I understand that she represents -- I believe it's the campaign.

MS. MITTEN: Okay.

MR. GARBER: So, again, what we're trying to do for --

MS. MITTEN: Could you explain to me why it is that somebody that is being paid for with taxpayer dollars is having discussions with somebody -- with an attorney that represents a campaign?

MR. GARBER: Yes. Certainly. So -- so right now this committee is embarking on and has been involved in a historic process of investigating a Governor, a sitting Governor, and that implicates very significant issues, the separation of powers, balance of powers, significant constitutional issues. An Office of the Governor operates through an individual. It's unusual and --

MS. MITTEN: I think we all understand that, yeah.

MR. GARBER: Well -- but that -- that answers -- that, that is going to answer your question. It's unusual in that way. So a -- a legislature, as you know, operates through -- the legislative branch operates through a lot of legislature. The judicial branch operates through lots of judges. The Governor, there's one Governor. The President, there's one President. And so as a result, it -- it winds up getting complicated because there are separation and balance of powers issues at stake that affect the Governor in his official capacity and the Office of the Governor and then there are issues that affect the Governor personally and then there are issues that affect the Governor as a candidate, and so one of the things we try to do is make sure we understand whose bucket something is in and the extent to which this committee's work or the legislature's work affect things in all of those buckets.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. Do you remember when you've had discussions with Catherine Hanaway or anyone affiliated with her -- her firm regarding your representation?

MR. GARBER: Sitting here today, I -- I do not.

MS. MITTEN: And did you discuss strategy -- excuse me -- with Ms. Hanaway or other representatives of her firm in conjunction with your representation of the Office of the Governor?

MR. GARBER: I will discuss strategy with anybody, but my strategy is to actually have an open, fair, honest process. That is -- that is why I'm sitting here today. If anybody on this committee wants to have that strategic discussion with me, I am happy to have it.

MS. MITTEN: Fair enough.
MR. GARBER: And I'm sure I have had it -- I'm sure. I think I've probably had it with Ms. Hanaway. I've probably had it with Mr. Dowd. I'll have that discussion with anyone.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: May I interject?
MS. MITTEN: Absolutely, Mr. Chairman.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: So is it fair to say you're all working together.
MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, I -- I don't know what that means. I'm representing the Office of the Governor.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, you're talking to Ms. Hanaway. You're talking to Mr. Dowd, and you guys are trying to figure out what's going on with what.
MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, as you know --
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Let me -- let me explain why I'm asking.
MR. GARBER: Yeah. Sure.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: And it relates to process.
MS. MITTEN: Yep.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: To whom do we speak? Who is our point of contact for the committee? Is it

Mr. Greim? Is it Mr. Garber? Is it Mr. Dowd? Is it Mr. Bennett? Is it Mr. Rosenblum? Is it Ms. Hanaway? This -- this relates to process, guys. And tell me how you're working with them? How do we -- do you CC every time we want to contact any? We just do a CC to everyone?

MR. GREIM: Chairman Barnes, I've had this discussion with your counsel, who isn't here today, and I'll just -- I'll say this. If you want to talk to the Office of the Governor, there are two attorneys. I've entered an appearance with you, with this committee, and I've said on any matter regarding the subpoena that you sent to us, the fact that your committee directed to me only two hours after I had called the speaker to let him know I was working on this, on any of those matters and on any matters about the process of this committee that -- that I was the person to speak with, and Mr. Garber is along with me on that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But you're the point of contact, not Mr. Dowd?

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I -- I've never once -- I don't -- perhaps, you have some experience from months ago, but I think you well know, Mr. Chairman, that I'm the point of contact for communications with the Office of the Governor. For the Governor in his personal capacity, on evidence that the Governor may have or things like that, Mr. Dowd would be the point of contact. There might be some matters when we both have to be involved, but we're just trying to get off the ground here with the rules that we're suggesting for this committee. For Ms. Hanaway, it's for her clients. She's told you, I think, who her clients are. And I'm not sure who all the counsel are for other witnesses you've subpoenaed.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And it relates to that process and how we move forward knowing who -- with whom we need to speak and whether an e-mail to you or a notice to you is sufficient for a notice to Mr. Dowd or --

MR. GREIM: I -- Chairman Barnes, lawyers know how to communicate with each other and we know that when someone enters an appearance, that that's the person we speak with. Respectfully, I don't think there can be any confusion about who represents who here. And, you know, usually a phone call or a letter or an e-mail are how those things are handled.

Sworn questions under oath, respectfully, seem like a bizarre and unprecedented way to cover the preliminaries that really could have been covered over the last week. We -- we came --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, it is not unprecedented.

MR. GREIM: We requested, Chairman Barnes, the opportunity to come and explain our process that we're proposing and the process is rules. It's what happens in the hearing themselves. And we were told to come and do it, that you'd make yourselves available. Instead, there are series of questions that I -- and respectfully, I think you know the answer to them.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, Mr. Greim, to be fair, we've -- we've -- we have received some answers and we've received some I don't knows.

Representative Mitten, do you have any further questions?

MS. MITTEN: Yes, if I may.

Have either of you had discussions with other consultants or other consultants to the Governor in conjunction with your representation of the Office of the Governor, folks that are not paid for on the taxpayer dime?

MR. GARBER: Ms. Mitten, I think at this point -- I think we've gone very far afield of why we were told we were going to be here. I'm happy to answer questions about policies and procedures. Mr. Greim and I are here on behalf of the Office of the Governor, the executive branch of government. We appreciate the opportunity to have this discussion with the legislative, a co-equal branch of government, but the notion of being brought here to talk about one thing and peppered with questions about another, I will tell you is unprecedented in my experience in any jurisdiction. I would like to have a thoughtful, thorough discussion about this being the first time a Governor of Missouri is potentially going to be subject to an impeachment process. We've now been sitting here for -- I don't know -- a half an hour talking about all of these other issues when, respectfully, this committee is about to embark on an historic process and --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, to be fair, I think we've asked some pretty simple questions and I -- you will have all the opportunity you need -- we'll get to that process. Are you refusing to answer the representative's questions?

MR. GARBER: What I'm doing is saying that if this committee wants to talk about that, then let's -- and it's one of the concerns about --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, I'm not even sure --

MR. GARBER: It's one of the concerns --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Excuse me, Mr. Garber. Mr. Garber, I will give you an opportunity to speak. Are you refusing to answer Representative Mitten's question?

MR. GARBER: I'm not refusing to answer any questions, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Hold on. Mr. Garber, you will have all the opportunity you want to speak. Committee members and the House get to ask questions, and they are simple questions. I don't even remember what your question was, Representative, but if you want to ask it again since Mr. Garber stated he would not refuse to answer it, go ahead and ask it.

MR. GARBER: Let me be clear.

MS. MITTEN: Well, first of all, Mr. Garber, with all due respect, I do believe that the people you have spoken and consulted with prior to coming to giving us this presentation could very well go into the information that you wish to present to us, and I certainly think that it's wholly within our business to understand what may have gone into what it is that you wish to say to us.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative, let's try to avoid both sides --

MS. MITTEN: Thank you. I'll repeat my question, which is --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I know I'm trying to --

MS. MITTEN: I'll repeat my question.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Repeat your question.

MS. MITTEN: Have you had any discussions with anyone that consults to the Governor, who is not paid for with taxpayer dollars?

MR. GARBER: And now that --

MS. MITTEN: Outside of the attorneys that we've already spoken about, any outside consultants?

MR. GARBER: Now that I know that is something that the committee wants to address, which I found out for the first time just now, I will take that -- all of those issues under advisement and get back to the committee.

MS. MITTEN: Mr. Greim, the same question to you.

MR. GREIM: And I'll have the same answer, Representative Mitten.

MS. MITTEN: Have you had any discussions with Ms. Hanaway?

MR. GREIM: Yes. I have actually. I've had a discussion over the last week of -- to understand -- I learned that there was a subpoena, and I just wanted to understand the timetable and what was going to be produced, and so I learned that information, and I think documents were produced on Friday.

MS. MITTEN: Thank you very much. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Thank you. Just to -- maybe we can do a little clarification, because you mentioned a couple of phrases, official capacity and personal capacity. Could you maybe explain to the committee and those here in attendance what you believe to be the definitions or what Missouri laws regarding official capacity versus personal capacity.

MR. GREIM: Personal capacity pertains to the officeholder himself and his ability to mount a defense, that -- the defense he actually mounts. The official capacity is the office itself, and so this comes up in the law many times. It's just not a question in Missouri law.

But, for example, if -- if an officer of the state is sued under Section 1983 -- federal civil rights' statute, you may sue that official in their individual or in their official capacity. Against the officer in their official capacity is the kind of suit you bring for injunctive relief, and in that case, you will have usually someone paid by the state, by the taxpayers, to defend the actions of that person. If they leave office, then usually the next person who comes in is substituted as a party because you're trying to enjoin the state. Individual capacities, when you sue for money damages -- and I bet -- I bet Chairman Barnes has done this before. Although, I don't -- I haven't kept up on your private practice, but I bet you've done some civil rights or some suits like this, and -- and so usually in that case a private attorney represents the person, the officeholder, not always, and sometimes the state will indemnify that person but not always. And so think of it this way: Think of it as the individual has some personal interest in maintaining their office. That's sort of personal capacity. Official capacity is the Office of the Governor and what's happening to it now and from here on out. So if this -- if what happens here diminishes that office permanently, if it sets new standards, if it deals with the power of the executive branch versus legislative branch, now we're in the heartland of official capacity.

That's the best I can do. There is no statute with the definition.

MR. AUSTIN: Well, thank you. I appreciate that. So you touched upon one thing that -- that struck me. So if somebody, entity or person, in the state is complaining of alleged wrongdoing of the Office of the Governor, we're talking about the official duties and obligations that the person that, at that time, holds that office of; is that correct? Feel free to correct me if I'm wrong. I mean --

MR. GREIM: Sure. I -- they -- they may or may not. I mean, I think that what our impeachment provisions in the constitution have in mind is what they do in office, but remember, that you can have a sort of personal capacity interest in defending yourself even when you're acting in your official capacity as the Governor.

MR. AUSTIN: And it -- it might attempt to help clarify some things. You know, this committee has been charged in investigating reports and all allegations against the Governor and -- you know, one area has been regarding witness one or what the Court has referred to as K.S. So I guess the allegations involving witness one, how would that pertain to Governor Greitens in his official capacity?

MR. GREIM: Well, it -- it does precisely because it's been made a matter, seemingly, although, I think there's some murkiness what we understand the committee is doing, but it's made a matter between the executive and legislative branch when it becomes a matter of impeachment. And so when someone says that the (inaudible) holder has to --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, I think it's below you because I've been in that same spot. There's a little wire -- just -- because it's happened a couple of times. I don't --

MR. GREIM: My feet aren't kicking around down there. But, yeah -- Mr. Garber.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm sorry. I want you to be aware because I've been in that spot where it keeps doing that.

MR. GREIM: No, it's okay.

But I guess the quick answer is, you know, even in a -- even in the civil rights context, which isn't exactly what we have here. I -- I know that. You know, what -- what -- the conduct of an individual that might make them personally liable could also be used to get injunctive relief against the state, and so -- same thing here. It could be action from before the Governor was in office, but as soon as somebody says that's a sufficient reason to remove the Governor from office. Now it's an executive branch issue. It still is a personal issue because the Governor might want to say or have witnesses that can say, this is what happened, this is what didn't happen. All the Governor is going to say, wait a second, this is not what the constitution provides, you can't use this conduct. And if it does become this way, now the Office of the Governor has been diminished to that degree for all future holders of the office.

MR. AUSTIN: We've talked -- there's been questions and answers referring to a bucket. You know, there's a bucket for personal capacity and a bucket for professional capacity, but it sounds like you may be saying that maybe some of these items can fit in either bucket.

MR. GREIM: Well, as I told Mr. Robertson a few days ago, it's sort of like a Venn diagram, which you can make those on the Internet. Now you can make your little diagram. There are things over in one circle -- maybe circles are better. One circle that's personal capacity. Another circle is official capacity. And based on the facts of the case and -- and the arguments and positions that the committee takes, you know, those circles are either closer together or further apart. That space in the middle will change sort of depending on the facts of the case and -- and there might be matters where what turns out to be the cases that the outer sides of each circle are pretty slim, but there might be other matters where it's mainly, you know, the outside circle is bigger, and the part in the middle is very small.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay. So to continue with the diagram -- I mean, no. That's all right. When I said earlier can fit in either the personal bucket or the official capacity bucket, I guess what I was referring to that was both and you're saying each circle may be close, but it can't be both.

MR. GREIM: Well, I think I was saying actually that, you know, in the event, these diagram circles come together; right? And so -- and I, frankly, have kind of forgotten -- I'm not sure if you gave me an example specifically -- oh, we're talking about the K.S.

MR. AUSTIN: K.S., and we can extend it to the mission continues issues or the ethics reports to the MEC (phonetic), I mean --

MR. GREIM: Sure. No, I mean -- I think it depends on the specific questions then about K.S., and so without really having all of the facts and -- you know, without having marked down the -- you know, into a real life scenario where someone's testifying and, you know, there's cross-examination or a witness comes in, it's kind of hard to tell you in the abstract, but I think -- I think what I've said about things that relate to the office itself, that if they come to pass are going to forever color impeachment in our constitution. That is fairly within the circle that's official capacity, but there may come a point where you cross outside the circle and you're fully over on the personal capacity side.

MR. AUSTIN: And alleged wrongdoing regarding the Office of the Governor, that continues to exist no matter -- even if the present Governor leaves office and we get a new Governor in there; am I --

MR. GREIM: I -- I would say this. And I bet Mr. Garber -- not to -- but, you know, he deals with this exact issue over and over again, but as a litigator who covers these issues and other context here's what I'll say. Any questions about what's covered or not covered by impeachment, for example, I mean, that's interpreting the Missouri Constitution about what this legislative check on the executive branch and on the judicial branch what it looks like and what it covers, so that's -- that's precedent setting. That's an Office of the Governor. The individual facts of what happened in one of these matters, that looks a lot more like a personal capacity issue because, obviously, the facts will be different next time.

MR. AUSTIN: I mean, the office of the -- the Governor will continue on, no matter what happens here. So if we have a problem or -- or a complaint it may become moot because the present Governor may leave, but if not, if the new Governor comes in, we still have an issue that's alive because our complaint is against the office of Governor, if it's an official capacity situation.

MR. GREIM: Okay. Here -- now I understand a little better. If precedent is set here, that, for example, we don't allow due process, fair open hearings and -- and search for truth at this stage, let's say that that becomes the -- the new rule. It doesn't matter whether the conduct was in someone's official capacity or not. That's going to be the new rule that's going to apply to the Governor -- the next Governor that comes in, if's there's impeachment. That's going the apply to judges. That's going to apply to anybody else subject to impeachment. So I would -- I would think about it in terms of precedence being set rather than, you know, the capacity in which the actor was acting in the conduct that we're investigating. It's really about, what does this mean for future impeachment. So think about standards and think about rules of proceeding that we came here to discuss today.

MR. AUSTIN: If I have some follow ups, I'm sure the Chair, will give me leave, but thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Lauer.

MS. LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

Good morning. I wanted to ask, what is the scope of your services have been found to be at this point?

MR. GREIM: You can --

MR. GARBER: It is to the represent the Governor and the officer of the governor in his official capacity with respect to the Houses' work and investigation in this matter.

MS. LAUER: Okay. So once this committee ends, then your service ends?

MR. GARBER: Once the House investigation process ends, then -- then, yes, I assume my services end.

MS. LAUER: Okay. And to your -- since (inaudible) pretty specific event --

MR. GARBER: Yeah.
MS. LAUER: -- (inaudible) is given that their outlined of such (inaudible) sort of outlined, what was your discussion (inaudible) your services were needed to work with the House or (inaudible) in a situation?
MR. GARBER: Well, I think it's probably just because that's -- that's the precedence for how these things work. In other words, as Mr. Greim was pointing out, when -- when there's an legislative investigation of a sitting Governor, there are personal issues, which we don't care about, but then there are official capacity issues that involve the Office of the Governor and the executive branch, so -- so that's sort of how it's defined.
MS. LAUER: What is your understanding of (inaudible).
MR. GARBER: I think let's -- let's -- I think let's get to that because we're going -- you're going to have a full presentation. I think that goes to the full presentation, that particular question.
MS. LAUER: Oh, I'm sorry. Chair, I'll hold off on that, on any other questions.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Representative Rhoads.
MR. RHOADS: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Just to inquire for a minute.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Proceed.

MR. RHOADS: You touched on something that I need a little clarification on, Mr. Greim, that dealt with official capacity and personal and -- and I think that -- and I think maybe Mr. Garber be able to answer it if he's had some experience with things like this. And you were talking about how in a personal capacity something happened and impeachment based upon that versus what's happened in an official capacity and I guess we'll start with Mr. Garber. I don't know what your experience is dealing with that, but maybe, do you have an example, a generic example, of possibly that kind of situation?

MR. GARBER: Meaning how you divide it up?

MR. RHOADS: Well, no. I mean, have you seen -- well, let's back up. Have you seen a situation, which I probably know the answer to this question but like what we've had right now with -- with the -- with our current situation with the Governor.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And by current -- by current situation --

MR. RHOADS: This all happened before he was in office.

MR. GARBER: That's a good question. I -- I -- I'm not sure, but often there are issues in investigation -- in legislative investigations where there is conduct that is not completely official that, that is at issue. Sitting here today it is unusual for a legislative body to investigate matters that occurred, you know, purely before the official was elected in a personal capacity.

MR. RHOADS: Sure.

MR. GARBER: Yeah.

MR. RHOADS: Okay. I suppose the less questions we ask, the quicker they'll get into their presentation, so.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Thank you gentleman. We've got one more, Representative Pierson.

MR. PIERSON: To inquire, Mr. Chair.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Proceed.

MR. PIERSON: Thank you.

Good morning. Gentlemen, thank you for being here and -- you know, I was going to say thank you for the 50 percent discount on your rate. I hope that continues. You -- you're in the business of representing people and -- and different clients and so I wanted to get an understanding of, perhaps, some -- some folks or some entities that, perhaps, you've represented in the past to give us an understanding of kind of what you bring to us today. So -- so I would like the -- the both of you, if you could, to kind of answer these questions based upon this -- this kind of list that, that I present to you as it relates to, have you ever represented -- so have you ever represented Greitens for Missouri?

MR. GREIM: No.

MR. GARBER: No, I have not.

MR. RHOADS: Thank you.

Have you ever represented New Missouri, Inc.?

MR. GREIM: No.

MR. RHOADS: Have you ever represented a committee for a New Missouri or Missouri?

MR. GREIM: I have to say on that question, it's possible that my firm has. We may have done it, but I -- but don't quote me on that. I -- I would have to run a search on our -- on our system. I -- so I hesitate on that, but I'm not actually aware of any engagement like that.

MR. PIERSON: So is that something that you can get back with the committee on?

MR. GREIM: I -- I could do that. The only caution I have is that the fact of our representation for specific clients could be submitted, if that client wants to remain confidential, so I put an asterisk for that reason, but I don't even know if we've represented that entity. I think -- I think if we have, I think the process would be check with the entity and see whether they object to -- to disclosure of that.

MR. PIERSON: And that's something that you don't mind engaging in?

MR. GREIM: Sure. We don't mind doing that, Representative.

MR. PIERSON: Thank you. Thank you.

Have you ever represented LG Pack?

MR. GREIM: These are all going to be harder for me because at least it's possible that we did. Again, I don't have knowledge that we did. But it's possible. If we did, it was not -- it was not me. It would have been another member of my firm.

MR. PIERSON: Okay. And so I guess the same -- this follow up would be, if that's something that you could find out, that would be -- that would be appreciated.

Have you ever represented Jeff Rowe?

MR. GREIM: I think at this point, I -- first of all, we have -- our law firm has represented

Jeff Rowe. But if we go down -- I -- I really am not prepared to go down my client list here today of -- I don't really see how that's germane to our -- even if we want to investigate our payment of taxpayers, but I can say that we have represented Jeff Rowe in the past.

MR. PIERSON: Okay. Thank you. And just a couple more.

What about Axium Strategies?

MR. GREIM: On that matter, I can say -- I'm very certain that there are matters in which we've represented Axium Strategies. I will say we don't represent Axium Strategies on anything involving what this committee is reviewing, but I will say that we have represented Axium Strategies in the past.

MR. PIERSON: Okay. Mr. Garber.

MR. GARBER: No. And -- and certainly not to the best of my knowledge.

MR. PIERSON: Very good. What about the Missouri Republican party?

MR. GREIM: I think as the representative knows one of my lawyer partners is the chair of the party. However, the counsel for the party is Lowell Pearson and Harvey Tettlebaum of the Husch Blackwell Law Firm. I actually did not believe we have represented the Missouri Republican party, but I -- I would have to check on that. I'm aware of no current engagement with the party.

MR. PIERSON: And -- and just for completeness, what about the Missouri Democratic party?

MR. GREIM: Well, I -- I am pausing here because I represented the General Assembly in defending its redistricting maps in 2011, and it's been seven years, and I cannot remember whether we represented the Democratic party in that. I would have to go back and check, but certainly that map was drawn and approved by both Republican and Democrat legislatures.

MR. PIERSON: Very good. Yes, Mr. Garber.

MR. GARBER: Again, no, and certainly not to the best of my knowledge.

MR. PIERSON: Very good. Very good. Well, thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And I want to clarify, regarding New Missouri, is your firm representing New Missouri, Mr. Greim?

MR. GREIM: No. I -- I think a New Missouri -- I think I'm aware that it is distinct from a new -- a committee for a New Missouri and I guess my answer is the same on that one. I -- I believe the answer is no. I think the answer is no, but I -- I really would have to check, and I will -- I will say this: We did not represent the New Missouri -- a New Missouri now, and I think that's -- frankly, I think that's the relevant question for this committee, so I can tell you for sure we don't represent New Missouri now. I can't tell you whether we've represented it at some point in the past.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So it's existed for about a year; right?

MR. GREIM: Well, you know the committee is investigating it and knows whether --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: If it would be -- it wouldn't have been you. You personally have not; is that -- is that --

MR. GREIM: Definitely. I personally have not.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: It may very well have been a partner. If -- if it happened, it was a partner is what you're --

MR. GREIM: That's right. Yeah. I mean, only a partner can represent a -- you know, that brings a -- represents a client is in charge of a matter, and I'm the only partner in our firm working on this matter.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. We've been through all seven. If you want to take a quick break, we can do that or we can jump right in. I'll leave it up to you. And let me tell you, we'll give you plenty of time, and so it's just up to you whether you want to take a quick break and come back or whether you want to just barge right in.

MR. GREIM: Yeah. We'll just roll right through. I will -- I've been drinking --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You've been drinking copious amounts of water, I've noticed. So if you need to take a break at any moment, Mr. Greim.

MR. GREIM: I do that. I drink a lot of water and coffee in the morning. But I'm -- I'm good to go, and let's just forge ahead. So thank you, Mr. Chairman.

With that, do we have leave to go ahead?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: You have leave to go ahead, but we're going to treat it like a legislative committee hearing, not -- and I think -- as a lawyer, every time I've been in front of an appellate court, I don't want to be up there reading a brief anyway, so, say, out the outset, we share a common desire to have an open and fair process, and we want to give you the full opportunity to do this, and I do want to apprise you, if members have questions in the middle of your presentation, I'm going to call on them.

MR. GREIM: Fair enough. I think we'll get -- I think that's probably a fair way to go. So I'll -- I'll jump off and be ready. I'll be scanning for questions that you'll recognize, Mr. Chairman.

I'll just start off. On Friday I -- as you know, I wrote the committee through the Chairman to request four simple elements that we believe will satisfy due process at this early stage. I'll explain them in more detail momentarily. The key point for now is that those four elements are a far cry from the full protections afforded to a criminal defendant or even a civil litigant or a participant in an administrative proceeding. If these are all that would be allowed at trial, the four things that we're asking for, our legal system could not function. They fall far short of what would be allowed at trial, but they're just enough for hearings in the House. Their carefully tailored to allow each member of this House to be able to face his or her constituents to satisfy his or her conscience and to satisfy his or her constitutional duty to ensure that the facts justify a vote to impeach and thereby negate the results of a recent election. This is a weighted task, members of the committee.

Since the founding of our country, only 15 governors have been impeached and only eight have been removed. Only two have been removed in the United States since World War II. Of course, as we all know, this would be the first Governor in Missouri history. So it's truly a rare event and in American history, despite the political storms that have raged since we became a state, and that was only due to a shaky political compromise.

So the facts, Mr. Chairman, must truly be extraordinary, and we will submit that unless impeachments are to be meted out each legislative session to Missouri judges and other officeholders based on the same standards as, for example, indictments a greater degree of process and certainty should be required. Otherwise, we will do severe violence to the careful separation of powers we have maintained since 1821.

So the basic question I want to ask now and I'll end with is this: If the purpose of this House proceeding is to satisfy each member that he or she has the truth and if the facts justify removing the Governor from office, why would we adopt anything less than an open, fair proceeding targeted to find the facts?

Based on what we know over the last week or so and comments that have been made to legislatures, I think there are two choices that have emerged, and the question -- one way to think about this is to decide which of these two choices do we want, and I think the law answers that question. The first choice is to consider the type of proceeding that would be happening in the House, including what is it at stake for the person at issue and for the executive branch of Missouri government, and then assign to that proceeding whatever procedures will bring us to the truth in a fair open way that can be reported by the press and understood by the public. The second choice is a simply treat impeachment as a -- as a quick review to decide whether there's sufficient reason to have the Senate's appointees grapple with the mess of the facts of the law. It treats due process, the second choice, as an on/off switch. Due process fairness in the request for truth doesn't apply to the impeachment decision. The judges can handle all of that later.

So which is correct? Let's turn to the first choice.

The law, Mr. Chairman, is that due process does apply in accusatory proceedings. You review a series of factors to decide then just what that -- just what process is due. So it's a two-step process.

The Supreme Court case of Jenkins versus McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411 from 1969 explains that due process is not like an on/off switch.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I'm sorry, Mr. Greim. What year was that?

MR. GREIM: 1969.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Go ahead. Sorry.

MR. GREIM: So long as there will eventually be a trial, the thinking could go, we can avoid fairness, openness and the request for truth treating the proceeding like an accuser's private playpen.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, what was the context of that case? What was the case name again?

MR. GREIM: Sure. Jenkins versus McKeithen.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And.

MR. GREIM: That case arose in Louisiana. It's obviously a U.S. Supreme Court case. And the question there was whether a proceeding that was held in Louisiana by a special commission that had been established by statute was sufficiently accusatory that some due process should apply.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Who was the respondent in that case? I don't mean in the supreme court. I mean --

MR. GREIM: Sure. Sure.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- the party that was in front of the special commission? What was their interest?

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I -- of course, I haven't committed it to memory. I try to have a copy of the case here with me, and I see that I don't. So I don't -- I don't trust my memory. Obviously, I can just -- I can just supplement this in a letter to you, but I believe it was a commission that covered a particular industry. May have been gambling, but here -- here's the key point. Not what the industry was or who the respondent was, it was, the end result of this hearing was simply to accuse a person of having violated the law. No other sanction arose other than the public accusation, and so, perhaps, those who have the Internet can pull it up.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I've pulled it up. It's a labor and industrial relations commission.

MR. GREIM: Right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The respondent was a member of a labor union.

MR. GREIM: Oh, yeah. Yeah. Thank you.

So you'll see that that is the case that established this category of proceedings called accusatory and what it holds is that due process is required in accusatory proceedings. What the due process is that's required, though, you know, is judged on a case-by-case basis.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, let me slow you down, Mr. Greim. There's a case -- a Missouri case. It's Copeland versus City of Union. Are you aware of this case from 2016?

MR. GREIM: If -- if you can tell me more about it, Your -- Mr. Chairman, I probably could.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: What it says, in Taylor versus Beckham 178 U.S. 548, the Supreme Court wrote, public offices are mere agencies of trust and not property as such. Later in Snowden versus Hughes, the Supreme Court held that an unlawful denial of state action of a right to state political office is not a denial of a right of property or liberty secured by the due process clause. Later, it says, plaintiff cannot contend and the plaintiff in this case was an officeholder -- he was the city collector in Franklin County, and the board of aldermen passed an ordinance authorizing the mayor to enter into an agreement with Franklin County by which the county would collect the property taxes on behalf of the city, so that -- so he -- so his spot was in trouble; right?

MR. GREIM: Uh-huh.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: The court says in this case, plaintiff cannot contend that Missouri law -- and it's from Eastern District of Missouri, Federal Court. The plaintiff cannot contend that Missouri law conferred upon a property interest in the city collector's position. The Missouri Supreme Court has held that elected officeholders have no contractual or vested right to a particular office, and there's a case citation. Specifically -- and here's a direct quote: Public officers are created solely to meet the needs of the public and the incumbent has no contractual or vested right to the office.

Now we're going to have a fair and open process, and we want that, but when you're invoking due process -- official due process rights and it seems to me that there's a case pretty close to -- directly on point regarding an officeholder and stating that due process rights don't attach to the officeholder.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Right. And I'll let you distinguish -- go ahead.

MR. GREIM: Yeah. I mean, I don't think the case -- I mean, I think the -- distinguishing even is a strong word because there's -- we have a line of authority and it's come up in challenges to changes to the Missouri court plan also that says that officeholders don't have a due process right to hold the office, but here's the problem: The Supreme Court precedent that finds due process arising from an accusatory proceeding is based precisely on the accusation of misconduct, and so the question there is not the property interest in someone's right to hold office. The question is, the right to due process as part of accusatory proceeding, and so --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But -- but hold on. Because if the -- if the result of -- and, again, the committee -- we're not there yet, but you're talking about due process with an impeachment proceeding. If the result of potential impeachment is only removal of office, you agree there's no criminal consequence; correct?

MR. GREIM: Well, the point is, is it's not whether there's a criminal consequence. It's whether the accusation is made.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Is there a civil consequence?

MR. GREIM: Well, actually one question that we have for -- that we'll have for the committee is, there's been suggestion that there could be suspension as a result of impeachment, and so, frankly, there could be immediate results or an attempt to go to the tribunal that would be appointed to try to achieve suspension.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That relates solely to the holding of the office; correct?

MR. GREIM: It does.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. It's solely holding on the office. It's not to personal civil liability. It's not personal criminal liability; correct?

MR. GREIM: That's true, but what we're missing in all of this is there's two components that are critical. One is due process not just for the sake of the person being accused, but this is not a private person who's being investigated by the House. This is the chief executive, and so the second area of interest we have to consider, that I was going to get to later, but let's cover it now is the separation of powers and the interest of the executive branch in not having impeachment be meted out, you know, merely based on, you know, secret proceedings in which both sides of the evidence are presented, at least in the sort of format that falls short of a trial that we're asking for here.

And so it can happen too quickly and too easily, if people are able to just say, well, there's at least something here, I don't -- I'm not sure I know the facts, but there's something here, we'll let the Senate appointees or the Supreme Court handle it, that right there -- if that were actually the standard being applied, would lead to far more impeachments and at that point -- and, again, judges are implicated by that and other people in the executive -- the chief executive are implicated by that. So that's not really a due process issue at that point. That's a separation of powers. That's a balance of powers issue, and we're now changing the -- you know, the strengths of each branch of government under the Missouri Constitution if it happens that quickly.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So -- so let me slow you down here because Mr. Garber said something earlier that -- you know, I agree with at least as far -- let me find where I -- Mr. Garber said his interest is insuring that the Office of the Governor is not diminished at all for future officeholders. Do you remember him saying that? You understand that here as a House committee that we represent a separate and co-equal branch of government; right?

MR. GREIM: That's the entire point of the process.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And, Mr. Garber, both of you, would understand that the House should also take the position that it ought not act in a way that diminishes the constitutional obligations and authorities of this separate and co-equal branch of government. Would you grant that to the House?

MR. GREIM: I would -- I would obviously grant that to the House, but the House does not diminish -- does not diminish its power by trying to seek the truth. In fact, it enhances its power and stature to actually serve a roll in trying to find the answer rather than just kicking it over to the Missouri Supreme Court or in this case, the seven appointees.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And you've done a very good job there of restate the question. That's not what the question is, because this committee from the start has been out to get the truth, and we want to hear from every witness who has any knowledge of facts. We want to hear from Governor Greitens. We're begging to hear from Governor Greitens, and it's really hard to listen to you say that about this process knowing that Mr. Greitens has refused multiple pleadings for him to come and testify before us.

So the question isn't whether the process is going to be fair. It's going to be -- it's who's going to be in charge of that process? Where in the Constitution can you site authority for the legislature handing over subpoena power to the executive branch?

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, respectfully, there's not a -- a single -- no one's made a proposal to hand over the subpoena power to the executive branch. We have asked -- what we're asking the House to do is to implement its own rules just like every other state that has addressed this issue. Missouri would be an out liar, but to put in its own rules that the accused here -- that the Governor would actually be able to ask for subpoenas to be issued to bring in witnesses that he wants to produce.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: So let's -- I think we can have some agreement on that, because this committee to date, Mr. Dowd contacted us and asked us to call one witness. That was Mr. Jack Nians (phonetic). Do you know what the committee did? We immediately called Jack Nians as a witness, and to the extent that your side is going to request witnesses, we are by and large going to call them. Now I'm not going to give you a blank check on calling any and all witnesses, but we are going to call witnesses that are relevant and we've, in fact, already done that. As it relates to cross-examination -- you guys said something earlier that bothers -- it's a little bit bothersome. Let me -- I want to show this to you. You guys know this isn't the first proceeding relating to this in Missouri; right?

MR. GREIM: We do.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Can you point to me anywhere in there, in this -- this book where the counsel for Judy Moriarty had the right to cross-examine witnesses?

MR. GREIM: Well, the -- I appreciate the rhetorical flourish here of giving us this volume.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Greim, you said that there was no precedent for it. There is a precedent for it and not allowing counsel for Moriarty to cross-examine witnesses is what the precedent is in Missouri. This isn't Connecticut.

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, this is not a gubernatorial impeachment. This is a matter which the Secretary of State had already been convicted, had already been convicted, and there was a complete record from a trial where due process was allowed.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And I think it's interesting that you bring up that point, because there was a gentleman from Butler County at that time named Richardson, who was serving in the minority party, who was sitting in a committee -- and the committee, and made the point that -- I think our speaker and I have made from the beginning -- and you would agree with this; right? That the House has a separate and independent process from a criminal trial; do you agree with that?

MR. GREIM: We've never disagreed with that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. And what the committee decided was that they were going to pay no heed to the findings of the jury in that case, but instead were going to take testimony on their own because it was, in fact, a separate process with separate responsibilities. Have you -- were you aware of that?

MR. GREIM: Chairman Barnes, we're very aware of it, but that's an easy thing to do when a jury has already --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I just think it's inaccurate for you to say there's no precedence for cross-examination when, in fact, the only precedent is that it didn't happen. Now it's okay for you to say, listen, the precedent in that case was this and now we want something different, but I think it's a little bit disingenuous to say, there's no precedent in this state for it. I'm sorry, because that's the precedent, and now you're asking for a new one. Just say you're asking for a new one.

MR. GREIM: Respectfully, Mr. Chairman, I mean, it's a slide of hand to say that the Moriarty case is, quote, the precedent, that this is what we look to. Remember that in this case they had transcripts of the trial in which cross-examination occurred. So when examination occurred the second time around, they had transcripts in which full process was allowed in each -- and the knowledge of each witness was fully probed, and so while they brought them back a second time to testify -- in fact, there's -- there's evidence in the record, if I recall correctly, that originally they weren't going to have those transcripts and exhibits and the members of the committee said, we need to see the transcripts where someone was cross-examined. And so, again, this is a unique situation in Moriarty. What we should do and what we're supposed to do in these cases, let's look to where the chief executive officer of a state was actually put under threat of removal from office. In those cases, the uniform example is that cross-examination, subpoenas and presence and participation of counsel was allowed in every single one of those situations, and those are in states where impeachment is not -- is not thought to be a judicial process. Those are in states where it's purely a political process. So why Missouri would depart from its sister states on this point and be the only state to -- to not allow this -- these simple basic procedures when it is actually the leader in making this judicial is beyond -- is beyond us.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We do -- we should have some cross-examination testimony. Do you know how long witness one was cross-examined in deposition for?

MR. GREIM: Well, I -- I don't know. And I think witness one was interviewed multiple times, but -- and she was cross-examined. From my understanding, her story has changed many times, but I don't think the issue --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Hold on.
MR. GREIM: -- should be relied on witness one.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: Have you reviewed the testimony?
MR. GREIM: Chairman Barnes, I have not. I have simply gotten summaries of the testimony, but it would be surprising to me if the basic procedures of due process in this House would turn on your -- your own judgments without participation but with counsel from the Governor about what happened in -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: No one ever said that counsel for the Governor would not be allowed to participate. Again, I appreciate the attempt to set up a straw man, but that's just not -- that's -- that's not factual, Mr. Greim.
MR. GREIM: And, Mr. Chairman, if -- if I might, it is true at this point the committee is -- I think is just embarking on this process. You know, the special session starts Friday, and if I can bring it back to sort of 35,000 feet in a way -- I view this -- this exchange as -- as productive. It'd sort of be a fun law school class to have and to teach.
CHAIRMAN BARNES: I think you teach that class; don't you?

MR. GARBER: And I teach it and -- but, obviously, that's not what this is, and -- and one of my points when I teach that class is, look, we can talk about the law. We can even talk about the precedent, and we do. But I actually explain that when the rubber hits the road, it's really a discussion like this that winds up creating what there is about impeachments.

And so, you know, we can talk about the due process clause, and we can argue that there is a right to due process. That discussion would go a long time, and I promise, I wouldn't convince you, that there's a right to due process, and I can tell you that because I haven't convinced any House that there is a right to due process. I wound up convincing a judge that that was the case, but that's not where I want to wind up being, and usually it's not where I am, and so -- so if you can indulge me for --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I will. And, Mr. Garber I appreciate you. You know, Mr. Greim and I are arguing about due process and 14th Amendment Rights and property rights, and I appreciate you bringing it back, because this is lawyers being lawyers, I think, getting hung up on the due process and we do share that common interest in having a fair process going forward. We might not agree on all of the particulars and -- but that is the shared interest and Mr. Greim and I -- you know, can save the debate on property rights, perhaps, for a different day.

MR. GARBER: And -- and, Mr. Chairman, that's usually where the discussion lies. It's -- you know, this committee and the House, you want to get the facts. You want to get the facts, and then you want to figure out what to do with the facts. That's -- that is the job and -- and I believe you are all operating in good faith to -- to do that. You're trying to do your job. It's my understanding you don't get paid a lot extra to sit here and do this. You've spent a lot of time on these issues working on this. It looks like you're going to spend a lot more time doing it, you know, as is the full House. So I'm -- I'm crediting that you're not doing this for the fun or the money or anything like this. You're doing it to discharge your constitutional duties and to get the facts and figure out what to do with them. And so that's -- that's sort of where I start is say, okay, let -- that is the case. You are trying to get the facts.

Putting aside the due process arguments, when -- when we came up with the proposal to the -- to the committee, in terms of process, it is a proposal that is not one that I've made before in any other state. In the other states I've -- I've worked in, I have proposed a lot more due process and the proposal that we made to the committee is where we wound up in those states, which, frankly, I -- I don't think goes far enough, but it doesn't matter what I think because -- because it's this House that is making the rules. And so, fundamentally, where I start out and -- and where I wind up is, what's the process working together and -- and recognizing that it's within the House's discretion to set the process, you know, subject to the constitutional protections. What's the process that actually gets at the truth? And that's why we proposed -- and, again, for your consideration, you know, number one, is -- is some level of participation by the Governor's counsel. And as the Chairman said, you haven't decided that you're not going to allow that participation and -- and, honestly, I would love if it were the same amount of participation you'd get in a court case. I'm not asking for that. I'm not asking for it here. I -- I've asked for it in a lot of other states, and I've been told no. I'm not asking for that here. But as we've seen, I think, today on some of the back and forth, the participation by the governor's counsel actually can elucidate some issues. And then the question is, what's -- what's that level of participation? And we can talk about that. And second, is advance notice of -- of subject matters and -- and what meetings are about. That allows us to prepare. That allows the press to know what's going on, and -- and I think probably makes for a more efficient process. So that's the second thing that we've asked for. The third thing is -- it is, perhaps, more controversial, but I would hope shouldn't be a huge problem, which is the right to cross-examine witness. And here's why we're asking for that -- and it's because historically that is how you get at the truth.

A -- a witness testifies and somebody who has an interest adverse to that -- that witness and the members of the committee knows this -- gets to ask that witness questions and that winds up bringing out the truth and that's why we have it at trials, but we also have it in administrative proceedings and legislative proceedings, and we've had that -- that part of the rule -- give me 30 seconds.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Hold on. We don't have legislative proceedings. I'll let you go ahead.

MR. GARBER: Fair enough. We have administrative proceedings and that's why I -- I probably misspoke if I said legislative hearings. I apologize. So we have at in judicial proceedings, the judicial branch. We have it in administrative proceedings with the executive branch and in the impeachment proceedings that I've been involved in, we've had it at the -- at the legislative branch also, and it's because not because I demanded it and probably honestly not because I was -- you know, so persuasive that I convinced anybody that we had a right to it, but it's because the folks in your chair said, you know what? Actually, if we're -- if we want to get at the truth, why not. Why not have the cross-examination and see what the truth is.

And then, you know, the other thing is that all of that play out in the open, because what's at stake, is -- you know, is impeachment, is the potential reversal of an election, and so that's -- that's sort of the other thing we've asked is that all of this takes place in public so that the public can see if that actually is a potential result they know why -- why votes are being essentially, you know, discarded and the election is being thrown out.

Did I miss any of the key elements?

So, Chair -- Mr. Chair and members of the committee, that's why we've made these proposals and why, honestly, I appreciate the ability to talk to the committee about it and do it in this constructive way, not arguing that we have a right to do it, but -- but proposing it respectfully to you that you'd want it.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Thank you. Mr. Greim, because we kind of got sidetracked and Mr. Garber jumped in, I didn't -- I want to make sure if you want to add to that.

MR. GREIM: Mr. Garber and I are of one mind on that and what he brings especially is just having worked through this procedure with committees in the past, and so we each have our strengths and I -- I appreciate his testimony on that point.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: I want to reiterate -- go ahead, Mr. Garber.

MR. GARBER: I realized I did forget something, and that was the ability to actually have the Office of the Governor and the Governor personally be able to put on a defense or put on evidence. And, again, as the chairman noted, you had allowed the governor's personal lawyer to propose a witness and then you called the witness. I'm talking about something a little bit more.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And it's our intent to continue to -- to do that fully. I just -- I want to reserve the prerogative to say no, which I would say no if any committee member said, well, we need to call this witness. The Chair and the committee as a whole can preserve the prerogative.

MR. GARBER: I think under our proposed rules we actually embedded and we're -- and we're happy to talk about it, a significant amount of discretion to -- to the Chair on -- CHAIRMAN BARNES: Not just the Chair. It's a committee process, the majority of the committee.

MR. GARBER: But the committee and the Chair. But, again, you know, it's one thing to suggest to the committee that a particular witness be called. It would be another -- and, again, respectfully, if I were you -- I won't say that word. You may want to and benefit from and the public may benefit from actually allowing the Governor and the Office of the Governor to -- subject to, you know, the -- the Chair's appropriate discretion and the committee's appropriate discretion, bring in a witness and ask that witness questions, and then you'd, of course, be able to ask that witness questions and cross-examine the witness and -- and have that sort of built in as an orderly process again to -- to get at the truth and -- and -- and, again, I appreciate the time, but one last thing I'd probably mention is, it has been suggested that, wait a minute, isn't that what the trial is for? If there is an impeachment trial, isn't that what happens later? And that's something that -- that I do talk about with other legislatures. And the answer that they've come with to that is, number one, is -- yeah, there is a potential trial later, and the standards for that trial and the processes are more rigorous and give the -- the accused more latitude, but that doesn't mean that what this committee is doing and what the House is doing isn't of overwhelming importance both in -- in this instance and also for the state and also for -- for the public, and so I know that this committee does want to get at the truth even at this level, and so we don't have to make that sort of technical legal argument about -- and I don't think I would hear that from, you know, anybody sitting in this room, as we can wait to get into the truth until, you know, some sort of future trial, and so that's why we've proposed these rules to try to get at the truth, and then as the committee knows, we also proposed a timeline. A month is, in my experience, an incredibly short amount of time to try to get at this and so we -- we made a proposal to -- to get it done in a month, to work together with you and --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We appreciate. Your office can always extend that timeline. Your -- your client has the ability to -- has the authority to do so.

MR. GARBER: Which -- that's something that could be discussed, because, again, from the point of view of the Office of the Governor, the -- the goal really is to get at the truth through a full and fair and open process. That's -- that's my goal. That's Mr. Greim's goal. We represent the Office of the Governor, and so I think there's -- we talked about a Venn diagram before. I think there's a lot of overlap in that respect. So thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Garber, Mr. Greim, not overlap. There's overlap between us here. As I look at your list, I think I see far more things that we agree upon than what we disagree upon, and, again, Mr. Greim and I focused on this side issue of due process rights for a while, which is really kind of -- in my view but that legal argument is beside the point. What's important is how the process looks going forward, and we share that goal, and we're going to agree on a lot of this stuff, although, I bet we're not going to agree on everything. Although, I -- I want to ask you something about -- you know, you talked about the ability to present documentary evidence and witnesses to the committee and to -- you understand there's a two-way street here; right? That's -- that's a rhetorical question. There's a two-way street.

MR. GREIM: Meaning you're going to give us documents, too?

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, you want to be able to present documents and witnesses; right?

MR. GARBER: Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And we want to be able to receive documents and witnesses.

MR. GREIM: Yes. Yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: And we've received some documents, yes. We have also been forwarded in our attempts to get at the truth with objections to documents that we've requested. We've been forwarded in an attempt to get the truth with refusals to testify, and in order for us to have this process that you want, that we want, we need a two-way street on this.

MR. GREIM: And, Mr. Chairman and members of the committee, that I agree with you on. And -- and it's my understanding that the Office of the Governor has now gotten two subpoenas for documents with an incredibly quick turnaround date of one week and last night produced all of those documents and an explanation. And so, you know, I control only what I control, which is not very much.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're going to go with a trust but verify --

MR. GREIM: No, that's fine.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: -- on the documents because we haven't reviewed them. We got them last night. And I appreciate the timeliness, but we really haven't gotten to look at them.

MR. GREIM: And we're happy to work with you on that, yes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: But, you know, there's sort of -- you're working with others as well, and if -- if we're going to have this process that's going to be fair, it is incumbent upon your side to be forthcoming. I mean, at -- at the very beginning when this committee was appointed Mr. Dowd said that they looked to be cooperative with this committee, and I think I speak for unanimous committee in feeling that there really has been no cooperation to date and that's not what we want. We want to get at the truth. We want to hear from the Governor. We want to hear from, for example, the one witness that was suggested by Mr. Dowd. We immediately called him to testify and allowed him all the time he needed, even told him at the end, is there anything else that you want the committee to hear?

MR. GARBER: And, Mr. Chairman, there -- there are lots of other parties involved in all of this. Sitting at this table is -- are the lawyers for the executive branch of this government, the Office of the Governor, and we're across from the legislative branch. And, again, it's my understanding that so far the Office of the Governor and has cooperated with this committee and -- and, again, I appreciate the dialog, and I hope we get to continue this dialog, because I do take seriously that, that notion. We're not asking for all -- anybody else to have the right to cross-examine witnesses and bring witnesses. It's -- it's the Governor and the Office of the Governor. That's -- that's what we're asking for.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: If the Governor refuses to testify, and I hope that's not the case, are you going to accuse this committee of being unfair?

MR. GARBER: I -- we're -- look. Right now, we are beginning a dialog.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. I just -- I just want to -- because that's what we -- we really want all the facts. I'm begging you. I'm begging you to help us have a fair process where we hear both sides.

MR. GARBER: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Seriously.

MR. GARBER: Mr. Chairman, the -- the same. That's -- that's --

CHAIRMAN BARNES: That's when I get down there on both knees and say, please, please, please, please, Mr. Garber, convince Mr. Greitens to testify. That's what I'll do. We want to hear from him.

MR. GARBER: I -- I hear you. And right now, it's why I appreciate us talking about a -- a set of rules and procedures that we can work together on to -- to get to the truth, and -- and so I appreciate that.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Thank you. Mr. Greim.

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I have nothing to add other than that if we'll go on for a bit longer, I wonder if we could now take a short break. I'm sorry, I wanted to try not to ask for.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. Let me see. Do other members have questions?

We have no other questions. So if you -- Mr. Greim, if you want to take a break and come back and give more statement, we can do that. I'm perfectly fine with that. I'll give you all the time you need. We're not -- we're done with questions, so it's up to you guys.

MR. GREIM: Perhaps, Mr. Chairman, if we can take three minutes.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Yes. Right.

MR. GREIM: There's no -- there's no rushing involved or I won't do it in front of you, but if we could just take three minutes, I may come back and say we have nothing more, but.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Okay. That's fine.

MR. GREIM: If that's all right.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Well, we're going to be on real world time, not legislative on these three minutes. As soon as Mr. Greim comes back into the hearing room, we're going to start.

So members of the committee, I guess as soon as he comes back and says he's ready, we're going to start, so we'll take a brief recess.

(Silence in audio.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Mr. Watson, if you'd like to take a seat, we can get started.

(Silence in audio.)

CHAIRMAN BARNES: We're back in to the hearing.

MR. GREIM: Mr. Chairman, I -- I think I've covered my main points. I guess I -- I was reflecting a little bit on our conversation earlier in our legal debate and, you know, it's interesting -- I -- I wanted to say something a little more personal and make a -- say something about what I think this matter is and I hope what this engagement becomes. You know, one -- one thing that our firm has done and the part that I've led over the last several years, a lot of it has led to very bitter litigation. Fighting in Wisconsin when Governor Walker was under investigation and putting an end to that. Suing the IRS on behalf of all of the conservative groups -- and I think I'm the only person that's deposed Lois Lerner. Bitter fights with the governments' official and personal capacity counsel, and then dealing even with the Attorney General Paxton in Texas with his issues down there.

What I appreciate -- I guess I'll say this. What I appreciate about what I think we're getting ready to do here, Mr. Chairman, is that we have a chance to actually come together to put in place a process that we can all be proud of later, and while you did get me going on due process there -- I mean, I -- you -- we had that discussion. What I -- what I appreciate especially from hearing you talk to Mr. Garber is that this is a chance for two branches of government to come together and say, what's the right way to run impeachments in Missouri and there will be things we'll disagree on. There will be details, but I like the idea that we can come together and sort of fashion the process and it's something in those other engagements we were just fighting. We were just in the trenches fighting and I -- I don't see that as what we're doing here. I just want to convey that. That's how I feel about this, and I think having this hearing in the open was a good thing. I do want to just explicitly invite you to the extent that we have to iron out details, we are happy to actually have a meeting with you, a working meeting, to work out, you know, specifically how we would handle the subpoena issue or, you know, the cross-examination issue. Let's see, specifically, where we would have issues. I mean, we've got printouts and models of these other rules. You'll see that the chairman and the committee has great authority. That's how you're going to have to run it, we think, and so we've got language we -- we can sit down and work on. I -- I appreciate that.

And I have to say, many years ago when you and I were in college together, I probably never thought that there would come a day like this where we had this sort of a meeting, but I appreciate the opportunity to work with you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Everyone, certainly, thought you would be more than likely in this role than I was, Mr. Greim, with your grades compared to mine, so.

MR. GARBER: And I suppose I'll -- I'll close by -- by thanking all the members of the committee for having -- having this discussion. We appreciate your accepting our invitation to do this. I hope it has been helpful to the committee and, perhaps, the public that's -- that's watching this. You know, today, we didn't talk much and I think, appropriately, about sort of the -- the elephant in the room, which is why we're all doing this, why we're all having this -- this discussion, this special session that's starting on Friday and -- and I respectfully request, perhaps, if we get down the road that we have a discussion about -- about that, the notion of -- of impeaching a Governor, because, you know, that's -- that possibility, impeachment or some other discipline is why these facts are being gathered. I think somebody asked me if I -- I could recall being involved in an impeachment where it was solely personal conduct from before the person took office and I -- I can't. I'm not aware of any case like that existing, but, you know, at the end of the day, you know, impeachment is considered only for the most grave offenses against our system of government that are proved in a way that we've just discussed proving them, you know, to a high degree of certainty with the facts and doing it in public so that the public can see what we all are doing here and -- and because at stake, ultimately, is an election, which you and we and, you know, the people of our -- of our country and I know the State of Missouri take very seriously.

So with that, I -- I really do appreciate the ability to have this -- this constructive dialog with the committee. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BARNES: Thank you, Mr. Garber.

Thank you, Mr. Greim.

Further questions? Thankfully seeing none, we -- they are holding off on starting session for us, so this will conclude today's hearing of the House, special investigative committee on oversight.

Members of the committee, I got it right the first time.

And for the record, if my children ever hear that, I did get descent grades. I just didn't get straight As.

(Silence in audio.)

(Audio ended.)

MR. RHOADS: (Not present.)
MR. CURCHIN: Representative Trent.
MR. TRENT: Here.

MR. BARNES: With nine present -- I'm sorry -- eight present -- we have a quorum.

Okay. Per the committee member's knowledge -- we're trying to reach Representative Lauer. Representative Rhoads, hello. He is watching on stream right now.

Here is the order of today -- and I think I've spoken with everyone but Representative Razer and Representative Pierson, and I apologize. I deputized Representative Mitten to pass things on.

We're going to start with a discussion and a vote on House Resolution No. 2. We are going to take a break. We have received a large packet of documents from the circuit attorney's office in the City of St. Louis that includes, I believe, 730 pages of testimony of Witness 1. We are going to proceed to read that into the record page by page, line by line. Committee members will take turns playing the roles of the questioner and the answerer, with the caveat that there may be some things in the record that we choose to redact. We're not going to release the documents that we are reading into the record until after the hearings are over. The purpose of that is to ensure -- early in the process, we had these closed hearings, and we had plenty of time to make sure we made the redactions that were necessary. I want to make sure that we have a process that allows for redactions before releasing the document and allows us to get eyes on it before releasing the document. So we'll spend today reading that. We'll spend tomorrow morning continuing to read that evidence into the record. I believe -- I guess we'll figure out how long it's going to take, but I've been told it's anywhere from 14 to 16 hours of cross-examination -- includes anywhere from 14 to 16 hours of cross-examination of Witness 1 by counsel for Mr. Greitens. At one o'clock tomorrow, Scott Faughn has said he will be here to testify. Through counsel, he has made that known to the committee. On Thursday at 9:00 a.m., Mr. Al Watkins will be here to testify. He, too, has made that known to the chair and members of the committee. And after -- so before taking Mr. Faughn's testimony on Wednesday, we're going to read -- continue the process of reading this into the record. And after Mr. Watkins on Thursday, we are going to continue the process of reading these documents into the record. And if we're not finished by Friday, we're going to continue the process of reading the transcript of the cross-examination into the record. And if we're not finished by Friday, we're going to take Saturday to finish the process of reading the 14 hours of cross-examination of Witness 1 into the record.

Seeing glazed eyes already.

Okay. Now, open discussion on House Resolution No. 2. These are slightly different than the rules we adopted for the committee before. Obviously, we're here in public now. I actually don't think in regards to that, it is much, if any, different than it was before. We were ready for public hearings, so -- and here we are.

Is there any comments on House Resolution No. 2?

MR. BARNES: Representative Trent.

MR. TRENT: Just a comment.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. So there are a lot of good things to like in these rules. I think the rules are designed to create a process that is more open and more fair, that will be able to get out evidence from both sides and to probe the veracity of the evidence, the accuracy of the evidence, make sure the evidence that we receive is of the highest quality. I do lament that cross-examination is not possible under these rules. I understand that there are separation of powers concerns and happen to agree with a lot of those concerns. But cross-examination, for the attorneys in the room, we know that that is one of the best ways to evaluate witness testimony and determine whether or not it is sound and accurate. So, you know, that is an issue, but I think that we've tried to address that in other ways that I hope will be effective and that will create a product that everyone can rely upon and have confidence in. I also am glad that we are giving these rules a test run, so to speak, before their formal adoption by the House, that if we do identify areas where they could be improved further, that we would hopefully have a potential to do that before the full House.

So with that, Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the effort that you've put into this, appreciate the speakers appointing me to this committee, and look forward to working with everyone that has already put so much effort into this issue.

MR. BARNES: Thank you, gentlemen.

Further discussion?

MR. PHILLIPS: Just a comment, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: Proceed.

MR. PHILLIPS: Thank you. I like these rules that were laid out in the resolution. If the cross-examination was a typical cross-examination, it might be okay. I think they've already had ample time to basically cross-examine everybody. They've talked to the same key witnesses that we have for hours on end, so I don't think the cross-examination would be much more than probably just an attempt to almost filibuster our committee, for lack of a better way to put it.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. BARNES: Further discussion on the resolution?

Seeing none, I now move that we do pass House Resolution No. 2.

Mr. Secretary, please call the roll.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Barnes.

MR. BARNES: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Phillips.

MR. PHILLIPS: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Austin.

MR. AUSTIN: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Eggleston.

MR. EGGLESTON: Aye.

MR. CURCHIN: Representative Lauer.
MS. LAUER: (Not present.)
MR. CURCHIN: Representative Mitten.
MS. MITTEN: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Representative Pierson, Jr.
MR. PIERSON: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Representative Razer.
MR. RAZER: Aye.
MR. CURCHIN: Representative Rhoads.
MR. RHOADS: (Not present.)
MR. CURCHIN: Representative Trent.
MR. TRENT: Aye.
MR. BARNES: By your vote eight aye; zero no, you have due passed House Resolution No. 2.

Okay. I want to talk about process again for a minute. We had some discussion this morning about finding staff members to play the roles of the questioner and answerer in the process of reading these into the record, and after some discussions, I made the executive decision as the chairman that the members of the committee are already thrust into this role, in which we're not exactly doing backflips over, and there's no need to put members of staff and throw them in the same boat. So my plan for reading these into the record is to go in the order of questioning that we've gone so far, and it's going to change a little bit, since we have three new members of the committee.

Representative Razer, I hate to tell you, you're going to be the last person who is going to ask a question, member of the minority party and a freshman. So, Representative Trent, I think that means you're going to be third to last.

Representative Eggleston, I think you're a sophomore; is that correct?

MR. EGGLESTON: Correct.

MR. BARNES: So you'll be fourth to last. And the intent -- when we go through reading this into the record, we're going to start with co-chair -- or vice-chair -- vice-chair asking ranking member, and then ranking member asking the next person here, and then seniority on down the line, and then we'll just shift on until it comes back to me. And I promise we have enough pages in these depositions that it will get back to me. I am not foisting this upon you without also having responsibility to do so.

With that said, Representative Mitten was working on redactions of the first two. I don't want to break again for lunch. Is an hour sufficient before we come back in and start this process?

Okay. Then we are going to recess for an hour. We're going to come back in at 12:20. By that point in time, we should have the first couple documents redacted enough that we can go through this process.

Seeing no objection, we are in recess until 12:20.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: We are back into hearing of the House Special Investigative Committee on Oversight. We are going to start with the testimony of Witness 1 before the grand jury of the City of St. Louis on February 15th, 2018, with vice-chairman asking -- playing the role of the questioner and Representative Mitten, the ranking member, playing the role of the answerer, which, in this case, is Witness 1. We're going to use our microphones because we're going to be creating a record. For members of the committee, as we go along, if we have questions and comments, I'd like to keep them to a minimum, but if anybody has a reason they want to take a break and ask something, or take a break for another reason, we can do that.

Representative Phillips.

MS. MITTEN: Mr. Chair, can I just -- there's some profanity in this. I don't know exactly how you would like to handle that.

MR. BARNES: Do we want to use the nonprofane word -- we had this discussion before with the written word, and we decided the words are the words, and so we're putting them in writing.

Are we going to use the words as they are, or are we just -- how about we do this: We let every member -- seeing that I designated myself last in this -- not for this purpose; I didn't think of it this way -- but every member can decide on their own whether they are going to --

MS. MITTEN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And are we live streaming this?

MR. BARNES: We are live streaming this.

MS. MITTEN: I guess we need to sort of --

MR. BARNES: I don't know that there are any parents in this state that after having started this are going to allow their children to watch this --

MS. MITTEN: I would certainly hope not.

MR. BARNES: So that is the warning.

MS. MITTEN: I think there needs to be some sort of warning that this is sensitive material and there may be profanity.

MR. BARNES: Okay. So warned.

MR. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chairman, I'm not real crazy about the inconsistency of it. I wish we'd decide one way or the other whether we're going to read it as it is. It looks like if we're reading it into the record, we're reading it as it is. I don't like using some of the language that is in here, but that looks like it would be more consistent with our approach.

MR. BARNES: Representative.

MR. TRENT: Mr. Chairman, the written transcripts are going to be available; correct?

MR. BARNES: The written transcripts are going to be available.

MR. TRENT: So if anyone wants to see the full transcript and all of its expletive written form, they can do so without us actually reading them aloud here; correct?

MR. BARNES: That's true. At the end of the process -- at the end of reading this into the record, we will make this available. So I was just simply -- as a matter of decorum, that we might just delete the explicits as we go through.

MR. BARNES: Representative Eggleston.
MR. EGGLESTON: I think that's -- as you have often said, words matter, and we should read it the way it is.
MR. BARNES: I tend to agree with Representative Eggleston. It's not comfortable, but these are the words used, so that's the position that we're in, and I appreciate -- Representative, I appreciate your position on the other side; I do. And we had this discussion before the first report, what we were going to do, and we determined that, as Representative Eggleston said, that the words matter, and even though they can be offensive to some, I -- they are what they are and --
MR. PIERSON: You know, just for the record, you know, I agree that this is language that, you know, I wouldn't use in any other setting, and, you know, knowing that and the -- and seeing that, I am not all that comfortable doing it, but I will ask for forgiveness now. How's that?
Thank you, Mr. Chair.
MR. BARNES: I mean, we can do it without -- let's do it without. Let's state that it was an expletive.
MR. PHILLIPS: In my first role here as

Ms. Gardner, I'm not going to have to worry about those.

MR. BARNES: It was nice that we made Representative Mitten have the first decision.

MS. MITTEN: Hence my question.

MR. PHILLIPS: Let's see how she handles it, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: Each member feel free to handle it how you wish as the words come along. Obviously, there are some words in here that are less than others.

Okay?

MR. PHILLIPS: All right.

MR. BARNES: Representative Phillips.

MS. MITTEN: So we're going to begin with the -- this is the testimony before the grand jury on February 15th, 2018?

MR. BARNES: Yes.

MS. MITTEN: Okay. Just want to make sure we're all literally on the same page.

MR. BARNES: Starting on page 3.

MS. MITTEN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. PHILLIPS: And I am playing the role of Ms. Kim Gardner, the prosecutor.

Should we say that you're KS.

MS. MITTEN: And I will be playing the role of KS.

(The following testimony was read from the transcript of "KS's" grand jury testimony taken on February 15th, 2018, narrated by Representative Gina Mitten and Representative Don Phillips)

Q. Could you please introduce yourself.

A. KS.

Q. Now, Ms. S, you know I'm going to say "EG." He's an elected official, but how do you know -- come to know EG?

A. I was his hairstylist for at least, like, a year and a half to two years before March of 2015.

Q. And prior to March of 2015, how many times have you styled EG's hair?

A. At least, like, ten times, probably.

Q. Now, during this time, what were the conversations between you and EG?

A. We talked about everything. We talked about -- both of us like exercising. We talked a lot about his volunteer work and things that he had done, you know, in his career and stuff like that.

Q. So on -- let me go back. How long have you worked as his hairstylist?

A. At that point, I had worked --

MS. MITTEN: I'm sorry. There was -- the question was, "How long have you worked as a stylist?"

A. At that point, like, 12 years.

Q. And where did you work at that time?

A. [redacted].

Q. Is that located in the city of St. Louis?

A. Yes.

Q. That's [redacted]?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, let's go to March 2015. Prior to that March 2015, was there any flirting between EG and yourself?

A. So the time -- he hadn't come in for about six months prior to March 2015, which was odd for him, because he was coming in to me regularly, which was every three to five weeks, typically. So -- and I noticed that -- and I was thinking that before he came in March 2015, that that summer prior to, which was 2014, maybe he felt bad that he -- he had kind of flirted. So -- his wife was having a baby; I knew that. We were talking about that. That was coming up soon. And I mentioned a vacation that I went on with my family, and I mentioned that I went to the -- that I -- there was this really cool gym, but it was a little obnoxious because my husband was completely controlling. I don't know how I worded it to him, but that he wouldn't let me go to the gym by myself, and he didn't work out, so he just kind of went to watch me to make sure nobody flirted with me. When I mentioned that, however I had mentioned it, EG said, Your husband sounds really insecure. I mean -- I don't know. He asked me somehow how tall or how big my husband was, and I said, No, he's a small guy. He's an artist, you know, like, he's 5'7". And he said, Really? I mean, I do not envision that. I envision you being with this, like, brawny, really confident guy that is tall and handsome. So whenever I took him over to the shampoo bowl, he stood next to me and gauged me up and down and -- like, Oh, yeah, I'm probably bigger than that guy. That's at least how I took it. And in our conversation that day, I felt like that was the first time he was flirty enough that when he didn't come in, I thought, Oh, it was probably because he felt bad. He's having a baby soon, and he maybe, like, has feelings for me. So when he didn't come in for a few months, I know my coworker who works next to me and knew who he was, as well, she and I had talked about that. So when he came in in March, I was --

Q. Let's go back.

A. Yeah.

Q. So kind of tell me about your husband. Talk about your relationship with your husband at that point. With this gym incident, how was -- what was going on in your marriage?

A. So the year prior to that -- so this would have been -- this would have been, like, 2013 was the first time I expressed to my husband that if things didn't change, that I wanted a divorce. And so he did make a few changes. Things were kind of okay for that following year, but I didn't feel like enough was different as far as his emotions and --

Q. Was he controlling?

A. Yes. Extremely controlling. He -- so he had our phones. That -- I found out later that he had our phones set up --

MR. BARNES: I want to make sure that people understand. When we come to a redacted paragraph -- there's a redacted paragraph here, so as we go forward, we'll show the redactions -- we'll have a committee discussion later about the particular redactions. I believe this paragraph is related to information that we had previously redacted under Report No. 1.

Proceed.

MS. MITTEN: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

A. Yes, extremely controlling. So we had our phones -- that -- I found out later that he had our phones set up like he was my dad on the plan. So I couldn't see anything that he was doing, but he could see everything that I was doing, which -- and he had to have the passwords to everything, which wouldn't have been an issue except for he questioned me on everything. So if --

Q. And at this point, it was just a relationship where it was no issues, in terms of an affair?

A. Yes. Zero affairs, no.

Q. And it was just kind of like a very controlling kind of insecure relationship between you and him; is that right?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. So now let's fast-forward to March 2015 and kind of talk about where the relationship with you and your husband was at that time.

A. So, the week before EG came in, my -- really quick, to backtrack -- in that summer after the vacation, my husband and I, we had been in counseling and he had made the decision to try antidepressants, and he was on it for, like, six months, and it truly -- it felt like it kind of stabilized things; it was helpful. And so the January before that March -- so a couple of months before, I started school again for the first time. I had been wanting to for -- or restarted school, I should say to finish my degree.

Q. Let's go back. So right now, how many kids do you have?

A. So three kids. I have two with my ex-husband, and then I had one previously when I was in college, which is why I didn't finish my degree.

MS. MITTEN: Then there's a redacted portion.

Q. So March 2015, you were separated from your husband?

A. Yeah. So he moved into his brother's house the week prior to EG coming in.

Q. So now let's go to how were you feeling when EG came and -- EG. Tell me what happened on that incident.

A. So I found out he was coming in probably a couple of days before, because he had booked the appointment ahead of time and --

Q. So let me stop you. Around, like what, March 7th, 6th, you don't know? Just around early March?

A. It would have been -- yeah, probably 6th to the 8th, like around that time that he came in.

Q. 2015?

A. Yes. And that made me feel extremely nervous, because I did have somewhat of a crush on him. I thought he was perfect, really. He --

Q. Now explain that. What are you talking about "perfect"?

A. So a couple of times after I had did his hair, he brought in the first book that he wrote for me that was signed, you know, just because. He had told me about it, and he wanted to show it to me and gave me this book. It's called Strengths and Compassions, I believe. It was all about -- you know, he volunteered at the Mother Teresa House; he was this caring Navy Seal; he had this -- you know, he was a Rhodes Scholar; he was so smart, that -- and he was strong and independent and all of these wonderful things.

Q. And he told you this, or did you ask about this?

A. No, he just told me these things, which -- the first time I did his hair, I remember thinking, Who is this guy? You know, who talks about himself like this? But he kind of backed off after the first time; then he would slowly and subtly tell me things and -- I don't know. I really thought he was just so great.

Q. Let's go to the early March, around the 6th to 8th, 2015. What happened?

A. So he came in, and when he came in, he was my first client that day. And I was visibly shaking because I was so nervous he was coming in, and I knew I was vulnerable. My husband had just moved out, and he hadn't been in in so long. So I didn't know why he didn't come in. In any mind, I thought he probably hasn't come in because he was flirting with me and he was having this baby. So when he came in, I was visibly shaking. He was like -- redacted -- it's so great to see you.

Q. Now, go back. When you say -- redacted -- that's --

A. I go by -- redacted -- I go by "KS."

Q. It's a nickname?

A. Yeah. And so he came up and he hugged me, and when he did, I was obviously shaking. So he was like, Oh, gosh, you seem shaky. Did you work out this morning? Have you not eaten? I was like, oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, that's what it is. Which, of course, I had eaten, so -- he said, Oh, well, hang on; I'll be right back. And he just ran out of the salon, and he ran across the street, which is Straub's -- it's across the street -- to get me -- and he came back a few minutes later. He had a protein shake and a chocolate bar and a banana, so he was like, sit down with me, you know. Just have something to eat first; that way you can kind of calm down. Tell me, what's going on with you? You look incredible. You look better than ever, KS. You just -- you're glowing. And so I explained that I had started school and I exercised prior to that but I had started CrossFit, so we talked about that and --

Q. What happened next after you kind of talked? Where did you go next?

A. So then I was cutting his hair and it continued. I felt like, Whoa, he's way more complementary towards me than he had ever been before. Did notice that, but it was okay. And then I went over to shampoo his hair, and I was like -- I had just finessed shampooing his hair, but he was laying back in the shampoo bowl, and I was standing next to him like where Ms. Gardner is, and as he was laying back, I was explaining to him what my professor and I -- a conversation we had had. And while he was still looking at me nodding, his hand, like, slyly came over and started rubbing my leg. And at first I ignored it because I thought, there's no way. There's no way he's really doing this. And then -- so I kept -- just kept talking and ignoring him, and then he felt my leg all the way up to my crotch, to which I stepped back and I say, Whoa, what are you doing? And he just kind of laid back and looked up at me like, I don't know, and didn't say anything.

So I just turned and walked back to my chair, and he had to follow me back there. So he follows me and he sits down, and I was blow-drying his hair, not talking, and I looked at him in the mirror and asked him, Is that why you haven't come? Because that's what I thought, you know?

Q. What did he say?

A. Maybe.

Q. What happened next?

A. So we started walking up to the front desk, and there was a coworker next to me, so we weren't having a conversation about this and, as we were walking up to the front he said, KS, let me show you something over here. And I knew he wanted to talk to me, but I said, No, and we stood right where we were, kind of on our way up to the front desk. And I said, EG, you're married and I'm married -- because he didn't know that I was newly separated because it -- it definitely was not technical at this point. So he said, I know, but, you know -- and that was kind of it. Like, I know, but I don't know what this means.

So I just continued on. I walked him up to the front desk, and he checked out and left. And then --

Q. Okay. So let me stop you there. So after he left, you went back to your work; is that correct?

A. Yeah.

Q. And so what were you thinking at that point?

A. I was so confused because -- so this is this perfect guy. So if he hit on me, there must be a -- he must be separated. There must be something I don't know, because he didn't really talk about his wife.

Q. Did he ever tell you he was married?

A. I asked him after I had done his hair a few times, after I thought he was this great guy. Like, who is this guy? Is he married? Because he had not mentioned a wife, and so I flat-out asked him, to which he said, yes, he was newly married.

Q. So what happened later that day?

A. So he showed up a couple of hours later. I saw -- I had a client, but I could see him walk up to the front and give them something. And the girls up front were like, Hey, he just dropped off a book for you.

Q. Now, did you plan for him to drop off the book?

A. Oh, no, no.

Q. Did you know he was going to do this?

A. No.

Q. Okay. What happened next?

MR. BARNES: Representative, let me pause you because I believe we need a redaction on line 20 starting with the word "my" and ending on line 21 with the word "yeah."

MS. MITTEN: Yes. Okay.

MR. BARNES: And then on line 25 starting with the word "my" and ending with "the obvious point there" on line 25.

MS. MITTEN: Okay.
MR. BARNES: Unanimous with the committee on this redaction?
MS. MITTEN: Yes. Thank you, Mr. Chair.
Q. What happened next?
A. So I -- later on that night -- I believe it's -- it was that same night. Yeah, I got an e-mail from EG.
MR. BARNES: First three words of page 15, Representative Mitten, as well.
MS. MITTEN: Okay.
MR. BARNES: This is redacted always.
MS. MITTEN: Yeah. I'm just going to kind of --
A. I believe it was the same night -- redacted -- birthday or maybe the day before -- I got an e-mail.
Q. What happened next?
A. Okay. So I got an e-mail that was from EG, in which -- I had given him my e-mail address about a year before. He asked for my e-mail address, that he -- he wanted to give me some book suggestions and -- but he never e-mailed me, so I completely forgot I even gave him my e-mail. And so that night he gets -- he send this e-mail saying, I dropped off a book for you; I just wanted to make sure you got it. Great to see you as always, but, hey, it's hard to book an appointment with you sometimes. Is there a better way to get ahold of you?

Q. So what did you think about this point where you get this e-mail?

A. So I thought, okay, he's obviously trying to get my number because he wants to talk to me. The problem is that he doesn't know my husband looks through everything of mine, and if my husband sees this weird number, he's going -- he's going to call it or he's going to freak out. So I debated on how to respond to this, because I didn't want to say, no, you absolutely can't have my number, because I was curious enough as to why he hit on me like that.

So I responded with, Here is my number, with my cell phone number. But, actually, the best way to get ahold of me is to call the salon, and then just leave a message for the girls, if you can't get an appointment, and I can call you from there or they can call you back and book an appointment.

Q. So what happened next?

A. He called me that same night.

Q. That same night? Okay.
A. And --
Q. Did you pick up?
A. I missed -- no. No, I missed the call but -- so I saw the number was from D.C. and --
Q. What area code?
A. 202.
Q. And what happened? What did you think at this point? What's going through your mind?
A. Oh, my gosh. My husband is going to see this. He's going to freak out. He's going to assume that we're having an affair or, you know, he's going to -- jump to conclusions. So I took EG's number and saved it under my friend -- redacted -- who -- she lived in D.C. She was the only other person I knew that had a 202 area code, and I only say that because then it had to have been a few days or a week later, whenever my husband says to me, Hey, I was trying to get ahold of -- redacted -- which he never ever called.
Q. So let's stop right there. Did your husband have a habit, prior to this, of going through your phone?
A. Yes.
Q. And he would call numbers back; right?

A. Yes. So he says, you know, Hey, I was trying to get a hold of -- redacted -- and I called the numbers that was in there and it went to EG's voicemail, so why is that? So, you know, I told him, I don't know, he was getting ahold of me for an appointment or whatever, so ...

Q. And at that time, that was a true statement in your mind?

A. Right. I mean, I knew he wanted to get ahold of me, most likely to talk about whatever he hit on me for or whatever, but we hadn't talked at this point. So during that week, I just -- I kept thinking about it. Why did that happen? I don't know, because this guy is so perfect. So that --

Q. So go back to that. You were saying that guy is perfect. What are you -- at that point, what's going on in your relationship? Like, what are you going through with your husband?

A. With my husband? So my husband was a very insecure person. He's an artist, and so he was extremely emotional, and some of those emotions were great emotions. Some emotions were extremely difficult, and so it was just a lot of explaining what I was doing. Who did you talk to? What do they mean by that? Why was that person just -- you know? Everywhere we went, it was, I think that guy is looking at you. You know, those types of things.

So EG seemed like this really strong person who was very confident -- noticeably confident, and my husband's confidence was -- if you knew him, was more of a show, where people who didn't know him could see him as this very confident person on stage and stuff.

Q. So when was the next time you made contact with EG?

A. So that following Friday or Saturday night, I went out with my girlfriends and decided I'm curious.

Q. So stop right there. Where did you go out? Where are you and --

A. The Central West End.

Q. Okay.

A. So right by my work. We went after work for, like, happy hour.

Q. And what happened next?

A. I called him, and he answered. But I could tell it was not going to be like a -- I mean, obviously, his wife or somebody was around, as well as -- I was with his friends, so it wasn't a conversation; it was us trying to have an conversation in code, you know?

Q. What was it like -- like --

A. Like, I -- when he answered I said -- he said, Hey, you know, hi, KS. What is going on? And I said, Well, my friend is really curious about some things that she experienced, so she just really wants to know what happened, because she knows that this person doesn't know -- you know? So it was really not a conversation but -- so he said, Actually, hey, can you meet me in a few minutes in the alley behind Starbucks.

Q. And this is in the Central West End?

A. This is in the the Central West End. And I knew he lived in the neighborhood. I didn't know where at this point.

Q. What happened next?

A. So I met him in the alley, and I was kind of shaky, so he hugged me and he said, Listen, it's going to be okay. I know you want to talk about this; I do too. I have an idea. My wife is going to be out of town next weekend. Can you come over?

Q. And what did you say?

A. And I said, Well, can we meet somewhere? Why can't we meet, like, at Starbucks or something? And he said, No, I can't be seen with you, KS.

Q. And why did he tell you he could not be seen with you?

A. Because he had just announced that he was running for the governorship, and I knew that -- he had told me that, too, at his appointment. And he couldn't be seen with me because who knows who would be watching. So I was like, Well, I don't know. I'll have to think about it. I'm not sure. I will call you Friday night from work -- because he had already told me do not call him again, because I called him from my cell phone. Don't call him; don't e-mail him. So I said, Okay, well, I'll call you from my work.

MR. BARNES: Do we want -- that's page 20. Do we want to flip and do this on the even numbered?

MR. PHILLIPS: That's up to you.

MS. MITTEN: I don't care.

MR. BARNES: I think 20 is easier.

MR. PHILLIPS: We're having a good time.

MR. BARNES: You guys are making progress.

So Representative Mitten, you're the questioner, Representative Austin, you're the answerer, starting on page 21.

(The following testimony was read from the transcript of "KS's" grand jury testimony taken on February 15th, 2018, narrated by Representative Gina Mitten and Representative Kevin Austin.)

MR. BARNES: Hold on. Redaction, line 4 to line 5 starting with "I" at the end of line 4.

MS. MITTEN: I just redacted those two words on line 5.

MR. BARNES: Just redact the whole sentence. Is there any disagreement on the committee?

MR. AUSTIN: No.

MR. BARNES: Seeing none -- okay. Representative Mitten, you're now the questioner.

Q. So what happened? Did you call him from your work?

A. Yes. So the following -- the plan -- so I told him I couldn't see him on Friday night.

Q. And when was that date?

A. March 20th.

Q. 2015?

A. Yes. But I also knew I worked late on Fridays and I had my kids and -- so my husband was sleeping at his brother's, so I had to be home regardless, because he didn't take the kids to his brothers at all. But I told him maybe Saturday morning before work I could stop by or we could meet somewhere.

Q. And you were -- when you're saying "meet somewhere," where did you suggest you meet?

A. So Friday when I called him, I said, listen, I feel too guilty; I can't meet you. I feel weird going to your house. Can we just meet at Coffee Cartel or Starbucks, and he said, No, nobody somebody will see us there. Really -- redacted -- I cannot take that chance. Just come to the -- my house. Nothing will happen; we'll just talk. And I said, I -- I just feel so guilty. Please, can we just meet, like, in -- because Coffee Cartel has, like, a back room. Can't we just meet back there? And he said, No -- redacted -- I live right by -- that was the other thing, too, I didn't know where exactly he lived. And I said, I'm not going to have very much time. He said, No, I live right by there, so just come to my house. Promise you, it will okay. Come in through the back door, and I'll be waiting for you.

Q. Can you go to the pictures of the house? You're probably going to have to come over here so you can see.

So go the first picture in the front of the house. So that -- is that the house?

A. Yes.
Q. And then go to the picture with the door, please.
And that says -- what is it, 4522? Is that -- on what street did you know that it was on?
A. Maryland.
Q. Maryland?
A. Maryland, yeah.
Q. Is that in the City of St. Louis, to the best of your knowledge?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, go to the back. And that's where you came in?
A. Yes.
Q. And, also, did you see an address on the back, kind of --
A. Yes. Yeah.
Q. And where did you come in at --
A. That one day?
Q. Go over there and point.
A. Oh. Right there in the little gate.
Q. Okay. So when you're coming over there, what are you thinking? Like, you're coming over here just to do what?
A. I'm coming over to -- I'm thinking, okay, whenever I leave here, I'm going to have a better grasp as to why he hit on me. Does -- is he -- what is going on in his marriage, and, you know, fill him in on where my marriage is. So in the weeks leading up to this, my husband, of course -- EG was on his mind, right, and he continued to ask me, Are you having an affair with him? What's going on with this? And do you want a divorce? Tell me, do you want a divorce? I need to hear those words: Do you want a divorce? He just kept saying it. So the night before, knowing I'm going to EG's house to even talk tomorrow is wrong; I feel bad about it. So we had this discussion again. I get home Friday night from work; my husband asks me again, so I say, Fine; yes, if you have to have an answer tonight, yes, I want a divorce.

Q. Okay.

A. So it's a --

Q. So stop there. So when you go through the back -- kind of go to the next picture.

You don't have to see it.

A. Yeah.

Q. But you walk through the back, that's through the -- that's the garage. But there's a path; right? And where does that path lead to?

A. To his kitchen. To his kitchen.
Q. So -- now, what time of day is this?
A. This is 7:00 a.m. on a Saturday.
Q. And you picked -- the time was 7:00 a.m. because why?
A. Well, I knew I only had an allotted amount of time. I was going to talk to him, and I had to be at work at eight, you know, or, like, by 7:45. So I thought, okay, if I'm going to go to his house, at least I know -- he knows I have to be at work by this point. It's in the morning, you know?
Q. So it's March 21st, 2015, around 7:00 a.m.?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So what happens when you go walk up to the back way through the path to the kitchen? What happens next?
A. So as I'm walking in, he was waiting in the kitchen, and he was doing this to me (gesture). So I walked in. I was kind of like (gesture), and he kept doing that to me, like, do not say anything. And he grabs my purse and keys out of my hands and sets them down.
Q. Sets them down where?
A. On his counter to the right. So when you walk in, there was, like, a countertop right there. So he sets them down, looks back at me again, like, do not say anything, shuffles through my whole purse, takes everything out and --

Q. Is he saying anything at this point?

A. No, nothing.

Q. So what happens next?

A. Literally just shuffling through it all. Then comes over to me, and without saying anything, just gropes me, like, feels down everywhere.

Q. Was he patting you down?

A. To see if -- patting me down to see if I was bugged.

Q. Did he say anything like that?

A. No. He -- not at this point. He was just doing that. There was no spoken anything. I was just standing there like, What's going on?

Q. So what are you thinking in your mind?

A. What the heck? I don't -- I don't know. Is this some sort of an operation or what? So -- but did I -- I did know when I met him that week before -- I did I say to him -- I believe I even told him, my husband knows that you called -- I'm pretty positive he knew that. I had already told EG that, and I said, my husband is really -- he's a jealous guy, and I'm really afraid of him.

Q. Okay. Let me go through -- let's go forward. So when he's patting you down, what happens next?

A. So he stops and says, Okay, I just had to make sure you weren't bugged, you know? Are you sure you weren't followed? Did your husband or anybody follow you? Did anybody see you come in? And I said, No, I don't think so. I believe he went outside to check to make sure no one followed us, so -- or followed me.

So when he comes back in, I was, like, shaking, so he hugged me to calm me. He's like, listen, it's going to be okay; it's going to be okay. Just trust me. How much time do you have?

Q. So at this point you're like -- what are you here for?

A. Right. I'm here to talk, so --

Q. What do you say when he asked you how much time did you have?

A. I said, I only have, you know, 40 minutes or whatever. I have to be work by 7:45. And he asked me, Well, what time do you get off work? Can you come back? And I said, no, I can't, because I knew I had to get my kids. And he's like, Well, we don't have very much time -- redacted. I have this idea. I just really want to make you feel good, and I just -- I have this idea. I want you to do this thing with me. And I was like, Wait, wait, I -- I want to talk to you.

Q. So let's go back. What does he do? What does he tell you next?

A. So he tells me that he has this plan. He wants me to take these clothes he had set out, go change into them -- take off everything I have on and go change into them because he wants -- well, he said, Have you worked out today, and I said, No, he said, Well, I want to take you through a workout.

Q. So go back to describe -- where were the clothes and what type of clothes were they?

A. The clothes were sitting on the kitchen counter. It was a white T-shirt, like a man- -- man's T-shirt with a slit at the top that had been cut previously and then pajama bottoms -- his pajama bottoms.

Q. So at this time, you have nothing under the shirt; is that correct?

A. Right.

Q. And you have nothing under --

A. The pants.

Q. -- the pajama pants?

A. Yeah.

Q. So what happens -- so what does he do next?

A. So he says, you know, just follow me. I promise it'll be so good -- redacted. I just want to make you feel good. You haven't been treated good for so long. Come downstairs with me. I want to show you how to do a proper pull-up.

Q. So he says come downstairs where? What is downstairs?

A. He has, like, a home gym. Like a -- it's an unfinished basement, but he had a home gym.

Q. So now you're in the gym. And I want to say -- I know this is difficult for you, so we're just going to go step by step. Mr. Steel may ask you some questions and clarification when we're done. We're going to take it step by step, okay?

He took you downstairs into a basement; is that correct?

A. Yes. And so it was unfinished. He had some work-out equipment, and so he said, Follow me, put your hands on these rings. And this point he was -- it was as if he was, like, on a mission, so I was definitely intrigued at this point because he was different than all -- I had ever seen him, but he was still this really strong guy.

Q. So tell me -- explain to me about this difference that you saw.

A. Well, so even whenever I first came in, it was like he had zero desire to talk to me about anything. He had this other idea that he wanted to do, so it was kind of just this look in his eyes of, I have no clue what you're saying to me; I don't care; I want you to do this, and you're going to do it. And so as I'm following him, I'm like, Okay.

Well, first of all, he's definitely going to respect me because I just even said the night before, I don't -- I'm not going to cheat on my husband; I just want to talk to you. I know -- redacted -- just come over, and we'll talk. But I'm at least thinking he's -- this is a turn-on enough that maybe he'll, like, turn me on, but, you know, nothing is going to happen, so ...

Q. So what happens when you get downstairs?

A. So he tells me, Put your hands on the pull-up rings. He has the pull-up rings hanging down, and I do what he told me. He took this kind of like stretchy gauze stuff and taped it around my hands to the rings, and, meanwhile, just kept looking at him, like, I can trust you; I can trust you. So there really wasn't anything spoken at this point. And he takes a blindfold and he puts a blindfold on me.

Q. Did you say put a blindfold on you?

A. No.

Q. Did you say wrap your hands up?

A. No.

Q. What happens after he puts the blindfold on you?

A. So he puts a blindfold on and says, All right. Before you get started working out, you need to be properly hydrated, like he had this script thing in his mind. So he puts water in his mouth and comes over to, like, spit it my mouth with the idea of, I guess, like, hot kissing or something, but it creeped me out because I haven't even kissed him yet, so I just let it dribble everywhere. And then he does it again, and he's like, I need you to be a good girl, and take the water in his mouth and spits it in my mouth again, to which I let it dribble down. Then he starts kissing my neck and kissing kind of down my, like, chest area and takes the T-shirt and rips it half -- like, rips it off of me.

Q. What were you thinking at this point?

A. I was definitely a little scared and a little grossed out, because I had not cheated on my husband at all. Definitely nobody had seen me even partially nude. But I have three kids, and I have, like, a weird hernia in my stomach, so I was also like, Oh, God, not only is he seeing me like this, but this is the first time -- and he commented on it. He was like, What happened to your belly button there? That was the only time he, like, broke character. So this is on my mind as well as, Oh, my God, what -- what the hell is going on? Now I'm partially nude and I'm down here.

Q. What happens next after he kisses your stomach area?

A. So he starts kissing my stomach area and takes my pants and pulls the pants down.

Q. So at this point are you naked?

A. I'm naked and I'm completely silent.

Q. And what happens next?

A. He steps back and I hear (gesture) and I see a flash through the blindfold, and he said, You're never going to mention my name to anyone. Don't even mention my name. Otherwise, I'm going to take this picture and I'm going to put it everywhere and everyone will know what a whore you are. Everyone will know what a little whore you are.

Q. What were you thinking at this point?

A. F, I am a whore. I am F'ing stuck down here. You're an asshole. I hate you. Who are you? Oh, my God, I don't know. I was like, What is going on? We haven't even kissed.

Q. Did you ever consent to a picture being taken?

A. No. No.

Q. So what happens next after you hear this? What are you -- what happens?

A. So he said, Now are you going to mention my name, to which I just stood there. I didn't say anything because I thought, F, all I want to do right now is tell somebody. This is insane.

So I didn't answer. And then he got up close to me and spanked me and said, Are you going to tell anybody? And I just said, No. Like, kind of gritting through my teeth, and it was like he was back on, like, okay.

Q. And what happens next?

A. We're back in motion, and he just comes around to the front of me and was back in his, like, character or whatever and starts kissing my stomach again and starts kissing down. Then I just flipped out and I started, like, ripping down my hands off of the rings, starting bawling crying. I was like, Get me out of here; I don't want this. I'm not ready for any of this. I want to leave. And I -- and at this point he's like -- redacted -- calm down, calm down, and he starts kind of helping my hand -- get my hand out of the thing.

Q. And you're trying to leave; is that correct?

A. Yeah. And I was like, I'm leaving. And I started going to go up the stairs, and he takes me and, like, wraps me in his arms. He's like -- redacted -- no, don't leave like this; don't leave upset; don't leave. And he takes me and lays me on the ground -- like, I'm in the fetal position on his, like, workout mat crying hysterically, and he's holding me just going, It's okay; it's okay; you're fine; it's okay; it's okay, just, like, hushing me.

Q. So at this point, what are you thinking? What's going through your mind?

A. I was just numb. I don't know. I felt so disgusted. I was so embarrassed. I was so mad. I don't know. I'm laying on the ground crying in front of somebody.

Q. So what happens next?

A. So then he's, like, calming me and shushing me, and then he starts, like, kind of trying to grope me and mess with me. And then he takes his pants down and puts his penis, like, in front of me -- like, in front of my face. And I thought, Okay, I guess he really does think I'm a whore. I'm just going to suck him off, and then he's happy and I'm done and I can leave.

So I did that. So I did that until he was -- until he was done. And then he completely changed and was just like, okay -- like he was totally fine with me getting up and leaving at this point. I literally just got up and went upstairs -- because my clothes were upstairs -- and went into the bathroom by myself, got changed, and grabbed my purse and left and went to work.

Q. So when you went to work, what happened? Like, what were you thinking?

A. Oh, my God, I was so disgusted. I was so mad. I hated him, but I was also so embarrassed because I let him get me in that position, too, so I was like, Oh, my God, I am so gross. I hate him.

But as soon as I get to work, I realize I freaking don't have my keys, because I always put my keys inside of my purse. I don't have my keys. He had taken them and sat them separate from my purse. So all day long, I'm just thinking, come on, please just drop them off. Find a reason to bring them to the front desk, you know? But, of course, that would incriminate him. So all day long, I'm just thinking, How am I going to get these freaking keys, because I -- I have to get them.

Q. So why couldn't you call him?

A. He had told me do not call me. And now I had called him from my work the night before, so do not call me from your work. Don't call me from anything.

Q. So what did you -- when did you get off work that day?

A. So I got off work at four, and he knew what time I was getting off because I had told him that morning, but I said, I can't come back. So I just took a chance and thought, I'm just going to go back there; I don't even care. And, hopefully, he's there. And I went back through the back door, and he was waiting in the kitchen.

Q. What happened next?

A. He was like, You left your keys, and he knew it. And I said, Yeah, all day long I was thinking of ways to get them back because I knew you told me, don't call you. And he said, I know, and I'm glad you didn't.

Q. What did you say to him?

A. I just said, I'm so pissed off. I'm so -- I'm so grossed out. I'm so pissed off. He said, I know. I thought about you all day long -- redacted. I knew you had to be mad. And I said, I know, EG, you took a picture of me. I haven't even let my husband take a picture of me. And he said, I know. I know. Do you have to --

Q. Please stop right there. He acknowledged he took a picture?

A. Oh, yeah.

Q. How did he acknowledge he took a picture of you?

A. Yes, I know -- yes, I -- I know -- redacted -- but I had to protect myself. You know, people will do whatever they can to take me down, you know, because I'm running for governor, so -- but I deleted it. You know, I thought about you, and I deleted it.

Q. Did he ever show you --

A. No.

Q. -- that he deleted it? Did you believe that he deleted --

A. No.

Q. -- the picture?

A. No.

Q. So what happened next?

A. So he just was -- he was back to, like, the guy I knew in the salon. He was the sweet, loving guy. He was sorry for what he had done. He -- and he told me, I'm sorry. I just thought that this would be something you would like. I fantasized about you so much. And he had enough of an explanation that I was like, Okay, maybe he's not actually disgusting. When I left, I left with, I'm not going to see you like this again. He agreed, and he said, But I still want to come in and get my hair cut with you.

Q. So you told him you do not want to see him in this way?

A. Right.

Q. And he said what now? What did he say?

A. And he agreed and said, But I still want to come in and get my hair cut with you.

Q. So where did you go after you left?

A. So I went home, and one of my best friends and I were supposed to be going out. And I called her -- I said, I need you to come over. I can't -- I can't go out. She said, okay, and so she came -- so she came, and I -- she was a coworker of mine, and I had told her about him rubbing on my leg, so at least she knew that part and she knew that I thought that he was this great guy or whatever.

Q. So what did you tell your friend that night?

A. So I told her everything.

Q. What did she say?

A. Oh, my God -- redacted. There's no way this guy has not done this before, and oh, my God -- redacted -- stop, it's okay. Because I was, like, inconsolable. I could not quit crying.

Q. When you say you were inconsolable, what happened the next couple of days? What were you thinking?

A. So I just kept thinking, I have to tell my husband, but I didn't. I hadn't had any sleep -- like, zero sleep. I could not sleep. I didn't sleep that night. I didn't sleep for the next, like, three nights, and I thought, the only way I'm going to be able to sleep is if I tell my husband, because I felt disgusting. I felt so shameful. I felt so embarrassed, and I -- I knew it was wrong of me to even go in his freaking house and do what I did.

Q. So at this time, you and husband are separated; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. But you felt so bad that you needed to talk to him?

A. Yeah. Because our separation wasn't legal and -- yeah. And also, too, I knew EG had a wife and --

Q. So what did you -- how did you reach out to your husband?

A. So I -- and I had talked to another one of my best friends who --

Q. Who is that person?

A. "J."

MS. MITTEN: Excuse me. We're going to have to redact line 9, the first word of that sentence.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Yeah.

Q. J. What's her last name?

A. I talked to her, and, of course, she was like, Gosh -- redacted -- this guy is a total creep, but, you know, do not tell -- redaction -- you know, because she -- I know her through my ex-husband.

They -- she and her husband used to be friends with him, but he was -- he was no longer -- he hasn't been friends with them for years because --

Q. So tell me your husband's name. I never asked you. Who is your husband? What's your husband's name?

A. PS.

Q. Okay.

A. So she -- but she said, you know how he is -- redacted -- and he will go insane. Do not tell. I was like, I know, but I can't -- I can't -- I can't sleep. I can't function like this. I can't do it. So I told -- I called my husband and I said, Listen, I need to tell you something, and it's really sensitive and really private. So he had said, Okay, how about let's meet somewhere.

MS. MITTEN: Shall we move on?

MR. BARNES: Yes.

MS. MITTEN: Page 41.

MR. BARNES: Next questioner and answerer.

(The following testimony was read from the transcript of "KS's" grand jury testimony taken on February 15th, 2018, narrated by Representative Kevin Austin and Representative J. Eggleston.)

Q. So when was this from the incident?

A. Like, it was four days later.
Q. So about March 20th -- around March 24th, 2015?
A. Yes.
Q. What happened next?
A. So we met in a parking lot -- like, a Shop 'n Save parking lot, and I got in his car, and he just said, KS, tell me everything. You better tell me everything, because I will know. I -- I know more than you think, and I will know if you don't tell me everything. I know -- I mean, in this -- in regards to EG? And I said, Yes. And he said, Well, just -- you have to tell me everything. So --
Q. And did you tell him everything?
A. I told him everything, except for I didn't tell him that I had given him oral sex until I -- I did tell him later, when we were back together, but I told him all -- all of the other.
Q. And what was your husband's response when you tell him about that the incident in the basement?
A. Oh, my God. I think -- kill him -- I will kill him. This guy is the lowest life. I -- I'm -- can destroy this guy in 30 seconds. And I just said, No, you can't do that, you can't do that.

Please, please, I'm begging you, do not. Please -- redacted -- just leave him alone. I'm not going to see him like this. Like -- please.

And he just -- so after we went through every single detail, because that was how our conversation went --

Q. At the time -- let's go back. At the time, did you know your husband was taping this?

A. Zero percent. No.

Q. So after you told him and you were begging him not to say anything, what was your -- I mean, you were trying to talk to your husband?

A. Yeah. I mean, I thought -- I didn't necessarily want to be back with him. I didn't know what I wanted; I just knew I can't sleep. I feel like complete shit. I feel awful. Maybe I'll feel somewhat better -- I'll be able to sleep, which I did, but he told me after that day that he -- I was disgusting. I was exactly what he thought I was. I was a home wrecker; I was a whore; I was all of these things. So he had to get an apartment instead of -- instead of staying at his brother's, to which he got an apartment for the next three months and --

Q. Well, just the conversation was -- was that it -- was that?

A. Yeah.

Q. So tell me, after this -- after you told your husband, did you tell anybody else besides your friends and your husband?

A. No. I didn't tell anybody else.

Q. And were you concerned about these pictures at that point?

A. Yeah. I was petrified about the pictures, and I was also petrified about -- obviously, he cares about this so much, so what else would he do, you know?

Q. So tell me, did he come -- did EG come back into the salon?

A. Yeah. So maybe a week or two after that, he came in for a -- what would be a regular appointment.

Q. Was that with you?

A. With me.

Q. And what happened next?

A. After he got there, he was like, Hey, you haven't told anybody, have you? Which, of course, I feel, like, so guilty, but I was like, No, no, I haven't. I haven't told anybody. He said, Good, because I have to see you. I cannot quit thinking about you. It's -- you're on my mind all of the time. I want to see you so bad. You are, like, the most incredible person ever. And he went back to that sweet, amazing guy filling me up with, you know, any sweet things that he could say to me.

Q. And at that point, did you later see him again?

A. I did.

Q. And when was that -- around when was the next time you saw him?

A. In that type of way would have been work. So he said, Can I come in early for my -- like, can you open up the salon early for my next appointment, and then, you know, we can see each other. Then we can actually talk -- because we still haven't even really, like, talked or anything, and we can see other.

So that was the next time that I saw him, and that was the first that I -- like, I let him in, I would assume at, like, 9:30. The salon usually opens at ten o'clock during the week. And I did kiss him willfully that time when he came in, and --

Q. And so after that, did have occasion to see him again, or did you -- did he make arrangements to see you again?

A. Yes.

Q. And when was that?

A. So the next time I saw -- then I didn't see him -- so there were, like, chunks of time that we just had no communication between haircuts or whatever. I was sitting outside the salon -- this would have been probably in May -- and I was sitting outside of the salon in between clients. I was reading a book. There was -- there was, like, a fountain by [redacted].

Q. And that's in [redacted]?

A. Yeah. So I was sitting there reading a book, and he drove by and was like, KS, come here, come here, and had me come up to his car and said, Oh, my gosh, you know, you look stunning. What are you doing tonight? Can you come over tonight? You know, I'm -- I want to see you.

So I said, Well, maybe I could come by for a little bit. I don't have long -- because even though my husband had an apartment, the kids never stayed the night there; they stayed the night with me every night. So that was the next time that I saw him. And that time was consensual.

I came in, we engaged in what would be oral sex, and the only thing that would have been even weird at all about that was that thing that he gets that's like -- like, this anger, testosterone thing he gets. That was the only thing that I thought was weird. Any time I was with him, I was just like, God, you're so different. You're so turned on.

Q. So tell me about that. So tell me about that. So you said it was like -- you know, you said it's two different EGs.

A. Yeah. Like a -- like I'm on a mission. I am -- I am this kind of angry guy, which I took it as, oh, it's probably because he was a Navy Seal; maybe some -- you know, maybe it's some sort of after effects of that. I don't know. But he was -- but he would get really kind of aggressive and just testosterone filled, and then he was just (demonstrated) afterwards.

So that night afterwards, he was just kind of like, okay -- after he had finished, and then I just left.

Q. And did you see him again in the salon?

A. So -- yes. He came in at least, like, probably one more time to me, but then I told him -- because at this point, my husband knew what I had already told him, so I told him, You can't come to see me, because if anybody sees you in my chair -- of course, I'm thinking my husband, because now he's moved out, but he's still obsessed. This is all he can talk about when he talks about -- or when he talks to me and has told me, If I ever drive by the salon or if anybody I know ever sees him in your chair, I will come in and I will absolutely confront him, and this guy will know that I know or whatever.

So EG -- then I told him, You can't come to me. So he started going to another girl in my salon for a short period of time.

Q. Then at that time, did you ever meet up again?

A. Yes. So he told me -- and it might have been in May when I saw saw him. I know at some point he told me -- because it was enough time away that his wife would be out of town for a week, and he wanted to see me as much as he could during this week.

Q. Do you remember what time frame that was? Like, where?

A. It would have been, like, end of July -- very -- end of June, very beginning of July.

Q. And what happened?

A. And he said, I want to be able to talk to you, so can I -- or I'm going to get you, like, a -- like, a disposable phone, so that way I can call you and I can't be traced, during this time when he was -- when she was out of town.

Q. Did you find that weird?

A. Yeah. But he made everything make sense to me, which was -- I just, regardless, can't -- I can't be seen with you because I'm running for office and people will try to destroy me.

Q. Now, let me back up. Every time he would come into the salon, would he say anything? Even prior, just after the incident?

A. Yeah. Well, he always was concerned with, Have you told anybody, KS; right? Have you not told anybody? You haven't mentioned my name to anybody?

Q. And what does this do to you in your mind? What would you feel like?

A. It makes me insane, because I feel guilty that I've even told anybody, let alone I've told somebody that I know for sure wants to kill him and -- or, you know, figuratively -- and me as well, because we're separated. He's angry at me, and all it will take is him telling him or it getting back to EG that he knows, and EG will do God knows what to me -- release this picture, but, also, you know, do whatever. So there's no I way can tell him that I've told anybody, but he keeps bringing it up, so it's just kind of an awful place to be in.

Q. So when EG says his wife is going to be out of town and he wants to see you that week, what happens that week?

A. So I told him that I could possibly see him. It was, like, a Saturday night. I went out with my girlfriends again. We were in the Central West End, which is common at that time, if we ever went out after work. And so after I went out with my friends for a little while, I left and went to his house. And at this point, I know he had the phone. I don't think it; he had it for a -- very long before --

Q. And this is a different phone from the first incident?

A. Right. It was like --

Q. It was a different number?

A. A random number, yeah.

Q. What kind of number was it, excuse me?

A. I don't know. I mean ...

Q. But it --

A. It was a 314 number, I believe, yeah.

Q. So it wasn't a 202 number; right?

A. No.

Q. Okay. What happened next?

A. So I went over to his house, and at first it was, you know, kind of exciting and consensual. We were just making out, and he was going to come upstairs into a room -- into a bedroom that he had -- I guess, spare bedroom. When were there, we were making out, and he sat up on the bed, like -- or he was standing. I was kind of leaning on the bed and he said, KS, have you been intimate with anybody? And I said, What do you mean? And he said, Have you had sex with anybody? And I said, Well, my husband. And I don't know at what point I had, but I had since the very beginning of this -- of me ever seeing him -- and he just slapped me hard across the face. And I was like, What the F? What did you do that for? You're married. And he said, You should not -- you should not be intimate with anybody else.

Q. At that point, what did you think? Did you consent to being slapped?

A. No. No. I thought -- I've never been hit like that, first, and, secondly, it was just like, Oh, my God, I think he's really screwed up from the war. So -- which I said to him -- I was like, EG, I think you have anger issues. I think the war screwed you up or something. And he was like, at this point, definitely no apology. I think in his mind, it was, You're mine; what do you mean?

So we talked, and so I -- then I asked him about -- you know, about being in a war, and, really, we just kind of had a conversation and -- because I wanted to understand why the hell would you think that that's a normal response? That's so --

Q. And so he said, even though you had a normal conversation, you still thought that situation was weird?

A. Yeah.

Q. So did you see EG later on?

A. So that would have been -- my guess would be, like, on a Saturday, so we talked probably Sunday, and I said I would come by -- because he said, you know, when else can I see you, KS? I want to see you again. And I said, Maybe before work one of these days this week. And so my guess is that I saw him either Monday or Tuesday before work, because he said, Can you come by and we'll do a workout together, like, just do -- go through a workout? So I agreed to come over one of those days.

Q. So -- excuse me. So it was the same time -- every time you come in is -- would it be the back way?

A. Yeah.

Q. It's always the same kind of similar, you know?

A. And then he goes out and he checks to make sure nobody followed me, yeah.

Q. Okay. So when he said, Let's do a workout, and you said it's probably before work, what happened next?

A. So I came in, and we did go through, actually, a normal workout together, and it was fine. And then -- and then he kind of -- you know, he came on to me. And then it was kind of sexual. Again, consensual at this point, but then -- then at some point -- this is really embarrassing. Sorry about --

Q. Take your time.

A. So we had never, like, actual intercourse, even throughout all of the times that I saw him. So to this point, we're, like, on the ground, I'm -- it would be as if we were in, like, doggy style position, but we weren't actually having sex. He was, like, fingering me. So -- and out of nowhere, he just, like, takes me and smacks me and shoves me to where I, like, hit the ground and started, like, bawling instantly, because it freaked me out. So I was like, What? And it was as if he was, like, all of a sudden overcome by some sort of psycho rush. I don't know.

So I just laid on the ground crying with him being, like, KS, it's okay; it's okay, not giving me any sort of explanation. I was just like, EG, I think something is really wrong with you. This is so weird. Oh, my God. And that time, like, it really hurt. I was like, What the hell? And it just came out of absolutely nowhere, too, so ...

Q. So at this point, do you -- do you still want to see EG at this point?

A. I don't know. That time -- that was the last time I saw him, but I don't know. I -- I left there so confused and grossed out at that point.

So I got ready, I went to work that day, and whenever I was leaving work that day, I was walking to my car. And you have to walk outside of the building to go into the garage, and EG was waiting for me kind of on the side, and he was kind of -- slyly said, Hey, I need -- I need you to follow me. And I was like, Oh, okay. And he followed me kind of to the car, watched me get in my car, and then got -- and just said, I'll be down. I guess, got in his car, and I followed him to a parking lot off of, like, Manchester -- kind of Manchester and Kingshighway, around there. And he said, Get in my car; I need to talk to you.

So I get in his car, and he said, KS, somebody e-mailed my wife today and said that they saw a woman coming into the house and that she's been there before. And I don't -- I think it's my neighbors who are, like, these Democrat operatives. Of course, in my mind, I'm like, Oh, my God, it's my husband or somebody else who he's had follow me; oh, no.

So he said, I told Sheena that is absolutely false, but -- so what I told her was that you came in to get a book for your daughter that I had signed and that I took you on a tour of the house, and then you went out the back way. And, you know -- so if anybody ever asks you, this is what you're going to say.

Q. What are you thinking at that point?

A. I just felt so used and disgusting. I felt so bad for his wife. I felt so gross. It was just like he obviously got what he wanted, and now he's -- you know? I don't know. I mean, at least -- so before I kept saying to him whenever I would see him, Please -- like, we just can't see each other, because I knew, even if I'm not married, you know, regardless of what happens in my marriage, he is staying married. This was the first time he expressed -- because he kept saying, I know, but I just have to see you. So this was the first time he expressed the same feeling of I -- I can't see you again like this. I want to still come in, and I said, No, do not come into the salon. That's not fair to me; it's not fair to your wife. Leave me alone; don't ever come in again.

Q. And this happened around what time? You said end of June, early July?

A. Yeah. Yes.

Q. Now, after this incident, did you have any other conversations with EG after this July incident?

A. One more. So shortly after that, my husband and I tried to reconcile, but from July to October, he tried FaceTiming me one time. Oh, and -- and he had also said he threw away that phone that -- when I saw him that day. He was like, I'm getting on a plane to go see her to convince her that it's absolutely nothing. I'm getting on a plane today -- even though she was still not going to be home for another four days or whatever -- and I'm throwing this phone away.

Q. And that happened. That's the conversation you had in the car; right?

A. Yeah. That was in July. And then in August at some point, I know he -- I had missed FaceTime, to which at that point I was back with my husband. I showed him, because he said, You ever -- you ever see him or anything, you need to tell me.

Q. So you have an iPhone; right?

A. I have an iPhone.

Q. And you believe that EG --

A. EG had to have an iPhone because there -- there was some point where he knew if he FaceTime audio me or whatever, that that wouldn't be on his phone bill. So I know he had done it at least once before. That was one of our discussions. So when he FaceTimed -- and then he FaceTimed me, but I missed it. I didn't talk to him in August.

Q. And what happened next?

A. So in October I saw EG walk by the salon, and, you know, I definitely knew he saw me. He walked in and asked them if he could get an appointment with me -- the girls at the front. And they said, Oh, yeah, KS can. Her -- my client after the one I had, had just canceled, so you can come or you can wait around and she'll do your hair.

So he sits down. And I said, EG, you cannot be here. And he said, I can't quit thinking about you, KS. I -- I just -- I want to see you. And I said, No, I'm back with my husband. And he was like, You have not told him anything, have you? And I said, No, but you can't -- you have to leave me alone. And I said, Whatever happened with your wife? And he said, She doesn't know anything. I convinced her it's nothing. And when -- but he was like, I can't believe you could be back with this guy, KS. He said enough things that I felt like he's not really going to leave me alone.

So in -- I got home again that day. I told my husband if I ever see him again or talk to him, I'll let you know. So I told him he came in; I did his hair. And he was -- my husband was so angry. How dare you ever do his hair. Who are you? This guy is never going to leave you alone. So I said, Fine, I'll e-mail him -- because I knew that he had told me so many times, do not e-mail me, do not call me -- and that way he won't. He will leave me alone.

So I e-mailed him just basically saying, You can't come into the salon at all. Please leave me alone. Please think of both of our families.

Q. And that's around October 2015?

A. Yes. And then that was the last time I had talked to him.

Q. And after October 2015, you never talked to him?

A. No. Not once.

Q. And at that time, were you -- what do you think about those photos? What were you thinking about those photos?

A. That's all it's going to take is my -- because shortly after this, my husband and I decided to for sure get a divorce, and my husband made it very clear that he wanted to ruin us, and I thought, all it's going to take is this word getting back to EG, and EG is going to kill me. At this point, I actually -- I got to the point where I wasn't as scared of the pictures once I was out of it, realizing you would be insane to do that because it would show -- it would incriminate him, but I was scared of him at this point.

Q. So when did you know your husband taped your conversation where you first told him?

A. So in October, after that happened where I explained, Listen, I sent the e-mail, and my husband said, Well, I still can't be married to you. I said, Okay. At this point, I was so exhausted -- because from July to October, we just had conversation after conversation about every detail of me seeing EG; everything I said, everything I felt, everything of his feelings towards me about how awful I was -- whatever -- I was a home wrecker. I was just so exhausted.

So I said, Fine, let's get a divorce, then. And he was like, You're not going to fight about it? And I said, No, I'm tired. I'm so exhausted. I did what you told me.

Q. So when did you get a divorce?

A. March.

Q. So October to March? Okay.

A. Yeah.

Q. So now when did you hear about this incident that this was out in the news media? Like, how did you hear about this prior to it being released out to the public? Like, when did you get notice of this?

A. I noticed it the month before. A woman showed up at my salon. She had booked it -- so I'm at a different salon, and now it's literally only my clients -- so it would very odd for somebody else to book an appointment -- and I noticed this -- but it's -- I have an online booking system, and I noticed this person was on my book that I had never met. I thought maybe a friend of mine gave her name out. I don't know.

So one of -- and I had even told -- one of my friends was in earlier that day, and I said, There's this person on my book that's kind of weird. So she comes in, and I said -- you know, Hi, I'm KS, I'm sorry. I was kind of shaken up. My client right before her -- a man probably in his 70s who had a glass of wine -- like a glass and a half of wine and fell into my mirror. He was obviously intoxicated, so I was super worried about him driving and hurting somebody.

So I said, I am so sorry, I'm kind of shaken up about my last client. And she said, Oh, well, you're night is going to get a lot more weird. I'm not here for an appointment; I'm here because I'm a reporter for Channel 4. I'm working on a story about EG. And I just instantly started crying. I'm like, Please, you cannot do this. This is -- this was so traumatic; do not go there. This whole thing. And I am finally past this point. Like, just please, do not do this. And she -- I said, my husband will do anything to hurt me, please do not. And she said, I know, but there are parts of this story that are really disturbing. And I said, Whatever you heard, you have to understand, my ex-husband will literally do whatever he can to hurt me, so please, please do not. I have children. I'm in school full-time. I own my own business; please.

And she was like, I understand, you know; I'm just concerned about some of the things that I heard, and, supposedly, there are other women. And I said, Well, if that's true, then I will talk to them. Tell me who they are, and I will talk to them. I do not want to talk to you. I don't want to talk about anything. I don't want to go on the record, please. And she said, Well, there are also rumors that you signed a nondisclosure.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Now we'll flip the questions and the answers. Do you -- technically, I believe we would go to Tommie. Do you guys mind if we just go in order, for ease of process -- or are the three of you okay with that, because we're going out of order -- Tommie is really the one that gets bumped out of order.

Representative Pierson, if you're good with that.

MR. PIERSON: In this case, not a problem at all.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Don't worry; you're going -- we're going to get to you, okay? We've got 800 pages. We are going to get to you.

MR. PIERSON: No problem.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

Proceed.

(The following testimony was read from the transcript of "KS's" grand jury testimony taken on February 15th, 2018, narrated by Representative J. Eggleston and Representative Curtis Trent.)

Q. So let's stop right there. Is that true?

A. No. And -- and that was the only thing that I did confirm to her, is that, no, I have not. I have not signed anything. I have not received any type of payment in any form. That was the only thing. The rest of it, you know -- she was like, Well, I -- one of the rumors is that he took a picture of you, and I -- I just said, Please, do not. Just don't do this story.

Q. So you're not -- you never wanted this to come out; is that correct?

A. No.

Q. And so when you finally heard it, it came out January 11th, 2018. What happened? What did you think?

A. It was awful. So that same woman -- so I kept getting these calls throughout the month. My good friend, who is an attorney, had -- I had told her about the incident way back when it happened, and she was one of the first ones -- as an attorney, she was like -- redacted -- do not be scared of this picture, because he's insane and, like, that would incriminate him.

Q. But did you believe that he -- you still believed that he would --

A. Yeah.

Q. -- have this picture?

A. Oh, yeah. Yeah. But -- and, also, too, what else are you capable of, you know? But she said -- redacted -- listen, do not say anything, period. If anybody tries to catch you off guard, just, like, don't say anything. They're not going to run this story without you.

Q. And when they ran the story with it out, what did you think? What was going through your mind?

A. I just felt so, like, used. Obviously, this woman had an agenda. Obviously, my ex-husband had an agenda. At this time, EG had an agenda. Oh, it was awful.

So -- and, too, I found out three minutes before it that it was her going live with it. She kept calling, and I would miss her calls. And the day before, she left a message on my voicemail saying, I need you to call me back. I just heard a recording where you say -- where you're speaking to your ex-husband and you say that, you know, you were blindfolded and there was a picture taken or whatever -- or, no, I think at this point, she just said there was a recording -- that's right.

And then I called -- redacted -- my friend and I said, I'm freaking out. She says that there is a recording and somebody is going to run a story. And so she called her -- redacted -- called her as my attorney and said, What is the deal with this recording, because she's never heard a recording that she's supposedly part of. And she -- and Lauren, the reporter, said, Well -- and then she explains that she was blindfolded; there was a picture taken.

So -- redacted -- called me back, and she's like, It sounds like he really did tape you because after we had positively decided to get a divorce, he had at some point threatened me saying, I could ruin you both in 30 seconds; I have proof of it.

Q. And this is your -- this is your husband; right?

A. This is my husband. And I said, Proof? And he said, I recorded you whenever you first confessed to me.

Q. So when you hear -- now, let me go back. Did anybody reach out to you from EG's?

A. No.

Q. Did anybody reach out to your counsel from EG's office?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you have a -- did you have knowledge of that conversation?

A. Yes.

Q. What was that conversation?

A. So this was after it came out. Nothing came in at first, and then I released a statement, because this was -- would have been, like, the day after.

Q. So January 12th?

A. Or two days after, maybe.

Q. 2018?

A. Yeah. Or the 13th. Because I had read a report that the reporter -- the Channel 4 reporter was kind of getting -- people were asking her questions. Why did you decide to run this without the woman? And she made a comment that it was because she had had an off-the-record interview with me, and I wanted to make sure that people knew, you know, this was not an interview; this was you ambushing me at my salon.

So my attorney wrote a statement saying, you know, any on-the-record or off-the-record interviews were simply to say she didn't want to be a part of this story, and then, you know, whatever else, just please allow me privacy.

And so after that was released, EG's attorney reached out to my attorney and said, Listen, I know a way that -- you know -- or what does your client want out of this? And my attorney said, She doesn't want to be part of this. And he said, Well, I know a way that she could do that. She could come out and say that none of this is true.

Q. Now, were you going to say none of this was true?

A. No. No. And --

Q. Then what happened next? Was there another conversation that took place?

A. So then he called back again and said, I -- we were going -- I took this back to EG, and he was actually going to be doing an interview where he would explain that everything, you know, was false, but now that he knows where she stands, he decided to cancel it.

Q. So when you hear there was no blackmail, there was no photo, there was no thread of a photo being taken -- is that true?

A. No. No. And that's like -- I think he would have just stepped out and said, I don't want to talk about any of it; I don't even know what I would feel that I would feel that emotional, because that would be some -- that would be him admitting it, to me.

Q. And you never wanted this come out, so this is not some vindictive --

A. No.

Q. You know, you didn't come here because you -- I mean, this has been --

A. No. It's because I -- it's embarrassing, and I have kids, and I just keep thinking -- because my -- my ex-husband is very well known, and I'm like -- you know, I know that whether it's EG's fans or my ex-husband's fans, somebody who doesn't know me is going to do or say something to me or my kids that's harmful, you know?

Q. And you're not a political person?

A. No.

Q. Mr. Steel, have you any questions?

MR. BARNES: Mr. Steel says, Yeah, just to wrap things up.

And now questions by Mr. Steel. You can be Mr. Steel.

MR. EGGLESTON: Okay.

Q. I know you talked to her for a while. Just so we're clear, is there any doubt in your mind that EG took your photo in March of 2015?

A. No doubt.

Q. Did you have knowledge prior to him taking that photo that he was going to take a photo? Did you have consent to him taking that photo?

A. No.

Q. Were you bound when he took that photo?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he rip off your shirt?
A. Yes.
Q. Did he pull down your pants?
A. Yes.
Q. Were you partially or fully nude when he took a photo?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, you also indicated that at some point, you and him had -- did what's called FaceTime. I could -- and could you explain what -- what is FaceTime?
A. FaceTime. You know, to have an iPhone -- both people have to have an iPhone, and you can either -- it basically uses WiFi to call each other either through -- you know, you can see each other's face, or you can do it through FaceTime audio, but it goes through WiFi, as opposed to your calling plan.
Q. Okay. Now, in terms of that picture that he took that -- again, you said there's no doubt in your mind that he took that nude picture of you while you were bound, and he took it, in your opinion, with an iPhone. Do you know if you can transmit or send a photo from an iPhone to social media?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. In addition -- I'll wrap this up. You indicated that you told a friend back in March of 2015 about that incident.
A. Yes.
Q. And this was the same night; is that right?
A. That -- I may have told her the next day, but it was -- yeah -- right away.
Q. Okay. Right away.
A. Oh, I -- I did tell somebody that night. That was another friend, yes.
Q. Okay. So at least within a couple of days, you told those two people?
A. Yes.
Q. And in addition to that, three or four days later, you told your husband?
A. Yes.
Q. And at the time you did not know he was taping you?
A. No.
Q. But you told him that EG had taken your picture in his basement while you were bound and that you were nude and he took that picture without your consent?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. That's it.
MR. BARNES: Keep going. So now you're back to Ms. Gardner, and then you're going to be grand jury members.
MR. BARNES: I'll do the indication.
Ms. Gardner.
Q. So we're going to have questions and, we could -- because I know it went long -- you know, we can -- if you guys wanted to wait, and we'll bring Ms. ---
MR. BARNES: How did that make it in there? Redacted.
Q. Redacted -- back if there's any questions, but did anybody have any questions?
MR. BARNES: Question by a grand juror.
Q. I don't want to be disrespectful. It sounds like you've been through a lot. I guess all I want to ask you is, having had the experience you had with EG the first time you went to his house, why did you go back a second time?
A. That's a great question. I think that's why it was so insane for me. I think it's because of my conversation with my husband and how he reacted. I felt like I wanted to think that he liked me; that he didn't think of me as this gross, you know -- expletive -- or whatever. And when he came back in and he was so nice to me, and now my husband obviously thinks I'm disgusting, he doesn't -- he hates me. I don't know. I think I just wanted to feel like truly desired instead of that. After that first time, I felt so shameful. I feel awful. So I think it was just maybe if my husband had responded by some other way and we didn't have to get back together, because I obviously didn't necessarily want that either -- I didn't know what I wanted. I just felt awful. When he came back in, I felt like this -- this guy is -- yeah, he's good. I -- I think he was just maybe -- that was a weird thing. I don't know. I just tried to convince myself that it wasn't. I really and truly did not go back there in my mind until he won governorship. That was the first time that I -- and it's true that he's sad about it. Before that, I was really just scared and I didn't want to think about it. I really just pushed it out of my mind because it was so gross to me.

Q. So it was a traumatic experience?

A. Really traumatic. But I thought, no, no. It -- he really liked me. He had feelings for me.

I mean, he said a lot of things that made me feel good, too, and it really wasn't -- I didn't -- I didn't really cry about it. I didn't really feel sad about it until he won, and then I was really sad because I thought, When is this ever going to go away? Because I knew my husband was, at that time, even trying to put it out to the media, because I knew people who had told me: I just wanted you to know that there's these rumors that your husband is shopping his story, so I just thought, it's never going to go away, and this guy has all of this power, you know?

And that was the first time that I realized how -- and, plus, I was outside of it, I think, because I had never been vulnerable like that before. I was always so strong or so I thought, you know? So that was the other reason why it was extremely shameful to me, because I was so weak. I did go back. That was so -- yeah.

Q. When you were there and he separated your keys from your purse, then how did you get to -- you've got separate keys from your job from your car?

A. Oh, my. There were already people at my salon.

Q. Oh, you --

A. Yeah. So the only way that it would -- like, the day that I came in early, if you are the on -- if you are the one opening the salon, you would go to the front desk. They keep the keys there.

Q. So how did you get from his house --

A. I walked. It's a block away.

Q. Now, where did you park your car when you initially started going to his house? Because you said he would come out to make sure you weren't followed. So did you have to park your car, like, a block away and walk?

A. I would -- yeah. I would -- I would park at the salon.

Q. Oh. And walk? Okay. Got it.

A. And then it's a block away, so then I would walk down through that --

Q. Alley?

A. -- alleyway, and then he would come out there to make sure nobody, you know, was physically following -- like, walking by or whatever.

Q. Okay. That's my only question. I'm sorry that happened to you.

A. Thank you.

Q. Any other questions?

It's more of a kind of personal. I'm curious, because it sounds like you were -- and it sounds like he was -- well, anyway, do you think you would still have somewhat of a relationship with him at this point today, if it hadn't been --

A. That's a great question. I mean ...

Q. -- creepy or whatever you want to call it?

A. If he hadn't --

Q. If he hadn't been so creepy about that side of him and had been that nice, telling you what you wanted to hear --

A. Him still married? Yeah.

Q. -- kind of stuff.

A. The part that -- honestly, at that time, those things, I couldn't even physically deal with. I couldn't even think -- oh, my -- a reference to Divine -- he hit me that really grossed me out so much, or I couldn't believe that I had dealt with that, that I couldn't deal with that at the time. I wasn't thinking those things when I left. I was, however, extremely obsessed with and thought about it a million times. He's married. He has a wife.

So I had not told my husband, had he been separated or expressed that that was the route that he was wanting to take, possibly, but because I did not feel like that, I just felt gross. I -- so even if he was this loving, great guy the whole time, that would have just -- that was the biggest thing in my mind at that time.

Q. Thank you.

So other than this the specific times that you already talked about -- so, anyway, you had talked about when -- the day the picture -- then you you talked about when you got knocked down on the mat and that. Other than that, was there ever any violence?

A. No. No. Just his demeanor. I don't -- I don't know how else to describe that, other than -- and not even when he was at the salon. He's a very -- he's kind of an aggressive guy, which was part of the appeal, if it didn't go to the other side, because he's very -- he stands very close. He -- when he shakes your hand, he shakes it hard. When he touches you, everything is aggressive with him. But the only time it -- I actually felt scared were those times. The other times it was more just an observation of you're an extremely aggressive person; whereas, my dad was, like, a gentle dad, you know? I don't -- I just wasn't -- I'm not familiar with that sort of --

Q. So other than that -- not really violent, just more intimidating?

A. Yes. That would be -- yes.

Q. Any other questions?

So when you guys initially went down to the basement and the photo was taken, you said you were blindfolded at the time. Did you -- did he bring his phone downstairs with him, or was there anything -- a camera sitting out on a table?

A. There was definitely not a camera. No, it sounded like a phone. I didn't see his phone, but it had to have been down there. I mean, I heard -- it sounded, you know, just like a phone -- (demonstrated) -- like that. But it -- but I didn't see the phone prior to. I didn't really notice anything because I was so in shock at, like, what is going -- you know?

Q. And to clarify, you also saw a flash; right?

A. Yeah.

Q. So just so I have it clear in my own head -- so it seemed like that time, the time that the picture was taken, it seemed like it was all planned out ahead of time --

A. Yes.
Q. -- to have the picture to convince you not to talk to anybody?
A. Possibly.
Q. Like, this was all like a -- like you were saying something about it was more like an operation. Like this was a plan?
A. Yes.
Q. To set up for anything else?
A. Right.
Q. Well, I appreciated you.
Your case is not any different than people in the past or in the future. Why are you here in the grand jury telling your story to a grand jury?
A. Because I was subpoenaed.
Q. Who subpoenaed you?
A. (Indicated.)
Q. Can I -- I'm going to have him, and then I'm going to go to you.
Yes, sir.
And you say when you went downstairs and he had you place your hands in the -- on the -- some type of bar, did he, like, take something and wrap it around your wrist so that you were -- so you couldn't -- you couldn't take your hands down?

A. Right. But it was -- it was, like, a spongy sort of exercise tape to where I was able to -- once I was ripping my arms, it was kind of coming apart.

Q. Right. It wasn't something that --

A. So -- and he had to help me. He did --

Q. But it was something that you had to -- something that you could just wrap around, like --

A. Just like a -- like a tape.

Q. Yeah.

A. Just like a tape, yeah.

Q. Any other questions?

Yes, ma'am.

It's very unfortunate. After all of that, did he allow you to shower, or did he just say, you know, I'm done and we're done, and go on your way? He didn't try to --

A. Like, care for me?

Q. Yeah. He didn't allow you to take a shower or anything?

A. The last time that I was there, I said we worked out.

Q. Uh-huh.

A. That time, I did. That was the only time. The other times --

Q. Okay.

A. I literally left right after. It was, you know, it was like ...

Q. I'm sorry?

A. Oh, I'm done.

Q. Okay. I understand.

Any other questions?

MR. BARNES: Now we're back to Mr. Steel here.

Q. And I just want to get some clarification. If there are any other questions -- just so we're clear on something, she asked -- one of the alternates asked -- not an alternate -- one of the jurors asked you about the picture, and you were blindfolded. After that, I believe you previously testified that you approached him and asked him about the picture, and he acknowledged that he had taken that picture and that he had deleted it.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So there was no doubt he confirmed he took the picture?

A. Correct. When I had to come back to get the keys.

MR. BARNES: And then the rest is Ms. Gardner thanking the grand jurors being there and talking about a potential next time.

So why don't we then go -- Representative Trent, you can be the questioner.

What I want to do is take, like, three minutes, because we got caught off guard a couple of times there with things that should have been redacted that weren't. So three minutes to do -- everyone to do a quick run-through. It's only the first 20 pages of this.

Representative Mitten went to print, I believe, the first 100 pages of the cross-examination, and then we'll have a break to do that same thing for the cross-examination.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: So let me set the stage here for exactly what we're doing. This is the -- Witness 1's apparent second appearance before the grand jury. The first transcript that we read was an appearance on February 15th, 2018. The second one is February 22nd, 2018. The questions start with Mr. Steel.

Representative Trent.

(The following testimony was read from the transcript of "KS's" send grand jury testimony taken on February 22nd, 2018, narrated by Representative Curtis Trent and Representative Greg Razer.)

Q. Would you put your name on the record for us.

A. KS.

Q. Okay. Now you've previously testified -- I think it was Tuesday; is that correct?

A. Thursday.

Q. Thursday. Okay. And I'm going to just refer you back to that. Do you recall your testimony on that date?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Was it the truth, the testimony that you gave at that point?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it the whole truth?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it nothing but the truth?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you leave anything out?

A. No.

Q. And is it your testimony today that all of that you told us previously was the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

A. Yes.

Q. And you stand by it affirmatively?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. We'll just go over a couple of things, just to make sure this stuff is also on the record. You talked about the incident on March 21st, 2015?
A. Yes.
Q. And you know it was the 21st, because -- redacted -- was on March 20th?
A. Correct.
Q. And you also talked about an incident in that -- in the basement with Mr. G?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, you indicated -- or I'll just let you tell the story again.
When you went there and went into the basement, what happened in the basement?
A. Well, he had prior to asked me to change into a T-shirt and pajama pants.
Q. Okay. Let me interrupt you one second. Did the T-shirt and the pajama pants -- where were those located when you came to his house?
A. On the kitchen counter.
Q. And the T-shirt, was it already cut?
A. Yes. It was cut at the top.
Q. Okay.

A. Like a little slit at the top.

Q. And was the slit in the T-shirt when you got there?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Go ahead.

A. And when he took me downstairs, he told me he was going to take me through a workout, wanted to show me how to do a proper pull-up, and asked me to put my hands on these pull-up rings that he had in his basement. He took, like, a gauze tape and taped my hands to them -- to the rings and then --

Q. And let me interrupt you one second. The gauze tape that he taped you to --

A. Yes.

Q. -- was that already in the basement?

A. Yes. I mean, he didn't have -- he never left the room.

Q. Okay. So whatever was there, he had already put in the basement?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Go ahead.

A. And then he began, like -- or no. Then he put a blindfold on me, and then he began trying to, I guess -- what he said was to hydrate me and tried to put -- like, spit water into my mouth.

Q. Okay. Had you-all -- yourself and Mr. G had any physical sexual contact at that point?

A. None.

Q. Had you ever kissed him at that point?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Go ahead.

A. And so he tried doing that a couple of times, and I just kind of let the water spill out, because I was confused about this. And so then he began kind of kissing on my neck and kissing down my chest, and then he ripped open the shirt.

Q. Okay. Now, with the shirt, you indicated that the shirt was already cut at the top?

A. Correct.

Q. In your opinion, did that previously cut portion of the shirt make it easier for him to tear the shirt off?

A. Yes.

Q. And do you think that that was part of the plan? That he had already planned to tear that shirt off?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Go ahead. And then he kind of kissed down my stomach, and then he pulled down my pants and then stepped back and was kind of just quiet for a minute, and then he -- I could hear like a -- (she makes a sound effect) -- and see a flash through the blindfold. And then he said, You're not going to speak my name to anybody. Don't even speak my name, because if you do, then I'll put these pictures everywhere for everyone to see what a little whore you are.

Q. Okay. And this incident took place at his home?

A. Yes.

Q. In the Central West End?

A. Yes.

Q. And that's in the City of St. Louis?

A. Yes.

Q. I believe he lived on Maryland. I'm not sure of the exact address.

A. Yes.

Q. But the address was posted on the rear way as you come through the alley?

A. Correct.

Q. Now, after he had taken this photo, you indicated that he had said something to the effect of, Don't say my name, or something?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he tell you what repercussions would happen if you did not follow his instructions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did he tell you would happen?

A. He said he would put the picture everywhere he could, blast it all over the Internet for everyone to see.

Q. Okay. And did you have children?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you concerned about your children seeing this on the Internet?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, at some point, you left the house?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And you returned. And did you ask him about the photo when you returned?

A. Yes.

Q. And what did he say?

A. I deleted it. I -- he said, I thought about you today -- because he obviously -- he knew I was upset. Whenever I left, he just said, I thought about you, and I deleted it. But I had to protect myself, you know? There are people who will be out to get me because I was running for governor.

Q. Okay. I'm going to go over a few things for you, just to wrap this up and try to get you out of here as soon as possible.

I asked you this before, and I'll ask you again. Did Mr. G knowingly take your picture?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he do so without your knowledge and consent?

A. Yes.

Q. At the time he took your picture, were you in a state of full or partial nudity?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you have some expectation of privacy in his home?

A. Yes.

Q. The item that he took your picture with, is it your belief that it was an iPhone?

A. Yes.

Q. And I assume you have one yourself?

A. Yes.

Q. And I think -- I think you said you and he had did -- is it called FaceTime?

A. FaceTime, correct.

Q. Okay. And on those iPhones or a smartphone, can you transmit those pictures to a PC or a laptop?

A. Yes.

Q. And can those pictures also be transmitted straight to the Internet, Facebook, or some other social media?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Nothing further.

MR. BARNES: Ms. Gardner opens the questions to the grand jury. So question from Grand Jury No. 1.

Q. What was the blindfold made of? What kind of cloth?

A. I don't remember. That's a good question. It was dark. I mean, it wasn't, like, a white sock or anything; it was something dark. Some sort of dark material. I'm not sure.

MR. BARNES: Any other questions?

Yes, ma'am.

Q. So he physically tied the blindfold?

A. Yes. My hands were already --

Q. And you saw that, and you saw that it was a blindfold before he put it on your face?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. BARNES: Ms. Gardner says, Thank you; I appreciate it. Thank you. And then proceeds with the examination of -- I believe it was the person who was Witness 2 for us.

Okay. We're going to skip the Witness 2 here, and we are going to go to the cross-examination of the first deposition of Witness 1. Representative Mitten is going to hand these out. I believe these are the first 100 pages.

The reason -- for members of the media, we're working on the additional redactions that we made to those grand jury transcripts, and we'll be releasing that this afternoon. We're also going to be doing the same thing with these other documents as we go through them. We just want to make sure you guys who are in the room saw that there were a couple of things in our redactions that we missed the first time around -- part of the reason why we're doing it this way -- and so what I want to do is take a moment, again, here for members of the committee to look through this.

Why don't we go ahead and call this a recess for ten minutes, because this is a hundred pages, and I want to make sure that we've got this redacted properly. If we're going to take a break, let's do it, but we are not going to be on legislative time; we are going to be on real world time, ten minutes.

We'll be back here at 2:20. Representative Trent, I believe, has ten more pages.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: We are going back on the record. I called Mr. Dowd, because I wanted to make sure he knew we were going back in. He said he knew that; thanks for calling; go ahead and start. Obviously, he knows what we're about -- what we're about to do, and I -- I don't know if he was in this deposition, but I'm 100 percent confident that he has read this deposition before.

So now we are on the deposition -- videotaped -- it says, "videotaped deposition." For the record, we have not just requested, but we have subpoenaed the actual videotape itself from the Greitens team. We've yet to receive it. We've also sent a subpoena to the circuit attorney's office. They immediately complied with the subpoena, as they had previously discussed, although they do not have possession of the video itself.

It has come to my attention -- I think that there are three separate cross-examination depositions of Witness 1. We have two of them of which I'm aware right now. I hope to obtain the third in short order. And this is the longest one that we're starting right now, and this is the first cross-examination deposition taken of Witness 1. It is approximately 820 pages long. It was taken by Scott Rosenblum. It lasted -- it started at 9:16 -- I think it lasted nine and a half hours. And we will take this -- my plan is to go 100 pages at a time between breaks.

Seeing no objection, I believe we were on -- we start on page 7 -- let me clarify for the record that this began on April 6th, 2018, at 9:16 a.m. There are six pages of legalisms, getting on the record, and who is there, and then you get to the examination by Mr. Rosenblum, and for the moment, Mr. Trent is going to be Mr. Rosenblum, and Mr. Razer is going to be Witness 1.

So starting on line 15.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Curtis Trent and Representative Greg Razer.

Q. So we're going to be referring to you as KS during the course of this deposition.

A. Okay.

Q. And we have never met; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. As you know, you have been now informed I represent, along with Ms. Nasser and Mr. Garvey next to me, EG. We're going to be asking you some questions regarding the case that is now pending against the governor here in the circuit court, okay?

A. Okay. Yes. I'm sorry.

Q. All right. So have you been deposed before?

A. No.

Q. So you are under oath, and I'll talk to you a little bit about that, and we'll be asking you questions. You're on video. And even though on video, you can see heads nod and your gestures and facial expressions. It's still important that we make a record, which means I'm going to ask you to answer the questions actually verbally, okay?

A. Okay.

Q. If you don't understand any of my questions, please let me know; otherwise, I will assume that you've understood the question.

A. Okay.

Q. If you haven't answered or you need to guess or speculate, I would also ask you to let me know about that.

A. Okay.

Q. Okay? Or if at any time you need me to rephrase a question so that you have a specific understanding, we have as much time as you need, so let me know if that ever happens, okay?

A. Okay.

Q. Do you have any questions before we get started?

A. No.

Q. And as you can probably imagine, this case has been pending for a while, and we have been investigating this case, about every aspect of it. That probably does not surprise you, does it?

A. No.

Q. You notice that before you start answering these questions, you were placed under oath?

A. Yes.

Q. And you understand that's going to be the same oath that you will be placed under in the event that you're called as a witness in this matter?

A. Yes.

Q. And you understand that a violation of that oath, in some circumstances, would be a crime of perjury?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Now your social security number is -- redacted?
A. Yes.
Q. And the date of birth is -- redacted?
A. Correct.
Q. And do you have a phone number that is different from the phone number that was used during the year 2015?
A. Currently, no.
Q. Currently?
A. No.
Q. Okay. And just for the record -- and -- and just for our knowledge, who will be defending this deposition, Mr. Steel? Ms. Gardner?
MR. BARNES: Steel.
Q. Okay. And it's my understanding, just so that we are clear, you have your personal attorney here with you today, Mr. Simpson.
A. Yes.
Q. And it's my understanding as to the protocol, is that Mr. Simpson can make objections with respect to privilege or constitutional issues such as the Fifth Amendment, but, otherwise, it's my understanding he will not be defending the deposition with respect to the form of the questions and other such objections. Is that your understanding as well?

MR. BARNES: (Mr. Simpson) Yes, I believe it is.

Q. Okay.

Now prior to the meeting here today, I would assume you've had some discussions with the circuit attorney's office and those prosecuting this case?

A. Yes.

Q. And you had some discussions, obviously, before you testified before the grand jury; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Specifically, you were informed that this case was going to be used as initials; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. So within the grand jury, you testified with respect to EG, as opposed to a name, and that was at the direction of the circuit attorney's office?

A. Correct.

Q. Before you testified before the grand jury, did Mr. Steel, Ms. Gardner, or anyone associated with the circuit attorney's office review with you the specific elements of the crime which they are pursuing against EG?

A. No.

Q. Do you know what I mean when I'm talking about elements?

A. Maybe clarify.

Q. Okay. I will. Did they discuss with you at any point before the grand jury what the crime -- what the facts or factors are comprised within this particular offense, invasion of privacy, for instance, what the state has to prove?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Now, prior to this deposition, did you spend some time with the prosecutors in the circuit attorney's office in preparing for this deposition?

A. Oh, I mean -- I got together with my attorney.

Q. Your attorney, Mr. Simpson?

A. Yes.

Q. And I certainly don't want --

A. Yeah.

Q. -- to know about the discussions you had with him, okay?

A. Correct.

Q. So I'm specifically excluding those discussions, unless Mr. Simpson was present with you when you were talking about or discussing or reviewing this deposition with the circuit attorney's office, Ms. Gardner, Mr. Dierker, Mr. Steel, or anyone else in that office.

A. I didn't discuss it with them, but I've spoken to them before this, I guess, yeah.

Q. Well, when was the last time you met with the circuit attorneys? And when I'm saying "the circuit attorneys," I'm referring to any of the individual circuit attorneys that have been involved in this case, okay? So when was the last time you spoke with them prior to this deposition?

A. Tuesday.

Q. Of this week?

A. This week, correct.

Q. And for how long of a period of time did you meet with them?

A. A couple of hours.

Q. Two hours? More? Less?

A. I would say around two hours, yes.

Q. Okay. So I would imagine, generally, they spoke to you about what a deposition is all about; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And did they go over with you some of the subject matters that they believed we would be asking you?

A. I don't know if it was what they believed were -- that you would ask. I'm not sure.

Q. Well, it was a two-hour conversation, and, obviously, just what's -- what a deposition is doesn't take that long; correct?

A. I have no clue.

Q. Well, why don't you tell me what you talked about, then. Maybe it's easier that way.

A. Sure. They kind of just asked me to tell me -- go through the details of what I remembered and stuff like that.

Q. So, essentially, they asked you, again, to go over some of the issues that you discussed with grand jury; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Now, at any time during the course of that discussion did they talk to you about questions that they believed that I may be asking you or that anyone taking your deposition?

A. They never stated, Oh, I think this is what he's going to ask, but they asked questions, I think, just to ease my mind, to make me feel a little bit more comfortable.

Q. They asked questions that they thought would come up in this deposition?

A. No. I have no clue if that's --

Q. At any point in time after they asked you questions did they review with you a particular answer that you gave?

A. No.

Q. Did they ever suggest to you -- suggest to you a different way to answer a particular question?

A. No.

Q. Now, would it be fair to say -- well, first of all, you know what a lie is, do you not?

A. Yes.

Q. And you certainly know that when one lies, they can lie by commission, which is -- which means they actively tell a lie; correct?

A. Correct .

Q. Or sometimes one can lie by omission. Do you know what that means?

A. Yes.

Q. And just so we're on the same page, lying by omission would be specifically not answering a question that you know the answer to, but you chose not to because you're trying to be deceitful at that time. Would that be fair?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And it would also be fair that throughout the course of this case, going back to 2015 and -- and -- and before you certainly had lied to your husband, PS, on numerous occasions.

A. In regards to this case or in --

Q. Well, let's -- we can say in regards -- generally -- that was an issue in your marriage where you were accused of lying, rightfully or wrongfully, throughout the course of your marriage?

A. I was accused, yes.

Q. And specifically with this case, you lied to your husband, PS, on numerous occasions. We can go through the material and I can point them out, but would you agree with me that you lied to him multiple times?

A. I would say that I -- I did omit certain things because of real reasons.

Q. Well, I didn't ask you about the reasons. Right now I'm just asking you about whether or not you lied to your husband during the course of this case.

A. Yes. I did omit certain things during first conversations with him.

Q. Okay. Well, not only did you admit certain things, you told lies about certain things, did you not?

A. Can you clarify?

Q. Well, about certain activities you were engaged in. You made up stories, yes?

A. No. I'm --

Q. Certain?

A. Can you clarify, please?

Q. Sure. Maybe you would tell him you were going to a location that you didn't go to, which was a lie.

A. I don't -- can you clarify, please?

Q. Well, sure. If we go through -- you've read the tran- -- have you -- by the way, what have you reviewed prior to this deposition?

A. I read a couple of pages of my conversation with my ex-husband.

Q. So when you say "a couple of pages," the transcript is --

A. I got to -- I got to the part where I was in the basement, and then I -- I couldn't read any further.

Q. Okay. So you didn't read the whole transcript. Did you read your grand jury testimony?

A. No, I have not.

Q. You've testified before the House committee, have you not?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. How long was that testimony?

A. A few hours.

Q. To your recollecting was that testimony that you gave to the House committee essentially the same as what you gave to the grand jury?

A. Yes.

Q. Does anything stand out that was different?

A. No.

Q. As you sit here now, do you recall whether you added information or left out any information?

A. If it was asked of me, yes.

Q. Okay.

A. I mean, I would have added if people asked me something.

Q. All right. And I'm not going to beat this up, but, I mean, it's fair to say that you have lied to your husband during the course of this case. Is that a correct statement? Yes or no?

A. In the beginning, there were certain things omitted, yes.

Q. Again, that's a lie; correct? I'm just asking if you lied to your husband during the course of this case. It's a yes-or-no answer.

A. By your definition, yes --

Q. Okay.

A. -- I lied to him.

Q. And, obviously, you had lied to others during the course of this case, have you not?

A. Can you clarify?

Q. Sure. There was a counselor -- a marriage counselor by the name of -- redacted -- that you lied to, yes?

A. Yes.

Q. That was my question.

A. I would -- I would like to clarify that.

Q. Well, the lawyers on the other side of the table can clarify something, if they choose to, okay? Right now I'm asking the questions, and I would appreciate it if you would answer them. Fair enough?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So when I'm asking you whether or not you lied to what -- what's -- redacted -- last name, by the way?

A. Redacted.
Q. Okay. And -- redacted -- was a marriage counselor?
A. Yes. And -- redacted -- was a marriage counselor that you and PS were going to for the problems in your marriage; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And that predated any activity with EG, yes?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And there's no question that you lied to -- redacted. You admitted that to your husband?
A. Yes.
Q. And there's no question that during the course of this case, you lied to your friends; correct?
A. No.
Q. You never lied to your friends for any reason?
A. No. Not -- not intentionally.
Q. I didn't tell every person every part of the story because there are parts --
Q. I understand --
A. That are extremely personal.

Q. I understand that's your definition, but there was an evening, for instance, where you left your friends to go see EG, yes?

A. Yes.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Representative Razer, Representative Pierson.

I think for clarification -- here is why I'm pausing. April 6th -- did we release our report on April 21st?

MS. MITTEN: 11th.

MR. BARNES: Report No. 1.

We'll get back to that. April 11th; is that correct? April 11th. So this was five days before Report No. 1 came out.

Okay. Representative Razer.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Greg Razer and Representative Tommie Pierson, Jr.)

Q. And you told your friends you were going to see PS, yes?

A. No.

Q. That never happened?

A. I told my -- no. Because I knew my girlfriend knew that I was going there, yes. So whoever I told, that's what I told them.

Q. You said you read the transcript; correct -- or portions of it; correct?

A. I have not read past that -- whenever I was in the basement.

Q. And starting on page 38 of that transcript, which depicts the conversation you had unwillingly with your husband -- well, that you had with PS that was to you and that you did not know it was taped; fair enough?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And in that transcript there was a question. And to give you the context:

"Could you have sex with me after this this last weekend?"

Your answer was: "No. Just --"

"And you just talked to him for a moment on the 20th, when you were supposed to be out with your friends?"

Your response was: "I was out with my friends. They thought I was talking to you. I lied to them."

Do you recall making that statement?

A. Oh. This was on the phone when I was speaking to EG on the phone, yes.

Q. And his response, "Oh, the circles we weave."

And your response: "PS, I don't know who I am."

Okay. So given the additional information, does that refresh your recollection that you, in fact, lied to your friends on that occasion?

A. I believe what it's talking about is EG and I spoke on the phone, and I told them that it was PS on the phone, so yes.

Q. That's my question. You lied to your friends; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. During the course of this case; correct?

A. Not during the course of the case. This wasn't a case at that time.

Q. Well, during the course of --

A. Being involved in something that was --

Q. Being involved in something.

A. -- very difficult, yes.

Q. And you lied to your friends at that point. I would imagine at that point, suited your purposes, yes?

A. At that point, I think I was extremely nervous, extremely confused. I didn't know what was going on at that point.

Q. At this point you lied to your friends because, at that point in time in your life, it suited your then purposes to accomplish a particular goal, yes? Why else would you have made up that lie to your friends? You didn't want them to know something, yes?

A. So EG had asked me not to say anything at that point. I was still technically married. It was, you know, a pretty confusing situation. And I had no clue what was going to happen. That conversation with EG, thank you.

Q. KS, that's your definition. That's your explanation; right? You're giving me an explanation as to why you lied to your friends on that occasion; right? That's what you're doing now.

A. Yes. Bringing --

Q. Okay.

A. -- clarification to it, yes.

Q. And all I'm saying and all I'm asking is at that point in time, it suited your purposes to lie to your friends. For whatever explanation you want to give, it suited your purposes at that time to lie to your friends; right?

A. I mean, I wasn't lying to them to hurt anybody. I was lying simply because --

Q. I'm not trying to make this complicated. I'm not asking for a particular motive; I'm simply asking at that time, it suited your purposes to lie to your friends. Yes or no?

A. I guess I just don't want -- I wasn't trying to hurt anybody, I guess, is the point, yes.

Q. I didn't ask whether you were trying to hurt anyone. Again, I simply asked at that point, did it suit your purposes to lie to your friends? Yes or no?

A. Yes. Being the purpose of keeping what EG wanted private and what I wanted private, yes.

Q. And, of course, you lied to EG?

A. Yes.

Q. Because you didn't keep it private and you told him you did; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Multiple occasions you lied to EG?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. And were there occasions where you lied in addition to PS -- redacted -- your friends, and EG, you lied to your family members, either by commission or omission? Did you lie to your family members?

A. My family members didn't know anything until my husband sat them down and told them.

Q. And prior to that time, did you lie to your family members by omission or commission?

A. No. Because nobody had asked me.

Q. Did you ever lie to your family members about the situation with EG at any time?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Very possibly; right?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Did you ever lie to your children about this situation?

A. They've never asked me, so I wouldn't have. It wouldn't have come up. It didn't affect them, you know?

Q. The conversation you had in the car that was being taped -- and I'll get to that -- was in front of your children; right?

A. No.

Q. You don't recall having a conversation with PS with your children in the car?

A. No. They were not in the car.

Q. Were they in the house?
A. They were back at home, yes.
Q. Okay.
A. We were away.
Q. Pardon me?
A. We were away at the grocery store.
Q. Are you aware of a taped conversation where your children were heard on the tape as you and PS were engaging in an argument about, potentially, your relationship with EG, as well as a potential relationship with an individual in Las Vegas? Do you recall?
A. I have not heard it. I have no clue what is on it at all.
Q. Does that refresh your recollection at all?
A. Yes. There were many arguments.
Q. Okay. And, incidentally, when you -- when you're going over these situations in the past where you have lied -- and now we've established that you lied to a number of individuals; right? Whether you want to give an explanation or not, we've established that you've lied to a number of individuals throughout the course of this case. Is that a fair statement?

A. Throughout the course of what was happening back then, yes.

MR. BARNES: Let me pause for a minute so I can explain to the three members of the committee.

There was a second tape -- and I believe Representative Austin reviewed -- I reviewed, Representative Mitten reviewed, both counsels reviewed -- that was not -- we did not deem it to be relevant to this investigation. It consisted of -- emotional abuse is the way I would describe it -- from ex-husband to Witness 1. We will share that recording with others of the committee. It's my intent to not release that recording. In fact, that is what is referred to in this series of questions.

Proceed.

Q. That was my question. And I'm watching you talk now, okay, and I don't see any particular ticks or twitches or anything of that nature. So when you were telling these lies to these individuals, are you aware of any, what I would call tells? Do you break -- has anyone ever said when you're lying, that you break out with a rash or that you twitch or that you look a certain way? Nobody has ever said that; right? That you know of.

A. No.

Q. Okay. So, essentially, in the past, when you -- and I understand you may have your explanations. When you've lied, you essentially appear the same way that you're appearing right now, the way I'm looking at you. Words are coming out of your mouth, but you're not telling the truth. Would that be fair to say?

A. I have no clue. I don't know what I look like -- I don't.

Q. Do you have -- do you have any reason to dispute that?

A. I don't know.

Q. And in your personal experience, a person that has -- that tells lies is what?

A. I don't understand.

Q. You don't know that? Have you ever encountered someone that has told lies?

A. Everyone that I know.

Q. Okay. But a person that tells lies is generally called what?

A. A person. I think every person ever has lied.

Q. Do you know what a liar is?

A. It would be someone who perpetually lies, yes.

Q. And would it also be a person that tells lies, that could be defined as a liar? Would that be a fair statement, KS?

A. No. I don't think that's fair, because I view it as something that somebody is perpetually lying no matter what, you know?

Q. So a person that just lies on occasion to suit their purposes would not be a liar in your definition? Is that what you're telling us?

A. I would view that as anybody who has been in a difficult situation.

Q. I didn't ask you about anybody; I'm asking if your definition of a person that tells lies to various individuals to suit their purposes, if that occasion, in your definition, you would not call that person a liar. Is that what you're telling us now? Yes or no?

A. I would say that that person is a person with a real heart and mind.

Q. Now, are you currently a -- a member -- let me ask this:

In 2015, were you a member of any gym?

A. Yes.

Q. What was the name of that gym?

A. Redacted.

Q. Was that the only gym that you were a member of?

A. Yes. I believe so. I would -- I think at that time, I was still going to the -- redacted -- gym, occasionally, but I wasn't a member.

Q. And the -- redacted -- gym was located where?

A. It was downtown -- redacted.

Q. But you didn't frequent that in 2014, '15, '16?

A. No. Redacted was where I've been, yes.

Q. Okay. And how often would you go to -- redacted?

A. Typically, four days a week.

Q. At any time, did you have discussions with respect to EG with any individuals at that gym?

A. Well --

MR. BARNES: (Mr. Simpson) One second; let me lodge an objection as to or some clarification.

Anything you and I have discussed is 100 percent privileged, and so as it relates to conversations with myself, we're claiming privilege.

Q. No question.

I'm not asking about conversations with respect to you and your lawyer, but my question was specifically with other individuals at the gym. Was your lawyer a member of the gym?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Anyone else at the gym?

A. My sister. My sister is also a member there.

Q. Redacted?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that her name? Okay. Did you have discussions with -- about EG with -- redacted?

A. I'm sure we have -- I'm sure we have a little bit. The majority of our discussions are based typically around other things, including my ex-husband, but, yes, she's my sister.

Q. With respect to any social media, and specifically starting in 2014, were you -- did you participate in Facebook?

A. Yes.

Q. And has that been consistent up and until now?

A. No. I canceled it in December.

Q. December of what year?

A. 2017.

Q. And was that canceled because of the notoriety of this case?

A. Yes. A woman came to my salon and confronted me about it.

Q. But up until that point, you had maintained a Facebook account?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you maintain a Snapchat account?

A. No.

Q. An Instagram account?

A. Yes. I used to.

Q. Was that canceled around the same time?

A. Correct.

Q. What name did you use on your Facebook account?

A. I'm not -- I think KS -- KS -- I'm not sure.

Q. Any nickname?

A. No.

Q. And the same with Instagram?

A. Redacted or KS or KS-something.

Q. Were you a member of any other Web sites?

A. No. I'm sorry. Clarify. I'm not sure.

Q. Any Web sites. Did you participate in any other Web sites, dating Web sites, anything of that nature?

A. No.

Q. So you've talked about the House committee that you shared information with. You've talked about, potentially -- redacted -- that you shared some information with, with respect to this case. Obviously, you -- you've shared information with PS. I believe you shared information with a woman by the name of -- redacted.

A. Redacted, yes.

Q. Redacted?

A. Redacted.

Q. Redacted. Okay. Did you start sharing information with her early on?

A. Yes.

Q. Has this been consistent throughout these proceedings?

A. No. I mean, we haven't talked about the details or anything, but I've spoken to her.

Q. Have you provided all of the details that you know to her at any time?

A. No. Just what -- like, for the House committee thing, what to expect, how many people would be sitting there, that type of thing, but not -- when this first came out, I asked her what she remembered, and that was it. I didn't say anything beyond that, just, What do you remember? And she even remembered things I didn't. That was it.

Q. Okay. Well, let's talk about that. So you initially talked to -- redacted -- when -- when you were first starting a relationship with EG; is that true?

A. Yes.

Q. Was she the lady that spent the night with you on the 21st?

A. No. That was another friend.

Q. Who was that?

A. Her name is -- redacted.

Q. Redacted. Okay. So was -- redacted -- a coworker?

A. No. She was just a long-time friend.

Q. A long-time friend. So you initially shared information with her at the time as it was developing?

A. Correct.

Q. You told her how you felt about EG?

A. Correct.

Q. You told her you are obviously interested in him?

A. I didn't speak to her until I saw him the first time.

Q. After --

A. Outside of the salon.

Q. After the 21st?

A. Correct.

Q. So when was the first time you spoke with -- redacted -- about EG?

A. It would have been maybe the 22nd, right around then.

Q. Okay. And you said you spoke with her again before the House committee?

A. Yes.

Q. And you asked her what she remembered?

A. No. I spoke with her right after this came out in the public.

Q. In January of '18?

A. Correct.

Q. And you asked her what she remembered?

A. Correct.

Q. Why?

A. Because -- or maybe it was January. It was whenever I knew that the investigation had turned to -- they were interested in speaking with me and anybody who I had spoke on it right away.

Q. So you went -- you reached out to -- redacted -- because somebody asked you who else you spoke with?

A. I'm not sure. I don't know if it was after I had spoken to the prosecutors or right before. But it was basically -- the gist was, I know I spoke to you right afterwards; what do you remember?

Q. I understand that. But I'm asking you why did you feel it was necessary to -- to reach out to her to ask her what she remembered? Did somebody -- because you provided her name to somebody?

A. Well, her name was in the transcript.

Q. The transcript between you and PS?

A. Correct.

Q. But you --

A. So that --

Q. -- don't reach out to her until 2018 at some point; correct?

A. Well, we talk all the time.

Q. I understand.

A. Yeah.

Q. But you didn't specifically reach out about what she remembered until 2018?

A. Correct.

Q. What precipitated that? Who had you talked to, to precipitate that contact?

A. I can't remember. I don't know if it was my attorney with us speaking about do we go to --

MR. BARNES: (Mr. Simpson) Okay. Hang on a second. I'm going to object. As to anything we said, you don't have to talk, nor should you say anything you and I have talked about.

So if you can answer his question without divulging what you and I have talked about, please do.

Okay.

Q. And that's fair. That's fine, but I would add -- I would add one caveat. If you're going to give me information about a conversation you had with your attorney, and it was in the presence of someone else, such as the circuit attorneys, I'm going to ask you to divulge that information because there will be no privilege at that point. Do you understand that?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay.

A. I really can't remember when that conversation happened. I just know that it was conversation of -- in the transcript, here is the names. There's this -- redacted -- guy -- who was this? Who was this? Redacted. Who is redacted, and who is redacted?

Q. So were the prosecutors or the prosecutors' investigator asking you specifically about that?

A. When I met them, they asked who those people were, but I don't know if it was after I spoke to my attorney or after I spoke to them. I'm not sure.

Q. What information did redacted tell you now in 2018 that you did not remember that she reminded you of?

A. She remembered that he came to my salon and I opened the salon early and I saw him there. I didn't remember that.

Q. And that was information you provided to the grand jury?

A. Yes. I believe so.

Q. Based on your conversation with -- redacted?

A. Based on my memory after the conversation, yes.

Q. All right. So you also had conversations regarding your involvement with EG with -- redacted?

A. Correct.

Q. What's her last name?
A. Redacted.
Q. Redacted?
A. Redacted.
Q. Redacted.
And what's your relationship with her?
A. We worked together for five or six years. We were extremely close during that period of time, and I had spoke to her all the time.
Q. Did she actually work at the salon?
A. Yes.
Q. And what's the name of that salon?
A. Redacted.
Q. How long did you work there?
A. Fourteen years.
Q. And you left there, then?
A. This past June.
Q. And -- redacted -- worked with you for how long?
A. Like, five or six years.
Q. Okay. So she was receiving information, would it be fair to say, almost contemporaneously as you were living it?
A. Yes. Close to, yes.
Q. And you confided in her not only about EG, but you confided about PS; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Some of the difficulties you and PS were having in your marriage, you confided in her?

A. Correct.

Q. And, in fact, on the evening of the 21st, she spent the night with you?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was after your first physical contact with EG?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, incidentally, about your salon, do you have -- do they have a noncompete agreement?

A. No.

Q. How do they keep track of your appointments and your revenue?

A. The computer system they had.

Q. So your clients -- your particular clients would be tracked in a computer system?

A. Correct.

Q. Would you maintain a separate calendar or book?

A. No.

Q. A personal book?

A. No.

Q. So the way you were advised the clients were booking, they would call the -- typically, the call the front desk, and then it would go in the computer system, which would then -- you would look at. How would you access that, through a cell phone?

A. No. Through the computer at the salon.

Q. Everybody used the same computer, or did every station have a computer?

A. No. There were two at the front and one in the back room.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Let's trade here. Representative Pierson, I'll be the answerer; Representative Phillips, you are the interjector, if anyone interjects.

(The following testimony was read from the transcript of "KS's" grand jury testimony taken on February 15th, 2018, narrated by Representative Tommie Pierson, Jr. and Representative Jay Barnes.)

Q. So just walk me through how that would work. Would you then come in on Monday and see what your schedule looked like for the week?

A. Yes. Or typically you would look for -- you would look at your scheduler for the day and then the next day, typically. You could look at your schedule for the week, but there was nothing, really. You could print it out, but most people didn't, so ...

Q. And the people or customers or clients booked directly through you at times?

A. I did have some clients who would text me, Hey, I can't get in, stuff like that, but, in general, they went through the front desk.

Q. But it wouldn't be unusual where some individual clients would have your cell phone number or access to it and book through you?

A. Correct.

Q. If they couldn't get me through the front desk, they would text me, and then I would go up to the front and could look at my schedule there, but I didn't have access to it on my phone.

Q. But I would assume even some really close clients or friends wouldn't go through the front desk, they would just text you; right?

A. Yeah. Some clients did.

Q. So they didn't all have to go through the front desk?

A. No.

Q. And do you recall -- could you give a percentage or breakdown of your male clients versus female clients?

A. Oh, I have no clue. I know it's around 50/50. More -- probably more female clients, yes.

Q. And in addition to the people that we've mentioned that you've talked to -- redacted -- and -- redacted -- did you talk about EG as you sit here now to any other customers that you can remember?

A. At that time?

Q. Well, first of all -- I'll break it down.

During the time that you were in a relationship with him, did you talk to EG about any other customer?

A. No. No. Not that I can think of.

Q. Since that time, since your relationship or since this was in the news, have you talked to customers about your relationship with EG?

A. Clients who have brought it up to me? Yes.

Q. How many clients do you think have brought it up to you?

A. Probably 70 percent of my clients have brought it up. I -- so I haven't necessarily spoken to them about it, but I've confirmed, yes, that's me, that type of thing.

Q. As you sit here now, do you recall any client that you may have spoken to in any significant detail?

A. A couple of my really close clients, yes.

Q. Can I have their names?

A. I can't even think of a particular person. I mean, I would really have to go through -- I'm pretty close with my clients. I don't know.

Q. Well, you said a couple?

A. Yes.

Q. To me, that means two.

A. Well --

Q. Yes?

A. I'm not sure. Either way, I'm not sure how that is relevant.

Q. If you're telling me -- well. Okay. So here is another rule --

A. Yes.

Q. -- of depositions. It's not up to you to determine what's relevant, okay. Ultimately, it may be up to a judge. Generally, a deposition allows us to ask questions that may lead to relevant evidence, and I'm specifically asking you information that I now believe you possess because you mentioned a couple of clients --

A. Sure.

Q. -- that were close that you provided significant details to. I'm asking you now, give me the names of those clients.

A. Well -- so I'll clarify. One of my clients that I'm very close with is one of my good friends, who also is acting as attorney for me, as well, whenever this first came out. Her name is -- redacted. She was in this -- or she was in the transcript, and so, originally, she was acting as my attorney. So she is one of them that is my client.

Q. Okay. So that's one.

A. And her husband as well. My mom is my client; my sister is my client -- you know? So there are people like -- they're just close in my life. They're also my clients. They also come to my salon, you know what I mean?

Q. I'm going to go back to what you -- how you answered my question, okay?

A. Sure.

Q. Because without having the court reporter read it back, I specifically asked you, Can you name clients that you gave significant details to? And you answered by saying, "A couple." So now I'm asking you to name those individuals that were under that classification as a couple of clients. Can you provide their names?

A. Okay. My mother -- redacted.

Q. Redacted is who?

A. My mother.

Q. Okay.

A. My friend -- redacted -- who is -- who was also the attorney -- redacted -- and her husband -- redacted -- well -- and I don't even know if I would include my sister, because my sister doesn't even know the details of what happened. She mainly knows about PS and my -- you know, my situation with him, so --

Q. So it's no? It's your testimony under oath that no other individuals that would be categorized as a client you provided significant details?

A. Not details that they don't -- that they didn't know from hearing in the news. KS, is this true? KS, I heard this. KS, I head this rumor. KS, I heard this. What is true about this? You know, so that -- that has been the gist of my life.

Q. Redacted wasn't your attorney at the time; correct?

A. She was when this first broke. She was the one who was going back and forth with the media telling them, Don't put this out there.

Q. But prior to the time when it first broke, when she was -- when you were cutting her hair, as you're going through the relationship with EG, she was not your attorney?

A. Well, she didn't even move back here until this year -- this summer, and this didn't even come up until after this came out, when she was already my attorney, so, yes.

Q. So when you -- let me rephrase that.

A. Sure.

Q. In an effort to deceive or to prevent PS from discovering your connection with EG, you used -- redacted -- telephone number because it was a 202 area code; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And that would have been back in March of 2015; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you tell her?

A. I did shortly after.

Q. Well -- because it wouldn't have -- it -- it wouldn't make sense. It would logically follow that if you're going to use a fake name -- and that's what you did; right?

A. Yes.

Q. You'd attributed a fake name to EG's number -- to EG's number; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. In an effort to be deceitful to your husband, yes? In an effort to be deceitful?

A. In an effort, yes, to have him not call his number and -- yes.

Q. In an effort to be deceitful; can we agree with that statement?

A. I didn't feel I was trying to be deceitful, no. I didn't --

Q. Well --

A. I really -- it was a difficult time. We had just separated, and I knew --

Q. Again --

A. -- he was looking through everything and --

Q. We'll get to that.

A. -- he was going to assume something that wasn't necessarily the case at this point.

Q. KS, I get that you may have an explanation.

A. Yes.

Q. Is there any other -- is there any other description of taking one person's phone number and attributing another name to prevent someone from finding out the real individual's phone number? Is there any other explanation, other than you trying to be deceitful to your husband for whatever reason?

A. I would --

Q. Is that a fair statement? Yes or no?

A. I would say I was trying to avoid --

Q. Again, I -- I understand what you're explanation is, but in an effort to avoid, it was -- you were engaging in deceitful conduct, yes? I understand you didn't like certain words.

A. Right. I understand that.

Q. But you understand what those words mean; right?

A. I understand what those words mean, but it's different for each situation. And in this situation, we had just separated, and he already went through my phone all the time.

Q. Again --

A. So I thought he was going to jump to conclusions and --

Q. Again, you may have had reasons.

A. Right.

Q. But was the actual action that you took deceitful? Yes or no?

A. I don't believe so. I believe it was truly avoiding something that ended up being a big --

Q. Let me ask you this way:

Was the 202 number that you attributed to -- redacted -- accurate?

A. Not whenever I saved it under his -- or his number, no.

Q. Did you put a different number -- a different name on EG's number purposefully?

A. Yes.

Q. What -- or that was not accurate?

A. Correct.

Q. That was deceitful, yes -- for whatever reason?

A. If you knew my marriage, I think you would understand.

Q. Okay. You understand I'm not asking for explanations at this point?

A. I understand that.

Q. Okay. I'm just asking whether that action was deceitful. Yes or no?

A. Maybe in some people's situation -- or even in my situation, if it was different, but, no, I don't believe so in this -- in this case. I believe it was truly avoiding something.

Q. So you think you were being absolutely above board and honest by changing the name attributed to that number?

A. No, I didn't say that, nor do I feel like that.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't -- I'm not saying I think it was right.

Q. I'm not asking you that.

A. But it was my phone and my -- you know what I mean?

Q. Well, is it honest? Yes or no, was it honest?

A. I would say it was not honest.

Q. Okay. That's all I'm asking.

Now, you said you engaged in CrossFit and you were, I think, pretty active it in; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you recall ever discussing -- did you have a trainer?

A. Nope.

Q. Did you -- were there trainers at your gym?

A. No. There are coaches.

Q. Coaches?

A. For everybody, yeah.

Q. Now -- and, again, I just want you to reflect back as how we started this deposition. And I told you that we have investigators and talked to a number of people.

A. Correct.

Q. That does not surprise you, does it?

A. Nope.

Q. Did you ever make a statement to anyone at your CrossFit that you could seduce any male in your chair? Did you make that statement?

A. No, not to my -- not that I recall.

Q. Is it possible you made that statement?

A. Not like that, no.

Q. Well, tell me how you may have made a statement that could have been interpreted like that.

A. I may have said, I have a lot of male clients who come on to me, but not that I would seduce, no.

Q. Did you ever make a statement that the male clients that would come on to you, that if you chose to, you could seduce or anything such as that, that could have been misinterpreted by someone that you worked out or associate with at a CrossFit gym?

A. Definitely not to my memory, no. I don't recall that at all.

Q. Are you saying it's not possible?

A. It's not possible that I would have said I can seduce anybody, no.

Q. So the only -- anything you remember in that context is that you have a lot of male customers?

A. I have a lot of male customers.

Q. That come on to you?

A. That have made passes at me?

Q. Made passes at you?

A. In some way or another, yes.

Q. And anything else associated with that, that conversation about once you had said that they made passes at you?

A. No. Not to my memory. I don't even remember specific conversations, so, no.

Q. Now, at some point early on or before you testified before the grand jury, you had a conversation with an investigator by the name of Tisaby, did you not?

A. Correct.
Q. Can you tell me who set that up?
A. Prosecutor did.
Q. And tell me how that happened. Tell me -- walk me through exactly how you were informed that a gentleman by the name of Tisaby was connected to the prosecuting attorney's office was going to be talking to you?
A. I learned that the prosecutor -- the prosecutor and I had spoken, and she felt she needed a third party that was kind of out of the loop or whatever to speak to me and give his opinion.
Q. Okay. So I want to walk through this for a moment, okay?
A. Okay. Yes.
Q. Generally, the context that we're talking about is you had reached out to -- redacted -- about this becoming public in January of 2018; right?
A. I spoke to her in December, after the woman came to my salon, yes.
Q. So you sort of got word or you were notified that something was brewing?
A. Correct.
Q. And we're going to get to this at some point, but you were essentially sabotaged at your new salon?

A. Yes.

Q. Ambushed; right? Obviously, disturbing for you; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Because, in your mind, this is history that you have preferred to forget?

A. Yes.

Q. I would assume -- and you correct me if I'm wrong -- that the last thing on your mind at that point would have been potential criminal prosecution. Your mind wasn't going there, was it?

A. No.

Q. Your mind was just about embarrassment, publicity, I would assume, maybe for you or your kids; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So you reached out to your then friend, and then you formally engaged her as your attorney?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you pay her for being your lawyer, or was she doing it just as a friend?

A. She did it as a friend -- or as --

Q. And, essentially, you tried to run interference with the news -- the news lady -- the news reporter. Did you recall her name?

A. Lauren Trager.

Q. Trager. Obviously, she wasn't -- you weren't a very big fan of hers at the time?

A. No, not at the time.

Q. Probably not now, I wouldn't imagine; right?

A. I'm in a -- yeah. Right. I'm not a fan of what she did or how she went about it.

Q. Other than when she broke the story, have you had additional contact with her?

A. No, I have not.

Q. So going through the timeline, you reach out to -- redacted -- you have her reach out to you -- you have her reach out to, I guess, Trager; correct?

A. Correct. Yes.

Q. And you tried to basically put the kibosh on this story?

A. Yes.

Q. At some point you have contact with the circuit attorney's office?

A. Correct.

Q. And you were expecting contact, or did it come as a surprise?

A. I was expecting it by the time they reached out, yes.

Q. Okay. So let's talk about that. Why were you expecting -- first of all, when did the circuit attorney reach out to you?

A. I don't remember specifically.

Q. Can you give me an estimate? Was it the end of '17, beginning of '18?

A. Oh, no. It would have been after -- after this broke. After they announced that they were investigating, which is the reason why I was expecting them to reach out.

Q. So you read a circuit attorney's news release from Ms. Gardner that said they're launching a formal investigation?

A. Correct.

Q. How soon after that did you then have contact with the circuit attorney's office?

A. I really don't know. Weeks? I'm not sure.

Q. Did the circuit attorney --

A. It wasn't right away, I know that.

Q. Did the circuit attorney's office -- was it Ms. Gardner that was your initial contact?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Was it by phone?
A. It was through my attorney.
Q. Mr. Simpson?
A. Correct.
Q. And I'm not asking about any conversations, but why at that point did you feel you needed an attorney?
MR. PHILLIPS: This is Mr. Simpson's response.
I'm -- hang on a second. I'm going to object that's it's privileged as to why she decided to hire me, and it gets into, potentially, what we discussed, so that's privileged.
Q. I'm not asking what you discussed. Let me ask this.
Do you recall when you formally engaged Mr. Simpson?
A. Right after the story came out and I had a million calls and e-mails and people showing up at my salon, after I was overwhelmed. I was just like, I can't do this. Somebody needs to help. So it was more just please help field these calls. Help take some of this off of me. It was more --
Q. Okay.

A. So, no, it was after it came out.
Q. And I'm not asking about conversations, but, logistically, would you have asked Mr. Simpson to then contact the circuit attorney?
A. No, I did not.
Q. So you were just informed that they were contacting you?
A. Correct.
Q. And, again, I -- I -- I may have missed that -- was the initial call that you received from Ms. Gardner, that was a telephone call?
A. I believe so. It was through my attorney, I found out.
Q. Well, I don't know what you mean by "through your attorney."
A. He told me he had spoken to her, so I believe it was through the phone.
Q. And when you made that phone call or had that phone call with Ms. Gardner, were the two of you the only ones on the telephone?
A. I did not speak to her on the telephone.
Q. Who did you speak to?
A. My attorney told me that she --
MR. PHILLIPS: Hang on a second.
Anything we talked about --

THE WITNESS: Okay.
MR. PHILLIPS: -- is privileged. So his question was, Who did you speak to?
THE WITNESS: Okay.
MR. PHILLIPS: You spoke to me.
THE WITNESS: I spoke to Scott.
MR. PHILLIPS: But anything we talked about is privileged.
THE WITNESS: I would agree with that.
Q. So then at that point, you had contact with Ms. Garnder?
A. Correct. After that.
Q. Was it in person or by telephone?
A. It was in person.
Q. And was that at her office?
A. No. It was at a third -- I mean, it was at, like, a meeting room.
Q. Okay. A meeting room?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Where?
A. At a hotel somewhere.
Q. Do you know what city or municipality?
A. I don't.
Q. Was it in St. Charles County, St. Louis County, St. Louis City?

A. Clayton, I believe.

Q. Clayton, Missouri? Can you tell me the name of the hotel?

A. I don't know. I'm not sure.

Q. Can you tell me what it was next to? Was it the Ritz?

A. No. Maybe it was Brentwood. It's by the Burger King there.

Q. So the Residence Inn?

A. I believe so.

Q. And you don't recall the date; correct?

A. No.

Q. And so when you arrived, you arrived alone or were you with your attorney?

A. With my attorney.

Q. Okay. You understand that -- and when you and -- you're directed to a meeting room?

A. Correct -- or let me go back. We met two times. That was the second time. The first time was at a hotel in -- I think that was Illinois.

MR. BARNES: So we'll switch. I'll ask questions. Representative Phillips will answer, and Representative Mitten -- or would you like to -- are you in redaction process, Representative Mitten?

MS. MITTEN: I'm in redaction process. I think Representative Austin is the perfect --

MR. BARNES: Okay. Representative Austin, you are the interceder, should there happen to be any intercessions.

Q. In Illinois?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. So you and your attorney travel to Illinois?

A. Correct.

Q. To meet Ms. Gardner?

A. Correct.

Q. And why Illinois?

A. She knew I was petrified and I didn't want to be involved in this and just said, If you're more comfortable -- and I was more comfortable not being, you know -- because at this time, it was still people constantly around. People would follow me to my house.

Q. Had you moved?

A. Nope.

Q. Were you living with a friend in Illinois?

A. No. I think it was just -- I don't know. That wasn't my measure.

Q. That wasn't your what?

A. It wasn't my idea. But it did make me more comfortable.

Q. Did you have any connection to anyone in Illinois?

A. No -- oh, I have a friend in Illinois, but, yeah.

Q. What city in Illinois did you initially meet?

A. I'm not sure. I know it wasn't far. It was --

Q. Immediately across the bridge?

A. Yes. I mean, it wasn't far.

Q. Belleville? Edwardsville?

A. I really don't -- I didn't drive. I'm not sure.

Q. So your attorney drove?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And when you show up at this initial meeting in Illinois, you said it made you more comfortable?

A. Yes.

Q. Whose idea was it in Illinois -- to meet in Illinois?

A. I believe Ms. Gardner's but I'm -- I'm ...

Q. Because you expressed to her that you were petrified?

A. Through my attorney.

Q. Had you expressed that you did not want to be involved?

A. I was very nervous, yes.

Q. Well, certainly, initially you made it public that you wanted to be left alone. You wanted your privacy, and you didn't want to participate in these proceedings.

A. Correct.

Q. Was that your mindset at the time you first met with Ms. Gardner?

A. I was just very nervous. I was still kind of neutral on whether or not I wanted to go forward at all.

Q. Well, let me ask this: Your initial impression was you didn't want to do anything with this; right?

A. My initial impression was to crawl into a hole, yes.

Q. Okay. Ma'am, please just answer my questions, okay? You're going -- they're going to have an opportunity to go into your explanations, okay?

A. Not -- but not that I -- I had no clue there was an investigation. I really just wanted none of this to be the case.

Q. Okay. But as you're going -- but you had made it public that you didn't want to be involved. You wanted your privacy.

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And you didn't want anything to do with this; that was your mindset initially; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. That was your mindset when Trager contacted you, that was your mindset in January of 2018 when you learned there was an investigation going on. You didn't want to participate initially?

A. Yes, initially.

Q. Okay. So then you said shortly thereafter there's this Illinois meeting; right?

A. Correct.

Q. That you didn't arrange?

A. Correct.

Q. That came through the idea of Ms Gardner; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And you said at that point you were neutral?

A. Well, just on -- I had no clue what any of this was -- what was investigatio, and I had a long sit-down with my attorney prior to meeting Ms. Gardner and decided that that was what I was okay doing, meeting.

Q. When you -- when this first broke, did you have any communications about the subject matter with PS?

A. No.

Q. Did you ask him if he was involved in it at all?

A. Prior to, in December, I did -- or he brought it up to me --

Q. Okay.

A. -- via text.

Q. Okay. And so before we get back to this Illinois meeting, you get ambushed by Trager, and PS reaches out to you or you reach out to him?

A. He reached out to me.

Q. And tell me what he said.

A. He said the media was asking about you and your affair with EG. He spelled it out and said --

Q. Spelled out what?

A. Spelled out his name, meaning he was trying to be discreet.

Q. Well, you would have no reason to know. I mean, you never referred to --

A. No. But if you would --
Q. Let me finish.
A. Oh, I'm sorry.
Q. You never referred -- at any time to EG as "EG" to PS -- I mean, to PS, did you?
A. No.
Q. Was there --
A. But I felt like he was trying to be blatant, I guess.
Q. Well, had he ever used any other reference to EG, other than his name, in the past?
A. Not via text to me, but it was an odd thing, I felt.
Q. Okay. So he -- so he states his full time and he said the media is asking questions; right?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you ask him if at any point -- and we'll get to this in the deposition, but, obviously, he made various threats to you as this unfolded; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And he made various threats personally to you, as well as threats to you about EG and what he could do; correct?
A. Correct.

Q. Did you ask him if he was involved?
A. I said that he was involved.
Q. You said he was?
A. I said for the media outlets, you're responsible for this and this is extremely selfish and sad.
Q. Because you had learned that he was shopping his story?
A. I had learned. I didn't know at that point he was "shopping it," but I had heard from people he was being very vocal about it in the media.
Q. Even before Trager?
A. Yes.
Q. And when did you start hearing from people that PS was being vocal about this?
A. Back before the election or right around the election.
Q. November of '16?
A. Correct.
Q. Can you tell me who had told you that?
A. One of my clients said that her coworker's wife worked -- was working on Koster's campaign and said my ex-husband was trying to get them to use the story, and she didn't know anything about it until she confronted me with it.

Q. I'm sorry. That was a customer?

A. Correct. A client.

Q. What's her name?

A. Redacted.

Q. Redacted what?

A. Redacted.

Q. Redacted?

A. Redacted.

Q. Redacted.

A. Redacted.

Q. And, incidentally, just as an aside, during the whole time you were involved with EG, you were also cutting Chris Koster's hair; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you ever have any discussion with Mr. Koster about EG?

A. After the the election, he just looked at me and said, KS, I knew. And I said, What do you mean? Oh, because I -- it was shortly after, so I knew he was, you know, dealing with that, and he said, Are you still cutting EG's hair? Because he knew that I cut his hair, and he never brought it up. I never brought it up. He never talked about it.

Q. Okay. So let me walk through that.
A. Uh-huh.
Q. During this whole period that we're talking about, March, April, May of '15, you're cutting both men's hair?
A. Yes.
Q. And it's your testimony you were aware, at least early on, that EG announced -- that EG announced an exploratory committee; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Certainly, it was no secret that Mr. Koster was running for governor; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. So you were generally aware that both men were running for the same position?
A. Yes.
Q. So during this period of time, it's your testimony that you never discussed anything at all?
A. No. I really didn't.
Q. About either men to either one of them, the men?
A. No. I mean, they -- they knew that the other one was my client.
Q. How would they know that?
A. I think I would have told them that. Now, isn't that funny; he's my client, too, but that's it. I mean, neither one really asked questions.

Q. So just in passing, like a coincidence?

A. Yeah.

Q. All right. And then -- well, certainly, you never would have confided in Mr. Koster about a relationship that you had with EG?

A. No.

Q. And leading up until now, at the time of the election, when you heard -- started hearing rumblings from a client about PS, all during that time, you never discussed anything with Mr. Koster about a relationship?

A. I'm sorry. Restate your question. Sorry.

Q. Well, did you ever -- up until you said you claim that Mr. Koster made the statement, KS -- or, KS, I knew, did you ever tell Mr. Koster that you had a relationship with EG?

A. No. Not at all. Not up until that point, no.

Q. And when you -- and when did you say that Mr. Koster made the statement to you? At what point in time?

A. It was after election was over.

Q. So it was in November of '16?

A. Correct.
Q. So before any of this went public?
A. Correct.
Q. How would he have known?
A. It was my belief that my ex-husband was trying to get somebody to pick up the story.
Q. So it's your belief that he went directly to Mr. Koster?
A. No. He told me he hadn't spoken to him, because I did ask him that.
Q. Did you ask him --
A. And he said no.
Q. -- how he knew?
A. Just through his people; that's all I knew.
Q. Did you confirm it was true?
A. I said, there's a lot to that, because -- so I --
Q. Did you --
A. Essentially, yes.
Q. Did you initially deny it to Mr. Koster?
A. No.
Q. You said just there's something to it?
A. Something. Something to that effect.
Q. So you were vague?

A. I was. I was vague, yes.
Q. And then now you're suspecting PS is out there trying to "shop the story"; right?
A. Correct.
Q. So what was the status of your relationship from, say, I think March of '16, when you divorced PS to now, November of '16, when you started hearing this information? Did you talk on a regular basis?
A. No. We don't speak on the phone, just text.
Q. And --
A. About the kids.
Q. Is it anything about -- other than transportation of kids, anything of that ilk?
A. He would bring up stuff, and then I would just ignore it or shoot it down, meaning that he would say that -- that was irrelevant to the kids, to be mean to me.
Q. So, for instance, bringing up your past with EG from time to time?
A. Bringing up that, correct, and other things.
Q. And your past with other individuals that he thought you were unfaithful with?

A. Mainly. Mainly EG, yes.
Q. Pardon me?
A. EG, yes.
Q. Mainly EG, but he also had issues with others?
A. No. I think you're referring -- what you're referring to is the argument -- is from, like, six years ago. I flirted with somebody, came home, told my husband about it, and I heard about it for three years, that -- the Vegas thing. I never cheated on him. I guess, if that's what you're referring to.
Q. We'll get to that.
A. All right.
Q. So other than those sort of snide remarks, there was no ongoing conversation with PS?
A. No.
Q. So then you -- he texted you in November of '16, when he started hearing these rumblings. And do you -- do you specifically ask him or accuse him?
A. In December, yes.
Q. December of '16?
A. Correct.
Q. And you accused him of actually shopping the story?

A. I just said, This is you trying to put this out there.

Q. Was it your understanding he was trying to be compensated for it?

A. No. I didn't know that.

Q. Did you think that?

A. I more thought it was him trying to be revenge -- you know, vengeful and hurt me, hurt EG.

Q. Did it cross your mind that he was trying to shop it for compensation?

A. I had heard that rumor after this point. I still didn't know. So I don't -- I don't know.

Q. All right. So going back to now this initial meeting. Who was present in this initial Illinois meeting?

A. Just Ms. Gardner, my attorney, and I.

Q. And you can't tell me the city, nor can you tell me the hotel?

A. I'm not sure. I know it was right over the bridge. I mean, I know it wasn't far.

Q. Was it a hotel restaurant?

A. Yes.

Q. Conference room?

A. No. Just like a room.

Q. A hotel room?
A. Yes. Correct.
Q. Was it rented?
A. I believe so, yes.
Q. Do you know who rented it?
A. I believe Ms. Gardner.
Q. How long did you stay in the room? How long did the conversation last?
A. I would say two or three hours.
Q. So two to three hours?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. And the meeting was between yourself and your attorney and Ms. Gardner?
A. Correct.
Q. Were there any other investigators in the room?
A. No. Not at this time.
Q. Did you express to her -- Ms. Gardner initially that you were reluctant to participate?
A. Yes. I expressed how I was feeling, yes.
Q. So -- and I'm assuming -- and correct me if I'm wrong -- that at some point, then, you provided Ms. Gardner with all of the details that you had -- that you could at that time about your relationship interaction with EG?

A. Correct.
Q. Prior to that time, there was some discussion about your comfort level, was there not? There had to be.
A. I'm sorry?
Q. Well, you go into the meeting and you're reluctant to participate; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you tell her that; right?
A. Yes.
Q. And, ultimately, you wind up telling her everything that you believe at that time that you're claiming happened between yourself and EG; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. So what happened? What was said to you to change your mind?
A. Well, I already decided prior to -- like I said, I had very long conversations with my attorney, that I was at least comfortable sharing that because I knew that didn't necessarily mean that we would move forward at all. It was --
Q. It didn't mean that, that the case would move forward?
A. Correct.
Q. It was more -- it was just more for informational purposes?

A. Correct.

Q. And, again, what did Ms. Gardner tell you to ease your mind or to convince you to participate in whether to have the case move forward for informational purposes for you to divulge this information?

A. She didn't really tell me anything prior to, other than "I will respect your privacy. I understand that you're -- " I knew that she knew I was nervous, and I felt that by her trying to take steps to keep my privacy my privacy, that that made me feel more comfortable being there.

Q. What specific steps were promised to keep your privacy?

A. At that point, just that. Where the meeting place was, that that was it at that point.

Q. Anything with respect to keeping your name out of the public domain or anything like that?

A. I know that conversation happened eventually, but at that first time it wasn't about that we're going to do this and then we're going to do that, you know, what -- I didn't know exactly what was going to happen after this.

Q. So the first time -- the first meeting was -- the only thing that was said in the first meeting was simply, I'm going respect your privacy?

A. Yes -- well, I explained my story. She said, Well, let me think on it, and then I'll get back to you on just my thoughts, and then explained to my attorney that -- or through my attorney, I found out that --

MR. AUSTIN: Interjection by Mr. Simpson. Hang on a second.

THE WITNESS: Sorry.

MR. AUSTIN: Again --

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. AUSTIN: Anything we've talked about it privileged, so you can't get into what you and I have said to each other.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. AUSTIN: If you and I were the only ones in the conversation. Any things that happened at the meeting when three people --

THE WITNESS: Sure.

MR. AUSTIN: -- were present, you can talk about. Subsequent conversations between you and I are privileged and not subject to these proceedings.

THE WITNESS: So -- I'm sorry.

Q. Do you typically get nervous when you lie?

You know yourself. Do you typically get nervous when you lie?

A. I don't know.

Q. You don't know?

A. I guess if I was blatantly saying something that was --

Q. How old of a woman are you now?

A. Thirty-five.

Q. Okay. And, certainly, we've established you've lied in the past; right?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you typically get nervous when you lie? Yes or no?

A. I would assume so.

Q. Okay. So we have a two- or three-hour meeting in Illinois?

A. Correct.

Q. It doesn't take you up to three hours to talk about your relationship -- the relationship you had with EG, does it?

A. Yes.

Q. It took you a full three hours?

A. Yes.

Q. And the only thing other than the relationship that was talked about was Ms. Gardner's promise to respect your privacy?

A. Yes. At that time, correct.

Q. No other promises?

A. Nope.

Q. Was there any discussion about if you chose not to testify, what the circuit attorney could do?

A. No.

Q. Was there any discussion about subpoena power?

A. No, not --

Q. You seem to hesitate?

A. Not that I was -- well, yes. I understood that they could give me a subpoena, but I wasn't afraid that they were going to harm me or -- you know? I don't know.

Q. Well, I didn't ask you about being harmed. Was there a discussion about subpoena power? That if you choose not to testify or participate, that they could subpoena you initially before a grand jury and possibly at a trial at a later date? Did they have that discussion with you on that first meeting? Did Ms. Gardner?

MS. MITTEN: So we're on 80?

MR. BARNES: Page 81. Do you want to redact -- are you still working on the redaction?

MS. MITTEN: Nope. I can move forward.
MR. BARNES: Do you want to do this all at the end of the day -- because I was thinking we would just -- to help with Trevor and IT, the documents that we have previously been through, that we could get those to them, that they could release those to the media, and then however much of this we get through today, we will release this at the -- we'll release this in hundred-page increments?
MS. MITTEN: Okay. So you want to --
MR. BARNES: Are we okay if we skip you so that you can go provide that to Trevor --
MS. MITTEN: Perfectly fine.
MR. BARNES: -- and we will get back to you?
MS. MITTEN: Yes. However -- just one quick housekeeping, which is -- well, we'll just go to 99. This one starts at 100 instead of 101.
MR. BARNES: Okay. And we agree that we're going to take breaks every hundred pages, so --
MS. MITTEN: So we will go to page 99, and then be at a break.
MR. BARNES: Okay. We're going to do

Phillips Austin.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Kevin Austin and Representative Don Phillips.)

MR. AUSTIN: Now I'll take the -- be Witness 1, and the answer to the last question was: No. I understood that that was the case but not -- that was not a threat, no.

Q. I didn't ask if it was a threat. How do you understand that was the case?

A. When my attorney and I spoke before, that was something that I understood.

Q. Okay. Now, during this three hours of discussion with Mr. Gardner, did you bring anything with you? Had you brought anything with you?

A. My phone, purse, maybe.

Q. Had you kept any notes, diary, or memoranda with respect to anything that went on in your relationship with EG?

A. No.

Q. And I think I asked what you had reviewed here prior to the deposition, and you said the only thing you reviewed was partially the transcript of your conversation with PS?

A. Correct.

Q. Nothing else at all?

A. No.

Q. Did you look at phone records recently?

A. I know I have mine. I've seen them.

Q. Did you review them?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. Why?

A. From -- so there was a phone number EG had got -- or he bought, like, a throw-away phone.

Q. EG did?

A. EG.

Q. And I understand. And we're going to that, but I'm just asking you --

A. Oh, right.

Q. -- what prompted you before? Was it before this deposition that you asked for the phone records?

A. This was a while ago as part of this.

Q. Preparation?

A. No, not as preparation; just to have, I guess. That was something that was asked, that I get my phone records to find that phone number.

Q. Somebody asked you to get your phone records?

A. Correct.
Q. And that would have been the circuit attorney's office, Gardner?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And then did you review them prior to this deposition?
A. Not directly prior to, but I had right whenever they came in.
Q. For what purpose?
A. To point out that phone number.
Q. To Ms. Gardner?
A. Correct. I highlighted it.
Q. All right. Now, during this meeting in Illinois, did Ms. Gardner take notes?
A. I believe so.
Q. Okay. Now -- and this was, to the best of your recollection, in January 2018?
A. I would say January or February.
Q. Okay. That was the first meeting. And then shortly thereafter, there was another meeting?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you think it was odd at all that you were meeting in a hotel room?
A. I thought this whole thing was odd.

Q. Well, that wasn't my question.

A. I didn't know what to expect. I -- I had never ever --

Q. My question was, did you think it was odd that you were meeting in a hotel room?

A. No. I felt grateful that I wasn't being followed or out in some public place or -- so, no.

Q. Did you ask Ms. Gardner if there -- if the police were involved?

A. No.

Q. Or FBI or any law enforcement?

A. No. Not that I remember.

Q. Okay. When was the next meeting that you had with Ms. Gardner?

A. A week or two later, possibly.

Q. So again?

A. I would assume February, because I know it wasn't right away, this whole thing.

Q. And, again, where did that meeting take place?

A. That was the one that was at Residence or whatever that is.

Q. In Clayton?

A. It's right behind Burger King in Brentwood.

Q. And who attended that meeting?
A. My attorney, Ms. Gardner, and Mr. Tisaby.
Q. Was that the first time you met Mr. Tisaby?
A. Yes.
Q. Had you heard his name before?
A. No.
Q. Before that meeting, were you informed by Ms. Gardner that there was going to be a gentleman by the name of Mr. Tisaby at the meeting?
A. Yes.
Q. So you knew to expect a gentleman by the name of Mr. Tisaby. What was your understanding of his role or occupation?
A. That he was a third-party investigator that could keep my name and everything very private, and he was going hear my story and give a third-person perspective.
Q. So your understanding of why Tisaby was there was that he was brought in to protect your privacy?
A. Well, I understood that he was a third party because of that and that he was going to just listen to what I had to say and then make a decision on how he felt about it.

Q. Did you ask why there had to be a third party to make a decision about what you had to say?
A. No. I --
Q. You had already told your story to Ms. Gardner; right?
A. Yeah. But I didn't know what was normal or not normal for a situation like this. I really had no clue.
Q. You understood she was the circuit attorney; right?
A. Yes.
Q. I mean, you're sophisticated enough to know who prosecutes crimes, aren't you?
A. Yes. But I didn't know if they always do stuff like that. I had no clue.
Q. Were you sophisticated enough to know that, typically, crimes were investigated by police agencies?
A. I didn't know. I didn't think that this was abnormal, if that's what you're asking, no.
Q. You didn't think it was abnormal that you hadn't met with any law enforcement?
A. No.
Q. Did you know where Tisaby came from?
A. I -- it was, like, a private firm or something. That's all I knew.

Q. Did you ask any questions about him? I mean ...

A. No.

Q. You wanted to protect your privacy, so did you say, How is this third-party, who is going to evaluate my claims, how is this individual going to protect my privacy? Did you ask that?

A. I'm sure I did. I know I felt comfortable that he would.

Q. Why did you feel comfortable? What information was given to you to allow you to reach a comfort level that this man, that you never met, was going to protect your privacy in a fashion that made you feel comfortable?

A. I think it was just told to me.

Q. By Ms. Gardner?

A. By Ms. Garnder and by him. I know whenever I first got there, he explained that he was part of this private firm, and he would do what he could do to protect my privacy and, yeah, I know I felt -- I didn't think any of this was weird or out of the normal.

Q. So I know you have been a hairstylist for quite a while.

A. Correct.
Q. Correct? Have you ever taken acting lessons?
A. No.
Q. Have you ever modeled?
A. No.
Q. Have you ever looked into modeling or acting?
A. When I was 14.
Q. You looked into which? Modeling or acting?
A. Modeling. I did, like, a shoot one time when I was 14, yes.
Q. So you did look into it at a young age?
A. Kind of, yes.
Q. I mean, did you get a -- like, photographs or -- what are they -- face sheet or whatever that is taken?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you go through like a -- Barbizon or any other agency?
A. Yes. Another agency in town.
Q. Okay. Do you recall the name of the agency?
A. The Raspberry Company.

Q. And does the Raspberry Company also teach you how to walk a runway and things of that nature?

A. No. Because I really only did the one shoot, so I didn't do the classes or anything like that, no.

Q. No classes at all?

A. No.

Q. And that's the only involvement in modeling or acting?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you certain?

A. Yes. I mean, other than in college.

Q. Tell me about college.

A. In college I took an intro to theater arts class.

Q. Okay. Well, that's part of my question.

A. That was a seminar class where she just kind of taught the intro to theater arts.

Q. Well, when you say -- first of all, when was "in college"? Had you gone twice?

A. 2000 -- correct. Two thousand, so 18 years ago.

Q. And you took a -- one that would be called an acting class; right?

A. I don't know that that -- that one is considered acting, but I did. I also took -- it was called Acting 1, I believe.

Q. In college?

A. In college, yeah.

Q. So when you were taking these acting classes in college, was that because you were considering a career in theater?

A. No. My degree at the time was going to be communication arts, and that was part of it.

Q. Okay. And when you would take these acting classes, did you actually have to perform skits and things of that nature?

A. Not -- intro to theater arts was just a seminar class. The Acting 1, we did, I think to -- I can remember one specific skit, yes.

Q. Okay. So you would have to assume characters or roles or things of that nature?

A. Yes.

Q. And you would participate in that?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Anything else in your background with respect to modeling or acting or classes or theater as a hobby? Anything of that nature?

A. In high school I was an extra in a play called -- redacted. I mean, I did little stuff like that in high school, and then that was it. So, no, nothing beyond that.

Q. Since high school?

A. No.

Q. Have you engaged in any other performances performance art, dancing, anything of that nature?

A. No.

Q. I mean, other than recreational dancing?

A. No.

Q. Okay. All right. So Mr. Tisaby then sits down and he tells you something about his background; right?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he provide a resume?

A. I believe so. I believe he gave that to my attorney.

Q. Did you review that resume before you sat for that meeting?

A. Briefly, yes.

Q. Did he discuss his resume with you?

A. Briefly.

Q. Did he tell you in his brief discussion that he had worked with the FBI?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he tell you that he had also done -- had engaged in some sophisticated security work, for instance, with the Laclede Gas?

A. He may have. I don't remember that, yeah.

Q. Did he tell you enough about his background that you felt that he was a -- a substantially qualified third person to do an assessment?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, I'm not asking about what you potentially may have read in a newspaper -- well, let me rephrase it.

Have you have followed this case in the newspaper, when these various articles come out?

A. Yes. To some extent, yes.

Q. Have you followed it in the newspaper with respect to any motions that have been filed by EG's defense team?

A. I've been made aware of them, too, from my attorney, yes.

Q. Have you personally read them?

A. A couple of them, I know I've read, yes.

Q. Have you been made aware of them by any other individual, other than your attorney, about sort of the various filings going on in court?

A. I mean, other people saying, Oh, I read this, that type of thing. No.

Q. And do you have any -- do you recall any specific conversations?

A. No.

Q. About any filings?

A. No. Not in particular.

Q. So as we go back to this Illinois meeting that you had with Mr. Tisaby, and you said he discussed his background and his resume in a sufficient fashion to give you this comfort level; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Would it be fair to say that that caused you an additional level of comfort?

A. Possibly. I was --

Q. I mean, was the FBI significant to you?

A. Not necessarily. I was still pretty nervous at that time.

Q. Was the fact that he represented himself as retired FBI, did that have any meaning to you or incision, or add to his credibilities, so to speak?

A. Yes. I felt going into the meeting that this was going to be somebody who I should trust or ...

Q. Have you learned since that time that there's been questions of -- with respect to Mr. Tisaby's background?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. And did you learn it through the circuit attorney or through your reading of the various motions?

A. I believe I read that, yes.

Q. You read that? And you read that there was issues with respect to how he was separated from the FBI and he was totally terminated for lying under oath?

A. Yes.

Q. You read that; right?

A. I believe so, yes.

Q. You read that there was issues with him with respect to him committing a crime of bigamy?

A. Correct.

Q. You read that he is -- there was issues with respect to past due child support?

A. Correct.

Q. You read there was issues with respect to his involvement with a homicide suspect?

A. No. I don't -- I didn't read that.

Q. After reading all of this, did you make any -- did you take any action -- did you call on

Ms. Gardner and question her about why you were not informed about that prior to sitting down with Mr. Tisaby?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Did it cause you to feel different at all about this person that you initially trusted?

A. No. I don't know that I had any feelings about him before.

Q. How long was the meeting that you had with Tisaby?

A. Probably two hours -- a little over two hours.

Q. Might be more?

A. I'm not sure. I would say around two hours, yes.

Q. At least two; fair to say?

A. Yes.

Q. I would imagine just from common sense that it wasn't a situation where Mr. Tisaby said, Tell me your story, and you just then spoke for two hours. That doesn't sound plausible, does it?

A. It kind of did. That was pretty much what happened.

Q. You spoke for two hours without --

A. Pretty much, other than, Will you clarify this, yeah.

Q. -- interruption? And Ms. Gardner was taking notes, was she not?

A. I think so, yes. I think so.

Q. And Mr. Tisaby was as well?

A. I don't know. I'm not sure.

Q. Well, I'm interested in that question.

A. Okay.

Q. You have a specific recollection of Ms. Gardner taking notes in that Illinois meeting; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Because you saw something -- somebody putting pen to paper, right, or potentially?

A. No.

Q. Using a laptop?

A. Okay. No, because prior to, that was the discussion I had about was I comfortable with that -- was I comfortable being recorded? So I asked her about that, Do you have to take notes? That's the only reason I know for sure that first time, because I was uncomfortable with it.

Q. And she said she was going to take notes?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were okay with that, right, because she did?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. Right?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And nothing would have changed between the first meeting and the second meeting; right?

A. Right.

Q. I mean, if you were comfortable with notes on the first meeting, you're going to be comfortable on the second; right?

A. Correct.

Q. There's no reason to reengage that subject, is there?

A. Correct.

Q. So in the second meeting, you recall Ms. Gardner taking notes; right? I mean, this is a long meeting.

A. So --

Q. My first --

A. That's what I'm trying to picture. So she wasn't sitting directly in front of me; she was kind of sitting back, so, no, I don't -- I'm not positive, but I think so, yes.

Q. This was not a particularly large hotel room, was it -- or in a large room?

A. No. It wasn't particularly large.

Q. So you believe she was taking notes; right?

A. Yes, I believe so.

Q. Pen to paper or laptop?

A. I don't remember a laptop, so ...

Q. And with respect to Tisaby --

A. Right.

Q. -- you're facing him; right?

A. Kind of. It was at an angle.

Q. Okay. Was it at a table?

A. Yes.

Q. And was it just the two of you at a table?

A. No. So my attorney was next to me. He was kind of off to the -- kind of where you are.

Q. Uh-huh.

A. And then Mrs. Gardner was kind of scooted back.

Q. And when you say "where I was," where -- we're at a rather long conference table; right?

A. Correct. So not as big of a table, no.

Q. Okay. So just as a point of reference, would it be to your left, about where Mr. Garvey would be, but he would be up at the table?

A. No. I'm sorry, I forgot your name.
Q. Ms. Nasser?
A. Yes.
Q. So maybe towards you; right?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Did he have anything in front of him?
A. Not that I remember. He could have.
Q. Okay.
A. But I don't remember specifically.
Q. Did he have notes?
A. He had -- so he had a folder that had his stuff in it, so I know that.
Q. Did you see him writing anything?
A. Possibly.
Q. Okay. I mean, this is a two-hour conversation.
A. I know.
Q. Right? So --
A. I don't know.
Q. -- for two hours you're saying that you essentially spoke; right?
A. Correct.
Q. Now, I want you to really try to remember whether or not you saw him taking notes during this two hours.

A. He could have.

Q. Okay.

MR. BARNES: Okay. We're going to take a break in just a second.

For the members not on the committee previously, to give some context to that conversation: This conversation took place on April 6th. The circuit attorney interview -- Mr. Dowd may recall off the top of his head the date that that interview took place. Think it was sometime in February. And somehow that interview was not turned over until April 11, which was the night of our first report.

MR. DOWD: That's correct. The interview was actually on January 29th.

MR. BARNES: Okay. So the interview was on January 29th. This deposition was April 6th. The interview, despite discovery requests having been sent, was not turned over until April 11th.

So there's a period of time in this deposition where there's a lot of focus on what happens in the circuit attorney's interview. If it had been timely disclosed, really likely wouldn't have spent so much time on that in the deposition itself. We have the video itself -- we sat as a committee and actually watched the video, in addition to having made a transcript of it, and so we'll make that available to any committee members. But it may seem odd that there's all of this argument over talking about a video -- and I think you guys have heard the video exists, and the reason is, it was sort of floating in the ether at the time period of this.

I want to do some housekeeping here. The first is we have -- this deposition is 425 pages. We have 704 pages of transcripts to go through in our possession right now. We have currently done -- was that 100 pages -- we have currently done 190. So I would like to get to at least the 350 point, if not to 400 pages tonight.

Mr. Dowd, I believe we are missing a deposition -- a cross-examination deposition. We obtained these from the circuit attorney's office. I believe that we've requested information from you and your client as well. I'm not sure whether it was in the form of subpoena or request at this point. I have what's labeled as Volume 3 of a deposition that took place on May 3rd. Is that -- am I right, Representative Mitten -- yeah, it's labeled as Volume 3. Is there a Volume 2?

MR. DOWD: Yes.

MR. BARNES: And do you have possession of Volume 2?

MR. DOWD: I do not. I mean, I have it at my office.

MR. DOWD: Are you willing to provide it to the committee so that we can go through that this week?

MR. DOWD: I am as soon as the judge says I can. I think that Ms. Gardner violated the court's orders when she disclosed that and the grand jury testimony to you, which -- I don't even care about at this point. But I do want the judge to authorize it. That's something we'll take up with the judge.

MR. BARNES: Okay. My understanding was that your team requested that the order be lifted at the close of -- at the close -- with the dismissal of that case.

MR. DOWD: No, that's not true.

MR. BARNES: Okay. And --

MR. DOWD: And there were two orders. One was just a discovery order and then the gag order. The gag order was lifted, not the discovery order.

But we can contact the judge and see what he says.

MR. BARNES: And I would argue -- I think we've had this discussion before, that our subpoenas have equal merit --

MR. DOWD: Yes, we have.

MR. BARNES: And I don't want to get into that discussion today. But it would be very important for this committee's review process to, in fact, have that transcript of Volume 3. And I think we're going to reach out to the circuit attorney's office, in fact, to get Volume 3 so that we can do a full review. And I would hope that you and your team would turn over heaven and earth to get us the documents that we have requested.

In addition to that, the circuit attorney's office, I don't believe, was ever provided the video of these depositions, and so we would request the video. I don't know if that's true or not, and I have, like -- I'm on hearsay evidence here.

MR. DOWD: I don't know why they wouldn't. They've spent a fortune on this case.

MR. BARNES: Okay. Well, in addition to requesting Volume 3 from you, which I think is important for this --

MR. DOWD: Volume 2 or Volume 3?
MR. BARNES: I'm sorry. Volume 2. We have Volume 3. Volume 2. We would like the video from Volumes 1, 2, and 3.
Are there any other volumes regarding Witness 1 that I -- of which I am not aware at this point in time?
MR. DOWD: No.
MR. BARNES: So there are three depositions --
MR. DOWD: That's my understanding.
MR. BARNES: Okay. So the plan now is we are going to take another ten-minute break. We're going to come back in at four. We have the redacted documents that we are going to release that we have been through, and then we'll be on this first 100 pages, working on getting those redactions and get that released. So as we're doing this in hundred-page increments, we're releasing.
MR. EGGLESTON: The January 29th interview you were talking about is the one with Gardner and Tisaby?
MR. BARNES: It is with Gardner and Tisaby in a hotel room. The first 11 minutes have no audio. Is that correct, because --

MR. DOWD: We were told there was no video -- no recording had been made. And then when we were filing the motions to compel with the court, the court was granting them, they said, Oh, there is a video, but the first 11 minutes are missing, but there is a video, and the rest of it you can hear.

MR. BARNES: And it's approximately two hours long?

MR. DOWD: Yes. It's the same thing, right.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

Okay. Let' go into recess until 4:00 p.m.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: Let's go back on the record.

From 115, line 14 to 117, line 22. Yeah, we're fine releasing that as a part of this; it's just there's no sense in reading. And I've read through the first 25 pages and we're good here. So if the redactions are correct, I believe you gentlemen can start when you're ready.

Representative Phillips, can you be the interjector?

MR. PHILLIPS: I certainly can.

MR. BARNES: And at some point in time, these larger redactions -- what I plan to do is, we'll have a closed committee meeting where we'll discuss those and decide whether they need to remain redacted or not. What I think this goes into now is broad -- this is a broader redaction, and if we want to narrow the redactions, that's fine, but once it's out, it's out, and you can't take it back; so it's better to be broad at this stage and then have our redaction meeting later to make those decisions.

MR. AUSTIN: All right. I'm the questioner now. We'll go to page 100, line 3.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Kevin Austin and Representative J. Eggleston.)

Q. Did you see a laptop?

A. Definitely not a laptop.

Q. Okay. And I want you to remember you're under oath, okay?

A. Yes.

Q. And I -- and I want you to try to clear your mind as to go back in time during that particular meeting, okay?

A. Yes.

Q. And I want you to try to remember whether or not as you were talking if he was contemporaneously writing notes to capture your version of what you were saying.

A. I really don't remember.

Q. I think earlier --

A. I really don't.

Q. -- you said you believed so; right?

A. I believe he could have.

Q. Okay.

A. Absolutely. He had this -- I can picture there being a folder in front of him, so he could have had something there, but I'm not sure.

Q. Can you picture a pen in his hand or a pencil?

A. No.

Q. Let me ask this: Do you recall that there was -- do you recall that there was any audio equipment?

A. I believe they were trying to set up some type of video camera.

A. A video camera?

Q. Yes.

A. Okay. Now, when you say, "trying to set up a video camera," tell me what that means to you.

A. That's what I mainly focused on, because I was nervous about that.

Q. So a video camera, such as the one that is staring at you right now?

A. Correct.

Q. And you saw that -- you saw what we went through today to make sure that that video camera is working; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And I would assume that happened on that occasion?

A. I don't know. I don't -- after I was there, it was pretty much, KS, would you be comfortable doing -- you know, having this, just for our -- keeping -- us keeping or whatever.

Q. A video rendition?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So at any time were you informed that it didn't work?

A. Yes.

Q. At what point?

A. After the taping or whatever was over, my attorney we received a call saying, just so you know, that didn't work.

Q. So during this entire two hours, it's your testimony that nobody checked the video?

A. No.
Q. You didn't see anyone checked it at all?
A. No.
Q. Nobody checked to see whether there had to be a change of tape or anything of that nature?
A. No.
Q. Getting back to your answer with Tisaby and notes --
A. Yes.
Q. -- was this two-hour or so meeting straight, or were there any breaks?
A. No breaks where I got up, no.
Q. No breaks at all to stop, to go to the bathroom, to get a drink, to do anything?
A. No.
Q. For anybody?
A. No. Not that I remember.
Q. And, again, getting back to this meeting, you're aware that the subject of Tisaby and notes has been brought up by the defense. As you sit here now, are you -- you're aware of that; right?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And what source of information made you aware of that? Who or where did you learn that?
A. I believe, my attorney. I'm not positive.

I think, my attorney. I think so.

Q. And had you had any discussions with the circuit attorney about the subject notes?

A. I don't know. It could have come up last week or whatever.

Q. Okay.

A. But I don't remember specifically.

Q. Do you have a -- you have a fairly decent memory, don't you?

A. Yes.

Q. Because before the committee, before the grand jury, you were recalling details that you claimed happened three years ago; right?

A. Correct.

Q. I'm going to ask you something that happened last week, okay?

A. Okay.

Q. And what happened last week is the subject of Tisaby's notes came specifically about this deposition. That's a correct statement, is it not?

A. I don't know if it came up with a circuit attorney. I'm being honest. I'm -- I know that I was made aware of it because my reaction was -- I don't remember specifically. I don't know. He could have been taking notes. I truly don't remember. I don't remember having that conversation with the circuit attorney; however, we could have. I am not sure.

Q. You knew it was the subject matter of this case; right?

A. Not that it was a big deal, no. I didn't know that.

Q. Well, you knew we were raising questions about whether or not Tisaby was answering questions under oath accurately. You're aware of that; right?

A. Yes. So --

Q. And you're aware that that subject was his taking notes in a two-hour meeting, yes?

A. No, not specifically. What I heard was that there was some things that he said that were false or were they false, and that's what I remember specifically.

Q. And what did you hear he said that was false?

A. He said that I got undressed in the kitchen, which is false. That's all I remember specifically.

Q. Who was providing that information to you?

A. My attorney.

Q. In anticipation of this deposition?

A. I think just to let me know, Hey, I mean, maybe -- possibly, but I think just to let me know that this was out there and also, too, that was part of a motion, I believe.

Q. Did you ever ask to review the finished product of your two-hour or more meeting with Tisaby?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Did you ever review his notes or his -- his memorandum?

A. No. I'm not -- I'm not aware of --

Q. Do you know --

A. I'm sorry.

Q. Do you know whether or not your lawyer has that in his possession?

A. I'm not aware.

Q. I think what you said is that you're not aware of -- that you have not had any ongoing discussions with PS about this matter.

A. Correct.

Q. Have you been made aware as to whether or not PS and/or his lawyer and/or both have been paid for their role in this case?

A. No, I'm not aware.

Q. Would it surprise you if they have?

A. It wouldn't surprise me.
Q. It would not?
A. It would not surprise me.
Q. Why would that not surprise you?
A. Because I don't know what he's capable of.
Q. Do you know -- have you researched or been reading anything that his lawyer, Albert Watkins, has had to say?
A. Yes.
MR. PHILLIPS: At this point, Mr. Steel interjects and says:
I'm going to object that this is not relevant.
Mr. Rosenblum says --
MR. AUSTIN: I'm sorry?
MR. PHILLIPS: It's not relevant what Watkins said. At this point it is not relevant.
Q. You can answer. That's an objection.
MR. PHILLIPS: Don't answer that.
MR. AUSTIN: Excuse me?
MR. PHILLIPS: I'm instructing her not to answer that.
MR. AUSTIN: What Watkins had to say?
MR. PHILLIPS: Right. Because that's not relevant.

Q. Okay. So let me just tell you how this is going to work, okay? Mr. Steel can add or subtract anything he wants from this, okay? So this is our deposition. We get to ask questions. You understand that; right?

A. Yes.

Q. I've asked you a question of whether or not you have made yourself aware or become aware of anything that Watkins has had to say in this case, okay?

A. Yes.

Q. That's my question. And as a foundation, you know that Watkins represents PS; right?

A. Correct.

Q. You just said that PS is capable of anything and don't know what he's capable of; correct?

A. I believe so. Or he -- I don't know what he's capable of.

Q. And you also -- and you also indicated that, in fact, PS -- that, in fact, you had followed to extent some of the various filings that have gone on; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Now I'm asking if you're aware of anything that Watkins has said relative to this case, and Mr. Steel has instructed you not to answer.

A. Yes.

Q. Are you -- do you have -- do you possess that information as we speak? Could you answer the question?

A. Oh.

Q. Could you answer that question --

A. Oh.

Q. -- that I just asked.

A. Yes.

Q. All right. So the way that this is going to work -- he's objecting to the form of the question; I'm going to certify the question. Then I'm going to approach the judge, and if the judge agrees with me, I'm going to ask to reconvene this deposition at your expense. Is that okay with you?

MR. PHILLIPS: At this point, Mr. Simpson says:

I'm going to object. If it's -- it's my understanding the judge is on call downstairs. I'm not going to have you threaten my client with some sort of financial expense. If we want to certify it and go find the judge, we can go find the judge.

MR. AUSTIN: I don't know if the judge is available and it's not a threat. That's what happens in depositions. I think you're aware of that, too. It not uncommon for parties, that if there's an objection where you're told not to answer the question, and if we approach a judge, and if he's not available today, and orders you to answer the question, I will ask him to reconvene the deposition at your expense.

Q. I am asking you if you're now aware of what I've just said?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you still choosing not to answer the question?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, have you pursued or looked into filing a lawsuit in this case?

A. No.

Q. I know in the past that you have sought counseling, and we talked about counseling that you sought with -- redacted; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And you gave us his last name; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And to be sure you talked to -- redacted -- about issues with respect to EG; right?

A. Correct.
Q. It's also -- we've established that you've been lying to -- redacted -- correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And we've established that specificity in response to one of your -- to one of PS's questions when he asked if you confessed to -- redacted. You denied it; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you've also had various problems with -- redacted -- that you shared with PS; right?
A. Yes. In regards to that.
Q. You just thought he was sort of an off person?
A. I thought how he handled asking me about that was not comforting and was really scary to me.
Q. You know, this is just as an aside. I mean, I -- we're watching you on videotape here today; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And you're conscious of your demeanor, are you not?
A. Not at the moment.
Q. But, I mean, you understand how you're presenting yourself now; correct?

A. No, not in the moment, if that's what you mean.

MR. AUSTIN: Then we have a redaction from page 111, line 13 through line 19, and I'll begin at line 20 with the next question.

Q. Other than -- redacted -- did you -- have you -- other than -- redacted -- have you shared information about EG with any other counselors?

A. Yes.

Q. More than one or just one?

A. With one.

Q. And, in fact, you spoke to that individual frequently about EG, among other things; correct?

A. Yes. Some. A lot of it more personal or with PS, yes.

Q. Well, you had a counselor separate from PS, did you not?

A. Correct.

Q. And in one conversation, I know that you said, "I spoke to him an hour the other day about this situation, EG."

Would that be fair to say?

A. It was a female, so ...

Q. Well, a female.

A. A counselor, yes.
Q. What's this person's name?
A. Redacted.
Q. Redacted?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you still see her?
A. No.
Q. So you were seeing her near the time that this was -- that you were having a relationship with EG?
A. Correct.
Q. Have you sought counseling from anyone since?
A. The counselor at my school at -- redacted -- that was part of -- so I have a Title 9 or Title 10, I believe --
Q. A Title 10 claim?
A. No. I -- I guess so. They basically said -- I went to my adviser and said, Look, I'm in the middle of this situation, and so then I met with the lady from Title 10, I believe, and she said, Well if you want to speak to -- redacted -- on campus -- anyways, that's who I've been speaking to since then.
Q. All right. So let me break that down a little bit.

A. Sure.

Q. So the female counselor you're talking about, how often did you see this individual?

A. At that time, probably twice a week.

Q. And for how long a period of time?

A. Maybe half a year -- a year and a half.

Q. And was a frequent subject matter in your sessions about EG?

A. No. In the beginning -- yes, in the middle of it all, but then not after that, no.

Q. Okay. And you gave us her name. Do you know her address?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Do you know what city?

A. Redacted.

Q. Redacted proper?

A. Redacted.

Q. Redacted. Do you know what municipality?

A. So she was off of -- redacted. I don't know where she is now, though.

Q. Would you provide those records to the circuit attorney's office --

MR. AUSTIN: Then we have a long legal discussion about -- objections in the record that goes from line 14, page 115 to probably line 25 on 117?

MR. BARNES: Well, I think until line 4 on page 118.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay.

MR. BARNES: Line 5 on 118. And, again, we're not going to redact this from what we release; we're just going to skip it.

So go ahead.

MR. AUSTIN: Beginning page 118, line 6 the questioning resumes.

Q. So I'm going to ask a series of questions specifically starting in 2014 during the time that EG was initially a client through 2015. Were you on any medication -- psychotropic medication or any other type of medication -- other than aspirins or something of that nature?

A. I had a prescription for -- redacted.

Q. Okay.

A. However, I had not taken it any of the times that I was with him.

Q. How long have you had the prescription?

A. I don't remember when it was first prescribed, but I would -- my guess would be 2014, around then.

Q. So you -- did you seek the prescription because of EG or PS?

A. No. I believe my physician prescribed it even without me asking, because at the time, I had mono. I didn't know what that was, but, anyways, I was nervous about that, and I told him I was having trouble sleeping, so he said, Well, try this.

Q. So he prescribed -- redacted -- without you asking?

A. I'm sorry?

Q. He prescribed -- redacted -- without you asking?

A. Right. Not specifically for it.

Q. So would it be your testimony that you received -- that you filled a prescription?

A. Correct.

Q. But you never used it; never took a pill?

A. No. I would if I had trouble sleeping.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. So during that period of time, and from time to time, you would use -- redacted?

A. Yes. If I couldn't sleep.

Q. And any other drug?

A. After that happened with EG.

Q. EG.

A. EG. I'm sorry. I went a series of days without sleeping and --

Q. And you're specifically talking about the March 21st incident?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay.

A. And I called my doctor after -- how many days -- a few days of not sleeping at all, and he prescribed -- I believe it was -- redacted -- like, a lower dose of -- redacted -- which is a sleeping anxiety medication that I took if I had trouble sleeping during that period of time. But I haven't had that prescription in years.

Q. Anything else?

A. No.

Q. And the same question with respect to current. Currently, as you've been dealing with the circuit attorney's office, as you've been dealing with Tisaby, up and through today's date, are you on any medication such as that we have spoken about?

A. I still have the -- redacted -- prescription; however, the only time I would take it is at night. It's the lowest dose, and if I need it. But, typically, since this, my last prescription was in December for a month.

Q. And --

A. So it's not something I take every day, I guess, would be a good way to describe it.

Q. And getting back to that same time frame that we're speaking about, the first time frame in 2014 and 2015, did you engage in any recreational drugs?

A. No.

Q. None whatsoever?

A. None.

Q. Just alcohol?

A. Just alcohol occasionally.

Q. Same question with respect to the last, say, six months.

A. Correct.

Q. Recreational drugs?

A. No.

Q. So you were married to PS, I believe, in 2005. You met him in '03. Would that be accurate?

A. Correct.

Q. Prior to that, you were in a relationship where a child was born?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were not married to that individual?

A. No.
Q. No, that's correct?
A. Sorry. I was not married to him.
Q. Okay.
A. No.
Q. And you had one child with that individual?
A. Yes.
Q. You married -- ultimately married PS, but he brought two children into the relationship?
A. Yes.
Q. You married in '05, and I think you officially divorced in 2016. Would that be correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Now, would it be fair to say that you had a number of problems with PS during the course of your relationship?
A. Yes.
Q. Were there any domestic disturbances where police were called?
A. No.
Q. Primarily, would it be fair to say that the problems that you had with PS during the course of your relationship would be that he was extremely controlling?

A. That was a big issue, yes.

Q. And not only was he extremely controlling, but he would tend to investigate every aspect of your life?

A. Yes. That was an issue.

Q. And he would sometimes act out with extreme jealousy?

A. Yes.

Q. He would go to great lengths to keep, essentially, tabs on you? Would that be fair?

A. Yes.

Q. I think you described it at one point it was basically just a controlling and insecure relationship?

A. Yes.

Q. And that just wasn't something that occurred during your relationship with EG; that had predated that for quite some time?

A. Yes. Almost since the beginning.

Q. And going to the extremes of actually, you believe, putting an app on your phone to keep track of who called you and when you called?

A. So -- no. He had my phone number set up under his, as if he was my father. I went to go change my phone -- and this was in June of 2015 -- and the man said, I can't do it unless I get -- you get permission from your father. And I said, Who is that? And he said PS. He's your father on this. So he had it set up where he could look at everything of mine, but I didn't have access to his.

Q. When you say "look at everything of yours," could he actually read text messages as they were occurring? Was that your understanding?

A. That was my suspicious. Not through that, though. My guess was that -- would be that he had some sort of other --

Q. App?

A. App or something. I don't know.

Q. Like a clone -- like a clone phone that he had access to your phone? He put something on your phone that would essentially allow him to read your text messages as they -- on his phone as they came up on your phone?

A. That's --

Q. Something of that nature?

A. Correct. But that's just a -- I don't know for sure. I have nothing to prove it; I just feel that way.

Q. What gave you that suspicion?

A. Because he would say comments about things that he wouldn't have known unless he read it.

Q. Did you ever determine that one way or the other, or was it just something that -- that it would seem that that was the case because he would have information that he ordinarily wouldn't have had unless he saw the text?

A. Correct. With the text messages. With Facebook and my e-mail, those things of nature, he also had access to all of that. I did know that for sure, because he would comment on things that wouldn't make sense to a third-party individual, unless you knew what the original conversation was. So he would say, Who is so-and-so, and why are they messaging you about this, you know? It wouldn't be nothing.

Q. Right.

A. So ...

Q. So you had a number of problems with him or with respect to his -- I think you described it as incredible insecurity; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And I think you described that in the past that he could portray himself publically as sort of a secure person but privately he was riddled with insecurities?

A. Correct.

Q. Because he was a performer of some sort, was he not?

A. Yes.

Q. And these insecurities drove him throughout the course of your relationship and at times worse than others, but I believe you said it got worse and worse where it literally would just be like big brother and watched your every move and knew your every move?

A. Yes. That's how I felt.

Q. And it literally was driving you insane at times -- and I don't mean literally insane; I'm using it as a term of art?

A. It was very difficult, yes.

Q. Very difficult; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And, in fact, I -- I think at one point -- and this may have been after your relationship with EG, he was in frustration -- was upset with you because he was accusing you of telling your friends and family that he was completely crazy and depressed and impossible to be around. Do you recall having that conversation?

A. I -- I don't recall it, but ...
Q. That's something you probably would have said?
A. Yes.
Q. And when you said -- when you said in the past that he had issues with boundaries, what did you mean by that? Because I think you were -- specifically related to a situation with your sister -- redacted.
A. I'm not sure. Can you refresh my memory?
Q. I mean, there wasn't much definition. I think you had just made a statement that he had issues with boundaries. That doesn't ring a bell?
A. It doesn't ring a bell, but, yes. So I would say that throughout the course of our marriage, it got to the point where I felt there could be absolutely nothing he didn't know that I even thought, let alone did or was desiring. I mean -- so there was no kind of separation between me and him, other than I -- I did allow for those boundaries.
Q. I'm sorry. You did what?
A. I allowed for those boundaries, meaning I didn't push him on those things about him, but I felt as though anything I thought or did or was going to do or liked or -- I felt was his business, you know?

Q. At some point, I think the summer before 2015, you talked about a vacation you went on; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And I think you shared that information, in fact, with EG at some point, that you went on this vacation and you were -- and that the place you were at had this incredible gym, but he would literally stalk you to the gym -- not to work out; just to make sure you didn't flirt.

A. Correct. That's how I felt.

Q. So you almost felt like you were a prisoner of some sort; correct?

A. In some ways, yes.

Q. But in addition to -- well, let me back up. I know that you have said -- and we're going to get there, but you've said that -- you know, that he would act out and voice that he was going to ruin you at some point; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And that he was going to ruin EG at some point. I think we're going to cover this in more detail, but -- so he would -- his MO, so to speak, was to threaten you?

A. Yes. In particular, after we were not together, it got worse, yes.

Q. And that would have been March 20th?

A. So after March -- after I told him about EG, after he had something against me that was tangible, then he -- originally, it started in March through October. October is when we were for sure getting divorced. During that period of time, it was, you know, this guy is awful, you know? He should pay for this, that type of thing. And it didn't turn into, I could ruin you both, and I have proof of it, until October 2015, when we were for sure getting divorced.

Q. You told him you wanted a divorce, I believe, in -- on March 20th; right?

A. Correct.

Q. So in addition to -- in addition to the problem that you were having with PS, you were dealing with some of your own issues with respect to the marriage; correct?

A. I'm sorry. Rephrase or explain that.

Q. Well, I think you described some of the feelings that you were experiencing leading up to your relationship with EG, is that you were suffering from horrible feelings that you were suppressing constantly. Do you recall saying that?

A. Yes. After he hit on me that first time, in particular, prior to that, I definitely had a crush or had feelings on him, but had no clue that they were -- that -- that they were that reciprocated.

Q. But the way you described it was that you were dealing with when that -- that your truth, so to speak, was that you -- for four years prior to EG, you were dealing with these issues, horrible feelings that you had to suppress about various other men.

A. Not -- no. Not wanting to leave my marriage and go have an affair or anything like that. It was more to me -- even just having feelings for someone else when you're married or thinking somebody else is attractive was wrong. Like I said, that thing that happened in Vegas, I really and truly flirted with somebody. Came home, I felt that my husband and I really needed to be in counseling. I had been saying that for a period of time, and I said, Listen, this is the first time I found myself attracted to someone else. We need to be in counseling. We need to figure this out.

MR. AUSTIN: And there's a question beginning line 20 ending line 24 that's completely redacted.

A. And the answer to that is:

I believe that vacation was in 2013. It was before I was 30, so -- I'm sorry.

Q. Before you were 30, you said?

A. Correct.

Q. The vacation about where he stalked you to the gym?

MR. EGGLESTON: And then the answer, line 6 through line 9 are all redacted. Looks like maybe theres's a question there.

So then the answer begins:

A. Correct. I'm sorry.

Q. And that was in an effort to resolve some of these issues; correct?

A. Correct.

MR. AUSTIN: And then the question, lines 14 and 15, it's redacted.

A. And then correct.

Q. And resolve some of the issues you were having with this compulsive stalking, for lack of a better word?

A. Yes.

Q. But your issue specifically that I want to ask about -- you said -- you say to PS, So when you have this sort of come to Jesus discussion in the car; right?

A. Uh-huh. Correct.

Q. That your first truth is that you've had these horrible feelings for years. You described them as horrible feelings.

MR. BARNES: Pause. Pause. Line 6 starting with the word "and"; line 7, ending the redaction before the word "I." Does everyone agree on that redaction?

Let's have a discussion -- we can --

MR. AUSTIN: Let's redact and then we'll --

MR. BARNES: Let's redact, and if we want to add it back later, we can add it back later. Again, broader redactions now so we can have a discussion in a closed hearing about it.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay. So five --

MR. BARNES: So it's 132, 6 to 7; 133 is line 18 -- actually, it's line 18 starting with the second "Who"; right? Not -- not the whole line, just the second "who" -- starting at the front of the second "who." 134, line 6 starting before the third "I," that second sentence there and ending on line 7 after the word "now."

Page 144, line 6 starting before the word "with" and ending after the word -- before the word "that." Same page, line 19, starting before the word "either," following through to line 20, ending after the word "appointments."

And then on page 151, starting on line 19 and going to 152, 24. This is the tape recording of -- and I referenced the general description of it, which is a recording of -- what I would characterize as an emotionally abusive recording conversation between ex-husband and Witness 1, and this has just some details about it, I think, that I want to have a conversation later about the specifics.

MR. RAZER: So from 151, 19 to 152, line 24, all of that?

MR. BARNES: Yes. And we'll -- I want to revisit it at some point; it's just I want to have an actual discussion of it before we read it.

Fair enough, Representative Austin?

MR. AUSTIN: Fine.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay. We're resuming page

132, line 5.

Q. And that's what you've begun constantly suppressing --

MR. AUSTIN: And then I think we redact down to line -- what was it -- 8?

MR. BARNES: Seven.

Q. "I thought he was great, the guy in Vegas. He was great -- clients -- whatever -- I know that it's me."

Do you remember making that statement?

A. Yes.

Q. So what were these horrible feelings?

A. Just being attracted to other people, which, to me, was wrong. Being in my marriage and feeling like that guy is attractive or truly -- if my husband asked me, Do you find this guy attractive, that was a wrong statement, really, in my marriage, and so I did feel horrible. I felt like I shouldn't be attracted to anybody else. What is -- you know, what's wrong with me?

Q. Well, attraction is, it seems to me a little bit different than suppressing horrible feelings. So you're saying that you may have found Bradley Cooper attractive; to you, that caused you to feel that you were having horrible feelings that jeopardized your marriage?

A. Yes.

Q. So you're saying today under oath that if you found any other human being attractive, other than your husband -- male human being attractive, that that would cause you to have these horrible feelings that you would have to suppress?

A. At that time. One hundred percent.

Q. And that's because of the nature of the relationship that you were in?

A. Correct.

Q. He constantly questioned you about whether you're were acting on any of these feelings, did he not?

A. Correct.

Q. So you were constantly being accused of affairs, were you not?

A. Correct.

Q. And, in fact -- then we had a redaction.

A. His name is -- redacted.

Q. And what year was that? And I'm only using that term because that's the term you used.

A. Let's see -- 2011.

Q. While you were with PS?

A. Correct.

Q. Was that at his request or was that on your own?

A. That was on my own.

MR. BARNES: Line 3 -- redact all of line 3 on page 134 -- but not line 5.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay.

A. So line 4, answer to the redacted question was "No."

Q. Do you have a belly button ring?

A. I did when I was 14, so, no.

Q. At 14 you had a belly button ring?

A. Or 16, yes. When I was --

Q. Did you ever use it since, on occasion?

A. Oh, it's been 15 years, yeah.

Q. But you have used it since you were 16?

A. Since I was 16, but I was -- before I had my nine- and eight-year-old, yes.

Q. And there also was a situation with -- where he accused you of being with a chiropractor.

A. Yes.

Q. What was his name?

A. Redacted.

Oh, I don't remember his last name. He was at -- redacted -- I believe. This was a chiropractor that my sister and I both saw. He made a comment in front of my husband, He's so cute, and that's all it took. That -- then it was, You must be with this guy. What is it with this guy? You think he's cute, too? That's how it started.

Q. The two men in Vegas that was a concern of your husband, what was his name?

A. Redacted.

Q. Do you have a last name?

A. I think -- redacted.

Q. Redacted?

A. Redacted, I think.

Q. And --

A. Redacted.

Q. And what was your connection or involvement with him?

A. So I went on a bachelorette party with a friend of mine and --

Q. Would that have been considered a solo vacation you went on?

A. No. That was after PS and I were separated.

Q. So the solo vacation was after you were separated?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So tell me about the bachelor party.

A. I went to Vegas with a group of girls for a bachelorette party, and we met this group of men. And one of them -- or, actually, two of them, in particular, were talking to me, asking me questions about marriage and stuff like that. They were both the bachelors in this big bachelor party, and the one I -- I viewed it as we both found ourselves attracted to each other. Just through conversation, I felt he was being flirty. I felt I was being flirty, especially considering I even felt bad thinking somebody was attractive. So nothing happened between us, but we did have conversation. Whenever I got home from Vegas, I told my husband about him. He did digging somehow through seeing pictures on Facebook, became obsessed with this guy. You had to have slept with him if you would tell me about him. But, anyways, that was -- and then I heard about it for years after. But, really, for me, it was -- if I'm at this point, I really and truly need to seek help.

Q. Well, I mean, he was -- it became more than an obsession. I mean, what -- well, when was this bachelorette party, by the way?

A. It would have been before I turned 30. I know I was turning 30, so August of 2012, yeah.

Q. August of 2012. And did you text this individual?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. How long did you continue texting this individual after you returned from Vegas?

A. I believe a couple of days afterwards.

Q. Did you, in fact, take off your wedding rings while you were in Vegas?

A. No.

Q. PS suggested that you did.

A. I did not.

Q. But you understand he suggested that you did?

A. That's fair.

Q. In fact, he's talking about -- well, let me ask you this: When you went on your solo vacation, you took off your wedding rings; correct?

A. I imagine I would have then. That was June. He had been in an apartment since April, yes. But we had separated the very beginning of March, so I may have had my rings off then.

Q. And at some point, I think you said -- and I'm curious about this statement, that he had shamed you 8 million times about Vegas.

A. Yes.
Q. Do you remember making that statement?
A. No. But I did believe it, yes.
Q. And what did that statement mean?
A. He just brought it up time after time after time after time again. It wasn't ever left alone.
Q. Because in the grand jury -- you specifically said that you had zero affairs; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And at one point I think you said that PS -- there were two occasions?
A. That -- what?
Q. Well, that you had an affair, but one you may not count. Do you remember that?
A. No, I do not.
Q. The solo vacation, when was that?
A. That was in June of 2015.
Q. So approximately -- well, would it be fair to say that it was during the period of time that you were involved with EG?
A. Yes.
Q. I just want to see if this refreshes your recollection.
A. Okay.

Q. Give me one second.

So in the course of him accusing of you of these various affairs -- and that happened; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Do you recall saying -- his responding to you about having to do that, you said, all that research that you would have to do -- do you remember this conversation in the car?

A. Explain it. I'm sorry.

Q. Well, I feel like in doing this, I'm afraid this -- is you -- I feel -- I feel like in doing this, I'm afraid that there's no way we could be together and being okay, because the thing that I've hated more than anything in our relationship is the researching everything. I hate it. I hate it more than I hate anything. And PS says, And every time I've been right -- and you say, Not every time. Fuck that. You look into this -- you look into shit all the time. No, not every time, PS. Two times in fucking 12 years. One time, really, is the only -- only the one time I've ever cheated. What's the other time?

A. That's the Vegas thing. He considered that cheating, so that's the other time.

Q. And in Arizona you were still married;

correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And did you get involved with an individual in Arizona?

A. Not in Arizona. I met someone when I was there that was on, like, an engineering conference thing. He was a French guy that happened to be doing work that next week in St. Louis, so when he was in St. Louis the following week, I took him to dinner with some friends and he walked me to my car. We kissed in the car, and that --

Q. While you were married, obviously?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And was that part of the horrible feelings that you would have had, or is that separate and apart of the horrible feelings that you would have had from being attracted that you actually acted on?

A. No. That was very different, because at that point, we were -- you know, at this point, we -- still currently, we were for sure getting a divorce. He had an apartment. Obviously, it was still in the middle of going through all that stuff, but --

Q. Well, when you say --

A. That was different, yeah.
Q. -- "in the middle of going through all of that stuff," you're referring to going through all of that stuff with EG; right?
A. And my ex-husband, yes.
Q. So in June you take a solo vacation; right?
A. Correct.
Q. So to be sure, you said to the grand jury that you had zero affairs. You said that under oath; right?
A. Correct. Before this point.
Q. You recall --
A. Yes.
Q. -- you recall making that statement; right?
A. Yes. Before I ever did anything with EG, positively.
Q. And also to be sure -- and you didn't mention anything to the grand jury about this alleged maybe affair, depending on your determination about the Vegas situation; correct?
A. Correct. Because it was --
Q. Well, it's in PS's mind --
A. Right.

Q. -- it was an affair, which you said counted as two, yet you don't mention that to the grand jury, do you?

A. No.

Q. And, in fact, part of the reason was that you were texting this person. You weren't just texting about the weather, were you?

A. No.

Q. I mean, it was more deeper than that -- these texts, were they not?

A. I don't remember the gist of them. I know that I told my husband about it. Like I said, that was considered enough of a breach in our marriage that it caused for us to have some sitdowns, you know?

Q. Well, the -- he was looking at the text you were sending this person in Vegas that caused him some concern; right?

A. Just me telling him about this person caused him concern.

Q. Did he look at the texts?

A. Not that I remember. No, I don't remember that.

Q. I thought he looked at all of your texts?

A. Well, he could have, but ...

Q. Did he look at his phone records to see you were texting a person from a Vegas number, a 702 number?

A. I'm not sure. He may have.

Q. When you said -- when you said shamed 8 million times in respect to the Vegas situation and that you're trying to make amends for it, obviously, 8 million times is an exaggeration?

A. Correct.

Q. But it went on for quite a period of time. It was significant to your husband at the time, was it not?

A. Yes.

Q. And he was 100 percent convinced that you had a relationship?

A. Correct.

Q. And you're saying that the only relationship you had with this person in Vegas was by text?

A. Correct.

Q. You never kissed him?

A. No.

Q. Did you ever talk about intimate things in the texts?

A. No.

Q. So what was the purpose of carrying on a text relationship with this man that you met at a bachelorette party while you were still married? What was the purpose of that?

A. I know our conversations was based around the fact that we both found ourselves in a situation where we were attracted to somebody that we shouldn't be. He was getting married; I was married, so, basically, that. Then that was it. I never spoke to him again after 2012.

Q. So all of these horrible feelings that you had to suppress -- redaction -- that you have given us his name -- the chiropractor -- I think you've given us his name. What is it?

A. Redacted-something. I don't know his last name.

Q. And some various clients through the years that you had these feelings of attraction that you had to suppress?

A. Correct.

Q. Does anybody stand out as we sit here now?

A. No.

Q. Just various attractive men?

A. Yes.

Q. When you saw any of these men that are -- redaction -- or for -- with the chiropractor or clients which you see, when you would see them because of these suppressed feelings you would have over the four years that you're talking about, did you actually physically shake when you would see them?

A. No. My -- not that I remember, no.

Q. I mean, did they have --

A. No.

Q. -- such an effect on you that you would physically shake upon looking at them or thinking about them?

A. Other than EG, no, not that I remember.

Q. There was a portion of this -- incidentally, can you tell me when you had this discussion with PS about being shamed in Vegas 8 million times when the kids were also recorded? Do you know when in time that occurred?

A. I don't remember, no. I'm not sure.

Q. Would it have happened after the March 24th recording?

A. I don't know. The only recording I knew about was while we were separated and we got back together, which was in July. We got back together. He -- we argued, and he played a snip of it back to me and said, This is how crazy you are and --

Q. He played it back together?

A. Not together. He played this little snip of --

A. How crazy you were --

MR. BARNES: Hold on. This is on that same audio that we're going to listen to.

Redact to line 8 -- 146, line 8. And what I'll -- we will discuss this further.

Starting on line 16, ending on 146, line 8.

MR. AUSTIN: Page 146, line 9, beginning with the question again.

Q. Would it refresh your recollection if this tape, basically, was involving your anger at the fact that, apparently, he told his family or your family about something very private?

A. Was this when we were arguing about him telling my family about EG?

A. EG -- I mean EG.

Q. I'm sorry. EG. I believe so. I was really angry.

Q. Okay. So it was -- first of all, just in context?

A. Yes.

Q. The anger was then that he told your family about EG. When did this happen?

A. When I was -- when I was on a vacation by myself, he sat my whole family down and told them everything I told him in the car.

Q. So this would have been, I think you said, in June, some three months after the fact, that you were tape-recorded in March; correct?

A. Yes. So I didn't -- I never heard that. I had no clue he'd taped me. No, I did know that he did that, too. I was so angry. That is the most angry I've ever been.

Q. And he -- and this was because he told your family about EG; correct?

A. About --

Q. Pardon me?

A. Yes. About what happened.

Q. Did he also tell his family about EG?

A. Yes. But I don't know about that at this time.

Q. And did he also tell your family about at least his belief that you had an affair with somebody in Vegas?

A. Yes. At the time, but --

Q. And this is also part of this conversation where you were angry?

A. Yes.

Q. Leading up to that time, before he told your family about EG in June on this tape-recorded conversation --

A. Yes.

Q. -- had you ever had any discussions at all with EG about EG with your family -- with anybody in your family, including your sister?

A. Yes. Not about liking him or anything like that, but just how I thought he was great and showed them -- showed my mom his book so she knew who he was.

Q. Were you ever specifically asked by anybody in your family if there was anything more, if you had stepped out of your marriage with respect to EG, ever asked prior to June by anybody in your family?

A. I don't recall. I'm not sure.

Q. You don't recall ever having asked or answered -- ever having to answer a question by anybody in your family prior to June of 2015 as to whether or not this attraction that you had towards EG, if there was something more?

A. I assume my mom did.

Q. Okay.
A. But I don't remember our conversation.
Q. Right. And if you assume your mom did, then I assume your answer to her at that time was no.
A. Correct.
Q. So you lied to your mom?
A. EG told me do not tell anyone.
Q. I didn't ask that question, did I?
You lied to your mom, did you not?
A. I --
Q. Did you lie to your mom, ma'am?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. Okay. You're saying it because -- it's because EG told you not to tell anybody, but you certainly didn't follow that same advice instruction when you told your friend -- redacted. Would that be correct -- or your friend --
A. I was --
Q. -- redacted?
A. -- petrified, and I hoped that they were not going to tell anybody.
Q. Well, did you think your mom was going to tell anybody?
A. Yes. I felt she might. I felt she would be extremely angry and do something about it.

Q. So that's the reason you lied to your mom?

A. Yes.

Q. Anybody else in your family that caused this anger outburst in June, when PS went behind your back and told them. Anybody else your family that you lied to?

A. The whole family. I'm so close to them.

Q. So you lied to your whole family?

A. Oh, no. I hadn't talked to any one of them about it. I hadn't told anyone.

Q. Now -- and this is when you were on your solo vacation in Arizona; right?

A. Right.

Q. Where you met the French guy; right?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And you actually share, both before and during your relationship with EG, you had shared a lot of information, would you not, some of your personal thoughts, desires, things of nature; right?

A. Not necessarily before this. I mean, except for the stuff about our lives, me going to school, stuff like that. Things that we liked -- books -- whatever.

Q. During this June period of time that we're talking about, now that I've refreshed your recollection, do you recall where this conversation took place where you experienced this rage towards him?

A. I was in the hotel.

Q. You were in what hotel?

A. I was in the hotel in Tucson.

Q. Okay. So this was a telephone call?

A. Yes.

Q. And he was home?

A. Correct.

Q. And the kids were home?

A. Yes.

Q. So he -- so was he -- do you know whether he was speaking in front of the kids or not?

A. I have no clue.

Q. Were you actively seeking a divorce at this time?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you believe that PS was basically building a divorce file against you?

A. I -- that would be fair.

MR. BARNES: And here's where we're going to have that redaction discussion through the end of page 152, starting again on page 135.

A. In Tucson my mom and sister called me, yelling at me that they were upset that PS sat them down and told --

MR. BARNES: Do you guys want to switch or --

MR. AUSTIN: I don't care. I can switch or I can not switch.

MR. BARNES: Really, any time you want to switch, just say so, and we'll flip over to the next -- we'll move down, but ...

MR. AUSTIN: We've built a rapport.

Page 153, line 4.

Q. Okay. So let's back up. So in Tucson, they were yelling at you because now they've learned, and your mom specifically learned, that your attraction with EG was more than just from afar, that it was physical, at least according to PS; right?

A. She --

Q. Yes?

A. Yes.

Q. And when you had that conversation and you were confronted by your mom on the telephone, you then again lied to her; right?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Well, you've spent your entire life telling your mom and your family that PS is crazy and obsessed and accusing you of everything under the sun for no reason; right?

A. Correct.

Q. So it would be fair to assume that they would have believed that because that's the foundation that they were working on?

A. No. I had not -- my family had no clue, other than my sister, who saw it firsthand, that there was real issues until the very end, other than what they saw from him.

Q. So this conversation, now that I've refreshed your recollection, was face to face?

A. I would assume then, yes.

Q. And we've talked about the rage and anger that you were displaying in this conversation?

A. Correct.

MR. BARNES: I'm really sensitive to what's on line 11, and that's why I'm also sensitive to what was on the previous page because of their presence. So line 11, the fourth word of the sentence is -- that's my concern here; that's my concern on the other two pages.

MR. AUSTIN: What do you want to do?

MR. BARNES: I -- let's skip to line 20.

MR. AUSTIN: Okay. We'll redact lines 11 through 19, and then we'll begin with the questions starting on line 20.

Q. In that same conversation, he talked about the fact that, again, where you were obviously upset that he told your parents, and you remember most of that conversation; right?

A. Yes.

Q. And he essentially responded. You said you -- you believe he was doing it out of spite; right?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was part of his MO, to do things out of spite towards you; right?

A. That's how I felt, yes.

Q. And at that point, when you said that, he said, "I was standing up for myself and what seemed to be a moment of another bit of manipulation from you. You emotionally blackmailed me; you really did."

So he's accusing you of emotionally blackmailing him. Do you have any idea what he's talking about?

A. No, I have no clue.

Q. Was that a common theme, where he would accuse you of emotionally blackmailing him?

A. No. I have no clue what that is. I don't know what he's referring to.

Q. But you heard those words; right?

A. Right now, I have no clue. Does he explain it?

Q. Well, you respond by saying, Are you kidding me, because that's what you did to me. That's exactly what you said. You did this or else. You do -- who the F is -- is ever going to do that for you, PS?

What were you talking about? Because now he's saying, no, that you were blackmailing him.

A. Yeah, I have no clue.

Q. You do this or no else. You have no clue?

A. I really don't.

Q. You have no clue what he was saying you have to do that you felt like you were being blackmailed?

A. I really have no clue.

Q. But you guys were throwing around the word "blackmail" in the course of your marriage, are you not?

A. I guess so. I mean ...

Q. I mean, they're here. We can play it; right?

A. Sure.

Q. So there's some sort of a theme in your marriage where when you would get into these raging arguments, that you would accuse each other of blackmailing each other, emotionally, at least. Yes?

A. I have no recollection of it.

Q. My understanding --

A. So it was not -- so it was not a theme, because I don't remember it at all.

Q. Well, I say -- I understand you don't have a recollection.

But you -- you hear the words; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you can't tell me as you sit here today that either one of you are referring to when you're talking about emotionally blackmailing each other?

A. I have no clue.

Q. No clue?

A. Truly, I have no clue.

Q. With respect to this trip in Arizona with the French guy, you were involved with EG at that time; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And do you recall FaceTiming EG during that time?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall posing naked for him during a FaceTime?

A. No, not naked.

Q. Pardon me?

A. I said, no, not naked. No, I don't recall.

Q. Are you saying it didn't happen?

A. I'm saying I don't recall that, no.

Q. So you're not denying it?

A. I don't believe I was naked, no.

Q. Well, if you don't recall it, you can't say one way or the other.

A. I don't recall.

Q. So by not recalling it, it's possible that you did FaceTime with EG and you were naked?

A. I don't recall. I know that we FaceTimed, but, no, I don't recall.

Q. Again, by not recalling, you're not saying it didn't happen, yes?

A. I'm saying I don't recall, yes.

Q. Well, how many times have you FaceTimed naked?

A. None that I recall.

Q. So if you FaceTimed with EG naked, that would be something that you would recall; right?

A. Correct.

Q. You were still interested in him at that time; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. At least according to your story, you claim that he had seen you naked previously; right?

A. Correct.

Q. You were still involved with him; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. You still planned to see him when you got back from Arizona?

A. I believe so, yes.

Q. So it wouldn't be out of the question that you would have FaceTimed naked?

A. Not naked.

Q. Well, wearing what? Topless?

A. To my recollection, I believe what you're referring to, I was wearing a robe.

Q. And did you expose yourselves?

A. No, not fully. Not -- not that I recall, no.

Q. Not fully?

A. Correct.

Q. Well, you seem as we're having this conversation, you're recalling more and more. Do you see how that's going?

A. Well, no. I just answered your specific question about was I naked.

Q. Did you expose yourself by opening the robe so that he would see you in a state of nudity or partial nudity at that time in Arizona?

A. I would say partial nudity, yes.

Q. And in Arizona, when you exposed yourself in a state of partial nudity, describe in detail, if you would, as to what you mean.

A. I mean, I was alone in a hotel room.

Q. Again, that's not my question.

A. Okay.

Q. I'm asking you to describe how you exposed yourself at that time in that hotel room.

A. As I recall, we were FaceTiming. He asked -- because I was getting ready, he asked if he could see me.

Q. And you complied?

A. To some extent, from what I remember, yes.

To some extent, but, no, I wasn't sitting there just naked.

Q. So you opened your robe; fair enough?

A. Fair enough. To some extent, yes.

Q. Okay. And when you opened your robe, you didn't have any clothing on underneath. Again, fair enough?

A. I'm not sure.

Q. Don't know. Well, if you opened up your robe and you didn't have your clothes on, that would be partial nudity, would it not? Your arms would have been --

A. I had undergarments, correct.

Q. You don't -- you can't even say that, can you?

A. I don't remember specifically.

Q. Okay.

A. But I remember FaceTiming him and -- yeah.

Q. And showing him a portion of your body?

A. Correct.

Q. Nude?

A. Or semi-nude.

Q. Okay. And, incidentally, you wouldn't have known where EG was when he was receiving that image?

A. I knew that he was somewhere close enough that he wanted me to come see him, and I refused to, so I don't know.

Q. Okay.

A. Arizona, I assume, somewhere.

Q. Somewhere in Arizona; right?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And this was in the solo vacation that you described as phenomenal?

A. Yes.

Q. And while you were involved with EG, that's when you met this individual from Arizona; correct?

A. Well, from France, yes.

Q. And you had a relationship with him; fair enough?

A. No, that's not fair enough.

Q. You didn't tell EG that you had slept with him?

A. No. I did not sleep with him.

Q. Had you had any sexual relationships with him?

A. I kissed him once in the car.

Q. That's it?

A. I swear.

Q. And you -- I didn't ask you to swear. You already have sworn. This whole testimony is under oath, okay?

A. Yes.

Q. You don't have to swear again if you're telling me the truth; right?

A. Correct.

Q. For emphasis or otherwise.

A. Correct.

Q. You didn't tell him that you had sex with this individual. You didn't tell EG that?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Did this gentleman from Arizona come to see you?

A. Not to see me. He -- his company brought him here that following week. I took him to dinner with some friends, anyway.

Q. Did you ever see him alone when he was in St. Louis?

A. No. Other than in the car that day or whenever he walked me to my car.

Q. At one point you tell PS that you described yourself as a coward. Do you remember that?

A. I believe I -- I know what you're talking to or about.

Q. You believe you do or you don't?

A. I believe I know what you're talking about.

Q. Okay. Well, why would you have done that? What did that mean -- what did you mean by that?

A. Because I shouldn't have gone to EG's day. I felt I should have stuck with going through everything I was going through with PS first and not gotten involved.

Q. So the only reason you would have said that is because you felt you shouldn't have gone to PS's -- I mean to -- I mean, not PS's -- you shouldn't have gone to EG's at all?

A. Correct.

Q. The context that I was looking at is when he was trying to get you to essentially 'fess up in the car. Do you recall that?

A. Correct.

Q. And he told you that he knew for sure that you were lying to him; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And, in fact, you had been -- we'll just put that out there; right?

A. Yes.

Q. And you said, I -- he says, I deserve to know. I -- I knew that I was being lied to. I knew that you were lying to me. Your response: I couldn't go anywhere with it. He said, Stop. I understand -- I understand, but I'm not the coward that when I lie I make sense of it by apologizing. Do you recall that?

A. Yes.

Q. So he is saying when he lies he apologizes?

A. Yes.

Q. And you respond by saying, I'm a coward?

A. Correct.

Q. Well, that doesn't mean you're a coward for going there in the first instance.

A. I didn't recall exactly what we were talking about.

Q. That means that you're saying you're a coward because why you couldn't apologize?

A. I did apologize, but --

Q. But not in this conversation?

A. No. I did apologize.

Q. But not in -- not in this context?

A. No. I did many times, but before that point, I was referring to -- no. I hadn't 'fessed up to him. I hadn't told him yet, and I just shouldn't have done it.

Q. You know, I just want to -- so just to get the timeline down again -- and we're going to go -- we're going to walk through this, but around the 6th to 8th of March, that's when you -- that's when EG resurfaces; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And we're going to talk about this, but that's when you cut his hair again after about a five-month layoff?

A. Yes.

Q. And then there's -- we're going to talk about what happened on the 14th when there was a conversation, maybe a meeting; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you were smitten with EG? That's an old-school term, but you know what it means; right?

A. Yes.

Q. Because on the 20th -- redacted -- you tell him you want a divorce?

A. Correct.

Q. You were serious, were you not? I mean, that's not something you joke about.

A. Right. That was an conversation that had continually come up since the beginning of our separation.

Q. I get it, but just to be sure --

A. Right.

Q. And you're certain it was on the 20th -- redacted -- that you said you wanted a divorce; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And timing-wise, that just happened to be when you were making plans or establishing plans that you were going to see EG on the 21st; correct?

A. My husband kept bringing it up. That was every single day. You need to say the words. You have to say you actually want a divorce.

Q. Okay. So --

A. But at this time, he was staying at his brother's house.

Q. Ma'am, now that you've answered --

A. Sure.

Q. -- apparently the question you wanted to, try mine.

A. Sure.

Q. All right. Timing-wise you tell him you want a divorce on the 20th, yes?

A. Yes.

Q. And --

A. He asked me, I guess, is my point. I didn't come home and just tell him that.

Q. But you weren't kidding, were you? You said you wanted a divorce.

A. I wasn't kidding, no.

Q. And on the 21st was when you knew you were going to meet EG at his house?

A. Correct.

Q. Just to go through the timing; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And with respect to that, I'm curious, because I think according to you, he had been a client for approximately a year.

A. Or a little longer, yeah.

Q. I think you told Tisaby two years prior. Was it a year or two years?

A. I'm not exactly sure. I know that it was in between about year and a half, two years.

Q. Did -- do you know or have any reason why PS would say that, that you met him in 2011 and had been a client or a customer since that time?

A. I have no clue. I don't -- I'm not positive how long he was my client. You could ask him. I'm not sure.

Q. But you know it wasn't from 2011. That would be five years?

A. Yeah, I don't think so, no. I think it was a couple of years. Yeah, a year or two years -- to two years.

Q. And I think in describing how you felt about him, EG instantly -- I think you described as having a big crush on him; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Would that be fair?

A. Yes. After the appointments, yes.

Q. I think in -- in response to your conversation with PS, you said, so -- yes. I met EG a year ago, and I instantly had a big crush on him. It would help if you would look at me. Do you recall that?

A. Yeah.

Q. Does that refresh your recollection?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. So when you said about a year, is that about right?

A. Yeah. I would say.

Q. And when you talk about a big crush, I mean, it was a seriously big crush, right, you were enamored?

A. Yes. I thought highly of him.
Q. Well, thinking highly of someone is different than having a crush on somebody; right?
A. It could have been, yes.
Q. You're old enough to know what a crush means; right? Yes?
A. Yes. I would say I had a crush on him.
Q. A crush means that you're looking at a person in a sexual sense or an attractive sense; right?
A. I would say in an attractive sense, yes.
Q. And it caused you almost -- well, it caused you, I think you said, to be feeling insanely guilty?
A. Yes.
Q. And so much so that you had this crush that you actually couldn't stop your brain?
A. Yes. After he hit on me, that's what I was referring to, those -- those couple of weeks leading up to that were extremely difficult.
Q. Are you saying he hit on you and flirted with you at the very beginning?
A. He did to some extent, but I'm not -- I'm not talking about that, actually. I'm talking about when he put his hand on my leg, when it was blatant.

Q. But that's not what you told your husband, just to rephrase it. You said, I met EG a year ago, and I instantly had a big crush on him.

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So that would imply at first sight you met him, and you instantly had a big crush. Am I reading that wrong?

A. Well, by "instantly," I mean within the first couple of times that I saw him, yes.

Q. Okay. Right. And that's how you felt just as soon as you saw him; right?

A. Not as soon as I saw him, but, yes, after I got to know him a little bit.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. And, I mean, incidentally, I want to ask you this: I'm not trying to delve, but that's what we do in depositions. At one point PS says he's concerned that you're going to hurt yourself. Do you recall that?

A. No, I don't recall what.

Q. Where he actually looks at you and says, Are you going to hurt yourself?

A. No.

Q. Towards the end of the conversation he's taping, and you say, I'm sorry for everything; yeah, me too -- redacted -- there's something I need to know. I need to know you're not going to hurt yourself. I don't want to make this to become overwhelming and you do something rash. Do you recall that?

A. No. Not at all.

Q. Have ever indicated to him that you were suicidal?

A. Never.

Q. Or had thoughts of hurting yourself?

A. Never.

Q. Have you ever attempted suicide?

A. Never.

Q. So you have no idea why your husband would have said --

A. Not me.

Q. Pardon me? Where he would have looked at you at the end of that conversation and had concerns about you hurting yourself?

A. He's had those thoughts, so maybe it was --

Q. Projecting?

A. Projecting sort of thing. No, I have not had that thought.

Q. But you responded by just saying, Seriously; right? You didn't respond by saying, Are you crazy or anything like that?

A. I probably said, Seriously? I haven't heard it.

Q. So when you first started seeing him within that year, you would be seeing him, what, like, once every three weeks or so for the regular haircut?

A. Correct.

Q. And as you said, you instantly had this crush; right?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. And then he doesn't book for five months.

A. Correct.

Q. And, incidentally, during this time that you had this big crush on him --

A. Yeah.

Q. -- he never flirted with you?

A. He did but not in a -- not in a blatant way, not in a way that I thought was disrespectful or rude at all.

Q. Well, a lot of -- I'm sorry -- a lot of customers, especially male clients, it wouldn't be unusual for them to compliment you. Hey, you look pretty; I like your hair; I like your outfit; right?

A. Correct.

Q. That wouldn't be considered flirting, would it?

A. No. Not blatant flirting.

Q. Okay. And there would be no reason why you would have, out of all of the things that you're telling PS in that conversation, there would have been no reason why would you have lied to him about whether or not EG ever flirted with you. Would there have been initially?

A. No. Right.

Q. Okay.

A. It wasn't ever blatant.

Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

Q. So when you said to him that you initially had this, that you used the words "initially" because -- or instant because that's how you felt; right?

A. Yeah. I mean, I think I was generalizing after.

Q. And you talk about the fact that what attracted you, his personality, that he was motivating, that he did charitable work, all of these things that you learned; right?

A. Correct.

Q. That he was an author. You read his books; right -- or looked at his books?

A. Yes.

Q. You went on to say that he never flirted with me, other than complimenting me a couple of times. Is that a true statement?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. Nothing blatant.

Q. Well, you didn't say "blatant," did you? I know you're saying it today, but I'm just going back in time when you were addressing your husband. You use the word, "He never flirted with me other than complimenting me a couple of times"; right? You chose the words "he never flirted with me." Am I misreading it?

A. I chose that then, but I'm just saying he never blatantly did.

Q. I understand that's what you're saying.

A. He brought me in books when he wasn't getting a haircut. That's kind of -- that's kind of flirting, because I didn't ask for the books, or he would -- I feel like, in a sense, yes, he was enough to where --

Q. Well, let's put it this way --

A. I didn't think he didn't like me at all; it's not that.

Q. Well, he was going to you --

A. He was just never blatant. He was never rude.

Q. Okay. He was going to you --

A. Yeah.

Q. -- as a stylist?

A. Yes. But he also -- I mean, you can just tell if somebody is attracted to you.

Q. Let's just put it this way: As of March 24th of 2015, you made the statement, "He never flirted with me" because that's what you believed at that time, when you were saying it to your husband, PS. Yes?

A. I believe he never blatantly flirted with me or was out of line.

Q. I'm not going to go back and forth. I understand that's what you're saying today, but those are the words you chose back in March; fair enough?

A. Those are the words I chose.

Q. Okay. Fair enough.
Now, he -- he disappears essentially; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And he disappears for approximately five months; right?
A. Yes.
Q. When he returns -- and, incidentally, by March, when did -- when did PS actually move out?
A. It was the very beginning of March.
Q. The beginning of March?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So --
A. In with his brother, but then he got the apartment in April.
Q. Okay. So he moves out the beginning of March, and then all of a sudden you look, and there's EG back on your books; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you paid attention to that; right?
A. I noticed it, I know, the day before, because when I came in that morning, I was aware.
Q. Well, when you saw him on your books --
A. Yes.
Q. -- I think you described your reaction as extremely nervous.

A. Yes.

Q. Now, you don't get nervous every time somebody makes an appointment; right?

A. No.

Q. And you don't get nervous when these other customers that you referred to during the four years where you had these horrible feelings that you couldn't contain, that you didn't get particularly nervous when they scheduled, did you?

A. Not particularly, no.

Q. EG -- EG was different for you, was he not?

A. Yes.

Q. And, in fact, I think you made a statement that you thought he was the perfect man?

A. I did in many ways, yes, but I was also extra nervous, too, because it had been that chunk of time where I didn't know why he didn't come in.

Q. Well, you were sort of nervous that that morning in anticipation that you were literally shaking?

A. Yes.

Q. That's how much anticipation you had; right?

A. Yes. Or I just felt -- I felt -- oh --
Q. And you were wondering, I think -- well, what you told the grand jury is that you surmised that the reason you believed he hadn't come in is because he had previously flirted with you.
A. Yes.
Q. But he hadn't, according to what you told your -- told PS -- what you told PS.
A. Well, just --
Q. You specifically said he had never flirted with you.
A. Well, it wasn't blatant. It was this --
Q. Well, I understand you're using the word "blatant" now.
A. Correct.
Q. But previously you told PS that he had never flirted with you during that period of time you were cutting his hair.
A. Right.
Q. That's what you said.
A. Well, I'm -- I'm referring to -- and even then I was referring to he had not blatantly put it out there.
Q. You would agree with me that what you told the grand jury is different, that you believed he hadn't come in because he had been flirting with you. You would believe that is a different statement than what you said to him and said to PS?

A. I believe it's more of a statement.

Q. Indifferent?

A. The added to, yes.

Q. And had your instant crush on him subsided, or did you still have a big crush on him?

A. I still had a crush on him, yes.

Q. And, in fact, I -- I think you -- you actually mentioned to your coworkers that he had not come in; right?

A. Correct.

Q. That's because how you felt about him?

A. Yes.

Q. So my coworker sitting next to me knew who he was because she also did one of his family members' hair and commented, Where the heck has he been, because she also knew who he was. And I said to her, I don't know. I don't know. He was having a baby. I don't know if he feels weird about -- he kind of flirted with me, so that was it. It was just really that -- that coworker in particular, because she knew who he was, so ...

Q. So you don't notice all your customers that take time off, do you?

A. Most of them, I do.

Q. So when he comes in that morning, I understand -- understand the way you described was that he was -- you were shaking almost uncontrollably?

A. Yes.

Q. So much so that EG arrives and said you must not have eaten anything; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you sort of told a white lie to him that you had; that's correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And, essentially, basically, it starts off by him just complimenting you and why you look so good, that you've been doing CrossFit and things of that nature; right?

A. Yeah. Well, he ran across the street to get me that stuff, yeah -- yes.

Q. And you sort of instantly go into some of the things that you've been -- going on with him, right, or with -- with you about your vacation with your husband and that your husband is controlling?

A. Oh, no. That was the time before. That time I told him nothing about my husband, nothing, because I knew that was a very vulnerable place, so I -- I just didn't talk about it. I was still wearing my rings. I didn't talk about it.

Q. So when you told EG about the controllingness when he was in the gym, that he followed you to the gym and that you mentioned the vacation, that wasn't on that March -- that first visit in March, March 6 or 7?

A. Correct. That was five months prior or whatever.

Q. It wouldn't be unusual as you developed a relationship with EG, like most, I would assume, stylists, in particularly with you and EG, that you would share information; right? That you would talk?

A. Talk, for sure, yes.

Q. And talk about sometimes personal stuff; right?

A. Maybe personal. Not necessarily intimate, but definitely personal.

Q. Talk about likes and dislikes?

A. Yes.

Q. Talk about relationships?

A. Not necessarily. We -- he and I really didn't. EG and I really didn't, but, yes, with some of my clients.

Q. Well, timing-wise, that February -- specifically, February 12th and 13th of 2015, the -- the movie Fifty Shades came out -- Fifty Shades of Grey.

A. Correct.

Q. And you're aware of that; right?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you see the movie?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you talk to EG about it?

A. Not that I recall, no.

Q. It's possible, though; right?

A. It's possible, but I don't remember it, no.

Q. It's possible that you expressed your opinions about the movie, your likes or dislikes, what you thought about it, whether it turned you on or not?

A. It's possible, but I don't recall that, no.

Q. Well, you're not saying it didn't happen; right?

A. I'm saying I don't recall.

Q. Okay.

A. That conversation, no.
Q. So by not recalling it, that's different than saying, no, it didn't happen. Would you agree with that?
A. Correct.
Q. Okay. So you certainly saw the movie. Did you see it with a group of girls when it first came out, as I -- I mean, I may be wrong, but that's how, typically --
A. No. I don't remember.
Q. Do you recall who you saw it with?
A. No, I don't, actually.
Q. Do you recall whether you saw it with PS?
A. I could have. I don't remember.
Q. Or you could have seen it with girlfriends; right?
A. Yeah. I -- I don't remember.
Q. And fair to say it was a topic of conversation in the shop, probably, because a lot of people were talking about it; right?
A. I believe at that -- I don't know. I don't remember, but I believe so, yes. I know it was a popular thing.
Q. Okay. And you think you may have talked about it with EG; right?

A. I -- I really don't recall talking about it with him, but ...

Q. But it's possible?

A. I really don't recall.

Q. My question is, is it possible?

A. It's possible.

Q. Okay.

A. I just don't recall the conversation.

Q. And is it possible you talked to him about your opinions about that movie. What did you think about it? How did you feel about it?

A. I could have, right.

Q. You could have; right?

A. I don't know.

Q. Again, possible; right?

A. I don't know.

Q. Could you talk -- could you have talked to him about whether or not something like that -- like what -- the content of that movie, whether you found that to be a turn-on, whether you found that enticing or attractive?

A. I would not have talked to him about that in the salon, no.

Q. Well, you have some privacy in the salon, don't you?

A. Not really there, no.
Q. In that conversation that you had with PS in the car, incidentally, do you recall talking to EG about potentially whether or not you felt the Fifty Shades content or subject matter was a turn-on somewhere else other than the salon?
A. I don't recall a conversation with him about it in general.
Q. But you're not saying it didn't happen?
A. Right.
Q. Okay.
A. I'm saying I don't remember.
Q. Because something else caught my attention. Because as you were describing the situation to PS, you say, I'm so sorry. Like, I don't even know, PS. I was just -- I was just wanting so bad to get rid of all my thoughts, I thought that would do it.
First of all, let's stop there. So you're saying your thoughts about EG were so overwhelming that the only way you could extricate yourself from those thoughts was to meet him on the 21st? Is that what you're saying?
A. To have a conversation, yes.
Q. To have -- I get that. We'll get there.

But that's what -- your thought, that the only way you were going to get rid of these horrible thoughts, as you described them --

A. Correct.

Q. -- that you couldn't get your brain to stop thinking about it; right? That's what -- that's how you've described it.

A. Right. During this --

Q. You described it as --

A. After he -- yes. During that chunk of time. That is what I was referring to. He hit on me, and those next couple of weeks were, you know, a brain (gesture).

Q. You just made an expression that the video can pick up, but what you're saying is --

A. I'm sorry.

Q. -- you've had the problem in the past that you've described over four years where you can't even control your brain and how you think about sometimes other men and being attracted; right?

A. No, I have not said that.

Q. You said you --

A. I could control my brain, right. What I had said was in the past, me finding other men attractive, I felt that was wrong. I felt that was wrong. To me, those were horrible thoughts.

Q. You described it as your brain actually going insane; correct?

A. I'm not sure what you're referring to.

Q. You're describing that you instantly had a big crush on him.

A. Correct.

Q. You said -- and we went over this -- and he never flirted with me other than he complimented me. That's what you said. Then you said, meanwhile, I did develop a big crush, and I felt insanely guilty.

A. Correct.

Q. I couldn't stop my brain. I don't know about you, but I can't control my brain as much as I would like to. That's the worst aspect of me. It's been that way since I was a kid. I just can't stop it. Whenever I don't want to think, it does. Does that refresh your recollection of how you described it?

A. Yes.

Q. That's a pretty intense feeling you were having; right?

A. Well, I think prior to this --

Q. Well, this is referring --

A. Right.
Q. -- to you instantly having a big crush.
A. Right. But that wasn't a constant thing. I have -- I have a ton of stuff in my life. It's not like EG is on my brain all the time.
Q. I'm not saying that you just thought about him all the time; I'm going over how you described it, and I specifically said you described it in such a way that you couldn't even control your brain. That's what you said; right?
A. Right. And --
Q. Okay. And that these thoughts were almost overwhelming, were they not?
A. I'm assuming at times, you know, that's how I felt. Like I said, I have a million things going on in my life, so that wasn't the only thing on my mind.
Q. And when you were talking about your involvement with this Fifty Shades of Grey, did you read the book or just saw the movie?
A. I read the book, too.
Q. All right. So you're particularly interested in it; right?
A. Me and most women, yes.
Q. I'm not saying you were on an island; I'm just saying you read the book. When did you read the book?

A. Prior to the movie coming out, so I'm not sure.

Q. Okay. So within 2015?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Did you read -- have you read all three books?

A. I believe so, yes.

Q. Have you seen all three movies?

A. No, I have not.

Q. Two movies?

A. I think just the first one.

Q. But you've read all three books?

A. Yes.

Q. And at some point when you're telling PS that you can't get rid of all these thought, he responds by saying, A woman who was raped and blackmailed Fifty-Shades-of-Grey style, how F'ng poetic, and you never came. How long does it -- what do you mean? Like, 30 minutes in the morning and then I don't know how long -- how long I was there -- 45 minutes. Do you recall that?

A. Yes.

Q. So do you know what -- when somebody refers to the term "poetic," have you used that term before?

A. Not necessarily.

Q. Do you know what it means?

A. I believe so.

Q. Have you ever used a term like "poetic justice"?

A. No.

Q. Do you know what that means?

A. Can you tell me what it means?

Q. Well, like -- it's almost -- there's a sense of irony that something happens to somebody in such a way, in such a fashion that's almost, like predetermined or predestined.

A. Right. So you're saying that that was referring to something else?

Q. Well, I -- I wasn't in this conversation; you were.

A. Yeah.

Q. So what I'm asking is, your husband, PS, is saying a woman who was raped and blackmailed Fifty-Shades-of-Grey style, how F'ing poetic. Do you recall him saying that to you?

A. Kind of, yes.

Q. So was Fifty-Shades-of-Grey style something that you and PS engaged in at times?

A. No, we did not.

Q. That comment, I'm assuming, was referring to -- that was the talk amongst women. Other wives, girlfriends, whatever, and men, including my husband were -- didn't like that, per se.

Q. Didn't like it?

A. Right.

Q. Had you expressed to your husband how you felt, how you were turned on by it? Is that what he was referring to when he said Fifty Greys -- "Fifty-Shades-of-Grey style; how poetic"?

A. No.

Q. Had you discussed with him that you actually thought it was -- that that was a turn-on?

A. No.

Q. A sexual turn-on?

A. No. But he knew I read the books. I think it was really that this was super relevant. This was everywhere, and something like that happened to me and went wrong.

Q. When he came in that day, I think you had -- let me back up.

Are you saying that on that first visit in early March -- I think the 7th was a Sunday, so I guess we can assume it was the 6th or the 7th; right?

A. Correct. Maybe the 5th or 6th, yeah.

Q. And, incidentally, if -- if you're saying you weren't particularly attracted or turned on by these books -- these novels, why would you have read all three? Why wouldn't you just quit at one?

A. I haven't said I wasn't. I'm not saying I didn't like the books. I liked the books.

Q. Did you like the content?

A. Sure. Some of it, sure.

Q. Did you find it stimulating?

A. Sure. Some of it.

Q. Did you find it attractive?

A. Some of it.

Q. Did you find it to be a turn-on?

A. Sure. Some of it.

Q. Now, when he came in that first day, is it your testimony you didn't talk to him at all about your husband or his -- his insecurities?

A. Correct.

Q. Not a word?

A. Not that day, I did not.

Q. So it would have been unusual for him to have commented that he would have been surprised by the type of man that you're with, that he would have expected you to be with a really tall or confident and handsome man?

A. No. That was the time before. That was in August. That -- all of that conversation happened in August or whenever that was -- that he didn't come in for a chunk of time.

Q. So that was in August when you said that you described your husband as sort of a small guy and he was an artist and he's not very secure.

A. Correct.

Q. And that's when you took EG's action by standing up next to you as some -- as actually some sort of -- showing that he's taller or something?

A. Correct.

Q. But he never said that to you; right?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. He -- that was just an assumption you made?

A. Correct.

Q. And I just want to be -- I just want to be certain again. Have you never read your grand jury testimony?

A. No, I have not.

Q. Never?

A. No, I have not.
Q. Has anybody provided it to you?
A. No. I haven't seen it.
Q. Have you ever had a copy of it?
A. No.
Q. So the only thing you've been provided to you was the copy of the conversation you had with PS?
A. Correct.
Q. And you maintained possession of that?
A. No. I don't have it.
Q. Who provided it?
A. I think I might have -- that in e-mail form.
Q. Who provided that to you?
A. My attorney.
Q. So I think we covered how you were feeling towards EG when he came in; right?
A. Correct.
Q. I mean, there was some serious physical attraction.
A. Just attraction in general, yeah.
Q. I mean, again --
A. I --
Q. -- you were visibly shaking; right?

A. Correct.
Q. And then you shampooed him, and this is when you say that he touched your leg; right?
A. Correct.
Q. Now, tell me how long it takes to go through this process of shampooing.
A. Probably five minutes.
Q. And you were sharing with him, certainly, information that was going on in your life, like what you were doing at school, your professor, something of that nature; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you said at that point you started to feel his hand on your leg?
A. Correct.
Q. You knew he was coming in that morning; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And do we know whether it was a -- do you know what time he had came in?
A. It was morning. He was my first client.
Q. Early morning?
A. I'm not sure because -- if it was a Friday, it would have been ten. If it was a Saturday, it would have been eight, so I'm not sure.

Q. When you were getting dressed they did, you keep in mind that he was coming in that day, you knew it?

A. I could have. But we have a uniform, so -- we have a T-shirt and pants.

Q. A T-shirt and pants?

A. Yes.

Q. What kind of pants?

A. Just black pants.

Q. Everybody is dressed in the same outfit?

A. Similar, yes.

Q. Did you pay attention to the way you looked that morning, other than -- as opposed to other mornings?

A. I'm sure I did to some extent or ...

Q. Right. Well, I mean --

A. I had to anyways. As a hairstylist, you have to do your hair. You have to do your makeup.

Q. Right. As a hairstylist, that has to do with their hair and makeup, and you know that this guy that you have a big crush, that you're visibly shaking and thinking about, almost to the point where your brain can't control it, you may pay particular attention to it; right?

A. Sure.

Q. And as he sat down at the shampoo bowl, you're stating that he then starts to caress -- rub your leg; right?

A. Correct. Correct.

Q. And at first I think you said you ignored it.

A. Correct.

Q. And according to you, you claim that he eventually works his way up to your crotch.

A. Correct.

Q. Now, does he actually touch your crotch -- your vagina?

A. He touched on the outside, yes.

Q. You had pants on?

A. Yes.

Q. How long of a period of time did he keep it there?

A. Zero seconds. I backed up then.

Q. How long had he been on your leg before you took any action during this five-minute shampooing?

A. It was at the ended of the shampoo. So I was finished shampooing, and I was standing next to him still talking, but he was lying back. Maybe -- I don't know -- a few seconds. It wasn't lasting the whole time, I guess.

Q. And tell me again what you claim your response was.

A. To him?

Q. Right.

A. What are you doing? And he just looked up at me and kind of shrugged his shoulders like, I don't know.

Q. What are you doing or Whoa, what are you doing? Anything like that?

A. Something to that effect, yes.

Q. Did you say to him or is it possible you said, You're driving me crazy?

A. No.

Q. You've had situations in the past where your shop -- where you had to terminate clients, did you not -- have you not?

A. We have.

Q. Okay. And, certainly, was that an option?

A. Correct.

Q. You could have asked him to leave?

A. Correct.

Q. You could have called security?

A. Correct.

Q. You could have called the police?

A. Correct.
Q. If you felt he touched you inappropriately so that he committed an offense; right?
A. Right.
Q. You didn't do any of those things; right?
A. Right.
Q. This was a man you had an extremely serious attraction to?
A. Yes. I wasn't angry at him for doing this; I was shocked.
Q. And you sure -- are you sure you said -- that you didn't say, you're driving me crazy?
A. Correct.
Q. You're known around -- well, there's been occasions, for instance, around your shop -- your salon that you use curse words; right?
A. Not like -- on occasion. I mean, no, not regularly.
Q. Well, I understand. But isn't one of your running jokes is that if you use you the F word -- if you say the F word, you have said that it was when you were horny?
A. Never. I have no clue what you're talking about.
MR. BARNES: The next series -- I think

Representative Austin was wearing down at the end.

MR. AUSTIN: No, no.

MR. BARNES: Do we want to take a short break while they're printing those?

Ten minutes again.

(A recess was taken.)

MR. BARNES: We are back from recess. We left off with -- the two gentlemen to the left here just went through a hundred pages. Representative Trent has got to skip one of his times. We're going to go back to the 20-page increments. The plan is to do the next 100 pages and then to call it a night.

So.

MR. RAZER: There is an overlap.

MR. BARNES: The first two lines of 201.

MR. TRENT: The first page is 101 and the last page is 200, so I believe starting on page -- page 200, line 25.

Are we ready to proceed, Mr. Chairman?

MR. BARNES: I am ready if you are ready.

MR. TRENT: All right.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Curtis Trent and Representative Greg Razer.)

Q. Have your coworkers ever said anything to the effect that when you use the word -- expletive -- that means you're -- expletive?

A. I have no clue what you're talking about.

Q. Have your coworkers ever suggested to you in response to something that you've said or something that you've expressed or a word that you used that they would have said, Hey, you should call EG -- EG?

A. I have no clue what you're talking about.

Q. Did you respond to them at that point, or do you believe you responded to him when you claim that he touched your -- expletive -- in a way that you just described, that you said, is that why you have not come here?

A. Yes. But not in that moment. We went back to my chair while -- where I was drying his hair, and that's -- I kind of looked at him in the mirror and said that quietly in the mirror, and he just said, I don't know, maybe.

Q. Now, you relayed this information to PS, did you not?

A. I'm not sure if I did or not.

Q. I think you said at first you ignored it; right?
A. Correct.
Q. When he started touching and caressing your leg.
A. Yes.
Q. You didn't tell him to stop; right?
A. No. Correct. I was shocked. I didn't think it was really happening.
Q. And, in fact, you never told him that he needed to stop?
A. Well, I did. I said, What are you doing, and backed up.
Q. But you never used the words "you need to stop"?
A. I never used those exact words, no.
Q. And so when you told your husband that your response was -- in that conversation that was on the tape that you said, EG, you need to stop, and he said, What, and you said, You need to stop, that would not have been accurate; right? That was sort of, like, an exaggeration to your husband, potentially?
A. I don't know. I could have said something to that effect.

Q. Well, it's a little bit different than you said to the grand jury or just now; right?

A. I honestly didn't read that part, so I don't know. That -- that does kind of sound familiar. I could have said something like that, but I'm positive I said, What are you doing?

Q. Do you know what else you didn't tell your husband during that conversation?

A. What?

Q. That he touched your -- expletive. Why did you leave that out?

A. I'm not sure. Probably because I was telling my husband and this is someone who was upset with me for years for flirting with somebody, so ...

Q. Well, he was upset for years over flirting with customers; right?

A. No.

Q. So he's upset over flirting generally?

A. No. With that guy -- I'm saying in Vegas.

Q. Right?

A. Right.

Q. So when you started to tell your -- your husband and -- and -- and to be sure, and to be certain, the premise of this whole powwow was that -- as is your husband want, as is his practice, he was -- you knew he was going to ask you every little specific detail; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. That was his rule; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And you knew that's what you were in for; right?

A. Not necessarily going into this. I knew I had to get this off my chest.

Q. And you specifically did not tell PS anything about him touching anything other than your leg. No mention about the -- expletive?

A. Well, that wasn't intentional, as far as I remember. But it makes sense that I wouldn't want to just say he did this and he did this. I wasn't trying to throw him under the bus.

Q. So you're saying that it wasn't a specific live admonition?

A. Right.

Q. And -- but you had another opportunity to talk to Tisaby; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you started, and you asked, and -- and you're aware that we took Tisaby's deposition, obviously; right?

A. Yes.
Q. So if Tisaby said in that deposition that in response to him touching your -- expletive -- that you said nothing at all --
A. That was his recollection.
Q. Well, his recollection --
A. Yeah.
Q. -- of a two-hour interview where you're supposed to talk to him; right?
A. Correct.
Q. By the way, did -- did he ask any questions during those two hours, any questions at all?
A. I know he asked me to clarify stuff, but not, like -- what did you mean by -- what did you mean by "questions"? Outside of what I was talking about?
A. Well, no. I mean, I don't -- I'm not asking if he asked you questions about, for instance, what sports team you like. I mean, you were talking about specific events related to EG; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you talked to the man for two hours or more; right?

A. Around there.
Q. That would be considered a conversation; correct?
A. Truly, it was me explaining the story. He would stop me and say, Can you clarify this, stuff like that.
Q. So it's your recollection is all he said was, Can you clarify?
A. I'm not sure what else, no. I don't remember any other specific conversation or questions at all.
Q. He wouldn't say anything like, What do you mean? What happened next? How did you feel? How did it make you feel? What were you thinking?
A. Possibly.
Q. He didn't ask any of those questions?
A. He might have.
Q. That would certainly make sense; right?
A. Yeah.
Q. That would make more sense than a person speaking nonstop for two hours, wouldn't it?
A. Yes. But I did, really. I told my story.
Q. Well, I get that you told your story.
A. Yeah.
Q. But my question is, in the course of you telling your story, if the man was asking you questions.

A. Maybe just in that --

Q. In the context?

A. In context, right.

Q. Sure.

A. It wasn't question, answer; question, answer. That's not how it was.

Q. And you can't say why he said that you said nothing after this event that you claimed happened?

A. Well, he recollected it wrong, I guess.

Q. Now, to be certain, you understood him touching you in a way -- in such a way that was sexual in nature; right?

A. Yes. Physical.

Q. There wasn't any doubt about that; right?

A. No. That it was -- that it was physical to me, yes.

Q. And as he left that day, and you had your parting conversation, you were intrigued, were you not?

A. Yes. After he left, for sure.

Q. And all of those thoughts that you were having that -- that caused you to physically shake, they were in your mind still; right?

A. Well --
Q. This man that you thought was perfect.
A. Right. I don't know exactly what was in my mind, but ...
Q. But certainly you were intrigued; right?
A. Correct.
Q. Fascinated?
A. Not necessarily. I mean, more just -- I wanted to know what -- what this was all about.
Q. You were, what, 32 at the time?
A. Correct.
Q. I mean, you're not naive, are you?
A. It depends on what you mean by that.
Q. Well, you've been in relationships; right?
A. Yes.
Q. You've been out and about in social situations?
A. Correct.
Q. Both as a married and as a -- and a single woman; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. You certainly know well and good what flirtation is, what a come-on is, and what it means to be intrigued by a man, what it means to be interested; right?

A. Right.

Q. I mean, you believe that EG was the guy -- was this perfect man?

A. I believed he was a really great person, yes.

Q. And your marriage was on the rocks?

A. Correct.

Q. And as your brain that you couldn't control would wander at times, it would wander in a way that you would visualize yourself with him in the future?

A. No. That wasn't part of it; it really wasn't. I'm not that kind of person going ten years in the future or anything like that.

Q. I'm not asking about ten years; I'm asking about just going forward --

A. No.

Q. -- whether or not in your mind if your marriage was truly over.

A. Right.

Q. And you just told the guy you wanted a divorce; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And he separated from you; right?

A. Right.
Q. So at least in your mind, your marriage, if not over, was dangerously on the rocks?
A. Correct.
Q. And you were potentially going to enter the world of being a single woman again?
A. Correct.
Q. And you now meet a person that you've described as perfect?
A. Correct.
Q. And it causes you to shake uncontrollably?
A. Correct.
Q. Now, you were not ever once considering whether or not this could be a relationship?
A. No. Not at this point, because he was married.
Q. Well, so were you.
A. Right. But I knew where my relationship was.
Q. But you didn't know where his was?
A. Right.
Q. And you're still saying you didn't wonder whether or not this could be something, whether you could build a relationship? Your mind never went there?

A. That wasn't -- I mean, that was part of the -- that was part of the intrigue was, is that possible.

Q. Right.

A. Does that make sense?

Q. Yes. That was my question. That's why you were intrigued, because you were wondering, is it possible for you to be with a man that you believed was perfect. Is that a potential possibility in your future at some time, no matter how long or short? That's what was causing you to be intrigued, yes?

A. Yes. That was part of it.

Q. Okay. All right.

A. It was, I think, just curious about the whole -- all of the feelings surrounding this, that he had and I had both.

Q. And he shows up later in the day to drop off a book; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. On -- redacted -- March 7th, you receive an e-mail, I believe; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Asking to contact you; right?

A. Right.

Q. And, certainly, nothing at that point caused you not be intrigued; right?
A. Correct.
Q. So you are sort of faced with a dilemma, right, because he's asking for your number.
A. Correct.
Q. And what you know is two things: You want to establish a way to continue to communicate with this man that you're intrigued by, but you also know that you have essentially an insanely controlling, jealous, stalking husband that you don't want him to find out that EG called you?
A. Correct.
Q. So you had to deal with that dilemma; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And the way you dealt with it was to send some sort of information to him that would accomplish two things: To try to send a message that would accomplish that I get it, there's a -- there's mutual attraction, but at the same time, try to dissuade him from using that number. Did I get that right?
A. Correct.
Q. So the tightrope you walked at that time was, Hey, it's just best to contact me at the office, but here is my number?

A. Correct.

Q. So you put it out there?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you engaged in the deceitful conduct to cover it up by saying it was your friend, yes?

A. I --

Q. There's no other way to describe it. You can try all day, but it wasn't honest.

A. I wasn't trying to deceive my husband. I think that's why I'm uncomfortable with it, because I wasn't trying to do anything other than -- I want to avoid him jumping to conclusions at this point.

Q. Well, how about this: Regardless of what you're trying to do, the sum total of your actions was to engage in deceitful conduct for whatever your motives were. Yes?

A. Can you rephrase that?

Q. Sure. Regardless of what you were trying to do, the result of your conduct was to engage in deceitful conduct for whatever your motives were. You could justify --

A. Right.

Q. -- in your brain all you want, but your action were deceitful. Yes or no?

A. They were viewed -- they could be viewed as deceitful.

Q. Okay. Probably viewed by every other human being on earth as being dishonest behavior. Fair to say?

A. I -- I don't know what other people think.

Q. Well, you know what you would think if somebody told you that story. You would think that was deceitful or dishonest if you heard it told to you by somebody else, yes?

A. Maybe if this was a totally different situation, but knowing my husband, knowing the situation we were in, I knew if he sees this, he's going to instantly jump to conclusions.

Q. I get it.

A. It's going to turn into some sort of crazy, crazy thing. So, anyways, I wasn't trying to do anything deceitful.

Q. But you did.

A. You feel that way.

Q. Now, I believe you stated that on March 7th, that you had a missed call from him.

A. Yes.

Q. And you only knew that because of the 202 number?
A. Correct.
Q. So at that point, you knew that potentially you could have an issue, because you had missed a call from --
A. Correct.
Q. -- a 220 number?
A. Correct.
Q. And you could have an issue with PS --
A. Correct.
Q. -- because he's all over your phone records.
A. Correct.
Q. And potentially has an app on your phone?
A. Potentially.
Q. That you had thought about; right?
A. Right.
Q. So other than this missed call that you had on March 7th, you had no contact with EG; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. But you still were overwhelmed with these thoughts that you have described about him during that week?

A. Yes.
Q. And these thoughts that you were describing were such that you couldn't even sleep. As you said, you couldn't control your brain; right?
A. I don't remember my --
Q. That's what you said?
A. Right. Right. I don't remember my sleeping being disrupted at that point, no.
Q. And I'm not saying you thought about him 24/7, but it was occupying a lot of your uncontrollable thought?
A. Yes. I was very curious as to what was going on.
Q. Curious is one word; intrigued is another; turned on could be another; attracted could be another. You're shaking your head that you agree with me, yes?
A. I'm agreeing that those are different, yes.
Q. Well -- different that could apply?
A. Yes. I was curious. Yes, I was intrigued.
Q. Yes, you were attracted?
A. I was attracted to him.
Q. Yes, you were turned on?

A. No. I was not turned on by him yet.
Q. Well, all of these thoughts also had some sexual component, because that's just human nature. When you look at the opposite sex --
A. Right.
Q. -- and you're attracted, you're attracted almost by way of pheromones. You were attracted sexually; right?
A. Yes. But I wasn't fantasizing about him, I guess.
Q. Well, were you fantasizing about anybody?
A. No. Not at this time.
Q. Were you fantasizing about the book you just read, Fifty Shades?
A. I can't remember what I was thinking about in particular.
Q. But, certainly, in -- in those thoughts were a sexual component with regard to EG, yes?
A. Not that I remember. I just know this time was driving me crazy that I -- I could not -- I -- I definitely was thinking about him a lot.
Q. Driving you crazy? I mean, you weren't being driven crazy thinking about what he was doing for a living, right; you were being driven crazy because you were thinking of -- thoughts about him, about your attraction, about your sexuality towards him. That makes sense. Would you agree?

A. I really don't remember exactly what I was thinking at that time. I knew I really liked him. I knew I thought about him a lot during this -- those couple of weeks or whatever after that happened.

Q. During those couple of weeks?

A. Yes.

Q. Well, in fact, what you thought was going to happen did, in fact, happen, and PS tracked down the number; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And, in fact, he played it off as saying, Hey, I'm just looking for -- redacted's -- number?

A. Correct.

Q. Now, you were separated; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And when -- when you were separated and he was living with his brother during this period of time, how often were you with him?

A. Often, because he -- the kids didn't stay over there, so he would come pick up the kids, stay with the kids at my house --

Q. Would you --

A. -- while I was gone and stuff.
Q. How often would you physically be in his company?
A. I would say most days, yes.
Q. So when you said that he -- so he would have -- are you assuming that he physically looked for -- through your phone?
A. That's what I think, yes.
Q. Okay. Do you know?
A. I don't know for sure.
Q. So it could have been the app; it could have been he physically looked through the phone?
A. Yeah. It could have been anything.
Q. And was he friends with -- redacted?
A. Not really, no.
Q. Had he ever called her in the recent past?
A. No.
Q. Would there have been any reason for him to look for her number?
A. No.
Q. So you knew that that was sort of BS that he said, I was looking for the number; right?
A. I felt that way, yes.
Q. And I think you said that it was like three or four days after the 7th or the 6th, whenever you cut his hair?

A. Yes.

Q. So at that -- and, incidentally, when he approached you about that, because EG had left a voicemail, did he listen to the voicemail?

A. No. He called and heard EG's voicemail.

Q. EG's voicemail?

A. Correct.

Q. Was it EG or was it SG, his wife? Do you know?

A. Oh. I have no clue. I -- I believe he told me it was EG.

Q. And he approached you about that; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And you lied?

A. What do you mean?

Q. Do you know what a lie is?

A. Well, I didn't. I mean, the conversation was, why the heck did he call you? Because I hadn't talked with EG yet at this point, so I don't remember what I told him exactly why at that point. I know eventually, you know, he asked me the contents of our conversation, but I don't believe that first time I had anything to say about it because I missed the call. But EG and I spoke on the 14th, and I -- I believe that's the conversation my ex-husband also asked me about, and I -- that's the one I told him.

Q. Well, actually, he asked you about the voicemail that he called or found out it was --

A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- EG, okay?

A. Correct.

MR. BARNES: We're at 20 if you guys want to switch.

MR. PIERSON: I'm fine with switching.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Greg Razer and Representative Tommie Pierson, Jr.)

Q. And a couple of things. What you told him was, in fact, you sort of just played it off: I don't know; he was getting a hold of me for an appointment or whatever. That's what you told him; right?

A. That's fair.

Q. And -- and you knew that not to be true?

A. I didn't believe that to be true, no.

Q. Okay. So, of course, then, if you did not believe that to be true, that would also indicate that you had not -- that that would not have been a true statement in your mind?

A. Correct.

Q. So when you answered that question to the grand jury, when Ms. Gardner asked you -- and at that time, that was a true statement in your mind when you answered, right? Then was that --

A. Well, it could have been. I mean --

Q. I'm just asking.

A. Right.

Q. You just heard the line of questioning. I'm not asking you to explain; right? I just asked you --

A. Right.

Q. -- if you knew it not to be true -- not to be a true statement in your mind, and you just answered, yes; correct? Do you remember that series of questions? If not, I can read them back.

A. I don't really remember in particular, but ...

Q. No. Do you remember the question that I just asked you about, whether or not that was a true statement in your mind, that that was just an innocuous call where he was trying to get ahold of -- where he was getting -- trying to make an appointment, and your answer was, no, I knew that wasn't a true statement in my mind. Do you recall --

A. Well --

Q. -- that series? I mean, I can read it back.

A. Right.

Q. Okay. You recall just having that conversation?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Do you recall when you answered to the grand jury, right -- that was a true statement in my mind that, in fact, I believe he was getting ahold of me for an appointment. Do you recall saying that to the grand jury?

A. No, I don't. However --

Q. Stop. If you said that to the grand jury, that would not have been true, because you can't have it both ways, ma'am.

A. Right.

Q. Okay. Can we agree with that?

A. That first phone call, though, it was just a missed call, so my point is --

Q. I'm not talking about that.
A. It could have been about anything. He could have been calling about an appointment. That's what he e-mailed me about.
Q. He could have been calling about martians, but that's not what you were being asked by me, and it's not what you were being asked by the grand jury. Can we agree with that?
A. How I took the question to be for the grand jury was could that have been why he was calling? It could have been.
Q. Okay.
A. I hadn't spoke to him yet.
Q. Interestingly enough --
A. Yeah.
Q. -- I would assume, just like I began at this deposition, when I said if you don't understand any of the questions, restate them; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you had that same ability during the grand jury; right, if you didn't understand a question, to have it restated?
A. It wasn't this type of setting, no.
Q. I understand. But, certainly, everybody wanted to be on the same page; right? Nobody said, just go guess. That wouldn't make sense, would it?

A. Correct.
Q. So when she asked the question -- and at that time, that was a true statement in your mind, and your response was, Right, okay, was there anything that -- about that question you didn't understand at the time?
A. No. I think --
Q. Okay.
A. -- it could have taken multiple ways. Maybe that's how I took it.
Q. Let's talk about your next contact with EG. And that would have been when you had a girls' night at the CWE; right?
A. Correct.
Q. This was at El Burro Loco; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And it was at that time that, I believe, you reached out to EG?
A. Correct.
Q. He didn't invite you to, at that point; you reached out to him. You hadn't had any contact that week?
A. Correct.
Q. We just established the degree of which you were thinking about him; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you decided to take it on your own to reach out to him, just like men and women do all the time to pursue your attraction, yes?

A. Well, also, to call him back, because all week long I hadn't called him back yet.

Q. Well, you had that missed call?

A. Correct.

Q. And you chose a time when you were out with your girlfriends for happy hour?

A. Correct.

Q. How many drinks had you had?

A. I don't know. I'm not a heavy drinker, so a drink, maybe.

Q. But when you drink, do you feel it?

A. Sure.

Q. Fair to stay you may have been a little more emboldened by your cocktail when you made that call?

A. Possibly.

Q. And it was obvious to you, when you made that call, that he was in a space where he couldn't really talk?

A. Correct.

Q. And I think you described to the grand jury that you started talking in some sort of code; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Well, you didn't need to talk in code, did you? No one was listening at your end.

A. No. He -- he possibly would not have been okay with that. He was like, what are you talking about? It was very clear that he did not want to have this conversation over the phone.

Q. What conversation were you trying to have?

A. What happened. I keep thinking about it all week long. What happened?

Q. Well, as you're thinking about it, I want you to think about this: When you called him and you spoke in this code, did you say something to the effect that, Look, I have a friend that is curious about an experience she's having. I have a friend that is obsessed with a guy and can't get this guy off her mind. Did you possibly say that to him?

A. I know I was speaking about there's this friend that I have -- yeah. So it was something along those lines.

Q. Along the lines that this friend was obsessed with some guy; right?

A. Not obsessed, but, yes.
Q. Well --
A. I --
Q. What word would you have used instead of "obsessed"?
A. Well, was thinking about him and so curious what happened.
Q. But to be clear, when you're describing it in terms of this friend that has this -- what word do you want to use -- obsession, that she's thinking about him, this attraction -- I mean, you knew damn -- darn well that this friend was you and that was --
A. Correct.
Q. -- the message you were conveying to it?
A. Correct.
Q. You weren't talking to him at that time -- I'll rephrase that.
You -- at that point in time, you had that conversation, and after you described your situation in terms of this hypothetical friend; right?
A. Right.
Q. You said he wants to meet you behind Starbucks?
A. Correct.

Q. And that's when you got up and left your friends; right?

A. Correct.

Q. That's when you lied to your friends. You said it was about PS. We've established that.

A. Yeah. I don't remember if that -- yeah. But I think that was the conversation. Right. I don't remember.

Q. In any event, that's the time frame when you lied to these -- this set of friends, whether it was the conversation lying that you were talking to PS or whether you lied to them and said you were going to meet PS.

A. I don't recall. I don't remember.

Q. Well, you do recall lying to them. We've established that.

A. I recall going to meet him, and I knew that my girlfriends didn't know that I was meeting him, so ...

Q. Yes, you lied. Do you want me to read it back to you again? I can.

A. I'm not sure exactly what our conversation was back then.

Q. But within that context, whether it was lying about getting off the phone or lying to go meet him, you lied to your girlfriends. We established that. Your husband says, Oh, the web -- the weave -- the wicked web that we weave or something of that nature; right?

A. I'm not sure.

Q. I'll be happy to read it to you again. Do you want me to?

A. Yes. I'm kind of confused as to what you're talking about.

MR. BARNES: And then they take a short break, I believe.

Let's go until -- quite an argument between counsel on 230. It goes into 231. It is starting on line 25, 231. Again, for the people in the audience, we're not going to redact that. It is just attorneys arguing, so no need to reread it.

Q. All right, a couple of matters I want to address real quickly on some items that we talked about. We talked about this Facebook incident when you were Facebook -- FaceTiming incident in Arizona with EG. You never mentioned that to the grand jury, did you?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. And you never mentioned it in your testimony to the House. Would that be fair?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay.
A. Or I don't -- I don't believe so.
Q. Also, with respect to the conversation and the testimony that was given with respect to the book Fifty Shades of Grey, again, that was never mentioned in the grand jury, nor was it ever mentioned at the House. Is that also a correct statement?
A. Correct.
Q. And you had mentioned that you had been told -- I don't know -- I don't know if you ever read Tisaby's report, but you had been told and you took issue with a couple of matters.
A. Correct.
Q. I'm going to address about -- I'm going to address one of those -- the one about undressing.
Was there any other issue that comes to your mind about what you don't agree with what is attributed to you by Mr. Tisaby?
A. I don't remember specifically, but if you tell me what it is, I'll address it or whatever. I'm not sure, because I don't know this whole thing.
Q. Okay. And with respect that you mentioned about getting undressed in the kitchen, I just want to make sure that we're on the same page, because as is described by Mr. Tisaby, in his conversation with you in the hotel room, it has you describing that EG pats you down, checking for bugs. That was -- that was accurately portrayed; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And then it has you stating that EG said that your husband can be controlling and follow you. Is that also accurately portrayed?

A. That EG said that?

Q. That EG said, after he patted you down, that, quote/unquote, your husband can be controlling and could -- your husband can be controlling and follow you. Was that accurately portrayed by Mr. Tisaby?

A. I believe he was both worried about that and just anybody following me, so I'm not sure.

Q. My question was --

A. Right. He quoted him saying that, and I don't believe that.

Q. I'm not asking you what you believe. I'm asking -- he actually put that in quotation marks, so I'm asking you, was that accurately -- was that accurate by Mr. Tisaby?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. Okay.
A. I don't believe EG said that.
Q. And then he goes on to say, How much time do you have? You stated that EG said, I want you to trust me. I want to make you feel good. I want you to put on these clothes, quote/unquote.
Was that accurately portrayed by Tisaby?
A. I don't know that it was a quote, but, yes, it was something to that effect, correct.
Q. "EG made her change clothes out. EG made her take off everything, and he was shaky and nervous."
Are those statements accurately portrayed by Tisaby?
A. That --
Q. That he made you?
A. Right. No, because that -- that sounds as though he made me get undressed right there.
Q. And that's not true?
A. I think -- I think that's misleading.
Q. Okay. "EG kept saying he wants to take care of her. She stated that EG provided a white T-shirt with a slit in the neck area and put on pajama pants."
Was that accurately portrayed by Tisaby?

A. He told me, I want you to change into these clothes, so change into these clothes, yeah.

Q. Tisaby said: Redacted stated that she asked EG, what are you talking about? What are you talking about? Just want to talk."

Is that what you said? Is that accurately portrayed?

A. Something along those lines, yes.

Q. And we'll get to this point.

A. Okay.

Q. "She stated that EG said, I don't think you have taken -- I don't think you have been taken care of, and we don't have much time."

A. That -- something to that effect, yes.

Q. "KS stated that she trusted EG, did not want to have a crush on -- did not want to have a crush, but was confused and never cheated on her husband." Correct? Did that happen?

A. Can you state it again?

Q. That "EG said that KS stated that she trusted EG and did not want to have a crush but was confused and never cheated on her husband."

Did you make that statement to Tisaby?

A. Oh, I -- I could have, but not about that specific instance.

Q. And then at that point Tisaby said that you said that KS stated that EG told her to follow him downstairs into the basement which would have had you naked at this point?

A. No. I was -- I was in the white T-shirt and pants.

Q. So --

A. I think that's confusing.

Q. And just to be sure, because he was asked, At no time did you tell Tisaby that you got completely undressed and were in a nude state in the kitchen. You never made that statement?

A. No. Positively not.

Q. And if he said that, that you said that you were -- that you were nude in the kitchen and then walked downstairs or changed clothes in the kitchen in his presence, that you actually got completely undressed and put on the pajama pants and the white T-shirt in the kitchen, that would be incorrect?

A. Correct. Yeah, that would be --

Q. Tisaby would have gotten that wrong?

A. Exactly.

Q. And just to be sure, I'm also including not only changing clothes in EG's presence in the kitchen but also potentially, say, partially obscured in a bathroom next to the kitchen. That didn't happen either?

A. No.

Q. And if Tisaby attributed that to you, again, that would be wrong?

A. Correct.

MR. BARNES: Let me jump in real quick, because this goes back -- for the new members of the committee, this goes back to the issue of -- this deposition took place on April 6th. This videotape was missing, and then the videotape was provided April 11th. The tape speaks for itself -- to the extent Tisaby said that, the tape speaks for itself, and we have a transcript of the tape, and that's not what was stated on the -- what Tisaby said is not what is, in fact, on the tape, but at the time of the deposition, counsel for Greitens didn't have the benefit of having the actual tape. So, you know, it -- they should have at the time of this deposition, but they didn't, and so that's why we just had the three pages of stuff on something that's inconsistent with the tape because they didn't have the tape.

Go ahead.

Q. I want to read you this and ask if this sounds familiar:

"Blindfolded by pulling shirt up over eyes and I can't see anything. Are you thirsty?

I hear the ice clink against the glass, and he leans down and kisses me, pouring a delicious crisp liquid into my mouth as he does. It's so unexpected, so hot. It tastes all the more divine because it's been in his mouth. He leans down and I drink another mouthful from his lips. Oh, my."

Does that sound familiar?

A. No.

Q. Never read a passage like that?

A. No. I'm guessing it's from Fifty Shades of Grey, but I don't remember it specifically, no.

Q. It certainly sounds like the book that you -- one of the books -- well, the book that you read, one which -- the series that you read -- the three books you read; right?

A. Right.

Q. All right. Getting back to where we left off. We had you at El Burro Loco and -- again, I think -- whether it was a phone call or not, you said, I was out with my friends. They thought I was talking to you. I lied to them.

That's talking about that evening; right?
A. Okay. Yes.
Q. Right?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. I think what you said with respect to how the contact was made, that you initiated a phone call; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, I think when you said to -- when you were talking to PS about it, you said: "So on Saturday, I did the wrong thing. It was me who e-mailed him, and I said my friend is having these troubles with her thoughts."
I'm just curious, was it an e-mail or did you phone? Did you make a phone call, or do you not remember?
A. Well, I for sure called him, so I don't know. I could have e-mailed him before. Like, can I call you tonight or something? I don't know. I don't remember that.
Q. But in any event, you were certainly interested in meeting him when he suggested start -- to meet behind the alley at Starbucks; correct?
A. Yes. To finish our conversation, yes.
Q. Well, you wanted to see him; right? You wanted to see him?

A. I mean, I wanted -- I wanted to talk to him, yes.

Q. And you left your friends; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Who were the friends?

A. I'm not sure exactly. It was girls from work.

Q. You don't know? You can't give us a name?

A. I mean, I don't know exactly who was there.

Q. When you -- it would have been -- because we would do happy hours, and it could be three of us; it could be six of us. I'm not sure exactly who was there that night.

Q. Were you inside El Burro Loco, were you on the patio?

A. I believe I was on the patio when I was speaking to him.

Q. And when you left, do you recall where you told your girlfriends you were going?

A. I don't recall. I'm not sure.

Q. Did you tell them you were going to be right back?

A. I don't recall that conversation.

Q. Did you come back?

A. I did come back.

MR. BARNES: Representative Pierson and I'll be the answer.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Tommie Pierson, Jr. and Representative Jay Barnes.)

Q. And what -- how long were you gone?

A. Ten minutes, maybe.

Q. And so you leave a group of girls and you walk, essentially, a block or two across the street catty-corner behind Starbucks; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. You're gone for what you're saying is ten minutes; then you come back, and there was no conversation at all about, Hey, where did you go?

A. I don't remember. I don't remember the conversation.

Q. Nobody asked what you were up to?

A. They could have; I just don't remember.

Q. Well --

A. I don't recall.

Q. Fair to say you wouldn't have said, I just went to meet EG?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So you probably would have made up some story; fair to say?

A. I'm not sure exactly what was asked or -- I'm not sure.

Q. Now, the way you have described it, that when you were walking across the street to meet EG, again, you were actually shaking; right?

A. Yes. I'm sure I was. I was nervous.

Q. And shaking because of what you have described what was going through your mind with respect to your attraction about him?

A. No. Shaking because I -- I felt this was wrong. I'm sure to meet him or to talk to him. This whole thing was pretty nerve-racking.

Q. Well, you were shaking in a similar fashion that -- you were shaking when he walked into that appointment after having been -- after not having seen him for five months; right?

A. Yes. But that also was -- I hadn't seen him. This was somebody who I do have this crush on, and I was newly separated, so I think it was just a combination of things.

Q. And, in fact, when you walked over there, you guys hugged, didn't you?

A. Sorry. Yes.

Q. And it was a little more sexual than just a hug? I mean, were you -- you were forehead to forehead and you hugged and kissed?

A. A hundred percent, no.

Q. Did he take his hand and pull your -- pull you closer?

A. No.

Q. And putting his hand down the front of your pants -- not all the way down, just, like, inside of your pants and underwear and pull you closer?

A. No. Not that I remember at all, no.

Q. Not that you remember?

A. I'm going to say no.

Q. You are going to say no on this one?

A. Correct.

Q. But, indeed, you did hug and you remembered that; right?

A. I do remember that.

Q. How long did you embrace him?

A. A couple of seconds.

Q. So you touched him?

A. I mean, I hugged him. I hugged him at the salon, too.

Q. Do you recall being asked by PS on that occasion when you met him if you had any contact with him?

A. No. I don't remember.

Q. Do you recall you said, I came outside to meet him. PS says you told him, and then you offer, I didn't -- but I didn't touch him. Nothing?

A. Well, that means I didn't touch him sexually. I didn't kiss him. I wasn't doing anything with him.

Q. Well, you didn't say to PS you hugged him?

A. That was irrelevant to me. I wasn't saying I didn't -- I didn't touch you. I wasn't saying that. I was simply saying I didn't touch him, meaning I didn't have sexual contact with him.

Q. And you're saying you went over there just because you wanted to discuss these thoughts that you were having that were racing through your brain, that you couldn't turn your brain off. Is that what your testimony is?

A. Yes.

Q. And how to get these thoughts away from you?

A. Yes.

Q. How were you -- how was that going to -- how were you going to get these thoughts away from you?

A. We were going to discuss it. Why did he feel that he could do that? He didn't know what was going on in my marriage, so what -- how did he feel about me? What was going on his marriage? Those types of things. Just answer questions.

Q. And you wanted to know how he felt about you because you knew how you felt about him; right? That was on your mind.

A. To some extent, absolutely.

Q. And that point you got -- you devised -- you and EG devised a plan about how you were going to see him; correct?

A. He said, KS, I have an idea. My wife is going to be out of town next week, so you can come over in the morning -- or no. He said, When are you available? Could you come over next week? And I said, I don't know. I have to let you know sometime this week. Can I call you? So -- from my salon. So --

Q. So while -- while -- while leading up to this week specifically -- redacted -- on the 20th, you had discussed I think -- or you're claiming that

EG said his wife was going to be out of town, and he wanted to have a plan to see you at his house; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And I think you have described the situation leading up to actually the 21st. PS had EG on his mind and was asking if you were having an affair. And what was going on and, specifically, do you want a divorce, and, basically, that he had EG on his mind?

A. Yes.

Q. And this was -- so I'm just having a little bit of trouble understanding that, because as I understand what you've said, if we're now in this week leading up to the 21st, the only issue that PS could have had with EG was making this phone call that turned out to be EG's number, and then saying whose number? And you made up a lie and said it was -- redacted.

A. Yes.

Q. Was there anything else that would cause him to, as you've described, this obsession that this was -- that you and EG were having an affair? Anything else?

A. Absolutely not, no.

Q. So it was at this point that you would say, based on one missed phone call, essentially?

A. Well, like I said, I think he may have seen that he called or that I called him that night. There could have also been a conversation once that week. You know what I mean? After I called him, I recall that, that PS knew about that. PS knew about that.

Q. That you called?

A. That he knew that I called EG's phone.

Q. But you didn't call EG's phone until when, like, the 14th?

A. Correct.

Q. So based on those two events, that's what this obsession became?

A. Well, he was already prior to -- when I showed my mom EG's book, he was in the room, so this would have been maybe a year before. And that was when he was first rear. Who is this guy? What is this? He gave you something? So when he -- so he was already suspicious then. That's just how he was. That's how our relationship was. Then after he called me and then I called him back or whatever, that was how it was. I don't know.

Q. But you told PS that -- you told PS that you e-mailed him.

A. Right. That -- I don't remember. Like -- like, I said, I'm not sure.

Q. So when he confronted you about either the e-mail or the call that you placed, what did you -- what did you say to PS at that point?

A. I don't remember our conversation.

Q. Fair to say you made up another lie, obviously?

A. It's fair to say I didn't tell him I was meeting EG.

Q. Fair to say you didn't tell him the truth?

A. It's fair to say --

Q. Okay.

A. -- that I -- I didn't tell him I was meeting EG.

Q. Now -- so that takes us to, at this point, the 20th, that we've established that you've asked him for a divorce, and now you're going to the 21st; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And you think on the 21st, when you're meeting him at his house, right, you agree to meet him at his house?

A. Yes. Because he's explained we cannot meet out in public, yes.

Q. Again, you agreed to meet him at his house at seven in the morning?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. After conversations.

Q. And you knew his wife wasn't going to be there; right?

A. Correct.

Q. You knew that you both had this attraction -- sexual attraction?

A. I knew that there was a physical attraction, yes.

Q. You knew that he had certainly made a sexual move on you described in the shop, correct -- at the salon?

A. A physical move, yes.

Q. You knew that you certainly had options that you didn't have to go to his house. That's fair to say; right?

A. Yes. But I felt like when -- when else are we going to talk about this? When -- the night before when we discussed, can we please meet somewhere else, please, his response was, No. This is it. She's out of town, KS. Nothing will happen.

Come to my house. And I said, Well, I don't have very much time, either; please, just meet me right there, Coffee Cartel or Starbucks. And he was like, KS, I live by there anyways; just come to my house.

Q. And it's your testimony that every -- after everything that you have just described with respect to how your brain was working, the sexual mood that was made, the attraction, the hug behind Starbucks, that you think you were just going there to talk?

A. Yes.

Q. And before you met him on that Saturday?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, you correct me if I'm wrong, but sometimes in the salon business, early a.m. Saturday stylists don't necessarily get dressed to the nines because sometimes they are out late Friday night and it's an early wake-up, so they just sort of throw themselves together?

A. My salon is different. I mean, you're really supposed to do your hair and makeup before.

Q. Did you shower that morning?

A. I don't remember.

Q. You don't recall?

A. I don't recall, no.

Q. So you recall wearing just your regular outfit?
A. Yes.
Q. You certainly put on makeup; right?
A. I would assume so.
Q. Do you recall -- you don't recall whether you showered -- and I'm not trying to get too personal, but do you recall whether you did female grooming? Shave?
A. I don't recall.
Q. Certainly possible; right?
A. I really don't recall.
Q. Now, the way I understand this, you walk over there and you have had direction to go around the back; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And when you walked over there, the first thing that, I think, as you've described was that he basically said, Shh, or something to that effect; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. But nobody was home?
A. Right.
Q. And very almost instantly, he took your keys and your purse out of your hands?

A. Correct.
Q. So my question is, why would you have your keys and purse in separate hands?
A. I don't know. I'm walking there. I'm not sure.
Q. Don't you say -- haven't you said that you almost always keep your purse -- your keys in your purse?
A. When I -- I set my purse down. I put -- at the time -- I don't even carry a purse anymore, but I always had a front pocket on my purse that I would just throw my keys in once I set it down.
Q. But my question is on this occasion, it is your testimony, at least to the grand jury, that walked in and essentially had a purse in one hand and your keys in the other?
A. Correct.
Q. Although you walked there?
A. Correct.
Q. And you placed them on the counter?
A. I did not. He took them out of my hands.
Q. Well, did you watch where he placed them?
A. He placed them on the counter and started going through it.
Q. Did you see where he placed them?

A. Yes. On the counter.
Q. Right in front of you; right?
A. Correct.
Q. He didn't appear to hide them, did he?
A. No.
Q. And then he went through your purse?
A. Correct.
Q. Which you attributed to just him being in a situation where he's concerned about that his -- his position and being looked at; right?
A. Correct.
Q. When you walked in like that, did he hug you?
A. No. Not right away.
Q. He went back outside to check to see whether you were followed?
A. Yes.
Q. And he came back in, and at that point, you're shaking?
A. Yes.
Q. And he hugs you?
A. Yes.
Q. And he hugs you passionately, does he not?
A. He embraced me and was just like, KS, it's okay; it's okay; just kind of to calm me down.

Q. Did you hug him?
A. It's going to be okay.
Q. Did you hug him back?
A. Yes. I believe so.
Q. And you just didn't stand there with your arms down --
A. Right.
Q. -- did you? And once he hugged you and he told you it's going to be okay, what did you say?
A. EG, oh, my gosh, I'm so nervous; what is going on? What -- I just want to talk to you. What is going in your life -- whatever. I don't even know. Our conversation really was bizarre and very short-lived. Just -- I'm nervous. I don't know. He -- he just kind of jumped right in with, how long do you have?
Q. Did you tell him I'm only here to talk?
A. I did the night before.
Q. Did you tell him that morning, I'm only here to talk, when you showed up at seven in the morning? Did you make a point to say, I'm only here to talk?
A. I'm sure I said to him, Can we talk or -- that was the intention -- the night before on the phone, I'm positive that I said that I can't -- I don't want to be alone in your house. I'm uncomfortable with that. I've never cheated on my husband. I feel uncomfortable being alone with you in that setting. I'm positive that I said that.

Q. But my question is when you walked in Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m., did you say to him then I am only here to talk?

A. I wouldn't have said those exact words. It wouldn't have made sense knowing he knew why I was there.

Q. Well, then, when you said to the grand jury after commenting that he hugged you and saying it's going to be okay; how much time do we have. And the question from the grand jury was, so at this point, you're like, What are you here for? They're asking you at this point -- asking you what are you here for? And you say, I'm here to talk. And then on page 15 of the transcript, when your husband asks you the question, you said, I showed up, and I said, I'm only here to talk. And he said, I know. That would be -- would have been inaccurate?

A. It would have been a paraphrase. I -- like I said, I know for sure when I got there it was -- I'm nervous, you know? I don't know exactly what our conversation consisted of. I just know the gist of it. So if I said that, I said it again to him or something to that effect. I could believe it.

Q. So you thought you were only there to talk; right?

A. Yes.

Q. And when you walked in, we already established that you weren't made to change clothes; right?

A. He told me to change my clothes, yes.

Q. Well, he didn't threaten you, did he?

A. No, he didn't threaten me.

Q. Didn't force you to change your clothes?

A. He didn't force me to, no.

Q. Just basically asked you to change your clothes -- made a statement?

A. He made a statement.

Q. Did you say no?

A. I know I said, What do you mean, you know?

Q. Did you say no?

A. What are you talking about? No, I didn't say that with the words, no.

Q. Well, you didn't say it not only with the words, "no," but you didn't say it by deed, either, did you?

A. I eventually did what he told me to do, yes.

Q. What he told you -- what?

A. I eventually did what he told me to do, yes.

Q. Well, let's go through that. Okay. So you said that you eventually did what he told you to.

A. Correct.

Q. He said put these on; right?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. And --

A. He said -- I'm sorry.

Q. And were they laid out in the kitchen according to you? Are you claiming that?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you see what they looked like?

A. I could see they were folded up. I didn't know exactly what it was.

Q. Okay. When he said, put these clothes on, at some point, you had to hold them up; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And according to you, it was a white T-shirt with a slit; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And I think you said pajama bottoms?
A. Correct.
Q. Short or long?
A. Long.
Q. With a drawstring or elastic?
A. I don't recall. I'm not sure.
Q. But in any event, they were able to stay up; right?
A. Correct.
Q. Now -- so this conversation about putting the clothes on, was that in the kitchen?
A. Yes.
Q. And so when you said eventually you agreed, it didn't take you very long; right? This whole episode was 40 minutes -- 45 minutes; right?
A. Correct.
Q. You didn't say no, you -- I'm not doing that, did you?
A. I don't believe I said those words.
Q. Well, you didn't say anything to indicate that you were refusing to put the clothes on; you said or did nothing to indicate to him that you were refusing to put those clothes on?
A. Eventually, yes.
Q. Is that a true statement?

A. Eventually, yes, but I know I said what you were talking about. What do you have -- what do you have in mind? I'm here to talk. I am positive. I don't know exactly our conversation, though. I don't know the words.

Q. Okay. Fine. According to you, you're claiming that -- are you talking about, I'm here to talk; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Now, again, at the time, you're a 32-year-old woman that's had some life experiences; right?

A. Correct.

Q. I mean, you were married 12 years, about to get a divorce; you had a relationship that produced another child. I mean, it wasn't like you hadn't been on a few dates or been around men; right?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. You dealt with these inner feelings for four years where you couldn't control some attraction, where your brain ran wild about these horrible feelings you described; right? We discussed that.

A. I had been attracted to other people, yes.

Q. So -- I mean, you knew that if I'm only here to talk -- you didn't need to change to talk?
A. Correct.
Q. Okay. And you knew by changing into those clothes that was suggesting other activity?
A. Not sex, though, or anything of that nature. I thought it was going to be this -- he's going to take me through some hot workout, which is basically all he told me, that he had some idea he wanted to do with me. He -- we didn't have very long. Please, just come on, KS; you can trust me.
Q. KS --
A. KS, just come with me.
Q. KS, you are basically a fitness freak, are you not?
A. I love to exercise.
Q. Right. And you know how to dress when you exercise; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you know what kind of clothes you exercise in?
A. Correct.
Q. I'm speculating, but I bet I'm right that you worked out from time to time in yoga pants?
A. Sure.

Q. Lululemon? What type of stuff?
A. Exercise and work-out clothes.
Q. And what you appeared in that day, you said, were they yoga pants?
A. No.
MR. BARNES: Do you want to switch?
MR. PIERSON: Sure.
(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Jay Barnes and Representative Don Phillips.)
Q. Jeans?
A. They would have been black pants -- black work -- no, they were like black work pants.
Q. And a T-shirt; right?
A. Like, a fitted T-shirt that said the salon and spa -- redacted -- yeah.
Q. So when you were looking at a white T-shirt with a slit and pajama bottoms, you know those aren't work-out clothes?
A. Well, they were --
Q. You have to know.
A. -- comfortable clothes. I -- I really truly thought he's going to take me through some sort of hot workout where it might be flirty. Don't get me wrong. I knew it might be sexual in nature but not sex --

Q. Okay.

A. -- by any means.

Q. Well, let's talk about that.

A. Sure.

Q. You knew it may be sexual in nature?

A. Yes.

Q. So what does that mean, that you knew it may be sexual in nature?

A. That maybe it was going to be some type of heavy flirting or I don't know -- I had no clue what to expect.

Q. Heavy flirting?

A. I knew for sure it's not -- well, I mean -- maybe he would.

Q. Touch you?

A. Outside of my clothing.

Q. Did you have a bra on?

A. Nope. He told me to take off everything.

Q. Okay. Do you typically work out without a bra?

A. No, not typically.

Q. Okay. So that was a signal, wasn't it?

A. Yes.
Q. And did you have --
A. Yes.
Q. -- did you wear underwear that day?
A. He told me to take off everything.
Q. Okay.
A. I believe I wore them, yes.
Q. So you took off your underwear; right?
A. Yes.
Q. You took off your bra?
A. I changed into these -- clothing.
Q. Correct. And you knew that that was a signal. That's what -- you didn't need to do that to work out, no matter what kind of workout?
A. I honestly did not have very long to think of anything other than -- trust me. I've already told him that I'm not going to cheat. I've never done anything with anybody.
Q. Now, just stepping away for a moment --
A. Yeah.
Q. -- does this sound -- does this sound like it makes common sense to you?
A. No.
Q. You have to recognize this rendition sounds a little bit ridiculous. You have to recognize that.

A. I mean, on the outside looking back in, it's -- I can't believe this happened.

Q. So, again, you have to recognize it sounds a little bit ridiculous.

A. I can only tell you that -- what was going on through my mind at that time.

Q. And so now you take these clothes and you change for -- according to you -- because you said you didn't change in front of him in the kitchen.

A. Correct.

Q. So where did you claim that you changed?

A. In a bathroom off of his kitchen.

Q. Off of his kitchen?

A. Right.

Q. And did you leave the door open?

A. No.

Q. And no question that you were intrigued at that point, were you not?

A. Correct.

Q. You didn't tell either the grand jury or the House that you took off voluntarily your underwear and your bra, did you?

A. I said I changed into the clothes, I assume.

Q. I'm not asking what you assumed. You didn't tell the grand jury, nor did you tell the House that you voluntarily took off your bra and voluntarily took off your underwear. You didn't make that statement, did you?

A. I believe I made the statement I took off everything and put this on.

Q. Again, did you specifically say you took off your bra and underwear?

A. If it was asked of me, I would have. I don't know if it was or not. You tell me; I'm not sure.

Q. Well, you didn't say it to the grand jury. I wasn't at the House.

A. If it was asked, I absolutely would have said that.

Q. And you have no recollection at this point?

A. No.

MR. BARNES: For the record, I think Representative Rhoads asked the question about underwear or bra. I could be wrong, but we'll go back and check the record, and we've got the grand jury here today.

Okay. Back to line 12.

Q. But certainly, as you say, you're just thinking that you're there to talk. And this -- at this point, when you're now thinking the talk has shifted to some sort of sexual workout -- and we can agree that even in your mind, you're thinking there's going to be some sexuality involved. You can't be that naive; right?

A. Right.

Q. I mean, you're basically stripped down to nothing but the flimsy T-shirt and pajama bottoms; right? Yes?

A. I -- I am picturing -- like I said, he obviously wants to do some sort of workout thing with me and he obviously wants it to be sexy.

Q. Did it enter into your mind at that point, as you're stripping nude, except for these light clothes, that there may have been some idea of sex on his mind? Did that enter your mind as a 32-year-old woman?

A. I had no clue what was on his mind. I knew what I told him.

Q. Did it enter your mind -- I'm not asking about what was his mind. Did it enter into your mind that you may have thought that he had sex on his mind?

A. It didn't. I mean, something sexual maybe, but --

Q. You're 32?

A. Yes. I was naive, I guess. I had just told him --

Q. Something sexual?

A. -- the night before --

Q. Tell me what something sexual means to you.

A. Maybe it's kiddish, but --

Q. Maybe it's what?

A. Maybe it's childish, but heavy -- you know?

Q. Heavy petting?

A. Maybe. Like -- well, I don't -- I don't even know what I was expecting, but I was not expecting anything sexy or even kissing him.

Q. The word "something" -- the word "something sexual" came out of your mouth; right?

A. But not sex. Not sex.

Q. Well, what was it -- what do you mean by "something sexual" as a 32-year-old woman with a man that you didn't know that well, in his kitchen with a barely covering T-shirt with a rip and pajama bottoms that wasn't yours? What was something sexual?

A. The rip was there. The rip was, like, not showing anything.

Q. What was sexual? When you said that you were thinking about something sexual, what does that mean at that point? You can't be that naive.

A. I'm not thinking we were going to have sex by any means.

Q. As in intercourse?

A. As in any type of sex.

Q. Did you think that you may have engaged in making out or touching each other?

A. No. Maybe over the clothes, that he's helping me up on something or -- I don't know. I wasn't expecting anything. I had no clue what to want.

Q. So over the clothes petting? Is that what you're saying?

A. Possibly. I don't know.

Q. You're not in high school.

A. Maybe I was. The last time I was single, I was. It does sound naive; I get it.

Q. You're intrigued because this guy was different than any guy you've ever met and he was a really strong guy; right? That's what you were thinking?

A. He was very strong.

Q. And at that point, as you go downstairs and you're in this outfit that you changed into -- and you said it was off the kitchen in the bathroom; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you're 100 percent you didn't leave the door open when you changed?

A. Yes.

Q. A hundred percent?

A. A hundred percent.

Q. Because you're not a hundred percent certain of a lot of the things we've been talking about. You would agree with that?

A. I remember looking in the mirror and thinking, What the F are you doing?

Q. So when you looked in the mirror and said, What the F are you doing, you had a number of options at that point; right?

A. Sure.

Q. One of the options is you could have left?

A. Correct.

Q. Walked out the door?

A. Correct.

Q. You still were in your clothes?
A. Correct.
Q. You could have looked at him and said, Oh, wait a second, we agreed the night before that we were just talking about these unrequited feelings. This is not what I signed off for. You could have said that?
A. I could have said many things, yes.
Q. And that didn't even come close to entering your mind because you stayed.
A. I'm sure many things entered my mind. That what the most jumbled crazy thing that I've ever been through.
Q. And once -- not only did you stay, you did go ahead and change into the clothes and start to walk downstairs?
A. Correct.
Q. And it's your story at this point, you walked downstairs, and he said, I'm going to show you how to do a proper pull-up?
A. Yeah. So --
Q. Right.
A. Correct. There's a back story to that as to why --
Q. Well --

A. -- why he said.

Q. You haven't told this back story before, have you?

A. Yes. Anybody who has asked, I've told them.

Q. Well, the grand jury was asking all sorts of questions, and you didn't give us the back story about how you did a proper pull-up; right?

A. So in CrossFit we do something called Kipping pull-ups, which is different than a normal pull-up, but he said, That's not the proper pull-up. This is a normal conversation. He said, Someday I'll show you a proper pull-up. So that was kind of his lead into us going downstairs, so it made sense.

Q. Did it make sense that to do a proper pull-up, you almost had to be naked?

A. I was clothed.

Q. Well, did it make sense that you had to be wearing this particular outfit to do a proper pull-up? No? You certainly could have done a proper pull-up in the clothes that you came in; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And as a CrossFiter, you know how to do pull-ups; right?

A. I do, yes.
Q. So -- and, certainly, when you CrossFit and you do your pull-ups, you wear a bra?
A. Yes. Unless I'm not at my house, yes.
Q. So at this point, as I understand, you see these pull-up rings, and he takes this stretchy gauze stuff -- have you ever seen that type of stuff before?
A. Yes. It's like exercise tape.
Q. And wraps your hands; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And is this sort of similar to what we see in a gym where people sort of wrap their hands to assist them on pull-ups?
A. No.
Q. You've seen that, haven't you?
A. Right.
Q. But he didn't wrap your hands so tight that you couldn't extract them if you wanted to?
A. I mean, I had to rip it down; right? They weren't, like, loosely. It was tight around it. But, yes, I -- it was stretchy stuff, too -- break apart.
Q. And as I understand, once you're now in this position -- and you're now gauzed hanging from a pull-up strip; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Facing him or facing away?

A. Facing him.

Q. And at that point in time, it's your testimony and your claim that he puts blindfolds or you; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And these blindfolds, as I understand, are sort of like people sleep in to get sleep or put on a plane or -- to make total darkness?

A. Right. I -- I don't know exactly what it was. It was something that he put around my head.

Q. But to be sure, that you couldn't see a thing once they were on; right?

A. I mean, I could see up and down from it, yes. But, no I couldn't see anything straight ahead.

Q. Okay. And at that point, had he already said that I want to make you feel good and I want you -- I -- I want to make you feel good, and I don't think you've been taken care of and we don't have much time?

A. Correct.

Q. Well, you knew what that meant, didn't you?

A. Not the sex. If it's -- if that's what you're insinuating, no. I thought he got some sort of fantasy about me, and this is going to be some type of sexy workout that he's going through.

Q. That he was going to make --

A. I don't know.

Q. -- you feel good? That was doing to be a sexy workout?

A. Yes.

Q. And once you're claiming to be blindfolded as you were, and once your hands were on the ring, you said even at that point you in your mind were thinking that EG just wanted to talk; you've said that.

A. Well, I --

Q. You said that.

A. I thought we were going to talk, yes.

Q. Well, you've actually said it in the context that as you were hanging -- are your feet on the floor? I don't know how tall --

A. Correct. My feet are on the floor.

Q. So your hands are essentially gauzed to the ring; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. I mean, you can take them off if you rip them down, but they're on there; right?
A. Right.
Q. You're wearing this outfit without a bra, without underwear, a flimsy T-shirt, at best; correct?
A. It was a regular white T-shirt.
Q. And pajamas; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And now you're blindfolded.
A. Correct.
Q. And even then you had stated that in your belief, you thought you were there just to talk at that time. That's what you've said?
A. At that time, there were a lot of things going through my mind.
Q. Okay. Well, I didn't ask about a lot of things. Among those things, in that condition, in that place, in time, regarding what you were wearing, you made a statement that even then, you thought you were just there -- you were there just to talk.
A. I thought.
Q. That's what you said.
A. I was there just to talk.

Q. So you thought in that position, hanging from a pull-up bar in those clothes, blindfolded, you were then going to engage in this conversation that you talked about the night before, that that's how you were going to engage in that conversation?

A. Not this is how. I had no clue what to expect.

Q. I didn't ask that.

A. I knew what I wanted --

Q. You said that even then, you thought you were just going to talk. Are you standing by that statement, that even in that position in that condition, that you thought that at that point, you were going to engage in a conversation that was promised the night before? That's what you thought? That's how -- that's what you thought? That's how you were going to talk?

A. No. I didn't think we were going to talk right then. I still wanted to, yes, I'm sure.

Q. So when you made statements in the past that even then, KS stated that at this point, she was still thinking that EG just wanted to talk?

A. That's definitely not words from my mouth, no.

Q. Because --

A. I knew that he was being sexual in nature. I knew that at this point.

Q. Right. And that would be preposterous, wouldn't it, that -- for you to think that at that point, that you guys just wanted to talk as you're hanging there and blindfolded?

A. I still wanted to, yes.

Q. I didn't ask if you wanted to. But that would be preposterous to actually have thought that that's what you were going to do at that point; right? I mean, use your common sense.

A. I was not thinking it was going to turn sexual, no.

Q. You've said that a number of times.

A. Like, sex, right.

Q. Well, did you think maybe you were going to talk after whatever sex was going to occur? Did you think that that was a possibility?

A. I was not expecting to have sex in any way, but after this -- or during this -- somehow -- this is why I'm here. Please clarify, yes.

Q. Have you ever had sex when you weren't expecting to? Have you ever had sex?

A. This is the only time.

Q. When you weren't expecting to?

A. Literally, this is the only -- the only time.

Q. You then talk about -- I think you said even at that point, you were still intrigued?

A. Yeah.

Q. Correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So you used the word "intrigued," but even at that point, you're sort of getting excited; right? I mean, that could be another word for "intrigued," yes?

A. I'm not exactly -- I'm not sure exactly. I know that --

Q. Well, how -- what would you call it? Tell me your definition of intrigue. Let's start there, because I don't want to play semantics. Tell me what you mean when you say even at that point, you were still intrigued.

A. I was --

Q. What does that mean to you?

A. -- anticipating what was happening next.

Q. Okay. So you were anticipating?

A. What was he thinking?

Q. What was going to happen next?

A. What was -- because I had no clue what he was planning, what is --

Q. And there was excitement in the anticipation?

A. Correct.

Q. Were you getting sexually aroused? You are under oath.

A. I believe so, to some extent, yes.

Q. Okay. So you're getting sexually aroused at that point; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Was your mind harkening back at that point to any conversations that you may have had with EG about your affinity for the Fifty Shades novels?

A. No.

Q. It didn't cross your mind -- because, as you said, this conversation -- this whole Fifty Shades thing was all over at the time.

A. Right.

Q. You're saying it never even crossed your mind that, Hey, I'm now living out what I'm reading about and what I just saw a movie about? That never crossed your mind? It had to cross your mind.

A. It may -- I -- I would assume it did, to some extent.

Q. Okay. Right.

A. During that first part, sure.
Q. And not only did it cross your mind, you had had discussions with EG about that; right?
A. Not to my memory, no.
Q. But you're not saying you didn't; right?
A. I'm saying I don't recall.
Q. And as it crossed your mind as you're hanging there as this scenario is playing out, you have described that at times -- or at the time that EG appeared to be in character; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And when you describe something as "in character," even with your limited acting background or actress experience, that was like role-playing at that point to you; correct?
A. Kind of. I didn't have a role, no.
Q. Well --
A. I mean, I wasn't talking. I wasn't part of this.
Q. Well, if you -- I -- I understand what you're saying, but, potentially, your role could have been right out of the move that you just saw.
A. I don't know.
Q. Because you just said you were thinking about it at the time; right?

A. I said it very well could have been in my mind.

Q. It very well could have been in your mind.

A. But I don't --

Q. And that would make sense; right?

A. I -- I'm not sure.

Q. Well, given the context and the timing, that would make perfect sense. Would you not agree with that?

A. The timing, absolutely.

Q. Okay. Now, at that point, was it before or after that you're claiming that he ripped your clothes off, did he give you a drink?

A. Before.

Q. And you said you let it dribble out?

A. Yes.

MR. BARNES: Okay.

(The following testimony was read from the first cross-examination transcript of "KS" by Mr. Scott Rosenblum on April 6th, 2018, narrated by Representative Don Phillips and Representative Gina Mitten.

Q. Because it's your claim that you hadn't kissed him the break before behind Starbucks?

A. Correct.

Q. But you're getting sexually aroused. You've admitted that; right?

A. To some extent, yes.

Q. And you had sexual thoughts as you're in that position, yes?

A. I'm sure in nature, yes.

Q. Okay. Certainly wouldn't be unusual in that circumstance to kiss a person in that state, would it?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. So you're just claiming, at this point, you didn't like the method of his kissing?

A. I just -- I had literally never crossed that line. I told him I didn't want to.

Q. Well, you told him the night before, right, because -- let's get something perfectly clear. At no time up to the point where we're just describing the water did you ever say, Stop, I don't want this; I'm leaving? Anyway --

A. Not blatantly. I did 100 percent ask him, like, please, what do you mean? What are you talking about? What is this about upstairs?

Q. Okay.

A. When that jumbled --

Q. That was upstairs?

A. -- quick conversation happened.
Q. That's when -- that's when you changed clothes. We've discovered that, and I know that you used the word "blatantly." You used it a couple of times this afternoon. I'm talking about when you're on that pull-up with your hands restrained with blindfolds on in that outfit, at no time did you ever say, I don't want this?
A. Not up until this point, no.
Q. And you were sexually aroused.
A. To some extent, yes.
Q. And you indicated to him such that you your sexually aroused?
A. I'm -- I don't recall.
Q. And at that point is when your clothes were -- well, let me back up.
I think you said there was another event where he kissed you with water in his mouth?
A. Correct.
Q. To hydrate; right?
A. He tried to put it in my mouth again.
Q. I mean, you would have to agree at this point, it was abundantly clear to you that this wasn't about exercise.
A. I knew it was going to be this kind of hot thing, but, to me, that was, like -- oh, shoot he's thinking that we're going to go past that line.

Q. It was pretty clear; right?

A. This is the first point.

Q. And you didn't tell him you're not going past that line?

A. Not at this point.

Q. And you certainly knew you weren't doing whatever this vision of hot exercise was at this point; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And, once again, you were hydrated. Shortly thereafter, I believe you -- you're saying this he rips off your shirt -- he rips your shirt off with a preformed rip, your pants go down that he pulls. Do you take them down or does he pull them down? You can't because your hands are --

A. Correct.

Q. When you described this to PS -- I mean -- I'm sorry -- to PS you told him that you were turned on; right?

A. I believe so.

Q. And you told him it means -- and you know what it means to be turned on; right?

A. Sure.

Q. And you know when you use those words that -- what they mean? And I'm only asking this --
A. Yeah.
Q. -- because you stated on a number of occasions that you know this was sort of a new event to you since high school that --
A. Correct.
Q. You're not unsophisticated?
A. No.
Q. And you know what it means to be turned on; right?
A. Not that I'm expecting to have sex, if that's what you're insinuating.
Q. I'm not insinuating anything; I'm just talking about the words you used.
A. You tell me. What does it mean?
Q. Tell me what?
A. I know what turned on to me --
Q. Tell me what it means to you.
A. It means that I feel alive; I feel energized; I feel attractive; connected in this moment.
Q. And you were getting stimulated to the point where you were wetting wet?
A. I don't recall.

Q. Makes sense, though, doesn't it?
A. It makes sense.
Q. And once you were naked, you were naked in his basement; right?
A. Correct.
Q. Now, are there windows in the basement?
A. Yes. To my knowledge, yeah.
Q. And the windows lead to what?
A. I have no clue.
Q. You weren't thinking at that point in time as whether or not this is a private place or not, were you?
A. I was not thinking very -- my brain was going crazy at this point.
Q. I understand. But in your crazy thoughts, you weren't thinking if I am in a private location or not, were you?
A. Well, I felt I was.
Q. Well, you know -- okay. So you just changed -- you said that you changed clothes in the bathroom; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And I think you said you're claiming, at least, you closed the door; right?
A. Correct.

Q. And you closed the door in the bathroom because I'm assuming that you wanted to make -- have some privacy as you got naked and changed clothes, right, at that point in time?

A. Correct.

Q. According to your claim; right?

A. Correct.

Q. What did you do when you were in the basement, as you were in that position, to ensure you were private? Did you ask him if anybody has access to the basement?

A. That wasn't on my mind, no.

Q. Did you ask him?

A. I wasn't thinking people could -- yes.

Q. Did you ask him if people could see in the windows?

A. I don't know. I was blindfolded at this point. I was not thinking anything but what was presently happening.

Q. So as you sit there now -- and you said you were turned on and you were sexually aroused, and you may or may not have been wet, he starts touching you all over; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And I think he said he starts touching your boobs; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you said, at least, PS -- to PS that I let him; right?

A. Well, I don't know -- I don't know -- whatever.

Q. So as you were standing -- or standing with your hands in that position, he's feeling all over your body. Is that fair to say?

A. Correct.

Q. And you were still aroused, were you not?

A. At that point -- I know I was both kind of scared and both -- I think there were so many things going through my mind.

Q. Well, we just left where you were aroused to point where you were getting wet; right?

A. Correct.

Q. So nothing really changed, other than now he's actually touching your body; he's touching your breasts; he's touching your vagina; right?

A. I believe so, yes.

Q. You're not indicating to him at any point not to?

A. I was silent.

Q. That's a correct statement; right?

A. I haven't said anything, no.
Q. You didn't say anything. You didn't say stop?
A. I haven't said anything at this point, no.
Q. And he was in that position, manipulating you digitally, was he not?
A. I believe so, yes.
Q. And, again, I'm going to ask you this, and, again, you're under oath: Did he use a vibrator on you?
A. No, he did not.
Q. He did not use a pink vibrator?
A. No.
Q. A dildo? Do you know what a dildo is?
A. Yes, I do.
Q. Did he not use a dildo?
A. No. Not in the basement, no.
Q. No in the basement?
A. Correct.
Q. Where?
A. I believe later when I saw him -- whatever -- a month or two later, he did, but -- no. Not at that time.
Q. With your consent and your permission a month or two later?

A. Later, yes.
Q. And he didn't on that occasion? You're certain?
A. Not even with my permission, but, yes, not that day, no.
Q. Wait a second. What was not with your permission? The dildo?
A. At a later time, I -- we'll get to that, but --
Q. Okay. But on that occasion, he didn't?
A. Right. Correct.
Q. Did you orgasm on that occasion in the basement?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Well, it would be to your knowledge.
A. No.
Q. You wouldn't know?
A. I would know, but I'm saying --
Q. You don't remember?
A. -- if I actually did --
Q. If you actually did?
A. Right.
Q. You don't remember?
A. Correct.
Q. So there's a possibility you did?

A. There's a possibility.
Q. Because you were aroused to that extent, yes?
A. I don't know at this point. I know that I was aroused and up until this point.
Q. Now, I think you said that these blindfolds were such you couldn't see anything in front of you.
A. Anything in front, correct.
Q. Right.
A. Correct.
Q. You couldn't see EG, could you?
A. Not -- no. Not -- no.
Q. You couldn't see him at all; right?
A. I may have been able --
Q. You could feel him?
A. -- to see a little bit below, but -- right. I couldn't see him head-on or anything.
Q. You can't even say whether you could see a little bit below, could you?
A. I am not sure.
Q. Okay. So at that point -- before I leave that subject, you never told the grand jury that in the basement, as you were there nude, that you got to a state of potentially orgasming, did you? You never said to the grand jury?

A. That was never asked of me.

Q. I understand. So, therefore, it was never said, yes?

A. Correct.

Q. And you never said it to the House?

A. I don't believe so. I don't -- unless it was asked.

Q. Well, do you have a recollecting of saying that to the House?

A. No. To my recollection.

Q. Do you have a recollection of saying to the House that you were aroused to the point where you orgasmed or the grand jury?

A. I'm not sure that I did. I just know I was aroused at that point; I do know that.

Q. And then you said the next thing that happens is a light flashes; right?

A. I -- I could feel him, like, kind of step away. I could hear him step away from me.

Q. So you can't see him. He just steps. You could feel him?

A. I could feel him, and I knew that nothing was happening.

Q. So I have a series of questions about this. You never -- how is -- how is EG dressed? Was he dressed to work out?

A. I mean, he wasn't wearing exercise clothes. It was casual, jeans and a shirt.

Q. Jeans -- T-shirt?

A. I believe it was a long-sleeve shirt.

Q. Did you ever see him in possession of a camera or a phone?

A. Not to my knowledge. I didn't see him with it.

Q. Again, did you ever on that day see him in possession of a camera or a phone. That is a yes-or-no answer. Visually see him in possession of a camera or phone?

A. That's, like, a strong memory. Not that -- not that stands out to me at all, no.

Q. Well, you've never ever said it anywhere, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. That you actually all him in possession of a phone?

A. Right.

Q. Right? And as you sit here now, you cannot state under oath that you ever saw him in possession of a camera with a camera or a phone?

A. Correct.
Q. That is a true statement; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And you can't say you saw it on his person; you can't say you saw him put it down in the kitchen; take it from the kitchen; or put down anywhere in the basement. Those are call correct statements, are they not?
A. Yes. I cannot say.
Q. It's fair to say that assuming EG had a phone, you have no idea what type of phone, from your personal knowledge?
A. I do know that it was an iPhone because we had FaceTimed.
Q. Well, you don't know how many phones he had.
A. Correct. As far as I knew, he had an iPhone.
Q. And you never asked him how many phones he had?
A. Well, he -- I knew that he got the one phone.
Q. On one occasion he got another phone, but to your knowledge, you don't know whether, for instance, he had a phone associated with the campaign, a private phone, a public phone? You have no idea whether he had a phone or ten phones; one phone or 10 phones, do you?

A. Correct.

Q. No idea?

A. No idea.

Q. Okay. You just know at one point in your life you FaceTimed him in Arizona and there was a missed FaceTime call, but other than that, you have no other additional knowledge; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Was your phone in your purse?

A. I believe so. I don't remember. I would assume so.

Q. Do you have any idea whether or not you can have -- you have service in EG's basement, whether you can actually get phone service in that basement?

A. I have no clue.

Q. No idea; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Assuming -- any hypothetical phone in this question -- including a hypothetical iPhone -- do you have any idea whether or not he had an iCloud storage available?

A. I -- I have no clue.
Q. Well, you have an iPhone; right?
A. Yes.
Q. And you've been in situations where you've been -- where there's been a warning that your iCloud storage was not available or something to that nature; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. So, for instance, if you take too many pictures, it gets to the point where you can't take any more. Your iCloud storage is used up. You're familiar with that; right?
A. Correct.
Q. You have no idea whether any of his hypothetical phones, including an iPhone, was in that condition, do you?
A. I have no clue.
Q. Whether or not he -- whether or not this hypothetical phone that we're talking about could even take a picture and store it in iCloud, because you don't know the nature or extent of what storage he had; true?
A. True.
Q. And as you know, with an iPhone for iCloud, you have to turn a settling on or off, correct? You have to go into your settings and actually push a button for iCloud; right?

A. I think it's already on, but you can turn it off.

Q. Turn it off?

A. Correct.

Q. So, again, on these -- on any hypothetical phone that we're talking about that may be in EG's possession, including a iPhone, you would have no idea whether that setting was turned off; right?

A. Correct.

Q. You have no idea whether or not there was a setting that would turn a hypothetical phone, including an iPhone, off to access social media, the Internet, or anything of that nature, do you?

A. Correct.

Q. So what you're saying is, at that point, all you can say is you're claiming that you saw a flash; right?

A. And I could hear it.

Q. Well, initially, to the grand jury, you said you saw a flash.

A. Well, I could also hear it.

Q. So now it's your testimony that you saw it and heard it; right?

A. Correct.
Q. Now, you're not any sort of phone expert, are you?
A. No.
Q. And you can't state with 100 percent certainty whether or not this hypothetical -- this flash that you're claiming came from a phone, a camera, or some other device?
A. I know what it sounded like.
Q. Well, again, you're not an expert, are you?
A. No, I'm not an expert.
Q. So you can't say under oath with any certainty whether or not that flash came from a phone, what time of phone, or a camera?
A. I just know what it sounded like to me.
Q. I understand. Again, you cannot testify with certainty that it came from a phone or a camera to start with, right -- the flash -- because you didn't see it?
A. Well, if it was a camera, it would have went (indicating), like you. That makes a certain type of sound.
Q. I understand. But you're making assumptions now, correct, to a certain extent, based on what you've experienced?

A. Based on my knowledge, yes.

Q. But it would be fair that you haven't heard every camera on earth; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Or every phone on earth?

A. Correct.

Q. So you can't state with any certainty as to whether or not that sound you heard or a flash came from a phone or a camera. You can't state that with certainty; right?

A. Correct. I'm just going off of what I -- I knew to be the -- the case.

Q. Well -- so you would agree with me that there's some degree of speculation going on here; right?

A. Just -- I don't know. It was -- whatever.

Q. It was what you thought at the time; right?

A. It was what I felt at the time, yes.

Q. But you cannot say it with any certainty, can you, because you never saw it and you haven't compared it to every other phone or every other camera; right?

A. Correct, I haven't.

Q. And certainly you're aware that an iPhone -- a hypothetical iPhone and sometimes other phones have a flashlight; right?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. A flashlight that can be turned on and off; right?

A. No. Not like this. This was a flash; I'm positive.

Q. But you're 100 percent certain of this? You never saw a picture of you?

A. Correct.

Q. You never saw a picture of you in a state of partial or complete nudity?

A. Correct.

Q. You never, for that matter, saw any picture that you're claiming was on -- was taken by EG?

A. Correct.

Q. And at the time you're claiming that you heard this --

A. Correct.

Q. -- and saw this flash, you never asked to see it; right?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Because at some point right after that, you were taken down, you were on the ground, according to you; right?

A. Correct.

Q. At some point your hands were freed; right?

A. Correct.

Q. And you were engaging in conversation -- or talk?

A. Kind of.

Q. Kind of. But during that period of time, you didn't indicate that you were concerned about this picture that you're claiming was taken?

A. I was -- I couldn't quit crying. I couldn't even explain what was on my mind.

Q. Well, one thing that wasn't on your mind at the time was -- you didn't ask to see the picture that you claim was taken.

A. I couldn't even say anything. I was really so upset.

Q. So, again, the answer to my question -- you never asked to see the picture that you claim to be concerned about?

A. No. I didn't really say anything.

MR. BARNES: That's 301. We're 301 at 7:20. We are tired, I think. Take a break until -- we are noticed up for tomorrow at nine, so we'll resume on 301. We have 190 pages of Transcript 3. Mr. Dowd has indicated that he's going to attempt to get us Transcript 2. We're in the process of trying to obtain Transcript No. 2.

You guys might have seen Mr. Dowd come up here and say something to me early in the last reading. What he said was they've identified the forensic examiner as a witness. I asked him to go see if he could make contact and make the forensic examiner available Friday, and he is available Friday at 10:00 a.m., so we are going to take his testimony Friday at 10:00 a.m.

The other thing -- I don't know if you guys saw us -- myself and Mr. Dowd went into publications to speak so that we could be away from these cameras, and I'll just share, in agreement with him, that my intent in redactions is to do things -- to redact things that involve children, names, or medical information of some sort, and I informed Mr. Dowd of that. I asked him to review the redactions as the documents are made public and to let the committee know if he has any objection to any of the redactions that we've made. And, again, my intent is to stay in those three categories. He said that he didn't know -- and this is right, he doesn't know the redactions that we've made, because he doesn't have the document in front of him, so it wasn't a fair question to ask of him at the moment, but before we have that redaction hearing, I wanted him to make sure he had the opportunity to weigh in on whether something in those -- that we've redacted he thinks should be made public.

If there's no further comments/questions for this evening, we will be here at 9:00 a.m. sharp.

(The hearing adjourned at 7:20 p.m., with the time and location of the continuation agreed upon by all parties.)

MR BARNES By your vote of e ght to noth ng you have voted to c ose th s hear ng br ef y
(Whereupon a v deo was p ayed)
MR BARNES Okay So for the benef t of the members who were not here for w tness one's test mony want to p ay -- we have a c p that we were -- ear er we ta ked about show ng t to the -- both caucuses and dec ded not to because we were concerned that f we showed t to the caucuses then we've got sunsh ne requests for th s part cu ar v deo and we d dn't want to re ease the v deo

The purpose of show ng th s to you now s that the three of you weren't here to see w tness one. And so want that so you can see w tness one, at east th s sn ppet so at east you can see her face. The p ctures that we're pass ng around, three of them were nc uded as exh b ts to a depos t on that we are go ng to rev ew today n wh ch counse for Gre tens asked f t was her. She says no.
A rev ew of the p cture shows -- th nk anyone who saw her and sees th s wou d say that these p ctures are not her. Th s morn ng asked f Mr. Dowd wou d st pu ate that these p ctures were not her. My concern was that there s test mony that w be re eased to the pub c that ns nuates that she s on th s pornograph c webs te, wh ch, un ess we take a vote to say that these p ctures are not her, ets that nger out there and puts the comm ttee n a catch-22 s tuat on; where n, where to d sprove those ns nuat ons, we have to re ease a p cture of w tness one and the pornograph c p ctures of th s woman who has noth ng to do w th th s and so to drag somebody new nto th s.
And so when Mr. Dowd dec ded that he wou d not st pu ate that that was not her, thought we needed to have a c osed sess on rev ew th s v deo and then take a vote that those p ctures are not w tness one

Page 8

MR RAZER Mr Dowd s not go ng to adm t that that's not her
MR BARNES Mr Dowd w not make any such statement

MR. BARNES: We , you get a p cture of her genera body type, and there are some p ctures where you get a c earer p cture of her face.
MR. TRENT: d dn't see those. D d you see that, a c ear p cture of the face? Wh ch exh b t s the c ear p cture of the face?
MR. BARNES: We don't have the -- et's watch the v deo f rst.
MR. RAZER: Can you te us who e se s n the v deo r ght now?
MR. BARNES: Th s s the v deo of the c rcu t attorney's nterv ew w th Mr. T saby, and these hands are w tness one's awyer's hands, named Scott S mpson, and then -- sorry. You guys can't see where 'm po nt ng. These hands are Scott S mpson's hands. (Whereupon, a v deo was p ayed as fo ows:
"FEMALE SPEAKER: guess f rst you need to know how to drink. And he tries like -- he pours water into his mouth and he tries spitting it in mine. I guess I was supposed to kiss him or something. I just let it dribble out. He just stood there. And he did it again, and I still did nothing. I just kind of let it dribble out. And then he started kissing kind of down my neck and down my chest. And then he got to right here on my chest he took the shirt (inaudible) and then proceeded To kiss down my stomach and then got to the pants and pulled down my pants, and then I was just standing there motionless like, oh, my God. I have no clue what s going on. And then he step -- I m still blindfolded and he steps back, I guess. I can hear and see at the same time a flash through the blindfold, and I hear like a phone take picture -- a picture at least. And then he said, Now, if you ever mention my name to anybody, I will put this picture everywhere. I ll put it everywhere I can.

MALE SPEAKER: His exact words were what? I need his exact words. He said -- (inaudible).
FEMALE SPEAKER: If you ever mention my name to anyone, I m going to take this picture and put it everywhere I can so everyone will know (inaudible).
MALE SPEAKER: So everyone will know --
FEMALE SPEAKER: Will know what a little whore you are. So I just stood there and didn t say anything, and he walked over to me and said,

Page 12

So are you going to say anything? And I didn t say anything at all. I was quiet, and then he spanked me and said, Are you going to say anything?
MALE SPEAKER: Your buttocks?
FEMALE SPEAKER: Yeah. And I just said, No, like that. I was seething through my teeth. So then he -- it was as if he was still going to go on with whatever he had planned and started kissing down my stomach again. And as soon as he got to like my genital area, I just started freaking out and started ripping my arms down. I was like, I don t want this. I don t want this. I m not ready for this. I don t want this. And he -- he was like, Hey, oh, my God. Oh, my God. Here. And he was helping me take my arms down as I was ripping them off. And I was like, I'm leaving, and went to go upstairs and he took me in his arms and was like, No, no, [redacted], you can't leave like this. You can't leave. Come here, and lays me down on the ground where I'm laying on his, like, basement floor in the fetal position, and he was like -- I'm crying like hysterically at this point. And he was like, Shh, it's okay. It's okay. It's okay. It's okay. And at this point just really coaxing me like a wounded little animal on the ground. I don't know. That's how I felt. And I just kept saying, I'm not ready for this. And at this point he proceeds to undo his pants and take his -- take himself out of his underwear.

Page 14

MALE SPEAKER: Take his penis out of his underwear?
FEMALE SPEAKER: Yeah. And put it near my face, and I gave him a blow job at this point to finish his (inaudible) I remember. The whole time -- at this point I hate him in my mind. I think he's disgusting. I hate him. I can't believe I'm down here (inaudible).
MALE SPEAKER: You felt disgusting?
FEMALE SPEAKER: I just felt super degraded, really disgusting.
MALE SPEAKER: Did you --
FEMALE SPEAKER: I just couldn't believe that he was still turned on.
MALE SPEAKER: Uh-huh.
FEMALE SPEAKER: And he had no idea how pissed off I was.
MALE SPEAKER: Uh-huh.

FEMALE SPEAKER: But felt like I'm just going to do this and he'll be satisfied that he had his little whore, and I'm going to leave, and I never see him again.")
MR. BARNES: Okay. Just want -- while we have a closed hearing and while we're together and to see the video itself, the entire two hours is available. Obviously, it's going to be hard to get an opportunity to view it today while we're taking a thistestimony, but it can be made available. So, guys, let's have a discussion on the record.
Okay. The purpose of the closed hearing -- we're on the record. We've been on the record the whole time, correct?
THE REPORTER: (Nods head.)
MR. BARNES: The purpose was to take a report on whether the committee be eves these pictures are, in fact, witness one or whether they -- we do not be eve them to be witness one, based on witness one's appearance as we've seen her. And the reason for that is we're about to release this transcript that insinuates that it is her, so

Page 16

I'd like to have a vote on that.
The second thing is, I'd like to have a vote to make the pictures available in the chief clerk's office so that other house members when they come back can see them to -- whatever, to -- but we're not going to -- does anyone want to release these pictures public?
MR. PERSON: Mr. Chair, we're not releasing witness one -- (Reporter clarification.)
MR. PERSON: just asked, we're not releasing witness one's identity or face in the chief clerk's office; is that correct?
MR. BARNES: We are not, which that creates a problem. There's a catch-22. There's a catch 22 here, because in order to disprove the insinuation, you have to release -- this committee would have to release pictures of witness one and pictures of this woman, who very key has no idea that we are looking at these pictures right now.
Discussion on on -- let's start with the first motion, which is that we do not believe this to be witness one.
MR. TRENT: I could suggest an alternative motion, that what we stipulate to is that we have no bas s to be eve that these p ctures are the f rst w tness, that they are obscured, and we a so don't have nc us ve proof e ther way. Th s wou d not be adm ss b e n court, and you cou dn't come n w th some random p ctures w th no foundat on, no ev dence that they are actua y the person. But after ook ng at those, mean, the face s obscured and we're n vast y d fferent s tuat ons. So th nk that there's rea y no way to te conc us ve y e ther way, n my op n on.

HEARING 5/23/2018

MR. PH LL PS: th nk they made sure the face was un dent f ab e when they subm tted t. don't th nk there's any quest on about t.

Now, don't have any know edge of what she ooked ke two or three years ago, whenever that th ng there, or f that's even accurate what t says at the bottom of those shots. But can te you from see ng her n person, she probab y has been about the same s ze she s now her who e fe.

mean, we a got to see her r ght across the tab e from them, bas ca y a few feet away, and she's a s m woman. She's not -- she's not a strong-bu t woman. mean, she's certa n y ady ke, but th s woman n these p ctures ooks ke she's muscu ar. There's not any quest on that she's got some probab y as Representat ve M tten sa d probab y 20 pounds more n we ght

MR TRENT Maybe more than that

MS M TTEN At east

MR PH LL PS She's b gger Now don't know how obv ous th s scar s on her stomach that he not ced mmed ate y but there's a coup e p ctures n there that show th s woman's abdomen area You don't see any scar She's fa r y w de n g rth to me f those p ctures are accurate compared to what K S s mean K S s go ng to be reasonab y s m She's not go ng to be as w de as those p ctures show to me just don't th nk there's any -- any chance that that's K S

MR AUST N We th nk for those same reasons we can certa n y e m nate both those p ctures n my m nd as be ng her from my see ng her n person and refresh ng my reco ect on w th th s v deo both because of her body s ze and because of the absence of a scar around her be ybutton and on some of the p ctures just ooked to me ke the jaw ne and some of her ch n to me ooked d fferent as we as the nose on some But there are a coup e where there's just ke a p cture of the rear end can't say. We , certa n y can't say t s her, and ke a p cture of a th n eg w th a rope around t.

MR. BARNES: So these are the three p ctures that were prov ded n the depos t on. went to th s webs te, to th s person, th s -- that s the screen name. don't want to say t on the record because 'm go ng to have to redact t. And created a of those screen shots of a of the other p ctures, so t was a under one person's dent ty.

MR. AUST N: So does your mot on just go, then, to the three photos you have up there or s t the stack you passed around?

MR. BARNES: t goes to say that th s person on th s part cu ar prof e of th s exp c t webs te, that we do not be eve t to be w tness one based on our know edge of w tness one's appearance.

MR. PH LL PS: And we're m t ng t to those three p ctures you have up there? Because there cou d be other p ctures on her webs te of other women.

MR. EGGLESTON: Because they cou d be a the same peop e.

MR. BARNES: But n the absence of --

that's the --

MR TRENT You're ask ng us to st pu ate to a negat ve that we can def n te y say for sure that none of those p ctures are her as opposed to say ng there's no ev dence that any of those p ctures are her wh ch n my m nd are two d fferent th ngs L ke you're say ng there's ack of any ev dence on the one hand or you're say ng there's ev dence that t s not true on the other

MR BARNES th nk that these p ctures tend to show they're a the same person Whoever that person s that they're a of the same person t's -- t's a pornograph c webs te prof e that has some 55 or whatever p ctures

MR TRENT And you th nk pornograph c webs tes are ke true to mak ng sure that on y p ctures of the nd v dua assoc ated w th that account gets n that account?

MR BARNES t s the nd v dua 's account

MR TRENT And so you don't th nk there's any way that someone e se's p ctures cou d get n there?

MR BARNES t wou d have to be p aced up there by th s person The other photographs are

HEARING 5/23/2018

s m ar enough to the photographs that we know are not w tness one that that s the on y reasonab e conc us on s that th s s the account ho der

MR RAZER Can add? Hav ng not seen w tness one n person the th ng that str kes me about the photographs we're ook ng at s there's a vast y d fferent nose Do we know f w tness one has had p ast c surgery on her nose?

MR BARNES We do not And t wou d be suppose n the ast --

MS M TTEN can say that she has test f ed def n t ve y that she has not

MR BARNES That's r ght We d d read that

MS M TTEN There was test mony -- and be eve that we redacted there was other cosmet c surgery wh ch s a so who y ncons stent w th those photographs who y ncons stent w th those photographs And we're just go ng to have to redact th s because she's test f ed to hav ng a breast job And f you ook at those photographs there's no way that somebody that has mp ants cou d ever have the r breasts man pu ated n that fash on

MR RAZER Just the way ook at t though s -- as the person n these photographs --

Page 22

MS M TTEN Not from persona exper ence

MR RAZER Doesn't have the same nose as w tness one

MR PH LL PS agree

MR BARNES Or ch n

MS M TTEN Or ch n

MR P ERSON Or ength of neck

MS M TTEN Or ength of neck

MR BARNES That's r ght W tness one has a ong neck

MS M TTEN f you ook at those photographs as a who e the ght ng the sort of sk n tone co or there s cons stency amongst those photographs and there's no reason to be eve that -- n my op n on there's no reason to be eve that one photograph -- mean one cheek shot for ack of a better term s not -- s ncons stent w th a of the other attr butes of the scenery and the background n other words f you ook at one of those shots you can sort of p ace that body part or that photograph n the context of a of the other photographs t's just -- or most of the other photographs t ooks to me ke there m ght be a coup e of d fferent --

MR TRENT We , just know the photographs are h gh y man pu ab e, and we're dea ng w th a product here mean, th s s a webs te that se s product and they want that product to be as sa eab e as poss b e

MR EGGLESTON We have better p ctures

MR BARNES That's not exact y the type of webs te that says 'm go ng to --

MR RAZER That's what was about to ask Th s d d not appear to be a for-prof t k nd of webs te

MR BARNES t appears to be ke a Facebook for peop e of a ternat ve sexua tastes

MR TRENT So no money s be ng made, s your content on, on th s webs te?

MR BARNES Do what?

MR TRENT No money s be ng made?

MR BARNES don't know f money s be ng made or not 'm sure they're mak ng some money

MR TRENT We , et me ask you --

MS M TTEN Just one second, Jay There's somebody out there

Page 24

MR. RAZER: We want to make sure no one s ook ng through th s w ndow.

MR. P ERSON: He wa ked away, but there was a d rect shot there, d rect ne of v ew. 'm not ta enough, man.

MR. BARNES: So want to -- Representat ve, et me go through th s. So th s s ke a prof e page ke on a Facebook th ng. You can see the screen name up here, return to prof e, browse a p ctures. There's 55 p ctures that have been posted. Same, same, same, same, same, same. Same at the top. 'm do ng th s for purposes of show ng what -- and when had them pr nt them n the pr nt shop, they d dn't turn out very we .

MR. TRENT: What are you say ng s the same?

MR. BARNES: On the eft. Th s s ke a Facebook -- a soc a med a webs te for peop e of a ternat ve sexua tastes.

MR. TRENT: R ght. But what 'm say ng s we don't know who has access to the account. t cou d be mu t p e peop e. We don't know that the person who contro s the account s putt ng up photographs of on y the same person. We have no nformat on about any of th s.

Page 25

MR EGGLESTON Jay, do we have better qua ty p ctures of K S that we can ook at?
MR BARNES We on y have the one there, so -- and th s was -- you can te here w tness one s not that arge
MR TRENT And some of those appear to have p erc ngs that the others don't have L ke there's a p erc ng
MS M TTEN be eve w tness one a so den ed ever hav ng a n pp e p erc ng
MR TRENT Not every photograph has a p erc ng, does t?
MR BARNES Th s woman s much arger than w tness one
MR EGGLESTON Do you have soc a med a for K S ?
MR TRENT And there's no p erc ng n that shot that can see MS M TTEN But those breasts cou d not be man pu ated ke that MR BARNES th nk there s
MR TRENT s there one over there? Okay can't see
MR BARNES Yeah And to -- augmentat on cannot be man pu ated ke that

Page 26

MR. RAZER: Wou d t burst?
MS. M TTEN: Yeah. Yeah, th nk you wou d -- t wou d ump.
MR. BARNES: So are we done w th our...
MR. TRENT: mean, just the -- don't know. They don't a ook the same to me, but obv ous y not an expert n th s area, so...
MR. EGGLESTON: f we had better p ctures of K.S. or had K.S. herse f, these part cu ar -- these, what, f ve or s x photos of th s mode each show on her neck a mo e and a mo e. Un que. They wou dn't have Photoshopped n these mo es, so they're probab y natura on the mode . So f we had someth ng to compare that to, the who e argument of whether she's ga ned we ght or not or had surgery or not, but wou d say --
MR. BARNES: The fac a structure s --
MR. TRENT: We , et's go back. So one of the reasons we're do ng th s s because an attorney, n quest on ng her, brought up three photographs -- or two photographs.
MR. BARNES: Yes.
MR. AUST N: And asked her f that s her. That s go ng to be re eased to the pub c, and you want t c ear to the pub c that at east

th s comm ttee -- or you be eve and maybe th s comm ttee as we be eves that those photographs that they use as ev dence were not her to d spe any sort of rumors or ns nuat ons or anyth ng ke that?
MR BARNES That's correct
MR PH LL PS So f we m t t then to just those exh b ts that m ght be a tt e b t eas er than say the one sk nny eg that has ropes around t or not don't know f that's her eg or not
MR BARNES Where's the other -- there's one more that has doub e-s ded
MR TRENT What s even the po nt of say ng what our op n on s on the verac ty of th s ev dence to the pub c?
MR BARNES Because there w be an ns nuat on made that these photographs are her n pub c
MR TRENT W that not be made anyway n court?
MR BARNES don't th nk t w because th nk anyone who sees w tness one and rev ews these photographs w say th s s not her And so don't want to perm t the ns nuat on to be made that these photographs are her when th nk everyone who saw her test fy does not be eve they're her.

MR. TRENT: Then why wou d that purpose not be accomp shed by s mp y say ng we have rev ewed the photos and we know what w tness one's appearance ooks ke, and we have no ev dence to suggest that they're the same person, as opposed to aff rmat ve y st pu at ng that we be eve t's not the same person.
MR. BARNES: How about we take two votes? We' take the f rst vote and then we' take the second vote.
MR. TRENT: Fa r enough.
MS. M TTEN: Mr. Cha r, don't know f th s s he pfu or not.
MR. BARNES: Yes, that's a good --
MR. PH LL PS: K nd of bony up around --
MS. M TTEN: Come up around because th s s -- there's no mo es. Look at the bone structure n the face. She test f ed to do ng Crossf t at the t me of the re at onsh p. There's no way a woman that's act ve n Crossf t s go ng to ook ke any of the bod es n those photographs.

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 29

MR. AUST N: We don't know when they were taken, though. mean, do we?
MR. PH LL PS: Those p ctures, don't they have a date on them, these here? Webs te post ngs ke three years ago or someth ng, or two years ago?
MS. M TTEN: t's not a touchscreen.
MR. BARNES: The posts do have --
MR. PH LL PS: She's very th n.
MS. M TTEN: She's pet te and that's not a funct on of we ght. That's just a funct on of body type.
MR. CURCH N: Do you see a mo e up there?
MS. M TTEN: No woman that ooks ke th s who s n Crossf t s go ng to a ow those k nds of p ctures to be taken of herse f when she's got that k nd of we ght on her. wou d th nk most men wou dn't do that.
MR. TRENT: don't see any mo es on th s neck.
MR. BARNES: Oh, come on. Th s says -- took th s -- don't know how ong, a coup e months ago -- not a coup e months ago. A month ago. Th s was over three years ago, was the rep y. Over three years ago. Between three and four years ago --

Page 30

MR. TRENT: So somet me n ear y 2015 or ate 2014 --
MR. BARNES: Yeah.
MR. TRENT: -- was when the rep y happened?
MR. BARNES: When the rep y happened, yeah.
MR. TRENT: We , there t says about three years ago.
MR. BARNES: Come on. Why s th s so s ow?
MR. TRENT: Th s says over two years ago.
MR. BARNES: The rep y says over three.
MR. RAZER: The p cture was posted over --
MR. BARNES: Over two years ago.
MR. RAZER: So now t's mov ng c oser to us.
MR. TRENT: So 'm not even sure.
MR. RAZER: f that says two years ago and the rep y says three, then don't know f the t me stamp s accurate at that po nt.

Page 31

MR BARNES There s no way that s w tness one
MR TRENT hate to say t but ook at her str ngy ha r too A ha rdresser s not go ng to have str ngy ha r
MR BARNES And ook at her stomach
MR TRENT So no don't th nk that's even the same woman as n the other p ctures wh ch s my po nt th nk these are not a the same person
MR BARNES We obv ous y there's an add t ona woman n that one
MR RAZER Go back to the -- one more mean you just ook at the ps n those That's not her
MR TRENT No mo es on the neck The ha r co or s d fferent mean wh ch obv ous y s eas y changeab e but --
MR BARNES So et's take -- my proposa s we take two votes We take an aff rmat ve vote that t s not her We take a vote that that there s no ev dence t s her s that acceptab e?
MR AUST N We mean s the vote for every s ng e photograph that you've pu ed today?

Page 32

MR BARNES We're go ng to vote on the three that we've seen the three that we've --
MR TRENT So the three are the on y ones we're say ng are not?
MR BARNES We yeah 'm prepared to state unequ voca y that the other ones are not her based on that photograph that we have on ne based on what we've seen of her
MR TRENT You're ask ng for two votes one that we be eve w -- so can c ar fy that MR BARNES Yeah 'd ke to g ve --
MR TRENT We guess be abored th s
MR BARNES Let's take a short break Let's take a short break
(Recess taken)
MR BARNES move that the comm ttee f nd that there s no cred b e ev dence that the photographs ntroduced as Exh b ts 16 17 and 18 n the depos t on and used to nqu re of w tness one about a part cu ar webs te were w tness one D scuss on on the mot on D d state t correct y?
MR EGGLESTON Were photographs of

Page 33

w tness one
MR RAZER Yeah t sounds when you read t that s ow y what you're say ng t s her at the end but you're correct when you read t as a who e
MR BARNES th nk t's go ng to have to be a -- t's a comp cated sentence
MR RAZER Yeah t s
MR PH LL PS The f rst part of the sentence states --
MR BARNES How about there s no cred b e ev dence that the photographs marked as Exh b ts 16 17 and 18 are w tness one?
MR TRENT Okay
MR EGGLESTON Are photographs of w tness one
MR AUST N Ho d on Back up After got comp ments they're just ta k ng about exh b ts here and don't have an exh b t st of the depos t on
MS M TTEN don't have t e ther
MR AUST N 've got to make sure 've got the r ght exh b ts t beg ns on page 391 f have t r ght
MS M TTEN And just see --

Page 34

MR TRENT 397 -- 'm sorry
Depos t on Exh b t 16 "Have you ever seen that mage before?" So t's k nd of -- "Can show you a photo and just te me whether or not t's you or not?
"Answer Yes
"Okay " And then he hands her 16
MR BARNES So that was 15
MR AUST N That was on page 397
Exh b t 16
MR EGGLESTON M ne s a b ank
MR BARNES Okay We're go ng to read t n now
MS M TTEN Let me see qu ck y f have unredacted and comp ete vers ons
MR AUST N have unredacted r ght here
MR BARNES Kev n's got t We' just know when we go to that sect on we're go ng to need to read that --
MR TRENT But just want to make sure 16 17 18 and 19 so t's -- are there four? thought we on y had three
MR BARNES There's on y three that were prov ded

Page 35

MR. RAZER: Wou d four be a photo of the hand e?
MR. AUST N: t ooks ke Exh b t 19 they're ta k ng about an P address or ga ned access to an P address.
MR. BARNES: Okay. So et's sk p 19 and say 16, 17, and 18.
MR. AUST N: Do you want to read th s and make sure 'm read ng t r ght?
MR. RAZER: We , hang on. f 19 s the hand e, the name, then we want to say we have no ev dence that that's her as we , that these -- these p ctures aren't her and that that hand e s not her e ther, correct?
MS. M TTEN: 16, 17, 18, and 19 were a photographs. Yeah, we don't have -- we don't know what -- and they're a referenced on or ntroduced on page 397.
MR. AUST N: Yep.
MS. M TTEN: They were reta ned by Ms. Nasser.
MR. AUST N: And those are a photographs?
MS. M TTEN: Yes.
MR. BARNES: 16, 17, 18, and 19.

Page 36

MS. M TTEN: Yes. They are a sted on the ndex of exh b ts as photographs.
MR. BARNES: We ooked at four, s the prob em. We need to note that we do not have 19. We're not aware of what -- and th nk t's fa r to say g ven -- we have no cred b e ev dence of 18. Because we don't have 19, obv ous y we have no cred b e ev dence of 19.
MR. EGGLESTON: We don't have one of them. We don't know wh ch one was numbered what, so ...
MR. BARNES: Okay. So et me restate my mot on.
MR. PH LL PS: Do we need the exh b t numbers spec f ca y n there?
MR. BARNES: th nk that t makes t more --
MR. EGGLESTON: He ps c ar fy t.
MR. RAZER: Do we have three p ctures of a woman and then one p cture that s a screen shot of the hand e of --
MR. BARNES: n the packet that we have, we have three p ctures.
MR. RAZER: One of wh ch s that screen shot?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 37

MR BARNES Yeah
MR RAZER A r ght
MR BARNES They're dent fy ng four exh b ts We have three p ctures They're not abe ed as exh b ts So th nk t's fa r to say we have no cred b e ev dence that any of them are w tness one And we can further state that we don't have one of them There's one of them f oat ng out there and the other but because of the fact that there's no cred b e ev dence of the other three we're comfortab e at th s po nt n t me -- not just comfortab e --
MR TRENT We don't have a p cture
MR BARNES That's r ght
MR TRENT We've got no ev dence
MR BARNES So et me restate The mot on s move that the comm ttee f nd there s no cred b e ev dence that the photographs marked -- that the exh b ts marked as 16 17 and 18 and 19 some of wh ch -- some or a of wh ch purport to be p ctures of w tness one --
MR AUST N Are n fact w tness one
MR EGGLESTON P ctures of w tness one
MR BARNES Are n fact w tness one

Page 38

MR AUST N Are n fact p ctures of w tness one
MR P ERSON Do we need to spec fy that those exh b ts are from the depos t on as opposed to our exh b t numbers?
MR PH LL PS Yes because --
MS M TTEN What f we sa d we as a comm ttee f nd -- what f we make t we as a comm ttee f nd there's no cred b e ev dence -- 'm try ng to -- you're r ght The sentence --
MR TRENT don't be eve we have to say -- we can say there's no cred b e ev dence that the photographs wh ch are dent f ed as exh b ts whatever through 19 are photographs of w tness one
MR PH LL PS There you go
MR BARNES That's t r ght there because that's so hard to -- the pub c sten ng to that s just not go ng to get t
MR RAZER No t's rea y --
MR BARNES A r ght Now we're now on the correct mot on Thank you to the gent eman from Greene move that the comm ttee f nd there s no cred b e ev dence that the exh b ts marked 16 to 19 are photographs of w tness one
MR AUST N Exh b ts 16 through 19

Page 39

MR. RAZER: n the depos t on.
MR. AUST N: n w tness one's depos t on.
MR. BARNES: Those -- how about second sentence: Those exh b ts as dent f ed --
MS. M TTEN: n her depos t on.
MR. BARNES: -- n Vo ume of her depos t on.
MS. M TTEN: Perfect.
MR. RAZER: Yes.
MR. PH LL PS: can te you get pa d by the hour.
MR. BARNES: move -- now, th s s the mot on. know t's the s xth t me we've stated t, but th s s the mot on now: move that the comm ttee f nd there s no cred b e ev dence that the exh b ts marked 16 through 19 are photographs of w tness one as dent f ed n Vo ume of her depos t on.
MR. RAZER: Good job.
MR. PH LL PS: Do you have a comma before as?
MR. BARNES: Mr. Secretary, p ease ca the ro e.
MR. TRENT: Do we get d scuss on f rst?

Page 40

MR. BARNES: Do you want to discuss?
MR. P ERSON: Just you said we get a brief statement if we wanted. Let's -- et's vote.
MR. TRENT: Vote first.
MR. BARNES: was thinking when they came back on because wanted to exp ain why we want to move for it.
MR. CURCH N: Okay. You move that -- the committee finds that there is no credib e evidence that the Exhibits 16 through 19 are photos of witness one as D'd in Vo ume of her deposition?
MR. BARNES: Yes.
MR. CURCH N: President Barnes.
MR. BARNES: Aye.
MR. CURCH N: Representative Phi ips.
MR. PH LL PS: Aye.
MR. CURCH N: Representative Austin.
MR. AUST N: Aye.
MR. CURCH N: Representative Egg eston.
MR. EGGLESTON: Aye.
MR. CURCH N: Representative Lauer.
Representative Mitten.
MS. M TTEN: Aye.

MR CURCH N E ght to zero
MR BARNES By a vote of e ght to zero you have passed the mot on that has been stated and recrafted and recrafted and recrafted and recrafted now move that we go nto --
MS M TTEN Mr Cha r because of th s mot on do need to -- f rst of a d d not ce a redact on on -- m ssed redact on on a page that want to po nt out but we redacted some you know test mony regard ng th s Shou d -- do need to unredact and repr nt those pages?
MR BARNES th nk you do And the good news for us r ght now s t's on page 397 so t's not n the batch we're about to read
MS M TTEN So what page do you want me to unredact?
MR BARNES We --

Page 42

MS M TTEN So n other words there's test mony
MR BARNES Why don't we take a break when we get to that po nt and we can have that d scuss on when we get to that po nt
MS M TTEN Okay
MR RAZER But then we have to pr nt
MR BARNES That's f ne We' just pr nt the new pages And rea y t's on y necessary to make two cop es of whoever s read ng at that part cu ar moment
MS M TTEN R ght
MR RAZER Okay
MR BARNES And eventua y -- everyone shou d have unredacted cop es but we've got redacted cop es n front of us for purposes of read ng Anyth ng further before we open t up?
MR TRENT mean are we go ng to take a break when a the cameras come back n?
MR BARNES Yeah Okay So she w take a short recess to et everybody come back ns de w have a br ef exp anat on of what we just d d and then we w start w th the read ng move we go back nto open sess on
A n favor say "aye "

Page 43

(Co ect ve "aye" responses.)
MR. BARNES: A opposed, "no."
(Recess taken.)
MR. BARNES: We are back n from c osed sess on fo owed by a short recess. As prom sed, we' exp a n why we c osed the sess on. There's a part of th s depos t on n wh ch Mr. Rosenb um, counse for Gre tens, asks w tness one about certa n photographs that are present on a webs te that s some sort of soc a med a webs te of a pornograph c nature, and we want -- the comm ttee has seen w tness one's appearance, and eav ng that out n the open w thout some sort of d scuss on by the comm ttee of whether those photographs, n fact, are w tness one, wou d have a owed for the ns nuat on to be made that they m ght have been w tness one or that there was some ev dence that they were w tness one.
So the purpose of c os ng the hear ng was to rev ew those photographs and compare them w th photographs of w tness one and dec de what the comm ttee wou d do before we re ease that part of the depos t on, est there be any confus on or ns nuat ons for wh ch there s no ev dence. So the comm ttee voted and unan mous y adopted the fo ow ng statement, that there s no cred b e ev dence that the exh b ts marked 16 to 19 are photographs of w tness one as dent f ed n Vo ume of her depos t on.

And prom sed -- some representat ves fe t strong y and m ght want to make statements when we came back n, so Representat ve Ph ps.
MR. PH LL PS: Thank you, Mr. Cha rman. We spent a cons derab e amount of t me nterv ew ng w tness one. She was just a few feet away from us. n my m nd, there's abso ute y no quest on that th s s not a representat on of w tness one.
She was a woman of s ender bu d. The ady n these p ctures s cons derab y arger, cons derab y more muscu ar bu d, and so forth. But after see ng her persona y and then v ew ng these p ctures that we used as an exh b t, there's no doubt n my m nd that these are not p ctures of w tness one. Thank you, Mr. Cha rman.
MR. BARNES: Further comments? Representat ve M tten.
MS. M TTEN: 'd just ke to echo the comments of Representat ve Ph ps.
MR. BARNES: Further comments? Representat ve Trent.

"A We he adm tted
"Q We d dn't ask 'm ask ng you what you observed D d you see -- you d dn't see a p cture r ght?
"A d dn't see the p cture
"Q Do you know whether t was a se f e?
"A don't know on y know what he to d me
"Q Certa n y t cou d have been a p cture -- f there was a p cture taken of h mse f of something in the basement, of anything, right? Anything's possib e.

"A: just know what he to d me.
"Q: We , he didn't te you that at the time, did he? Did he te you that right at the time?
"A: That he took a picture, yes, he did.
"Q: And he said that was for you, so you won't te anybody, right?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And this is a so at a time when, according to you, he was in some sort of character, right?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And this character was sort of stepping back and ooking at it, maybe simi ar to a 50 Shades-type character, right?
"A: This was very persona .
"Q: And in 50 Shades, in those three books, isn't there passages where the main protagonist took pictures?
"A: Not that remember where he b ackmai ed somebody or threatened somebody. have no memory of that.

Page 48

"Q You can't -- you used the word -- t's nterest ng that you used the word 'b ackma ed ' And that's what you're c a m ng he sa d, r ght, at the t me? Not that he's go ng to b ackma you, that he's go ng to -- f you ever ta k to anybody or you ever ment on t, that he's go ng to put t on the nternet, r ght?
"A Correct
"Q So you have no -- even f that cou d be true, even f your c a m s to be true, you can't say whether or not that was part of th s character he was n at the t me, can you?
"A Yes
"Q You can't say whether or not he was -- you can't say -- f rst of a , he never used the word 'b ackma ed,' d d he?
"A He was very spec f c
"Q D d he use the word 'b ackma '?
"A 'You w never ment on my name '
"Q Wh e he was c a m ng to you n character, yes? So he jumped --
"A Th s was as h m
"Q Th s was as h m? D d you te h m -- d d he te you 'm out of character?
"A fe t t

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 49

"Q You fe t that he was out of character? Okay
"A The same th ng w th mak ng h m -- ask ng me about my hern a knew he was out of character
"Q So he got out of character prev ous to that when he asked you about that, r ght?
"A R ght
"Q And that's just -- that's not anyth ng that's terr b y s gn f cant; t's just a scar on your --
"A No But remember h m say ng that because t was not go ng a ong w th th s person, who d dn't even know who he was
"Q Do you wear b k n s at the beach?
"A No, don't
"Q You never wear b k n s?
"A No, wear a two-p ece
"Q A two-p ece?
"A mean, wear ke a -- so have a -- one that comes up to here t's ke an o d-schoo , ke, 1940s sw mm ng su t That's the on y two-p ece have, and then have one-p eces
"Q So there wou d never be a p cture of you anywhere under any context post-hern a where you were wear ng a b k n ?

"A Maybe w th my fam y
"Q So the answer s you do wear b k n s from t me to t me?
"A Not out n pub c no But f 'm w th my fam y --
"Q Yes f you're w th your fam y where?
"A L ke when we were on vacat on ast t me be eve
"Q Where were you on vacat on?
"A At ke -- t was a pr vate beach but when went on vacat on w th a bunch of fr ends recent y wore one-p eces
"Q Okay So when you were w th the fam y -- excuse me Once you were w th the fam y on a pr vate beach now th s beach wasn't owned by your fam y was t?
"A No but we had th s t was our pr vate area
"Q But there was other peop e on the beach?
"A Not r ght there no
"Q But they cou d have wa ked down the beach?

Page 51

"A No mean they cou d have but they d dn't no
"Q And you wore a b k n yes?
"A Not -- 'm uncomfortab e w th t yes
"Q Okay But that's d fferent than say ng you've never worn one r ght? Do you see a d fference?
"A d dn't say 've never worn one
"Q We you d d actua y
"A don't typ ca y wear them no
"Q Okay When you have p ctures of you taken -- when you have p ctures taken of you out w th your fr ends mean t's pretty common for you espec a y among g r s to ook at the p ctures and ed t them r ght?
"A Poss b y
"Q And request to de ete them correct?
"A G r s -- mean peop e do that yes
"Q And are you c a m ng that after he accord ng to you got out of character and sa d 'You w never te anybody ' d d you ask h m to de ete t at that po nt?

"A 'm te ng you no just stood there -- just stood there n shock Th s was someth ng fe t fond y of He just sa d th s He just d d th s
"Q We --
"A d dn't rea y fee had power to do anyth ng at th s po nt
"Q Assume -- assum ng accord ng to you and sten ng to what you're c a m ng occurred and after you're c a m ng that he sa d th s as you s t here now you have no poss b e dea as to whether or not that was transm tted anywhere do you? You cou d not poss b y know that cou d you?
"A No don't know
"Q You have no dea as to whether or not whatever he took t w th was even capab e of transm tt ng t to the C oud or anywhere e se? That wou d be a correct statement yes?
"A can't be certa n
"Q Pardon me?
"A can't be certa n
"Q You not on y can't be certa n we just went through a who e st of quest ons asked you that you can't be certa n as to whether or not whatever dev ce you're c a m ng th s occurred on was even capab e at that t me to transm t to the nternet or anywhere e se. That s a true statement, yes?

"A: just know he to d me he de eted t.

"Q: That was not my quest on.

"A: Wh ch wou d --

"Q: My quest on s spec f ca y, once you're c a m ng the p cture was taken, you have no dea whether or not that dev ce, whatever t was that you're c a m ng t was, Phone or otherw se, was even capab e of transm tt ng t based on everyth ng we just went through, r ght?

"A: know what he to d me. know he to d me he wou d put t a over, a over the nternet for everyone to see.

"Q: Let's go back and ta k about my quest on. Do you remember t?

"A: So wou d assume f he puts t a over the nternet, t has to have that capab ty.

"Q: Now, 'm -- d d ask you what you were assum ng? No. asked you what you know. And my quest on aga n s, you have no dea n the wor d, whatever dev ce you're c a m ng that th s p cture was taken, Phone or otherw se, you have no know edge as to whether or not that dev ce was even capab e of transm tt ng a p cture or anyth ng e se to C oud, to soc a med a, or anywhere e se; that's a true statement, yes?

"A: can't be certa n because 'm not certa n exact y what t was, other than my know edge of what t sounded ke to me.

"Q: And even --

"A: And what he sa d.

"Q: And even w th your know edge, we went through a sorts of ssues w th respect to sett ng, serv ce, storage, a those types of ssue, correct?

"A: Correct.

"Q: Wh ch wou d mean you have no know edge as to whether or not that was even capab e, whatever dev ce you're c a m ng t was; true statement, yes?

"A: -- am not sure.

"Q: And at no po nt n t me d d he ever come to you, subsequent to what you're c a m ng happened, and say ng, hey, K.S., have sent th s photo to anyone or any ent ty or any s te, Facebook, nstagram, the nternet? He never to d you subsequent that he --

Page 55

"A: Correct.

"Q: -- transm tted the photo anywhere?

"A: Correct.

"Q: And you have no dea, nor do you have any proof, nor do you have any assumpt on based on everyth ng you know that even -- that that poss b y occurred, do you?

"A: 'm not sure.

"Q: But not on y are you not sure, you have no -- nowhere to po nt to where that wou d even nd cate that there was a subsequent transm ss on. You can't po nt to anyth ng that he sa d, anyth ng that you assumed at the t me, any p ece of ev dence that you were shown? You can't po nt us to anywhere where you be eve there's any nd c a of proof that there was a subsequent transm ss on after that p cture was taken, accord ng to you, accord ng to what you're c a m ng; that's a true statement, s t not?

"A: -- 'm not sure.

"Q: You're not sure of what? Do you not understand my quest on?

"A: -- don't know.

Page 56

"Q: Do you have any proof?

"A: f he took t w th an Phone w th h s C oud on, t def n te y was. To my know edge, he took t w th h s Phone.

"Q: We , we went over that. 'm ask ng a d fferent quest on. Any ev dence n your m nd that subsequent to th s c a med p cture, he transm tted t anywhere? Do you know the word 'subsequent'? After? At some po nt after, that's what subsequent -- subsequent means, okay? Are you w th me?

"A: Yes.

"Q: Do you have any ev dence to suggest that at some po nt after you're c a m ng that there was a transm ss on of that photo to anyone, any s te, any ent ty?

"A: have no know edge of that.

"Q: And accord ng to you, once you're c a m ng that you heard the sound and saw the f ash, accord ng to you, you at that po nt n your story, had know edge, persona know edge that a photo was taken accord ng to you?

"A: Correct.

"Q: You d d not te The House and the Grand Jury about your ack of know edge or a subsequent transm ss on?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 57

"A That was not asked d rect y
"Q We and therefore t was not d scussed true?
"A We f t wasn't asked t wasn't asked
"Q Do you have an ndependent reco ect on of ta k ng to the Grand Jury or ta k ng to The House and say ng that you had no know edge that there was a subsequent transm ss on?
"A don't remember spec f ca y no
"Q th nk you -- at east to the Grand Jury that at th s t me he -- d d he -- when you made th s a eged threat d d he -- are you c a m ng he ca ed you some sort of name?
"A Yes
"Q And what wou d that be?
"A A whore
"Q Now that was someth ng that your husband referred to you as from t me to t me r ght?
"A No not from t me to t me No
"Q We that was someth ng your husband referred to you as "A After th s he was horr b e at sham ng me and say ng mean th ngs to me yes

Page 58

"Q: So before you test f ed before the Grand Jury, that wou d have been someth ng that you wou d have heard used by your husband, yes, about you, yes?
"A: After th s, about me be ng w th h m, yeah.
"Q: And before you test f ed before the Grand Jury and The House or any other ent ty, r ght?
"A: 'm sorry. Restate.
"Q: You wou d have heard your husband ca you a whore before the Grand Jury test mony because t wou d have been r ght after th s; do you understand?
"A: Before the Grand Jury test mony?
"Q: Yes.
"A: 'm sure my husband sa d someth ng to that effect.
"Q: Now, when you --
"A: After th s.
"Q: When you descr bed th s event to your husband, you never to d your husband that he ca ed you a whore, that E.G. ca ed you a whore?
"A: Correct.
"Q: You never d d? You never used that word r ght?

Page 59

"A Correct
"Q That was essent a y three days after th s event
"A Correct
"Q D d you purposefu y om t that?
"A There were certa n parts when was te ng h m that knew he was go ng to ose t He was s tt ng there the who e t me that was ta k ng to h m just gr tt ng h s teeth ke so angry
"Q And so then you chose not to use that part cu ar word r ght?
"A Yes
"Q When he was -- he actua y d d n fact get to the po nt where he k ssed your vag na d d he not?
"A After th s he came up c ose to me And ke sa d n my ear 'You're not go ng to speak my name are you?' And d dn't answer and then he d d t aga n F rst he ke spanked me and d d t aga n -- to me aga n Are you -- 'You're not go ng to say my name are you?'
And just gr tted through my teeth and sa d 'No ' and he came around the front and started

k ss ng down my stomach and tr ed k ss ng me down there and ke freaked out
"Q Now he a ready had k ssed there
"A No he had not
"Q We he touched you there you sa d
"A Yes
"Q And that's when you were aroused and potent a y orgasmed r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Okay And then accord ng to you be eve you sa d that you were a d on the ground
"A Yeah tr ed eav ng was ke 'm -- 'm not ready for th s don't want th s
"Q So you tr ed eav ng?
"A Yes
"Q We he d dn't restra n you d d he?
"A Yes He tera y grabbed me ke a bear hug and a d me on the ground and just sa d 'K S ca m down ca m down You can't eave ke th s ' "Q D d you ns st on eav ng?
"A No a d on the ground and

HEARING 5/23/2018

cr ed
"Q And that's when you were c a m ng that n that state he takes down h s pants and he puts h s pen s n front of you, correct?
"A We , after try ng to, ke, coax me, 'K S , you're okay, you're okay '
"Q D d t work?
"A 'You're okay '
"Q Accord ng to you, d d you ca m down?
"A was st just -- now 'm cry ng
"Q And then you gave h m ora sex
"A Yes
"Q And accord ng to you, th s was -- d d he actua y force h s pen s n your mouth; s that what you're c a m ng?
"A No He just -- -- he was obv ous y st aroused and hadn't gotten what he wanted
"Q We , that's your assumpt on, r ght? You potent a y orgasmed, r ght, dur ng th s ep sode?
"A Not at that po nt
"Q R ght But you had been aroused,

Page 62

r ght? R ght?
"A had been aroused
"Q Okay
"A Prev ous y
"Q Okay And d d you actua y say to h m 'm not aroused anymore?
"A d dn't say anyth ng
"Q Okay
"A was so upset cou dn't be eve -- how do you not know that 'm th s upset?
"Q We th nk what you sa d then s you sucked h m off and f gured that wou d be then he's happy and done r ght? s that what you sa d?
"A Not ke that but f gured he -- he's obv ous y st aroused He has no c ue how fee So he's not go ng to et me go unt he gets what he wants from th s whore
"Q So when you sa d to the Grand Jury ' 'm just go ng to suck h m off and then he's happy and 'm done and can eave so d d that ' wou d that be a true statement that you made to the Grand Jury?
"A Yes But t wasn't ke that yeah
"Q You don't sound -- you don't ke

Page 63

the way that sounded.
"A: However sa d t, 'm te ng you.
"Q: How ong d d t take you to g ve h m ora sex to the po nt of orgasm?
"A: don't know. A coup e m nutes.
"Q: Wh ch you d d vo untar y?
"A: f you ca vo untar y.
"Q: We , d d you refuse?
"A: -- just set there. don't --
"Q: We , you cou dn't have just sat there. You had to go through the movements of perform ng ora sex, r ght? mean, t wasn't the f rst t me n your fe you d d t, r ght?
"A: F rst t me d d t to somebody e se n 13 years. Th s was rea y --
"Q: D d you use your hand at the same t me as we as your mouth?
"A: God, have no c ue.
"Q: Dur ng these two m nutes, you don't have any c ue? 'm just try ng to -- "A: was rea y so numb at th s po nt.
"Q: Okay. But to be sure, you gave h m ora sex, r ght?

Page 64

"A Yes
"Q And he d dn't force you to that's a true statement yes?
"A He d dn't phys ca y make me do t
"Q And you never to d h m no 'm not do ng t? You never sa d no 'm not do ng t?
"A d dn't say rea y anyth ng
"Q You d dn't say anyth ng mean you're not c a m ng for one nstant that he forced you -- forced h mse f on you at that po nt are you? You're not mak ng that statement
"A 'm not c a m ng that he forced me --
"Q Now --
"A -- to put my mouth around h m
"Q You a so d dn't te P S at a about g v ng h m ora sex at the t me on the 24th correct?
"A No
"Q Pardon me?
"A No d d not
"Q So that was essent a y a e at that t me r ght? Certa n y a e by om ss on?
"A That was someth ng --

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 65

"Q That was a e by om ss on
"A -- that kept out
"Q A e by om ss on, r ght?
"A t was someth ng that d d not te h m for h s sake and for m ne at that po nt
"Q Because at that t me t served your purposes, yes?
"A Because at that t me t was rea y traumat c, yeah
"Q And t served your purposes at that t me to keep that out; that's a true statement?
"A At th s -- at th s -- at th s po nt, thought P S was go ng to f p out, and can't even ta k about t r ght now to h m
"Q So where d d you change your c othes? D d you go back upsta rs?
"A went back upsta rs and changed n the bathroom
"Q And when you eft, d d you te h m 'm d sgusted; never want to see you aga n?
"A don't -- don't remember other than gett ng out of there as fast as cou d
"Q We , th nk what you sa d to the Grand Jury s that you were mad and you were d sgusted and you hated h m and that you were embarrassed. Do you reca mak ng those statements to the Grand Jury?

"A: Yes.
"Q: You s m ar y made some -- you made s m ar statements to T saby, correct?
"A: wou d assume made someth ng s m ar.
"Q: And then at some po nt you c a med that you freaked out because your purse -- your keys weren't n your purse, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: But we've a ready gone through that and you wa ked n w th h m separate, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And he d dn't h de them from you?
"A: No, but norma y wou d set my purse down, and then wou d put my keys ns de the purse n the front pocket, so wou d never th nk to grab my keys too.
"Q: You never wou d th nk even f they're r ght next to each other?
"A: No, got out of there so fast.
"Q: We , understand that that's what you're say ng. But you're not -- certa n y you've been around enough to hear stor es of g r s that hook up w th guys and eave tems beh nd so they can see them aga n You've heard of that r ght?

"A That was not the case Not the case at a "Q That wasn't the case?
"A No t was not the case here
"Q Okay Because the reason 'm ask ng s that you c a med that a day ong at work you were try ng to f gure out a way to get those keys and you know you're not supposed to ca h m r ght?
"A Yes
"Q We you get unch breaks don't you?
"A No don't
"Q You don't get any breaks?
"A No take a break wh e my c ent processes for ke f ve m nutes
MR BARNES Sw tch?
"Q He's f ve m nutes away You cou d have knocked on h s door
"A d dn't have the t me
"Q You cou d have made a phone ca from the shop r ght? That wou dn't have been ca ng from your number.

Page 68

"A: wasn't a owed to ca from there e ther. ca ed h m from there the n ght before and he sa d, 'Do not ca me.'
"Q: A r ght. How about th s? How about hav ng a fr end ca ?
"A: 'm te ng you what he to d me.
"Q: just sa d, you had opt ons to get your keys, d dn't you? You cou d have ca ed a cour er, r ght?
"A: cou d have had a m on opt ons.
"Q: But you chose not to?
"A: chose not to.
"Q: Because after te ng the Grand Jury that you were mad, d sgusted, hated h m, and embarrassed, what you chose to do was go back to h s house at 4:00 p.m. that afternoon, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Vo untar y go back to th s man that just -- that you just descr bed n a way that you descr bed, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And you on y went back there -- you stayed for 45 m nutes?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 69

"A Around there
"Q You engaged n add t ona sexua act v ty?
"A K nd of
"Q K nd of?
"A K nd of
"Q We n fact you engaged n ora sex w th h m aga n?
"A No not that remember No
"Q We et's wa k through that okay? You're there 45 m nutes r ght?
"A Correct
"Q That's a s gn f cant t me r ght?
"A Yes and no
"Q And to be certa n and to be sure he was touch ng you touch ng your boobs r ght?
"A do remember that
"Q And you a owed h m to do that?
"A K nd of You wou d have to have been there
"Q We we weren't okay none of us so we have to re y on you
"A wa ked n -- we wa ked n and was extreme y angry at h m and upset And he was just ke 'K S ' t was -- t was back to norma E.G. The guy who or g na y had fee ngs for, and he was so much more norma and was ke, 'K.S., 'm sorry. just kept fantas z ng about you, and just wanted to make you fee good.'

Page 70

And sa d, 'But you took a fr gg ng p cture of me.'
And he sa d, ' know. know. just had to protect myse f, but de eted t.'
"Q: That's what you're c a m ng?
"A: Huh?
"Q: And that's what you're c a m ng, he sa d he de eted t or erased t?
"A: He c a med he de eted t.
"Q: Now --
"A: So...
"Q: So n any event, a these fee ngs that you just descr bed that you c a m you had n the 45 m nutes, they a d ss pate, r ght?
"A: Not comp ete y, no. But they do enough to where he just keeps po nt ng to me say ng, 'K.S., t's go ng to be okay.' And he was ke -- he wou d ke k nd of rub on me aga n.
"Q: He was turn ng you on aga n, r ght?
"A: He wou d start to, and then 'd pu away and just say 'Stop p ease ' And then t ended w th me just say ng or us agree ng -- can't remember how the conversat on went -- that wou dn't see h m ke th s because was --

"Q We what you to d P S about the 45-m nute v s t s that he was touch ng you a over r ght?
"A R ght
"Q A over That wou d nc ude your vag na r ght?
"A 'm assum ng so
"Q And he was touch ng your boobs and you et h m that's what you sa d you et h m? That means consensua correct? Yes?
"A t wasn't consensua t was just -- aga n th s s a hard-to-exp a n s tuat on
"Q Okay We et's try th s Let me --
"A mean t wasn't h m say ng K S et me do th s and et h m do t at that po nt t was just --
"Q th nk we can a agree that n sexua s tuat ons somet mes you commun cate by words and somet mes you commun cate by act ons correct?

Page 72

"A: Correct.
"Q: And somet mes you can nd cate consent by words, wh ch s rare, but most often consent ng adu ts nd cate consent by act ons, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Whether or not they're nto t, correct?
"A: d dn't even k ss h m when came back.
"Q: Pardon me?
"A: d dn't even k ss h m when came back. kept pu ng away.
"Q: We , you sa d, 'He was touch ng me and touch ng me a over, wh ch you sa d was your vag na, 'touch ng my boobs, and et h m.' That's what you sa d, r ght?
"A: 'm assum ng to P.S., yes.
"Q: That's what -- and that's what consensua means, correct?
"A: That means et h m do t. Aga n, you wou d just have to be there.
"Q: And you sa d you were turned on by that n that afternoon, correct?
"A: don't remember that.

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 73

"Q: 'We , no. was turned on, you sa d, about k ss ng. Not rea y. don't know. don't th nk rea y ever k ssed h m.' Do you reca mak ng that statement?
"A: don't reca t, but that makes sense.
"Q: But you wou d agree --
"A: Because he kept try ng.
"Q: And then you were spec f ca y asked, we -- he sa d, 'D d you?' And your response was, 'No, was turned on n the beg nn ng.' Do you reca that? Do you reca that 4:00 o'c ock sess on for 45 m nutes that you were turned on aga n?
"A: mag ne that was aga n.
"Q: Okay. And --
"A: t was tera y the most -- the b ggest emot ona ro ercoaster because wou d back away and just say, 'Stop, stop,' and then he wou d start n aga n w th 'K.S.'
"Q: And you, that afternoon, gave h m ora sex aga n?
"A: No, not --
"Q: No?
"A: d d not.

Page 74

"Q You don't remember?
"A remember that morn ng do not remember that afternoon at a no
"Q s t poss b e?
"A No
"Q That afternoon?
"A wou d assume no
"Q We you're assum ng no
"A don't have any memory of t
"Q You have no memory of t?
"A No And remember be ng w th h m the other t mes
"Q An nc denta y you never ment oned to the Grand Jury that you came back for 45 m nutes d d you?
"A don't know don't be eve -- don't remember what was exact y asked or how that was --
"Q We you to d the Grand Jury that you got there at 4 00 You went through the back door r ght?
"A Correct
"Q Because you c a m you d dn't purposefu y eave the keys r ght?
"A Correct

Page 75

"Q And you to d the Grand Jury that you sa d you were p ssed off r ght?
"A Correct

"Q: Who s they?
"A: Our mar ta counse or and my ex-husband. was not aware of any type of record ng for counse ng, no.
"Q: So th nk you sa d the next event that occurred -- et me -- et me back up for a second.
Your husband asked you on a coup e of occas ons whether or not you cou d ever have sex w th h m aga n, r ght? Do you reca that?
"A: No, don't reca .
"Q: Ho d on one second. We , we spec f ca y asked f you had sex w th h m just before meet ng your husband. Do you reca that?

your husband P.S.?
"A: had been up unt maybe a few weeks before we separated or whatever.
"Q: So you had been up unt a few weeks before?
"A: That was not an ssue n our marr age, no.
"Q: But you had been up unt , say, February?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Unt you separated?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And d d you have sex w th your husband at any t me through the course of your separat on?
"A: Yes, we d d.
"Q: Do you know what month?
"A: don t remember. just know we d d at some po nt.
"Q: L ke March, Apr , May, June?
"A: Maybe. don t know.
"Q: Pardon me?
"A: Apr . m not sure.
"Q: Okay.
"A: don t remember.

Page 86

"Q: And ' ask th s one ser es and we can take a f ve-m nute break, and hopefu y 'm not go ng to go a that much onger. There was a t me when your husband was ask ng about the k nd of sex you had w th -- w th E.G., r ght?
"A: Yes.
"Q: W th E.G. Do you remember that?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And t struck me odd that he wou d -- that he just d dn't ask whether or not you guys had sex or ntercourse. He spec f ca y asked, 'D d he ask you to have sex w th h m?'
And your response was, 'No.'
'D d you ask h m?'
'No.'
And then he asked you th s: 'D d you gu de h m? D d you te h m what to do?' Do you reca that quest on your husband asked you?
"A: No, don't. don't know what -- "Q: You sa d no.
"A: assumed -- 'm not sure. th nk that quest on had to do w th, ke, d d set the boundar es sort of th ng, that -- that's what assume that means.
"Q: We , when he sa d you sa d that he was ask ng dur ng sexua act v ty, d d you gu de h m or d d you te h m what to do, r ght?

"A: R ght. --
"Q: D d you have any part cu ar un que turnons that your husband wanted to know you shared w th E.G.?
"A: No. don't be eve that's what he was ta k ng about, no.
"Q: So you don't know what he was mean ng, what he was say ng, r ght?
"A: 'm not sure what that was a about.
"Q: A r ght. Can we just take a f ve-m nute break?"
MR. AUST N: Mr. S mpson says, "Yeah."
"Q: Okay. We're back from break. just want to back up for a m nute on a quest on w th respect to Mr. T saby. Do you reca te ng T saby that wh e you were on the r ngs, that when you c a med the photograph was taken, that you st had the sk rt on" --
MS. M TTEN: "Sh rt."
"Q: The sh rt on that you r pped?
"A: Yes. t wou d have been around my arms st , yeah.

Page 88

"Q So were your pants st on?
"A They were down No they were at my feet
"Q Were they down or off?
"A They were at my feet yes
"Q And w th respect to the T-sh rt at that po nt you sa d 'So t wou d have been r pped ' but you're c a m ng t had -- that t had been r pped r ght?
"A Correct
"Q So your arms st wou d have been through the arm ho es?
"A Correct
"Q So essent a y your torso wou d have been exposed?
"A mean everyth ng n the m dd e yes t wou d have been hang ng f that makes sense ke the arms wou d have been on What fe t was the sh rt s ke hang ng the s eeves are st on my arms but t was r pped comp ete y open
"Q So you d dn't see t but you fe t that t was open?
"A Correct
"Q So do you know whether or not your breasts were exposed?

HEARING 5/23/2018

"A: -- yes, be eved them to be because when he was touch ng them --
"Q: Consensua y.
"A: -- cou dn't fee the sh rt there.
"Q: And certa n y consensua y at that po nt?
"A: At that po nt, had not stopped h m, no."
MS. M TTEN: Representat ve Aust n.
MR. AUST N: Ask away.
MS. M TTEN: Okay.
"Q: Okay. So mov ng on, be eve that you sa d your next contact was a week or two ater at h s regu ar appo ntment, r ght?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And th nk that wou d have been probab y around March 28th or Apr 4th. Those were both Saturdays. Does that sound about r ght?
"A: Somewhere around that t me.
"Q: Had there been any phone ca s n between that you're aware of?
"A: No.
"Q: So from the afternoon of the 21st --

Page 90

"A Yes
"Q -- you had no contact w th h m unt your next appo ntment?
"A No
"Q s that your test mony?
"A Correct
"Q Okay And you certa n y wanted to see h m when he came n r ght?
"A don't remember exact y how fe t unt he -- remember how fe t when he eft that day at the sa on was happy that he came n after "Q We was that when he came n ear y?
"A No that was not
"Q So when he came n for th s regu ar appo ntment you were happy to see h m r ght?
"A Not necessar y r ght away 'm sure was nervous
"Q We because 'm a tt e confused because you then ta k chrono og ca y to the Grand Jury that essent a y your next v s t wou d have been --
"A The next v s t where there was any contact that -- that's what you're referr ng to, yes. The next v s t where there was any contact was at the sa on wh ch wou d have been after that appo ntment.

"Q: That wou d have been after that appo ntment?
"A: Correct.
"Q: So f the -- f that appo ntment that you're say ng was the f rst t me you saw h m after that afternoon, and that was e ther on the 28th of March or the 4th, r ght, do you reca whether t was a week or two weeks?
"A: 'm not pos t ve. don't want to say.
"Q: Because you ta k about an event, and 'm gett ng ahead of myse f, but you ta k about an event where he drove -- an event where you drove by and you were n the founta n -- on the founta n? Do you reca that?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And you dated that event, wh ch we' get to, n May of 2015. You sa d that was n May, a though you to d Mr. T saby that event, the founta n event, was ear y Apr . Do you have a reco ect on?

Page 92

"A wou dn't have sa d that was ear y Apr 'm not sure exact y the t me ne just know he came n aga n for another appo ntment
"Q Okay And dur ng that appo ntment --
"A And --
"Q And there was -- anyth ng awkward about t? Th s was r ght after you spent 45 m nutes w th h m or a week or after maybe two r ght?
"A t def n te y started awkward t started uncomfortab e and --
"Q Pardon me?
"A sa d t started uncomfortab e yes
"Q And when you say t started uncomfortab e you were st hav ng some of those same fee ngs towards h m they d dn't a of a sudden --
"A They were very m xed fee ngs
"Q They were Your fee ngs of des re and attract on and the perfect man and a of that they d dn't just d sappear
"A They d dn't d sappear but they were tarn shed yeah
"Q So dur ng that v s t t was just a forma ha rcut?

"A Yeah for the most part He stated -- he asked me f had to d anyone
"Q And of course you sa d no even though that wasn't true?
"A Correct had reason to be fearfu
"Q And then short y -- anyth ng e se stand out at that part cu ar ha rcut po nt?
"A He sa d -- he was norma aga n He was k nd He was back to the person who had known pr or to see ng h m at h s house and he -- our conversat on guess was more norma than towards the end of the ha rcut and know he sa d -- ' have to see you aga n When can see you aga n?'
"Q When he sa d ' have to see you aga n ' what d d you say? D d you say want to see h m aga n too?
"A don't remember 'm not sure exact y how that ended
"Q D d you nd cate to h m at a dur ng that ha rcut appo ntment that you d d not want to see h m?
"A don't reca

"Q You don't reca or you th nk there's a poss b ty dur ng that ha rcut appo ntment you sa d don't want to see you anymore?
"A don't remember say ng don't want to see you anymore no
"Q And certa n y you had the opt on of not cutt ng h s ha r?
"A Correct
"Q And even referr ng h m out of the sa on or to somebody e se n the sa on you had that opt on?
"A Yes
"Q Okay And then the next event that you ta k about at east to the Grand Jury s at some po nt he requested to come n ear y and you can't te me whether t was 9 30 or 10 00 9 30 f t was a weekday or potent a y before 8 00 f t was a weekend correct?
"A wou d -- be eve t to be a weekday
"Q So that wou d have been -- he came n ear y around 9 30?
"A Correct
"Q And you knew he was go ng to come

Page 95

n ear y?
"A Around that t me
"Q R ght
"A Correct
"Q And that was okay w th you r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And the purpose of com ng n ear y was to spend some a one t me w th h m?
"A Correct
"Q Outs de of A the pub c v ew and B anybody n the shop because you had access to the shop r ght?
"A K nd of had to go to the front desk to get the keys f was go ng to come n ear y for my c ents
"Q But you had the keys r ght?
"A That morn ng went to the front desk and got them beforehand yes
"Q Was anybody e se there?
"A Not for 15 m nutes or whatever
"Q Poss b y onger? 30 m nutes?
"A wou d say -- wou d say not much onger than 15 m nutes no
"Q And when d d you have a conversat on w th E G about arrang ng to come n ear y?

"A don't remember spec f ca y 'm not sure just know that that happened
"Q So do you reca whether t was by ema or whether t was by te ephone?
"A No don't reca
"Q Now when you came -- was he wa t ng for you n the ha before enter ng?
"A don't reca 'm not sure
"Q We he cou dn't have gotten n?
"A Correct
"Q You had the key?
"A Correct
"Q D d you go through th s -- you go nto the sa on and you guys are the on y ones there?
"A Yes
"Q And you embrace? You k ss?
"A We d d
"Q And you k ssed th nk you descr bed t as w fu y?
"A Correct
"Q You made out?
"A Correct
"Q Because you were that attracted to h m?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 97

"A: Because, yes, wanted to.
"Q: Of course. R ght. mean, he d dn t force you to, correct?
"A: No, d d not fee forced.
"Q: You k ssed?
"A: At th s t me.
"Q: You k ssed h m pass onate y?
"A: k ssed h m, yes.
"Q: Mak ng out pass onate y?
"A: -- yes, we were k ss ng.
"Q: And at some po nt you moved to a c oset to be out of pub c v ew even for -- "A: t s not a c oset, but t s a back room.
"Q: We , t s a back room where you keep dye, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And you made that cho ce, correct, to go nto that c oset?
"A: mag ne we made that cho ce, yes.
"Q: Aga n, for further pr vacy?
"A: Yes.
"Q: Because you were mak ng out, r ght?

Page 98

"A Correct
"Q You cont nued to make out n the back room?
"A Correct
"Q And n fact n the back room you p easured each other? You're under oath
"A R ght We were fu y c othed So yes there was hands and stuff ke that f that's what you're referr ng to
"Q We 'm referr ng to that
"A Sure
"Q But t was more than hands mean he put h s hands n your pants and p easured you on your vag na
"A To some extent but we d dn't have that much t me so t wasn't ke -- we both stayed fu y c othed guess s the po nt
"Q Okay Aga n d dn't ask that d d ? My quest on s wh e you were n the back room n a secure pr vate area you p easured each other for a per od of t me yes?
"A Yes
"Q He p aced h s hand on your bare vag na for a per od of t me?
"A As far as remember yes know that.

"Q: And he d d so n a way to try and arouse you to orgasm --
"A: --
"Q: -- as you k ssed?
"A: Yes, wou d mag ne so.
"Q: And d d you orgasm on that occas on?
"A: don t know. Not that reca . -- cou d have, but -- "Q: Cou d have?
"A: But not that reca .
"Q: And at the same t me he was do ng that, you were p easur ng h m?
"A: cou d have been touch ng h m, yes.
"Q: We , cou d you have g ven h m ora sex n that room?
"A: No, d d not.
"Q: Are you certa n?
"A: m certa n, yes.
"Q: So when you were touch ng h m, were you touch ng h m bare pen s?
"A: mag ne so.
"Q: And to touch h s bare pen s, you

Page 100

unbutton h s pants?
"A don't know f he d d or d d 'm not sure
"Q But they were unbuttoned?
"A mag ne so
"Q And d d they -- were they moved down?
"A Not that remember
"Q And once you touched h s bare pen s d d you do so n a way to try and arouse h m and cause h m to ejacu ate?
"A don't remember
"Q We mean --
"A just know we d dn't have very ong know that we were mak ng out n the back and --
"Q And he was d g ta y penetrat ng you and you were essent a y strok ng h s pen s?
"A To some extent yes
"Q We understand you're say ng 'to some extent ' 'm not ask ng you to t me t but those events were occurr ng correct?
"A Correct
"Q And they were occurr ng consensua y and vo untar y correct?

"A: Correct.
"Q: And d d you br ng h m to orgasm?
"A: don't remember.
"Q: s t poss b e?
"A: Maybe.
"Q: And then once you comp eted that sexua encounter, you essent a y put on a d fferent face, so to speak, and went out about do ng your job of cutt ng h s ha r and others?
"A: mean, wasn't ke that a day, f that's what you're referr ng to. mag ne once you f n sh sexua act v ty, you don't cont nue a day ong.
"Q: You got yourse f back together, correct?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Now, 'm cur ous as to why you never ment oned any of th s to T saby.
"A: -- mag ne d d st , but have no c ue what he remembers and what he doesn't remember.
"Q: We , are you say ng you spec f ca y reca ment on ng th s sexua encounter to T saby?
"A: be eve so, yes.

Page 102

"Q We you d dn't ment on t to the Grand Jury d d you?
"A Yes that we made out n the sa on
"Q We what you sa d was ' d d k ss h m w fu y at the t me when he came n ' r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And the next quest on was 'and so after that d d you have occas on to see h m aga n or d d you -- d d he make arrangements to see you aga n?' And then you go nto essent a y the next t me that you saw h m r ght?
"A Correct
"Q So we can estab sh for certa n that th s sexua act v ty wh e you were man pu at ng each other and try ng to arouse each other to orgasm was never ment oned to the Grand Jury?
"A t wasn't asked spec f ca y what happened or anyth ng no
"Q We what do you th nk you were there test fy ng about? You ment oned that you k ssed h m w fu y
"A Yes

Page 103

"Q Okay
"A My po nt say ng that was that t me prev ous y had not k ssed h m w fu y hadn't consensua y --
"Q We et me ask you th s --

"Q You've answered And aga n you know we've estab shed that wasn't sa d to the Grand Jury r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And t wasn't sa d to The House e ther r ght?
"A 'm not sure f that was asked
"Q And not ced that n response to a ser es of these quest ons that you d dn't say t to The House or you d dn't say t to the Grand Jury You respond by say ng ' 'm not sure whether or not t was asked ' r ght?
"A Correct
"Q We've had severa breaks here as we've gone on r ght?
"A Correct
"Q Have you had d scuss ons w th the c rcu t attorneys regard ng how th s depos t on s proceed ng?

Page 104

"A: Not at a , no.
"Q: There was no d scuss on about how to respond to some of these quest ons?
"A: No.
"Q: Was there ever a quest on about respond ng by say ng you weren't asked?
"A: No.
"Q: So you don't th nk t was s gn f cant when you were test fy ng n front of the Grand Jury that you w fu y k ssed h m to add to the grand jurors and adv se the grand jurors that you engaged n sexua , consensua , pass onate contact where you each touched each other's, we , vag na and pen s? You don't th nk that was maybe re evant nformat on, g ven that one of the ast th ngs you sa d to the Grand Jury before that s that you eft or at some po nt on the 21st you hated h m and you were d sgusted and you were embarrassed? You don't th nk t wou d have been s gn f cant to te these grand jurors that w th n a coup e weeks, you are essent a y engag ng n very consensua act v ty?
"A: No.
"Q: Do you th nk that wou d have had some re evance?

HEARING 5/23/2018

"A mean f -- f somebody -- or f was to d K S go K S go nto deta about every s ng e encounter at any t me you ta ked to h m any t me that you saw where were h s hands you know t's --
"Q Let me --
"A That's not how v ewed th s
"Q Let me ask you th s
"A And sorry To go back as we d dn't say eft hat ng h m and then that was t After that f rst t me sa d when went back he d d smooth over th ngs to some extent d dn't eave hat ng h m that day eft extreme y confused and rea y n a d ff cu t we rd p ace
"Q Before you test f ed before the Grand Jury d d you te Ms Gardner about th s sexua encounter n the broom -- n the dye c oset?
"A don't know when to d her about t But know we ta ked about t or we d scussed t
"Q You can't --
"A Yes
"Q -- te me when you asked about t when you ta ked about t? You can't te me whether t was before or after the Grand Jury?

Page 106

And -- and t's just a po nt of reference
"A Sure
"Q mean you d dn't say anyth ng to T saby t doesn't appear un ess he d dn't wr te t down?
"A R ght don't know what he wrote down d dn't wr te -- or d dn't wr te down but whatever remembered to d her
"Q But you can't te me whether you to d her that before you test f ed before the Grand Jury about the broom c oset the dye c oset?
"A We that was part of t so assume so sa d he came nto my sa on yeah so assume "Q Okay So you be eve that you had prov ded that nformat on to Ms Gardner before you test f ed n the Grand Jury that you had had th s sexua encounter n the c oset you be eve that you test f ed that you to d that to Ms Gardner?
"A Yes
"Q And you understand she was the one ask ng the quest ons of you n front of the grand jurors?
"A Yes
"Q And she never asked you that quest on?
"A We because sa d that t happened
"Q She never asked you after you sa d you w fu y k ssed h m whether there was any add t ona sexua contact? can show you the transcr pt
"A R ght
"Q She never asked you that?
"A mean no she d dn't
"Q The next occas on that you spoke about was when you were s tt ng at th s founta n correct?
"A Correct
"Q And he dr ves by and he says -- we et me ask you th s n reference to the sexua encounter that you had n your sa on wh ch th nk we can put t what at some po nt n Apr wou d that make sense?
"A Maybe the end of Apr
"Q Okay So then n -- at some po nt n May you're s tt ng outs de of your sa on read ng on what mag ne wou d be a break of some sort r ght?
"A Correct

Page 108

"Q: So do you get breaks?
"A: f don't have a c ent, but on Saturdays n part cu ar, don't.
"Q: And you were s tt ng at that founta n, wh ch th nk s r ght n front of, what, Scape?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And he dr ves by and asks f you can come over that n ght, r ght, or that day?
"A: Correct.
"Q: But that was actua y a day where you spent some s gn f cant t me w th h m, d dn't you?
"A: No, not that day.
"Q: What day was t?
"A: That wou d have been the Saturday or whatever day that was at n ght. t was k nd of ate at n ght, you know, 9:00 p.m. or whatever. That t me, no, wasn't there for a very ong t me.
"Q: Pardon me?
"A: That t me was not there for a very ong t me.
"Q: You d dn't spend a ot of t me ta k ng to h m?
"A: Not that n ght, no.

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 109

"Q How much t me were you over at h s house on that part cu ar n ght after you met h m at the sa on?
"A 'm not sure Less than an hour t wasn't a ong t me
"Q So you wa ked over?
"A Correct
"Q And you entered through the back door?
"A Yes
"Q D d you knock or just wa k n?
"A don't remember
"Q Poss b y you just wa ked n?
"A don't remember
"Q Wou d t be fa r to say you were gett ng more comfortab e around E G at th s t me?
"A No -- more comfortab e than the f rst t me f that's what you're referr ng to but no
"Q And certa n y -- and to be certa n on that occas on you engaged n consensua ora sex r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And he had ora sex w th you as we ?

Page 110

"A Correct
"Q So the two of you on that day you gave h m ora sex unt he c maxed and then he gave you ora sex unt you c maxed?
"A Correct
"Q And he -- do you know how many t mes he --
"A No have no c ue
"Q More than once?
"A Poss b y
"Q And certa n y dur ng those per ods of sexua act v ty at h s house on that occas on you were both comp ete y nude correct?
"A be eve so yes
"Q Okay And the ghts were on you cou d see each other?
"A Yes
"Q You fe t comfortab e enough around h m to be nude n front of h m and engage n ora sex and have h m rec procate on you correct?
"A At th s po nt yes "
MR AUST N Ready? Back to the transcr pt
"Q Now th s -- now was th s about the t me where -- so th s s n May at some po nt correct?

"A Correct be eve t to be
"Q And you say there was yet another occas on?
"A Correct
"Q And th s wou d have been when do you know? June?
"A Correct The end of June
"Q And th s s when you were adv sed of the fact he had a phone of some sort?
"A Yes
"Q And who contacted whom or how was th s next arrangement?
"A don't remember exact y mean don't remember other than h m te ng me h s w fe s go ng to be out of town for a week want to see you as much as can When -- when are you ava ab e But don't remember was that -- be eve that was at h s appo ntment or don't know 'm not -- 'm not sure just know that knew ahead of t me at east a few weeks ahead of t me that h s -- that th s was the case
"Q Do you know how many t mes you saw h m that week?
"A Tw ce yes

Page 112

"Q And both t mes at h s house?
"A Correct
"Q Was that on one of the occas ons where you actua y c a med that you worked out?
"A Yes correct
"Q Okay So the f rst t me that you -- that you came that part cu ar week -- et me back up one second D d you te The House the fact that you engaged n that he engaged n ora sex w th you on that occas on and that you were comp ete y nude w th h m and that you fe t comfortab e be ng nude w th h m at that po nt? D d you te that to The House?
"A be eve sa d we engaged n consensua ora sex yes
"Q And the t me now where you say that you went over when you were adv sed that h s w fe was go ng to be out of town th s you're say ng was th s June? And --
"A At the end of June
"Q So th s t me was th s the t me you stayed a s gn f cant per od of t me?
"A was there -- we don't remember the spec f c amount of t me but fee ke that t me and the t me n the morn ng were more

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 113

t me We had more t me than we d d the other t mes yes
"Q Okay We wh ch t me n the morn ng?
"A When we worked out
"Q So the next t me --
"A The ast t me correct
"Q After th s? Okay So et's ta k about th s t me How many hours d d you spend w th h m on th s occas on n June?
"A R ght 'm not exact y sure -- sure exact y but wou d -- wou d say t was more t me than the other t mes Not hours and hours or anyth ng ke that but et's say --
"Q A coup e hours? Severa hours?
"A No ess Or no more than two hours no
"Q And -- wou d assume that there was a ot of -- because you haven't seen each other that much a ot of fond ng and touch ng and k ss ng ke most peop e do r ght?
"A Correct
"Q You just d dn't s t there and watch TV? You d dn't have that much t me r ght?
"A R ght We d dn't watch TV

"Q And dur ng the fond ng and k ss ng and touch ng, at some po nt that ed to another sexua encounter, r ght?
"A Yes, be eve so
"Q And where d d th s take p ace?
"A n a spare bedroom that he has "Q And d d you wa k upsta rs naked? Had you undressed on the couch?
"A don't be eve so, no
"Q D d you start to undress on the couch?
"A 've never been on h s couch, so, no
"Q D d you start to undress downsta rs?
"A Not that remember, no
"Q D d you undress yourse f when you went upsta rs?
"A don't remember don't know
"Q You don't -- you don't remember how your c othes came off?
"A No, because don't even know f my c othes were fu y off rea y don't remember "Q So what type of sexua act v ty d d you engage n on that occas on?

Page 115

"A be eve to be ora sex fond ng stuff ke that
"Q D g ta man pu at on w th h s f ngers?
"A Yes be eve so
"Q Okay And d d you -- d d you reach orgasm dur ng that t me?
"A can't say for sure 'm not sure
"Q And th s s the occas on be eve you sa d that there was a -- he stopped and asked f you were hav ng sex w th anybody e se r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And you ment oned your husband?
"A Correct
"Q But you were separated r ght?
"A Correct But knew had s ept w th h m at some po nt Not sure when
"Q You can't say when?
"A Yeah
"Q You can't even say for certa n -- certa n whether t was before or after th s ep sode r ght?
"A 'm sorry? What?

"Q: Before or after th s encounter w th E.G., you can't say whether or not you had s ept w th your husband aga n dur ng th s separat on?
"A: We , know d d afterwards once we were back together, but, no, had -- had s ept w th h m pr or to th s.
"Q: Dur ng the separat on?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And that's where you're c a m ng that he responded by gett ng angry and s app ng you?
"A: Yes.
"Q: We , you d dn't eave r ght then, d d you?
"A: No.
"Q: And you -- th s a eged s ap that you're c a m ng a dur ng th s per od of t me, you're conf d ng n your fr end [redacted], are you not?
"A: Yes, was. But not every day or not te ng her, you know, every s ng e deta of everyth ng, but, yes.
"Q: Was there anybody e se you were conf d ng n as you were go ng through these events?
"A: Yes. My fr end [redacted].

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 117

"Q [Redacted]
"A Who --
"Q Your quas representat on?
"A R ght
"Q So 'm cur ous as to why you d dn't te your fr end [redacted] about th s c a med s ap f t was so --
"A Because t was embarrass ng 've never ever been s apped n my fe not by a g r not by a guy not by anybody not by my dad
"Q So noth ng e se that you were te ng [redacted] seemed to be embarrass ng to you except the fact that you're c a m ng that he s apped -- s apped you so you don't te her?
"A We at that po nt t was super embarrass ng because -- "Q So that was a d fferent eve of embarrassment so you cou dn't --
"A Yes
"Q -- to br ng yourse f to te one of your best fr ends that he s apped you?
"A Yes
"Q Was that the on y deta you eft out?
"A That remember yes the phys ca stuff

Page 118

"Q On y that deta ?
"A The phys ca stuff yes
"Q So at what po nt n your h story w th [redacted] d d t -- d d you have th s moment where you dec ded to te her about the fact that on th s part cu ar encounter you were s apped?
"A When she confronted me
"Q Pardon me?
"A When she confronted me because she heard t n the news
"Q She heard t on the news and she d dn't confront you unt 2018 r ght?
"A Correct
"Q Do you know who prov ded that nformat on to the news?
"A Yes
"Q Who was that?
"A My ex-husband
"Q Dur ng the tape?
"A No because that wou d have happened after that
"Q Correct So how -- who -- how d d -- n what form d d that nformat on get d ssem nated to the news to your know edge?

Page 119

"A Because he to d them guess
"Q To d who?
"A We whoever have no c ue
"Q Do you know that or are you specu at ng?
"A 'm specu at ng That's -- he's the on y one that remember te ng other than be eve to d my fr end [redacted]
"Q [Redacted] But you're not certa n of that e ther?
"A don't remember spec f ca y remember P S asked me that spec f c quest on when we were back together
"Q He asked you f he -- f he ever s apped you?
"A Was there ever any phys ca v o ence? D d he touch you?
"Q When d d he -- he d dn't ask you that on the 24th?
"A When we were back together When we were back together
"Q So when you got back together and then once you got back together and you were -- wou d -- wou d mag ne you got back nto P S or P S 's good graces correct?

Page 120

"A Yes
"Q And wou d t be fa r to say poss b y dur ng that per od of t me you were portray ng yourse f to P S as more of a v ct m?
"A No rea y wasn't v ew myse f as a horr b e person
"Q Okay But you were try ng to portray yourse f n -- n any way as a v ct m or taken advantage of as you were try ng to resurrect your re at onsh p w th P S wh ch at that po nt had been broken?
"A No because d dn't want h m to go after E G
"Q And --
"A d dn't want to be where 'm at r ght now No d d not
"Q And then once you're confronted n 2018 by [redacted] that's the f rst t me she had ever heard of any a eged s ap r ght?
"A Correct
"Q Even though you had prov ded her w th a most every other deta n your re at onsh p w th E G ?
"A don't remember a the deta s that d d but was pretty -- we ta ked you know

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 121

qu te a wh e a b t about everyth ng --
"Q And --
"A -- w th P S too
"Q Then there was another occas on that week And was that another occas on where you spent some s gn f cant t me?
"A Yes
"Q And you shared a ot of nformat on pr vate nformat on w th h m correct at that t me?
"A At t mes be eve so
"Q And th nk you ta ked about where you went to schoo [redacted]?
"A Correct
"Q You ta ked about what your career goa s were your major the fact you wanted to go back to schoo prob ems w th your marr age correct?
"A Correct "
MR PH LL PS Then we have a redacted port on from nes 11 through 23
"A No don't remember that
"Q But you're not say ng t d dn't happen?
"A No f t was n the tape yeah

Page 122

"Q So mean, you were c ose enough to E G at that po nt that you're shar ng some very, very nt mate deta s of your fe, r ght?
"A Yes be eve to d h m that at that po nt and not pr or to the ema
"Q And at that po nt, even though you're c a m ng th s, that he start ed you by s app ng you, you certa n y -- that certa n y d dn't prevent you from return ng to h s home short y thereafter, correct?
"A Correct
"Q Because the sex that you had w th h m was enjoyab e? You enjoyed t? You were attracted to h m?
"A There were -- there were many reasons
"Q R ght?
"A There was -- there were many reasons
"Q Nobody was forc ng you to go over there, r ght?
"A Correct
"Q Nobody was forc ng you to engage t consensua sex w th h m, correct?
"A Correct

Page 123

"Q: Nobody was forc ng you to have ora sex w th h m to rec procate, and he rec procated on you, r ght?
"A: Yes, th s was --
"Q: A that other stuff was -- was enjoyab e to you and you were attracted to h m?
"A: Some of t was, yes.
"Q: Okay. You chose to go over aga n for another occas on that week where --
"A: R ght.
"Q: -- S.G. was out of town, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: That was n the morn ng before work, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And you knew at that po nt that you were go ng to work out, supposed y?
"A: Yes.
"Q: R ght? So you d d arr ve n workout c othes?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And you a so knew there was go ng to be some sexua act v ty nvo ved, g ven what's been go ng on w th the two of you, r ght?
"A: No, d dn't know. But

Page 124

d dn't --
"Q t wou d be a og ca assumpt on?
"A Correct
"Q And when you wa ked n that day be eve that E G was a ready downsta rs work ng out?
"A Yes that's correct
"Q And you wa ked n and you et yourse f n the back door correct?
"A be eve that he to d me to yes
"Q But you wa ked n r ght?
"A Yes he to d me to
"Q And you wa ked downsta rs correct?
"A Yes he to d me to
"Q You wa ked understand but you wa ked through h s home correct?
"A Correct
"Q And as you got downsta rs do you reca comment ng to h m that th s fee s rea y norma and natura for you now?
"A No don't reca that
"Q But t's not unusua for you to have sa d that because you're fee ng pretty comfortab e that you just wa k nto h s house You

"A He to d me to though
"Q We okay get t
"A wou dn't have just come n
"Q But you d d r ght?
"A Yes after he to d me to
"Q Wa ked through And you were fee ng norma and natura w th h m ke you were n a re at onsh p?
"A That was not a norma and natura re at onsh p
"Q d dn't say t was
"A No d d not fee ke that
"Q We because he was marr ed
"A Because he was marr ed was n the m dd e of my stuff yes No that was not norma
"Q But you had -- however you want to def ne t at that po nt you had an ongo ng re at onsh p w th h m?
"A To some extent yes That was -- "Q understand you ke to c ar fy th ngs by us ng the term 'to some extent ' but you had an ongo ng re at onsh p w th h m correct?

Page 126

"A We d dn't ta k -- -- to me v ew a re at onsh p as be ng two peop e who are commun cat ng regu ar y and they're see ng each other regu ar y saw h m tera y a handfu of t mes
"Q And when you wou d see --
"A We can on y -- commun cated a handfu -- you know what mean?
"Q And when you wou d see h m you were essent a y hook ng up w th h m and hav ng sex w th h m or engag ng n sexua act v ty?
"A Yes that occurred
"Q And even on that occas on where you worked out you d dn't rea y work out a that much d d you?
"A We went through a who e workout yeah
"Q You a so had sex?
"A Yes we engaged n sexua act v ty
"Q You had ora sex w th h m?
"A Correct
"Q And he had -- he had ora sex w th you?
"A Correct

Page 127

"Q: A so at some po nt, he brought you to orgasm by us ng h s hands or h s f ngers, correct, when you were n, quote-unquote, a doggy sty e?
"A: don't remember that.
"Q: A doggy-sty e pos t on?
"A: don't remember spec f ca y that, no.
"Q: You don't remember say ng that you were n a doggy-sty e pos t on?
"A: remember say ng that, yes.
"Q: Okay. Was that that day?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And was that after you rece ved ora sex that he a so, wh e n that pos t on, used h s f ngers to br ng you to orgasm?
"A: don't remember that.
"Q: You're not say ng t d dn't happen?
"A: don't reca , yeah.
"Q: And then be eve at some po nt you were offended because you fe t you were pushed down?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And -- but you weren't hurt? You got up to get some water?

Page 128

"A started cry ng yes
"Q We but --
"A th nk t hurt
"Q After that do you reca go ng over to a rea push-up -- a rea pu -up bar ch n-up bar because he had that n h s basement too r ght?
"A Yes Pr or to th s yes --
"Q And do you --
"A -- happen ng
"Q -- reca do ng or perform ng a ch n-up fu y nude? want you to th nk about t
"A That sounds fam ar yes
"Q And t sounds fam ar because t happened?
"A Yes be eve so
"Q And just to be c ear what happened on that occas on s you vo untar y went over to h s pu -up bar wh e work ng out or before work ng out or after?
"A After mean we worked out fu y c othed
"Q Okay And you a so fe t comfortab e enough to take a shower at h s home?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 129

"A d d take a shower that day, yes
"Q Was that before -- was that upsta rs n the shower?
"A Yes, be eve so
"Q Okay So et's wa k through th s So you work out, r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And at some po nt you get fu y nude?
"A Yes
"Q So th s was after the workout when you were engag ng n sex?
"A Correct
"Q And at some po nt as you were fu y nude, you wa k over to a pu -up bar and you start do ng comp ete y nude pu -ups
"A We , don't know about do ng them, but remember do ng one
"Q Do ng one n h s presence?
"A don't know f he was r ght there
"Q He was there
"A Yes f he remembers t, then, yes
"Q We , mean, why e se wou d you have done t f t wasn't for h m?

Page 130

"A just remember do ng that That -- that sounds rea fam ar to me so yes
"Q And then you took a shower?
"A Yes
"Q And you went stra ght from the basement to the shower?
"A don't -- 'm not sure
"Q D d you wa k upsta rs nude at that t me?
"A don't remember
"Q You wou dn't have -- we you wou dn't have put your d rty workout c othes on r ght?
"A cou d have don't know don't reca "
MR AUST N Pass the baton
"Q But you reca tak ng a shower?
"A do yes
"Q And t was ater that day where you wa ked out to your car and you to d h m -- and he to d you to fo ow h m to --
"A Correct
"Q -- Manchester and K ngsh ghway and t was at that po nt where you were nformed by

Page 131

E G that th s was -- th s has to stop because somebody essent a y was send ng an ema ?
"A Correct, to h s w fe
"Q And do you reca h m say ng at th s po nt th s has to stop, r ght?
"A Correct
"Q Were you hurt?
"A was many th ngs, yes Hurt, embarrassed fe t awfu for h s w fe fe t d sgusted Yes, was many th ngs
"Q Fee ng awfu for h s w fe d dn't keep you from hav ng a these sexua encounters that we've ta ked about, r ght?
"A fe t pretty awfu
"Q d dn't ask that quest on d d not -- t d d not prevent you from hav ng a these sexua encounters that we just ta ked about, r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And t d dn't prevent you from hav ng the fee ngs that we ta ked about, r ght?
"A Correct
"Q A those fee ngs that you fe t for E G , those fee ngs were rea , were they not?
"A What do you mean by 'rea '?
"Q They were rea fee ngs that you had rea emot ons?

Page 132

"A Yes They were fee ngs yes
"Q So th s wou d have been just t me frame when?
"A Beg nn ng of Ju y very beg nn ng of Ju y
"Q And just to be c ear th nk you sa d to the Grand Jury at that po nt that you -- you fe t used that you had gotten -- that he had gotten what he wanted r ght?
"A Yes 'm sure that was one of the fee ngs too yes
"Q Some of the other fee ngs were that you were sort of heartbroken r ght?
"A To some extent maybe but there was so much more there as far as -- "Q And to some extent not on y d d your heart hurt but whatever fee ngs you were hav ng about a potent a future you knew that was not n the works d dn't you?
"A That was not -- to me after had a conversat on w th h m t was -- was super grossed out at myse f hated myse f
"Q So th s was n Ju y that you were grossed out and hated yourse f 'm sorry?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 133

"A: Yes.
"Q: And just to be sure, th s so o tr p that we ta ked about, that was n August; was t not?
"A: That was n June.
"Q: That was n June. Are you certa n of the date?
"A: am certa n. June 3rd.
"Q: When d d you start to attempt to reconc e w th P.S.?
"A: That week after saw E.G. that ast t me.
"Q: So essent a y after E.G. to d you that t has to stop?
"A: Yes, at that t me or after that t me.
"Q: So once you heard that E.G. sa d that t had to stop, that's when you dec ded that you were go ng to reconc e w th P.S.?
"A: We went to med at on that fo ow ng week.
"Q: But t m ng-w se?
"A: T m ng-w se, yes.
"Q: T m ng-w se, have t r ght, don't ?

Page 134

"A Correct
"Q Okay And then at some po nt dur ng th s per od of reconc at on or attempted reconc at on you sent h m an ema say ng 'You need to go to a d fferent sty st ' correct?
"A Correct
"Q D d he actua y go to a d fferent sty st?
"A Yes that was n the m dd e of that "Q The m dd e of what?
"A L ke from Ju y to October
"Q And --
"A Because after October never saw h m Yes he d d
"Q How does August 25th 2015 -- does that sound about r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And that's when he thanked you for gett ng h m an appo ntment w th [redacted]?
"A Yes
"Q And even though -- was th s dur ng a per od of t me when you were try ng to reconc e w th P S ?
"A Correct

"Q But n fact even though he got the appo ntment w th [redacted] you were present were you not?
"A Yes be eve was there
"Q And actua y as h s ha r was be ng cut by [redacted] you stayed n the sa on d d you not?
"A Yes be eve so
"Q And actua y ta ked to E G the ent re t me?
"A No d d not
"Q You d d ta k to h m d dn't you?
"A d d br ef y yes
"Q We what's br ef y because --
"A L ke for -- for tera y a m nute
"Q D d P S br ng up any of th s n your d vorce proceed ngs?
"A We never had any proceed ngs d dn't h re an attorney
"Q D d he threaten you w th any of th s act v ty outs de of the proceed ngs?
"A After we were for sure gett ng a d vorce n October or whatever after that he just sa d 'You know cou d ru n you n 30 seconds and have proof,' and that was the f rst t me that sa d, 'What do you mean proof?' And he sa d, ' taped you.'

"Q: And gett ng back to that afternoon on the 21st when you had further d scuss ons w th P.S., do you reca te ng P.S. essent a y that what -- there was d scuss on about that, he, n add t on to touch ng your boobs and touch ng you a over, that he was f nger ng you?
"A: 'm sorry. 'm confused.
"Q: 'm back to the afternoon of the 21st.
"A: Okay.
"Q: n engag ng n conversat on w th P.S. about exact y what went on dur ng that 45 m nutes, do you reca hav ng d scuss ons as to whether or not he was f nger ng you dur ng that t me?
"A: don't reca that, but know that -- "Q: He d d?
"A: He kept fond ng me, and then wou d back away, and then he wou d fond e me aga n, and --
"Q: But fond ng and f nger ng -- f

he was f nger ng you you had to s t st ong enough for h m to take h s hand and st ck t down your pants and f nger you r ght?

"A mean f you're actua y do ng t to comp et on but h m try ng to put h s hands down my pants and stuff ke that don't remember spec f ca y just remember us -- we wou d ta k because kept say ng want to ta k and then he wou d say f ne ask me quest ons and then wou d -- and then he wou d k nd of pu me to h m and then he wou d start fond ng me aga n and wou d wa k away and then eft

"Q [Redacted]?

"A Yes

"Q [Redacted]?

"A Yes

"Q [Redacted]?

"A No [Redacted]

"Q [Redacted]?

"A Correct

"Q And what's [redacted]?"

MR BARNES [Redacted]

MR TRENT [Redacted]

Page 138

MR. BARNES: f we d dn't redact t, we shou d have got that.

MR. EGGLESTON: Okay.

MR. BARNES: And then the next nes, a the way down to 23, r ght? Just -- we m ght as we redact the ent re.

MR. TRENT: Essent a y the rest of the mater a .

MR. EGGLESTON: So we have everyth ng [redacted] on page 386. Everyth ng.

MR. BARNES: No, th nk page 386, ne 6 to ne 23. And then 24 we're -- we ta ked about Representat ve M tten has the unredacted.

MR. TRENT: No, the unredacted port on s on 91.

MR. BARNES: We , we're go ng to unredact 386 too.

MR. TRENT: Are we go ng to redact 387 too?

MR. BARNES: Representat ve Ph ps and w do 386 and 388. Te me when the squares are out because we have an unredacted copy that the representat ve brought back n. Yeah, t's redacted there, but we've got an unredacted copy there. We're just go ng to go unt those squares are n, and then we' trade back

Page 139

MR EGGLESTON For the record, say the page numbers

MR BARNES L ne

MR PH LL PS Th rteen s where t actua y ends

MR BARNES A r ght Okay Now -- okay

"Q Now, n d scuss ons w th E G , d d you ever refer to a s te ca ed czechstreet, C-Z-E-C-H?

"A don't know Not that reca

"Q Do you know what that s?

"A be eve t's a porn s te, yes

"Q Okay And s that a porn s te that you ooked at and enjoyed from t me to t me?

"A 've ooked at t, yes

"Q You've ooked at Czech --

"A Yes

"Q -- street, r ght?

"A Yes, be eve so

"Q mean, you ooked at that pr or to ever hav ng th s re at onsh p w th E G ?

"A That was someth ng my husband had shown me, yes

"Q And your husband showed you th s as someth ng that was nterest ng to h m?

"A Yes

"Q And you a so ooked at w th your husband and a so ndependent y?

"A Yes had

"Q And that was someth ng you d scussed w th E G ?

"A f d d don't remember

"Q We t wou d make sense that you d d r ght?

"A don't know don't remember

"Q Are you say ng you d dn't d scuss t w th h m?

"A don't remember that Yeah rea y don't reca that

"Q Okay And have you ever -- s th s someth ng you regu ar y d d ook at porn s tes?

"A No d dn't

"Q Was there any part cu ar type of porn that you and your husband were nterested n?

"A No there was not "

MR BARNES Back to other representat ves

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 141

"Q Have you ever caused any mages to be sent from your ema , mages of you?
"A don't be eve so
"Q Pardon?
"A You mean mages of me n genera ?
"Q F rst of a , n genera , mages of you
"A Sure "
MR BARNES Redact on -- don't have a redacted copy Just, guys, ook ahead for these names that are popp ng up
MR TRENT t's redacted
MR BARNES Okay ' be qu et now
"Q And that wou d have been sent from an ema ca ed [redacted]?
"A Yes
"Q Have you ever sent any mages n any states of undress?
"A No, not v a ema or not pr or to th s No
"Q At any t me have you sent mages n states of undress?
"A 'm not sure that t's re evant after th s po nt, no
"Q We , 'm not ask ng you to make a determ nat on as to re evance. You've made a ot of statements --

Page 142

"A: Correct.
"Q: -- that go to your cred b ty.
"A: Correct.
"Q: And 'm ask ng f you ever sent any mages of states of undress, nud ty, or part a nud ty v a ema or any other source text?
"A: Can we ta k for a m nute? No?"
MR. BARNES: There's a conversat on w th counse and then they're back n. Go ng off -- t says, "Go ng off the record at 5:21. Back on the record at 5:22."
"Q: And when 'm ask ng th s quest on about mages that you've caused to be sent by ema , by text, 'm a so ask ng you whether or not you've ever up oaded to any s te or nternet any mages of you n a state of undress.
"A: No. 've never up oaded any p ctures to a s te or anyth ng ke that. After my husband and were back together, that was someth ng he asked for me to do for h m because of what had happened.
"Q: Send you nude p ctures -- send nude p ctures?

Page 143

"A Not nude no But sexy or whatever
"Q Okay [Redacted] "
MR PH LL PS Mr Stee e jumps n and sa d " 'm go ng to object to the re evance at th s po nt "
MR BARNES So the quest on s
"Q So n add t on to czechstreet any other porn s tes -- any other porn s tes come to m nd that you ooked at nd v dua y or w th your husband?"
MR BARNES Are we -- oh you guys have -- you two have the redacted copy Okay 'm sorry A r ght So et's back up Quest on
"Q Okay So n add t on to czechstreet any other porn s tes come to m nd that you ooked at nd v dua y or w th your husband?"
Mr Stee e nterjects " 'm go ng to object to re evance "
Mr Rosenb um says "You can answer "
MR PH LL PS Have got that one?
MR TRENT And 391 s the new y redacted part correct?
MR EGGLESTON t's the sheet that she used

Page 144

"A No not that that comes to m nd No
"Q Have you ever heard of an ent ty s te ca ed Fete fe?
"A No have not
"Q Never heard of t?
"A No "
MR TRENT Wa t a m nute thought that was go ng to be the redacted part
MR EGGLESTON We just took out the sheet that says th s
MR TRENT Yeah
"Q So once aga n never heard of t?
"A No "
MR BARNES Here we go Jack d scuss on off the record and then Mr Rosenb um says
"Q So once aga n you go by -- you go by K S r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And your ema s [redacted]?
"A Correct
"Q Have you ever had a n pp e r ng?
"A No
"Q No?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 145

"A: No, do not. never have.
"Q: Ever?
"A: Never.
"Q: A r ght. Now, wh e we're ook ng for an exh b t, you're aware that P.S. sent an ema etter to E.G.'s w fe, yes?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And when you were made aware of that -- and when were you made aware of that?
"A: When E.G. f rst -- or E.G., sorry, f rst to d me, that's what suspected when.
"Q: When he f rst to d you what?
"A: That somebody had sent h s w fe an ema .
"Q: Okay. So you mmed ate y suspected t was P.S. based on your ong h story w th the man, r ght?
"A: d d, yes.
"Q: And d d you confront h m?
"A: No. He to d me about t maybe a week ater or -- someth ng.
"Q: n person or ...
"A: -- that he d d t. be eve n person, yes.
"Q: And what d d he say?

Page 146

"A That he had sent h s w fe an ema
"Q D d you ask about the content?
"A No because be eve E G had to d me the g st of t
"Q D d you ask what the purpose of do ng that was?
"A Yes
"Q What d d he say?
"A Because she shou d know th s
"Q Now mean throughout the course of P S 's d scuss ons w th you he made a number of statements that he cou d ru n for nstance E G n a matter of m nutes correct?
"A Correct "
MR BARNES 'm at the -- do you guys have the unredacted -- the correct one now r ght?
MR EGGLESTON th nk so
MR BARNES Okay You're on 393? 'm sorry We've got mass confus on back here 393
MR EGGLESTON We're good
"Q And that he cou d essent a y -- we you've actua y sa d that you had no dea what the man was capab e of r ght?
"A Yeah don't know what he's

Page 147

capab e of.
"Q: But you knew he was capab e of a ot?
"A: Yes. At that po nt d d.
"Q: And when d d you f rst earn that you had been tape-recorded -- been tape-recorded?
"A: He to d me after we weren't together anymore for sure, so that was October 2015, but d dn't hear t. d dn't know of ts ex stence for some -- for sure unt r ght before t was re eased. The woman who re eased t ca ed my attorney, [redacted], and sa d -- we , she ca ed me and eft a message and had [redacted] ca her back, and she sa d, " just heard a tape w th your vo ce on t."
"Q: So that wou d have been when?
"A: A day or two before t came out n pub c.
"Q: And P.S. -- P.S. to d you he actua y tape-recorded you and had th s n October of '15?
"A: Correct. He to d me that.
"Q: And that's when you f na y separated?
"A: Yes. t was after we had f na y separated.

Page 148

"Q: When d d you f na y separate?
"A: t was the m dd e, end, end of October. t was after E.G. came n. sent the ema , because when came home that day, had made a prom se to my husband that f ever see h m aga n or hear from h m, w et h m know, so to d h m and he cou dn't be eve that dared speak to h m aga n. And he cou dn't be marr ed to me anymore, so -- and he had sa d you a so. He's a ways go ng to cont nue to have tabs on you un ess you do someth ng about t. So agreed that e ther way, whether was w th my husband or not, d d not want to keep go ng back and forth w th that stuff, so sent that ema .
"Q: The quest on [redacted]?
"A: No. He ...
MR. EGGLESTON: Mr. Stee e.
MR. PH LL PS: Mr. Stee e nterjected, " 'm go ng to object to re evance."
MR. TRENT: [Redacted].
"Q: Do you reca -- do you reca te ng P.S. on that meet ng, on that tape-recorded meet ng on the 24th that he asked you f at that po nt you got t out of your system and you sa d, "

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 149

don't know That's my hope"?
"A No don't reca t but yes
"Q That was referr ng to E G correct?
"A assume so 'm not sure
"Q And once he to d you that he n October had tape-recorded you surrept t ous y d d you ask h m what he had -- what h s p ans were w th that tape?
"A n October?
"Q n October of '15 when he to d you that he had t
"A just know was upset w th h m was ke no you d dn't No you d d not do that don't -- don't remember just know we were argu ng
"Q D d you ever see a photograph or a p cture of P S b ndfo ded?
"A No d d not
"Q You never saw h m?
"A Are you speak ng about a profess ona p cture?
"Q Any type of p cture
"A There's a profess ona p cture that be eve you're referr ng to

Page 150

"Q: And te me about that."
MR. BARNES: Ho d on. Ho d on. Ho d on. F rst sentence -- redact the f rst sentence of th s -- on ne 24.
MR. TRENT: Okay. The f rst sentence?
MR. BARNES: Yeah. So start w th, th s was part of th s -- "Th s was part of that." So redact on, "Th s was part of h s art st c express on."
MR. TRENT: Th s was after, "We were not together of don't know what."
"Q: th nk you went -- you sa d to the Grand Ju y that you're not a po t ca person. Do you reca that?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And do you -- but you do engage n po t ca ssues; do you not?
"A: No, not per se.
"Q: D dn't you take part n a pro-cho ce ra y?
"A: No. No, d d not. t was a -- t was ca ed Mora M ssour . d dn't even know what t was. One of my c ents sa d to me, "K.S., you've got to come to th s th ng. t's ca ed Mora M ssour . They d scuss mora ssues s what t was " So sa d that sounds ke someth ng my mom wou d ke and to d my mom about t Mom we shou d go and meet [redacted] sorry my aunt and cous n who ve there and that was t went to that th ng d dn't even know what t was and then we d dn't stay for very ong because t was -- don't know But that's t "

MR EGGLESTON So then we have redacted stuff
MR BARNES Th s s the stuff that we chose to unredact based on our conversat on th s morn ng
MR TRENT We don't have any unredact --
MS M TTEN Chose to unredact those?
MR AUST N Yeah those photographs
MR BARNES Yeah
MS M TTEN m sunderstand That's why -- do you want to take a break?
MR BARNES We et's go through the stuff that's redacted We' come back to t want to get through th s depos t on rather than run t around We've got unt noon We can come back to t
MR AUST N Do you have the

unredacted? have the unredacted copy
MR BARNES Yeah but 'm nervous because of what just d d a second ago w th an unredacted copy want to make sure we've got t r ght and everybody on the comm ttee agrees after what just d d a moment ago So et's just move on to the end of the redact on and we' come back to t t's not a b g dea
MR TRENT A r ght So 397 ne 25
MR BARNES We' come back to t So jump to the end of what's redacted n that and we' come back to that at a ater po nt n t me
"Q Okay Do you know anyone that wou d have had access to your P address or ga ned access to your P address?
"A My ex-husband
"Q s he soph st cated enough n your op n on to ga n access to your P address w thout your know ng? Have you ever had those d scuss ons w th h m?
"A be eve h m to be
"Q mean d d he say he wanted to harm you n any manner that he cou d r ght?
"A don't know about n any manner

he cou d, but --
"Q: And aga n, just want to c ar fy th s. D d you and P.S. ever have d scuss ons about su ng the governor or the government for money?
"A: No, never.
"Q: D d you te P.S. that you never had sex w th E.G.?
"A: Yes. Sexua ntercourse, d d not.
"Q: Okay. So you were -- you were referr ng to sexua ntercourse?
"A: Correct.
"Mr. Rosenb um: Can we have one moment?"
MR. BARNES: That was Rosenb um ask ng for a moment. They d dn't go off the record. Back to ne -- oh, th s was -- Mr. Rosenb um was mak ng sure that he had asked a h s quest ons that he wanted. So now we're on exam nat on by Mr. Stee e. And th nk we can just read the nes as they are, Representat ve Aust n. f you want to do that on pages 397 -- 396 to 397. So these were the redacted comments, start ng on 396 ne 23. ' ask the quest ons; you do the answers.
MR. AUST N: Okay.

Page 154

"Q And you have never been at a photographed n an mage other than what you're c a m ng occurred on the 21st n the state of undressed and b ndfo ded correct?
"A Correct
"Q And you're certa n of that?
"A am certa n of that
"Q Can show you a photo and just te me whether or not t's you?
"A Yes
"Q ' show you what's been marked -- we' mark th s Depos t on Exh b t A -- or 'm sorry 16 'm go ng to show you Have you ever seen that mage before?
"A No
"Q Never?
"A Never
"Q A r ght Show ng you what's been marked as 17 and ask you f you've ever seen that mage
"A No no have not
"Q A r ght ' show you what's been marked as 18 wh ch ta ks about [redacted]
"A No that's not me Oh here
"Q And ast y ' show you what

Page 155

we've marked Depos t on Exh b t 19
"A No "
MR BARNES Okay Now we are on to quest ons -- d rect exam nat on by Mr Stee e on the bottom of page 399 You guys want to sw tch? Representat ve Trent you can be the quest oner Representat ve Razer can be the answerer
MR TRENT Beg nn ng on --
MR EGGLESTON You're Mr Stee e
MR BARNES 'm on 399 ne 21 s where we eft off
"Q Okay be eve we're st on the record Just a coup e more quest ons to c ar fy some stuff When we n t a y started the depos t on Mr Rosenb um asked you about a -- a number of quest ons y ng dur ng the course of th s case or y ng dur ng the course of the proceed ngs or someth ng Do you reca those quest ons?
"A Yes
"Q He asked you about y ng to [redacted] dur ng the course of the case or dur ng the course of the proceed ngs Do you reca that?
"A Correct
"Q Now just so we're c ear on th s th s case and th s proceed ng started somewhere around January of 2018. s that r ght, as far as you know?

Page 156

"A: Correct.
"Q: Now, th s y ng to -- to [redacted], was that before January of 2018?
"A: Yes.
"Q: That e or by om ss on or comm ss on, was not a e to [redacted] dur ng the course of th s case?"
MR. BARNES: Rosenb um jumps n w th, "Let me just odge an object on to the form. t's ead ng."
"Mr. Stee e: Th s s a depos t on, so ' ead as much as want to.
"Q: Answer the quest on that e by om ss on or comm ss on to [redacted] was pr or to January of 2018.
"A: Yes.
"Q: t was pr or to th s case?
"A: Yes.
"Q: The statement about a e by om ss on or comm ss on to any member of your fam y, your mother or your s ster, was that pr or to January of 2018?
"A: Correct.

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 157

"Q So any e by om ss on or comm ss on to your mother or your s ster was not dur ng the course of th s case?
"A Correct
"Q t was not dur ng the course of any proceed ngs nvo v ng E G ?
"A Correct
"Q Or E G -- 'm sorry So any e by om ss on or comm ss on to [redacted] and your fam y your mother and your s ster was pr or to January of 2018?
"A Yes
"Q And probab y somewhere n 2015 any e to your mother or s ster by om ss on or comm ss on s that fa r?
"A Yes
"Q Probab y three years ago you ed to your mother and s ster by om ss on or comm ss on nvo v ng Mr G or E G ?
"A Yes
"Q There was a so a reference to you y ng by om ss on or comm ss on to fr ends?
"A Correct
"Q And don't reca a of the r names but a number of fr ends that you d d not te them everyth ng?

Page 158

"A Correct
"Q Do you reca that quest on? Do you --
"A Yes
"Q And t was character zed or phrased as a e dur ng the course of th s case?"
MR BARNES 'm go ng to object -- Mr Rosenb um, " 'm go ng to object to the form aga n Just et t run throughout of the course of a of these quest ons "
MR TRENT "That's f ne "
MR BARNES "That Mr Stee e chooses to ask n a ead ng form "
MR TRENT "Noted
"Q Go ahead Was that pr or to January of 2018?
"A Yes
"Q So any e by om ss on or comm ss on to any fr end or a fr ends wou d have occurred pr or to January of 2018?
"A Yes
"Q So t had noth ng to do w th th s case at a --"
MR BARNES Mr Rosenb um, "We ,

Page 159

object on aga n --"
MR. TRENT: "-- the proceed ngs?
To the form that t's ead ng and t's argumentat ve and ca s for th s w tness to ca to -- to make a conc us on."
MR. BARNES: t appears that that was ke y sa d by Mr. Rosenb um, but there's an error n the transcr pt.
MR. TRENT: Okay.
"A: fee t was re evant at the t me, but, no, not re evant to th s.
"Q: Okay. t was before th s case n January of 2018?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Now, he asked you about a so -- d d you see E.G. w th a phone n h s possess on?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Do you reca that? And be eve you nd cated or test f ed that you had seen E.G. on a number of occas ons w th an Phone?
"A: Correct.
"Q: An App e phone; s that r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And at any po nt where you were n the basement w th E.G. at h s home, d d you see what you be eved to be a phone?

"A: So not ke that's a very v v d memory, wh ch s the reason haven't ta ked about because don't know f t's becom ng -- t's because 'm remember ng t through a dream or -- 'm not sure. But, yeah, fee ke saw t after that happened, but haven't spoke about t because of that.
"Q: Okay.
"A: can't say for sure.
"Q: Okay. And when you say you haven't spoken about t?
"A: Yes.
"Q: D d e ther myse f or Ms. Gardner ask you about see ng a phone n the basement pr or to the Grand Jury that was not n h s phys ca possess on?
"A: be eve you may have. don't remember for sure.
"Q: Okay. D d -- whoever you ta ked to -- don't know f t was Jeff C ty or Co umb a, d d they ask you about see ng a phone somewhere n the basement that was not n h s phys ca possess on?
"A: don't reca that spec f c

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 161

quest on 'm not sure
"Q Okay But to the best of your reco ect on you don't have a spec f c reco ect on of someone ask ng you f you d d -- ask ng you d d you see a phone n the -- n the basement n h s home pr or to h m b ndfo d ng you that was not n h s hand?
"A Correct
"Q Okay ' wrap th s up because t's ate You've been here ong enough He a so asked you about see ng the f ash and hear ng the c ck
"A Correct
"Q And you be eve t was a phone?
"A Yes
"Q Now after you heard the c ck -- and et me go back a so an Phone assume you've taken photographs?
"A Yes
"Q Do you have an Phone?
"A Yes
"Q And does t make a c ck ng sound when you shoot the photograph?
"A R ght t makes k nd of a shutter sound st have my phone that had back n

2015
"Q Okay Does t make a s m ar sound?
"A Yes
"Q Now, after you heard the sound and you saw the f ash, d d he approach you, E G ?
"A 'm sorry, what?
"Q D d he approach you?
"A After?
"Q Yes, ma'am
"A Yes, after he took the p cture
"Q And then what d d he say after he took that p cture?
"A 'Are you go ng to speak my name? Are you go ng to say my name?'
"Q And what d d he te you was the consequence?
"A He wou d re ease the photo everywhere, a over the nternet He wou d put t everywhere for everyone to see
"Q So after you heard the c ck ng sound and the f ash, he to d you he wou d put that photo on the nternet?
"A Correct
"Q And at some po nt you eft the house and you came back?

Page 163

"A: Correct.
"Q: And when you came back, was there a subsequent conversat on w th yourse f and E.G. -- excuse me, E.G. about tak ng a photo?
"A: Yes.
"Q: D d he deny tak ng the photo?
"A: No, he d d not.
"Q: What d d he say?
"A: He sa d, ' know. know. thought about you today, but you have to understand, have to protect myse f and -- but thought about you and de eted t.'
"Q: Okay. Now, the ast quest on have: Ear y on, you ta ked about when you had met w th Mr. T saby, Ms. Gardner, and th nk your attorney was there and T saby asked you some quest ons.
"A: Correct.
"Q: And they asked you about Ms. Gardner tak ng some notes and you sa d she was seated beh nd you.
"A: Correct. Or k nd of n front of, but beh nd the tab e a tt e b t.
"Q: Okay. Do you have any spec f c reco ect on of see ng Ms Gardner take any wr tten notes or anyth ng ke that?

Page 164

"A Not spec f c
"Q Okay
"A No
"Q And th nk you c ar f ed you d d not see e ther Ms Gardner or T saby w th the r aptops?
"A No d d not
"Q Now you a so nd cated just so we c ar fy here that t s poss b e that T saby cou d have taken some notes
"A Yes he had a fo der th ng n front of h m
"Q Okay
"A do remember that
"Q You have a spec f c reco ect on that he had a fo der?
"A Correct
"Q You do not have a spec f c reco ect on of h m tak ng any wr t ngs n front of you?
"A No do not
"Q Okay And -- and just so we're c ear do you have any spec f c reco ect on of

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 165

see ng Ms Gardner take any notes?
"A Not a spec f c reco ect on no
"Q Okay So when you test f ed ear er she m ght have she cou d have?
"A She cou d have
"Q She cou d have so t's poss b e that you don't have any reco ect on of see ng her tak ng any notes?
"A No do not
"Q Noth ng further "
MR TRENT And guess now we're go ng nto further exam nat on by Mr Rosenb um
"Q We you wou d agree whatever the record shows that you're -- on the answers to my quest ons w th respect to T saby and Ms Gardner you're not chang ng your responses are you?
"A No am not
"Q And Mr Stee e asked you about a number of occas ons when you ed pr or to 2000 -- we n 2015 do you reca that?
"A Correct
"Q And th nk the mp cat on s you haven't ed n 2018?
"A don't know --
"Q We s that what --

Page 166

"A -- what the mp cat on was
"Q s that how you took h s quest on?
"A took h s quest on that haven't ed about the case when asked
"Q But you ed about other th ngs s that what your answer s?
"A don't know 'm not God so don't know
"Q Okay We d d go over a number of ssues that you test f ed before the Grand Jury and th ngs that you eft out correct?
"A Correct
"Q Correct?
"A 'm sorry what?
"Q We for nstance you eft out the fact that you had sex consensua sexua act v ty n the dye room at the sa on? You eft that out r ght?
"A Yes
"Q went through spec f ca y about that conversat on a coded conversat on that you had w th E G when you on that Saturday w th g r fr ends and spec f ca y you sa d to the Grand Jury that at your state of m nd what you thought you were ta k ng about was potent a y schedu ng an

Page 167

appo ntment That's why --
"A You mean to my husband?
"Q To your husband correct and to the Grand Jury you answered yes
"A R ght
"Q That was my state of m nd
"A R ght
"Q Do you reca that?
"A can -- can c ar fy that p ease?
"Q We 'm ask ng the quest ons at th s po nt You wou d understand that f you sa d that answer to the Grand Jury g ven your prev ous answer that you sa d n fact you knew that that wasn't what th s was about that the conversat on was go ng to be about see ng each other aga n and ta k ng about th s?
"A R ght 'd ke to c ar fy because d dn't know for sure what the conversat on was That was my assumpt on but d dn't know He tera y had ema ed what -- what sa d about he can't get n He wants to make an appo ntment so he cou d have been yes rea y d dn't know
"Q We you d dn't c ar fy t to the Grand Jury d d you? What po nted out what you answered def n t ve y that that was my state of m nd, that you thought t was about an appo ntment.

"A: But t cou d have been about that, yes.
"Q: But you d dn't say that to the Grand Jury, d d you?
"A: W you p ease read the statement aga n?
"Q: t was br ef. Were you -- Ms. Gardner asked you -- Ms. Gardner asked you and at that -- you were speak ng about the vo cema that was eft; do you reca that?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And you made a statement to P.S. that, n response to h m quest on ng you about the number, [redacted], when he ca ed and t was E.G.'s vo cema , you responded, 'So, you know, to d h m don't know. He was gett ng aho d of me for an appo ntment or whatever, so ...'
'Ms. Gardner: And at that t me, that was a true statement n your m nd?'
Your response was, 'R ght.'
"A: We , t was a true statement. wasn't -- had sa d to h m he's ca ng me to hook up, that wou d have been a e because he had stated

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 169

n h s ema , ' need a better way to get aho d of you or whatever.'
"Q: don't want to be abor th s.
"A: R ght.
"Q: But you and -- you remember that before answered you that quest on, spec f ca y asked you that wou d not have been a true statement. Do you remember that?
"A: R ght.
"Q: We can go back --
"A: R ght.
"Q: -- and read the transcr pt, but t's ate. But d d ask you that, that -- that wou d not have been n your m nd because that wou d not have been a true statement, correct? You remember that?
"A: Correct. -- just want to c ar fy that.
"Q: And Mr. Stee e asked about th s phone. mean -- we , et me ask t th s way: Th s -- Mr. Stee e asked you a number of quest ons about a phone on h s person or n the basement. Do you reca that?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And th nk you sa d, we , you st can't say whether or not you saw a phone r ght?

Page 170

"A Not w th 100 percent certa nty
"Q We not w th much certa nty because you never sa d t before r ght?
"A Correct Not at the Grand Jury or anyth ng ke that
"Q And you sa d t may have been n a dream
"A Yeah So can p cture t can p cture t s tt ng on a bench and have sa d that before to them However sa d don't want to say t n a d fferent sett ng
"Q Okay
"A Because don't know f -- can't say 100 percent 'm pos t ve saw the phone My v s on of t s t's s tt ng there on ke a bench That's where the r ngs are t cou d be stra ght ahead t wou d be stra ght ahead
"Q So mean that was what was gett ng to next
"A R ght
"Q So when Mr Stee e asked you that quest on you had had a d scuss on w th h m at some po nt about th s v s on or th s dream r ght?

Page 171

"A: Yes, or see ng someth ng.
"Q: And when d d you have th s d scuss on w th Mr. Stee e or Ms. Gardner, or both?
"A: don't know. just know that 've sa d that at some po nt.
"Q: We , w th n the ast month? Week?
"A: Poss b y.
"Q: Day?
"A: 'm not sure.
"Q: What was the context of that?
"A: don't remember except for just say ng maybe the quest on was asked, have you seen t? D d you see t at a ? don't know.
"Q: And for the f rst t me three years or so ater, you sa d may have, but t cou d be a dream?
"A: We , that was the f rst t me t's ever been asked, d d you see one at a ? 've never tr ed hard. just remembered what sh rt he was wear ng. Just -- just remembered what sh rt he was wear ng just recent y and on y he and wou d have known that.
"Q: What sh rt?
"A: But t came to me. t was ke a ong-s eeved k nd of f anne , not f anne therma -type sh rt.

Page 172

"Q: So --
"A: And d dn't remember that unt now.
"Q: n any event, as you s t here now under oath --
"A: Yes.
"Q: -- you cannot state under oath that you saw a phone here n the basement --
"A: Not --
"Q: -- just ke when asked you that quest on, correct?
"A: Not w th 100 percent certa nty.
"Q: We , not w th -- not w th any degree of ce ta n. You can't swear to t under oath; how about that?
"A: cannot swear saw a phone.
"Q: Okay. And you sa d that when you saw E.G. ater that day, that's when he sa d, ' understand and de eted t,' or someth ng to that context?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Te me exact y what you reca h m say ng.

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 173

"A don't remember word for word just remember when sa d to h m he freak ng took a p cture he just sa d "K S know know thought about you today 'm sorry You have to remember have to protect myse f "
"Q So you were upset apparent y
"A Very yes
"Q When you sa d that that was before you engaged n 45 m nutes of consensua sex and pett ng and whatnot?
"A That was before that
"Q But that was the same just the beg nn ng of that per od?
"A That was r ght whenever got there
"Q So n response to what you're c a m ng was -- you're upset he sa d 'Okay Ca m down de eted t ' r ght?
"A He d dn't say t ke that d dn't be eve h m that he de eted t but be eved h m that he at east had empathy and understood that was rea y upset
"Q And d d you ever at that po nt n th s a eged conversat on ask h m what was on the p cture that you c a m he sa d he de eted?

Page 174

"A No, because cou d fee -- mean, cou d env s on what was on t
"Q We , 'm not ask ng f you can env s on 'm ask ng f you ever spoke the words
"A We , he --
"Q What was on t? D d you ever --
"A Yeah He to d me, ' w put th s p cture of you everywhere,' so t was a p cture of me --
"Q Okay
"A -- n the state that was n
"Q D d you ever ask h m to descr be th s p cture that he a eged y sa d he de eted other than say ng, as you c a m now, that w put th s p cture everywhere? D d you ever ask h m to descr be t?
"A No, d d not ask h m to descr be t
"Q Okay And aga n, you never saw t?
"A No, never saw t
"Q And you have no dea whether t ever ex sted?
"A We , know t ex sted because he adm tted t --

Page 175

"Q We --
"A -- mu t p e t mes
"Q We you know what you're c a m ng that he sa d
"A 'm ask ng f he ever saw t
"Q Do you ever know that t ex sted?
"A know what he to d me
"Q Let me ask you th s hypothet ca y f the dea was to cause you concern about te ng h m anybody r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And you never saw any p cture r ght?
"A R ght
"Q The fact that you thought a p cture was taken wou d have been just as effect ve wou d t not?
"A don't know
"Q We how wou d t not be?
"A 'm sorry What?
"Q How wou d that not --
"A What are you ask ng spec f ca y?
"Q 'm say ng you never saw a p cture?
"A Correct

Page 176

"Q You can't descr be t?
"A Correct
"Q You can't te me whether t was a p cture of the f oor or a p cture of you?
"A just know what he to d me t was He sa d th s p cture of you
"Q And my po nt s assum ng what you're c a m ng s true and assum ng the purpose of t was not to have you ta k to anybody r ght?
"A Correct
"Q The fact that you be eved a p cture was taken wou d have been as effect ve whether t was actua y a p cture of you or a p cture of the f oor or a p cture of h m because you never saw t t wasn't the p cture t was accord ng to you the threat of a p cture that you never saw?
"A The -- a threat of a p cture of me
"Q But my po nt s that the effect --
"A be eved h m
"Q understand that's what you're say ng A though you may have be eved h m you can't say w th any certa nty whether or not there actua y ever was a p cture of? You can't say that?

BY MR BARNES

Q. Mr. Faughn, can you state your full name.

A Scott Faughn

Q. And, Mr. Faughn, who gave you the $100,000 cash?

A Representat ve th s was my money You're ta k ng about the money to my attorney A Watk ns r ght?

Q. Well, let me back up. How much was it, in fact?

A To the best of my reco ect on t was

Page 186

$120 000

Q. Okay. And when was that delivered?

A Somet me n ear y January

Q. When in early January?

A don't remember the date off the top of my head but t wou d have been the f rst two weeks of January

Q. How many deliveries were there?

A want to say three to four

Q. Who made the deliveries?

A 'm try ng to th nk d d m ght have -- m ght have sent one over but d d one probab y two for sure

Q. Who else did them?

A don't reca the nd v dua s but they were on my beha f

Q. Who is Skylar?

MR HATF ELD f you know

THE W TNESS Sky ar who?

BY MR BARNES

Q. I don't know. There was someone identified as Skylar by Mr. Watkins. Who is Skylar?

A don't know any Sky ar

Q. Okay. So you gave $120,000. Was this cash?

Page 187

A. Yes.

Q. But you didn't write a check?

A. No.

Q. You have $120,000 in cash just sitting around your house?

MR. HATF ELD: Mr. Cha rman, we th nk that t s re evant to ta k about whether money was prov ded to a w tness to the extent that that m ght affect a w tness's test mony. And that's one of the reasons we're here today. So to the extent there are quest ons about whether Mr. Faughn attempted to affect a w tness's test mony, we th nk that's comp ete y re evant.

However, just as the governor has refused to d sc ose h s tax returns steadfast y s nce the t me he announced h s cand dacy, just as A New M ssour has objected to the d sc osure of ts f nanc a records, just as --

MR. BARNES: Mr. Hatf e d, we're go ng to et Mr. Faughn answer the quest on.

MR. HATF ELD: 'm go ng to adv se h m not to answer quest ons about h s nterna bus ness work ngs. That's pr vate nformat on. And t s not re evant to th s comm ttee. And 'm go ng to adv se h m not to get nto a that. t doesn't

MR. BARNES: Mr. Faughn, are you assert ng a F fth Amendment r ght not to answer?

MR. HATF ELD: Mr. Cha rman, there's no reason to go ahead and mpeach the w tness a ready.

MR. BARNES: Mr. Hatf e d, want to know where that came from.

MR. HATF ELD: He's to d you.

MR. BARNES: You're r ght. The quest on of nf uence on w tnesses s certa n y abso ute y re evant to test mony re at ng to the under y ng cr m na tr a , but we have a d fferent and broader respons b ty n that comm ttee, and one of those respons b t es s th nk the peop e of the state deserve to know who or what ent t es are man pu at ng the r state government by whatever means.

MR. HATF ELD: Agreed.

MR. BARNES: And one of the ways to do that s to f gure out what the source of that cash was and ...

MR. HATF ELD: We , Mr. Faughn has to d you t was h s money. Mr. Faughn has to d you t was h s money, but, Mr. Cha rman, there's an

Q. Now, Mr. Faughn, you understand that Al Watkins has said publicly, I believe we're in a deposition, and it may have, in fact, been publicly. I think there was a story in the L.A. Times that his understanding was that it was from a wealthy out-of-state Republican.
Do you understand that he said that, correct?
A 've heard someth ng to that effect yeah
Q. And I believe he said that in a deposition where he was sworn.
Do you have knowledge of that?
A have know edge of h m say ng that don't know where-a he sa d t
Q. Okay. Mr. Watkins is an attorney. We can stipulate to that. He's colorful, but just as Mr. Hatfield said, he has certain ethical obligation. You'd agree with that, correct?
A assume so
Q. I think -- so you've got Mr. Watkins on the one hand that says it comes from one source.

MR HATF ELD Mr Cha rman he d d not say where t came from He sa d he d dn't know
MR BARNES He sa d t be eved t came from an out-of-state Repub can donor
MR HATF ELD He sa d over and over aga n n h s depos t on wh ch know you have a copy of that does not know what the source of the funds were So agree we shou d a be comp ete y accurate n what we present at th s comm ttee
MR BARNES Okay
Q. Mr. Faughn, on the other side, you do have a conviction from your past; is that correct?
A Yes s r
Q. And I know that you've owned up to this, but it's a conviction that involves a crime of deceit; is that correct?

A. No, sir.
Q. Okay. You certainly weren't in the car on March 25th?
A. No, sir, was not.
Q. Okay. Did you make any kind of payment to Witness Number 1?
A. No.
Q. Okay. To your knowledge, has Witness Number 1 ever received any kind of payment?
A. Not to my know edge.
Q. All right. To your knowledge, did Witness Number 1 have anything to do with any of that related to the recording, other than her participation, you know, unbeknownst to her she was being recorded. But other than that, she wasn't in cohorts with her husband, to your knowledge, or an outsider of any sort to set the stage for --
A. No, sir.
Q. Okay. So it's her husband who was doing the shopping of the story and not her; is that correct?

Q. You went through the attorney?
A. Never spoke to h m n my fe.
Q. Okay. And then when they testified before he talked about -- I'm going to call it a trust fund. I'm not an attorney so I'm not familiar with how that works, but apparently there are some funds set up, is that right, and the money then is deposited into that fund; is that how that works?

All right. So I think that's kind of the way it works. I think, you know, there's a legal means of establishing some kind of a fund and putting money into the fund and that helps recoup some of the cost and so forth.
All right. I'm going to ask you just a little series of questions here on documents. Did you create any of the following documents that are provided to our committee for the course of this investigation, the Mission Continues list?

EXAM NAT ON
BY MS M TTEN
Q. Good afternoon. I'll try to keep it together.
Can you just explain to the committee how this transaction came to pass?
MR HATF ELD The Watk ns transact on?
MS M TTEN Yes
THE W TNESS Yeah 'd been work ng on a project for a wh e about the ast three years of M ssour po t cs and th nk most peop e had heard about someth ng to do w th th s nc dent Then heard that A Watk ns was an attorney n possess on of -- of some proof so went to obta n that proof hop ng cou d get w tness one on the record for my book and that's pretty much how t a happened

BY MS M TTEN
Q. So by "proof," I assume you mean proof of an extramarital relationship between Governor Greitens and witness one?
A Yeah And then obv ous y had heard some of the th ngs that wou d be a just an extramar ta re at onsh p but yeah
Q. So I mean, yeah, we know the rumor mill in this city can go -- go both ways, so to speak.
So you learned that Mr. Watkins was in possession of what you termed "proof." Did you reach out to Mr. Watkins then?
A had come to know h m through a newspaper have n C ayton 'm not sure how we n t ated t
Q. Okay. And who -- from whom did you -- how did you learn that Mr. Watkins may be in possession of proof?
A don't know or actua y remember who gave me that p ece of nformat on t's been a ong t me ago
Q. So at some point you have a discussion with Mr. Watkins?

Page 205

A Uh-huh
Q. And could you tell the committee what the substance of those discussions -- that discussion was, your initial discussion?
A Aga n because we're ta k ng about aw and A s a awyer and am not ' assume t's -- the prob em s me on commun cat ng w th A but A can be a tt e cha eng ng for a p a nspoken person to commun cate w th So t's hard to -- can te you what took from the conversat on
Q. That's exactly what I'm asking. Yeah, that would be great.
A Was that there was a fee to be had for those -- for that -- for those tapes and so we went back and forth a tt e b t and obta ned them
Q. By "back and forth a little bit," you mean negotiating over price?
A Yeah
Q. And you came to terms -- you came to an agreement as to $120,000?
A Part of t was for some other representat on because d d reta n h m myse f but essent a y yeah
Q. Okay. So which part was for your personal retainer?

Page 206

A be eve there was around 20 000 eft for my own persona th ngs we had used h m for
Q. Okay. And you did, in fact, hire him then to represent you or perform legal advice?
A s gned a etter of engagement
Q. So you basically come to terms to -- to obtain these tapes for roughly for $100,000?
A And w say just from -- aga n somet mes t's eas er to read what A says t came across that he def n te y d d say there wou d be some attorney's fees to take care of n that -- and that's f ne w th me d dn't care
Q. Some attorney's fees. So in other words, part of that funds would also be to cover the attorney's fees from the seller?
A Sure Or whoever t rea y d dn't make me any d fference
Q. And I think that we've already established that you don't really know if -- if those -- if that was part of that expense would be to create a trust or --
A have no dea
Q. -- how the money is actually used?
A D dn't perta n to me at a so d dn't care

Page 207

Q. Was there any discussion about providing these funds in cash versus a check or some other form of payment?
A. eft with the impression that was the form of payment request, so that's what --
Q. So your understanding was that you were being requested -- was that part of the deal, so to speak, was that the money come in in the form of cash as opposed to a check or a money order or a wire transfer or --
A. That's the way understood it. And, again, didn't matter to me.
Q. Right. But that wasn't your idea, was it?
A. don't reca when that was discussed. t didn't make me any difference. t cost the same either way.
Q. Well, I guess that's true; although -- well, maybe it cost you a little bit more because you're having to sit here now --
A. A ways a p easure to be in the Missouri House of Representatives.
Q. So you have this discussion. You come to terms. You agree to provide this $100,000 in cash. Your understanding was that the $100,000 was going to purchase these tapes for you. An additional $20,000 would go to pay for legal fees for you and/or the seller?

A. Yeah, th nk that came -- no. We , no, that came ater, but -- a few weeks ater, but that was for me and d fferent th ngs.
Q. Okay. So you provided $100,000?
MR. BARNES: 'm sorry. Can we back up? 'm not sure about the $20,000 add t ona came ater; s that what --
MS. M TTEN: That was my quest on.
MR. BARNES: 'm sorry. got confused. And wanted to make sure, and was tremendous y confused, others may be.
MS. M TTEN: R ght.
Q. So you provided $100,000 in early January and then an additional $20,000 in late January, early February or some other time?
A. Approx mate y, yeah.
Q. Okay. Why did you provide the payment -- why were there separate deliveries? In other words, if you're going to give somebody $100,000, why would you not just come and give them $100,000?
A. don't even remember the -- how the de neat on was done, but that's how t happened.

Q. Was that part of the agreement, was I'll give you so much in this payment and so much in that payment? I mean, was it like a layaway?
A. Not rea y, no.
THE REPORTER: Ho d on one second.
(Off-the-record d scuss on between w tness and counse .)
MR. HATF ELD: just wanted to make sure the answer s comp ete. Go ahead. Go ahead.
THE W TNESS: Yeah, t was a negot at on. t was un ke any had ever done.
BY MS. M TTEN:
Q. But part of the negotiation was sort of the payment plan, so to speak, the delivery dates?
A. Yeah. But t was very oose, so ...
Q. By "loose" you mean I'll give you 20 -- you know, $50,000 next week and another 50,000 the following -- I mean --
A. Approx mate y.
Q. -- help me understand what "loose" means.
A. 'm try ng to th nk back. don't remember the exact de very dates. That's just what we agreed to. t wasn't a part cu ar y mportant part of t.

Q. Okay. So you have this discussion. You come to terms for an amount. You also apparently discuss the terms for deliveries. Was there some particular reason why different people were performing these deliveries?
A. don't even remember why t was. Part of t, 'm over here somet mes and he's n C ayton a the t me.
Q. Okay. Is it fair to assume that, you know, you'd get your hands on the -- on a payment, so to speak, and deliver those as the cash became available to you?
A. No. mean, th nk we agreed on what we were se ng and how, and that's pretty much t.
Q. Okay. And then at what point did you come into possession of the tapes? Did you acquire -- did you acquire one tape or how many tapes?
A. be eve there were three, but there was on y one of any re evance.
Q. Okay. Did you acquire them all at once? Did you receive them all at once, or did those also come to you piecemeal the same way the funding went to Mr. Watkins piecemeal?

Page 211

A be eve t was p ecemea but t wasn't t ed to the fund ng t was just how they cou d be saved on a way to get them to me
MR HATF ELD So t's a m nor po nt but we're a say ng "tapes " 'm not sure they're actua y tapes r ght?
MS M TTEN Thank you Counse You're abso ute y r ght So the record ngs guess shou d say
Q. So the recordings came to you piecemeal, but is your testimony then that that was more of a function of technology as opposed --
A Yes
Q. -- as opposed to payment?
A And the other two don't know You may have them but there weren't rea y much to them
Q. Okay. So do you know in which order you received the recordings? Which one did you receive first?
A There were three One of them was part cu ar y sa ac ous that th nk most peop e have heard by now The other two were pretty nondescr pt so th nk the two nondescr pt ones came ater

Page 212

Q. When we talk about the salacious tape, I'm assuming that transcript has been an exhibit from this committee, I believe, that's been released publicly?
A. t was on Channe 4.
Q. So we're all talking about "the tape," I guess, or "the salacious tape." Were there any strings attached to your acquisition of these tapes? Was there any agreement as to how they could be used by you?
A. Not rea y. Not that reca .
Q. Okay. Is there some reason why you didn't then make them public upon acquisition?
A. Yes, there are two reasons. One, didn't fee ike cou d run it in the newspaper because purchased them. t's a pretty big difference to me. We have a company that has a few different newspapers, a TV show, now a radio show. There's book pub ishings, the first one we'd done, but there's no way we cou d run them in the Missouri Times having purchased them.
Number two, did not have either one of the two peop e on the tapes on the record. Therefore, even if we wou d not have purchased them, if wou d have just received them in the mai anonymous y, d dn't have e ther party on the record to run them. That's why they weren't n the paper.

Q. So you had no corroboration?

A. Yeah.

Q. Was the need for corroboration discussed as part of your acquisition discussions with Mr. Watkins?

A. D scussed, but can't honest y say t was sett ed on, but fe t ke the tapes were mportant. fe t just ke the book we're re eas ng n the fa , there's a ot of th ngs n there that haven't even heard anybody here d scuss, because you may know th ngs don't. But was th nk ng th s wou d be someth ng that came out n the fa n the book. So the speed at wh ch th ngs happened, the fact other peop e had them were news to me.

Q. Okay. What discussions did you have -- well, was there -- this seems like a strange question. Was there anything in writing? Was there a sales agreement -- was there anything in writing -- that's quite -- I think for most members of the general public 100- or $120,000 on a handshake is a considerable sum of money when you don't necessarily have the purchase -- the purchased item in hand immediately. Is that --

A. There was a ot of -- t was un ke anyth ng 've ever exper enced, so wou d agree that t s -- t was odd to me too.

Q. Okay. What kind of a time delay was there between your deliveries or your first delivery of cash and your receipt of the first recording?

A. Maybe the same day, th nk.

Q. Oh, okay. That quickly. Okay. And then were you promised anything in addition -- in addition to the recordings, were you promised anything else for your money?

A. No, not rea y.

Q. Okay. So it was just straight up -- when you say "not really," was there --

A. K nd of vague, but, no, there was noth ng that was prom sed.

Q. No lunch? No drinks? Nothing?

A. W sh had a unch, no.

Q. Okay. So it was just pretty much a straight-up, here's the money, here are the recordings, and off we go our merry way?

A. Yes.

Q. Did Mr. Watkins -- and I just want to make sure I'm clear about this. Did Mr. Watkins ever provide any legal advice to you or any of your companies as your counsel or counsel for your companies? Any of your business dealings?

Page 215

A. Mr. Watk ns prov ded a ot of adv ce. 'm try ng to th nk what t was actua y about.

MR. HATF ELD: 'm not sure she's ask ng you what t was about yet.

BY MS. M TTEN:

Q. I'm not asking you what it was about. Were you billed for that advice?

A. don't th nk -- don't have the actua b for that yet.

Q. Okay. So you provided an additional $20,000 to cover legal fees that some of which were going to be for advice you received and some of which was going to go to the seller?

A. That port on was for me.

Q. Okay. Are you aware if those dollars were deposited to a trust account?

A. have no dea what they d d w th that.

Q. Okay.

A. Th s s not --

Q. You said you did have an engagement agreement, though?

Page 216

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And did that engagement agreement entail or discuss how often you would be billed?

A. W thout hav ng t n front of me, don't know. don't remember read ng that but --

Q. So did you have any agreement with Mr. Watkins as to how that $20,000 was going to be spent?

A. t was --

Q. How it would accrue, so to speak?

A. t was for me to reta n h s counse , yeah.

Q. So in your mind you consider that $20,000 to be a retainer that was provided to Mr. Watkins?

A. Yeah.

Q. And how much of that $20,000 was to be -- was all of the $20,000 to be for legal services or advice to you and/or your business holdings?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay. And yet it's been January since you -- or February, we'll just say -- we'll go on the -- err on the side of caution. By the time you had made all the deliveries we're talking February, and yet it's the end of May and you still haven't received a single bill for that advice?

Page 217

A haven't rece ved a b We ta ked many t mes s nce February

Q. When did you first think about going to Al Watkins regarding these rumors of an affair?
A don't know when f rst thought about t but heard A was n possess on of these tapes d dn't know that, but had heard that for at east back nto the end of the 2016 campa gn.

Q. And who did you hear those rumors from?
A. Gosh. mean, everyone that wasn't support ng Er c Gre tens for governor.
Q. When did you first approach Al Watkins regarding these rumors and those tapes?
A. f reca , somet me n the fa .
Q. Fall of 2015?
A. 2017.
Q. Fall of 2017. And you reached out to him, I suppose? If I remember your testimony right.
A. Yeah.
Q. And did you call his law office?
A. m ght have -- th nk m ght have saw h m somewhere, but 'm not sure he even knew who was at that po nt. th nk m ght have had to ca h s aw off ce to see h m.
Q. And after that -- let's back up. What was, generally, that conversation you had when you first talked to Mr. Watkins about these tapes?
MR. HATF ELD: Don't guess.
THE W TNESS: The conversat on was -- can't say spec f ca y, but t ed to h m say ng yeah.

Page 223

BY MR. AUST N:
Q. When you introduced yourself, did he recognize who you were when you introduced yourself?
A. Later he said he had watched my te evision show, but he might have just been being nice. can't say for sure.
Q. And then how did that conversation end?
A. t ended with kind of -- we were going to pick it back up.
Q. It didn't -- did you come to any sort of terms whatsoever, or just him acknowledging that he had the tapes and then you guys decided to talk again?
A. f reca -- and again, you know, the rea conversations were c oser to the ho idays, but think he may have had to find out from his c ient. There was some attorney ingo that he used, best reca .
Q. And then as we approached the holidays you say the conversations picked up?
A. Yeah.
Q. And who was the one that reached out the second time?
A. was pursuing him so assume me, but can't say that for sure.

Page 224

Q. And how many times did you talk with Al Watkins regarding acquiring these tapes, you know, not the first time but the second time towards the holidays until a deal was reached?
A. Three to four maybe.
Q. And at what point did price begin being negotiated? That second call or at the end or?
A. Probab y the second one.
Q. And I think the representative asked this, but there was nothing in writing -- and by "writing" I'm including texts or emails, anything, not just a contract -- regarding the terms of this agreement of your purchasing of these tapes or recordings?
A. No.
Q. There was -- was there any promises that he would not or he or his client would not disclose them to anyone else?
A. No, there wasn't.
Q. And it was your testimony that, at least you took it from those conversations, that he was wanting the $100,000 in cash, correct?
A. That's what took from t, sure, yeah.
Q. And we're kind of using the pronoun "you" pretty loosely here, but we've established you have a couple of LLCs. So who was actually purchasing these tapes? Was it you, Mr. Faughn the individual, or was it Missouri Times LLC, or was it something else?

A. t was go ng to be me, and we' probab y ro t nto the pub sh ng ent ty.

Q. And this 100,000, that was, I think your testimony, that was your money. It was your personal assets; is that correct?

A. Yeah.

Q. And those -- that money had come from earnings from either one of your LLCs or something else?

MR. HATF ELD: We , aga n, 'm go ng to adv se h m not to answer that. mean, t doesn't matter where he got the money. And, you know, as sa d, f t was a b rthday check from h s grandma that he cashed, t m ght not be h s LLCs, but he doesn't have to d sc ose t. So 'm go ng to adv se h m not to answer.

BY MR. AUST N:

Q. And you're refusing to answer on the advice of counsel?

A. As Mr. Hatf e d stated, don't m nd to te you that t was comp ete y me that purchased them, but 'm not going to get into the inner workings of my company here or anywhere e se.

Q. So you're refusing to answer based on advise of counsel?

MR. HATF ELD: Say "yeah."

THE W TNESS: Yeah.

BY MR. AUST N:

Q. And this money, this 100,000, this would have been something that you would have paid taxes on, I guess.

MR. HATF ELD: Ca s for a ega conc usion. So he's going to te you -- mean, not yet, but he's going to answer the question.

MR. AUST N: You say he's going to answer the question?

MR. HATF ELD: We , guess 'm not sure what the question is.

MR. AUST N: s this 100,000 --

MR. BARNES: t's a question for Mr. Faughn. Object and state an objection but --

MR. HATF ELD: We , 'm not fami iar with the ru es of this committee on how objections shou d be stated.

MR. BARNES: That's a good question, because you're exact y right because it's not a courtroom. There's been a ot of stuff that w -- but what don't want you to do s you're subst tut ng your words for the w tness's words.

MR. HATF ELD: wou d never do that. Mr. Faughn s perfect y capab e of test fy ng.

MR. BARNES: So et's et Mr. Faughn answer the quest on.

MR. HATF ELD: Abso ute y. And th nk we shou d make sure the quest on s c ear. th nk Representat ve Aust n s do ng a great job. just want to make sure the w tness accurate y and correct y addresses the quest on and he understands t fu y.

BY MR. AUST N:

Q. This $100,000 that was paid to Al Watkins, that is income that you would have paid taxes on at some point, either through your corporations or LLCs or you personally.

A. Yes, mean, aga n, ' try to say t one more t me. The money was my money.

Q. And the purpose behind purchasing these recordings was for use in your book and for no other purpose, correct?

A. Yeah, that was the purpose.

Q. And if it's true there's testimony from

Page 228

Al Watkins either given in a previous deposition or testimony he may give in the future that you told him this money came from a wealthy Republican out-of-state donor, that is either a lie or untrue?

A Representat ve ' -- ' try to exp a n t to you aga n have no reco ect on of ever hav ng that conversat on am a donor and genera y a Repub can However aga n w te you that n matters of ta k ng about ega stuff w assume the m sunderstand ng wou d be on me

'm pretty p a nspoken A s re at ve y not that p a nspoken And so somet mes the conversat ons were cha eng ng to have to be cand d w th you

Q. So if that is truly his understanding that he believes that you told him that this $100,000 came from a wealthy out-of-state Republican, that is possibly a misunderstanding between you and Mr. Watkins?

A assume so don't know

Q. Do you have any reason or idea where he might have gotten that idea, other than the conversations between you and him?

A Oh have no dea where he wou d have

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 229

gotten that
Q. Now, you delivered -- you're not sure how many deliveries of this cash you made; is that correct?
A wou d have made a but one wou d th nk
Q. And the one that you did not make, did you hire a courier service for that?
A No d d not
Q. That would just -- that would have been an individual you would have given $50,000 or whatever the amount was to deliver?
A We wou d have had a package de vered yeah from somebody that -- wou d have had to set up to de ver but d dn't pay anybody to do that
Q. Okay. And I'll just tell you that in my brief review of Mr. Watkins' deposition he said he received two $50,000 cash payments. One, he testified that you delivered yourself and one came from somebody else.
Does that comport with your recollection or do you remember --
A Yeah that sounds r ght
Q. Now, the second one was delivered by somebody else. That was $50,000 cash, according to Mr. Watkins' testimony. And I think you -- you agree with that now. But do you remember who delivered that for you, that $50,000 in cash?

Page 230

A. f reca , wou d have had somebody in my office do it, but 'm sure they -- wou d not have had -- did not have any conversation with then about what they were de ivering.
Q. The individual that delivered it may not have known what it was?
A. No.
Q. But you would have had them deliver $50,000 in cash from your Clayton office?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. I'm sorry, is that a "yes"?
A. Yes.
Q. And I'm not picking on you. We've just got to have words.
A. Sure.
Q. And any idea as we sit here today who that individual was?
A. t wou d have been somebody in the C ayton office.
Q. How many people work in the -- worked in the Clayton office at that time? And we're

A be eve three a woman that comes n and out
Q. And what are their names?
A We one of them has eft But t wou d be Br an Robb ns and Ben Str ker
Q. And the one that left is, what's --
A Br an
Q. Okay. And so in January of 2018, those two worked in the Clayton office and anybody else work in the Clayton office? You said there was somebody in and out.
A My w fe comes n and out some
Q. Well, it wasn't your wife that delivered the 50,000?
A No

Q. So we've established that it was 120,000 was the total amount given between you and Al Watkins?
A. be ieve so, yeah.
Q. And in cash?
A. Yeah.
Q. And hand-delivered. You didn't FedEx it or anything like that. You or someone you trusted delivered that to him?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Okay. I don't know that I've seen, or certainly not very often, $120,000 in cash lying around. So how did you -- I mean, how do you transport that? You didn't just have it in your hands. When you delivered the 50,000, you had it in a container of some sort?
A. 'm sorry. What are you asking?
Q. Did you put it in a gunnysack? Did you put it in a shoe box? How did you actually carry 50,000 or 100,000 or whatever the denomination was that you delivered?

Q. And you can --
A Yes Representat ve
Q. Were these 1s or 20s or 100s or what -- was it a mixed denomination?
A don't reca the denom nat ons
Q. Were they wrapped in bundles or just thrown loose?
A be eve they were wrapped can't te you for sure
Q. Why can't you tell me?
MR HATF ELD Do you not reca or are you refus ng to --
THE W TNESS No don't reca assume they were wrapped n bund es but can't swear to that
BY MR EGGLESTON
Q. Did you put that cash into the folder?

Page 234

A. Yes.
Q. So when you went to put it into the folder, you picked it up from where? Where was it?
MR. HATF ELD: And that's what we've a ready ta ked about, Representat ve.
MR. EGGLESTON: know, but 'm ask ng h m the quest on.
MR. HATF ELD: understand that.
MR. EGGLESTON: 'm not ask ng quest ons of anyone who won't swear to te the truth n front of th s comm ttee. 'm ask ng th s of Mr. Faughn.
MR. HATF ELD: By the way, et me be c ear on that, Representat ve Egg eston. We k nd of got that short because we want to get through t. MR. EGGLESTON: actua y want to ask Mr. Faughn the quest on and have h m answer t. And f you want to wh sper adv ce n h s ear, you're

MR. HATF ELD: We , and 'm go ng to adv se h m not to get nto t, as 've done over and aga n. We can go over th s one more t me.
MR. EGGLESTON: 'm just cur ous as to how does $50,000 cash, wh ch seems ke a pretty b g p e of cash for most fo ks, get from Po nt A to Po nt B. 'm not go ng to ask anyth ng about h s bus ness.
MR. HATF ELD: Okay.
BY MR. EGGLESTON:
Q. But I'm kind of curious as to where was this $50,000 before you put it into the folder, Mr. Faughn?
MR. HATF ELD: We , that does get nto h s bus ness. So 'm go ng to adv se h m not to get nto where he got the money that he used to pay because that does get nto h s bus ness. So that's what 'm adv s ng. want the comm ttee to be c ear on what our pos t on s.
THE W TNESS: 'm try ng to th nk. th nk your quest on about wrapped, th nk t probab y was, but frank y was n my C ayton off ce. And, aga n, 'm not go ng to get nto how run my bus ness.

BY MR EGGLESTON
Q. I'm not asking you how you made the money. I'm just asking where it physically was before you put it in the folder.
A be eve we put t n a fo der n the C ayton off ce
Q. Okay. So the cash was in the Clayton office and you put it in a folder?
A Yes Representat ve
Q. Okay. And the Clayton office being your place of business, not -- I don't know, a bank or a savings and loan or something like that, your place of business?
A Yes Representat ve
Q. Okay. You said, what, you made four different payments over time?
A be eve so yes
Q. All of them originated from your office in Clayton with money that you had stored there in that office?
MR HATF ELD And aga n --
THE W TNESS 'm not go ng to te you -- Representat ve w th a due respect 'm not go ng to get nto where wou d store someth ng or rea y any more deta s about how run my company

BY MR. EGGLESTON:
Q. I understand -- it just seems -- I'm not sure that too many companies leave that much money lying around in cash. Most folks would have it in a bank account earning some interest. And if you wanted that money, you go to the bank, you withdraw it, put in your folder, your gunnysack, or whatever.
A. s that a quest on?
Q. You did not withdraw it from a bank. You had it -- in your office?
A. Representat ve, w th a due respect, ' te you t was my money that conducted a transact on w th. And 'm rea y, to be honest w th you, not go ng to get nto how run my pr vate bus ness, any more than wou d expect anybody e se here to w th th s comm ttee or anyone e se.
Q. The timing of the various payments in this, kind of going back to what Representative Mitten was asking, you were saying -- you've kind of been a bit vague. So were there three different payments made to Al Watkins or four? Can you tell us for sure?
MR. HATF ELD: Don't guess. Whatever you can remember.

Page 238

MR. TRENT: At east three, poss b y four.
BY MR. EGGLESTON:
Q. You're not sure whether there were three or four?
A. 'm sure there were two $50,000. don't remember f the second one was a at once or broke up nto two ncrements.
Q. Well, that does help. And the timing of these payments you said were spaced out sometime between early January and sometime in February. That's what you had said before?
A. Yes, that's about r ght.
Q. I want to verify that's still -- okay. And because that was an agreement that you had with Al Watkins to do it in those chunks?
A. Yeah.
Q. And the original agreement -- so did you -- to set all this up, did you call Al Watkins or did Al Watkins call you?
A. We , to d Representat ve Aust n knew who A was probab y before A knew who was, but made the f rst proact ve ca to A to see h m.
Q. And at that point, did you know from somebody that these recordings were for sale and you made the call to sort of bid on them or strike a deal?

Page 239

A. d dn't know how to obta n them. had no dea -- had no dea how they cou d be obta ned.
Q. You knew he had them?
A. We , d dn't even know he had them, but had heard that he had and assumed --
Q. You heard that they had, and so you were calling to see if he would sell them to you?
A. We , we started off try ng to obta n them and then worked from there, yeah.
Q. Will you give them to me for free? Well, no, I'll give them to you for a price, and then you start haggling over a price?
A. t was about a four-hour conversat on of that r ght there.
Q. Okay. Okay. Well, I mean, obviously this is -- these recordings are something that are pretty serious that are going to be used in relationship to a sitting duly elected governor and is therefore evidence. And so it seems a little fishy on either your part or Al's part or both that some of this evidence could actually be for sale to the highest bidder. So we're trying to get to the -- nuts and bolts --

A. don't mean to not answer your quest on, but can nterject someth ng?
Q. Absolutely.
A. had no dea that th s was go ng to be a cr m na matter.
Q. At that time, yeah?
A. had no c ue unt even after sten ng -- -- 'm not an expert on many th ngs but ke bondage sex wou d be among the th ngs 'm not an expert on or tak ng photographs ke that. just -- had no dea that there wou d be a cr m na charge or nvest gat on come of t. had no c ue.
Q. Because this was before it all came out public because that happened in -- mid-January sometime?
A. Yeah.
Q. Yeah, and your discussions you said started in the fall of '17 before that. So you knew they existed before that. But they hadn't been released to the general public so nobody really knew what was in them, or at least publicly?
A. Yeah. th nk --
Q. But you had some inkling or you else you wouldn't have ponied up $120,000 to buy them?

Page 241

A. th nk everybody n M ssour po t cs had an nk ng of what -- of th s s tuat on was there. don't th nk peop e knew f t was true. But th nk everybody -- wou d say t wou d be surpr s ng to me to f nd someone n M ssour po t cs who had not heard some vers on of what s now pub c.
Q. Okay. Kind of going back to Representative Barnes initially talked about your past. You kind of live in the Clayton area now but you were from Poplar Bluff originally around that area; is that right?
A. Yep.
Q. And you had the instance of the forgery, you'd said. That was -- the guilty verdict came down in 2007 on that, I do believe?
A. Okay.
Q. Does that sound about right to you?
A. Sure.
Q. But that was not really your only -- you've had other sort of scrapes with the law between then and now? Different traffic tickets, that kind of situation, right?
A. Yeah, 've had a few traff c t ckets, think it's fair to say, and a few parking tickets.

Page 242

MR. HATF ELD: Sometimes you need rep acement medicine in the midd e of the night. You're speeding fast.
BY MR. EGGLESTON:
Q. Yeah. There was certainly an instance of driving without a license and license plates in the middle of the night, went to jail for that or got caught and went to jail for that for a bit.
A. think did a get a ticket for driving without -- or maybe an expired icense or something.
Q. It was more than a ticket; you were hauled into custody?
A. Okay. By -- be ieve when paid the ticket or whatever --
Q. Right.
A. You're right, 'm not sure what you're asking me.
Q. Well, I'm just verifying that that's -- that is in your past?
A. Sure, yeah.
Q. Okay. And then a few hours later after being instructed you could leave but you needed to have somebody drive you home, you were caught again, and also sent back and put in custody again, right?

Page 243

A. Sounds r ght, yeah.
Q. Okay. All right. And that was around 2010. In fact, I think there's about five pages of stuff on Case.net of different scrapes that you have had over your years; is that about right?
A. 've never counted the pages.
Q. Okay. And then the last little bit was -- that was outlined on there was in 2016 -- so this would have been about one year before this fall of 2014 discussion you had with Al Watkins -- there was -- it was reported that you had had roughly $17,000 of unpaid bills, that you owed people a lot of money to help start your company, run your company, and that included around $8,000 of unpaid taxes to Missouri.
Is that -- is that fair to say that that occurred in 2016?
A. don't know the date but can te you that we squared up everyone, actua y, n the m dd e -- toward the end of ast year. So, yeah, certa n y start ng a newspaper r ght now s a very cha eng ng endeavor. Luck y for us t's a good t me to be n the news bus ness so we've been fortunate ate y.

Q. So from 2016 to 2017 you've been fortunate enough, as you had said, to go from owing people over -- that they knew of -- over $17,000 to suddenly having $120,000 in cash lying around in your office that you could use to buy incriminating tapes on the governor so you could sell a book; is that right?
A. We , you'd be the one to know f they're ncr m nat ng, but hav ng a tax en s part of bus ness. Once we got t c eared up, ended up not even be ng near that. But we d d, uck y -- guess not uck y -- don't know f pay ng taxes s ucky, but we have a stack of etters from DOR w th that sea on them show ng how we pa d them a and pa d them a -- don't know, not qu te a year ago but now gett ng c ose to.
Q. Got you. Well, it just seems like --
A. Somet mes --
Q. Hard to believe --
A. Hey, set -- set n a room one f oor above here and watched every newspaper person n the state te ng me we'd go bankrupt f ve years ago.
MR. EGGLESTON: So you were -- okay. Let's see. th nk we answered that quest on. So 'm go ng to -- 'm go ng to pass t on for now.

Page 245

MR. BARNES: Representat ve P erson, we're the backup n the comm ttee n sen or ty.

EXAM NAT ON

BY MR. P ERSON:

Q. Good evening or afternoon, rather. I appreciate your being here.

A. Thank you for hav ng me.

Q. I was going to say you're showing your age talking about tapes. I'm going to say what are tapes?

A. 've st got a few George Jones cassette tapes somewhere.

Q. There you go. There you go.

So my questions, they may be sort of erratic, so just to kind of let you know. So I want to kind of talk about your relationship with Al Watkins, and it sounds like you said you reached out to him.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. And sounds like that happened end of 2016?

MR. BARNES: Ho d on. Representat ve P erson, and meant to do th s a second ago. Can you turn your -- the a rport runway ght down s gn f cant y f not comp ete y -- can you turn t off? Let's turn t off Thank you Much -- much better

Page 246

BY MR P ERSON

Q. All right. Your relationship with Al Watkins, I just wanted to come to a better understanding of that. Can you tell me when that relationship started?

A Aga n knew A Watk ns 'm sure before A Watk ns knew me He's a pretty co orfu fe ow n St Lou s met h m at a few d fferent events cou d not te you when but t wou d have had to have been around 2014 or after When actua y -- got to know a h m a tt e b t more as started a paper n C ayton And then -- but to have any ser ous conversat ons w th h m wou d have been the very end of 2017

Q. End of 2017. So you -- you've described him as a colorful fellow?

A Yes s r Yes Representat ve

Q. Did you ever think to invite him on to your show?

A Not rea y Just because he's not -- he's not po t ca that know of unt now And there's other peop e that were -- that f t -- that fe t f t our show a tt e b t better than A d d.

Q. And how often did you-all speak beyond the tapes?

A. Qu te a b t. don't know the number of t mes but every few days. Then just k nd of tapered off.

Q. So you did kind of develop a little bit of a relationship?

A. Yeah, ke A . A s an nterest ng guy to know. No doubt about t.

Q. And did you-all have any kind of -- so you didn't get any receipt from the tapes. So you received the tapes. There's no receipt given to you that said "Our transaction is now complete"; is that correct?

A. No.

Q. And did you sit and listen to the tapes together with Al to ensure he wasn't giving you a blank tape?

A. be eve so, yeah, part of them for sure, yeah. But not -- don't th nk we stened to the who e th ng together, but certa n y enough to know wasn't get a b ank tape or b ank record ng.

Q. So you listened to the tapes, and that was in conjunction with the handing off of the $50,000 on those two occasions?

Page 248

A. Sure.

Q. Is that correct?

A. Yes, Representat ve.

Q. Okay. So these were not, you know, same-time transactions of here's 50 grand, here are the tapes, we meet in the back alley --

A. No, we a ways --

Q. -- and transact, but these were kind of sit-down gatherings where you looked at the tapes and in your mind you came to a conclusion of, yes, these tapes are truly worth this amount of money?

A. Uh-huh. That wou d be correct.

MR. HATF ELD: They weren't tapes, but that's not rea y mportant. They weren't rea y tapes.

BY MR. P ERSON:

Q. So I'm using "tapes" in quotes of recordings. I don't know if it jumps around, but however, a disk, CD, 8-track, I don't know, but somehow you received these recordings.

A. R ght.

Q. Okay. So were there any agreements made between you and Mr. Watkins? I think you talked about an engagement agreement; is that correct?

A. We , reta ned h m. We s gned an engagement agreement. t seemed pretty norma to me, but ...
Q. Can you enlighten me about what an engagement agreement entails?
A. 'm not a awyer, but when you h re a awyer and they're off c a y go ng to g ve you adv ce or someth ng, you usua y get a etter that they've engaged you -- or you've engaged them for the r serv ces.
Q. And there is a price -- is there a fee attached to a typical engagement agreement?
A. n my exper ence n bus ness, no. t's your -- t's essent a y that t's the start of your re at onsh p that then you're go ng to take money for t. So t's not rea y -- 've never seen one w th a fee schedu e, but, aga n, there cou d be some that are. don't know.
Q. Okay. Did you sign any kind of non-disclosure agreement with you and Mr. Watkins?
A. don't reca any. Maybe just an engagement etter.
Q. So no NDA between you or your business dealings that you are aware of?

Page 250

A. We , never wa ved any attorney-c ent pr v ege w th h m. never rea y had any reason to d sc ose anyth ng so ...
Q. Okay. So that's a no?
A. Not that reca .
Q. Let see. There's some questions around your having $100,000 laying around. And my -- can I ask of your marital status?
A. Yeah. 'm marr ed.
Q. And your wife provides some income to the family?
A. Not now current y, no.
Q. So you would be the primary wage earner in the family?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Any -- because you are in the know in Missouri politics; would you agree with that?
A. These days t's hard for anybody to say they're sure y n the know n M ssour po t cs.
Q. Can you share what else is coming down the rumor mill.
A. d dn't br ng th s k nd of know edge w th me today or actua y wou d have.
Q. Can you tell me why -- I heard you sent this information to our chair, Representative

Page 251

Barnes. Why was that?
A t may have been before there was even -- 'm pretty sure t was before there was a comm ttee but don't remember the exact date Somebody that have a ot of respect for and who actua y knows po t cs and the aw So don't reca the exact reasons but don't -- don't know f t was before t was a comm ttee or not don't remember the exact date but th nk a ot of h s op n on
Q. So was it to get his opinion or what did you want to get from sharing that?
A We aga n d d not know there was a cr me n there just -- t's not that condone anyth ng that happened to the v ct m just d dn't know -- d dn't know there was a cr me That was very surpr s ng to me So hav ng a person w th a d fferent perspect ve on t was nterest ng and wasn't go ng to br ng t nto our newsroom because pa d for t so k nd of m ted the opt ons of peop e
Q. Did you share it with any other representatives at that time?
A don't be eve so
Q. Any senators?

Page 252

A. Not that reca , no.
Q. Anyone else in the legislature?
A. No, don't be eve so.
MR. P ERSON: Okay. A r ght. Thank you, Mr. Cha r.
MR. BARNES: Representat ve -- one of these days th s m crophone s go ng to work. Representat ve Trent.
EXAM NAT ON
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Some day. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Thank you, Mr. Faughn for appearing here.
Before I get into my own questions, Representative Rhoads is listening in and he had a few things that he would like you to answer as well.
The first one is going back to the 50,000 or the $120,000 in cash. Do you have any bank records that show that money exiting a bank account?
MR. HATF ELD: And, aga n, Representat ve Rhoads, w th a due respect, don't th nk we're go ng to get nto the nner work ngs of the bus ness.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Okay. And let me follow up to that question as well. So there's no -- no bank records that you're willing to discuss today. Could you tell us where you do bank at?

MR. HATF ELD: We , and so -- and 'm try ng to keep the cha rman's thoughts n m nd. 'm not try ng to be an obstruct on st, but et's say hypothet ca y that Mr. Faughn or you -- et's say you keep a m on do ars at your house. You wou d not want anybody to know that, r ght? mean, we're ve-stream ng t. You wou d not want peop e to know there's cash there. You may not want peop e to know where you bank.

MR. BARNES: Mr. Hatf e d, et's et Representat ve Trent ask the quest ons and Mr. Faughn can answer them.

MR. HATF ELD: He's do ng a great job, Mr. Cha rman.

MR. TRENT: Let's not go down th s rabb t ho e w th the attorney.

So you we know that n our system f the po ce ro nto your house and you've got a who e bunch of unaccounted-for cash, there's go ng to be an ssue, correct, norma person?

MR. HATF ELD: hope not.

MR. TRENT: But you know there w be an ssue and ndeed you know our federa aw f you take money nto or put money -- put money nto or take money out of an account n an amount over be eve t's $10 000 t may have changed a tt e b t s nce ast ooked at t you have to report that to the federa government You're aware of that correct?

Page 254

MR HATF ELD be eve that's correct

MR TRENT And f you w thdraw or depos t n a way that evades that report ng requ rement that s n fact a cr me of structur ng you're aware of that

MR HATF ELD Abso ute y

MR TRENT So th nk t's not unreasonab e g ven the h gh degree of regu at on that surrounds cash payments n our country and has for a ong t me because of concerns about organ zed cr me drug ssues don't th nk t's an unreasonab e ne of nqu ry for us to get a tt e b t more nformat on about how the h gh s x-f gure amount of cash happened to be s tt ng around and where that can be traced back be eve the RS and the federa government wou d be ab e to n fact nqu re nto that and get that nformat on f

they ask for t.

MR. HATF ELD: Representat ve, thank you for ett ng me respond to those nqu r es. th nk those are appropr ate quest ons for the RS, wh ch as an attorney as you know s another good reason th s comm ttee shou d not get nto a these ssues about how somebody runs the r bus ness.

th nk t s appropr ate for peop e to have cash money. understand my deas on that may be ant quated and there may be others who don't fee that way, but n Amer ca t's st okay to have cash money.

One other th ng, and then 'm sure you' go on to address h m. want th s comm ttee to be c ear that we be eve, and the reason we're here, that f th s comm ttee wants to ook nto whether w tnesses were nf uenced somehow, that s appropr ate. And that's why Mr. Faughn s here vo untar y w thout a subpoena. And those are great quest ons, and that's what he came to ta k about.

f somebody ca ed a w tness and sa d, "What do you want out of th s," wh ch apparent y happened accord ng to test mony you read yesterday, that's a good ne of nqu ry. f somebody sa d, "We suggest you test fy that someth ng d d not happen," when they n fact know t happened, that's a comp ete y eg t mate ne of nqu ry.

MR. TRENT: We , apprec ate your c os ng argument for your case aga nst the adm n strat on, but et's st ck at the ssue at hand.

MR. HATF ELD: Abso ute y. ' turn t back over to Mr. Faughn for the rest of your quest ons.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. So okay. We may revisit that later when I get to my own line of inquiry, but let's go on to the rest of Mr. Rhoads' questions.

Is it true that you routinely have drinks with Mr. Watkins in Central West End?

A. We , one, have no dea whose bus ness that wou d be; and, two, no, that's not true.

Q. It's not true. So you never had occasion where you go out and you sit down at a bar and have a drink with Mr. Watkins? You don't -- you don't see him socially at all?

A. 'm try ng to th nk f 've ever had a dr nk w th A Watk ns, and --

Q. I'd like to remind you under oath.

Page 257

A. ' te you under oath that don't reca f 've ever went out soc a y w th A Watk ns. 'm not go ng to te you t never happened but t's certa n y not rout ne.

Q. It's certainly not something you would have on more than one occasion? It's certainly not something you would do even once a quarter?

A. Yeah, certa n y haven't n the ast quarter.

Q. In the last quarter. It's not something that you would do even on a quarterly basis? Even four times a year, you wouldn't do that?

A. don't reca off the top of my head ever hav ng a dr nk of a coho -- a though do have dr nks of a coho -- w th A Watk ns. But certa n y don't rout ne y see A Watk ns soc a y.

Q. And the last Representative Rhoads' question: Have you had any discussions with Steve Tilley over this $100,000?

A. had d scuss ons w th Steve T ey about a ot of d fferent th ngs n M ssour po t cs.

Q. Particularly the $100,000. Ever brought it up to him? Ever talked about it?

Page 258

A. don't th nk 've ever brought t up to Steve.

Q. Has someone else that you know of?

A. have no dea who ta ks to Steve T ey.

Q. So you're not aware of any discussions with him and that $100,000?

A. t's been a top c n the news, but don't th nk n t ated t, and certa n y have no dea who e se has ta ked to Steve. That's not someth ng can test fy under oath to who Steve T ey ta ks to.

Q. So your testimony is that you don't know, you don't recall?

A. 'm te ng you have no dea who Steve T ey ta ks to that's not Scott Faughn.

Q. And you, Scott Faughn, have never talked to Steve Tilley about the $100,000?

A. The on y part -- the on y reason wou d have ta ked to Steve T ey about t s because t's been n the news and we genera y ta k about M ssour po t ca news.

Q. All right. Those are the end of his questions for now. Let me go back and start back at the beginning with mine.

Page 259

So the $50,000 that you had, you already had that money sitting around before you ever met with Mr. Watkins? Or did you get that money after?

A. You know, honest y, ' try th s aga n. 'm not go ng to come before any comm ttee --

(S mu taneous speech nterrupted by the court reporter.)

MR. HATF ELD: d dn't understand the quest on. Th nk about what he asked and answer that one.

MR. BARNES: Representat ve Trent, can you rephrase so we can make sure everybody's on the same page here. We're ta k ng over each other.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. Did you already possess the cash -- the 50,000 or 120,000, whatever it is -- did you already possess that before you met with Mr. Watkins about this issue?

MR. HATF ELD: D d you have the cash before you met w th A Watk ns?

THE W TNESS: mean, -- -- w just be honest w th you. 'm not go ng to come here as own ng pr vate company to ta k about the cash f ow of myse f or any company have.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. So you may have earned it all after that?

MR. HATF ELD: m sunderstood the quest on, Mr. Cha rman. thought you mean d d he have cash n h s hand before he met w th A Watk ns. And, yeah, he d d. He a ready sa d that. But f you're ask ng about cash f ow, 'm sorry --

MR. TRENT: t's not about cash f ow. D d he phys ca y have the 120,000 before he met w th Mr. Watk ns?

MR. HATF ELD: He test f ed he brought t. guess 'm confused.

MR. BARNES: Let's et Mr. Faughn answer the quest on. So go ahead.

MR. HATF ELD: don't want the record to be confused here.

MR. BARNES: That's why want to go back. Let's restate the quest on. Let's et Mr. Faughn answer the quest on. And we've got some confus on as to what t s.

Representat ve Trent, ask away. And unt we get an answer to the quest on, we w continue to ask it.

Page 261

MR. HATF ELD: And we need a very c ear record on a of this.
MR. BARNES: We do need a c ear record. That's why asked him to restate it once. We' go with Representative Trent.
MR. TRENT: And ' be happy to further c arify.
Q. So, you know, let's say three months before you went to meet with Mr. Watkins for the first time on this issue, did you already have $120,000 just happened to be sitting around like that's just something that you routinely have access to?
MR. HATF ELD: And for a the reasons stated before, 'm going to advise the witness not to answer that question. And object to it, since the chairman wants me to put it that way. t's who y irre evant to any charge of this committee under the precedents of the US Supreme Court and The House of American Activities Committee. This question is who y irre evant and is not within the purview of a egis ative body. And he can disregard my advice if he'd ike.
MR. BARNES: t is within the purview of a eg s at ve body.

MR. TRENT: And d sagree, Counse , on that ega op n on.
MR. BARNES: You're not go ng to get n an argument over th s. We have the quest on on the f oor. And we want the answer from Mr. Faughn.
MR. HATF ELD: And 'm adv s ng h m not to g ve an answer, but he can d sregard my adv ce f he'd ke to.
THE W TNESS: We , aga n, just ke th nk you can have a gun or cash n your house and the government shou dn't be ab e to come n and harass you about t, 'm not go ng to come before th s body and ta k about my pr vate y he d compan es n a pub c forum.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. All right. Now, when you had the discussions with Mr. Watkins about this $120,000, did it ever come up what this $100,000 -- and I'm going with your earlier testimony, $100,000 for the tapes, $20,000 for your own personal use. So the $100,000, was there any discussion of what that money would be used for?
A. wanted to obta n the tapes.
Mr. Watk ns made t c ear there wou d be some ega fees associated with hand ing the fa out or hand ing -- he made it -- again, probab y any misunderstanding is due to the fact that 'm pretty direct. Mr. Watkins is pretty -- pretty f owery.

So to be honest with you, wanted to obtain the tapes, but understood he was going to use it for some ega fees as we , and didn't care what he used it for.
Q. Did you ever discuss the money being used for P.S. -- and you know who I'm talking about when I use those initials P.S., the ex-husband. Was there any discussion of him during these discussions?
A. No. 've never met him, never ta ked to him. Don't have a c ue about whatever came of his invo vement on receiving --
Q. And so to your knowledge, that $100,000 was not intended to go to him?
A. t didn't make me -- guess can't state is it more c ear y. had something wanted to obtain --
Q. My question is not whether you care about where the money went, but do you know where the money went?
A. No, no idea.

Page 264

Q. So you don't know whether it stayed with Mr. Watkins or whether it went to the originator of the tapes?
A. have no idea.
Q. Now, I would assume that would be the same for any children or relatives or anything like that? You have no idea if they have received any money?
A. don't even know if the guy has them.
Q. And we kind of already discussed this earlier, but you don't remember who the second courier was for the money, just someone from your business?
A. Yeah, 'm not sure.
Q. And do you routinely have people deliver without any knowledge something as valuable as $50,000?
A. Frank y, nothing about this was routine for me. mean ...
Q. So doesn't that seem -- I mean, you can understand how people could have a question where you're entrusting $50,000 to someone -- you're not telling them that -- (Simultaneous speech interrupted by the court

reporter.)
BY MR TRENT
Q. Please, let me finish the question. You're entrusting $50,000 to an individual. You're not telling them they have $50,000, and you don't remember who that person was. That's what your testimony is; that's what you're telling us happened.
A thought of a way to exp a n th s and t's somet mes ntersect on of med a bus ness and po t cs s a un que s tuat on You a most have to be around the three of them at one t me to get them but d d observe the campa gns n 2016 And there was a project that you worked on that got to observe wh ch was your runn ng for off ce And you put 50 000 of your money nto the campa gn and th nk probab y you have a w de --
MR BARNES Are we gett ng to an answer?
MR HATF ELD We Mr Cha r f you're not go ng to et us nterrupt the representat ves th nk you shou d a ow the w tness to answer the quest on MR TRENT Do you know what cou d prov de? Bank records

Page 266

THE W TNESS: ' be quick. think that you thought that it was worth it to you. 'm sure peop e in your ife were, ike, the job pays $35,000 and you're putting 50 of your own in, that's crazy. think it was admirab e. And obvious y it's successfu . You're on probab y the most important committee in the history of the House of Representatives.
put some of my money into a project that think is going to pay off handsome y for me. We' see this fa when the book comes out. But that's probab y the most ana ogous way can give to you that everybody on this committee and in this room might understand.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. So that doesn't actually -- that's not actually responsive to my question which was your testimony is that you gave $50,000 to an individual who you can't remember and -- you can't remember who they were and you didn't tell them what they had and they went and delivered that? That's your testimony; that's how that unfurled.
A. Yeah. Yes.
Q. Okay. Now, you've talked about you expect -- your business model for this $100,000 purchase of the tapes is book sales that you plan to have this fall. And have you received any other compensation for your role in this?
MR. HATF ELD: 'm go ng to recommend --
THE W TNESS: My ro e?
MR. HATF ELD: For your ro e n th s? Sorry.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. For delivering the money to Mr. Watkins.
A. No.
MR. HATF ELD: Ho d on one second. No, he sa d no, sorry.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Now, we've touched on this a few times too. My understanding of the -- of the Watkins testimony is that you arranged the $100,000, but if that was correct -- but that's incorrect. Your testimony here today is that you didn't arrange the money. It was actually your money?
A. t was my money and arranged t to be g ven to A .
Q. But you won't explain how you arranged it?

A. think we even went down to how it was wrapped.
Q. But we haven't gone to where it originated from. Like was it in a bank account? Was it in a shoe box? You're still refusing to give any of that information?
MR. HATF ELD: Right.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. So and I think we talked about this a little bit as well. And I'm sorry for plowing a little bit of the same ground here, but to keep it all straight in my mind. You said you first heard the rumors of the K.S. story in the summer of 2014, or did I misunderstand that? Let me ask that question.
A. didn't know Eric Greitens in the summer of 2014, except as somebody who was exp oring running for office as a Democrat.
Q. When did you first hear the rumors of the story?
A. wou d say heard sma rumb ings, not much to put on, because it was a -- at that time sti kind of a ong-shot campaign for governor, but sometime in the ate summer of 2015. And then that intensified as the primary season started in ear y 2016.

Q. And what was the source of those rumors?
A. There were so many cou dn't even te you one.
Q. Couldn't even tell me one? It's such a target-rich environment you can't remember a single one of them?
A. a most, b g as the t me, d dn't put a ot of stock nto t. And, two, yeah, th nk t's got to be convent ona w sdom. Amongst most peop e knew, there was someth ng out there. Cou d be untrue. f nd most of these th ngs happen to be untrue so ...
Q. Okay. Well, let's fast-forward then to when the tapes were beginning to break and they did come out. You obviously reported on it. As a part --
A. Actua y --
Q. -- or your business?
A. Actua y, we d dn't.
Q. Well, I know you didn't break it, but you reported on it once it had broke, correct?
A. Sure.
Q. You talked about it like everyone else.

Page 270

Now, you also spend not an inconsiderate amount of time in this building. Who else did you talk to around that time about the tapes once they had broken?
A. mean, cou d not even provide you a ist. don't make notes of a the peop e ta k to. But suffice it to say, be ieve it happened on the State of the State speech, so the p ace was fu of po itica types from a over the state.
And, frank y, by wou d say that morning it was high y specu ated by, again, wou d say conventiona wisdom that this story was going to break sometime that day. So itera y everybody you ran into, that was something they brought up.
Q. Okay. And once the story had broken, there began to be calls for resignation and calls for disciplinary action. Did you talk to anyone about that, any member of the general assembly?
MR. HATF ELD: Ever?
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. No, I guess, let me clarify. My question more specifically is did you lobby any member or advocate for impeachment or resignation?
A. No. Huh-huh.
Q. Did you ever write any press releases for members about encouraging the governor to resign?

Page 271

A. No. We pr nted some.
Q. But you didn't write any for anyone?
A. No. d dn't -- 've never wrote a press re ease.
Q. You never visited any member's office ever --
A. We , we v s ted many members' off ces and ta ked about th s on rad o, te ev s on, and n pr nt. t was a pretty b g story at the t me.
MR. HATF ELD: th nk you guys ta ked over each other. want to make sure he answered the r ght quest on, Representat ve Trent.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. And I was going to follow-up here. The question is not merely did you come and talk to him about it, but did you engage in an advocacy role?
MR. HATF ELD: Whatever that means, but go ahead.
THE W TNESS: offered my op n on, f t was asked, wh ch actua y my op n on has been unchanged s nce ear y 2015. Now, whether t means you shou d be mpeached or not, that's k nd of up for your d scuss on.

Page 272

BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Certainly, but what we're trying to elicit here is what individuals or entities have been pushing a pro resignation message behind the scenes?
MR. HATF ELD: Mr. Cha rman, 'm not sure understand the quest on. s the quest on whether the w tness has exerc sed h s F rst Amendment r ght to express h s op n on to e ected representat ves n th s body?
s that the quest on, Representat ve Trent?
MR. TRENT: mean, n a sense. mean -- mean, that's what obby sts do when they come nto th s bu d ng. They exerc se the r F rst Amendment speech, they ta k to members of the genera assemb y, and they push a message, an agenda that they have, n the case of a obby, has been pa d to do.
THE W TNESS: You were say ng someth ng -- there were two words you sa d n one of the quest ons that was beh nd the scenes. Representat ve, we don't know each other we , but don't th nk 've been beh nd the scenes -- actua y th nk, you know, the rony probab y s my cr t c sm started when then Cand date Er c Gre tens ca ed everybody n M ssour po t cs corrupt career po t c ans

And asked how and never got an answer And my cr t c sm started then and has cont nued to probab y th s afternoon

BY MR TRENT

Q. Well, and I appreciate that, but that's not -- that's not what we're trying to get at here. The real question is whether you went and lobbied members for resignation, whether you went and recommended to them that that was the -- the preferred path.

A know -- don't know f we do any Spr ngf e d rad o but anybody that's asked me 've sa d that not pr vate y but very pub c y n fact 'm not sure f there's been a more pub c cr t c But forget pr vate y 've sa d t very pub c y

Q. Have you coordinated with any other individuals inside or outside of the building for an impeachment or resignation position?

A What do you mean "coord nated"? don't understand your quest on Representat ve

Q. Had discussions, talked to them, organized?

Page 274

A So 've ta ked to many peop e ns de and outs de of th s bu d ng The governor's v ct m zat on of th s woman or stea ng from the char ty has been a arge top c of conversat on don't th nk our newspaper has ever come out and wrote an ed tor a ke most have that the governor shou d res gn or be mpeached

But f somebody asked me my op n on d d and don't -- don't know what you mean by have ta ked to peop e? Yes 've -- 've been around po t cs been asked have a TV show that has a pretty decent stretch

MR TRENT Gent emen you understand the d fference between ta k ng to peop e n conversat on and obby ng nd v dua s correct?

MR HATF ELD don't You can ask h m f he does

THE W TNESS f the Post D spatch wr tes an ed tor a are they obby ng somebody? f go on the rad o and say "Yeah actua y don't th nk everyone n Jeff C ty s a crook or a po t c an " am obby ng somebody?

BY MR TRENT

Q. So do you don't see any difference between advocating either in public or in private in a journalistic-type way and going selectively to individuals who you think are receptive to a certain argument and pushing that argument to them and trying to build support for a position?

Page 275

A th nk f a journa st knows there's a person that has a ot of know edge on the subject matter or pass onate pos t on they're go ng to go to that person As far as me persona y mean wou d a most see your po nt f th s was someth ng n pr vate

'm not sure cou d be more pub c n my observat ons and they've been negat ve about th s adm n strat on on a most every front s nce the -- s nce he was a cand date So guess don't know what you mean

Q. Okay.

A f hadn't made my po nt c ear pub c y guess cou d see what you're say ng But th nk 've made t pretty c ear

Q. Let's move on then. I mean, clearly there is a distinction there and I think that goes to the heart of why a lot of people have concern about the $100,000. Because it appears to be a -- an influence point, and not -- and not simply a purchase point. But -- let's go on beyond that. I don't think we're going to get any more detail there.

Page 276

So I know you don't want to talk about the specifics of your business, but let's talk about the generalities of it. You have sponsors and advertisers, correct?

A th nk that's pretty pub c

Q. Pretty straightforward? Do you have --

MR HATF ELD 'm one of them

BY MR TRENT

Q. Certainly. Do you have revenue sources that are other than your businesses, other than advertisers and sponsors?

MR HATF ELD 'm go ng to adv se the w tness not to get nto h s revenue sources as any other w tness wou d want to

BY MR TRENT

Q. Do you do any political or consulting business?

A No

MR HATF ELD The answer s no

BY MR TRENT

Q. Okay. Are you a registered lobbyist or have you been?

A was n Arkansas about ten years --

Page 277

gett ng c ose to ten years now
Q. Have you ever attempted to sell advertising to the Greitens campaign?
A Sure yeah
Q. What was the outcome of that?
MR HATF ELD We do you want to ta k about that? mean you know aga n Mr Cha rman don't know how t's re evant and f you want to go -- we're not go ng to go through a of h s advert sers
MR TRENT That's the on y one
THE W TNESS don't th nk we ever -- don't want to say for sure but don't be eve we ever d d But f you know f they're nterested ' be g ad to p tch them Just seem ke we've got to ta k to them so pass them a ong
BY MR TRENT
Q. Where have you been staying for the last few weeks?
MR HATF ELD don't know how that's re evant Mr Cha rman
MR TRENT th nk t's re evant because we were try ng to serve subpoenas and we weren't ab e to f nd h m
MR HATF ELD So just wonder f we cou d ask a the members of the comm ttee, Mr. Cha rman, where they've been stay ng for the ast few weeks f t's re evant. Mr. Cha rman, we'd ke your ru ng on whether we're go ng to get nto where peop e s ept ast n ght.

Page 278

MR. BARNES: th nk he can answer the quest on. 'm not go ng to ask for h s part cu ar schedu e on every s ng e day and a b g-brother track ng sort of way, but to the genera quest on of not be ng present and the genera t es.
don't want -- Representat ve Trent, you don't need the address, do you?
MR. TRENT: No, just the genera area wou d be f ne.
THE W TNESS: You sa d someth ng we've been try ng to serve subpoenas.
MR. TRENT: The comm ttee.
MR. HATF ELD: We're not aware of that, Representat ve.
MR. BARNES: No, there was a subpoena, and the understand ng was that Mr. Faughn was out of state. There was a so, be eve, a subpoena n the cr m na case; s that correct? A head nod from the back. And they cou d not f nd h m for serv ce of that.

Page 279

We d d not -- we chose not to emp oy someone on a 24-hour bas s to try to f nd Mr. Faughn because we f gured that f the Dowd Bennett aw f rm cou d not f nd h m w th a tracker, how were we go ng to spend state resources and send a sergeant at arms to f nd h m.
Now -- go ahead.
MR. AUST N: Maybe a so ut on to th s s f we can get a comm tment from Mr. Faughn and h s attorney that h s attorney w g ad y accept serv ce of any subpoenas n the future from th s comm ttee or the --
MR. HATF ELD: We , you're say ng we're go ng to have to come back to th s comm ttee a second t me?
MR. AUST N: Poss b y.
MR. HATF ELD: We , we're here vo untar y. was not aware -- 've been ta k ng to the cha rman now for over a week.
MR. BARNES: Yeah, so we can be c ear about how Mr. Hatf e d contacted, th nk e ther myse f or Mr. Robertson, and sa d, hey, Representat ve -- Representat ve -- Mr. Faughn has h red me as counse .
sa d, "We , good. We've been

wonder ng where he was. We've got a subpoena here that we haven't been ab e to serve.
MR. HATF ELD: don't reca that at a , Mr. Cha rman. That may be your test mony.
MR. BARNES: We d d have a subpoena. We've got t s gned upsta rs s my understand ng.
MR. HATF ELD: be eve that.
MR. BARNES: Okay. But you d d ca .
MR. HATF ELD: That's correct.
MR. BARNES: And you sa d, "Mr. Faughn has h red me. He's w ng to come n and ta k."
MR. HATF ELD: Abso ute y, that's correct.
MR. BARNES: So as t re ates to -- and, Mr. Faughn, we d d not have any commun cat on w th Mr. Hatf e d. We d d not know. We d dn't have any commun cat on w th Mr. Faughn. don't th nk anyone had any commun cat on w th Mr. Faughn pr or about where he was, or some peop e may have. But there was the subpoena n the cr m na case that was outstand ng.
MR. HATF ELD: So want to et Mr. Faughn ta k because he's who you want to hear from, but want to be c ear that no one has ever asked me -- and have made c ear to the cha rman for at east a week now that represent Mr. Faughn. No one has ever asked me whether Mr. Faughn wou d accept a subpoena. No one has asked me where he was.

MR. BARNES: And t wasn't necessary at that po nt because you had ca ed and sa d you w show up vo untar y.

MR. HATF ELD: That's correct. And when ca ed and sa d was a so author zed to represent Mr. Watk ns, was asked f wou d accept a subpoena and agreed to accept a subpoena. So f there's an mp cat on that we have somehow been uncooperat ve w th th s comm ttee because we have evaded serv ce of subpoena, that s not true.

MR. BARNES: th nk that s a true statement to the extent that Mr. Faughn was not aware of a subpoena that had been s gned by the speaker that not been served upon h m and cou d not have been served upon you because unt ast week no one knew that you were go ng to represent Mr. Faughn.

MR. HATF ELD: Fa r po nt.

MR. TRENT: And cou d not be served on h m because he cou d not be found.

MR. HATF ELD: don't know where you were ook ng

Page 282

MR TRENT That's why we want to know where he was stay ng

THE W TNESS At no t me d d anybody te me from th s comm ttee or anywhere e se that had a subpoena And came here vo untar y as the f rst person you've had pub c y test fy to you and honored to be here

MR HATF ELD Have you rece ved an ema that somebody wanted to subpoena you?

THE W TNESS never got a soc a med a message never got a Tw tter message

MR HATF ELD Never got a phone ca say ng --

THE W TNESS Never got a phone ca No one came to e ther of my off ces

MR TRENT Why d d you dec de to take your show on the road then?

THE W TNESS Yeah ' te you ost a fr end of m ne a coup e weeks ago guess three now and so was com ng back We went down through Nashv e and retraced a tr p we took So d d my show on ocat on ke do from t me to t me and then on the way back went home And 'm not -- not sure -- nobody ever ooked very hard to serve me w th anyth ng or contacted me.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. So your testimony is you were attending a funeral?

MR. HATF ELD: don't th nk that's what he sa d.

THE W TNESS: No, that's not what sa d at a , Representat ve.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. You said you lost a friend?

A. d d.

Q. So did you attend a funeral?

A. went through where he ved, and then went on a tr p that we had taken together and came back. And, aga n, at no t me d d anybody contact me to te me had a subpoena. And th nk most peop e wou d have a way to text or ema me here f they wanted to serve me w th a subpoena.

Q. Okay. So there's no funeral; you simply went on a trip that your friend had gone on?

A. There was a funera .

Q. It was a funeral. Okay. And did you stay with anyone while you were on this trip?

MR. HATF ELD: Aga n, Mr. Cha rman, we want to ask everybody who they stayed w th?

thought we weren't go ng to do th s Do you want to ask members of the comm ttee who they stayed w th ast n ght? don't th nk that's what we want to do

MR BARNES want to have a c ar f cat on f rst There were news stor es about the subpoena th nk Mr Faughn s correct there was no contact w th h m to my know edge about the subpoena There was a news story Mr Hatf e d was not h s counse so he cou dn't very we have served h m

MR HATF ELD R ght

MR BARNES L sten th nk the contact at the po nt n t me t was very pub c at east for that and th nk t's hard -- Mr Faughn wou d be hard-pressed to say that he was not aware of a subpoena -- attempt to serve h m w th a subpoena n the cr m na case

THE W TNESS There was news stor es that the v ct m made th ngs up n a dream that your comm ttee pub c y refuted so

MR HATF ELD n the cr m na case aga n he sa d he never rece ved an ema he never rece ved a phone ca no one ever tr ed to contact h m at work about the serv ng of a subpoena and that's h s test mony.

MR. BARNES: That answer was n the context of the cr m na case or n the context of th s comm ttee.
THE W TNESS: E ther one. don't know of anybody that reached out to me to serve me w th anyth ng.
MR. BARNES: Representat ve Trent.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Okay. Let me rephrase the question slightly.
Did you stay with anyone during your time away from Missouri who has any interest or connection to this case or to the governor or to political interests here in the state?
A. No, d dn't stay w th anyone.
Q. Okay. And then I believe that's -- no, I had one other line here. Tell us a little bit about the player of the week. That's something on your show, correct?
MR. HATF ELD: Rea y?
MR. TRENT: There's a po nt.
THE W TNESS: th nk that you're th nk ng of the Wash ngton-based FOX News p ayer of the week.

BY MR TRENT
Q. No, it's definitely on your show. It's winner of the week or player of the week or something to that effect where you recognize a particular individual who has had a big impact in Missouri politics that week.
A Are you ta k ng about on Th s Week n M ssour Po t cs wh ch a rs Sunday morn ngs n St Lou s and Kansas C ty? We do have a "Who won the week "
Q. Yeah, "Who won the week." I trust you to be familiar with your own show, maybe more so than I am. So what is the -- what is that designation that you do each week?
A trust you to understand who wou d say who won th s week n M ssour po t cs as to who had a good week n M ssour po t cs but 'm not a awyer
MR HATF ELD So we're not confus ng that w th Dave Drebes's "Who won the week" n M ssour Scout r ght? You're ta k ng about --
MR TRENT don't be eve so no r ght
MR HATF ELD d dn't th nk you'd seen the show so wasn't sure wh ch one you're ta k ng about.

Page 287

MR. BARNES: s t the same phrase for both?
MR. HATF ELD: t s. Who won the week, Dave Drebes, M ssour Scout week y summary.
MR. BARNES: Okay.
MR. HATF ELD: be eve. 'm not --
MR. TRENT: s t the same for your show, Mr. Faughn?
THE W TNESS: th nk we ca t Th s Week n M ssour Po t cs, wh ch you get here on Sunday morn ngs n St. Lou s and Kansas C ty. Who won th s week n M ssour po t cs.
MR. P ERSON: What t me s that?
THE W TNESS: What t me? St. Lou s or Kansas C ty?
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. And has Mike Hafner ever won that definition?
A. Oh, yeah. When t turned out that he was -- h s eth cs f ng and comp a nt was correct from 2016, yeah, he ooked very good.
Q. And what is the nature of your relationship with him?
A. know M ke. He's worked n Repub can po t cs for a ong t me

Page 288

Q. So you just know him?
A Yes know h m
Q. You haven't discussed this matter with him? You haven't coordinated with him in any way, just know him?
A d scussed -- you mean are you ta k ng about h s eth cs comp a nt f ed at the end of the campa gn n 2016 that's turned out to have a ot of credence? Yeah ta ked about that w th h m a bunch of d fferent t mes
Q. And what were the nature of those conversations?
A don't reca a of them but my assumpt on was h s eth cs comp a nt had some va d ty but they weren't ab e to enforce t And then after t came out that h s eth cs comp a nt had a ot of credence to t th nk t was ke yeah you ca ed t
Q. Did you help him with that complaint?
A d d not
Q. Okay.
A don't th nk you'd come to me for he p w th an eth cs comp a nt
MR HATF ELD Let's wa t for the next quest on.

Page 289

BY MR. TRENT:
Q. And I think that's getting close to the end of my questions for this round. I may have some follow-ups in a moment. I do -- it looks like my notes here had something about Watkins and the existence of those tapes.
Who told you or how did you come to find out that Watkins actually had those tapes and that they were for sale?
A. d d not know at the t me they were for sa e, and had heard that -- rumors of th s re at onsh p, wh ch aga n f nd most of these rumors to be untrue. So d dn't pay that c ose attent on to t.
heard A was represent ng or had -- had a re at onsh p w th one of the part es, knew t somet me dur ng the e ect on of 2016. K nd of put t -- just d dn't pursue t or fo ow t, but heard t somet me around the pr mary e ect on.
Q. But you don't remember where you heard it?
A. don't.
Q. You don't remember who told you? Why did you wait? If you heard it around the end of the primary, why did you wait until January of 2017 -- 2018, 2017 to go and make that purchase?

Page 290

A Probab y skept c sm
Q. You didn't even inquire?
A No d dn't -- d dn't know h m enough to do that w thout the phone ca that made
Q. What overcame your skepticism and prompted you to inquire?
A Observ ng Er c Gre tens' t me as governor made t seem more be evab e
Q. Can you restate that answer? I didn't --
A You asked me what gave r se -- what made my skept c sm go away that t m ght be true and t was observ ng Er c Gre tens' t me as governor of the State of M ssour
Q. What observation led you to that conclusion?
A How ong we got?
Q. I mean, that seems like a -- was there any particular thing? Was it simply that you disliked his governorship?
A Yeah some of the th ngs he's done are very good f you're ask ng my op n on Yeah

th nk the vacat on you cance ed at the end of ast t me and the fact that thought t was funny when he sa d that po t c ans shou d get back to work. When he ca ed you a th rd grader. Those are th ngs that k nd of gave me r se that someth ng wasn't r ght.
Q. While I appreciate your umbrage on behalf of politicians everywhere, it seems rather strange that -- that a few political -- rhetorical political statements would cause you to suddenly want to investigate an extramarital affair in the presence of existence of tapes.
A. We , one, had heard about th s ex stence. th nk most peop e n po t cs had heard some form of t. heard that's where t was, and when started to ook deeper, then k nd of started go ng back through my notes.
But there's many th ngs that have happened that made me skept ca . You need to do a tt e more. t's not someth ng you have to ook n a dark qu et room for. You cou d f nd t anywhere on soc a med a, te ev s on, rad o, or n pr nt.
Q. Why did you not attempt to sell those tapes, to resell them to news outlets that might be interested in the story? Why did you give them away for free?

A. Representat ve, that's just not true, what you sa d.
Q. What is --
A. What you sa d s factua y not true.
(S mu taneous speech nterrupted by the court reporter.)
THE W TNESS: Representat ve, d d not g ve those tapes to any news out et.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. So once you purchased those tapes, you kept them and shared them with no one, except the chairman?
A. One person.
Q. So I guess I'm confused as to what you're -- what your purpose was. You shared them with -- with Representative Barnes, and then what was your plan?
A. That was we after they were made pub c. was go ng to keep them and use them for my book, wh ch 'm go ng to wr te and --
Q. So --
A. hoped to get --
Q. So --

Page 293

A. D d you ask me a quest on?
Q. I'm sorry. I'm sorry that -- you've given rise to another question here that I think will be more relevant. So you --
A. Wou d you ke me to answer the f rst quest on?
Q. Okay. Go ahead and answer the first question.
A. That was go ng to use t for my book, and more than anyth ng, when rea zed the story had been out somewhere e se, wh ch had never gave to anybody e se. t wou d not have he ped my book anywhere w th the purpose of other peop e hav ng them. Once t was out anyway, they weren't a p ece of nformat on. t was rea y a that exc us ve or ju cy or hot.
Q. So when you made this $100,000 purchase -- I think most people would say that qualifies a major asset -- you had no exclusivity agreements with the originator?
A. Aga n, no, t ended up that d d not.
Q. And you didn't think, "Boy, this is going to be critical to my book. This is what's going to make it a hot item. I should probably get some exclusivity here"? You just said, "Hey, I'd like a copy," and whatever else you to do with it, that's fine?

A. Aga n, t probab y r ses the quest on -- the quest on has r sed to a few m sunderstand ngs, probab y com ng from the way we commun cate. But shou d have n h nds ght, but d d not.
Q. That seems like an incredibly odd business decision to make, given the central importance these would seem to have to your book.
A. You're assum ng the book w be based just off th s, wh ch wou d be ncorrect. But s that a quest on?
Q. Well, you paid $100,000 for -- for this -- these tapes. I would think that -- I mean, typically to write a book, my understanding is that the main cost is in the time and effort to actually do it.
You have sunk what would be a sizable investment in -- in this presumably -- in your mind, unknown information that you're going to break when the book comes out. It's not an insignificant component of the book's marketability at all, correct?
A. Representat ve, s that a quest on?

Page 295

Q. Yeah, that was -- yes, a question.
MR. BARNES: Do you not understand the quest on?
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Okay. So let me chop it up into smaller questions. So you purchased this $100,000 tape for use in your book, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And --
A. t was a record ng.
Q. The recording. Why did you want that recording for your book?
A. We , one, the story s a tt e hard to be eve. Two, k nd of knew who was dea ng w th. mean, rea zed was dea ng w th peop e who were tera y f ng restra n ng orders aga nst the M ssour Attorney Genera . rea zed the amount of awyers they'd have.
Q. So --
A. And knew that, one, mean, th s -- the v ct m here has test f ed four t mes w th the tapes, and there are st peop e who don't be eve her. So thought t was very mportant to have those.
Q. So did you think that the recordings would add market value to your book?

Page 296

A. L ke y.
Q. Did you think that market value was dependent on the book being the sole source of those revelations?
A. t wou d have been benef c a , yeah.
Q. And yet despite all that, you took no efforts, made no precautions to retain exclusivity rights to those recordings?
A. We , be ng the f rst t me 've done th s and aga n --
Q. Your attorney --
A. sa d each t me w th each Representat ve there's a tt e b t of a cha enge somet mes n the commun cat on back and forth w th A and , but, yeah.
Q. You said you retained Mr. Watkins' services for the book in part. That was the 20,000, correct? That was for the book in part?
MR. HATF ELD: don't know f he sa d that or not.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. Is that not accurate? The $20,000, none of that was for legal services pertaining to the book?

HEARING 5/23/2018

A. t was for ega serv ces and some of t perta ned to the book, but that was after got the tapes.

Q. So the lawyer that you retained with $20,000 who took the $100,000 that you paid for the tapes did not advise you or alert you to the fact that you did not have exclusive rights to those tapes? That's your testimony?

A. No, 'm te ng you that th nk, as sa d, w th a ot of the stuff between A and , somet mes commun cat ng w th A cou d be a tt e cha eng ng and ed to some m sunderstand ngs, probab y on my part. And p us never went nto the book pub sh ng before and never purchased a tape ke th s before, so --

Q. I don't --

A. So f you're want ng to hear me -- f what you're want ng s cou d have done t t ghter, yeah, sure.

Q. Well, I'm not that familiar with Mr. Watkins or how flowery he is. You seem very conversant to me here today.

MR. HATF ELD: Brace yourse f.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. A couple other housekeeping. Do you have any outstanding tax obligations or debts that are public record?

Page 298

MR HATF ELD Cha rman wou d ask we not be requ red to answer that quest on

MR BARNES th nk t's asked and answered th nk --

MR HATF ELD 'm sorry object t's been asked and answered Mr Cha rman

MR BARNES You et t go the f rst t me th nk Representat ve Egg eston asked that un ess there's --

MR HATF ELD 'm not sure

MR EGGLESTON Not spec f ca y that We had gotten nto the top c but not spec f ca y the quest on he just asked

MR HATF ELD don't th nk any member of th s comm ttee wou d want to ta k about what the r debts are at th s part cu ar moment

MR TRENT These are pub c records correct?

MR HATF ELD We f you want to ask about pub c records

MR TRENT That was my quest on Are there any outstand ng ob gat ons taxes ens th ngs n the State of M ssour that are pub c record that are unpa d?

MR. HATF ELD: f you know.

THE W TNESS: No.

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. No. The answer is no?

A. No.

MR. TRENT: Okay. A r ght. Thank you. No further quest ons at th s t me.

MR. BARNES: Represent Razer.

EXAM NAT ON

BY MR. RAZER:

Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Faughn.

A. Good afternoon.

Q. So the beauty of going at the end is most of my questions have been answered. This will be fast.

So earlier somebody was commenting that $120,000 in cash seemed like a lot of money, and Mr. Hatfield indicated that it wasn't to him.

A. R ght.

Q. So not to steal a phrase, but I'm just an old country boy from Pemiscot County.

A. Cooter, r ght?

Q. From Cooter. So it does sound like a lot of money to me, so a few follow-up questions about that.

Page 300

A Sure

Q. This $120,000, it was money that belonged to you?

A Yes Representat ve

Q. Okay. It was your money personally not the money of a company that you own or oversee?

A That's correct Representat ve

Q. Okay. I don't want to get into how you handle your business. I'm not asking that. What I'm asking is, is this money that you received through your typical business dealings, or was this money that you received outside of normal typical business dealings?

MR HATF ELD Yeah th nk that's -- 'm go ng to adv se the w tness not to get nto that as sa d before Whether he got t -- bett ng on the St Lou s Card na s or whether he earned t from --

MR RAZER Card na s ost ast n ght

THE W TNESS t wasn't good

MR HATF ELD $100 000 s not a ot of money and we're pay ng Ho and 14 m on to do that

MR BARNES No more baseba guys

Page 301

BY MR. RAZER:

Q. Could you have paid this 120,000 in the form of a check had you wanted to?

A. Yeah, that was the po nt. t rea y wasn't -- t cost the same e ther way.

Q. So was the cash -- had it ever been deposited into a bank account?

MR. HATF ELD: Yeah, that's what we're not go ng to ta k about, where t was or -- you know, cash f ow ssues. So ...

THE W TNESS: Representat ve, do th s another t me, but 'm not go ng to get nto the nner work ngs of my bus ness. t s a un que bus ness. There's very few med a compan es that are grow ng r ght now and ours s ucky to be one of them.

BY MR. RAZER:

Q. Okay. When Representative Mitten was questioning you, you were talking about how this transaction occurred between you and Mr. Watkins. And I think you said not -- I'm going to say this as quotes, and it's very close if not exactly what you said that, "It's unlike anything I had ever experienced. It was odd to me too."

Can you just expound on that. What was -- what was so odd? What was unlike anything you've ever -- I mean ...

A. We , can just say, and don't know, maybe w th other peop e th s s norma , but purchas ng tapes that ta ked about a bonded sex affa r w th a s tt ng governor s awkward to, me so f rst t me for me.

Q. And the conversation to acquire these tapes took approximately four hours?

A. No, maybe over the course of a the conversat ons.

Q. Okay. So this wasn't like one single conversation where you-all sat down at a negotiating table and --

A. No, four hours.

Q. Was there a reason why you were trustful that -- let me word this correctly -- trustful that you were going to be the sole owner of these tapes? Or the sole person able to use the tapes?

A. n h nds ght, wou d have done severa parts of th s d fferent y. That wou d be one of them.

MR. RAZER: th nk that's a have, Mr. Speaker.

Page 303

MR. BARNES: Representative Phi ips -- Lauer, 'm sorry.

MS. LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

EXAM NAT ON

BY MS. LAUER:

Q. Thank you for being here. I appreciate your time.

A. Thank you, Representative.

Q. Some of the questions are going to be pretty random, kind of going over time, so we'll appreciate your patience with that.

The book that you're writing has a direct relationship to Governor Greitens; is that correct?

A. t's going to cover the ast three years of Missouri po itics, and wou d say he's the dominant figure of such, yeah.

Q. And you're a businessman. You have a successful business and move forward with that. Are you considering this book to be another kind of business?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay. So when you started thinking about putting this book together, what was your thought process about the payoff of this? How would this benefit you as a business?

A We t's changed over t me kept ook ng for a stopp ng po nt and as you've ved through M ssour po t cs the ast three years t's been very d ff cu t to f nd a stopp ng po nt

Events that wou d be newsworthy and th nk peop e wou d pay money to read have been happen ng just one after the other Th s s nc uded So th nk by se ng t wou d be -- obv ous y se ng the book and mak ng money at t s what the hope was -- hope s

Q. So this is for -- I'm sorry, this book is directly related to the money that you provided Mr. Watkins for the tapes?

A Yes

Q. Okay. And the -- who owned -- when you -- when you went to Mr. Watkins and had that initial discussion, who owned the tapes?

MR HATF ELD f you know

MS LAUER Not who had possess on but who owned the tapes?

MR HATF ELD f you know

THE W TNESS don't know who owned them took t that my understand ng was Mr Watk ns had the ab ty to prov de them to me

Page 305

BY MS LAUER
Q. So he had possession of them?
A took t he cou d se them to me and yeah So e ther he represented or he owned them h mse f or he represented the person that d d
Q. Okay. So there was no clear understanding as to what party the witness -- I'm sorry, P.S. may have had ownership in that.
A took t that t was -- he to d me he was h s attorney so took t as word that he was
Q. Okay. So he owns the ownership -- who owns the tapes now?
A The vers on have do
Q. Okay. And that's based on what? How are you defining owns versus possession?
A We th nk the record ngs that have fee ke own
MR BARNES We th nk we're ca ng for a ega conc us on f rst-year property aw here Representat ve Trent So go ahead Representat ve Lauer but 'm not sure the w tness understands the quest on mean for examp e enough peop e have the tape now
MR HATF ELD Mr Cha rman object t ca s for a ega conc us on The quest on of inte ectua property and who owns what, when, and where, don't know about the rest of the members of this committee, but don't get it, and 've been practicing aw for 20-something year.

MR. BARNES: So was your question do you fee ike that is your property now?
MS. LAUER: Yes.
MR. HATF ELD: Yeah.
MS. LAUER: That it's your property, you have the right to do anything with it you want regard ess of who had it prior.
MR. HATF ELD: Do you fee ike that?
THE W TNESS: Yeah.
MS. LAUER: Okay. Thank you.
Q. The -- this book that you're putting together, is this a -- a timeline book with facts listed under the timeline? What's your thought about --
MR. HATF ELD: Representative Lauer, 'm not going to instruct the witness not to answer. Mr. Gainey [phonetic] is working on a book too, so hope we don't get into what Mr. Faughn's p ans are on the book because they may be competing with each other for book sa es.
MS. LAUER: Sir, this has to do

A was hopefu don't know that had an expectat on but was hopefu he wou d be a source and a good one
Q. And did he provide any other information to you?
A Some but not -- mean honest y most th ngs have unfo ded n pub c more than they have pr vate -- w th a pr vate source ke Mr Watk ns
Q. So the information he provided to you was the same as what was given publicly?
A don't know everyth ng that was g ven pub c y but don't remember anyth ng that was part cu ar y of va ue that wasn't pub c that hasn't been pub c
Q. All right. The money that you received for -- or that you gave for this information, is this part of your normal practice?
A No never done th s type of -- never done a book before never done anyth ng ke th s before
Q. So what led you to believe that this was the time to do it?
A fe t ke there was enough nterest

Q. And who has -- was this money -- I know it's been questioned before, but has this money been -- been transacted through a loan?
MR. HATF ELD: Same adv ce. And that's a good po nt. That's the k nd of th ng we wou dn't want to get nto s h s pr vate bus ness and whether they -- how they cash f ow the r bus ness, where the r money comes from, et cetera.

A. No, don't know that s tt ng here can te you anyth ng concrete that he has done that cou d prove wou d be d rect y re ated to that.
Q. So then the 50,000, 100,000, whatever the number is that was spent, what is your anticipation of how you're going to get that money back or are you writing it off?
A. No. Se a ot of books.
Q. And then moving on with what is going to happen next. And you're talking about writing a book. You're making public notice of opinion -- of your thoughts and so forth. Where do you see this whole thing leading as far as your role?
A. As far as our company?

So when came here today vo untar y, had no c ue there was a subpoena and never been served one. My attorney sa d he was n contact w th you and there wasn't one. Probab y the same thought process there.

Q. There's a couple things you'll have to be able to appreciate about me. I'm sure one is I've never been faced with the challenge of passing the bar exam. Number two, is I'm not very long-winded, so just from one country boy to another, I'm going to make it really simple; is that all right?
A. Thank you, Representat ve.
Q. There's a couple things, though, that really didn't get covered very well, I don't think. And that -- if I recall it right, when the mysterious cash was first reported to be -- showed up on Mr. Watkins' basically doorstep, for lack of another way to put it, he didn't have any idea where it came from; isn't that right? Wasn't that what he said to the public?

ALARIS LITIGATION SERVICES

A. cou dn't te you a the things A said to the pub ic, to be honest with you.

Q. I know you got it right when you said he's colorful, but he's apparently less than honest when it comes to he knew exactly where that money came from, right?

A. Again, 'm kind of trying to parse through some of the stuff A said here and other p aces, but think we had a misunderstanding about it, from best can te . But haven't ta ked to A in a few weeks.

Q. So the -- you're saying the mysterious bag of money showed up on his doorstep, and he just misunderstood in the conversations that two of you had that you were going to send him money, why wouldn't he just say and why wouldn't you say, "Yeah, I sent him a bag of cash"?

A. don't know why A wou d have said or not said something, to be honest with you.

Q. Why wouldn't have you said something early on, just, "Yeah, that's my bag of cash that showed up on his door"?

A. don't think A was mistaken as far as who de ivered it. think A had a idea of some arger p ot where it came from, is what 've read.

Page 318

Now, again, 'm kind of going off the co ection of things 've read pub ic y, but don't know that A had -- don't know if he was mistaken that -- generating it and having -- giving it to him.

Q. Well, I missed something because I thought you said earlier that the two of you discussed this money. That you were going to get it to him, so what's the confusion? How could he possibly be confused about where the money came from?

A. can't answer for Mr. Watkins.

Q. You weren't confused where it came from?

A. No, no.

Q. You didn't come forward when all this mystery was taking place and they were trying to put the pieces of the puzzle together; is that right? You could have cleared it up real quick.

A. didn't, no, come forward at a .

Q. What led the trail back to you? How did they make the connection? And I probably should know that, and I'm honestly not trying to trip you up on something I already know about, but I'm trying to remember how that story went. How in the world did they make the connection back to you?

Page 319

A. assume it was from some ru ings in court and he was forced to answer.

Q. So he probably said something under oath that this is where I got the money?

A. That's my assumption.

Q. There seems to be no paper trail on this money whatsoever. We've circled that teepee a lot here this afternoon and -- but it amazes me, because I'm lucky if I can wrap a whole 500 bucks, but I can tell you exactly where that $500 is at. And if I have to spend it, man, I can tell you every step of the way.

I could tell you where I put it in my pocket, what it was in when I put it in my pocket, who I handed it to. I certainly wouldn't hand even $500, much less 100,000 or 120,000 to somebody that I can't remember who it was, just in case they forgot where they got it.

So my question is how in the world can you not just straightforward answer that question for us? You know the answer.

A. And the question is?

Q. The question is why can't you tell us who delivered that money and why can't you remember just simply what you put the money in? As it was said earlier, was it a --

A. There's a -- brown -- don't know what t's off c a y ca ed. But there's a brown th ng you can put ega documents n.

Q. Yeah.

A. Put t n -- be eve t was that w th a str ng around t. 'm not sure what you ca that part cu ar enve ope. t's not a number 10. t's someth ng e se. And then had someone from my off ce go over there. don't qu te know. And never to d them at a what they were de ver ng. t was -- t was not the r concern.

Q. All right. But I just find it odd that you have no idea what the denomination of the money was. You don't know if it was 100s, if it was 20s, if it was 10s, if it was a mixed bag of stuff. You have no idea, but yet it was your money?

A. My best reco ect on t was 100 b s.

MR. HATF ELD: th nk we k nd of covered that, Representat ve Ph ps.

MR. PH LL PS: We d d?

MR. HATF ELD: thought so, maybe not.

MR. PH LL PS: We , m ssed t.

MR. BARNES: t wasn't a stra ghtforward answer. don't th nk we got an answer. There was a ot of things here that it's incredu ous that we don't have answers to --

Page 321

MR. HATF ELD: Okay.

MR. BARNES: -- as to memory, but don't think we got an answer as to that question.

MR. HATF ELD: Okay.

BY MR. PH LL PS:

Q. Yeah, I don't recall one.

And, Mr. Faughn, I'm not trying to beat you up on this at all, but common sense, Butler County, Stone County, hello? Common sense tells you anybody knows where 100 grand came from. We're not asking you how you got it. We're not -- we're not saying how did you make the 100,000.

But common sense tells you, you know where you picked it up. Where it was laying at. Whether it was stuffed in a mattress inside your pillow. Maybe it makes a good pillow, I don't know. I've got a pillow that's rather rare that maybe $100,000 feels pretty good under my head.

But the thing is, somewhere that money was sitting and you knew where it was at. I can tell you where my 500 is at in cash right now. I can go get it.

MR. HATF ELD: Where is it?

Page 322

MR. PH LL PS: 'm not going to say unti get it an answer, but wi . ' sure te you if can get an answer.

THE W TNESS: 'm not trying --

MR. PH LL PS: And ' te you where s ept ast night if that means anything to you. But a want is a straightforward answer to a straightforward question.

THE W TNESS: definite y know where my money is at.

MR. PH LL PS: Right, so that's what we want to know is --

THE W TNESS: 'm not sure to make it more c ear that it was in an office in C ayton.

BY MR. PH LL PS:

Q. Closet? Drawer?

MR. HATF ELD: You want the combination to the safe?

BY MR. PH LL PS:

Q. The money's gone now, I don't need it.

You know what I'm getting at. Was it in a rubber boot that was 18 inches tall? Where was it at? Did it just fall out of one of the ceiling tiles when it got loose? That's all we're asking. We're not asking how you made the money. I couldn't care less how you made the money.

I'm just curious as to what the heck -- how does a guy do that? How do you have 100,000, you don't know where it came from, or you're not willing to say where it came from, and that's problematic. And then you can't remember who took that 100,000 for you? That's really hard to believe, because that person might just keep right on going down the road with the money.

That's all my point is. It's just all kind of mind-boggling. I mean, it just doesn't wrap around a normal person's mind. And I'm not normal, I'll admit that, but I'm fairly close to normal. So is there any answer at all to that or you just want to leave that out there as I don't know anything. It's my money, though, I made it, and I don't know how it got there. I know who took it, but --

A. 've tr ed to answer. d d n one ncrement, a but one -- one of them was a person n my off ce.

Q. Who was that, by any chance? Do you remember the name?

A. One of the two peop e that were n my off ce. They had no dea that they had.

MR. BARNES: Do you have Sky ar n your off ce?

THE W TNESS No

Q. So we've got a few more questions that have kind of come up since we made the rounds. And I think a lot of questions so far have sort of been adversarial in a way, but I do think that doing what you do as a journalist, you may have some insight into Missouri politics, that's the name of your show, that could probably help us a little bit.
So I'm going to certainly start off with something that's more of a friendly inquiry here. You've kind of got this deal where you have purchased the recordings, we'll call them tapes, because it was digitally. It was on a flash drive; is that right? Is that how you took possession of them?
A. be eve so.
Q. Didn't email them?
A. be eve so.
Q. Some sort of portable device? Okay. And did I hear through the other conversations, though, that there was never any deal to where Al Watkins would not then sell or give those same recordings to somebody else? You didn't get them from Al exclusively?
A. As t turns out, d d not. be eve

A. don't be eve he so d them to anyone e se, but don't know that for sure. You'd probab y have to ask h m. Not that know of.
Q. Did he give them to anyone after he gave them to you?
A. C ear y, other peop e had them because they ran a news story w th them. The t me ne on that th nk was before, but can't say for sure.
Q. Well, I think you might be able to help us figure out whether the people -- other people who got them got them from Al Watkins or got them from the witness three, the ex-husband, or from some other source. So can you share with us what you know about other copies of those recordings?
A. t was my take that they got them from

Q. Okay. And did you have -- have you since you've received the recordings, other than Representative Barnes, have you shared them with anyone else either for money or for not?

A. Not for money or at a .

Q. Okay. Okay. The -- the 100,000 that you're going to -- that you have spent or 120, whatever number it turns out to be, to get the recordings, this is kind part of doing business for the book deal. You know, you can't nod. Yes or no?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay. Yeah. I'm just -- for her sake.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Now, you have other expenses as part of doing business. You've got salaries of folks to pay and paper and print and things like that. And you normally would -- correct me if I'm wrong. Normally you would list those as expenses to offset any credits to figure out if you're making money or losing money?

A. Yes, Representat ve.

Q. Okay. The $100,000, will that be listed as an expense, a business expense for the production of this book whenever you go to figure out whether you've made or lost money on this venture?

Page 336

MR. HATF ELD: f you know.

THE W TNESS: t's a cost of do ng the bus ness, yeah.

BY MR. EGGLESTON:

Q. And we've alluded to taxes and all before, so that would probably be listed in -- your -- with your knowledge of what kind of goes on being in Missouri politics, because I think to my knowledge you're the only one that has a television show specifically kind of a Face the Nation type TV show specific to -- to Missouri; would that be correct?

A. Thank you, Representat ve. Yeah.

MR. HATF ELD: Face the Nat on.

BY MR. EGGLESTON:

Q. Yeah. So as this drama around the governor unfolds, would you say -- what would you say your impact to the governor himself would be, and Republicans in general, but certainly the -- the governor that all of this stuff kind of comes out, including the affair which is of course a component of that recordings.

A. You know, honest y, when you're a Repub can n the med a, t's a pretty one y p ace to be. But t's rea y not my job to e ect

Repub cans or to take that much nto account. So t's just -- -- th nk that n the age we ve n t's h gh y -- t's h gh y cha eng ng to pred ct what's go ng to happen, but don't -- don't know the answer to that.

Q. But -- but it's fair to say that what is going down here is probably more detrimental than beneficial to the governor. Would you say that? I mean, all of this investigation and the possibility of impeachment and so forth?

A. wou d th nk mpeachment wou d be detr menta . But, aga n, d dn't break the story. So t rea y wasn't part of my --

Q. This is to help us understand stuff that maybe only you as a journalist in your position would know.

A. 'm more of a pub sher, but get what you're say ng.

Q. That would be more of a detrimental thing to him?

A. wou d th nk t wou d be very detr menta to be mpeached.

Q. Okay. And if there are entities that disagree with his policies and would be happy to see him go, that would be more beneficial to them to have this stuff happen?

A. You know, off the top of my head as somebody that does have a Face the Nat on type program, on y know rea y two po cy d fferences. The way the Const tut on s wr tten, as read t, the eutenant governor w take over. And there's on y two pub c po cy d fferences know.

And one has been asked about where th nk one wants to do tax cred ts n urban and rura , M ssour , and one just wants to do them n urban, M ssour , and one th nks the eg s ature s corrupt career po t c ans and the other doesn't. So that's the on y nterest that know wou d be that much -- affected that much.

Q. The tax credit you're talking about, is that the low-income housing tax credit thing?

A. Yeah.

Q. So what had happened -- because something had happened last year that the governor did something with the low-income housing tax credits that the folks who were in that business may not have appreciated? Can you expound from your knowledge kind of what that is?

A. t ooks to me ke t was s m ar to the board of educat on that peop e that wanted -- had an agenda he wanted to fu f and they fo owed t.

Q. And the agenda was to kind of get rid of them or rein them in?

A. Get r d of the ru e, yeah.

Q. And, well, I think he totally defunded the whole kit and caboodle, right?

A. There's a ot of tax cred ts that th nk st get ssued n the state. That part cu ar group th nk s, my understand ng.

Q. Okay. Okay. Of course the first act that the governor did was signing right to work, and that probably didn't endear him to folks in the labor unions as well; would you agree with that?

A. assume they d dn't -- they weren't dear to h m to beg n w th.

Q. Probably not. And of course they're got to go around and got some signature and are going to try to undo some of that in the upcoming ballot; is that right?

A. That's my understand ng, yeah.

Q. August I believe, right?

A. Yeah.

Q. So kind of getting back to -- let's see -- getting back to your business here. So as much as you can share, you have the TV show?

Page 340

A Uh-huh

Q. And you have -- you kind of sell that -- you buy air time --

A Yeah

Q. -- on TV --

A have my own show

Q. You own the whole show. So when we start watching it to the end, it's not only just you in the studio but there's sort of commercial breaks in the middle, and that whole thing -- the show and the commercials are something that you've put together as a package and you sell those to the TV shows?

A Yeah we own the show the who e t me

Q. Got you. And some of the advertisers -- who are some of the advertisers that you put in the middle there?

A They're pretty pub c They come and go but around th s t me t w start be ng ssue ads but the advert sers come and go

Q. They've been pretty consistent throughout the time that I've been watching the show. So who are some of the more consistent, long-term ones that you have?

Page 341

A There were -- there's ut ty compan es and try ng to th nk through Auto dea ers

Q. So like Ameren and Spire. So those are your utility companies?

A Yeah

Q. And then what did you just say? I'm sorry. I talked over you there.

A We have one ssue ad fund that runs ads And then there's -- can go through They're a pub c y sted on the show That's advert s ng t me

Q. You said auto dealers. But "issue ad," what's an issue ad?

A There's a group that's a preva ng wage be eve changes to t

Q. That would be the carpenters union, I think that is?

A th nk t's actua y a fund Maybe that's a po t ca fund

Q. Sure.

A But don't know for sure

Q. They're probably not very keen on the whole right to work idea either?

A assume they're not but t's a ways been my assumpt on

Q. Probably wouldn't be too disappointed if the governor --

A. We , actua y -- don't know that they wou d be. mean, you know, f guess, they wou d be probab y worse off because there wou d be -- just my op n on, but there wou d be a arge scanda out of the news, and th nk that the next Repub can governor wou d be s m ar to the ast Repub can governor through a pub c po cy perspect ve, wou d be my assumpt on.

Q. Probably so, but we do have a -- a senatorial election coming up, and some of the stain of what's going on with the governor, I'm sure there's going to be political players who try to blow that into this senatorial race, and so they would probably be -- the labor union folks would probably be tickled to see any more trouble that the governor has escalate?

A. mean --

Q. Or not?

A. th nk that spec a e ect on that came up after Senator S vey eft s a pretty new deve opment, but assume both part es w run a ot of advert s ng and br ng a ot of po t cs nto t as a po t ca campa gn.

Page 343

Q. And another one of your advertisers would be Sterling Bank.

A. Has been for a ong time.

Q. So what is Sterling Bank?

A. t's a bank.

Q. Just a regular walk-up teller kind of bank. Is that the only kind of business they do?

A. t's a unique bank. t's from the Boothee , and in C ayton, Missouri, one of the wea thiest business p aces you can find in the State of Missouri. There's a big p aque on the side of the bui ding, and it ists a bunch of peop e from the Boothee where 'm from. Right there is the founders.

Q. And Sterling Bank you mentioned the low-income housing tax credits earlier. Is Sterling Bank connected to the LIHTC industry?

A. Not that know of. mean, don't know how they're -- how wou d they be -- what do you mean by connected, just so can answer your question better?

Q. Sure. So the -- the idea behind some of these taxes credits, especially the low-income housing ones, is that these tax credits act as coupons towards your income taxes, and these coupons can be bought or sold just like any other commodity. To your knowledge, is Sterling Bank involved in that portion of --

A. do not know that they buy and se tax cred ts at Ster ng Bank.

Q. You don't know that for sure?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Are you familiar with -- with Sugar Creek Capital at all?

A. No.

Q. You're not?

A. Who wou d they be?

Q. Well, I'm asking you are you familiar with them?

A. don't know.

Q. You don't know. Okay. All right. So you had said from -- and getting back to your availability in the subpoena and all that, you had said, "From time to time we relocate the show," or something like that. I believe that was -- that was your indication. So this last show that you had was in the normal studios in Clayton?

A. No.

Q. It was not?

A. No.

Page 345

Q. The last show that just aired?
A Oh 'm sorry thought you were ta k ng about a d fferent one The show we taped on Fr day that a red Sunday yes t was done n C ayton
Q. Okay. And the two prior -- the one prior to that was not taped anyplace that you've ever taped one before?
A No but we've taped shows n the cap to and we tape n Kansas C ty 'd be com ng back from vacat on worked out for my guest and had to tape t there
Q. I believe you've taped two in Kansas City, maybe three, but I believe it's two and I think one in the capitol, and every other time was -- and you'd always kind of said, "We're here at the capitol," or "We're here in Kansas City," "We're here on normal studios," when you open it up.
But this one before was clearly -- I mean, if you looked at the production and quality, you kind of put it together in a hurry elsewhere. So where were you when you taped that?
A What do you mean "put t together n a hurry"?
Q. Well, it didn't look as spiffy as your normal production drive.

Page 346

MR HATF ELD That was just nsu t ng The rea quest on was where d d you tape t?
THE W TNESS We taped t n Memph s
BY MR EGGLESTON
Q. Memphis, Tennessee? Not Memphis, Missouri. There's a Memphis, Missouri.
A f there's a stud o there 'd ove to know about t
Q. How -- okay. How is the book coming at this point?
A Sorry?
Q. How is the book coming? You're in the midst of writing the book; is that right?
A Obv ous y the more news there s the more nterest ng t s So t's good t me to wr te a book
Q. Right. But progress-wise, you've got stuff written? Can we see any of it?
A Not at a not w thout pay ng That's the po nt of the book
Q. We would close everything of course, but just to see that you are really writing one and you're not just saying that, can we see --
A There's tera y no one way You're a probab y going to be part of the book so ...

Page 347

Q. Okay. Just asking. Have you got a publisher lined up for this?
A. We have an arrangement set that we're going to use, yeah.
Q. Can you share that much? Who's going to be the publisher?
A. Not at a . We're -- we're not going to go into again -- we , appreciate the interest. We're not going to get into how we run our company. -- think you -- you' be interested and hope you buy one.
Q. I wouldn't count on it, since I've pretty much lived it, but okay.
MR. BARNES: You just got here. You just got here. hate to burst your bubb e.
MR. EGGLESTON: That's true. That's true.
Q. Last question. We've asked -- it does seem a bit fishy, all of the money, and I think you can understand that we would like to know how you came about the money to give to Al Watkins in exchange for the tape, and you've been reluctant and reticent to explain that.
A. don't know how to be more c ear.

t's my money, one; and, two, 'm not go ng to get nto how run my bus ness n any form. So don't know how that cou d be -- don't know how to say t more p a n y.
Q. Got you. So I'm not expecting that you would end up answering, but we've had discussions here about traffic tickets and the Cardinals and all sorts of things that don't necessarily seem relevant to the governor's situations, and you've been cool with answering those questions.
When we ask about how did you come about this money, you've said, "Well, it's not really relevant and so I don't want to talk about it because it's not relevant."
A. That's not what 've sa d.
Q. So explain -- you don't have to explain to us where you got it because I can tell you're not going to. Explain to the panel why you will not tell us where you got it.
A. mean, th nk t's nterest ng you need an exp anat on for why 'm not go ng to come n here and ta k about my pr vate y he d company n front of a pub c body. wou dn't th nk anybody wou d do that and 'm not go ng to e ther.
Q. Oh, I would think that people would do that unless they have something to hide.

Page 349

A. f they want to they can.
MR. HATF ELD: Governor's tax returns.
THE W TNESS: Many peop e that don't -- and, hey, f you can -- f you f nd peop e that want to come and d scuss the nterna f nanc a work ngs of the r compan es here, th nk that's great. 'm not one of them.
BY MR. EGGLESTON:
Q. Well, it would seem that you've got -- that they would be very pertinent to know how it is that these recordings got where they got so that the story got out the way it did to -- to essentially try to overthrow or unseat a duly elected governor of the state. That seems to be that there were -- are three -- well, probably four, but we haven't laid the groundwork of the fourth one.
So three main entities that are going to benefit from all of this. One would be the ex-husband so he can kind of get some revenge on his ex-wife and the governor for the affair. One would be those politically connected to the situation, many of whom, as we've said, are sort of your advertisers. And --
A. guess don't mean to underse the

Page 350

va ue of my te ev s on show but don't know frank y just to put t cand d y can't say why one Repub can governor over another one wou d rea y matter
Q. Well, you mentioned the LIHTC was one of the things that we separate --
A 'm te ng you the on y d fferences know between one Repub can governor and one Repub can eutenant governor wou d be that and then h s v ew of the eg s ature as corrupt and one of them that doesn't That's the on y ones know You may know of more That's a know of
Q. And if the current governor goes away, then that policy may change. And that's -- that's millions of dollars to certain individuals in our state.
A th nk --
Q. So they would stand to benefit from this whole thing coming out --
A s your a egat on -- mean s your thought just so can fo ow you that peop e set the governor up to do a these th ngs for one po cy -- don't know 'm sorry 'm not fo ow ng what you're say ng
Q. Sure. I'm not saying the governor is -- is a hero in this, and I'm not advocating for or against the governor himself. But there are -- there does seem to be players behind the scenes that are going to take advantage of this for their own both political and financial gain and personal gain.

The ex-husband, the folks perhaps in the LIHTC or union or some other politically affected by political policy industry, and then you yourself are going to try to sell a book based off of these recordings that were sensitive that are evidence that you bought from an unscrupulous -- I won't say that. From --
A. had no idea these tapes were evidence at the time. had no idea of that. Two, don't -- 'm not head of the AFL-C O, but be ieve they wou d ove you to keep Eric Greitens right where he is. Now, that's a po itica opinion, but guess share some of your opinions and some of them honest y don't make the connections with.
Q. Well, fair enough. And that's -- that's why I ask you the questions.
A. Thank you, Representative.
MR. EGGLESTON: And, Mr. Hatfie d, if cou d ask you a question.
MR. HATF ELD: Of course.

Page 352

MR EGGLESTON K nd of the same th ng Why do you not want your c ent to ta k about where the money comes from?
MR HATF ELD We we have ta ked about where the money comes from MR EGGLESTON We we haven't
MR HATF ELD do not want my c ent to d scuss h s pr vate bus ness and th nk 've made that c ear
MR EGGLESTON R ght Why?
MR HATF ELD Just as the governor d d not re ease h s tax returns and does not want you to know where h s sources of revenue come from does not want the pub c to know Even though every governor n my fet me cand date has done t he's refused to do t
Just as A New M ssour has taken the pos t on as recent y as today n front of Judge Jon Beetem that th s comm ttee s not ent t ed to the nner work ngs of that company just as other attorneys sat here and refused to d scuss who the r c ents were there are certa n th ngs that th s comm ttee shou d not nqu re nto And we can ta k about the re evance and we can ta k about the po cy reasons beh nd that MR. HATF ELD: We'd apprec ate -- 'm sorry, do you want me to answer that?

MR. BARNES: Let's focus on quest ons of the w tness. Po nt -- po nt taken. MR. HATF ELD: t was for a quest on for me.
MR. EGGLESTON: n t a y t was for Mr. Faughn, and he answered, and now th s one s for Mr. Hatf e d to say g ve me a good reason why but don't th nk we're go ng to get a good reason why, so 'm happy to conc ude my nqu ry at th s t me.
MR. BARNES: 'm sorry, Representat ve.

Page 355

MR. HATF ELD: think 've covered that, but there was an issue that was there. There's a ot in that question. appreciate it. We a need background on it. There's been this a egation that Mr. Faughn somehow owed some money and therefore he doesn't have any money, you know.
wou d just point out, and don't know this for a fact. This is what read in the paper. President of the United States was a eged y $600 mi ion in debt at one point. And then he had a who e ot of money. And that happens in business. Some days you're in debt and some days you have a ot of extra money.
You don't want to ta k about that. You don't want to ta k about what the sources of your debt are. You don't want to ta k about what the sources of your revenue and income are. FURTHER EXAM NAT ON
BY MR TRENT
Q. Just a few brief follow-up questions, Mr. Chairman.
So, Mr. Faughn, have you ever been advised by a third party or by any of your business associates to deliver the money to Mr. Watkins?
A No No Sorry no Representat ve
Q. So you did that all of -- that was all an internal discussion with yourself. You made the decision? You had no outside advice on that?
A No outs de adv ce or a bus ness assoc ate or anyth ng ke that
Q. No outside advice or business associate advice to retain Mr. Watkins?
A No Representat ve no
Q. Okay. Did you get a receipt for the 120,000 from Mr. Watkins?
MR HATF ELD t's been asked and answered

Page 358

MR TRENT m ssed that f t was asked
THE W TNESS No got what came for d dn't get a rece pt for t
BY MR TRENT
Q. You didn't get a receipt for the 20,000 that was to be used for other legal fees?
A don't have one as of now but assume w probab y get one
Q. You said Mr. Watkins has expended all of that 20,000 on your behalf, or is there any left?
A haven't spoken to Mr Watk ns n a few weeks but wou d say -- ' have to have an answer for that don't know ' f nd out
Q. So it's possible you would have some money coming to you from him?
A Poss b e suppose
Q. Okay. Now, you said earlier that it is your belief that Mr. Watkins had given the recordings that you purchased to other individuals; is that correct?
A Yeah t became my understand ng yeah
Q. How did you come to that understanding?
A They put them on the news

Page 359

Q. How did you know that came from Mr. Watkins?
A. assume because the portions that were p ayed on a te evision station were simi ar to the portions had. had a ong portion. They aired a short portion.
Q. So it's possible that what Mr. Watkins gave you and what was played on television came from a third separate source not related to you or Mr. Watkins?
A. guess any number of things are possib e. don't know how the other peop e or news organizations gathered information.
Q. So your answer that Mr. Watkins had given that recordings to others was just pure supposition on your part. You have no actual knowledge of that?
A. was asked to give my opinion on how it happen, and gave my opinion. can't swear to it.
Q. So no actual knowledge there. Okay.
Did you have any conversations about this issue before this story broke to any elected official?
MR. HATF ELD: How much time do you have?

THE W TNESS: mean, th nk go ng back to at east the pr mary campa gn peop e.
BY MR. TRENT:
Q. I mean this actual when we were just on eve of this State of the State, when it was going to be released -- let me back up and ask the foundational question.
When did you know that this tape that you had was going to be released? Did you have any foreknowledge before it was released that it was going to happen?
A. We , the tapes have were never re eased. When d d know a story was go ng to come out that was a so nc uded n them? d dn't know. And had heard, and fe t t was very ke y, but k nd of got that from many peop e fe t that way. But cou dn't -- don't know of the nterna processes of how they do news or how they produce th ngs.
Q. So you didn't know that that story was coming out until it broke?
A. assumed t was com ng out, but d d not know that, no.
Q. Okay. Have you had any discussions

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 361

with Kim Gardner about this issue?
A Not about the ssue of the tapes no
Q. Have you had any discussions with her at all?
A Just br ef y
Q. What was the nature of those discussions?
A The pub c percept on but they were very short n ength
Q. When did you have those discussions?
A t wou d have been probab y one n ate January and one somet me towards the end of February but the conversat ons were ess than a coup e m nutes
Q. How many of those conversations did you have?
A Two
Q. Did she contact you or did you contact her?
A had contacted her and tr ed to nterv ew her about th s a few t mes and she responded
Q. And she didn't give you an interview, or did she?
A No

Q. So walk us through how this happened. You called her, you asked for an interview, she says no, and then you proceed to talk about the political climate?
A. We , knew K m when she served n the House. That's how had her number. ca ed her a few t mes to try to get her to do an nterv ew w th us because fe t ke she was obv ous y newsworthy. Once she sa d -- and she sa d no, and we spoke br ef y, and that was that. But the conversat ons were extreme y short, and can't even remember. There was noth ng about the case n spec f c even ta ked about.
Q. Didn't talk about any details of the case?
A. No. t was pretty much her te ng me she wasn't go ng to --
Q. You didn't talk about the fact that you had a copy of the recordings that was related to the case?
A. No.
Q. Did you facilitate any contact between her and any elected official?
A. No.
Q. You didn't provide her phone number to any elected official?

Page 363

A. Not that can th nk of.
Q. But you don't know for sure?
A. No, don't be eve d d. And certa n y not that know of. 'm not even sure f the number have s correct, but have to th nk. f someone wou d have asked me for K m Gardner's phone number, wou d have g ad y g ven t to them f knew them.
But can't -- can't th nk offhand of anybody that d d. But f wou d have been asked for K m Gardner's ce phone numbers have, wou d have g ven t to them.

If you feel like you've been assaulted by this committee, that's a strong word. I apologize for that because I don't want anybody to come before this committee or in this building and feel like they're assaulted.
So I take – that's a strong word that I take seriously, and if you have that feeling, I apologize. As for as portraying you to be a deadbeat, I would disagree with that as well.
A. Thank you, Representat ve.
Q. I grew up in Pemiscot County. You grew up in Butler County. I am a State Representative that makes 35,000 a year. You are the first several years of starting up a media conglomerate of some sort. I'm not sure what you would call it.
A. 'm not e ther some days.
Q. I think the – I think the idea of your businesses seem to be doing well. They seem to be successful. I think saying that this committee is trying to call you a deadbeat because we may find it hard to believe that there's 120,000 in cash sitting around is different than us calling you a deadbeat.

Page 365

So I'm saying as a State Representative that makes 35,000 a year, I don't have 120 grand sitting around, and I'm not a deadbeat. And if somebody tried to say I was because I didn't have that kind of cash, I would be offended. So I'm saying I don't think anyone here is trying to call you a deadbeat.

That doesn't mean that we don't think you're successful. Good at what you do. Anything further than that. But those two -- those two words struck me, and I was going to pass on this questioning, but I just -- I needed to respond to that.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. BARNES: Representat ve Lauer.

FURTHER EXAM NAT ON

MS. LAUER: Thank you, Mr. Cha r.

Q. So through all these questions, of course we know what you don't want to tell us based on -- on your persistence in keeping -- keeping some of this information at bay. But you did volunteer to come here.

And so I'd like for you to take this -- this time and just share with us what about this situation could you tell us that we maybe have not asked specifically, but what do you feel you could share with us about this that would really provide benefit to the committee?

A Out of a the quest ons thought m ght get asked that's not one thought wou d get asked

Q. Well, now you are. It's time to tell your story of what's --

A wou d say that one apprec ate be ng the f rst person that's been here pub c y apprec ate what you're do ng 'm n the med a know that 'd be shocked f peop e n th s comm ttee d dn't go th nk f somebody ca ed them a deadbeat once or tw ce

th nk what cou d offer you s th s s yeah th s s a very un que s tuat on probab y part of t born n my nexper ence n th s type of med a pub sh ng and one was t was very odd s tuat on But ' te you th s Whether t was ack of exc us v ty or whatever t was d dn't break the story

And number two th nk t's k nd of a detr ment to the reporter that d d to say that cou d have or whatever She had someth ng d dn't have She had a person that corroborated the tapes on the record. After the story was broke, t rea y s not my job to he p e ect any group of peop e or not to the th ng.

Probab y most of the parts of -- who the governor s or not s a -- probab y when you have two Repub cans do-s -do' ng back and forth, t's not go ng to make much d fference. But ' te you th s. d dn't break the story, and f wou d have, that wou d have been f ne.

But the way we -- the way we obta n the nformat on, we cou dn't. understand the quest ons around t. hope you can understand the fact that 'm not go ng to come n and break down my bus ness any more than wou d expect anybody e se to.

But w te you th s. The quest ons surround ng th ngs were my money. And the other th ng can offer to you s, you know, th nk d d become a d stract on to what you're try ng to do, and that was -- that was my fau t. But respect what you're do ng, and apprec ate be ng here.

' te you th s under oath. came here w thout a subpoena. went off the adv ce of my awyer, very we respected, te ng me d dn't have one. had no prob em being the first person. don't think -- don't think anybody cou d say 'm that hard to find if they wou d have reached out to me.

But appreciate being here, and just don't know what e se, after fee ike 've answered about every possib e question that can think of, but if think of something, 'd be g ad to et you know.

Q. Well, I appreciate that, and, again, I hope you can see too where the questioning becomes a little more complicated --

A. Sure.

Q. -- when there's a lot of unknowns.

A. Sure.

Q. And, of course, trying to provide very factual information, it gets very, very difficult to do that. So thank you.

A. Thank you, Representative.

MR. BARNES: Thank you, Representative Lauer for asking that question, so don't have to.

Representative Trent.

FURTHER EXAM NAT ON

BY MR. TRENT:

Q. Okay. One last thing, and there was a quote. It was in the Los Angeles Times. And I looked it up to make sure I didn't get it wrong.

Page 369

2007, and I'm quoting you, Mr. Faughn, "In my community, if you're rich enough, if you're a powerful enough attorney and a powerful enough newspaper publisher and corrupt enough, you can take out just about anybody."

Do you still feel that that's true today?

A. think a guy ten years o der and mature, that sounds a itt e me odramatic. The City of Pop ar B uff is a itt e -- quite a bit, actua y, if you come very often -- different than the State of Missouri, but hearing that back from ten years ago Scott Faughn, it sounds a itt e dramatic.

Q. So you wouldn't subscribe to that theory today?

A. Pop ar B uff -- wi subscribe that Pop ar B uff is a itt e different than the rest of the state at arge, and invite a of you to come spend some time there. Some of that's good, some of it is not. But ten years ago me -- or 12 years ago me, that sounds a itt e dramatic.

Q. So you don't believe that anymore?

Page 370

A th nk 'm a tt e more mature and wou dn't say someth ng qu te ke that

Q. I didn't ask you to say it. I asked you if you believed it.

A About Pop ar B uff maybe but probab y not no

Q. You don't believe that quote anymore?

A No don't th nk so

MR TRENT A r ght Thank you Mr Cha rman

MR BARNES D d you say LA T mes?

t s frustrat ng, once aga n, that we cont nue to ask for product on of documents that we know ex st that cons st of cross-exam nat on of w tness one, and that Mr. Dowd repeated y refuses to comp y w th those requests and subpoenas. So we are go ng to start today on page -- t's depos t on -- starts rea y on page 7 -- page 7, ne 5. Are you go ng to be the quest oner?

MR. RAZER: How have we been do ng th s the second t me? You're the quest oner?

MR. BARNES: Yes, you're the quest oner and ' be the answerer.

"Q: Good morn ng.

"A: Good morn ng.

"Q: S nce our ast meet ng, our ast depos t on, wh ch th nk was Wednesday of ast week, have you had an opportun ty to rev ew any add t ona mater a , mater a s pr or to th s depos t on?

"A: No, have not.

"Q: You are aware that we acqu red, as of ast n ght, a substant a amount of your text messages between you and var ous nd v dua s?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 373

"A Yes
"Q Have you rev ewed any of those?
"A No have not
"Q Have you been to d about any of those -- any of those genera y?
"A have been to d there have been texts asked for by me and [redacted] from me and my ex-husband stuff ke that
"Q Okay
"A But not any spec f cs
"Q And have you d scussed these -- d scussed these depos t ons or these proceed ngs w th anyone s nce we've ast spoken other than your awyer?
"A 'm sorry What are you referr ng to? Just that 've been n the depos t on? Yes have sa d that "Q Because as you know we've acqu red some text messages and t appears you've had some ongo ng conversat ons or have had conversat ons w th a gent eman by the name of [redacted]?
"A Yes
"Q And how s -- what s -- what connect on do you have w th Mr [Redacted]?

Page 374

MR. BARNES: Can everybody check the r phones? We've got some nterference go ng here. Make sure they're not by the m crophones. Okay.
"A: He's a ong-t me c ent of m ne that 've sought ega adv ce from t me to t me.
"Q: You've not sought ega adv ce n th s c rcumstance?
"A: 'm not sure how to answer that quest on.
"Q: We , he's not current y -- current y your awyer?
"A: No.
"Q: Okay. And you've had contact w th h m s nce the ast depos t on?
"A: Yes.
"Q: Okay. And has he g ven you any adv ce on how to hand e the depos t on or th ngs of that nature?
"A: No, just -- no.
"Q: And what was the nature of the contact?
"A: don't remember spec f ca y, but remember h m send ng me a text about someth ng he had heard and -- through the grapev ne or whatever.
"Q: And you -- t appears you've been

"A: Yes.
"Q: Your mother wou d send you news coverage from t me to t me?
"A: Yes.
"Q: Has that been cons stent or just s nce the news broke n January?
"A: What do you mean 'cons stent'?
"Q: We , mean, had she fo owed -- had she sent you any other nformat on conta n ng -- perta n ng to E.G. pr or to the story break ng?
"A: No, not that know of. No.
"Q: Okay. Just s nce -- just s nce the story broke n January, then, when there wou d have been news reports, she wou d send you nks and th ngs of that nature?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And what wou d be the purpose of that, f you know?
"A: 'm sure to protect me; she's worr ed about me. She's worr ed about everyth ng that's be ng sa d and stuff ke that.
"Q: Now, do you st bank at the same bank as P.S., to your know edge?
"A: don't know where he banks. 'm

Page 376

st at [redacted]
"Q And that's --
"A don't know where he s
"Q -- the same bank you've had for years?
"A Yes
"Q And wh ch bank? You sa d t was [redacted]?
"A Yes
"Q And where s that ocated?
"A [Redacted]
"Q Okay And that's the on y bank you bank at?
"A Yes
"Q You ma nta n a sav ngs and check ng account there?
"A Yes
"Q Do you ma nta n any accounts for your ch dren there?
"A No do not have ke a MOST account for them
"Q For co ege?
"A Yes
"Q And has there been any -- s nce December of '17 has there been any substant a cash contr but ons to any of those accounts?

Page 377

"A No, there has not
"Q Obv ous y, you fo owed the news w th respect to Mr Watk ns and h s rece pt of $100,000?
"A Yes, have
"Q Other than what you've heard n the news, have you sought any other nqu ry w th respect to that?
"A No, have not
"Q And you had -- be eve you, ast t me, sa d you had no know edge of that unt you heard about t on the news
"A No Other than rumors, no
"Q Other than rumors that you had heard pr or to that?
"A Correct
"Q Had you ever, to th s -- from the ast depos t on to th s -- to today, have you contacted Mr P S by phone or by text or n any manner to f nd out exact y what was go ng on w th that money?
"A Zero percent, no
"Q You have no nterest?
"A No

Page 378

"Q: You have no nterest whether you're go ng to rece ve any of t?
"A: No.
"Q: Do you want any of t?
"A: No.
"Q: Have you -- wou d t be fa r to say that at east rev ew ng your text -- and we don't have to go through a of them; we're not go ng to try to be here a day, but --"
MR. RAZER: 'm not sure what that --
MR. BARNES: [Redacted].
"Q: But [redacted] was a -- mean, 'm sorry. P.S. was a ways n a -- t appeared a ways n a -- not a very advantageous f nanc a pos t on. Wou d that be fa r to say?
"A: Maybe. Can you c ar fy that?
"Q: We , d d he comp a n that he never had -- d d he often comp a n he had no money?
"A: Yes. He had, you know, n the past, yes.
"Q: And when you say ' n the past,' when?
"A: L ke when we were marr ed. That was an ssue, yeah.
"Q: Okay. Was the ssue because he wou d spend more t me pursu ng h s hobby or h s job as a [redacted], and t wasn't rea y br ng ng n a ot of money? So a ot of the f nanc a ob gat on fe on you; wou d that be a true statement?

Page 379

MR. BARNES: Mr. Stee e, "Object. Ca s for specu at on. Mr. Rosenb um says, "You can answer."
MR. RAZER: Mr. Stee e cont nues to say, "You can specu ate f you want."
"A: mean, th nk t was just based around the troub es that came w th, you know, h m not br ng ng n enough money and, you know, be ng gone a ot, so t was stressfu .
"Q: So t wou dn't be unusua for h m n '16 to say someth ng ke, have zero money because someone had to cover a -- cover a -- our taxes, correct?
"A: don't know. Can you show me the text or whatever? need to see what you're referr ng to.
"Q: can show you on the screen. don't fee ke mark ng t. You can ook at t on the screen. Wou d you ke to ook at t on our screen?
"A: Sure. What was the context?

Page 380

There's noth ng e se around t don't know spec f ca y mean cou d guess t was h s parents he ped us out or someth ng don't know don't remember
"Q But -- but w th -- but regard ess of that mean t was a theme around that t me t was a theme around that t me s that he was n f nanc a d re stra ts?
"A Around that t me
"Q Okay
"A At east that's how he was portray ng
"Q Portray ng n fact you were pay ng h m ch d support correct?
"A No wasn't pay ng h m ch d support He owed ch d support to h s ex-w fe and wanted to make sure that that was st pa d regard ess because fe t that that was an mportant respons b ty that he cou dn't ax on "Q So w th respect to your d sso ut on w th P S was there ch d support awarded e ther way?
"A No no ch d support
"Q So you don't pay h m he doesn't pay you?

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 381

"A Correct
"Q Okay So you gave -- you wa ked away from any ch d support essent a y?
"A Correct
"Q And was there a t me after say that entry n '16 where you noted P S 's f nanc a s tuat on substant a y mproved?
"A Yes So be eve t was for 2000 -- wa t when the taxes were done for 2015 be eve s nce we were st techn ca y marr ed h s accountant f ed ours together and d scovered he made more money yes
"Q More money than he to d you?
"A Yes
"Q Okay D d you respond to that at a ?
"A No
"Q And how about we go nto 2017 towards the end D d you not ce any obv ous ncreases n h s f nanc a s tuat on?
"A mean what are you say ng? n regards to ke --
"Q We the way he was v ng festy e anyth ng of that nature that wou d nd cate to you that he -- that h s f nanc a s tuat on had changed?

"A: cou d say yes, but fee ke even the ncome that knew about from 2015, you know, was enough, cons der ng he's v ng w th someone and that, so ...
"Q: Okay. So you've heard of the Me Too Movement, correct?
"A: Yes.
"Q: Has anybody from that movement contacted you at a ?
"A: No. You mean spec f c? don't know who are you referr ng to.
"Q: Anybody. Any representat ve of that movement. Has anyone reached out on beha f of that movement to see whether or not you want to be the face of the movement, f you'd jo n the movement, anyth ng of that nature?
"A: No.
"Q: n your fam ar ty w th the Me Too Movement, do you fee ke you're a gned w th that movement?
"A: No. Not part cu ar y, no.
"Q: Not part cu ar y? Why?
"A: 'm not sure exact y. 'm sure t's nd v dua for each person what they fee that that means, so don't know.

Page 383

"Q: But you don't fee ke you're a gned w th the nd v dua s that have come out, the spokespeop e, the spokespersons for that movement?
"A: don't necessar y know very much about t, ke don't know what they stand for necessar y. And know what 've heard, you know, peop e's vers ons of what they th nk t s -- t s d fferent too, so don't know necessar y.
"Q: But regard ess, you don't cons der yourse f a part of that movement?
"A: guess t just depends on what you wou d ca the movement.
"Q: We , 'm just ask ng you persona y. can't get ns de your bra n. mean, do you cons der yourse f part of the Me Too Movement, for whatever t means to you?
"A: don't cons der myse f part of any movement, no.
"Q: Okay. And we've ta ked a tt e b t n the past about po t cs, and th nk you sa d that you are not very nvo ved n po t cs?
"A: Yes.
"Q: You do have a c ose re at onsh p w th Stacey Newman, correct?

Page 384

"A: C ose -- c ose enough, yes.
"Q: And can you descr be that re at onsh p?
"A: 've been do ng she and her fam y's ha r for probab y 14, 15 years.
"Q: Okay. And you knew she was a po t c an?
"A: Yes.
"Q: Were you gett ng adv ce from her when th s story f rst broke?
"A: She was offer ng adv ce, yes.
"Q: And what do you mean offer ng adv ce, that you weren't tak ng?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Okay. And why s that?
"A: rea y wasn't tak ng anybody's adv ce. was just petr f ed try ng not --
"Q: D d t have anyth ng to do w th the fact that she was aff ated w th the Democrat c Party and she was prov d ng nformat on from some of the Democrat c eaders?
"A: Rea y t was just because was uncomfortab e w th anybody who was g v ng me strong adv ce to do anyth ng other than just be.
"Q: Other than just what? 'm sorry.

fee so sh tty about myse f, th nk can be a much -- th nk can be much better to you and a my fr ends. Each day try to f nd a better me that s k nd and ess se f sh. hope 'm ab e to be there for you one day when you may need t. Can't wa t to see your new p ace.'

"And then she responded, 'Oh, g r , no need to apo og ze. Aga n, th nk our ta k got as genu ne as t cou d have been and needed. You know ove you and my ntent ons weren't proper y d sp ayed. was b tter. And that c ear y made th ngs harder. Thank you for d gg ng that out of me. t def n te y eased the fee ngs of d scomfort. 'm sorry for ho d ng t n. Can't wa t to get together and fee not awkward LOL.' Do you reca that exchange?

"A: To some extent, yes.

"Q: Okay. So that was n Apr of 2017. And just from the exchange, t appears that you guys had just had some sort of meet ng and a heart-to-heart, r ght?

"A: Yeah, she was mov ng sa ons.

"Q: Okay.

"A: And was --

"Q: Do you reca the context of that meet ng?

"A: Yes. She fe t was -- fe t she was be ng d stant before she eft the sa on, and she fe t was be ng d stant to her r ght at the end and k nd of protect ng myse f because was sad she eav ng and so then we just had a heart-to-heart about --

"Q: D d t have anyth ng to do w th your re at onsh p -- about your re at onsh p w th E.G.?

"A: Yes, that's what -- was referr ng to that.

"Q: When you sa d, ' was putt ng a ot of crazy on you' -- a ot of my crazy --

"A: Yeah.

"Q: -- on your shou ders.

"A: L ke -- yeah, mean ...

"Q: What were you putt ng on her shou ders?

"A: mean, just my thoughts dur ng that t me per od. You know, th nk -- just can't mag ne be ng not n her shoes and be ng fr ends w th someone who knew was mak ng poor dec s ons be ng nvo ved w th them. knew that.

"Q: When you were nvo ved --

Page 395

"A: And part cu ar y knew because after that f rst t me, as a fr end, she knew about the f rst t me, was ke why the heck wou d you ever nvo ve yourse f aga n, you know, but she d d ma nta n. She was a rea y good fr end to me and tr ed to understand.

"Q: So wou d you reach out to her and ta k to her and prov de deta s as your affa r cont nued?

"A: To some extent, yeah.

"Q: And wou d you g ve her a the deta s as t wou d progress?

"A: We , 'm not sure. don't know.

"Q: And nc denta y, other than the few peop e that we've ta ked -- that we've ta ked about at the t me that you wou d conf de n as th s re at onsh p cont nued, f you wou d te others, you wou d be -- wou d t be fa r to say that you were sort of coy or vague or maybe just say you were dat ng an o der man?

"A: No, never sa d that.

"Q: You never sa d you were dat ng an o der man?

"A: No.

"Q: Do you know what -- when she responded by say ng that she was b tter, do you know what she was ta k ng about n that context?

"A: th nk that was actua y ta k ng about -- because there were a group of us that she fe t that we were be ng k nd of d stant to her because she eav ng. That had to do w th her.

"Q: That d dn't have to do w th E.G.?

"A: No.

"Q: Okay. And n the context of conf d ng n her about E.G., wou d she ever have to cover for you at the sa on or make anyth ng up as to h s presence?

"A: No, not that know. No.

"Q: And was she present when you two wou d be affect onate?

"A: We , that on y happened the one t me, so, no.

"Q: She wasn't present on that occas on?

"A: No.

"Q: So you don't th nk, when you wou d cut h s ha r dur ng th s per od of t me, that there was any obv ous affect on that others cou d have p cked up on?

"A: No.

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 397

"Q: And then my -- the other contact w th [redacted] that want to ask you about s ater on after the story broke -- before got -- before get nto that, on that text message w th Stacey, do you see an area where Stacey prov ded you w th a number of the c rcu t attorney K m Gardner? th nk t was [redacted] or someth ng of that nature. Exh b t 80. Exh b t 80. 'm sorry. can probab y f nd t.

"A: Yeah. 'm sorry. don't know where t s.

"Q: ' f nd t at some po nt. 'm just ask ng, do you reca Stacey prov d ng you the number of K m Gardner, the ce phone number?

"A: know that she -- remember her br ng ng up K m Gardner, and t happened to be r ght after or maybe t was -- t was ke the same day that K m Gardner had reached out to my attorney.

"Q: Had reached out to your attorney?

"A: Yeah.

"Q: Do you have any know edge how K m Gardner found your attorney or knew who your attorney was?

"A: be eve that --

MR. BARNES: Mr. Stee e objects, "Ca s for specu at on "

Page 398

"Q understand 'm just ask ng f you have any know edge

"A know at that po nt t was pub c know edge because he -- had re eased a statement by then

"Q Because you -- pardon me?

"A had re eased a statement

"Q Okay And at some po nt after the story became pub c you had add t ona contact w th [redacted] wou d that be correct? Do you remember that?

"A Yes

"Q Okay And essent a y what she sa d to you was on January 31st of 2018 'Okay 'm so sorry but don't th nk can do th s t doesn't sound prom s ng that my name w stay out of t t's just comp ete y freak ng me out to be nvo ved 'm so sorry hope you can understand '

And your response 'D d you ta k to them and they -- and they sa d you wou d have to g ve your name? Of course understand fear of any of th s ' You go on to say ' can't mag ne that they wou d use your name for anyth ng un ess that's what they to d you understand they wou d not use anyone's name '

And then you further -- you fo ow up aga n ' d dn't ta k to anyone bes des' -- or she sa d to you ' d dn't ta k to anyone bes des the awyer and the nvest gat on He d dn't make t sound ke t was certa n 'm just fee ng -- 'm just fee ng the need to back off t's rea y we gh ng heavy on me 'm sorry aga n '

And then you fo ow up ' t wou d he p to have Scott or me there and he can make sure that they don't use your name or anyth ng at a and they ta k to you mean ng f you do or -- or you do or you do not fee ke they are -- for sure won't use your name you can eave ' Do you reca that exchange?

"A Yes

"Q That was -- f rst of a were you try ng to encourage her to ta k?

"A No So at that po nt don't know f -- th nk had a ready spoken to K m at that po nt

"Q Uh-huh

"A And then asked f cou d reach out to part cu ar y [redacted] and [redacted]

Page 400

"Q: Uh-huh.

"A: So had asked her ear er that day. ta ked to her on the phone.

"Q: [Redacted]?

"A: Yes.

"Q: Okay.

"A: And just sa d, 'They -- the -- d dn't know f t was K m or the prosecutor or the nvest gator, but they were nterested n at east ta k ng to you to see what you remember for that per od of t me. s that okay w th you?'

And she sa d, 'Yeah, that's f ne. sa d, 'Okay. My attorney w ca you and et you know, you know, who w be reach ng out or whatever. don't know.'

"Q: Okay. So that was the attorney. And that wou d have been Ms. Gardner and T saby, to your know edge?

"A: To my know edge.

"Q: And you set that up? You bas ca y made the n-road, made the ntroduct on?

"A: Yes. To some extent, yes.

"Q: Now, when you ta ked about th s keep ng your name out of t, have you been to d that your name wou d be pr vate a throughout these proceed ngs even n a tr a ?

"A don't know that we ever got to that po nt just know n the beg nn ng they sa d that my name wou d be kept out of t
"Q Do you know that now one way or another whether your name w be pr vate throughout the course of the proceed ngs even n a tr a ?
"A don't know that
"Q You don't know that?
"A R ght
"Q Was that ever d scussed w th the C rcu t Attorney's Off ce about how the tr a wou d be hand ed?
"A don't know haven't rea y gotten nto deta s about -- nto deta s about t yet yeah
"Q How the tr a wou d be hand ed w th respect to your name was that ever d scussed w th the C rcu t Attorney's Off ce?
"A 'm sure at some po nt but don't remember
"Q And what was your understand ng as to whether or not your name wou d be pub c n a pub c tr a ?

Page 402

"A: be eve that t's st a poss b ty that, yes, they can keep my name pr vate.
"Q: And was that someth ng that was to d to you by the c rcu t attorneys?
"A: know that that's my understand ng. don't know.
"Q: So -- but you had to get your understand ng from someone, and that wou d have been the c rcu t -- "A: R ght. But don't know f t was from my attorney or the c rcu t attorney.
"Q: Okay. So s that st your understand ng, that your name w be kept pr vate throughout the course of the pub c tr a ?
"A: That's my hope.
"Q: We --
"A: Yes.
"Q: We , hope s d fferent than understand ng. You had an understand ng?
"A: R ght, because don't know for sure.
"Q: But certa n y that understand ng was based on commun cat ons that were prov ded to you, r ght?

Page 403

"A R ght don't know
"Q Okay
"A Yeah
"Q And you shared that -- you shared that understand ng w th your fr end [redacted] d d you not?
"A R ght Yes But t wasn't to the -- because we hadn't even -- noth ng had even started at that po nt
"Q Okay And so after she had had contact w th the awyer and the nvest gator d d you have any fo ow-up contact w th her?
"A know at some po nt d d but not for a wh e after She d dn't -- so she d dn't ever speak to anybody know -- other than she spoke to my attorney for you know a m nute just h m ett ng her know what they're want ng to do and then guess t was T saby or K m 'm not sure
"Q We she sa d n her text d dn't ta k to anybody bes des the awyer and the nvest gator
"A R ght L ke she d dn't get together w th them yet She wou dn't even do that She d dn't --
"Q And she d dn't make t sound ke

Page 404

t was certa n 'm just fee ng the need to back off t's rea y we gh ng heavy on me 'm sorry aga n Okay So was -- d d -- d d -- was your percept on at east that she had a te ephone conversat on?
"A Correct n regards to --
"Q Okay
"A -- meet ng up
"Q And conta ned n that te ephone conversat on t appeared -- and d d you ever ask her whether or not there was a d scuss on as to what pr vacy concerns cou d be assured for her?
"A Not beyond that
"Q -- you d dn't --
"A No
"Q -- have a separate te ephone conversat on where you asked her about th s text?
"A R ght No Not spec f ca y about that "Q But your understand ng was that there was some conversat on w th her where her concerns cou d not have been -- were not --"
MR BARNES A ayed
MR RAZER "-- a ayed" -- thank you -- "and therefore she dec ded not to part c pate and

"A R ght
"Q Okay And aga n we' subst tute c ean cop es ' just show you these texts that 've been ta k ng about and see f you can dent fy them "
Mr Nasser says 81 and go back to say 81
MR BARNES Okay
MR RAZER Mr Stee e says he wants to see that for a second They cont nue to ta k and so we go to ne 13
MR BARNES Yes
BY MR RAZER
"Q Can you te me who [redacted] s?
"A She's a good fr end of m ne who used to work w th
"Q s she a sty st?
"A Not anymore no
"Q Was she a good fr end of yours at the t me of your re at onsh p w th E G ?
"A She had just moved to New York be eve So no d dn't ta k to her dur ng that t me per od
"Q So you d dn't conf de n her or ta k to her about the pr vate nature of your re at onsh p w th E G as t was unfo d ng wou d that be a fa r statement?

"A Correct
"Q So she wou d have been an nd v dua that wou d have earned nformat on after the fact?
"A Yes
"Q And probab y -- do you have any dea what k nd of t me frame she wou d have earned nformat on?
"A No don't reca
"Q So do you reca reach ng out to her after the story became pub c around January 17th of 2018?
"A Not part cu ar y
"Q f showed you her number wou d that refresh your reco ect on of the ser es of texts you had w th her?
"A Sure
"Q Okay
"A Or the actua text yeah
"Q ' show you the text and then ' ask you some quest ons about them wh ch s 82 "

Page 407

They have d scuss ons about that
MS M TTEN "Can have t back then?"
MR RAZER
"Q A r ght Can have t back then?
"A Oh, yeah
"Q Can you dent fy that exh b t, p ease, for me, wh ch s 82?
"A 'm sorry What do you mean?
"Q Can you dent fy 82 for me now hav ng ooked at t?
"A Oh, A text message between [redacted] and "Q Between yourse f and [redacted] Am say ng her name r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Okay So th nk at the top you shared w th her, ' t's rea y a n ghtmare So sad and angry at P S Re v ng th s crazy and pa n and gu t, et cetera So many th ngs ' So you were shar ng w th her your fee ngs at the t me, r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And obv ous y she was try ng to ft you up and te ng you that you're an ncred b e human be ng and those th ngs of that nature r ght?

"A Yes
"Q Wh ch has caused you to potent a y become emot ona r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And at some po nt she says a coup e comments She says that on January -- we you say on January 17th wh ch s about a week ater you text her and say ' 'm a so -- -- and 'm a so -- and 'm a so angry w th P S and how he was hand ng -- hand ng th ngs He's rea y nsane ' That was your fee ng at the t me?
"A Yes
"Q And you thought he was nsane for putt ng th s out n the pub c doma n?
"A am sure for a ot of th ngs yes
"Q Okay And she responds by say ng ' t's k nd of coo you m ght become r ch off of t ' Do you remember that comment?
"A No don't remember that spec f ca y
"Q And you remember your comment ng -- your respond ng 'LOL'?
"A Yeah because t's funny

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 409

"Q: You thought t was funny you may become r ch off of t?
"A: No, because 'm not go ng to.
"Q: Then you went further on th s exh b t and she sa d -- we , you respond she -- 'm sorry. She responds, ' th nk P s more -- s the more unfortunate part of a th s. Why d d he go te ? Don't be scared. Noth ng to be scared of.' And then she says, 'You have us. He s one man w th a few p ctures he can never show.' Do you know what she meant by that?
"A: Yeah, Er c s what she's ta k ng about.
"Q: She's ta k ng about E.G.?
"A: Yes.
"Q: So -- but t was n the con- --
"A: She was say ng don't be scared of the p ctures com ng out, yeah.
"Q: And do you know why she was say ng p ctures?
"A: don't know. That's --
"Q: D d you ever be eve that there -- even from the beg nn ng, d d you be eve n your m nd that there was ever more than one p cture?
"A: No, not necessar y. don't know what he took.

"Q: You don't know --
"A: R ght.
"Q: -- at a , r ght?
"A: R ght.
"Q: And then she sa d --
"A: don't know f he took mu t p e or one.
"Q: And then -- we , you don't know anyth ng about any p ctures rea y, r ght?
"A: Yes, do, yes.
"Q: And she goes on, 'And even f he does, so what. You ook good. know.'
"A: don't know. don't remember that.
"Q: So are you sure she wasn't ta k ng about P?
"A: don't know. Can see that?
"Q: Yeah, because the next th ng she sa d s, 'What d d he do?' And you responded by say ng, 'He texted me a coup e of weeks before and sa d you cheated and ru ned my fe and ru ned our fam y, and you deserved everyth ng com ng to you. That s how nsane he s, meanwh e screw ng another man's w fe LOL,' so t ooks ke t's a part of the same thread Can you take a ook at t and see aga n f that refreshes your reco ect on as to what she -- what you guys were ta k ng about?

"A Yeah She's def n te y ta k ng about E G 100 percent
"Q Okay
"A When she says 'Don't be scared noth ng to be scared of ' because she was st th nk ng the ma n th ng was afra d of was p ctures com ng out yeah and she was say ng what P d d ke yeah
"Q Was P n possess on of any p ctures of you that caused you any concern? P S
"A No that -- that wasn't what th s was n regards to no
"Q Pardon me?
"A No That was not a concern of m ne at th s po nt
"Q Where does [redacted] current y work do you know?
"A She ves n New York
"Q She ves n New York?
"A R ght
"Q n Manhattan?
"A 'm not sure --

Page 412

"Q: Do you --
"A: -- what part.
"Q: What does she do there, f you know?
"A: She s ke a f nanc a ana yst, be eve.
"Q: Do you know the name of the company?
"A: have no c ue.
"Q: Do you have the current te ephone number?
"A: don t know. be eve that s probab y her te ephone number st , yes.
"Q: Are you certa n of that, or s that just a guess?
"A: mean, t shou d be.
"Q: Okay. mean, have you used t ate y?
"A: Whenever th s was, so ...
"Q: Okay. Was that the ast t me you ve been n contact w th her?
"A: Yes.
"Q: You haven t been n contact w th her -- contact w th her s nce January?
"A: We , saw her. She came to

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 413

town There was ke a who e group of us sa on peop e who got together for breakfast
"Q Okay
"A But, no, as far as ta k, we haven't ta ked s nce then
"Q And who s [redacted]?
"A She's a so a g r used to work w th, a good fr end of m ne too
"Q And she was a good fr end at the t me you were n th s re at onsh p, or was that subsequent?
"A She was a good fr end at the t me; however, she ved n no s She a ready moved sa ons as we So, no, d dn't ta k to her on a regu ar bas s "Q Okay Was she ab e to know -- was she ab e to -- d d you conf de n her at a dur ng the course of your re at onsh p w th E G ?
"A No, d d not
"Q So aga n, everyth ng she wou d have earned wou d have been after the fact?
"A Correct
"Q 'm go ng through some of these texts that you had w th her start ng, th nk, n February of 2018, just a coup e of months ago At some po nt you say -- and he s a man whore Wou d you be referr ng to P S ?

Page 414

"A Yes know what you're speak ng of
"Q And you to d her to go ahead and watch the news story the f rst one that came out P ease don't ta k to anyone Why -- why wou d you do that f you were try ng to keep th s story pr vate?
"A So f you go up n the conversat on what happened was th s was a g r who knew very we that hadn't spoken to She knew -- she d dn't know that that was me When she texted me that cou d te from her text she st d dn't know t was me She was ask ng f t was P wh ch she was correct but then she assumed that t was P's new g r fr end
"Q [Redacted]?
"A Yes So rep ed back Go because knew as soon as she hears my vo ce she's go ng to fee you know horr b e for not rea z ng that t was me And then she texted me ater w th now th s g r th nks that t's a dream because that was out n the med a too
"Q Okay So she was bas ca y g v ng you her vers ons of what was go ng on?

Page 415

"A From --
"Q W thout know ng she -- w thout know ng -- w thout know ng she was ta k ng about you?
"A Exact y
"Q And then you -- you came c ean that she was ta k ng about you?
"A Yes
"Q Because you got nsu ted that she -- et me start that over apo og ze
Because you got nsu ted that she sa d now th s g r s ta k ng about a dream?
"A Th s g r s crazy
"Q R ght
"A She has no c ue what she's ta k ng about
"Q So based on the news report your fr end [redacted] was essent a y what you be eved nsu t ng you w thout know ng t?
"A Yes
"Q And you fe t you had to set the record stra ght?
"A Yes
"Q And spec f ca y about th s ssue about the -- now, the g r s say ng t was a dream; s that true?

"A: We , just spec f ca y that t was about me and she was assum ng that t wasn't.
"Q: Okay. 'm go ng to show you an exh b t that we' mark 84, and f you can just dent fy that. 83? And can you dent fy -- can you dent fy that for, me p ease.
"A: A conversat on between [redacted] and .
"Q: R ght, okay. And that obv ous y appears to be a fa r and accurate descr pt on of the conversat on you had?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And w th respect to the other exh b ts, they a appear to be fa r y and accurate y dep ct ng the conversat on that you had dur ng the text exchange and threads?
"A: Yes.
"Q: So you fee the need to correct the record. D d t -- we , te me how that made you fee when you heard that peop e were say ng that th s g r s crazy and that t was a dream.
"A: We , n part cu ar, peop e who know very we who -- she knows me and knows that that's not the case, you know. t was hurtfu that obvious y peop e can say whatever the heck they want to say.

HEARING 5/23/2018

"Q: But specifica y with regard -- with respect to your friend [redacted], how did you correct the record? What did you say? mean, there's no text, so wou d assume it wou d be by conversation, te ephone conversation, right?

"A: Right. After she sent me the text about the dream, ca ed her and just said [redacted], it's me. And she was just ike, K., oh, my God. What the heck? Which -- we , then what is this? So was ab e to exp ain, which of course she understood. And then she was just ike, 'm so sorry.

"Q: We , what did you te her? How did you exp ain it?

"A: said was speaking in regards to whether or not had never testified to seeing a phone. And the reason why is because that my memory of seeing it. do have a memory of seeing it, but it's not strong enough for me to testify to it, so haven't testified to anything that 'm not strong enough in my -- strong enough in my memory of it. She was ike, Oh, my gosh. This is crazy. But it can be done and sa d

"Q Let me hand -- what's been marked 84 and f you can take a ook at th s for me p ease

MS M TTEN Mr S mpson nterjects and says "Can we take a break and f nd a t ssue?" Whereupon a d scuss on was he d off the record and there --

MR BARNES Take a break at 10 50

MS M TTEN Back on the record and -- and shou d we sw tch?

MR BARNES And that's where they break the r record 'm not nterested n break ng your guys' record so ' be the quest oner and --

MS M TTEN Okay Ready to go

MR BARNES "Mr Rosenb um ' wa t unt t's back n front of you Are you ready?

"A Yes

"Q Look ng at Exh b t 84 can you te me what th s s?

"A These are -- th s s ke my journa

"Q So these wou d be just entr es you wou d make on your phone and ater p aced n a journa or was th s ongo ng?

Page 419

"A No t was just thoughts that put down

"Q Okay So they were not go ng to be sent to anybody or d rected to anybody?

"A Never

"Q Those were just your journa thoughts for your own?

"A Meant to be for my own

"Q For your own use okay And nc denta y the phone that was forens ca y ooked at th nk you prev ous y sa d you've had the same phone s nce 2015?

"A Yes

"Q Yeah Was that the phone?

"A Yes got t n June of 2015

"Q June of 2015?

"A Correct

"Q So you wou d have gotten t dur ng the -- we st wh e you were n an ongo ng re at onsh p w th E G ?

"A Yes

"Q Just pr or to your f rst reconc at on w th P S r ght?

"A Correct?

"Q And the search revea ed no text messages between yourse f and E G ?

Page 420

"A Correct

"Q And why was that?

"A We never texted each other

"Q You never texted?

"A Never

"Q Not on any phone?

"A No

"Q Can have that exh b t back p ease? Thank you So ook ng at 84 wh ch you've nd cated was a journa you started that on Apr 18th at 6 50 t ooks ke 6 51 a m then mod f ed at 7 09 a m Does that seem about r ght?

"A Yeah

"Q So probab y before you went to work one morn ng?

"A Yes

"Q And t wou d have been by my reco ect on after your f rst depos t on?

"A guess so yes

"Q D d anyth ng about the depos t on cause you to p ace these thoughts down n wr t ng?

"A 'm sure there were ots of th ngs that caused me to put that down

"Q But these were your thoughts at the t me?

"A Yes
"Q Okay And then want to show you what's been marked 84 and f you can dent fy that for me
"A t's -- t's --
"Q 85 Can you dent fy that for me?
"A t's another journa entry
"Q And that wou d have been on Apr 10th be eve?
"A Yes
"Q And aga n be eve that was approx mate y four days after your depos t on?
"A don't know the date
"Q The depos t on s Apr 6th 2018 That wou d make sense t's your f rst depos t on r ght?
"A R ght
"Q And aga n those -- that's a fa r y -- a fa r and accurate dep ct on of your thoughts that you put nto your journa at the t me?
"A Yes
"Q And then ast y ' show you what's been marked as Exh b t 86 n the same ser es of quest ons Do you know when you made those entr es?

"A: No, don't know spec f ca y. mean, dur ng -- obv ous y after a th s came out. don't know spec f ca y.
"Q: And aga n, the same quest on. Those were your journa thoughts at the t me?
"A: Yes. Do you know the dates on th s?
"Q: The date? The date was -- the date doesn't appear on that, but my -- t's my understand ng the date was January 26th, 2018. Does that sound about r ght?
"A: Okay. Yeah.
"Q: And that wou d have been about two days after you f rst met w th Ms. Gardner. Do you remember wr t ng down some thoughts after that?
"A: don't remember spec f ca y the t me ne.
"Q: Okay. So as you can mag ne, we had a substant a amount of text messages from you and Jay Dud [phonet c].
"A: [Redacted].
"Q: [Redacted] [redacted] and you and P.S., r ght?
"A: Yes.

Page 423

"Q: That certa n y wou d be cons stent w th your reco ect on, r ght?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And you -- you don't take ssue w th the fact these are actua fa r and accurate dep ct ons of the texts that you wou d have sent to them, r ght?
"A: R ght.
"Q: And the common th ng a ong w th P.S. s you wou d often say that you were try ng to p ay the v ct m and that you had caused a th s and that k nd of stuff, r ght?
"A: Correct.
"Q: Bas ca y at t mes he ca ed you a soc opath, r ght?
"A: 'm sure.
"Q: s that -- s that cons stent w th your memory?
"A: Yes, th ngs of that nature, yes.
"Q: Okay. So what want to do now, we had a fu -- at east 40 pages that we rece ved n the transcr pt that were not conta ned n Mr. T saby's memorandum narrat ve, okay? So d d you ever see -- has anyone ever showed you T saby's memorandum that conta ned h s mpress ons of your nterv ew w th h m on the 29th? Have you ever ooked at that document?

"A No don't be eve so no
"Q Has anybody ever d scussed that document w th you?
"A No
"Q So you reca hav ng you know a fa r y s gn f cant meet ng at east two hours or so And a ot of what you d scussed n that meet ng was your re at onsh p w th P S after th s came out r ght?
"A Yeah remember ta k ng about that
"Q Okay D d anybody -- d d you ever nqu re or was there ever a d scuss on that you reca as to why that substant a port on of your nterv ew w th T saby may have never made t nto h s report?
"A No had -- don't know what's n any of that stuff no
"Q And wou d t be fa r to say that you -- as you went through th s process not on y w th E G but w th P S that you were dea ng w th a ot of conf ct n your own m nd? Wou d t be fa r to say?

"A Can you restate that?
"Q That when you went through th s re at onsh p w th E G and then how t trans t oned nto try -- n Ju y as try ng to reconc e w th P S and u t mate y be eve n October s when t f na y ended and there was no further contact w th E G and that was -- you had to go through a process of an ema that was sent to h m say ng Do not contact me anymore correct?
"A Correct
"Q And dur ng that per od of t me you were dea ng w th a ot of fee ngs and conf ct about both men correct?
"A Yes
"Q Okay And may have asked you th s and don't want to repeat myse f but do you reca when you sent that ema to E G about not com ng to the sa on anymore that was at the d rect on of P S r ght?
"A A suggest on yes
"Q Okay Do you reca whether he ooked over your shou der and took a p cture of t?
MS M TTEN "Stee e 'm go ng to object to th s ne of quest on ng We went through chambers My understand ng was the quest on ng

BY MR BARNES
"Q Do you -- do you know the answer to that?
"A No don't know don't -- don't reca spec f ca y
"Q Okay And then on page 32 -- and 'm just go ng to ask you for some context of th s T saby asked you 'Okay The med ator that you met the med ator?
'K S Aga n med ator ke an attorney to ta k about how to move forward w th our d vorce And at th s po nt knew for sure 'm not go ng to see E G aga n n that context And at -- or after the med ator ke the next day sa d to my husband s there anyth ng that we eft -- that we have eft to sa vage? Do you th nk we can work on anyth ng at th s po nt? To wh ch he to d me We he wou d have to th nk about t because you know whatever So that fo ow ng week he dec ded yes he d d want to work on th ngs w th me but he had to be honest w th me as ong as was honest w th h m And that's when he went nto some of the re at ons w th some of the other women.'

Do you reca that exchange?
"A: Yes.
"Q: So at that po nt there was ke a crossroads n your fe. You rea zed that when you sa d you're not go ng to be w th E.G. n that context anymore, that wou d be n the context of an ongo ng re at onsh p, r ght?
"A: R ght, or any -- yeah.
"Q: Because he had -- he had essent a y ended t as he -- as we ta ked about n Ju y, and t was -- when he came back n, you cou dn't go down that road aga n caus ng the ema to be sent at -- at P.S.'s request. s that genera y what's go ng on?
"A: Yes.
"Q: Okay. And then t was at that po nt as you were f rst go ng through the med ator that you wanted to take a new ook to see whether or not you cou d resurrect th ngs w th P.S.?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And that was the status unt sort of unannounced E.G. wa ked nto your sa on, and th nk you gave h m a ha rcut. You to d P.S., and that was t. That was the end of t?

Page 428

"A T me ne-w se yes
"Q Okay So -- and before go nto some of these ast 40 pages or so and you may not remember th s but do you reca when you were s tt ng w th T saby dur ng that meet ng? That was the f rst t me you met h m correct?
"A Correct
"Q Had he actua y -- d d he te you that he had not spoken to anybody at a about your story so to speak and he wanted a fresh take?
"A don't remember that
"Q Does that sound fam ar to you?
"A No don't remember that spec f ca y
"Q You don't remember that?
"A No know he to d me why he was there that he was go ng to take a fresh --
"Q Okay
"A He was go ng to be ke another person to ook at t
"Q D d he ever te you whether he acqu red any nformat on before quest on ng you or ta k ng to you?
"A Not that reca
"Q So t wou dn't have been unusua

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 429

then or noth ng wou d have stood out about h m at the t me, for nstance, hav ng names of your fr ends that you hadn't prov ded yet that he had a ready had. For nstance, he was ab e to come up w th the names [redacted] when you ment oned [redacted]. He had a ready knew her ast name. D d you quest on how he got that nformat on?

"A: don't remember.

"Q: D d that str ke you as unusua that he a ready had the name of your fr end [redacted] w thout te ng you?

"A: No. don't reca . mean, yeah. don't know.

"Q: D d t str ke you as unusua that he was ab e to come up w th the name [redacted], your fr end, [redacted], w thout you te ng h m?

"A: don't remember spec f ca y, no.

"Q: Whether that struck you as unusua -- unusua ?

"A: mean, t obv ous y d dn't because don't remember that so --

"Q: And you d dn't ask h m where he got the nformat on? You just cont nued to answer the quest ons, r ght?

"A: Yes, correct.

Page 430

"Q And at some po nt when he came up w th the name [redacted], wh ch was P's then g r fr end -- and aga n, the same quest on You d dn't ask how he got that nformat on?

"A R ght

"Q So some of the th ngs you to d h m about P's conduct -- and just want to go over t because t wasn't conta ned n the memorandum

"A Okay

"Q And before start, do you ever reca ear y on n your re at onsh p w th E G where you sent h m an angry ema ear y on n the re at onsh p?

"A No, don't reca that

"Q How many ema s tota do you th nk you wou d have sent to E G ?

"A don't know A few Maybe three don't remember spec f ca y

"Q Who s [redacted]?

"A 'm sorry One of h s [redacted]

"Q [Redacted] And that was a name that actua y s not conta ned n h s memorandum, but you quest oned t -- he quest oned you about her Do you reca that?

"A Not spec f ca y, no

"Q Do you reca any s gn f cance about [redacted] as you s t here now?

"A No not spec f ca y

"Q Are you st fr ends w th h m?

"A Yes am

"Q s P S st fr ends?

"A can't mag ne very c ose no but they m ght be

"Q Do you have any know edge how T saby got those names?

"A No not spec f ca y un ess ke what was sa d about [redacted]?

"Q [Redacted]

"A Yeah

"Q We the context was --

"A L ke d d say t?

"Q don't want to m squote myse f so et me ask you th s He suggested a name [redacted] t appears okay?

"A Okay

"Q Now had you ever -- do you reca whether you prov ded that name [redacted] to e ther Ms Gardner on the 24th or anybody e se assoc ated w th the C rcu t Attorney's Off ce?

"A may have to Ms Gardner but

don't remember our spec f c conversat on. But that was part of t. That's part of the story.

"Q: don't reca see ng that name n the notes. Do you have any nformat on as to whether T saby actua y nterv ewed P -- P.S.?

"A: have no c ue. don't know.

"Q: Do you know whether he d d?

"A: No, have no c ue.

"Q: Have you ever heard that he d d?

"A: 've never heard of that, but have no c ue.

"Q: On so page 18, he comes up w th -- there's th s exchange. You sa d [redacted] and T saby says [redacted]. And that's the f rst t me [redacted] ntroduced nto the d scuss on?

"A: Okay.

"Q: Accord ng to the transcr pt -- and you sa d no -- that's [redacted], not [redacted]. T saby sa d th s one s [redacted], and th nk the context was that you had to d [redacted] and [redacted] about what had happened n the sa on, the f rst event, r ght?

"A: Okay, yes.

"Q: D d -- d d he -- d d you ask h m how he got the name [redacted] or who he had ta ked

HEARING 5/23/2018

to?
"A don't remember
"Q We there's noth ng on the transcr pt so --
"A R ght don't know don't remember spec f ca y --
"Q Okay
"A -- that conversat on
"Q And what's your re at onsh p w th [redacted]?
"A She's a good fr end
"Q D d you conf de anyth ng e se n her other than that f rst event March 6th March 7th?
"A Not unt th s came out no
"Q So noth ng at a unt th s a came out n the news?
"A Correct
"Q Okay Do you reca whether you had prov ded the name [redacted] as your marr age counse or to Ms Gardner?
"A don't remember that spec f ca y but that was on the f rst tape do know that "Q t was on the f rst tape correct?

Page 434

"A Yeah But don't remember say ng th s name spec f ca y no
"Q Okay So aga n on page 32 t ooks ke when you ta ked about when you were suggest ng a med ator for the d vorce Mr T saby responds as the med ator named [redacted] wh ch wou d have been wrong That was your marr age counse or r ght?
"A R ght
"Q And d d you ask h m at that t me how he obta ned that nformat on that name?
"A don't know
"Q D dn't str ke you as odd?
"A rea y don't remember
"Q Okay
"A Yeah
"Q So on page 38 of the v deo transcr pt you're te ng Mr T saby that n June that was the f rst -- that was the occas on where P S sat down your ent re fam y and to d about th s re at onsh p w th E G ?
"A Yes
"Q And obv ous y you had qu te a v scera react on to that correct?
"A Yes

Page 435

"Q th nk that that was dur ng the t me you to d h s fam y too, correct?
"A Yeah 'm not sure when he to d h s fam y, but he d d
"Q So n June you were st n the re at onsh p unt Ju y, r ght?
"A Yes, to some extent Whatever
"Q And u t mate y you d scussed w th Mr T saby that you knew essent a y from the very beg nn ng that your ex-husband, P S , was te ng everybody about th s s tuat on, r ght?
"A Yes knew of h m te ng a ot of peop e
"Q So he certa n y wasn't try ng to tamp the story down He was try ng to pub c y embarrass you?
"A That --
MR BARNES "Object on Ca s for specu at on" from Stee e
Mr Rosenb um back
"Q We , you're aware that he was te ng your story pub c y, r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And n fact, he was do ng t n such a way to, you be eve, embarrass you, r ght, and hum ate you?

Page 436

"A d dn't fee he was try ng to keep th ngs qu et and --
"Q And you to d Mr T saby that you were actua y scared because -- and you answered what was the extent he wou d go -- wou d he go to you know of the acts of a these d sc osures? You actua y to d h m that you were scared of that r ght?
"A don't remember that spec f c th ng yeah
"Q can show you the transcr pt
"A Yeah
"Q Do you want to see the transcr pt?
"A Yes p ease
"Q Okay You can ook at the top of page 40
"A Oh yes
"Q Does that refresh your reco ect on?
"A Yeah
"Q Can have that back? Because that wou d be fa r -- wou d t be fa r to say that even dur ng the per ods of -- ever s nce the beg nn ng of -- that you can reca that your ex was obsessed w th E G r ght constant y ask ng quest ons about h m?

"A R ght t fe t that way yes
"Q And that was cons stent you know start ng before the actua March 25th tape and cont nued through the course of your re at onsh p th s obsess on as you ca ed t r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And that was cons stent w th h s persona ty as we've d scussed r ght?
"A 'm sorry n what?
"Q That he was obsess ve n track ng and do ng a that stuff r ght?
"A He wou d do that
"Q So at one po nt you te Mr T saby on page 40 u t mate y why the d vorce had to happen r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Do you reca that?
"A don't reca say ng t but yeah
"Q And th nk what you sa d was and th s was n the context of a these -- those d sc osures and you sa d 'After October the reason why we went through t w th the d vorce s because after sent that ema ' -- and that was the ema he asked you to send r ght?

"A Yes
"Q -- 'to EEG he st cou dn't be w th me ' Mr T saby sa d 'Uh-huh ' 'And at th s po nt was so exhausted hear ng 'm a whore everyth ng s my fau t be ng nterrogated a the t me about those -- these nstances and then had seen Er c and sa d that's f ne f you want a d vorce 've done everyth ng that you asked me 'm so exhausted can't do th s t's -- that's f ne '
Do you reca that?
"A Yes
"Q And that was -- and when -- when you're ta k ng about that was another reference that you descr bed P S as sort of engag ng n what you wou d descr be as nterrogat on Okay?
"A Yes
"Q So you know as -- as awyers we sort of have an dea of what that means to be nterrogated What -- how -- what wou d you descr be? How were you -- what does that mean to you that he was constant y nterrogat ng you?
"A He wou d say th ngs He wou d start w th one quest on, wh ch wou d ead to another, wh ch wou d ead to another, wh ch wou d ead to another. So t was as f he had the answer n h s m nd and unt he got the answer he was ook ng for, he wasn't go ng to stop w th the quest on ng.

"Q: And how ong wou d t go on? G ve me an examp e. How ong wou d he cont nue to nterrogate you about any nstance and every deta ?
"A: don't know spec f ca y, but t cou d ast hours.
"Q: L ke hours at a t me?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And t was dur ng the course of these nterrogat ons you moved forward that you wou d from t me to t me prov de more nformat on to h m, correct?
"A: Correct.
"Q: And as you were try ng, as you were prov d ng more nformat on dur ng some of these nterrogat on encounters, wou d t be fa r to say that you were a so ook ng to -- for h m to -- to show you a tt e empathy?
"A: Not necessar y empathy, but just to stop, ke, have you gotten enough. Let's just stop and move on

"Q We actua y you ment on on page 21 and the other th ng that know d d -- and th s was n reference to not n t a y te ng h m about for nstance that he ca ed you a whore okay that you're c a m ng that E G ca ed you a whore you d dn't te h m about that and th nk you a so d dn't te h m -- you're c a m ng you d dn't te your husband P S n that f rst nstance about any ora sex r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And your exp anat on was knew that my husband wou d f p e ther way but not -- you know was just hop ng that he wou d have empathy or whatever so he wou d understand
"A Oh r ght about the th ngs that were --
"Q Com ng out?
"A -- rea y rea y d fferent -- d ff cu t for me to dea w th
"Q And?
"A But not the other th ngs guess to c ar fy d dn't need empathy about the th ngs knew was do ng wrong and stuff ke that wanted to move on from that

"Q So t wou d be dur ng the course of these somet mes mu t p e-hour nterrogat ons th nk you sa d that you wou d then prov de from t me to t me more nformat on about your sexua encounters w th E G r ght?
"A Yes
"Q th nk for nstance f my memory serves t was n Ju y when you reconc ed and dur ng one of these nterrogat on sess ons that you had prov ded nformat on that you c a med that E G s apped you r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And that was aga n dur ng one of those quote-unquote nterrogat on sess ons r ght?
"A t was yeah dur ng a ne of quest on ng
"Q Wou d that a so be true w th -- when you to d P S that you're c a m ng that on -- that on an occas on E G ca ed you a whore?
"A On that certa n occas on?
"Q Yeah Dur ng one of those nterrogat on sess ons
"A don't know f to d h m that or not 'm not sure
"Q That certa n y wasn't n the 25th

"A Oh March
"Q Yeah
"A Correct
"Q And mean we've seen the text messages and 've heard your -- and 've read a these transcr pts t's fa r to say that that was a frequent term that P S eve ed aga nst you?
"A Th ngs of that nature yes
"Q We and th nk what you sa d was on page 40 at th s po nt was so exhausted hear ng 'm a whore
"A R ght just genera yeah n genera
"Q You say t was so frequent y that you were exhausted by t r ght?
"A R ght Not by that spec f c term but just you know you went nto another woman's home Who are you? You're d sgust ng You know th ngs of that nature
"Q Everyth ng s your fau t and you're be ng nterrogated a the t me r ght?
"A Correct
"Q That's what you sa d to T saby
A r ght Now do you reca te ng Mr T saby that w th respect to your husband's spec f c threats that he d dn't want to put words n your mouth but that you were petr f ed of those threats?

Page 443

"A Who d dn't want to put words n my mouth?
"Q Mr T saby d dn't want to put words n your mouth
"A Oh
"Q But he was ask ng about the spec f c threats that P S made towards you?
"A Oh
"Q And that you were petr f ed by those threats?
"A Yes
"Q That wou d be cons stent -- cons stent from -- essent a y from the t me that you made that record ng w thout know ng t up unt the ent re severa years ago r ght that he wou d cont nue to make threats?
"A Yes On occas on he d d
"Q And he wou d cont nue t wou d not be uncommon for h m to te you that he cou d ru n you n 30 seconds and ru n E G n 30 seconds?
"A He has sa d that yes
"Q Mu t p e occas ons correct?

Page 444

"A: Things of that nature, yes.
"Q: So that made you suspect that he may have something recorded, because you know your husband, but you certain y had no proof that he had anything recorded at that time, right?
"A: We , had that one -- or didn't have it, but no. guess he didn't text it to me. knew that he recorded me for, ike, a itt e snip during an argument, and f ipped out, ye ing at him.
"Q: Okay. So et's back up.
"A: Yeah.
"Q: He recorded you during --
"A: This is back when -- this is when we were back together.
"Q: Okay. So he records you in an unre ated argument?
"A: Oh, yeah, yeah.
"Q: Okay. So you knew he was capab e of recording, and that wou d have been sometime in -- between Ju y and October?
"A: Yes.
"Q: And he sent you a snippet basica y to show you how you sounded when you were arguing?

"A Yes
"Q Am gett ng that r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Okay And bas ca y try ng to put you down Fa r enough?
"A Yes
"Q Okay But you d dn't know -- and 'm go ng to just get ahead of myse f You d dn't know that he had actua y surrept t ous y recorded you a though you may have suspected t because of h m constant y threaten ng you that he cou d ru n you and th ngs of that nature r ght?
"A Yes But after we were for sure gett ng d vorced remember a spec f c conversat on where he sa d ' have proof ' He had sa d ' can ru n you and have proof '
"Q 'And have proof ' Now th nk at one po nt you sa d that that -- you sa d that was maybe somet me between -- r ght after the d vorce n October r ght?
"A R ght L ke r ght after October was when we for sure dec ded to get a d vorce
"Q So t was r ght after that?
"A Correct
"Q That have proof and can ru n

Page 446

you and a so ru n A.G. -- E.G., r ght?
"A: R ght. Or ru n you both.
"Q: R ght.
"A: Or don't remember the spec f c conversat on.
"Q: And that was -- and n that context, you sa d you suspected, we , what does that mean? Maybe he does have some sort of record ng?
"A: Correct.
"Q: But aga n, you had no proof, r ght?
"A: No.
"Q: And that was the sort -- that was sort of the status of your understand ng of any surrept t ous record ng up unt th s story started to break, r ght?
"A: R ght.
"Q: And you n t a y started th nk ng that he may have rea y had the tape when the newspeop e -- when Ms. Trager, Lauren Trager, came to you and had some deta s that seemed to be spec f c to that conversat on that you had on the 25th, r ght?
"A: Yes.

"Q And then you're th nk ng to yourse f th s guy may rea y -- may have rea y recorded me?
"A Yes
"Q But even at that t me -- and th s wou d have been n ear y January or so to speak the f rst contact some of the f rst contact w th you and Trager r ght?
"A R ght
"Q But even at that t me you're th nk ng or at east hop ng that whatever he recorded was e ther muff ed or unusab e and t wasn't worth anyth ng?
"A Yes
"Q And just want to make sure have the t me ne accurate y So you on y knew for certa n that he d d n fact record you when you saw t on TV?
"A Yes
"Q And then he was n a s houette ta k ng and you recogn zed obv ous y t as P S ?
"A Yes
"Q That's when you rea zed that he d d n fact do what he had sa d he had done and he had the ab ty to carry out those threats and was actua y do ng t?

"A Yes
"Q nc denta y do you keep your texts or do you de ete them?
"A mean t just depends n genera yes just keep them But have ke the t n est phone ever t's e ght g gabyte th nk So ' erase stuff that means noth ng or you know but n genera keep most texts
"Q And some of the th ngs that he wou d constant y eve aga nst you after he found out about your re at onsh p w th E G and cons stent y through the next severa years was he wou d constant y say you ru ned your fam y and that you were a home wrecker th ngs of that nature r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And you make a statement to T saby And 'm cur ous You sa d so at some po nt He sa d to me ' cou d ru n you at any moment ' and sa d 'How?' Or ' cou d ru n you both' and sa d 'How ' because the way he threatened t and that's the way you had just had to know that -- my ex-husband He's the type of guy that wou d be ke -- you don't even know He's just that k nd of guy What d d you mean?

"A 'm not sure spec f ca y don't know Can read t?
"Q Sure
"A Just -- yeah
"Q t's on -- t's between nes and 6 and 12 on page 43
"A Oh yeah He wou d say th ngs ke so before knew before he sa d K have proof of t he wou d say you don't even know ke you know He wou d just g ve me that sort of have someth ng secret ve that you're never go ng to know You know stuff ke that
"Q So t was not on y h s words t was h s act ons?
"A Yes
"Q And t was the manner n wh ch he conveyed t?
"A Yes
"Q And th nk at some po nt you used the word 'menac ng ' Wou d that be a fa r dep ct on of how he wou d portray th s nformat on to you that he had?
"A don't know that that's --
"Q D d he act n a menac ng fash on?

Page 450

"A don't know That doesn't sound ke h m don't th nk 'm not sure
"Q We you certa n y knew what he meant r ght?
"A Yes My ex-husband yes
"Q You to d Mr T saby that when he wou d odge these threats at you about ru n ng you and what an awfu person what he can do to you t was a ways around pub c y hum at ng you and th ngs of that nature r ght? And ru n ng your reputat on th ngs of that nature?
"A That's how took t yes
"Q And Mr T saby asked you -- T saby asked you d d -- asked you 'D d you fee threatened by t?' And you sa d 'Yes ' 'And d d you fee nt m dated by t?' And you sa d 'Yes ' And he asked you 'Why d d you fee th s way?' And you responded by say ng 'Because knew he was ma c ous ' Was that a true?
"A Yes at the t me abso ute y fe t that way
"Q We not on y at that t me You're recount ng th ngs on the 29th of January r ght?
"A R ght

"Q And except for -- as 've gone through a th s d scovery except for very br ef t mes he was -- he be ng P S -- was cons stent and sort of w th th s ongo ng campa gn of harassment for ack of a better word?
"A Yes
"Q And threats r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And expos ng you and expos ng the s tuat on a of that stuff r ght?
"A He wou dn't f at out say 'm go ng to put th s out n the news med a He wou d say stuff ke that ke you don't even know whatever
"Q D d he g ve you any nd cat on that he was concerned about the story be ng pub c?
"A No
"Q t wou d be to the contrary r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Exact y 180 degrees d fferent?
"A From my perspect ve yes
"Q We and you're bas ng t on h s words and h s act ons r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Because you knew from h s act ons that nformat on was gett ng back to you from var ous sources r ght?

Page 452

"A Yes
"Q And you knew that he d dn't put t out there r ght?
"A Correct
"Q And the sources that were com ng back to you w th th s nformat on appeared to be sources that were connected to P S r ght?
"A Correct
"Q So there was no doubt n your m nd that he was the one that was d ssem nat ng th s nformat on and try ng to make t not pr vate correct?
"A Correct
"Q And at t mes you wou d ask h m you wou d have conversat ons about not on y the effect t was go ng to have on you and your hum at on and your embarrassment but the effect t was go ng to have on your ch dren r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And he d dn't seem to care He wou d just c rc e back to the fact that you ru ned your fam y r ght?
"A Yes

Page 453

"Q And that's essent a y -- and that essent a y he wou d treat the ch dren as co atera damage to your conduct?
"A Yes
"Q Wou d -- wou d that a be fa r?
"A Yes
"Q Okay n fact when he used the words 'ma c ous ' Mr T saby fo owed up and sa d 'And h m be ng ma c ous n your own words you fe t that he wou d' -- and you cut h m off and you sa d 'He wou d do whatever whatever t took store th s nformat on oh yeah ' To make you ook bad to embarrass you n pub c and you sa d 'pos t ve y ' r ght?
"A Yeah
"Q s that accurate and true?
"A Yes That's how fe t Abso ute y
"Q And s t -- and how -- and you went on to say because n h s words many many t mes 'm a home wrecker and 'm a whore Mr T saby sa d 'Those are h s exact words?' And you sa d 'Yes just d scuss ng so many t mes And he was go ng to make approx mate pub c '"
There must be an error n trans at on

there
"You sa d 'Oh yeah to embarrass you Many many t mes " He went on to say 'D d you ever ask h m about cons der ng you know the ch dren and the r reputat ons?' 'Many t mes ' That was true what you were say ng to T saby r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And a that stuff was actua y happen ng r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And T saby fo owed up n say ng 'So what he's done he's actua y gone out n pub c and spread a th s nformat on about you r ght?' And you agreed to that correct?
"A Correct
"Q And then there's a so th s s tuat on about you try ng to exp a n to T saby that he had a pub c Tw tter account Exp a n that to me
"A t's -- 'm sorry What s t ta k ng about?
"Q We the context was -- and he a so -- so d dn't -- d dn't know -- d dn't know at the t me -- 'm just quot ng read ng t verbat m

Page 455

"A Yeah
"Q Because fr ends were say ng don't know what's wrong w th h m you know but he keeps tweet ng stuff don't have Tw tter you know He keeps tweet ng stuff But remember th s was dur ng that per od of t me where was try ng very hard to gnore everyth ng so [redacted] and [redacted] T saby and he was tweet ng th s through -- K S through h s pub c account My ex-husband s [redacted] Uh-huh Oh get t That's the Tw tter feed Uh-huh
"So as you know he's got a pub c Tw tter account w th a huge fo ow ng Do you reca that per od of t me?
"A Yes
"Q Was he just tweet ng ke one tt e Tweet?
"A So fr ends of m ne who d d have Tw tter just sa d just want you to know he's putt ng stuff out there ke about E G be ng a home wrecker and stuff of that nature
"Q And --
"A As f he's not try ng to keep th s pr vate at a and he's try ng to --
"Q Can you te me a t me frame that

Page 456

th s was go ng on f you know?
"A don't know spec f ca y but t wou d have been 2016 2017
"Q Okay So cons stent y And was t one tweet or was t severa tweets?
"A remember mu t p e t mes
"Q Mu t p e t mes
"A Them te ng me
"Q And other than referr ng to E G as a home wrecker wou d he spec f ca y refer to you?
"A don't remember that spec f ca y L ke -- know he never put my name on someth ng but --
"Q We th nk he went on -- T saby sa d 'And that's what he was do ng on Tw tter and he was say ng th ngs about you as we ' And you sa d 'K S just no L ke you were w th your -- how was your ha rdresser and stuff ke that just try ng to ke -- so he was d rect ng a ot of th s Tw tter stuff to E G r ght?
"A Yes
"Q But he was mak ng ve ed references to you ke wou d t be fa r to say ke E G how was your ha rdresser th ngs of that nature?

"A Yes
"Q Okay So he d dn't name you by name but he was putt ng your story out there on Tw tter?
"A Yes
"Q And that was happen ng frequent y as we ?
"A don't know about frequent y but know that t was at east mu t p e t mes
"Q And then wou d t be fa r to say that after E G won h s behav or got more errat c and crazy?
"A No
"Q mean P S 's
"A Oh
"Q 'm not ta k ng about -- 'm not ta k ng about E G 's behav or 'm ta k ng about P S 's behav or
"A R ght No not necessar y because before that t was just as bad
"Q Just as crazy and errat c?
"A t was pretty --
"Q And then you wou d go around after E G won and start ta k ng about how crazy he

Page 458

s and -- and then he was mak ng statements to you that he actua y pa d money to make the story qu et?
"A Yes he d d
"Q So th nk n that context you sa d t was your percept on that he was try ng to portray h mse f pub c y as some sort of hero but n fact you knew h m to be the v a n?
"A Yes that's fa r
"Q Because he was essent a y to you y ng about what he was do ng when he was do ng exact y the oppos te Wou d that be fa r?
"A Yes Was speak ng d rect y about when t came out and h s story that he sa d on the news?
"Q No
"A s that --
"Q th nk you were speak ng -- th s was r ght -- th s was after E G won the e ect on h s behav or r ght after that
"A Okay
"Q Wou d you ke to see the context?
"A Oh yeah
"Q Okay
"A Thank you
"Q Take a ook and read t to

Page 459

yourse f t starts on page 49
"A Oh yeah yeah Yes was --
"Q So --
"A was speak ng about how he sa d 'm pay ng a th s money to keep t qu et you know and a these other peop e are try ng to put t out there and -- but knew
"Q You knew the truth --
"A That --
"Q -- that that cou dn't have been?
"A That was -- that was pretty farfetched n my op n on
"Q That was pretty farfetched because you heard peop e com ng back to you from P -- from P S r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And you knew what he was say ng to you r ght?
"A Yes
"Q Essent a y harass ng you w th th s nformat on for years?
"A Yes
"Q And th nk -- th nk at one po nt you descr bed t as he was essent a y te ng anybody who wou d sten about th s s tuat on?

Page 460

"A Yes
"Q And you knew that to be true?
"A We not that he was te ng anybody but d d know he to d an o d fr end of my tt e s ster's
"Q Oh nc denta y s nce we ta ked ast have you rev ewed your depos t ons at a ?
"A No
"Q Or seen the v deos?
"A No have not
"Q Other than what we've d scussed pr or -- prev ous y -- prev ous y about some sect ons that your awyer to d you about that's a you know?
"A Correct
"Q Oh and have you ooked at the v deo of your nterv ew w th T saby?
"A No have not other than that port on that sa d ast t me
"Q The s ent port on?
"A The s ent port on
"Q And -- and once you saw that s ent port on -- port on d d you restore any reco ect on as to what happened dur ng that per od of t me?

"A No don't remember spec f ca y no
"Q mean you cou dn't ook at that and reca what you were ta k ng about dur ng that per od of t me w thout the a d of a transcr pt?
"A Correct
"Q And speak ng of Tw tter just from your text messages there's a ot of text threads about your concern about after the story broke about what was go ng on w th Tw tter Do you reca that?
"A Yes
"Q Was that P S 's Tw tter or just other peop e's Tw tter?
"A There was a Tw tter account that was started
"Q Te me about that
"A There was a Tw tter account ca ed 'Show Me Too" that -- MR AUST N t's been taken down
MS M TTEN t's been taken down
MR BARNES Okay
"Q Show Me Too?
"A We there were two of them that were put out There were one put out ca ed 'Show Me Too that had tweets about the s tuat on and f somebody had ns de nformat on some of t be ng fa se some of t be ng true

Page 462

"Q D d you th nk t was P S ?
"A thought t cou d be
"Q Okay
MR BARNES How about we take a short break?
Ho d on Let's just take a break at 93 We're okay And we' recess for ten m nutes s that -- you can get up and stretch and we'
(Recess taken)
MR BARNES Back on the record
MS M TTEN We are at page 93
"Q Okay
"A And then the same th ng w th there was another one ca ed Gre ten's G r that pretended to be me and put my p ctures up and you know was say ng 'm go ng to revea my dent ty and --
"Q And aga n do you th nk that was P S ?
"A mean thought t cou d be
"Q D d you ever f nd out --
"A t's poss b e
"Q -- who t was?

Page 463

"A No have no c ue
"Q know you made -- you were mak ng a ot of nqu r es and ca ng Tw tter management about tak ng t down?
"A Yes
"Q D d you ever accomp sh that?
"A Yes They d d take t down
"Q And who d d -- was t you or d d somebody do that on your beha f?
"A kept send ng them my ema s sent them a bunch of ema s
"Q Have you kept those ema s?
"A th nk so yes
"Q n those ema s were you ment on ng your be ef that t was P S ?
"A No just sa d th s sn't me Somebody s pretend ng to be me don't -- don't even know f t ets you put words but you put that as an mpersonat on can't remember spec f ca y
"Q Okay Do you reca after the story broke whether or not P S took to Tw tter anymore?
"A That he -- 'm sorry What d d you say?
"Q After th s story broke do you remember whether P S took to Tw tter anymore?

Page 464

"A 'm not sure
"Q So go ng nto your conversat on w th T saby -- we before go there do you know why he was f red [redacted]?
"A mean know the genera reason t was years and years ead ng up to that po nt of h m not be ng -- want ng to be nvo ved n [redacted] stuff He wou dn't get back to ema s He was just k nd of d ff cu t [redacted] and --
"Q Okay
"A And at the very end obv ous y after th s happened [redacted] as we and bas ca y sa d w never speak to h m aga n t was k nd of the straw that broke the came 's back
"Q So h s act v ty and h s behav or by pub c y embarrass ng you was the straw that broke the came 's back?
"A Correct There was -- you know t -- t was ead ng up to that po nt
"Q They had other unre ated ssues?
"A Yes
"Q But when th s came out that was a they needed They had enough r ght?
"A Yes

HEARING 5/23/2018

Page 465

"Q: Does your brother- n- aw speak to P.S. now?
"A: No.
"Q: Does anybody n your fam y speak to P.S.?
"A: No.
"Q: Does your s ster speak to P.S.?
"A: No.
"Q: Do any of the [redacted] speak to P.S., to your know edge?
"A: Not to my know edge, no.
"Q: You go on to say to T saby, and you make th s quote. want to ask you about t. So he re ayed that to my s ster's -- he re ated to that my s ster's husband and other [redacted], anybody who wou d sten, that bas ca y he was the hero because he had pa d money to somebody to keep t qu et, to keep th s nformat on qu et.
"D d he ever te you who supposed y he pa d money to?
"A: No.
"Q: Th s was before he ever h red Mr. Watk ns, r ght?
"A: had no c ue he even h red Mr. Watk ns unt a of --

"Q But the t me frame that he was te ng you th s -- about pay ng money to keep the story qu et wou d th s have been pr or to say the fa of '17?
"A Yes t wou d have been pr or to that "Q t wou d be ke n '16 that k nd of stuff?
"A Yes
"Q As he was harass ng you And you sa d that he had -- Mr T saby -- T saby sa d about you and you sa d r ght nobody had except' -- ' get t r ght 'Nobody had except for through h m wh ch s why knew you know he -- at th s po nt he's try ng to be the hero when he's rea y the v a n you know because of -- so had -- fast-forward heard that E G w ns 'm just devastated because now at th s po nt A know that my ex-husband d dn't get what he wanted '
"Exp a n that to me So th s wou d have been n November of '16 r ght?
"A Yes
"Q And when he d d w n you persona y were devastated?
"A We was devastated because t

Page 467

wasn't go ng to go my way -- go away
"Q Because you were on a persona note regard ess of po t cs you wanted h m to ose because you thought that wou d be the end of the story?
"A R ght f gured a th s wou d go away and nobody s go ng to harass me about t t w just go away
"Q And d d you vote n that e ect on?
"A Yes d d
"Q And d d you vote for the governor?
"A No d d not
"Q You absta ned?
"A Oh vote -- voted for Chr s Koster
"Q Okay Who was a so a c ent?
"A A c ent of m ne
"Q And you sa d you were devastated because you knew that your ex-husband d dn't get what he wanted So had he vo ced someth ng to that effect as -- as to what he wanted?
"A We he texted me that morn ng He sa d 'You rea y p cked a w nner ' and knew He's obv ous y v d He's go ng to cont nue th s He's not go ng to stop

Page 468

"Q So th s harassment was not go ng away?
"A R ght
